FOREWORD

As you hold this new edition of the venerated Geneva Bible, several realities converge in your heart, your mind, and your hands. What are these realities? They include:

History and Legacy It was the Geneva Bible that accompanied our forefathers to the new world. They made history in many ways, not the least of which was a legacy of Scriptural wisdom inspired by the Geneva Bible.

Power and Influence As Paul was not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ, knowing it to be the power of God, committed believers in Christ can, and have, changed the culture with powerful tools like the Geneva Bible's unique translation and wisdom. The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand.

Achievement and Celebration The restoration of the Geneva Bible to American life is both a remarkable achievement and an event that readers can best celebrate by reading and sharing with everyone possible.

Saving Knowledge and Jesus Christ The heart of the Bible is Christ and His glorious salvation. He is the central message of the entire Bible. The Geneva Bible leads you not only to know and love Him as the Sovereign Lord of grace but it also leads you to know and to love Him as the Sovereign Lord of history.

Joy and Hope There is joy because of the rich Biblical theology of God's sovereign grace. And there is thus hope for our fallen world because God's sovereignty can move mountains, bring down strongholds, and turn hearts of stone into hearts of flesh and faith.

Opportunity and Potential With this spiritual arsenal in your hands you are equipped to storm the strongholds with the spiritual wisdom that opened this continent to become the most blessed civilization in history. The restoration of spiritual glory—the potential to reassert our culture's values of freedom, prosperity, education, and truth—is before you.

Scholarship and Ideas The scholars of the past have been united in this edition with contemporary scholars. The Geneva Bible's timeless truths, revolutionary ideas, and spiritual renewal will enable you to renew your heart, inform your mind, and direct your hands. Love the Lord your God with all your heart and mind, and may the ancient and eternal truths in these pages be the pointers on your quest to plumb the treasures of wisdom hidden in Christ.

“The Geneva Bible once changed the world. In your hands you hold something that is about to change the world—again.”

---

Changing the World Simply put, nothing has ever really changed the world except God's power. In your hands you have been given the greatest source of the greatest ideas known to man. The Scriptures, and the wisdom of the theological minds who brought forth the Geneva Bible, will enable you to think God's thoughts after Him because the Bible is His special revelation. Herewith is a resource that you are sure to find indispensable for the study and interpretation of creation as God would have you see it.

The Geneva Bible once changed the world. In your hands you hold something that is about to change the world—again. So use this Bible with care. Use it faithfully with faith. Then watch God once more do above and beyond all that we can ask or imagine.

PREFACE

The God-given vision to restore this special edition of the 1599 Geneva Bible was announced in January of 2004. Soon thereafter a team was organized to reset every word, making no changes except these few: modern spelling; proofreading to ensure word-for-word accuracy with the original 1599 edition; and designing an easy-to-read format. Over the subsequent three years of meticulous work, the production/editorial team witnessed the Providence of God in the daily details. The Lord clearly has ordained this special project and brought it to completion. Our hope is that the Geneva Bible, restored to its rightful place among frequently referenced Scriptures, will remind Christians of their rich heritage in the Protestant Reformation and inspire them to continue advancing the Gospel and Christ's Kingdom with the same passion and conviction of the Reformers.

We would like to share with readers the editorial philosophy and restoration processes we employed as we prepared this edition of the 1599 Geneva Bible.

SOURCE TEXT

Unlike most contemporary Bible translations, which have unvarying contents because of copyright strictures, the Geneva Bible was never a uniform publication. Due to the relative novelty of publishing Bibles in English, as well as the sheer number of printings (approximately 150 in its first 75 years), its many editions often varied in content and presentation.

The Geneva Bible was first published in 1560, and then "in 1576 a revised form of the Geneva Bible was produced by Laurence Tomson, Secretary to Sir Francis Walsingham (then Elizabeth's Secretary of State) and formerly lecturer in Hebrew at Geneva. This contains a few changes in the translation, the most characteristic being Tomson's pedantic rendering of the Greek definite article by 'that' (e.g., Matt. 16.16, 'Thou art that Christ'); but the chief difference is the introduction of an English translation of Theodore Beza's summaries of doctrine and exposition of phrases, in Beza's Latin Bible. In 1598, the annotations on the Book of Revelation by Francis Junius, a Huguenot divine, were introduced into the Geneva Bible" [Metzger, Bruce M., "Book Notes," Theology Today, Vol 46, no 4 (January 1990): 463].

The edition we have chosen as our source is a facsimile of the work of Tomson and Junius, dated 1599; however "in 1599 alone ten editions appeared" [Dr. Roger Nicole, "The Original Geneva Bible," Tabletalk Magazine, Vol. 19, no 4 (April 1995)]. Our source copy was published by L L Brown (The 1599 Geneva Bible. Ozark, MO: LL Brown Publishing, 7th printing, 2003), with an introduction by James W. Bennett, and back matter containing the (undated) Sternhold & Hopkins Psalms. The Apocrypha and metrical Psalms, included in that edition, are omitted here, as well as the brief introductions to the Old Testament books (since they were not available for the New Testament books, we elected to omit them consistently). A "Note to the Reader" in our source copy's front matter, lists errors that, "according to the Historical Catalogue of Printed Bibles," were in the original 1599 edition—indicating an edition printed early enough in 1599 to precede these corrections.

It has been our attempt faithfully to preserve this single source, rather than consult many editions that would risk producing an inauthentic pastiche. The only exceptions are rare indiscernible sections or words; in those cases we have consulted other editions, indicated by citations in brackets.

AUTHENTICITY

Every word, as well as exact sentence structure, of the source edition is retained. We carefully have preserved the use of italics, by which the original translators indicated that they had supplied words not found in the original manuscripts. We retained capitalization of words, even at the risk of presenting anomalies to contemporary eyes. We avoided editorial tinkering in the name of stylistic consistency. Original punctuation was retained except in cases of egregious mistakes or obvious typographical errors in the source edition.

David Norton, in A Textual History of the King James Bible (Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, 2005), describes his own editorial standards for a new edition of the KJB for Cambridge: “Very importantly, [to] not modernise wherever possible. Modernisation must not be at the expense of the text, even if the result is more difficult for the reader” (page 136). Similarly, we did not attempt to make the text readable from a modern standpoint—only to offer contemporary readers what the Geneva Bible said.

ACCESSIBILITY

“The Geneva Bible was written during a period where the English language was transforming from Middle English to Early Modern English.... English was also going through a shift in pronunciation that was caught in the printing press.... Grammar was also changing, due to influence from other languages, the printing press, and from natural simplification.... Sentence structure also changed....” [Bennett, introduction to The 1599 Geneva Bible, 2003, xv-xvii].

The English language evolved in major ways during the writing of the Geneva Bible, and since then has changed even more radically, especially in matters of typography and print. An exact facsimile reprint of the early Geneva Bible, therefore, would be largely inaccessible to the modern reader. We have therefore addressed and updated the spelling of some words, and the appearance of some old letters, for the sake of American readers’ ease of comprehension. Many times this simply meant changing an apparent f to an s; a y to an i; a v to a u; an i to a j; and so forth. For example, instead of what contemporary eyes would read as “Iefus faid vnto him,” we have typeset “Jesus said unto him.”

However, some of the spelling decisions were not as clear-cut:

Possessives We added apostrophes for possessives (which were not used in the English of that day), because these were determined not to be changes in meaning. For instance, where the source text read “God his mercy,” this edition reads “God’s mercy.”

Proper Names We have also changed the spelling of the proper names in the Bible to that of the NKJV, since this can greatly help the contemporary reader, and does not compromise the meaning of the original edition. If, however, the NKJV used a completely different word than the source text, we retained the word from the source text, since to change would be to make a different choice than the original translators made. For example, we did not substitute “Syria” for “Aram.”

Changes in Meaning What seems like a spelling difference sometimes indicates a distinction in meaning that the original translators intended. If we were unable to discern whether that was the case, we retained the language of the source text. For example, we accepted both “bewray” and “betray,” “shamefaced” and “shamefast,” “astonied” and “astonished.”

If, however, 16th-century spellings were freely interchanged with no distinction in meaning – and if that is not the case today – we adjusted the text based on current meaning. For example, the source uses “beside” and “besides” interchangeably, yet through the subsequent years of English usage there has developed a distinction in meaning between the two words; so we used “beside” for “by the side of,” and “besides” for “in addition to.” Other such examples include: “whiles” and “while,” “other” and “others,” “then” and “than.” In such instances the original word no longer gives the original meaning.

We have referred above to philological challenges and typographical errors. Occasional words or passages in the original-source Geneva Bible are beyond the realms of subtle ambiguity or theological debate. For example, in Matthew 3:16, the source Geneva reads that John saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and “lightning” upon Jesus. Because the intended word is so clearly “lighting,” we made the change; but were yet concerned to place that word in brackets, indicating that it was a change from the source edition. Also, as has been noted above, if we have been unable to read our source book and have consulted another Geneva edition, we have enclosed that text in brackets. Withal, there are very few words in brackets in this edition.

Archaic Words If a word is archaic, obsolete, colloquial, such that the meaning is now inaccessible or completely changed, we were careful to retain the original word; to completely change one word to another supersedes a spelling correction and compromises authenticity. Instead we have provided a glossary with short definitions in the back of this edition to help the modern reader. Again, to quote Norton, “The English of the KJB has many archaic words that present... challenges to the understanding, but... it is obvious that changing them is translating them” [A Textual History of the King James Bible, 138]. The Geneva Bible of 1560, being even earlier than the King James Bible of 1611, has many archaic words. The purpose of this edition is to let the reader see what they are, not to see how we decided to translate them.

Indiscernible Text There have been occasions when we simply could not discern the meaning of a word, or the intent of the original translators, either from our original source or from any other resource available to us. In those few cases, we have used ellipses to indicate omitted text.

Study Notes Study notes from the source edition frequently employ wording like “Look afore, chap. 5,29” [found in Matthew 18:8] or “as God command Levit. 23.40” [at Matthew 21:9]. We have standardized all references to Scripture using the book name abbreviations listed on the Books of the Old and New Testaments page in this volume, and using contemporary practice of separating chapter and verse with a colon. In cases like the first one above we simply use, for these examples, “See Matt. 5:29” and “as God commanded, Lev. 23:40.”

CONCLUSION

To God be the glory for allowing us to be used in the restoration of this historic work. The republication of this Bible is an indication that the Lord is a faithful, covenant-keeping God, “That thou mayest know, that the Lord thy God, he is God, the faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy unto them that love him and keep his commandments, even to a thousand generations.” (Deut. 7:9)

Merciful Lord, we ask you to once again grant Repentance, Reformation, and Revival in your Church for the advancement of your Kingdom on earth as it is in heaven. Amen.

The History and Impact of the GENEVA BIBLE

The Bible you hold in your hands, known as “The Geneva Bible,” has been the lost treasure of Christendom for almost four centuries. Nearly forgotten by the modern world, this version of the Holy Scriptures was researched, compiled, and translated into English by exiled Reformers in Geneva, Switzerland, between 1557 and 1560, and was destined to be the major component of the English-speaking people’s rise from the backwaters of history to the center of civilization.

This edition of the Geneva Bible is the first completely new publication since the time of its first issue, and timed for release on the 400th anniversary of the settlement of Jamestown in what is now Virginia. The Geneva Bible surely was carried aboard their three ships that sailed from England in December of 1606. The New England Pilgrims likewise relied on the Geneva Bible for comfort and strength on their 66-day voyage aboard the Mayflower in 1620, and were even more dependent upon it as they wrote the Mayflower Compact, a document unique in world history and the first constitutional government in the western hemisphere.

SETTING THE STAGE

England of 1557 was a society beset by contradictions, oppression, even barbarity. More than 300 men had been burned at the stake by the Catholic tyrant, “Bloody Mary” Tudor, merely for promoting the English Reformation. Many clergymen, Catholic and Protestant both, exacerbated rather than soothed the distress; semi-literate as a class, most received their parish jobs as payoffs and often were unwilling to preach, or incapable of composing sermons. The impoverished and spiritually bereft masses found solace elsewhere—sloth, dissipation, or drink—while the gentry sought after wealth, social position, and favors of royal courts.

Into this seemingly hopeless culture of corruption and error, the light of God’s written Word—in the newly translated, published, and distributed Geneva Bible—inexorably began to liberate the English-speaking people, penetrating hearts and transforming minds. It is no exaggeration to say that the Geneva Bible was the most significant catalyst of the transformation of England, Scotland, and America from slavish feudalism to the heights of Christian civilization.

As the first Bible to be read by the common people in English, the Geneva Bible inspired those who championed self-government, free enterprise, education, civic virtue, protection of women and children, and godly culture. John Knox preached with power from the Geneva Bible at St. Giles Cathedral in Edinburgh, mightily influencing Scotland’s restoration from clan-dominated, semi-pagan barbarity to Christian faith and liberty. The legendary Soldier’s Pocket Bible, famous as the spiritual companion to Oliver Cromwell’s Christian soldiers in the English civil war, was composed of verses from the Geneva translation. And it was the Geneva Bible that was carried and read by the Pilgrims as they landed in the wilderness of America and extrapolated concepts of civic morality from its pages as they laid foundation-stones of the world’s first constitutional republic.

For more than 1500 years, an unfettered spread of the Gospel in the world was stymied without a reliable, written version of God’s Word in the common language of the people. Rome’s missionaries and monasteries had played their roles in civilizing the pagan tribes of Europe and establishing Christian authority. But abuse of power and perversion of truth by prelates and kings were commonplace by the Renaissance.

The providential invention of movable type, enabling not just the publication but the practical distribution of the Geneva Bible, freed God's Book from the echoes of august cathedrals and the dead Latin language into the lives and homes, hearths and hearts, of everyday people in the English-speaking world.

HISTORY OF THE GENEVA BIBLE

The Geneva translation's revolutionary impact can be better appreciated by the realization that the Bible has only been available to laymen for 400 years. Prior to the printing of Luther's German Bible in 1534, and the Geneva Bible in English, everyday believers, regardless of nationality, never had a Bible of their own to read, study, to "hide in their hearts." The Church and kings kept all but clergy and Latin scholars from reading Scripture; in England it even became, by royal edict, a capital crime even to read the Bible in the "vulgar tongue" (the English language). In 1526, the English scholar William Tyndale attempted to translate the Bible into English and was forced to flee to Germany, where he met Martin Luther, and then to Belgium, all in an effort to translate the Bible and to fulfill the commitment made to a clergyman who attempted to dissuade him from his mission: "[God's] version was to be made for all the people, even the humblest: if God spare my life, ere many years pass I will cause the boy that driveth the plow to know more of Scripture than thou [a theologian] dost."

Fulfilling his promise, Tyndale published the first-ever mechanically printed New Testament in the English language, in 1526. Six thousand first-edition copies were smuggled to England and lit a fire that could not be extinguished.

But Tyndale was hunted, captured, and imprisoned in the Belgian town of Vilvoorde. On March 6, 1536, he was strangled and burned at the stake, his last words "Lord, open the King of England's eyes." His prayers were answered. Tyndale's monumental work made its way to some English pulpits, and one had been paid for by the same king who persecuted him, Henry VIII, who became a supporter of Protestant reformers.

These first English passages of Scripture, however, were pulpit Bibles, for use by the clergy; still the people had no Bibles they could afford... nor, for the most part, that they could read.

In 1553, upon the death of Henry VIII's 16-year-old Protestant son Edward, Mary Tudor ascended the throne, soon married the Catholic King of Spain, and set about, often with violent cruelty, to stamp out the Reformation. Determined to force the English people back to Roman Catholicism, she ordered the burning of all copies of the Bible in English. She caused more than 300 reformers, pastors and Bible translators to be burned at the stake, well earning her for all of history the sobriquet Bloody Mary.

Queen Mary's vicious crusade drove approximately 800 English scholars to the Continent (the "Marian Exile") but God used this exodus to assemble, in Geneva, some of the finest theologians and Biblical scholars in history. Here, under the protection of John Calvin's "little republic," this special group of thinkers, led by William Whittingham (Calvin's brother-in-law) and assisted by Miles Coverdale, Christopher Goodman, Anthony Gilby, John Knox, and Thomas Sampson, produced a new English Bible not beholden to any king or prelate—The Geneva Bible,—the first English Translation from the original tongues since Tyndale's revised New Testament of 1534. The reformers sought to produce a Bible that was not based on the less-authentic Latin Vulgate promoted by Queen Mary. They researched the most recently collected Greek and Hebrew manuscripts. Whittingham's completed revision of William Tyndale's New Testament, including many annotations and commentaries, was published in 1557; and almost immediately work began on a revision of the entire Bible. Devoting more than two years of intense toil to the task, the result was the first Bible translation produced by a committee rather than by one individual. They drew upon painstaking translations from the original languages; Theodore Beza's work and other continental translations, such as Luther's; all overseen and supported by reformers like John Knox and John Calvin.

The completed Geneva Bible was published in 1560 and dedicated to Queen Elizabeth, who had succeeded her half-sister Bloody Mary to the throne and, at least for political reasons, supported a definitive break with the Church of Rome. The Geneva Bible was an instant success that captured the hearts of the people with its powerful, uncompromising prose and more than 300,000 words of annotations in the margins to aid in personal study and understanding.

This unique 2006 edition of the 1599 version of the Geneva Bible uses Tomson's revised New Testament (a later revision of Whittingham's New Testament of 1557) and Junius's annotated notes on "Revelation." The 1599 version has the most complete compilation of annotations of any of the Geneva editions. It also has a table of interpretations of proper names, which are chiefly found in the Old Testament, and a table of principle subjects contained in the Bible. The Books of Psalms were collected into English meters by Thomas Sternhold, John Hopkins, and others, to encourage their recitation in the manner of the early churches. Also included were prayers to be used by English congregations every morning and evening.

For generations after its first printing, the Geneva Bible remained the Bible of personal study in England, Scotland, and then in America. A 1579 Scottish edition of the Geneva version was the first Bible printed in Scotland; it soon became the standard of the Scottish Kirk. The Scottish Parliament required that every householder worth 300 marks, and every yeoman or burgess worth 500 pounds, have a Bible in the "vulgar tongue" in their homes, under penalty of 10 pounds.

The Geneva Bible came to be called affectionately the "Breeches Bible." The term derives from the reference in Genesis 3:7 to Adam and Eve clothing themselves in fig-leaf "breeches," a decidedly English term.

So popular was the Geneva Bible that between 1560 and 1644 at least 144 editions were published, compared to but five editions of another, inferior, translation known as The Bishops Bible. The Geneva Bible lost its prominence only after the King James Authorized Version of 1611 was widely promoted by the King and Bishop Laud (later Archbishop of Canterbury and persecutor of Presbyterians), who outlawed the printing of the Geneva Bible in the realm. When the Geneva Bible disappeared, there were widespread complaints that people "could not see into the sense of Scripture for lack of the spectacles of those Genevan annotations."

THE UNIQUENESS OF THE GENEVA BIBLE

The Geneva Bible stands as one of the great achievements of Biblical scholarship. It is the Bible of "firsts".

- ♦ It was the first English Bible to be fully translated from the original languages. The fall of Constantinople (1453) had a providential benefit, as previously unknown Greek and Hebrew manuscripts were carried to the West by Christians fleeing the Islamic onslaught. The Renaissance Period's interest in antiquity also brought authentic documents and historical details to the attention of the Geneva scholars.
- ♦ It was the first Bible translation to be printed in easy-to-read Roman type, rather than the older "Black Face" Gothic text. The 2006 edition of the 1599 Geneva version goes a step further; while keeping the Bible text and notes accurate word-for-word with the 16th-century edition, spelling has been updated and the type reset in an even easier-to-read form.
- ♦ It was the first Bible to qualify as a study Bible, providing readers with copious notes, annotations, and commentary about the original manuscripts, clarification of ambiguous meanings, and cross references. It is a tribute to the intellectual integrity of the translators that they also used italics for the interpolated words that were not in the original languages—helpful for the English vernacular, and the first-ever use of this tool in historical or literary analysis.

- ♦ It was the first Bible to assign chapter demarcation, and to add verse numbers within chapters. These innovations facilitated the location of passages, memorization, and recitation... and the nurture of a nation of Bible readers.
- ♦ It was the first Bible to be printed in a small quarto edition, portable and affordable. This made it suitable for family use without expensive folios. Every Pilgrim family, for example, had a Geneva Bible as the convenient center of its daily life.

IMPACT OF THE GENEVA BIBLE

The Geneva Bible significantly assisted the creation of the modern English language—the lingua franca of today’s world. William Tyndale’s linguistic genius and the poetic mastery of Miles Coverdale’s earlier translation of the Poetic Books are widely credited with sparking the English literary excellence of the 17th and 18th centuries: the Geneva Bible was the Bible of William Shakespeare, John Milton, John Bunyan, the Puritans (considered history’s greatest expositors), and the Pilgrims who sailed to America. It was the Bible that John Rolfe likely would have used in the conversion of Pocahontas at Jamestown in 1611.

The impact of the annotations and commentary in the Geneva Bible cannot be underestimated. The Calvinist notes of the Geneva Bible infuriated King James I at Hampton Court in 1604, prompting him to authorize a group of Puritan scholars to produce a version of the Bible without annotation for him; ironically, the excellent Authorized Version might never have been written were it not for King James’s antipathy toward the Geneva Bible.

The marginal notes of the Geneva Bible present a systematic Biblical worldview centered on the Sovereignty of God over all of His creation including churches and kings. This unique Biblical emphasis, though fraught with dangers beyond spiritual debates (i.e., political and social pressure), was one of John Calvin’s great contributions to the English Reformers. For example, the marginal note in the Geneva Bible for Exodus 1:19 indicated that the Hebrew midwives were correct to disobey the Egyptian rulers. King James called such interpretations “seditious.” The tyrant knew that if the people could hold him accountable to God’s Word, his days as a king ruling by “Divine Right” were numbered, but Calvin and the Reformers defended the clear meaning of Scripture against whims of king or popes. Thus did the Geneva Bible begin the unstoppable march to liberty in England, Scotland, and America.

The marginal notes of the Geneva Bible also served to liberate believers from the ignorance, heresy, and tyranny of the Middle Ages. Calvin, and the Reformers who followed in his footsteps, expounded the whole counsel of God concerning doctrines of Sola Scriptura—the Word of God alone, inspired and directional for our lives and culture; Sola Fide—faith alone as the only means of justification before God; Sola Christus—Christ alone as mankind’s only mediator, lord, and king; Sola Gratia—grace alone as the only hope of salvation and sanctification; and Soli Deo Gloria—God alone, not king nor pope, to receive the glory He is due in heaven and on earth.

Today, these theological “marginalia” might seem rudimentary or innocuous, but when they were systematically taught from Scripture and applied to life, as was done in the commentary in the Geneva Bible, entire nations and societies were transformed. Ultimately, the knowledge of and obedience to God’s written Word led to constitutional, limited government; the end of slavery and the caste system; free enterprise and the concept of private property; the so-called Puritan work ethic that fueled the scientific and industrial revolutions; wholesome, uplifting standards in the arts; and many other forms of progress.

The bold innovations of the Geneva Bible continue to have an impact in today's world. Because of its revolutionary format and features, the Geneva Bible became the foundation for what we call group Bible study, and was a catalyst for the acceptance of the liberating doctrine of the "priesthood of all believers." Puritan lay leaders expounded the Word and other congregants offered commentary and invited discussion—all of which, today, might be taken for granted; but such practices were previously and strictly proscribed.

THE GENEVA BIBLE'S APPLICATION FOR TODAY

The Geneva Bible providentially was unleashed upon a dark, discouraged, downtrodden English-speaking world, at a time when Christendom was in real danger of regressing to a form of Caesar-worship. A Bible appeared that created the conditions for a Christian reformation of life and culture, the likes of which the world had never seen—its hallmarks including the explosion of faith; an emphasis on integrity; a unique and vital missionary movement; creative literature, economic blessings; and political and religious freedom. By the time of the defeat of the Spanish Armada in 1588, just 28 years after the first printing of the Geneva Bible, it was already being said of the English that they were becoming a "people of the Book."

Almost 500 years later, our culture is once again desperate for the Truth. Many people have forgotten, abandoned, or rejected the great lessons of the Reformation and the Biblical theology that inspired the greatest accomplishments of Western Civilization. We fervently pray that the re-introduction of this powerful tool of Godly dominion, the Geneva Bible, will, with God's favor, light the fires for another powerful reformation. As we read this sacred volume, let us remember the sacrifice of the persecuted scholars on the shores of Lake Geneva.

John Calvin, in exile in Geneva, surrounded by pagan kings, wars, and a corrupt Roman church, said these optimistic words about the spread of God's Word:

"Whatever resistance we see today offered by almost all the world to the progress of the truth, we must not doubt that our Lord will come at last to break through all the undertakings of men and make a passage for His Word. Let us hope boldly, then, more than we can understand; He will still surpass our opinion and our hope."

May we be inspired from His Word, as our spiritual forbears were, to be fearlessly optimistic about the power of His Gospel and the furtherance of His Kingdom on earth.

"For unto us a Childe is borne, and unto us a sonne is given: and the government and peace shal have none end: he shall sit upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdome, to order it, and to establish it with judgement and with justice, from hence forthe, and for ever: the zeale of the Lorde of hostes wil performe this" (Isaiah 9: 6-7, 1599 Geneva Bible).

O eternal and everlasting God, I presume to present myself this morning before thy Divine majesty, beseeching thee to accept of my humble and hearty thanks, that it hath pleased thy great goodness to keep and preserve me the night past from all the dangers poor mortals are subject to, and has given me sweet and pleasant sleep, whereby I find my body refreshed and comforted for performing the duties of this day, in which I beseech thee to defend me from all perils of body and soul.

Direct my thoughts, words and work. Wash away my sins in the immaculate blood of the Lamb, and purge my heart by thy Holy Spirit, from the dross of my natural corruption, that I may with more freedom of mind and liberty of will serve thee, the ever lasting God, in righteousness and holiness this day, and all the days of my life.

Increase my faith in the sweet promises of the Gospel. Give me repentance from dead works. Pardon my wanderings, and direct my thoughts unto thyself, the God of my salvation. Teach me how to live in thy fear, labor in thy service, and ever to run in the ways of thy commandments. Make me always watchful over my heart, that neither the terrors of conscience, the loathing of holy duties, the love of sin, nor an unwillingness to depart this life, may cast me into a spiritual slumber. But daily frame me more and more into the likeness of thy son Jesus Christ, that living in thy fear, and dying in thy favor, I may in thy appointed time attain the resurrection of the just unto eternal life. Bless my family, friends and kindred, unite us all in praising and glorifying thee in all our works begun, continued, and ended, when we shall come to make our last account before thee blessed Saviour, who hath taught us thus to pray, our Father.

THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED

1 In the <sup>1</sup>beginning <sup>a</sup>God created the heaven and the earth.

2 And the earth was <sup>1,2</sup>without form and void, and <sup>3</sup>darkness was upon the <sup>4</sup>deep, and the Spirit of God <sup>5</sup>moved upon the <sup>6</sup>waters.

3 Then God said, <sup>b</sup>Let there be light: And there was <sup>1</sup>light.

4 And God saw the light that it was good, and God separated <sup>1</sup>the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the Light, Day, and the darkness he called Night. <sup>1</sup>So the evening and the morning were the first day.

6 ¶ Again God said, <sup>c</sup>Let there be a <sup>1</sup>firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.

7 Then God made the firmament, and separated the waters, which were <sup>1</sup>under the firmament, from the waters which were <sup>d</sup>above the firmament: and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament, <sup>1</sup>Heaven. So the evening and the morning were the second day.

9 ¶ God said again, <sup>e</sup>Let the waters under the heaven be gathered into one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land, Earth, and he called the gathering together of the waters, Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 Then God said, <sup>1</sup>Let the earth bud forth the bud of the herb, that seedeth seed, the fruitful tree, which beareth fruit according to his kind, which hath his seed in itself upon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth the bud of the herb, that seedeth seed according to his kind, also the tree that beareth fruit, which hath his seed in itself according to his kind: and God <sup>1</sup>saw that it was good.

13 So the evening and the morning were the third day.

14 ¶ And God said, <sup>f</sup>Let there be <sup>1</sup>lights in the firmament of the heaven, to <sup>2</sup>separate the day from the night, and let them be for <sup>3</sup>signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years.

15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so.

16 God then made two great <sup>1</sup>lights: the greater light to <sup>2</sup>rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made also the stars.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven, to shine upon the earth,

Title <sup>1</sup> This word signifieth the beginning and generation of the creatures.

1:1 <sup>1</sup> First of all, and before that any creature was, God made heaven and earth of nothing.

1:3 <sup>1</sup> The light was made before either Sun or Moon was created: therefore we must not attribute that to the creatures that are God's instruments, which only appertaineth to God.

1:4 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, between the light, and between the darkness.

1:5 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, so was the evening, so was the morning.

1:6 <sup>1</sup> Or, spreading over, and air.

1:7 <sup>1</sup> As the sea and rivers, from those waters that are in the clouds, which are upheld by God's power, lest they should overwhelm the world.

1:8 <sup>1</sup> That is, the region of the air, and all that is above us.

1:11 <sup>1</sup> So that we see it is the only power of God's word that maketh the earth fruitful, which else naturally is barren.

1:12 <sup>1</sup> This sentence is so oft repeated, to signify that God made all his creatures to serve to his glory, and to the profit of man: but for sin they were accursed, yet to the elect, by Christ they are restored, and serve to their wealth.

1:14 <sup>1</sup> By the lights he meaneth the Sun, the Moon, and the Stars.

18 And to <sup>g</sup>rule in the day, and in the night, and to separate the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.

19 So the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

20 Afterward God said, Let the waters bring forth in abundance every <sup>1</sup>creeping thing that hath <sup>2</sup>life: and let the fowl fly upon the earth in the <sup>3</sup>open firmament of the heaven.

21 Then God created the great whales, and every thing living and moving, which the <sup>1</sup>waters brought forth in abundance according to their kind, and every feathered fowl according to his kind: and God saw that it was good.

22 Then God <sup>1</sup>blessed them, saying, Bring forth fruit and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let the fowl multiply in the earth.

23 So the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

24 ¶ Moreover God said, Let the earth bring forth the <sup>1</sup>living thing according to his kind, cattle, and that which creepeth, and the beast of the earth according to his kind, and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth according to his kind, and the cattle according to his kind, and every creeping thing of the earth according to his kind: and God saw that it was good.

26 Furthermore God said, <sup>b,1</sup>Let us make man in our <sup>2</sup>image according to our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the heaven, and over the beasts, and over all the earth, and over everything that creepeth and moveth on the earth.

27 Thus God created the man in his image: in the image of God created he him: he created them <sup>1</sup>male and female.

28 And God <sup>1</sup>blessed them, and God said to them, <sup>1</sup>Bring forth fruit, and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it, and rule over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the heaven, and over every beast that moveth upon the earth.

29 And God said, Behold, I have given unto you <sup>1</sup>every herb bearing seed, which is upon all the earth, and every tree, wherein is the fruit of a tree bearing seed: <sup>k</sup>that shall be to you for meat.

30 Likewise to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the heaven, and to everything that moveth upon the earth, which hath life in itself, every green herb shall be for meat, and it was so.

31 <sup>1</sup>And God saw all that he had made, and lo, it was very good. So the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

2 <sup>2</sup> God resteth the seventh day, and sanctifieth it. <sup>15</sup> He setteth man in the garden. <sup>22</sup> He createth the woman. <sup>24</sup> Marriage is ordained.

1 Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the <sup>1</sup>host of them.

2 For in the seventh day God ended his work which he had made, <sup>a</sup>and the seventh day he <sup>1</sup>rested from all his work, which he had made.

3 So God blessed the seventh day, and <sup>1</sup>sanctified it, because that in it he had rested from all his work, which God created and made.

4 ¶ These are the <sup>1</sup>generations of the heavens and of the earth, when they were created, in the day, that the Lord God made the earth and the heavens,

5 And every <sup>1</sup>plant of the field, before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field, before it grew, for the Lord God had not caused it to <sup>2</sup>rain upon the earth, neither was there a man to till the ground,

6 But a mist went up from the earth, and watered all the earth.

7 ¶ The Lord God also <sup>1</sup>made the man <sup>2</sup>of the dust of the ground, and breathed in his face breath of life, <sup>b</sup>and the man was a living soul.

8 And the Lord God planted a garden Eastward in <sup>1</sup>Eden, and there he put the man whom he had made.

9 (For out of the ground made the Lord God to

1:21 <sup>1</sup> The fish and fowls had both one beginning, wherein we see that nature giveth place to God's will, forasmuch as the one sort is made to fly about in the air, and the other to swim beneath in the water.

1:22 <sup>1</sup> That is, by the virtue of his word he gave power to his creatures to engender.

1:24 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, soul of life.

1:26 <sup>1</sup> God commanded the water and the earth to bring forth other creatures: but of man he saith, Let us make: signifying, that God taketh counsel with his wisdom and virtue, purposing to make an excellent work above all the rest of his creation.

<sup>2</sup> This image and likeness of God in man is expounded, Eph. 4:24, where it is written that man was created after God in righteousness and true holiness, meaning by these two words, all perfection, as wisdom, truth, innocence, power, etc.

1:28 <sup>1</sup> The propagation of man is the blessing of God, Ps. 128.

1:29 <sup>1</sup> God's great liberality to man, taketh away all excuse of his ingratitude.

2:1 <sup>1</sup> That is, the innumerable abundance of creatures in heaven and earth.

2:2 <sup>1</sup> For he had now finished his creation, but his providence still watcheth over his creatures, and governeth them.

2:3 <sup>1</sup> Appointed it to be kept holy, that man might therein consider the excellency of his works and God's goodness toward him.

2:4 <sup>1</sup> Or, the original and beginning.

2:5 <sup>1</sup> Or, tree, as Gen. 21:15.

2:7 <sup>1</sup> Or, formed.

<sup>2</sup> He showeth whereof man's body was created, to the intent that man should not glory in the excellency of his own nature.

2:8 <sup>1</sup> This was the name of a place, as some think in Mesopotamia, most pleasant and abundant in all things.

grow every tree pleasant to the sight, and good for meat: the <sup>1</sup>tree of life also in the midst of the garden, <sup>2</sup>and the tree of knowledge of good and of evil.

10 And out of Eden went a river to water the garden, and from thence it was divided, and became into four heads.

11 The name of one is Pishon: the same compasseth the whole land of <sup>1</sup>Havilah, where is gold.

12 And the gold of that land is good: there is <sup>1</sup>Bdellium, and the Onyx stone.

13 And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same compasseth the whole land of <sup>1</sup>Cush.

14 And the name of the [third] river is <sup>1</sup>Hiddekel: this goeth toward the East side of <sup>2</sup>Ashshur: and the fourth river is <sup>3</sup>Parah)

15 ¶ Then the Lord God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden, that he might <sup>1</sup>dress it, and keep it.

16 And the Lord God <sup>1</sup>commanded the man, saying, <sup>2</sup>Thou shalt eat freely of every tree of the garden, 17 But of the tree of knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for <sup>1</sup>in the day that thou eatest thereof, thou shalt die the <sup>2</sup>death.

18 Also the Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be himself alone: I will make him an help <sup>1</sup>meet for him.

19 So the Lord God formed of the earth every beast of the field, and every fowl of the heaven, and brought them unto the <sup>1</sup>man to see how he would call them: for howsoever the man named the living creature, so was the name thereof.

20 The man therefore gave names unto all cattle, and to the fowl of the heaven, and to every beast of the field: but for Adam found he not an helper meet for him.

21 ¶ Therefore the Lord God caused an heavy sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh in stead thereof.

22 And the rib which the Lord God had taken from the man, <sup>1</sup>made he a <sup>2</sup>woman, and brought her to the man.

23 Then the man said, 'This now is bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh. She shall be called <sup>1</sup>woman, because she was taken out of the man.

24 <sup>d</sup>Therefore shall man leave <sup>1</sup>his father and his mother, and shall cleave to his wife, and they shall be one flesh.

25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and they were not <sup>1</sup>ashamed.

1 Now the serpent was more <sup>1</sup>subtle than any beast of the field, which the Lord God had made: and he <sup>2</sup>said to the woman, Yea, hath God indeed said, ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden.

3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, <sup>1</sup>lest ye die.

4 Then the <sup>a</sup>serpent said to the woman, Ye shall not <sup>1,2</sup>die at all,

5 But God doth know that when ye shall eat thereof, your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, <sup>1</sup>knowing good and evil.

6 So the woman (seeing that the tree was good for meat, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired, to get knowledge) took of the fruit thereof, and did <sup>b</sup>eat, and gave also to her husband with her, and he <sup>1</sup>did eat.

2:9 <sup>1</sup> Which was a sign of the life received of God.

2:11 <sup>1</sup> Which Havilah is a country joining to Persia Eastward, and inclineth toward the West.

2:13 <sup>1</sup> Or, Ethiopia.

2:15 <sup>1</sup> God would not have man idle, though as yet there was no need to labor.

2:16 <sup>1</sup> So that man might know there was a sovereign Lord, to whom he owed obedience.

2:17 <sup>1</sup> Or, whensoever.

2:23 <sup>1</sup> Or, Manness, because she cometh of man: for in Hebrew Ish is man, and Ishah the woman.

2:24 <sup>1</sup> So that marriage requireth a greater duty of us toward our wives, than otherwise we are bound to show to our parents.

2:25 <sup>1</sup> For before sin entered, all things were honest and comely.

3:1 <sup>1</sup> As Satan can change himself into an Angel of light, so did he abuse the wisdom of the serpent to deceive man.

3:3 <sup>1</sup> In doubting of God's threatenings she yielded to Satan.

3:5 <sup>1</sup> As though he should say, God doth not forbid you to eat of the fruit, save that he knoweth that if ye should eat thereof, ye should be like to him.

3:6 <sup>1</sup> Not so much to please his wife, as moved by ambition at her persuasion.

7 Then the eyes of them both were opened, and they <sup>1</sup>knew that they were naked, and they sewed fig tree leaves together, and made themselves <sup>2</sup>breeches.

8 ¶ Afterward they heard the voice of the Lord God walking in the garden in the <sup>1</sup>cool of the day, and the man and his wife <sup>2</sup>hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden.

9 But the Lord God called to the man, and said unto him, Where art thou?

10 Who said, I heard thy voice in the garden and was afraid: because I was <sup>1</sup>naked, therefore I hid myself.

11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldst not eat?

12 Then the man said, The woman which thou <sup>1</sup>gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

13 And the Lord God said to the woman, Why hast thou done this? And the woman said, <sup>1</sup>The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.

15 I will also put enmity between <sup>1</sup>thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed. He shall break thine <sup>2</sup>head, and thou shalt <sup>3</sup>bruise his heel.

16 ¶ Unto the woman he said, I will greatly increase thy <sup>1</sup>sorrows, and thy conceptions. In sorrow shalt thou bring forth children, and thy desire shall be subject to thine husband, and he shall rule over thee.

17 ¶ Also to Adam he said, Because thou hast obeyed the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, (whereof I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it) <sup>1</sup>cursed is the earth for thy sake: in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life.

18 <sup>1</sup>Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee, and thou shalt eat the herb of the field.

19 In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread till thou return to the earth: for out of it wast thou taken, because thou art dust, and to dust shalt thou return.

20 (And the man called his wife's name Eve, because she was the mother of all living)

21 Unto Adam also and to his wife did the Lord God <sup>1</sup>make coats of skins, and clothed them.

22 ¶ And the Lord God said, <sup>1</sup>Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil. And now lest he put forth his hand, and <sup>2</sup>take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever, 23 Therefore the Lord God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the earth, whence he was taken.

24 Thus he cast out the man, and at the East side of the garden of Eden he set the Cherubims, and the blade of a sword shaken, to keep the way of the tree of life.

1 Afterward the man knew Eve his wife which <sup>1</sup>conceived and bare Cain, and said, I have obtained a man <sup>2</sup>by the Lord.

2 And again she brought forth his brother Abel, and Abel was a keeper of sheep, and Cain was a tiller of the ground.

3 ¶ And in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought an <sup>1</sup>oblation unto the Lord of the fruit

3:7 <sup>1</sup> They began to feel their misery, but they sought not to God for remedy.

3:10 <sup>1</sup> His hypocrisy appeareth in that he hid the cause of his nakedness, which was the transgression of God's commandment.

3:12 <sup>1</sup> His wickedness and lack of true repentance appeareth in this that he burdeneth God with his fault, because he had given him a wife.

3:13 <sup>1</sup> Instead of confessing her sin, she increaseth it by accusing the serpent.

3:14 <sup>1</sup> He asked the reason of Adam and his wife, because he would bring them to repentance, but he asketh not the serpent, because he would show him no mercy.

3:15 <sup>1</sup> He chiefly meaneth Satan, by whose motion and craft the serpent deceived the woman.

3:16 <sup>1</sup> The Lord comforteth Adam by the promise of the blessed seed, and also punisheth the body for the sin which the soul should have been punished for; that the spirit having conceived hope of forgiveness, might live by faith.

3:17 <sup>1</sup> The transgression of God's commandment was the cause that both mankind and all other creatures were subject to the curse.

3:18 <sup>1</sup> These are not the natural fruits of the earth, but proceed of the corruption of sin.

3:21 <sup>1</sup> Or, gave them knowledge to make themselves coats.

4:1 <sup>1</sup> Man's nature, the estate of marriage, and God's blessing were not utterly abolished through sin, but the quality or condition thereof was changed.

<sup>2</sup> That is, according to the Lord's promise, as Gen. 3:15, some read, To the Lord, as rejoicing for the son which she had born, whom she would offer to the Lord as the firstfruits of her birth.

4 And Abel also himself brought of the firstfruits of his sheep, and of the fat of them, and the Lord had respect unto <sup>a</sup>Abel, and to his offering.

5 But unto Cain and to his offering he had no <sup>1</sup>regard: wherefore Cain was exceedingly wroth and his countenance fell down.

6 Then the Lord said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance cast down?

7 If thou do well, shalt thou not be <sup>1</sup>accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the <sup>2</sup>door: also unto thee his <sup>3</sup>desire shall be subject, and thou shalt rule over him.

8 ¶ Then Cain spake unto Abel his brother. And <sup>b</sup>when they were in the field, Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him.

9 Then the Lord said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? Who answered, I cannot tell. <sup>1</sup>Am I my brother's keeper?

10 Again he said, What hast thou done? the <sup>1</sup>voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me, from the earth.

11 Now therefore thou art cursed <sup>1</sup>from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thine hand.

12 When thou shalt till the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength: a <sup>1</sup>vagabond and a runaway shalt thou be in the earth.

13 Then Cain said to the Lord, <sup>1,2</sup>My punishment is greater than I can bear.

14 Behold, thou hast cast me out this day from <sup>1</sup>the earth, and from thy face shall I be hid, and shall be a vagabond, and a runaway in the earth, and whosoever findeth me shall slay me.

15 Then the Lord said unto him, Doubtless who-soever slayeth Cain, he shall be <sup>1</sup>punished seven fold. And the Lord set a <sup>2</sup>mark upon Cain, lest any man finding him, should kill him.

16 Then Cain went out from the presence of the Lord, and dwelt in the land of Nod toward the East side of Eden.

17 Cain also knew his wife, which conceived and bore Enoch: and he built a <sup>1</sup>city, and called the name of the city by the name of his son, Enoch.

18 And to Enoch was born Irad, and Irad begat Mehujael, and Mehujael begat Methushael, and Methushael begat Lamech.

19 ¶ And Lamech took to him <sup>1</sup>two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.

20 And Adah bare Jabal, who was the <sup>1</sup>father of such as dwell in the tents, and of such as have cattle.

21 And his brother's name was Jubal, who was the father of all that play on the harp and <sup>1</sup>organs.

22 And Zillah also bore Tubal-Cain, who wrought cunningly every craft of brass and of iron: and the sister of Tubal-Cain was Naamah.

23 Then Lamech said unto his wives, Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice, ye wives of Lamech; hearken unto my speech: <sup>1</sup>for I would slay a man in my wound, and a young man to mine hurt.

24 If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, truly Lamech <sup>1</sup>seventy times sevenfold.

25 ¶ And Adam knew his wife again, and she bare a son, and she called his name Seth: for God, said she, hath appointed me another seed for Abel, because Cain slew him.

26 And to the same Seth also there was born a son, and he called his name Enosh. Then began men to <sup>1</sup>call upon the name of the Lord.

4:9 <sup>1</sup> This is the nature of the reprobate when they are reprov'd of their hypocrisy, even to neglect God and despise him.

4:10 <sup>1</sup> God revengeth the wrongs of his Saints, though none complain: for the iniquity itself crieth for vengeance.

4:11 <sup>1</sup> The earth shall be a witness against thee, which mercifully received that blood which thou most cruelly sheddest.

4:12 <sup>1</sup> Thou shalt never have rest: for thine heart shall be in continual fear and care.

4:17 <sup>1</sup> Thinking thereby to be sure, and to have less occasion to fear God's judgments against him.

4:19 <sup>1</sup> The lawful institution of marriage, which is, that two should be one flesh, was first corrupted in the house of Cain by Lamech.

4:23 <sup>1</sup> His wives seeing that all men hated him for his cruelty, were afraid, therefore he braggeth that there is none so lusty that were able to resist, although he were already wounded.

4:24 <sup>1</sup> He mocked at God's sufferance in Cain, jesting as though God would suffer none to punish him and yet give him license to murder others.

4:26 <sup>1</sup> In these days God began to move the hearts of the godly to restore religion, which a long time by the wicked had been suppressed.

of God made he him,

2 Male and female created he them, and blessed them, and called their name <sup>1</sup>Adam in the day that they were created.

3 ¶ Now Adam lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat a child in his own <sup>1</sup>likeness after his image, and called his name Seth.

4 <sup>a</sup>And the days of Adam, after he had begotten Seth, were eight hundred years, and he begat sons and daughters.

5 So all the days that Adam lived, were nine hundred and thirty years, and he died.

7 And Seth lived after he begat Enosh, eight hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.

8 So all the days of Seth were <sup>1</sup>nine hundred and twelve years: and he died.

9 ¶ Also Enosh lived ninety years, and begat Cainan.

10 And Enosh lived after he begat Cainan, eight hundred and fifteen years, and begat sons and daughters.

11 So all the days of Enosh were nine hundred and five years: and he died.

12 ¶ Likewise Cainan lived seventy years, and begat Mahalalel.

13 And Cainan lived, after he begat Mahalalel, eight hundred and forty years, and begat sons and daughters.

14 So all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years: and he died.

15 ¶ Mahalalel also lived sixty and five years, and begat Jared.

16 Also Mahalalel lived, after he begat Jared, eight hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.

17 So all the days of Mahalalel were eight hundred ninety and five years: and he died.

18 ¶ And Jared lived an hundred sixty and two years, and begat Enoch.

19 Then Jared lived, after he begat Enoch, eight hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

22 And Enoch <sup>1</sup>walked with God, after he begat Methuselah, three hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

23 So all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty and five years.

24 And Enoch walked with God, and he was no more seen: for <sup>1</sup>God took him away.

25 Methuselah also lived an hundred eighty and seven years, and begat Lamech.

26 And Methuselah lived, after he begat Lamech, seven hundred eighty and two years, and begat sons and daughters.

27 So all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty and nine years, and he died.

28 ¶ Then Lamech lived an hundred eighty and two years, and begat a son, 29 And called his name, Noah, saying, This same shall <sup>1</sup>comfort us concerning our work and sorrow of our hands, as touching the earth, which the Lord hath cursed.

30 And Lamech lived, after he begat Noah, five hundred ninety and five years, and begat sons and daughters.

31 So all the days of Lamech were seven hundred seventy and seven years: and he died.

32 And Noah was five hundred years old. And Noah begat Shem, Ham and Japheth.

5:29 <sup>1</sup> Lamech had respect to the promise, Gen. 3:15, and desired to see the deliverer which should be sent, and yet saw but a figure thereof, he also spake this by the spirit of prophecy because Noah delivered the Church and preserved it by his obedience.

4 There were <sup>1</sup>giants in the earth in those days: yea, and after that the sons of God came unto the daughters of men, and they had borne them children, these were mighty men, which in old time were men of <sup>2</sup>renown.

5 ¶ When the Lord saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and all the imaginations of the thoughts of his <sup>a</sup>heart were only evil <sup>1</sup>continually,

6 Then it <sup>1</sup>repented the Lord, that he had made man in the earth, and he was sorry in his heart.

7 Therefore the Lord said, I will destroy from the earth the man, whom I have created, from man <sup>1</sup>to beast, to the creeping thing, and to the fowl of the heaven: for I repent that I have made them.

8 But Noah <sup>1</sup>found grace in the eyes of the Lord.

9 ¶ These are the <sup>1</sup>generations of Noah: Noah was a just and upright man in his time: and Noah walked with God.

10 And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham and Japheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt before God: for the earth was filled with <sup>1</sup>cruelty.

12 Then God looked upon the earth, and behold, it was corrupt: for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

17 And I, behold, I will bring a flood of waters upon the earth to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life under heaven: all that is in the earth shall perish.

18 But with thee will I <sup>1</sup>establish my covenant, and thou shalt go into the Ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh two of every sort shalt thou cause to come into the Ark, to keep them alive with thee: they shall be male and female.

20 Of the fowls, after their kind, and of the cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind, two of every sort shall come unto thee, that thou mayest keep them alive.

21 And take thou with thee of all meat that is eaten: and thou shalt gather it to thee, that it may be meat for thee and for them.

22 <sup>b</sup>Noah therefore did according unto all that God commanded him: even <sup>1</sup>so did he.

7 <sup>1</sup> Noah and his enter into the Ark. <sup>20</sup> The flood destroyeth all the rest upon the earth.

1 And the Lord said unto Noah, Enter thou and all thine house into the Ark: for thee have I seen <sup>a</sup>righteous before me in this <sup>2</sup>age.

2 Of every <sup>1</sup>clean beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, the male and his female: but of unclean beasts by couples, the male and his female.

3 Of the fowls also of the heaven by sevens, male and female, to keep seed alive upon the whole earth.

4 For seven days hence I will cause it rain upon the earth forty days, and forty nights, and all the substance that I have made, will I destroy from off the earth.

5 <sup>b</sup>Noah therefore did according to all that the Lord commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old, when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

7 ¶ So Noah entered and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him into the Ark, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of the clean beasts, and of the unclean beasts, and of the fowls, and of all that creepeth upon the earth,

9 There <sup>1</sup>came two and two unto Noah into the Ark, male and female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And so after seven days, the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

11 ¶ In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the <sup>1</sup>second month, the seventeenth day of the month, in the same day were all the <sup>2</sup>fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened, 12 And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 In the selfsame day entered Noah with Shem, and Ham and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them into the Ark.

14 They and every beast after his kind, and all cattle after their kind, and everything that creepeth and moveth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, even every bird of every feather.

15 For they came to Noah into the Ark, two and two, <sup>1</sup>of all flesh wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they entering in, came male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the Lord <sup>1,2</sup>shut him in.

17 Then the flood was forty days upon the earth, and the waters were increased, and bare up the Ark, which was lifted up above the earth.

18 The waters also waxed strong, and were increased exceedingly upon the earth, and the Ark went upon the waters.

19 The waters <sup>1</sup>prevailed so exceedingly upon the earth, that all the high mountains, that are under the whole heaven, were covered.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail, when the mountains were covered.

21 Then all flesh perished that moved upon the earth, both fowl and cattle and beast, and everything that creepeth and moveth upon the earth, and every man.

22 Everything in whose nostrils the spirit of life did breathe, whatsoever they were in the dry land, they died.

23 So <sup>1</sup>he destroyed everything that was upon the earth, from man to beast, to the creeping thing, and to the fowl of the heaven: they were even destroyed from the earth. And Noah only <sup>2</sup>remained, and they that were with him in the Ark.

24 And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days.

1 Now God <sup>1</sup>remembered Noah and <sup>2</sup>every beast, and all the cattle that were with him in the Ark: therefore God made a wind to pass upon the earth, and the waters ceased.

2 The fountains also of the deep and the windows of heaven were stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained.

3 And the waters returned from above the earth, going and returning: and after the end of the hundred and fiftieth day the waters abated.

4 And in the <sup>1</sup>seventh month, in the seventeenth day of the month, the Ark <sup>2</sup>rested upon the mountains of <sup>3</sup>Ararat.

5 And the waters were going and decreasing until the <sup>1</sup>tenth month: in the tenth month, and in the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

6 ¶ So <sup>1</sup>after forty days, Noah opened the window of the Ark which he had made,

7 And sent forth a raven, which went out, going forth and returning, until the waters were dried up upon the earth.

8 Again he sent a dove from him, that he might see if the waters were diminished from off the earth.

9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot: therefore she returned unto him into the Ark (for the waters were upon the whole earth) and he <sup>1</sup>put forth his hand, and received her, and took her

<sup>2</sup> Both the waters in the earth did overflow, and also the clouds poured down.

7:15 <sup>1</sup> Every living thing that God would have to be preserved on earth, came into the Ark to Noah.

7:16 <sup>1</sup> So that God's secret power defended him against the rage of the mighty waters.

to him into the Ark.

10 And he abode yet another seven days, and again he sent forth the dove out of the Ark.

11 And the dove came to him in the evening, and lo in her <sup>1</sup>mouth was an <sup>2</sup>olive leaf that she had plucked: whereby Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

12 Notwithstanding, he waited yet another seven days, and sent forth the dove, which returned not again unto him anymore.

13 ¶ And in the six hundred and one year, in the first day of the <sup>1</sup>first month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the Ark, and looked, and behold, the upper part of the ground was dry.

14 And in the second month, in the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dry.

15 ¶ Then God spake to Noah, saying,

16 <sup>1</sup>Go forth of the Ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee.

17 Bring forth with thee every beast that is with thee, of all flesh, both fowl and cattle, and everything that creepeth and moveth upon the earth, that they may breed abundantly in the earth, <sup>a</sup>and bring forth fruit and increase upon the earth.

18 So Noah came forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him.

19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, all that moveth upon the earth, after their kinds, went out of the Ark.

20 ¶ Then Noah <sup>1</sup>built an altar to the Lord, and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings upon the altar.

21 And the Lord smelled a <sup>1,2</sup>savor of rest, and the Lord said in his heart, I will henceforth curse the ground no more for man's cause: for the <sup>b</sup>imagination of man's heart is evil, even from his youth: neither will I smite anymore all things living, as I have done.

22 Hereafter <sup>1</sup>seed time and harvest, and cold and heat, and Summer and Winter, and day and night shall not cease, so long as the earth remaineth.

which I make between me and you, and between every living thing that is with you unto perpetual generations.

13 I have set my <sup>1</sup>bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a sign of the covenant between me and the earth.

14 And when I shall cover the earth with a cloud, and the bow shall be seen in the cloud, 15 Then will I remember my <sup>1</sup>covenant which is between me and you, and between every living thing in all flesh, and there shall be no more waters of a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 Therefore the bow shall be in the cloud, that I may see it, and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living thing, in all flesh that is upon the earth.

17 God said yet to Noah, <sup>1</sup>This is the sign of the covenant, which I have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

18 ¶ Now the sons of Noah going forth of the Ark, were Shem and Ham and Japheth. And Ham is the father of Canaan.

19 These are the three sons of Noah, and of them was the whole earth <sup>1</sup>overspread.

20 <sup>1</sup>Noah also began to be an husbandman, and planted a vineyard.

21 And he drunk of the wine, and was <sup>1</sup>drunken, and was uncovered in the midst of his tent.

22 And when Ham the father of <sup>1</sup>Canaan saw the nakedness of his father, <sup>2</sup>he told his two brethren without.

23 Then took Shem and Japheth a garment, and put it upon both their shoulders, and went backward and covered the nakedness of their father with their faces backward: so they saw not their father's nakedness.

24 Then Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done unto him, servants shall he be unto his brethren.

26 He said moreover, Blessed be the Lord God of Shem, and let Canaan be his <sup>1</sup>servant.

27 God <sup>1,2</sup>persuade Japheth, that he may dwell in the tents of Shem, and let Canaan be his servant.

28 ¶ And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years.

29 So all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years: and he died.

10 <sup>1</sup>The increase of mankind by Noah and his sons. <sup>10</sup> The beginning of cities, countries, and nations.

1 Now these are the <sup>1</sup>generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham and Japheth: unto whom sons were born after the flood.

2 The sons of Japheth were Gomer, and Magog, and <sup>1</sup>Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras.

3 And the sons of Gomer, Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

4 Also the sons of Javan, Elishah and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

5 Of these were the <sup>1</sup>isles of the Gentiles divided in their lands, every man after his tongue, and after their families in their nations.

6 ¶ Moreover, the sons of Ham were <sup>1</sup>Cush, and Mizraim, and Put, and Canaan.

7 And the sons of Cush, Seba and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabtechah: also the sons of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan.

8 And Cush begat Nimrod, who began to be <sup>1</sup>mighty in the earth.

9 He was a mighty hunter before the Lord. Wherefore it is said, <sup>1</sup>As Nimrod the mighty hunter before the Lord.

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of <sup>1</sup>Shinar.

9:13 <sup>1</sup> Hereby we see that signs or sacraments ought not to be separate from the word.

9:15 <sup>1</sup> When men shall see my bow in the heaven, they shall know that I have not forgotten my covenant with them.

9:17 <sup>1</sup> God doth repeat this the oftener, to confirm Noah's faith so much the more.

9:19 <sup>1</sup> This declareth what was the virtue of God's blessing, when he said, increase and bring forth. Gen. 1:28.

9:20 <sup>1</sup> Or, Noah began again.

9:21 <sup>1</sup> This is set before our eyes to show what an horrible thing drunkenness is.

9:22 <sup>1</sup> Of whom came the Canaanites that wicked nation, who were also cursed of God.

9:25 <sup>1</sup> He pronounceth as a Prophet the curse of God against all them that honor not their parents: for Ham and his posterity were accursed.

9:27 <sup>1</sup> Or, enlarge, or cause to return.

<sup>2</sup> He declareth that the Gentiles, which came of Japheth, and were separated from the Church, should be joined to the same by the persuasion of God's Spirit, and preaching of the Gospel.

10:2 <sup>1</sup> Of Madai and Javan came the Medes, and Greeks.

10:5 <sup>1</sup> The Jews so call all countries which are separated from them by sea, as Greece, Italy, etc, which were given to the children of Japheth, of whom came the Gentiles.

10:6 <sup>1</sup> Of Cush and Mizraim came the Ethiopians and Egyptians.

10:8 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, a cruel oppressor and tyrant.

10:9 <sup>1</sup> His tyranny came into a proverb as hated both of God and man: for he passed not to commit cruelty even in God's presence.

10:10 <sup>1</sup> For there was another city in Egypt, called also Babel.

11 Out of that land came Assyria, and built Nineveh, and the <sup>1</sup>city Rehoboth, and Calah:

12 Resen also between Nineveh and Calah: this is a great city.

13 And Mizraim begat <sup>1</sup>Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim.

14 Pathrusim also, and Casluhim (out of whom came the Philistines) and <sup>1</sup>Caphtorims.

15 Also Canaan begat Sidon his firstborn, and Heth,

16 And Jebusi, and Emori, and Girgashi,

17 And Hivi, and Arki, and Sini,

18 And Arvadi, and Zemari, and Hamathi: and afterward were the families of the Canaanites spread abroad.

19 Then the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as thou comest to Gerar until Gaza, and as thou goest unto Sodom and Gomorrah, and Admah, and Zeboiim, even unto Lasha.

20 These are the sons of Ham according to their families, according to their tongues in their countries, and in their nations.

21 ¶ Unto <sup>1</sup>Shem also the father of all the sons of <sup>2</sup>Eber, and elder brother of Japheth were children born.

22 <sup>a</sup>The sons of Shem were Elam and Asshur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram.

23 And the sons of Aram, Uz and Hul, and Gether, and Mash.

24 Also Arphaxad begat Salah, and Salah begat Eber.

25 Unto Eber also were born two sons: the name of the one was Peleg: for in his days was the earth <sup>1</sup>divided: and his brother's name was Joktan.

26 Then Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, 27 And Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah,

28 And Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba,

29 And Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab: all these were the sons of Joktan.

30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest up to Sephar, a mount of the East.

31 These are the sons of Shem, according to their families, according to their tongues in their countries and nations.

32 These are the families of the sons of Noah, after their generations among their people: and <sup>1</sup>out of these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

1 Then the whole earth was of one language and one speech.

2 And <sup>1</sup>as <sup>2</sup>they went from the <sup>3</sup>East, they found a plain in the land of <sup>4</sup>Shinar, and there they abode.

3 And they said one to another, Come, let us make brick and burn it in the fire, so they had brick for stone, and slime had they instead of mortar.

4 Also they said, Go to, let us <sup>1</sup>build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto the heaven, that we may get us a name, lest we be scattered upon the whole earth.

5 But the Lord <sup>1</sup>came down, to see the city and tower which the sons of men built.

6 And the Lord said, <sup>1</sup>Behold, the people is one, and they all have one language, and this they begin to do, neither can they now be stopped from whatsoever they have imagined to do.

7 Come on, <sup>1</sup>let us go down, and <sup>2</sup>there confound their language, that everyone perceive not another's speech.

8 So the Lord scattered them from thence upon all the earth, and they left off to build the city.

9 Therefore the name of it was called <sup>1</sup>Babel, because the Lord did there confound the language of all the earth: from thence then did the Lord scatter them upon all the earth.

10 ¶ <sup>a</sup>These are the generations <sup>1</sup>of Shem: Shem was an hundred years old, and begat Arphaxad two

10:14 <sup>1</sup> Or, the Cappadocians.

10:32 <sup>1</sup> Or, of these came divers nations.

11:4 <sup>1</sup> They were moved with pride and ambition, thinking to prefer their own glory to God's honor.

11:5 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, that he declared by effect, that he knew their wicked enterprise: for God's power is everywhere, and doth neither ascend nor descend.

11:6 <sup>1</sup> God speaketh this in derision, because of their foolish persuasion and enterprise.

11:7 <sup>1</sup> He speaketh as though he took counsel with his own wisdom and power: to wit, with the Son and holy Ghost: signifying the greatness and certainty of the punishment.

11:9 <sup>1</sup> Or, confusion.

11:10 <sup>1</sup> He returneth to the genealogy of Shem, to come to the history of Abram, wherein the Church of God is described, which is Moses' principle purpose.

years after the flood.

11 And Shem lived after he begat Arphaxad five hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

12 Also Arphaxad lived five and thirty years, and begat Salah.

13 And Arphaxad lived after he begat Salah, four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

14 And Salah lived thirty years, and begat Eber.

15 So Salah lived after he begat Eber four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

16 Likewise Eber lived four and thirty years, and begat Peleg.

17 So Eber lived after he begat Peleg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.

18 And Peleg lived thirty years, and begat Reu.

19 <sup>b</sup>And Peleg lived after he begat Reu two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters.

20 Also Reu lived two and thirty years, and begat Serug.

21 So Reu lived after he begat Serug two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.

22 Moreover Serug lived thirty years, and begat Nahor.

23 And Serug lived after he begat Nahor two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

24 And Nahor lived nine and twenty years, and begat Terah.

25 So Nahor lived after he begat Terah, an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.

26 So Terah lived seventy years, and begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

27 ¶ Now these are the generations of Terah: Terah begat <sup>1</sup>Abram, Nahor, and Haran: and Haran begat Lot.

28 Then Haran died before Terah his father in the land of his nativity, in Ur of <sup>1</sup>the Chaldeans.

29 So Abram and Nahor took their wives. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of <sup>1</sup>Iscah.

30 But Sarai was barren, and had no child.

31 Then <sup>1</sup>Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran his son's son, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Abram's wife: and they departed together from Ur of the Chaldeans, to <sup>d</sup>go into the land of Canaan, and they came to <sup>2</sup>Haran, and dwelt there.

32 So the days of Terah were two hundred and five years, and Terah died in Haran.

1 For the Lord had said unto Abram, <sup>a1</sup>Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house unto <sup>2</sup>the land that I will show thee.

2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and will bless thee, and make thy name great, and thou shalt be a <sup>1</sup>blessing.

3 I will also bless them that bless thee, and curse them that curse thee, and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

4 So Abram departed, even as the Lord spake unto him, and Lot went with him, (and Abram was seventy and five years old, when he departed out of Haran)

5 Then Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they possessed, and the <sup>1</sup>souls that they had gotten in Haran, and they departed to go to the land of Canaan, and to the land of Canaan they came.

6 ¶ So Abram <sup>1</sup>passed through the land unto the place of Shechem, and unto the <sup>2</sup>plain of Moreh (and the <sup>3</sup>Canaanite was then in the land)

7 And the Lord appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land. And there built he <sup>1</sup>an altar unto the Lord, which appeared unto him.

8 Afterward removing <sup>1</sup>thence unto a mountain Eastward from Bethel, he pitched his tent having Bethel on the West side, and Ai on the East, and there he built an <sup>2</sup>altar unto the Lord, and called 11:27 <sup>1</sup> He maketh mention first of Abram, not because he was the firstborn, but for the history which properly appertaineth unto him. Also Abram at the confusion of tongues, was 48 years old, for in the destruction of Sodom he was 99. And it was destroyed 52 years after the confusion of tongues.

11:31 <sup>1</sup> Albeit the oracle of God came to Abram, yet the honor is given to Terah, because he was the father.

12:2 <sup>1</sup> The world shall recover by thy seed, which is Christ, the blessing which they lost in Adam.

12:5 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, as well servants as cattle.

12:6 <sup>1</sup> He wandered to and fro in the land before he could find a settling place: thus God exerciseth the faith of his children.

12:7 <sup>1</sup> It was not enough for him to worship God in his heart, but it was expedient to declare by outward profession his faith before men, whereof this altar was a sign.

12:8 <sup>1</sup> Because of the troubles that he had among that wicked people.

on the Name of the Lord.

9 <sup>1</sup>Again Abram went forth going and journeying toward the South.

10 ¶ Then there came a <sup>1</sup>famine in the land: therefore Abram went down into Egypt to sojourn there: for there was a great famine in the land.

11 And when he drew near to enter into Egypt, he said to Sarai his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon:

12 Therefore it will come to pass that when the Egyptians see thee, they will say, She is his wife: so will they kill me, but they will keep thee alive.

13 Say, I pray thee, that thou art my <sup>1</sup>sister, that I may fare well for thy sake, and that my <sup>2</sup>life may be preserved by thee.

14 ¶ Now when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman: for she was very fair.

15 And the Princes of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her unto Pharaoh: so the woman was <sup>1</sup>taken into Pharaoh's house:

16 Who entreated Abram well for her sake, and he had sheep, and beeves, and he asses, and menservants, and maidservants, and she asses, and camels.

17 But the Lord <sup>1</sup>plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues, because of Sarai Abram's wife.

18 Then Pharaoh called Abram, and said, Why hast thou done this unto me? Wherefore diddest thou not tell me, that she was thy wife?

19 Why saidest thou, She is my sister, that I should take her to be my wife? Now therefore behold thy wife, take her and go thy way.

20 And Pharaoh gave men <sup>1</sup>commandment concerning him: and they conveyed him forth and his wife, and all that he had.

1 Then <sup>1</sup>Abram went up from Egypt, he and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him toward the South.

2 And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver and in gold.

3 And he went on his journey from the South toward <sup>1</sup>Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai,

4 Unto the place of the <sup>a</sup>altar, which he had made there at the first: and there Abram called on the Name of the Lord.

5 ¶ And Lot also, who went with Abram, had sheep, and cattle and tents,

6 So that the land could not <sup>1</sup>bear them, that they might dwell together: for their <sup>b</sup>substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.

7 Also there was debate between the herdsmen of Abram's cattle, and the herdsmen of Lot's cattle, (and the <sup>1</sup>Canaanites and the Perizzites dwelleth at that time in the land.)

8 Then said Abram unto Lot, Let there be no <sup>1</sup>strife, I pray thee, between thee and me, neither between mine herdsmen and thine herdsmen: for we be brethren.

9 Is not the whole land before thee? depart I pray thee from me: if thou wilt <sup>1</sup>take the left hand, then I will go to the right: or if thou go to the right hand, then I will take the left.

10 So when Lot lifted up his eyes, he saw that all the plain of Jordan was watered everywhere (for before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, it was as the <sup>1</sup>garden of the Lord like the land of Egypt, as thou goest unto Zoar.)

11 Then Lot chose unto him all the plain of Jordan, and took his journey from the East: and they departed the <sup>1</sup>one from the other.

12 Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot abode in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent even unto Sodom.

13 Now the men of Sodom were wicked and exceeding <sup>1</sup>sinners against the Lord.

12:9 <sup>1</sup> Thus the children of God may look for no rest in this world, but must wait for the heavenly rest and quietness.

12:10 <sup>1</sup> This was a new trial of Abram's faith: whereby we see that the end of one affliction is the beginning of another.

12:13 <sup>1</sup> By this we may learn not to use unlawful means, nor to put others in danger to save ourselves, read verse 20, albeit it may appear that Abram feared not so much death, as that if he should die without issue, God's promise should not have taken place: wherein appeared a weak faith.

12:15 <sup>1</sup> To be his wife.

12:17 <sup>1</sup> The Lord took the defense of this poor stranger against a mighty king: and as he is ever careful over his, so did he preserve Sarai.

12:20 <sup>1</sup> To the intent that none should hurt him either in his person or goods.

13:1 <sup>1</sup> His great riches gotten in Egypt, hindreth him not to follow his vocation.

13:3 <sup>1</sup> He calleth the place by that name which was after given unto it, Gen. 28:19.

13:6 <sup>1</sup> This incommodity came by their riches, which brake friendship and as it were the bound of nature.

13:7 <sup>1</sup> Who seeing their contention, might blaspheme God and destroy them.

13:10 <sup>1</sup> Which was in Eden, Gen. 2:10.

13:13 <sup>1</sup> Lot thinking to get paradise, found hell.

14 ¶ Then the Lord said unto <sup>1</sup>Abram, (after that Lot was departed from him) Lift up thine eyes now, and look from the place where thou art, Northward, and Southward, and Eastward, and Westward:

15 For all <sup>c</sup>the land which thou seest, will I give unto thee, and to thy seed <sup>d</sup>forever,

16 And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed be numbered.

17 Arise, walk through the land, in the length thereof, and breadth thereof: for I will give it unto thee.

18 Then Abram removed his tent, and came and dwelled in the plain of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the Lord.

1 And in the days of Amraphel king of <sup>1</sup>Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of the <sup>2</sup>nations:

2 These men made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, and Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar.

4 Twelve years were they subject to Chedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

5 And in the fourteenth year came Chedorlaomer, and the kings that were with him, and smote the <sup>1</sup>Rephaims in Ashteroth Karnaim, and the Zuzims in Ham, and the Emims in <sup>2</sup>Shaveh Kiriathaim,

6 And the Horites in their mount Seir, unto the plain of El Paran, which is by the wilderness.

7 And they returned and came to En Mishpat, which is Kadesh, and <sup>1</sup>smote all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites that dwelled in Hazezon Tamar.

8 Then went out the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar: and they joined battle with them in the valley of Siddim, 9 To wit, with Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of nations, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar: four kings against five.

10 Now the <sup>1</sup>valley of Siddim was full of slime pits, and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled and <sup>2</sup>fell there: and the residue fled to the mountain.

11 And they took all the substance of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their vittles and went their way.

12 They <sup>1</sup>took Lot also Abram's brother's son and his substance (for he dwelt at Sodom) and departed.

13 ¶ Then came one that had escaped, and told Abram the Hebrew, which dwelt in the plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner, which were <sup>1</sup>confederate with Abram.

14 When Abram heard that his brother was taken, he <sup>1</sup>brought forth of them that were born and brought up in his house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them unto Dan.

15 Then he and his servants divided themselves against them by night, and smote them, and pursued them unto Hobah, which is on the left side of <sup>1</sup>Damascus,

16 And he recovered all the substance, and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also and the people.

17 ¶ After that he returned from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer and of the kings that were with him, came the King of Sodom forth to meet him in the valley of Shaveh, which is the <sup>a</sup>King's dale.

18 And <sup>b</sup>Melchizedek King of Salem <sup>1</sup>brought forth bread and wine: and he was a Priest of the most high God.

19 Therefore he <sup>1</sup>blessed him, saying, Blessed art thou, Abram, of God most high, Possessor of heaven and earth, 20 And blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thine hand. <sup>c</sup>And Abram gave him tithes of all.

13:14 <sup>1</sup> The Lord comforted him, lest he should have taken thought for the departure of his nephew.

13:15 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, a long time, and till the coming of Christ as Exod. 12:14 and 21:6; Deut. 15:17, and spiritually this is referred to the true children of Abram, born according to the promise, and not according to the flesh, which are heirs of the true land of Canaan.

14:1 <sup>1</sup> That is, of Babylon: by kings here, meaning, them that were governors of cities.

14:7 <sup>1</sup> Or, destroyed.

14:10 <sup>1</sup> And afterward was overwhelmed with water, and so was called the salt sea.

14:12 <sup>1</sup> The godly are plagued many times with the wicked: therefore their company is dangerous.

14:13 <sup>1</sup> God moved them to join with Abram, and preserveth him from their idolatry and superstitions.

14:18 <sup>1</sup> For Abram and his soldiers' refectation, and not to offer sacrifice.

14:19 <sup>1</sup> In that Melchizedek fed Abram, he declared himself to represent a king, and in that he blessed him, the high Priest.

21 Then the king of Sodom said to Abram, Give me the <sup>1</sup>persons, and take the goods to thyself.

22 And Abram said to the king of Sodom, <sup>1</sup>I have lifted up mine hand unto the Lord the most high God possessor of heaven and earth,

23 <sup>1</sup>That I will not take of all that is thine, so much as a thread or shoe latchet, lest thou shouldst say, I have made Abram rich, 24 <sup>1</sup>Save only that, which the young men have eaten, and the parts of the men which went with me, Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre: let them take their parts.

2 And Abram said, <sup>1</sup>O Lord God, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childless, and the steward of mine house is this Eliezer of Damascus?

3 Again Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: wherefore lo, a servant of mine house shall be mine heir.

4 Then behold, the word of the Lord came unto him, saying, This man shall not be thine heir, but one that shall come out of thine own bowels, he shall be thine heir.

5 Moreover he brought him forth and said, <sup>1</sup>Look up now unto heaven, and tell the stars if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be.

6 And Abram <sup>a</sup>believed the Lord, and he counted that to him for righteousness.

7 Again he said unto him, I am the Lord, that brought thee out of <sup>c</sup>Ur, of the Chaldeans, to give thee this land to inherit it.

8 And he said, O Lord God, <sup>1</sup>Whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?

9 Then he said unto him, Take me an heifer of three years old, and a she goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, a turtle dove also and a pigeon.

11 Then fowls fell on the carcasses, and Abram drove them away.

12 And when the sun went down, there fell an heavy sleep unto Abram: and lo, <sup>1a</sup>a very fearful darkness fell upon him.

13 Then he said to Abram, <sup>1</sup>Know for a surety, that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, <sup>2</sup><sup>3</sup>four hundred years, and shall serve them: and they entreat them evil.

17 Also when the sun went down, there was a darkness: and behold, a smoking furnace, and a firebrand, which went between those pieces.

3 Then Sarai Abram's wife took Hagar her maid the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelled ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram for his wife.

4 ¶ And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her dame was <sup>1</sup>despised in her eyes.

5 Then Sarai said to Abram, <sup>1</sup>Thou doest me wrong, I have given my maid into thy bosom, and she seeth that she hath conceived, and I am despised in her eyes: the Lord judge between me and thee.

16 And Abram was four score and six years old when Hagar bare him Ishmael.

1 When Abram was ninety years old and nine, the Lord appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am God <sup>1</sup>all sufficient, <sup>a</sup>walk before me, and be thou <sup>2</sup>upright,

2 And I will make my covenant between me and thee, and I will multiply thee exceedingly.

3 Then Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him, saying,

5 Neither shall thy name anymore be called Abram, but thy name shall be <sup>1</sup>Abraham: <sup>b</sup>for a father of many nations have I made thee.

8 And I will give thee and thy seed after thee the land, wherein thou art a stranger, even all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession, and I will be their God.

9 ¶ Again God said unto Abraham, Thou also shalt keep my covenant, thou, and thy seed after thee in their generations.

10 <sup>1</sup>This is my covenant which ye shall keep between me and you, and thy seed after thee, <sup>d</sup>Let every man-child among you be circumcised:

13 He that is born in thine house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: so my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

14 But the uncircumcised <sup>1</sup>man-child, in whose flesh the foreskin is not circumcised, even that person shall be cut off from his people, because he hath broken my covenant.

15 ¶ Afterward God said unto Abraham, Sarai thy wife shalt thou not call Sarai, but <sup>1</sup>Sarah shall be her name.

16 And I will bless her, and will also give thee a son of her, yea, I will bless her, and she shall be the mother of nations: Kings also of people shall come of her.

17 Then Abraham fell upon his face, and <sup>1</sup>laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him, that is an hundred years old? and shall Sarah that is ninety years old, bear?

18 And Abraham said unto God, Oh, that Ishmael might live in thy sight.

21 But my covenant will I establish with Isaac, which Sarah shall bear unto thee, the next <sup>2</sup>year at this season.

22 And he left off talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

23 ¶ Then Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that was bought with his money, that is, every man-child among the men of Abraham's house, and <sup>1</sup>he circumcised the foreskin of their flesh in that selfsame day, as God had commanded him.

12 Therefore Sarah <sup>1</sup>laughed within herself, saying, After I am waxed old, and my lord also, shall I have lust?

13 And the Lord said unto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah thus laugh, saying, Shall I certainly bear a child, which am old?

14 (Shall anything be <sup>1,d</sup>hard to the Lord? as the time appointed will I return unto thee, even according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.)

15 But Sarah denied, saying, I laughed not: for she was afraid. And he said, <sup>1</sup>It is not so: for thou laughedst.

16 ¶ Afterward, the men did rise up from thence, and looked toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them to bring them to the way.

17 And the <sup>1</sup>Lord said, Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do, 18 Seeing that Abraham shall be indeed a great and a mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him?

19 For I know him <sup>1</sup>that he will command his sons and his household after him, that they keep the way of the Lord to do righteousness and judgment, that the Lord may bring upon Abraham, that he hath spoken unto him.

25 Be it far from thee from doing this thing, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous should be even as the wicked, be it far from thee. Shall not the Judge of all the world <sup>1</sup>do right?

26 And the Lord answered, If I shall find in Sodom <sup>1</sup>fifty righteous within the city, then will I spare all the place for their sakes.

27 Then Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I have begun to speak unto my Lord, and I am <sup>1</sup>but dust and ashes, 28 If there shall lack five of fifty righteous, wilt thou destroy all the city for five? And he said, If I find there five and forty, I will not destroy it.

29 And he yet spake to him again, and said, What if there shall be found forty there? Then he answered, I will not do it for forty's sake.

30 Again he said, Let not my Lord now be angry that I speak, What if thirty be found there? Then he said, I will not do it, if I find thirty there.

31 Moreover he said, Behold now, I have begun to speak unto my Lord, What if twenty be found there? And he answered, I will not destroy it for twenty's sake.

32 Then he said, Let not my Lord be now angry, and I will speak but this <sup>1</sup>once, What if ten be found there? And he answered, I will not destroy it for ten's sake.

3 Then <sup>1</sup>he pressed upon them earnestly, and they turned in to him, and came to his house, and he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened bread, and they <sup>2</sup>did eat.

4 But before they went to bed, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom compassed the house round about, from the young even to the old, <sup>1</sup>all the people from all quarters.

5 Who crying unto Lot said to him, Where are the men, which came to thee this night? bring them out unto us, that we may know them.

6 Then Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him,

7 And said, I pray you, my brethren, do not so wickedly.

8 Behold now, I have two <sup>1</sup>daughters, which have not known man: them will I bring out now unto you, and do them as seemeth you good: only unto these men do nothing: <sup>2</sup>for therefore are they come under the shadow of my roof.

9 Then they said, Away hence: and they said, He is come alone as a stranger, and shall he judge and rule? we will now deal worse with thee than with them. So they pressed sore upon Lot <sup>1</sup>himself, and came to break the door.

10 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door.

16 And as he <sup>1</sup>prolonged the time, the men caught both him and his wife, and his two daughters by the hands (the Lord being merciful unto him) and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

17 ¶ And when they had brought them out, the Angel said, Escape for thy life: <sup>1</sup>look not behind thee, neither tarry thou in all the plain: escape into the mountain, lest thou be destroyed.

18 And Lot said unto them, Not so, I pray thee, my Lord.

19 Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast showed unto me in saving my life: and I cannot escape in the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die.

20 See now this city hereby to flee unto, which is a little one: Oh let me escape thither: is it not a <sup>1</sup>little one, and my soul shall live?

19:26 <sup>1</sup> As touching the body only: and this is a notable monument of God's vengeance to all them that passed that way.

28 And looking toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, behold, he saw the smoke of the land mounting up as the smoke of a furnace.

29 ¶ But yet when God destroyed the cities of the plain, God thought upon Abraham, and sent Lot out from the midst of the destruction, when he overthrew the cities, wherein Lot dwelled.

30 ¶ Then Lot went up out of Zoar, and dwelt in the mountain with his two daughters for he <sup>1</sup>feared to tarry in Zoar, but dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters.

31 And the elder said unto the younger, Our father is old, and there is not a man in the <sup>1</sup>earth, to come in unto us after the manner of all the earth.

32 Come, we will make our father <sup>1</sup>drink wine, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

33 So they made their father drink wine that night, and the elder went and lay with her father: but he perceived not, neither when she lay down, neither when she rose up.

34 And on the morrow the elder said to the younger, Behold, yester night lay I with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also, and go thou and lie with him, that we may <sup>1</sup>preserve seed of our father.

35 So they made their father drink wine that night also, and the younger arose, and lay with him: but he perceived it not, when she lay down, neither when she rose up.

36 Thus were <sup>1</sup>both the daughters of Lot with child by their father.

37 And the elder bare a son, and she called his name Moab: the same is the father of the <sup>1</sup>Moabites unto this day.

38 And the younger bare a son also, and she called his name <sup>1</sup>Ben-Ammi: the same is the father of the Ammonites unto this day.

20 1 Abraham dwelleth as a stranger in the land of Gerar. 2 Abimelech taketh away his wife. 3 God

1 Afterward Abraham departed thence toward the South country and dwelled between Kadesh and <sup>1</sup>Shur, and sojourned in Gerar.

2 And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, <sup>1</sup>She is my sister. Then Abimelech king of Gerar sent and took Sarah.

3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, <sup>1</sup>thou art but dead, because of the woman, which thou hast taken: for she is a man's wife.

4 (Notwithstanding Abimelech had not yet come near her) And he said, Lord, wilt thou slay even <sup>1</sup>the righteous nation?

5 Said not he unto me, She is my sister? yea, and she herself said, He is my brother: with an upright <sup>1</sup>mind, and <sup>2</sup>innocent hands have I done this.

6 And God said unto him by a dream, I know that thou diddest this even with an upright mind, and I <sup>1</sup>kept thee also that thou shouldest not sin against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch her.

7 Now then deliver the man his wife again: for he is a <sup>1</sup>Prophet, and he <sup>2</sup>shall pray for thee, that thou mayest live: but if thou deliver her not again, be sure that thou shalt die the death, thou, and all that thou hast.

8 Then Abimelech rising up early in the morning, called all his servants, and told all these things <sup>1</sup>unto them, and the men were sore afraid.

9 Afterward Abimelech called Abraham, and said unto him, What hast thou done unto us? and what have I offended thee, that thou hast brought on me, and on my <sup>1</sup>kingdom this great sin? thou hast done things unto me that ought not to be done.

10 So Abimelech said unto Abraham, What sawest thou that thou hast done this thing?

11 Then Abraham answered, Because I thought thus, Surely the <sup>1</sup>fear of God is not in this place, and they will slay me for my wife's sake.

19:30 <sup>1</sup> Having before felt God's mercy, he durst not provoke him again by continuing among the wicked.

19:31 <sup>1</sup> Meaning in the country, which the Lord had now destroyed.

19:32 <sup>1</sup> For except he had been overcome with wine, he would never have done that abominable act.

19:36 <sup>1</sup> Thus God permitted him to fall most horribly in the solitary mountains, whom the wickedness of Sodom could not overcome.

19:37 <sup>1</sup> Who as they were born in most horrible incest, so were they and their posterity vile and wicked.

19:38 <sup>1</sup> That is, son of my people: signifying that they rather rejoiced in their sin, than repented for the same.

20:1 <sup>1</sup> Which was toward Egypt.

20:2 <sup>1</sup> Abraham had now twice fallen into this fault: such is man's frailty.

20:3 <sup>1</sup> So greatly God detesteth the breach of marriage.

20:4 <sup>1</sup> The infidels confessed that God would not punish but for just occasion: therefore, whensoever he punisheth, the occasion is just.

20:9 <sup>1</sup> The wickedness of the King bringeth God's wrath upon the whole realm.

20:11 <sup>1</sup> He showeth that no honesty can be hoped for, where the fear of God is not.

12 Yet in very deed she is my <sup>1</sup>sister: for she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother, and she is my wife.

13 Now when God caused me to wander out of my father's house, I said then to her, This is thy kindness that thou shalt show unto me in all places where we come, "Say thou of me, He is my brother.

14 Then took Abimelech sheep and beeves, and men servants, and women servants, and gave them unto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife.

15 And Abimelech said, Behold, my land is <sup>1</sup>before thee, dwell where it pleaseth thee.

16 Likewise to Sarah he said, Behold, I have given thy brother a thousand pieces of silver: behold, he is the <sup>1</sup>veil of thine eyes to all that are with thee, and to all others: and she was <sup>2</sup>thus reprov'd.

17 ¶ Then Abraham prayed unto God, and God healed Abimelech and his wife, and his women servants: and they bare children.

18 For the Lord <sup>1</sup>had shut up every womb of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah Abraham's wife.

1 Now the Lord visited Sarah, as he had said, and did unto her <sup>a</sup>according as he had promised.

2 For <sup>b</sup>Sarah conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his <sup>1</sup>old age, at the same season that God told him.

3 And Abraham called his son's name that was born unto him, which Sarah bare him, Isaac.

4 Then Abraham circumcised Isaac his son, when he was eight days old, <sup>c</sup>as God had commanded him.

5 So Abraham was an hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him.

6 ¶ Then Sarah said, God hath made me to rejoice: all that hear, will rejoice with me.

7 Again she said, <sup>1</sup>Who would have said to Abraham, that Sarah should have given children suck? for I have borne him a son in his old age.

8 Then the child grew and was weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the same day that Isaac

9 ¶ And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian (which she had borne unto Abraham) <sup>1</sup>mocking.

10 Wherefore she said unto Abraham, "Cast out this bondwoman and her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son Isaac.

11 And this thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight, because of his son.

12 ¶ But God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight for the child, and for thy bondwoman: in all that Sarah shall say unto thee, hear her voice: for in Isaac shall thy seed be <sup>1</sup>called.

13 As for the son of the bondwoman, I will make him <sup>1</sup>a nation also, because he is thy seed.

14 So Abraham arose up early in the morning and took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave it unto Hagar putting it on her shoulder, and the child also, and <sup>1</sup>sent her away: who departing, wandered in the wilderness of Beersheba.

15 And when the water of the bottle was spent, she cast the child under a certain tree.

16 Then she went and sat her over against him afar off about a bow shoot: for she said, I will not see the death of the child. And she sat down over against him, and lift up her voice, and wept.

17 Then God <sup>1</sup>heard the voice of the child, and the Angel of God called to Hagar from heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? fear not, for God hath heard the voice of the child where he is.

18 Arise, take up the child, and hold him in thine hand: for I will make him a great people.

19 And God <sup>1</sup>opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water: so she went and filled the bottle with water, and gave the boy drink.

20 So God was <sup>1</sup>with the child, and he grew and dwelt in the wilderness, and was an <sup>2</sup>archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran, and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ And at the same time Abimelech and Phichol his chief captain spake unto Abraham, saying, God is with thee in all that thou doest.

children's children: thou shalt deal with me, and with the country, where thou hast been a stranger, according unto the kindness that I have showed thee.

24 Then Abraham said, I will <sup>1</sup>swear.

25 And Abraham rebuked Abimelech for a well of water, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away.

26 And Abimelech said, <sup>1</sup>I know not who hath done this thing: also thou toldest me not, neither heard I of it but this day.

27 Then Abraham took sheep and beeves, and gave them unto Abimelech: and they two made a covenant.

28 And Abraham set seven lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 Then Abimelech said unto Abraham, What mean these seven lambs, which thou hast set by themselves?

30 And he answered, Because thou shalt receive of mine hand these seven lambs, that it may be a witness unto me, that I have dug this well.

31 Wherefore the place is called <sup>1</sup>Beersheba, because there they both swear.

32 Thus made they a <sup>1</sup>covenant at Beersheba: afterward Abimelech and Phichol the chief captain rose up, and turned again unto the land of the Philistines.

33 ¶ And Abraham planted a grove in Beersheba, and <sup>1</sup>called there on the Name of the Lord, the everlasting God.

of the mountains, which I will show thee.

3 Then Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his servants with him, and Isaac his son, and clove wood for the burnt offering, and rose up and went to the place, which God had told him.

4 ¶ Then the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off,

5 And said unto his servants, Abide you here with the ass: for I and the child will go yonder and worship, and <sup>1</sup>come again unto you.

6 Then Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering, and laid it upon Isaac his son, and he took the fire in his hand, and the knife: and they went both together.

7 Then spake Isaac unto Abraham his father, and said, My father. And he answered, Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?

8 Then Abraham answered, My son, God will <sup>1</sup>provide him a lamb for a burnt offering: so they went both together.

9 And when they came to the place which God had showed him, Abraham built an altar there, and couched the wood, and <sup>1</sup>bound Isaac his son, <sup>b</sup>and laid him on the altar upon the wood.

10 And Abraham stretching forth his hand, took the knife to kill his son.

11 But the Angel of the Lord called unto him from heaven, saying, Abraham, Abraham. And he answered, Here am I.

12 Then he said, Lay not thine hand upon the child, neither do anything unto him: for now I <sup>1</sup>know that thou fearest God, seeing for my sake <sup>2</sup>thou hast not spared thine <sup>3</sup>only son.

13 And Abraham lifting up his eyes, looked and behold, there was a ram behind him caught by the horns in a bush: then Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son.

14 And Abraham called the name of that place <sup>1</sup>Jehovah Jireh: as it is said this day, In the mount will the Lord <sup>2</sup>be seen.

21:24 <sup>1</sup> So that it is a lawful thing to take an oath in matters of importance, for to justify the truth, and to assure others of our sincerity.

21:31 <sup>1</sup> Or, well of the oath, or of seven, meaning lambs.

21:32 <sup>1</sup> Thus we see that the godly, as touching outward things may make peace with the wicked that know not the true God.

21:33 <sup>1</sup> That is, he worshipped God in all points of true Religion.

22:5 <sup>1</sup> He doubted not, but God would accomplish his promise, though he should sacrifice his son.

22:8 <sup>1</sup> The only way to overcome all tentation, is to rest upon God's providence.

22:9 <sup>1</sup> For it is like that his father had declared to him God's commandment, whereunto he showed himself obedient.

22:12 <sup>1</sup> That is, by thy true obedience thou hast declared thy lively faith.

22:14 <sup>1</sup> Or, the Lord will see or provide.

<sup>2</sup> The name is changed, to show that God doth both see and provide secretly for his, and also evidently is seen, and felt in time convenient.

15 ¶ And the Angel of the Lord cried unto Abraham from heaven the second time,

16 And said, 'By <sup>1</sup>myself have I sworn (saith the Lord) because thou hast done this thing, and hast not spared thine only son,

17 Therefore will I surely bless thee, and will greatly multiply thy seed, as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore, and thy seed shall possess the <sup>1</sup>gate of his enemies.

18 <sup>d</sup>And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because thou hast obeyed my voice.

19 Then turned Abraham again unto his servants, and they rose up, and went together to Beersheba: and Abraham dwelt at Beersheba.

20 ¶ And after these things one told Abraham, saying, Behold Milcah, she hath also born children unto thy brother Nahor:

21 To wit, Huz his eldest son, and Buz his brother, and Kemuel the father of <sup>1</sup>Aram, 22 And Chesed, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel.

23 And Bethuel begat Rebekah: these eight did Milcah bear to Nahor, Abraham's brother.

24 And his <sup>1</sup>concubine called Reumah, she bare also Tebah, and Gaham, and Thahash and Maachah.

2 Then Sarah died in Kirjath Arba: the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan. And Abraham came to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.

3 ¶ Then Abraham <sup>1</sup>rose up from the sight of his corpse, and talked with the <sup>2</sup>Hittites, saying,

4 I am a stranger, and a foreigner among you: give me a possession of burial with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight.

5 Then the Hittites answered Abraham, saying unto him,

6 Hear us, my lord: thou art a prince <sup>1</sup>of God among us: in the chiefest of our sepulchers bury the dead: none of us shall forbid thee his sepulcher, but thou mayest bury thy dead therein.

7 Then Abraham stood up, and bowed himself before the people of the land of the Hittites.

8 And he communed with them, saying, If it be <sup>1</sup>your mind, that I shall bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and entreat for me to Ephron the son of Zohar,

9 That he would give me the cave of <sup>1</sup>Machpelah, which he hath in the end of his field: that he would give it me for as much <sup>2</sup>money as it is worth, for a possession to bury in among you.

10 (For Ephron dwelt among the Hittites) Then Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the audience of all the Hittites that <sup>1</sup>went in at the gates of his city, saying, 11 No, my Lord, hear me: the field give I thee and the cave that therein is, I give it thee: even in the presence of the sons of my people give I it thee to bury thy dead.

12 Then Abraham <sup>1</sup>bowed himself before the people of the land,

13 And spake unto Ephron in the audience of the people of the country, saying, Seeing thou wilt give it, I pray thee, hear me, I will give the price of the field: receive it of me, and I will bury my dead there.

14 Ephron then answered Abraham, saying unto him,

15 My lord, hearken unto me: the land is worth four hundred <sup>1</sup>shekels of silver: what is that between me and thee? bury therefore thy dead.

16 So Abraham hearkened unto Ephron, and Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver, which he had named, in the audience of the Hittites, even four hundred silver shekels of current money among merchants.

17 ¶ So the field of Ephron which was in Machpelah, and over against Mamre, even the field and the cave that was therein, and all the trees that were in the field, which were in all the borders round about, was made sure

18 Unto Abraham for a possession, in the sight of the Hittites, even of all that <sup>1</sup>went in at the gates of his city.

19 And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah over against Mamre: the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan.

23:18 <sup>1</sup> Or, citizens.

1 Now Abraham was old, and <sup>1</sup>stricken in years, and the Lord had blessed Abraham in all things.

2 Therefore Abraham said unto his eldest servant of his house, which had the rule over all that he had, <sup>a</sup>Put now thine hand under my thigh,

3 And I will make thee <sup>1</sup>swear by the Lord God of the heaven, and God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites among whom I dwell:

4 But thou shalt go unto my <sup>1</sup>country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son Isaac.

5 And the servant said to him, What if the woman will not come with me to this land? shall I bring thy son again unto the land from whence thou camest?

6 To whom Abraham answered, Beware that thou bring not my son <sup>1</sup>thither again.

7 ¶ The Lord God of heaven, who took me from my father's house, and from the land where I was born, and that spake unto me, and that swear unto me, saying, <sup>b</sup>Unto thy seed will I give this land, he shall send his Angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence.

8 Nevertheless if the woman will not follow thee, then shalt thou be <sup>1</sup>discharged of this mine oath: only bring not my son thither again.

9 Then the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and sware to him for this matter.

10 ¶ So the servant took ten camels of the camels of his master, and departed: (for he had all his master's goods in his hand:) and so he arose, and went to <sup>1</sup>Aram Naharaim, unto the <sup>2</sup>city of Nahor.

24:19 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, have made an end of drinking.

24:22 <sup>1</sup> Or, earring.

24 Then she said to him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah whom she bare unto Nahor.

25 Moreover she said unto him, We have litter also and provender enough, and room to lodge in.

26 And the man bowed himself and worshipped the Lord,

27 And said, Blessed be the Lord God of my master Abraham, which hath not withdrawn his mercy <sup>1</sup>and his truth from my master: for when I was in the way, the Lord brought me to my master's brethren's house.

28 And the maid ran and told them of her mother's house according to these words.

29 ¶ Now Rebekah had a brother called Laban, and Laban ran unto the man to the well.

30 For when he had seen the earrings and bracelets in his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus said the man unto me, then he went to the man, and lo, <sup>1</sup>he stood by the camels at the well.

31 And he said, Come in thou blessed of the Lord: wherefore standest thou without, seeing I have prepared the house, and room for the camels?

32 ¶ Then the man came into the house, and <sup>1</sup>he unsaddled the <sup>2</sup>camels, and brought litter and provender for the camels, and water to wash his feet, and the men's feet that were with him.

33 Afterward the meat was set before him: but he said, I <sup>1</sup>will not eat, until I have said my message. And he said: Speak on.

34 Then he said, I am Abraham's servant,

35 And the Lord hath <sup>1</sup>blessed my master wonderfully, that he is become great: for he hath given him sheep, and beeves, and silver, and gold, and men servants, and maid servants, and camels, and asses.

36 And Sarah my master's wife hath borne a son to my master, when she was old, and unto him hath he given all that he hath.

37 Now my master made me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the <sup>1</sup>Canaanites, in whose land I dwell:

to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son.

39 Then I said unto my master, What if the woman will not follow me?

40 Who answered me, The Lord, before who I walk, will send his Angel with thee, and prosper thy journey, and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kindred and my father's house.

41 Then shalt thou be discharged of <sup>1</sup>mine oath, when thou comest to my kindred: and if they give thee not one, thou shalt be free from mine oath.

42 So I came this day to the well, and said, O Lord, the God of my master Abraham, if thou now prosper my <sup>1</sup>journey which I go,

43 Behold, <sup>1</sup>I stand by the well of water when a virgin cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink, 44 And she said to me, Drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels, let her be the wife, which the Lord hath <sup>1</sup>prepared for thy master's son.

45 And before I had made an end of speaking in mine <sup>1</sup>heart, behold, Rebekah came forth and her pitcher on her shoulder, and she went down to the well, and drew water. Then I said unto her, Give me drink, I pray thee.

46 And she made haste, and took down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also. So I drank, and she gave the camels drink also.

47 Then I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she answered, The daughter of Bethuel Nahor's son, whom Milcah bare unto him. Then I put the abillement upon her face, and the bracelets upon her hands:

48 <sup>1</sup>And I bowed down and worshipped the Lord, and blessed the Lord God of my master Abraham, which had brought me the <sup>2</sup>right way to take my master's brother's daughter unto his son.

49 Now therefore, if ye will deal <sup>1</sup>mercifully and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me, that I may turn me to the <sup>2</sup>right hand or to the left.

50 Then answered Laban and Bethuel, and said, <sup>1</sup>This thing is proceeded of the Lord: we cannot therefore say unto thee, neither evil nor good.

51 Behold, Rebekah is <sup>1</sup>before thee, take her and go, that she may be thy master's son's wife, even as the Lord hath <sup>2</sup>said.

52 And when Abraham's servant heard their words, he bowed himself toward the earth unto the Lord.

53 Then the servant took forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave to Rebekah: also unto her brother and to her mother he gave gifts.

54 Afterward they did eat and drink, both he, and the men that were with him, and tarried all night, and when they rose up in the morning, he said, <sup>4</sup>Let me depart unto my master.

55 Then her brother and her mother answered, Let the maid abide with us, at the least <sup>1</sup>ten days: then shall she go.

56 But he said unto them, Hinder you me not, seeing the Lord hath prospered my journey: send me away, that I may go to my master.

57 Then they said, We will call the maid, and ask <sup>1</sup>her consent.

58 And they called Rebekah, and said unto her: Wilt thou go with this man? And <sup>1</sup>she answered, I will go.

59 So they let Rebekah their sister go, and her nurse, with Abraham's servant and his men.

60 And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Thou art our sister, grow into thousand thousand's, and thy seed possess the <sup>1</sup>gate of his enemies.

61 ¶ Then Rebekah arose, and her maids, and rode upon the camels, and followed the man, and the servant took Rebekah and departed.

62 Now Isaac came from the way of Beer Lahai Roi, (for he dwelt in the South country.)

63 And Isaac went out to <sup>1</sup>pray in the field toward the evening: who lift up his eyes and looked, and behold, the camels came.

64 Also Rebekah lift up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she lighted down from the camel.

65 (For she had said to the servant, Who is yonder man, that cometh in the field to meet us? and the servant had said, It is my master) So she took <sup>1</sup>a veil, and covered her.

1 Now Abraham had taken <sup>1</sup>him another wife called Keturah,

2 Which bare him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah.

3 And Jokshan, begat Sheba, and Dedan: <sup>4</sup>And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, and Letushim, and Leummim.

4 Also the sons of Midian were Ephah, and Epher, and Hanoch, and Abidah, and Eldaah, all these were the sons of Keturah.

5 ¶ And Abraham gave <sup>1</sup>all his goods to Isaac.

6 But unto the <sup>1</sup>sons of the <sup>2</sup>concubines, which Abraham had, Abraham <sup>3</sup>gave gifts, and sent them away from Isaac his son (while he yet lived) Eastward to the East country.

7 And this is the age of Abraham's life, which he lived, an hundred seventy and five years.

8 Then Abraham yielded the spirit, and died in a good age, an old man, and of great years, and was <sup>1</sup>gathered to his people.

9 And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron son of Zohar the Hittite, before Mamre,

10 Which <sup>b</sup>field Abraham bought of the Hittites, where Abraham was buried with Sarah his wife.

11 ¶ And after the death of Abraham God blessed Isaac his son, <sup>4</sup>and Isaac dwelt by Beer Lahai Roi.

12 ¶ Now these are the <sup>d</sup>generations of Ishmael Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian Sarah's handmaid bare unto Abraham.

16 These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their towns and by their castles: to wit, twelve princes of their nations.

17 (And these are the years of the life of Ishmael, an hundred thirty and seven years, and he yielded up the spirit, and died, and was gathered unto his <sup>1</sup>people.)

18 And they dwelt from Havilah unto Shur, that is towards Egypt, as thou goest to Asshur. Ishmael <sup>1</sup>dwelt <sup>2</sup>in the presence of all his brethren.

19 ¶ Likewise these are the generations of Isaac Abraham's son. Abraham begat Isaac.

20 And Isaac was forty years old, when he took Rebekah to wife, the daughter of Bethuel the <sup>1</sup>Aramite of Padan Aram, and sister to Laban the Aramite.

21 And Isaac prayed unto the Lord for his wife, because she was barren: and the Lord was entreated of him, and Rebekah his wife conceived.

22 But the children <sup>1</sup>strove together within her: therefore she said, Seeing it is so, why am I <sup>2</sup>thus? wherefore she went <sup>3</sup>to ask the Lord.

23 And the Lord said to her, Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be divided out of thy bowels, and the one people shall be mightier than the other, and the <sup>1</sup>elder shall serve the younger.

24 ¶ Therefore when her time of deliverance was fulfilled, behold, twins were in her womb.

25 So he that came out first was red, and he was all over as rough as a garment, and they called his name Esau.

26 <sup>1</sup>And afterward came his brother out, and his hand held Esau by the heel, therefore his name was called Jacob. Now Isaac was threescore years old when Rebekah bare them.

27 And the boys grew, and Esau was a cunning hunter, and <sup>1</sup>lived in the fields: but Jacob was a <sup>2</sup>plain man, and dwelt in tents.

29 Now Jacob sod pottage, and Esau came from the field and was weary.

30 Then Esau said to Jacob, <sup>1</sup>Let me eat, I pray thee, of that pottage so red, for I am weary. Therefore was his name called Edom.

31 And Jacob said, Sell me even now thy birthright.

32 And Esau said, Lo, I am almost dead, what is then this <sup>1</sup>birthright to me?

33 Jacob then said, Swear to me even now. And he swear to him, <sup>2</sup>and <sup>1</sup>sold his birthright unto Jacob.

34 Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentils: and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way: So Esau contemned his birthright.

1 And there was a famine in the <sup>1</sup>land besides the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. Wherefore Isaac went to Abimelech King of the Philistines unto Gerar.

2 For the Lord appeared unto him, and said, <sup>1</sup>Go not down into Egypt, but abide in the land which I shall show thee.

3 Dwell in this land, and I will be with thee, and will bless thee: for to thee, and to thy seed I will give all these <sup>1</sup>countries, and I will perform the oath which I swear unto Abraham thy father.

kill me, because of Rebekah, for she was beautiful to the eye.

8 So after he had been there a long time, Abimelech King of the Philistines looked out at a window, and lo, he saw Isaac <sup>1</sup>sporting with Rebekah his wife.

9 Then Abimelech called Isaac, and said, Lo, she is of a surety thy wife, and why saidest thou, She is my sister? To whom Isaac answered, Because I thought this, It may be that I shall die for her.

10 Then Abimelech said, Why hast thou done this unto us? one of the people had almost lain by thy wife, so shouldst thou have brought <sup>1</sup>sin upon us.

11 Then Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this man, or his wife, shall die the death.

12 Afterward Isaac sowed in that land, and found in the same year an <sup>1</sup>hundredfold by estimation: and so the Lord blessed him.

13 And the man waxed mightily, and <sup>1</sup>still increased, till he was exceeding great.

14 For he had flocks of sheep, and herds of cattle, and a mighty household: therefore the Philistines had <sup>1</sup>envy at him, 15 Insomuch that the Philistines stopped, and filled up with earth all the wells, which his father's servants dug in his father Abraham's time.

16 Then Abimelech said unto Isaac, Get thee from us, for thou art mightier than we a great deal.

17 ¶ Therefore Isaac departed thence and pitched his tent in the <sup>1</sup>valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.

18 And Isaac returning, dug the wells of water, which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father, for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham, and he gave them the same names, that his father gave them.

19 Isaac's servants then dug in the valley and found there a well of <sup>1</sup>living water.

20 But the herdsmen of Gerar did strive with Isaac's herdsmen, saying, The water is ours, therefore called he the name of the well <sup>1</sup>Esek, because they were at strife with him.

21 Afterward they dug another well, and strove for that also, and he called the name of it <sup>1</sup>Sitnah.

22 Then he removed thence, and dug another well, for which they strove not: therefore called he the name of it <sup>1</sup>Rehoboth, and said, Because the Lord hath now made us room, we shall increase upon the earth.

23 So he went up thence to Beersheba.

24 And the Lord appeared unto him the same night, and said, I am the God <sup>1</sup>of Abraham thy father: fear not, I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham's sake.

25 Then he built an <sup>1</sup>altar there, and called upon the Name of the Lord, and there spread his tent: where also Isaac's servants dug a well.

26 ¶ Then came Abimelech to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath one of his friends, and Phichol the captain of his army.

27 To whom Isaac said, Wherefore come ye to me, seeing ye hate me and have put me away from you?

28 Who answered, We saw certainly that the Lord was with thee, and we thought thus, Let there be now an oath between us, even between us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee.

29 <sup>1</sup>If thou shalt do us no hurt, as we have not touched thee, and as we have done unto thee nothing but good, and sent thee away in peace: thou now, the blessed of the Lord, do this.

30 Then he made them a feast, and they did eat and drink.

31 And they rose up betimes in the morning, and swear one to another: then Isaac let them go, and they departed from him in peace.

32 And that same day Isaac's servants came and told him of a well, which they had dug, and said unto him, We have found water.

33 So he called it <sup>1</sup>Shebah: therefore the name of the city is called <sup>2</sup>Beersheba unto this day.

34 ¶ Now when Esau was forty years old, he took to wife Judith, the daughter of Beeri an Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon an Hittite also.

1 And when Isaac was old, and his eyes were dim (so that he could not see) he called Esau his eldest son, and said unto him, My son. And he answered him, <sup>1</sup>I am here.

2 Then he said, Behold, I am now old, and know not the day of my death.

3 Wherefore now, I pray thee take thine instruments, thy quiver and thy bow, and get thee to the field, that thou mayest <sup>1</sup>take me some venison.

4 Then make me savory meat, such as I love, and bring it me that I may eat, and that my <sup>1</sup>soul may bless thee, before I die.

5 (Now Rebekah heard, when Isaac spake to Esau his son) and Esau went into the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it.

6 ¶ Then Rebekah spake unto Jacob her son, saying, Behold, I have heard thy father talking with Esau thy brother, saying,

7 Bring me venison, and make me savory meat, that I may eat and bless thee before the Lord, afore my death.

8 Now therefore, my son, hear my voice in that which I command thee.

9 <sup>1</sup>Get thee now to the flock, and bring me thence two good kids of the goats, that I may make pleasant meat of them for thy father, such as he loveth.

10 Then thou shalt bring it to thy father, and he shall eat, to the intent that he may bless thee before his death.

11 But Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, Esau my brother is rough, and I am smooth.

12 My father may possibly feel me, and I shall seem <sup>1</sup>to him as a <sup>2</sup>mocker: so shall I bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing.

13 But his mother said unto him, <sup>1,2</sup>Upon me be thy curse, my son: only hear my voice, and go and bring me them.

14 So he went and set them, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made pleasant meat, such as his father loved.

15 And Rebekah took fair clothes of her elder son Esau, which were in her house, and clothed Jacob her younger son:

16 And she covered his hands and the smooth of his neck with the skins of the kids of the goats.

17 Afterward she put the pleasant meat and bread, which she had prepared, in the hand of her son Jacob.

18 ¶ And when he came to his father, he said, My father. Who answered, I am here: who art thou, my son?

19 And Jacob said to his father, <sup>1</sup>I am Esau thy firstborn, I have done as thou badest me, arise, I pray thee: sit up and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me.

20 Then Isaac said unto his son, How hast thou found it so quickly my son? Who said, Because the Lord thy God brought it to mine hand.

21 Again said Isaac unto Jacob, Come near now, that I may feel thee, my son, whether thou be that my son Esau, or not.

22 Then Jacob came near to Isaac his father, and he felt him and said, The <sup>1</sup>voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.

23 (For he knew him not, because his hands were rough as his brother Esau's hands: wherefore he blessed him.)

24 Again he said, Art thou that my son Esau? Who answered, <sup>1</sup>Yea.

25 Then said he, Bring it me hither, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless thee. And he brought it to him, and he ate: also he brought him wine, and he drank.

26 Afterward his father Isaac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son.

27 And he came near and kissed him. Then he smelled the savor of his garments, and blessed him, and said, Behold, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field, which the Lord hath blessed.

28 <sup>a</sup>God give thee therefore of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of wheat and wine.

29 Let people be thy servants, and nations bow down unto thee: be Lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's children honor thee, cursed be he that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

27:24 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, I am.

31 And he also prepared savory meat, and brought it to his father, and said unto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that thy soul may bless me.

32 But his father Isaac said unto him, Who art thou? And he answered, I am thy son, even thy firstborn Esau.

33 Then Isaac was <sup>1</sup>stricken with a marvelous great fear, and said, Who and where is he that hunted venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten <sup>2</sup>of all before thou camest? and I have blessed him, therefore he shall be blessed.

34 When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried out with a great cry and bitter, out of measure, and said unto his father, Bless me, even me also, my father.

35 Who answered, Thy brother came with subtlety, and hath taken away thy blessing.

36 Then he said, Was he not justly called <sup>1</sup>Jacob? for he hath deceived me these two times: he took my birthright, and lo, now hath he taken my blessing. Also he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?

37 Then Isaac answered, and said unto Esau, Behold, I have made him <sup>1</sup>thy lord, and all his brethren have I made his servants: and with wheat and wine have I furnished him, and unto thee now what shall I do, my son?

38 Then Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, <sup>1</sup>even me, also my father: and Esau lifted up his voice, and <sup>6</sup>wept.

39 Then Isaac his father answered, and said unto him, Behold, the fatness of the earth shall be thy dwelling place, and thou shalt have of the dew of heaven from above.

40 And <sup>1</sup>by thy word shalt thou live, and shalt be thy brother's <sup>2</sup>servant. But it shall come to pass, when thou shalt get the mastery, that thou shalt break his yoke from thy neck.

41 ¶ Therefore Esau hated Jacob, because of the blessing, wherewith his father blessed him. And Esau thought in his mind, <sup>4</sup>The days of mourning for my father will come shortly, <sup>1</sup>then I will slay my brother Jacob.

42 And it was told to Rebekah of the words of Esau her elder son, and she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said unto him, Behold, thy brother Esau <sup>1</sup>is comforted against thee, meaning to kill thee:

43 Now therefore my son, hear my voice: arise, and flee thou to Haran to my brother Laban,

44 And tarry with him a while until thy brother's fierceness be swaged,

45 And till thy brother's wrath turn away from thee, and he forget the things, which thou hast done to him: then will I send and take thee from thence: why should I be <sup>1</sup>deprived of you both in one day?

46 Also Rebekah said to Isaac, <sup>d</sup>I am weary of my life, for the daughters of Heth. If Jacob take a wife of the <sup>1</sup>daughters of Heth like these of the daughters of the land, <sup>2</sup>what availeth it me to live?

1 Then Isaac called Jacob and <sup>1</sup>blessed him, and charged him, and said unto him, take not a wife of the daughters of Canaan.

2 Arise, <sup>a</sup>get thee to <sup>b</sup>Padan Aram to the house of Bethuel thy mother's father, and thence take thee a wife of the daughters of Laban thy mother's brother.

3 And God all <sup>1</sup>sufficient bless thee, and make thee to increase, and multiply thee, that thou mayest be a multitude of people,

4 And give thee the blessing of Abraham, even to thee and to thy seed with thee, that thou mayest inherit the land (wherein thou art a <sup>1</sup>stranger,) which God gave unto Abraham.

5 Thus Isaac sent forth Jacob, and he went to Padan Aram unto Laban son of Bethuel the Aramite, brother to Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother.

6 ¶ When Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob, and sent him to Padan Aram, to fetch him a wife thence, and given him a charge when he blessed him, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan,

7 And that Jacob had obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Padan Aram:

27:33 <sup>1</sup> In perceiving his error, by appointing his heir against God's sentence pronounced before.

27:36 <sup>1</sup> In Gen. 25, he was so called because he held his brother by the heel, as though he would overthrow him: and therefore he is here called an overthrower, or deceiver.

27:37 <sup>1</sup> For Isaac did this as he was the minister and Prophet of God.

27:38 <sup>1</sup> Or, I am also (thy son).

27:40 <sup>1</sup> Because thine enemies shall be round about thee.

27:41 <sup>1</sup> Hypocrites only abstain from doing evil for fear of men.

27:42 <sup>1</sup> He hath good hope to recover his birthright by killing thee.

27:45 <sup>1</sup> For the wicked son will kill the godly: and the plague of God will afterward light on the wicked son.

28:1 <sup>1</sup> This second blessing was to confirm Jacob's faith, lest he should think that his father had given it without God's motion.

28:3 <sup>1</sup> Or, almighty.

28:4 <sup>1</sup> The godly fathers were put in mind continually, that they were but strangers in this world: to the intent they should lift up their eyes to the heavens where they should have a sure dwelling.

8 Also Esau seeing that the daughters of Canaan displeased Isaac his father,

9 Then went Esau to Ishmael, and took <sup>1</sup>unto the wives which he had, Mahalath the daughter of <sup>2</sup>Ishmael Abraham's son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife.

10 ¶ Now Jacob departed from Beersheba, and went to Haran,

11 And he came unto a certain place, and tarried there all night because the sun was down, and took of the stones of the place, and laid under his head and slept in the same place.

12 Then he dreamed, and behold, there stood a <sup>1</sup>ladder upon the earth, and the top of it reached up to heaven: and lo, the Angels of God went up and down by it.

13 <sup>c</sup>And behold, the Lord stood above it, and said, I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land, upon the which thou sleepest, <sup>1</sup>will I give thee and thy seed.

14 And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad <sup>d</sup>to the West, and to the East, and to the North, and to the South, and in thee and in thy seed shall all the <sup>e</sup>families of the earth be blessed.

15 And lo, I am with thee, and will keep thee whithersoever thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land: for I will not forsake thee until I have performed that, that I have promised thee.

16 ¶ Then Jacob awoke out of his sleep and said, Surely the Lord is in this place, and I was not aware.

17 And he was <sup>1</sup>afraid, and said, How fearful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

18 Then Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had laid under his head, and <sup>1</sup>set it up as <sup>f</sup>a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it.

19 And he called the name of that place <sup>1</sup>Bethel: notwithstanding the name of that city was at the first called Luz.

20 Then Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If <sup>1</sup>God will be with me, and will keep me in this journey which I go, and will give me bread to eat, and clothes to put on:

21 So that I come again unto my father's house in safety, then shall the Lord be my God.

22 And this stone, which I have set up as a pillar, shall be God's house: and of all that thou shalt give me, will I give the tenth unto thee.

1 Then Jacob <sup>1</sup>lift up his feet and came into the <sup>2</sup>East country.

2 And as he looked about, behold, there was a well in the field, <sup>1</sup>and lo, three flocks of sheep lay thereby (for at that well were the flocks watered) and there was a great stone upon the well's mouth.

3 And thither were all the flocks gathered, and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the well's mouth in his place.

4 And Jacob said unto them, My <sup>1</sup>brethren, whence be ye? And they answered, We are of Haran.

5 Then he said unto them, Know ye Laban the son of Nahor? Who said, We know him.

6 Again he said unto them, <sup>1</sup>Is he in good health? And they answered, He is in good health, and behold, his daughter Rachel cometh with the sheep.

7 Then he said, Lo, it is yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together: water ye the sheep and go feed them.

8 But they said, We may not, until all the flocks be brought together, and till men roll the stone from the well's mouth, that we may water the sheep.

9 ¶ While he talked with them, Rachel also came with her father's sheep, for she kept them.

10 And as soon as Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, then came Jacob near, and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

11 And Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice and wept.

12 (For Jacob told Rachel, that he was her father's <sup>1</sup>brother, and that he was Rebekah's son) then she 28:12 <sup>1</sup> Christ is the ladder whereby God and man are joined together, and by whom the Angels minister unto us: all graces by him are given unto us, and we by him ascend into heaven.

28:13 <sup>1</sup> He felt the force of this promise only by faith: for all his lifetime he was but a stranger in this land.

28:17 <sup>1</sup> He was touched with a godly fear and reverence.

28:18 <sup>1</sup> To be a remembrance only of the vision showed unto him.

28:19 <sup>1</sup> Or, house of God.

29:1 <sup>1</sup> That is, he went forth on his journey.

29:2 <sup>1</sup> Thus he was directed by the only providence of God, who brought him also to Laban's house.

29:4 <sup>1</sup> It seemeth that in those days the custom was to call even strangers, brethren.

29:6 <sup>1</sup> Or, he is in peace? by the which word the Hebrews signify all prosperity.

13 And when Laban heard tell of Jacob his sister's son, he ran to meet him, and embraced him and kissed him, and brought him to his house: and he told Laban <sup>1</sup>all these things.

14 To whom Laban said, Well, thou art my <sup>1</sup>bone and my flesh, and he abode with him the space of a month.

15 ¶ For Laban said unto Jacob, Though thou be my brother, shouldest thou therefore serve me for nought? tell me, what shall be thy wages?

16 Now Laban had two daughters, the elder called Leah, and the younger called Rachel.

17 And Leah was <sup>1</sup>tender eyed, but Rachel was beautiful and fair.

18 And Jacob loved Rachel, and said, I will serve thee seven years for Rachel thy younger daughter.

19 Then Laban answered, It is better that I give her thee, than that I should give her to another man: abide with me.

20 And Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed unto him but a <sup>1</sup>few days, because he loved her.

21 ¶ Then Jacob said to Laban, Give me my wife, that I may go in to her: for my <sup>1</sup>term is ended.

22 Wherefore Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast.

23 But <sup>1</sup>when the evening was come, he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him, and he went in unto her.

25 But when the morning was come, behold, it was Leah. Then said he to Laban, Wherefore hast thou done thus to me? did not I serve thee for Rachel? wherefore then hast thou beguiled me?

26 And Laban answered, It is not the <sup>1</sup>manner of this place, to give the younger before the elder.

27 Fulfill seven years for her, and we will also give thee this for the service, which thou shalt serve me yet seven years more.

28 Then Jacob did so, and fulfilled her seven years, so he gave him Rachel his daughter to be his wife.

29 Laban also gave to Rachel his daughter, Bilhah his maid to be her servant.

30 So entered he in to Rachel also, and loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served him yet seven years more.

31 ¶ When the Lord saw that Leah was despised, he <sup>1</sup>made her <sup>2</sup>fruitful: but Rachel was barren.

32 And Leah conceived and bare a son, and she called his name Reuben: for she said, Because the <sup>1</sup>Lord hath looked upon my tribulation, now therefore mine husband will <sup>2</sup>love me.

33 And she conceived again and bare a son, and said, Because the Lord heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this son also, and she called his name Simeon.

34 And she conceived again and bare a son, and said, Now at this time will my husband keep me company, because I have borne him three sons: therefore was his name called Levi.

35 Moreover she conceived again and bare a son, saying, Now will I <sup>1</sup>praise the Lord: <sup>2</sup>therefore she called his name Judah, and <sup>2</sup>left bearing.

1 And when Rachel saw that she bare Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister, and said unto Jacob, Give me children, or else I die.

2 Then Jacob's anger was kindled against Rachel, and he said, Am I in <sup>1</sup>God's stead, which hath withholden from thee the fruit of the womb?

3 And she said, Behold my maid Bilhah, go in to her, and she shall bear upon my <sup>1</sup>knees, and <sup>2</sup>I shall have children also by her.

4 Then she gave him Bilhah her maid to wife, and Jacob went in to her.

5 So Bilhah conceived and bare Jacob a son.

6 Then said Rachel, God hath given sentence on my side, and hath also heard my voice, and hath given me a son: therefore called she his name, Dan.

7 And Bilhah Rachel's maid conceived again, and bare Jacob the second son.

29:13 <sup>1</sup> That is, the cause why he departed from his father's house, and what he saw in the way.

29:14 <sup>1</sup> That is, of my blood and kindred.

29:17 <sup>1</sup> Or, blear-eyed.

29:23 <sup>1</sup> The cause why Jacob was deceived was, that in old time the wife was covered with a veil, when she was brought to her husband in sign of chastity and shamefastness.

29:26 <sup>1</sup> He esteemed more the profit that he had of Jacob's service, than either his promise of the manner of the country, though he alleged custom for his excuse.

29:32 <sup>1</sup> Hereby appeareth, that she had recourse to God in her affliction.

30:2 <sup>1</sup> It is only God that maketh barren and fruitful, and therefore I am not in fault.

30:3 <sup>1</sup> I will receive her children on my lap, as though they were mine own.

8 Then Rachel said, With <sup>1</sup>excellent wrestlings have I <sup>2</sup>wrestled with my sister, and have gotten the upper hand: and she called his name, Naphtali.

9 And when Leah saw that she had left bearing, she took Zilpah her maid, and gave her Jacob to wife.

10 And Zilpah Leah's maid bare Jacob a son.

11 Then said Leah, <sup>1</sup>A company cometh: and she called his name, Gad.

12 Again Zilpah Leah's maid bare Jacob another son.

13 Then said Leah, Ah, blessed am I, for the daughters will bless me, and she called his name Asher.

14 ¶ Now Reuben went in the days of the wheat harvest, and found <sup>1</sup>mandrakes in the field, and brought them unto his mother Leah. Then said Rachel to Leah, Give me, I pray thee, of thy son's mandrakes.

15 But she answered her, Is it a small matter for thee to take mine husband, except thou take my son's mandrakes also? Then said Rachel, Therefore he shall sleep with thee this night for thy son's mandrakes.

16 And Jacob came from the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, Come in to me, for I have <sup>1</sup>bought and paid for thee with my son's mandrakes: and he slept with her that night.

17 And God heard Leah and she conceived, and bare unto Jacob the fifth son.

18 Then said Leah, God hath given me my reward, because I gave my <sup>1</sup>maid to my husband, and she called his name Issachar.

19 After, Leah conceived again, and bare Jacob the sixth son.

20 Then Leah said, God hath endowed me with a good dowry: now will mine husband dwell with me, because I have borne him six sons: and she called his name Zebulun.

21 After that, she bare a daughter, and she called her name Dinah.

22 ¶ And God remembered Rachel, and God heard her, <sup>1</sup>and opened her womb.

23 So she conceived and bare a son, and said, God

24 And she called his name Joseph, saying, The Lord will give me yet another son.

25 ¶ And as soon as Rachel had borne Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, Send me away that I may go unto my place and to my country.

26 Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have served thee, and let me go: for thou knowest what service I have done thee.

27 To whom Laban answered, If I have now found favor in thy sight, tarry: I have <sup>1</sup>perceived that the Lord hath blessed me for thy sake.

28 Also he said, Appoint unto me thy wages, and I will give it thee.

29 But he said unto him, Thou knowest, what service I have done thee, and in what taking thy cattle hath been <sup>1</sup>under me.

30 For the little, that thou haddest before I came, is increased into a multitude: and the Lord hath blessed thee <sup>1</sup>by my coming: but now when shall <sup>2</sup>I travail for mine own house also?

31 Then he said, What shall I give thee? And Jacob answered, Thou shalt give me nothing at all: if thou wilt do this thing for me, I will return, feed, and keep thy sheep.

32 I will pass through all thy flocks this day, and <sup>1</sup>separate from them all the sheep with little spots and great spots, and all <sup>2</sup>black lambs among the sheep, and the great spotted, and little spotted among the goats: <sup>3</sup>and it shall be my wages.

33 So shall my <sup>1</sup>righteousness answer for me hereafter, when it shall come for my reward before thy face, and everyone that hath not little or great spots among the goats, and black among the sheep, the same shall be <sup>2</sup>theft with me.

34 Then Laban said, Go to, would God it might be according to thy saying.

35 Therefore <sup>1</sup>he took out the same day the he goats that were parti-colored and with great spots, and all the she goats with little and great spots, and all that had white in them, and all the <sup>2</sup>black among the sheep, and put them in the keeping of his sons.

36 And he set three days journey between himself

30:8 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, wrestlings of God.

30:11 <sup>1</sup> That is, God doth increase me with a multitude of children: for so Jacob doth expound this name Gad, Gen. 49:19.

30:14 <sup>1</sup> Which is a kind of herb whose root hath a certain likeness of the figure of a man.

30:16 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, buying I have bought.

30:18 <sup>1</sup> Instead of acknowledging her fault, she boasteth as if God had rewarded her therefore.

30:22 <sup>1</sup> Or, made her fruitful.

30:23 <sup>1</sup> Because fruitfulness came of God's blessing, who said Increase and multiply: barrenness was counted as a curse.

30:27 <sup>1</sup> Or, tried by experience.

30:29 <sup>1</sup> Or, with me.

30:30 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, at my feet.

30:33 <sup>1</sup> God shall testify for my righteous dealing by rewarding my labors.

and Jacob. And Jacob kept the rest of Laban's sheep.

37 ¶ Then Jacob <sup>1</sup>took rods of green poplar, and of hazel, and of the chestnut tree, and pilled white strakes in them, and made the white appear in the rods.

38 Then he put the rods, which he had pilled, in the gutters and watering troughs, when the sheep came to drink, before the sheep: (for they were in heat, when they came to drink.)

39 And the sheep <sup>1</sup>were in heat before the rods, and afterward brought forth young of parti-color, and with small and great spots.

40 And Jacob parted these lambs, and turned the faces of the flock towards those lambs parti-colored, and all manner of black, among the sheep of Laban: so he put his own flock by themselves, and put them not with Laban's flock.

41 And in every ramming time of the <sup>1</sup>stronger sheep, Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the sheep in the gutters, that they might conceive before the rods.

42 But when the sheep were feeble, he put them not in: and so the feebler were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's.

43 So the man increased exceedingly, and had many flocks, and maid servants, and men servants, and camels, and asses.

31 1 Laban's children murmur against Jacob. 3 God commandeth him to return to his country. 13, 14 The care of God for Jacob. 19 Rachel stealeth her father's idols. 23 Laban followeth Jacob. 44 The covenant between Laban and Jacob.

1 Now he heard the <sup>1</sup>words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob hath taken away all that was our father's, and of our father's goods hath he gotten all this honor.

2 Also Jacob beheld the countenance of Laban, <sup>1</sup>that it was not towards him as in times past:

3 And the Lord had said unto Jacob, Turn again into the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred, and I will be with thee.

4 Therefore Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field unto his flock.

5 Then said he unto them, I see your father's countenance, that it is not towards me <sup>1</sup>as it was wont, and the <sup>2</sup>God of my father hath been with me.

6 And ye know that I have served your father with all my might,

7 But your father hath deceived me, and changed my wages <sup>1</sup>ten times: but God suffered him not to hurt me.

8 If he thus said, The spotted shall be thy wages, then all the sheep bare spotted: and if he said thus, the parti-colored shall be thy reward, then bare all the sheep parti-colored.

9 Thus hath <sup>1</sup>God taken away your father's <sup>2</sup>substance, and given it me.

10 ¶ For in ramming time I lifted up mine eyes and saw in a dream, and behold, the he goats leaped upon the she goats, that were parti-colored with little and great spots spotted.

11 And the Angel of God said to me in a dream, Jacob. And I answered, Lo, I am here.

12 And he said, Lift up now thine eyes, and see all the he goats leaping upon the she goats that are parti-colored, spotted with little and great spots: for I have seen all that Laban doeth unto thee.

13 <sup>1</sup>I am the God of Bethel, where thou <sup>a</sup>anointedst the pillar, where thou vowedst a vow unto me. Now arise, get thee out of this country and return unto the land where thou wast born.

14 Then answered Rachel and Leah, and said unto him, Have we any more portion and inheritance in our father's house?

15 Doth not he count us as strangers? for he hath <sup>1</sup>sold us, and hath eaten up and consumed our money.

16 Therefore all the riches, which God hath taken from our father, is ours and our children's: now then whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do it.

17 ¶ Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels.

18 And he carried away all his flocks, and all his substance which he had gotten, to wit, his riches, which he had gotten in Padan Aram, to go to Isaac his father unto the land of Canaan.

19 When Laban was gone to sheer his sheep, then Rachel stole her father's <sup>1</sup>idols.

20 Thus Jacob <sup>1</sup>stole away the heart of Laban the Aramite: for he told him not that he fled.

30:37 <sup>1</sup> Jacob herein used no deceit: for it was God's commandment as he declareth in Gen. 31:9, 11.

30:39 <sup>1</sup> Or, received.

30:41 <sup>1</sup> As they which took the ram about September and brought forth about March: so the feebler in March, and lamb in September.

31:1 <sup>1</sup> The children uttered in words that which the father dissembled in heart, for the covetous think that whatsoever they cannot snatch, is plucked from them.

31:2 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, and lo, not be with him, as yesterday, and ere yesterday.

31:7 <sup>1</sup> Or, many times.

31:9 <sup>1</sup> This declareth that the thing, which Jacob did before, was by God's commandment, and not through deceit.

31:13 <sup>1</sup> This Angel was Christ which appeared to Jacob in Bethel: and hereby appeareth he had taught his wives the fear of God: for he talketh as though they knew this thing.

31:15 <sup>1</sup> For they were given to Jacob in recompence of his service, which was a kind of sale.

31:19 <sup>1</sup> For so the word here signifieth, because Laban calleth them gods, verse 30.

31:20 <sup>1</sup> Or, went away privily from Laban.

21 So fled he with all that he had, and he rose up, and passed the <sup>1</sup>river, and set his face toward mount Gilead.

22 And the third day after was it told Laban, that Jacob fled.

23 Then he took his <sup>1</sup>brethren with him and followed after him seven days journey, and <sup>2</sup>overtook him at mount Gilead.

24 And God came to Laban the Aramite in a dream by night, and said unto him, Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob <sup>1</sup>ought save good.

25 ¶ Then Laban overtook Jacob, and Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount: and Laban also with his brethren pitched upon mount Gilead.

26 Then Laban said to Jacob, What hast thou done? <sup>1</sup>thou hast even stolen away mine heart and carried away my daughters as though they had been taken captives with the sword.

27 Wherefore diddest thou flee so secretly and steal away from me, and diddest not tell me, that I might have sent thee forth with mirth and with songs, with timbrell and with harp?

28 But thou hast not suffered me to kiss my sons and my daughters: now thou hast done foolishly in doing so.

29 I am <sup>1</sup>able to do you evil: but the <sup>2</sup>God of your father spake unto me yesternight, saying, Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob ought save good.

30 Now though thou wentest thy way, because thou greatly longedst after thy father's house, yet wherefore hast thou stolen my gods?

31 Then Jacob answered, and said to Laban, Because I was afraid, and thought that thou wouldest have taken thy daughters from me.

32 But with whom thou findest thy gods, <sup>1</sup>let him not live. Search thou before our brethren what I have of thine, and take it to thee, (but Jacob wist not that Rachel had stolen them.)

33 Then came Laban into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the two maid's tents, but found them not. So he went out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent.

34 (Now Rachel had taken the idols, and put them in the camel's <sup>1</sup>litter and sat down upon them) and Laban searched all the tent, but found them not.

not angry that I cannot rise up before thee: for the custom of women is upon me: so he searched, but found not the idols.

36 ¶ Then Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban: Jacob also answered and said to Laban, What have I trespassed? what have I offended, that thou hast pursued after me?

37 Seeing thou hast searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thine household stuff? put it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge between us both.

38 This twenty years I have been with thee: thine ewes and thy goats have not <sup>1</sup>cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten.

39 <sup>1</sup>Whatsoever was torn of beasts, I brought it not unto thee, but made it good myself: <sup>b</sup>of mine hand diddest thou require it, were it stolen by day, or stolen by night.

40 I was in the day consumed with heat, and with frost in the night, and my <sup>1</sup>sleep departed from mine eyes.

41 Thus have I been twenty years in thine house, and served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy sheep, and thou hast changed my wages ten times.

42 Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the <sup>1</sup>fear of Isaac had been with me, surely thou haddest sent me away now empty: but God beheld my tribulation, and the labor of mine hands, and rebuked thee yesternight.

43 Then Laban answered, and said unto Jacob, These daughters are my daughters, and these sons are my sons, and these sheep are my sheep, and all that thou seest, is mine, and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or to their sons which they have borne?

44 Now therefore <sup>1</sup>come let us make a covenant, I and thou, which may be a witness between me and thee.

45 Then took Jacob a stone, and set it up as a pillar:

46 And Jacob said unto his brethren, Gather stones: who brought stones, and made a heap, and they did eat there upon the heap.

47 And Laban called it <sup>1</sup>Jegar Sahadutha, and Jacob called it <sup>2</sup>Galeed.

31:21 <sup>1</sup> Or, Euphrates.

31:32 <sup>1</sup> Or, let him die.

31:34 <sup>1</sup> Or, straw, or saddle.

31:35 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, let not anger be in the eyes of my Lord.

31:38 <sup>1</sup> Or, been barren.

31:39 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, the torn, or taken by prey.

31:40 <sup>1</sup> Or, I slept not.

31:42 <sup>1</sup> That is, the God whom Isaac did fear, and reverence.

31:44 <sup>1</sup> His conscience reproved him of his misbehavior toward Jacob, and therefore moved him to seek peace.

31:47 <sup>1</sup> Or, the heap of witness.

48 For Laban said, This heap is witness between me and thee this day: therefore he called the name of it Galeed.

49 Also he called it <sup>1</sup>Mizpah, because he said, The Lord <sup>2</sup>look between me and he, when we shall be <sup>3</sup>departed one from another.

50 If thou shalt vex my daughters, or shalt take <sup>1</sup>wives beside my daughters: there is no man with us, behold, God is witness between me and thee.

51 Moreover Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold the pillar, which I have set between me and thee.

52 This heap shall be witness, and the pillar shall be witness, that I will not come over this heap to thee, and that thou shalt not pass over this heap and this pillar unto me for evil.

53 The God of Abraham, and the God of <sup>1</sup>Nahor, and the God of their father be judge between us: but Jacob sware by the <sup>2</sup>fear of his father Isaac.

54 Then Jacob did offer a sacrifice upon the mount, and called his brethren to eat <sup>1</sup>bread, and they did eat bread, and tarried all night in the mount.

55 And early in the morning Laban rose up and kissed his sons, and his daughters, and <sup>1</sup>blessed them, and Laban departing, went unto his place again.

32 1 God comforteth Jacob by his Angels. 9, 10 He prayeth unto God confessing his unworthiness. 13 He sendeth presents unto Esau. 24, 28 He wrestled with the Angel who nameth him Israel.

1 Now Jacob went forth on his journey, and <sup>a</sup>the Angels of God met him.

2 And when Jacob saw them, he said, <sup>1</sup>This is God's host: and he called the name of the same place <sup>2</sup>Mahanaim.

3 Then Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother, unto the land of Seir into the country of Edom.

4 To whom he gave commandment, saying, Thus shall ye speak to my <sup>1</sup>lord Esau: thy servant Jacob saith thus, I have been a stranger with Laban, and tarried unto this time.

5 I have beeves also and asses, sheep, and men servants, and women servants, and have sent to show my lord, that I may find grace in thy sight.

6 ¶ So the messengers came again to Jacob, saying, We came unto thy brother Esau, and he also cometh against thee and four hundred men with him.

7 Then Jacob was <sup>1</sup>greatly afraid, and was sore troubled, and divided the people that was with him, and the sheep, and the beeves, and the camels into two companies.

8 For he said, If Esau come to the one company and smite it, the other company shall escape.

9 ¶ Moreover Jacob said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, Lord, which <sup>b</sup>saidst unto me, Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will do thee good.

10 I am not <sup>1</sup>worthy of the least of all the mercies, and all the truth, which thou hast showed unto thy servant: for with my <sup>2</sup>staff came I over this Jordan, and now have I gotten two bands.

11 I pray thee, Deliver me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he will come and smite me, and the <sup>1</sup>mother upon the children.

12 And thou saidest, I will surely do to thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

13 ¶ And he tarried there that same night and took of that which came to hand, a <sup>1</sup>present for Esau his brother:

14 Two hundred she goats, and twenty he goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams:

15 Thirty milch camels with their colts, forty kine, and ten bullocks, twenty she asses, and ten foals.

16 So he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves, and said unto his servants, Pass before me, and put a space between drove and drove.

17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, If my brother Esau meet thee, and ask thee, saying, Whose servant art thou? And whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?

18 Then thou shalt say, They be thy servant Jacob's: it is a present sent unto my lord Esau: and behold, he himself also is behind us.

19 So likewise commanded he the second and

31:50 <sup>1</sup> Nature compelleth him to condemn that vice, whereunto through covetousness he forced Jacob.

31:53 <sup>1</sup> Behold, how the idolaters mingle the true God with their feigned gods.

31:54 <sup>1</sup> Or, meat.

31:55 <sup>1</sup> We see that there is ever some seed of the knowledge of God in the hearts of the wicked.

32:2 <sup>1</sup> He acknowledgeth God's benefits: who for the preservation of his, sendeth hosts of Angels.

32:4 <sup>1</sup> He revered his brother in worldly things, because he chiefly looked to be preferred to the spiritual promise.

32:7 <sup>1</sup> Albeit he was comforted by the Angels, yet the infirmity of the flesh doth appear.

32:11 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, he will put all to death. This proverb cometh of them which kill the bird together with his young ones.

32:13 <sup>1</sup> Not distrusting God's assistance, but using such means as God had given him.

the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, After this manner, ye shall speak unto Esau, when ye find him.

20 And ye shall say moreover, Behold, thy servant Jacob cometh after us. (for he thought, I <sup>1</sup>will appease his wrath with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face: it may be that he will <sup>2</sup>accept me.)

21 So went the present before him: but he tarried that night with the company.

22 And he rose up the same night, and took his two wives, and his two maids, and his eleven children, and went over the ford Jabbok.

23 And he took them, and sent them over the river, and sent over that he had.

24 ¶ Now when Jacob was left himself alone, there wrestled a <sup>1</sup>man with him unto the breaking of the day.

25 And he saw that he could not <sup>1</sup>prevail against him: therefore he touched the hollow of his thigh, and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was loosed, as he wrestled with him.

26 And he said, Let me go, for the morning appeareth. Who answered, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.

27 Then said he unto him, What is thy name? And he said, Jacob.

28 And said he, <sup>1</sup>Thy name shall be called Jacob no more, but Israel: because thou hast had <sup>1</sup>power with God, thou shalt also prevail with men.

29 And Jacob demanded, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, Wherefore now dost thou ask my name? and he blessed him there.

30 And Jacob called the name of the place, Peniel: for, said he, I have seen God face to face, and <sup>1</sup>my life is preserved.

31 And the sun rose up to him as he passed Peniel, and he <sup>1</sup>halted upon his thigh.

32 Therefore the children of Israel eat not of the sinew which shrank in the hollow of the thigh, unto this day: because he touched the sinew that shrank in the hollow of Jacob's thigh.

1 And as Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, behold, Esau came, and with him four hundred men: and he <sup>1</sup>divided the children to Leah, and unto Rachel, and to the two maids.

2 And he put the maids, and their children foremost, and Leah, and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph hindermost.

3 So he went before them and <sup>1</sup>bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

4 And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and kissed him, and they wept.

5 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women, and the children, and said, Who are these with thee? And he answered, They are the children whom God of his grace hath given thy servant.

6 Then came the maids near, they and their children, and <sup>1</sup>bowed themselves.

7 Leah also with her children came near and made obeisance: and after Joseph and Rachel drew near, and did reverence.

8 Then he said, What meanest thou by all this drove, which I met? Who answered, I have sent it, that I may find favor in the sight of my lord.

9 And Esau said, I have enough, my brother: keep that thou hast to thyself.

10 But Jacob answered, Nay, I pray thee, if I have found grace now in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand: for <sup>1</sup>I have seen thy face, as though I had seen the face of God, because thou hast accepted me.

11 I pray thee take my <sup>1</sup>blessing, that is brought thee: for God hath had mercy on me, and therefore I have all things: for he <sup>2</sup>compelled him, and he took it.

12 And he said, Let us take our journey and go, and I will go before thee.

13 Then he answered him, My lord knoweth, that the children are tender, and the ewes and kine with young under mine hand: and if they should overdrive them one day, all the flock would die.

32:20 <sup>1</sup> He thought it no loss to depart with these goods, to the intent he might follow the vocation whereunto God called him.

32:24 <sup>1</sup> That is, God in form of man.

32:25 <sup>1</sup> For God assaileth his with the one hand, and upholdeth them with the other.

32:28 <sup>1</sup> God gave Jacob both power to overcome, and also the praise of the victory.

32:30 <sup>1</sup> Or, my soul is delivered.

32:31 <sup>1</sup> The faithful to overcome their tentations, that they feel the smart thereof, to the intent that they should not glory, but in their humility.

33:1 <sup>1</sup> That if the one part were assailed, the other might escape.

33:3 <sup>1</sup> By this gesture he partly did reverence to his brother, and partly prayed to God to mitigate Esau's wrath.

33:6 <sup>1</sup> Jacob and his family are the image of the Church under the yoke of tyrants which for fear are brought to subjection.

33:10 <sup>1</sup> In that that his brother embraced him so lovingly, contrary to his expectation, he accepted it as a plain sign of God's presence.

14 Let now my lord go before his servant, and I will drive softly, according to the pace of the cattle, which is before me, and as the children be able to endure, until <sup>1</sup>I come to my lord unto Seir.

15 Then Esau said, I will leave then some of my folk with thee. And he answered, What needeth this? let me find grace in the sight of my lord.

16 ¶ So Esau returned, and went his way that same day unto Seir.

17 And Jacob went forward toward Succoth, and built him an house, and made booths for his cattle: therefore he called the name of the place <sup>1</sup>Succoth.

18 Afterward, Jacob came safe to Shechem a city, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from <sup>1</sup>Padan Aram, and pitched before the city.

19 And there he bought a parcel of ground, where he pitched his tent, at the hand of the sons of Hamor Shechem's father, for an hundred <sup>1</sup>pieces of money.

20 And he set up there an altar, and called <sup>1</sup>it, The mighty God of Israel.

1 Then Dinah the daughter of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob, <sup>1</sup>went out to see the daughters of that country.

2 Whom when Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite lord of that country saw, he took her, and lay with her, and <sup>1</sup>defiled her.

3 So his heart clave unto Dinah the daughter of Jacob: and he loved the maid, and <sup>1</sup>spake kindly to the maid.

4 Then said Shechem to his father Hamor, saying, <sup>1</sup>Get me this maid to wife.

5 (Now Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter, and his sons were with his cattle in the field: therefore Jacob held his peace, until they were come.)

6 ¶ Then Hamor the father of Shechem went out unto Jacob to commune with him.

7 And when the sons of Jacob were come out of the field and heard it, it grieved the men, and they were very angry, because he had wrought <sup>1</sup>villany in Israel, in that he had lain with Jacob's daughter: <sup>2</sup>which thing ought not to be done.

8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son: Shechem longeth for your daughter, <sup>1</sup>give her him to wife, I pray you.

9 So make affinity with us, give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you.

10 And ye shall dwell with us, and the land shall be before you, dwell, and do your business in it, and have your possessions therein.

11 Shechem also said unto her father and unto her brethren, <sup>1</sup>Let me find favor in your eyes, and I will give whatsoever ye shall appoint me.

12 <sup>1</sup>Ask of me abundantly both dowry, and gifts, and I will give as ye appoint me, so that ye give me the maid to wife.

13 Then the sons of Jacob answered, Shechem and Hamor his father, talking deceitfully, because he had defiled their sister:

14 And they said unto them, <sup>1</sup>We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to an uncircumcised man: for that were a <sup>2</sup>reproof unto us.

15 But in this we will consent unto you, if ye will be as we are, that every man child among you be <sup>1</sup>circumcised,

16 Then will we give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to us, and will dwell with you, and be one people.

17 But if ye will not hearken unto us to be circumcised, then will we take our daughter and depart.

18 Now their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamor's son.

19 And the young man deferred not to do the thing because he loved Jacob's daughter: he was also the <sup>1</sup>most set by of all his father's house.

20 ¶ Then Hamor and Shechem his Son went unto the <sup>1</sup>gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying,

21 These men are <sup>1</sup>peaceable with us: and that they

33:14 <sup>1</sup> He promised that which (as seemeth) his mind was not to perform.

33:19 <sup>1</sup> Or, lambs, or money so marked.

33:20 <sup>1</sup> He calleth the sign, the thing which it signifieth, in token that God had mightily delivered him.

34:1 <sup>1</sup> This example teacheth us that too much liberty is not to be given to youth.

34:3 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, spake to the heart of the maid.

34:4 <sup>1</sup> This proveth that the consent of parents is requisite in marriage, seeing the very Infidels did also observe it as a thing necessary.

34:7 <sup>1</sup> Or, folly.

34:8 <sup>1</sup> Or, marriage.

34:14 <sup>1</sup> They made the holy ordinance of God a means to compass their wicked purpose.

34:15 <sup>1</sup> Their fault is the greater in that they make religion a cloak for their craft.

34:19 <sup>1</sup> Or, most honorable.

34:20 <sup>1</sup> For the people used to assemble there, and justice was also ministered.

34:21 <sup>1</sup> Thus many pretend to speak for a public profit, when they only speak for their own private gain and commodity.

may dwell in the land, and do their affairs therein (for behold, the land hath room enough for them) let us take their daughters to wives, and give them our daughters.

22 Only herein will the men consent unto us for to dwell with us, and to be one people, if all the men children among us be circumcised as they are circumcised.

23 Shall not <sup>1</sup>their flocks and their substance and all their cattle be ours? only let us consent herein unto them and they will dwell with us.

24 And unto Hamor, and Shechem his son heardened all that went out of the gate of his city: and all the men children were circumcised, even all that went out of the gate of his city.

25 And on the third day (when they were sore) two of the sons of Jacob, <sup>1</sup>Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren took either of them his sword and went into the city boldly, and <sup>2</sup>slew every male.

26 They slew also Hamor and Shechem his son with the <sup>1</sup>edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went their way.

27 Again, the other sons of Jacob came upon the dead, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their sheep and their beeves, and their asses, and whatsoever was in the city and in the fields.

29 Also they carried away captive and spoiled all their goods, and all their children and their wives, and all that was in the houses.

30 Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, Ye have troubled me, and made me <sup>1</sup>stink among the inhabitants of the land, as well the Canaanites, as the Perizzites, and I being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me, and so shall I, and my house be destroyed.

31 And they answered, Should he abuse our sister as a whore?

35 <sup>1</sup>Jacob at God's commandment goeth up to Bethel built an altar. 2 He reformeth his household. 5 God maketh the enemies of Jacob afraid. 8 Deborah dieth. 12 The land of Canaan is promised him. 18 Rachel dieth in labor. 22 Reuben lieth with his father's concubine.

1 Then <sup>1</sup>God said to Jacob, Arise, go up to Bethel and dwell there, and make there an altar unto God, that appeared unto thee, "when thou fleddest from Esau thy brother.

2 Then said Jacob unto his household and to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, and <sup>1</sup>cleanse yourselves, and change your garments:

3 For we will rise and go up to Bethel, and I will make an altar there unto God, which heard me in the day of my tribulation, and was with me in the way which I went.

4 And they gave unto Jacob all the strange gods, which were in their hands, and all their <sup>1</sup>earrings which were in their ears, and Jacob hid them under an oak, which was by Shechem.

5 Then they went on their journey, and the <sup>1</sup>fear of God was upon the cities that were round about them: so that they did not follow after the sons of Jacob.

6 ¶ So came Jacob to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan: (the same is Bethel) he and all the people that were with him.

7 And he built there an altar, and <sup>b</sup>had called the place, The God of Bethel, because that God appeared unto him there, when he fled from his brother.

8 But Deborah Rebekah's nurse died, and was buried beneath Bethel under an oak: and he called the name of it <sup>1</sup>Allon Bachuth.

9 Again God appeared unto Jacob, after he came to Padan Aram, and blessed him.

10 Moreover God said unto him, Thy name is Jacob: thy name shall be no more called Jacob, but 'Israel shall be thy name: and he called his name Israel.

11 And God said unto him, I am God <sup>1</sup>all-sufficient: grow, and multiply: a nation and a multitude of nations shall spring of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins.

12 Also I will give the land, which I gave to Abraham and Isaac, unto thee: and unto thy seed after thee will I give that land.

13 So God <sup>1</sup>ascended from him in the place where he had talked with him.

14 And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he talked with him, a pillar of stone, and poured drink offerings thereon: also he poured oil thereon.

15 And Jacob called the name of that place where God spake with him, Bethel.

16 ¶ Then they departed from Bethel, and when 35:1 <sup>1</sup> God is ever at hand to succor his in their troubles.

35:2 <sup>1</sup> That by this outward act they should show their inward repentance.

35:4 <sup>1</sup> For therein was some sign of superstition, as in tablets and Agnus deis.

35:5 <sup>1</sup> Thus, notwithstanding the inconvenience that came before, God delivered Jacob.

35:8 <sup>1</sup> Or, oak of lamentations.

35:11 <sup>1</sup> Or, almighty.

35:13 <sup>1</sup> As God is said to descend when he showeth some sign of his presence: so he is said to ascend when vision is ended.

there was <sup>1</sup>about half a day's journey of ground to come to Ephrath, Rachel travailed, and in travailing she was in peril.

17 And when she was in the pains of her labor, the midwife said unto her, Fear not, for thou shalt have this son also.

18 Then as she was about to yield up the ghost (for she died) she called his name Ben-Oni, but his father called him Benjamin.

19 Thus <sup>d</sup>died Rachel and was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is Bethlehem.

20 And Jacob set a <sup>1</sup>pillar upon her grave: This is the pillar of Rachel's grave unto this day.

21 ¶ Then Israel went forward, and pitched his tent beyond Migdal Eder.

22 Now when Israel dwelt in that land, Reuben went and <sup>1</sup>lay <sup>e</sup>with Bilhah his father's concubine, and it came to Israel's ear. And Jacob had twelve sons.

23 The sons of Leah: Reuben Jacob's eldest son, and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zebulun:

24 The sons of Rachel; Joseph, and Benjamin:

25 And the sons of Bilhah Rachel's maid: Dan and Naphtali:

26 And the sons of Zilpah Leah's maid: Gad and Asher. These are the sons of Jacob, which were born him in Padan Aram.

27 ¶ Then Jacob came unto Isaac his father unto Mamre a city of Kirjath Arbah: that is Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac were strangers.

28 And the days of Isaac were an hundred and fourscore years.

29 And Isaac gave up the ghost and died, and was <sup>f</sup>gathered unto his people, being old and full of days: and his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

4 And <sup>a</sup>Adah bare unto Esau, Eliphaz: and Basemath bare Reuel,

5 Also Aholibamah bare Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah: these are the sons of Esau which were born to him in the land of Canaan.

6 So Esau took his wives and his sons, and his daughters, and all the souls of his house, and his flocks, and all his cattle, and all his substance, which he had gotten in the land of Canaan, and <sup>1</sup>went into another country from his brother Jacob.

7 For their riches were so great, that they could not dwell together, and the land, wherein they were strangers, could not receive them because of their flocks.

8 <sup>b</sup>Therefore dwelt Esau in mount Seir: this Esau is Edom.

9 ¶ So these are the generations of Esau father of <sup>1</sup>Edom in mount Seir:

10 These are the names of Esau's sons: <sup>c</sup>Eliphaz, the son of Adah, the wife of Esau, and Reuel the son of Basemath, the wife of Esau.

11 And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, and Gatam, and Kenaz.

12 And Timna was concubine to Eliphaz Esau's son, and bare unto Eliphaz, Amalek: these be the sons of Adah Esau's wife.

13 ¶ And these are the <sup>1</sup>sons of Reuel: Nahath, and Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah: these be the sons of Basemath Esau's wife.

14 ¶ And these were the sons of Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, <sup>1</sup>daughter of Zibeen Esau's wife: for she bare unto Esau, Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah.

15 ¶ These were <sup>1,2</sup>Dukes of the sons of Esau the sons of Eliphaz, the firstborn of Esau Duke Teman, Duke Omar, Duke Zepho, Duke Kenaz, 16 Duke Korah, Duke Gatam, and Duke Amalek: these are the Dukes that came of Eliphaz in the land of Edom: these were the <sup>1</sup>sons of Adah.

17 ¶ And these are the sons of Reuel Esau's son: Duke Nahath, Duke Zerah, Duke Shammah, Duke Mizzah: these are the Dukes that came of Reuel in the land of Edom: these are the <sup>1</sup>sons of Basemath Esau's wife.

35:22 <sup>1</sup> This teacheth that the fathers were not chosen for their merits, but by God's only mercies, whose election by their faults was not changed.

36:1 <sup>1</sup> This genealogy declareth that Esau was blessed temporally, and that his father's blessing took place in worldly things.

36:14 <sup>1</sup> Or, niece.

36:15 <sup>1</sup> Or, chief men.

36:16 <sup>1</sup> Or, nephews.

36:17 <sup>1</sup> Or, nephews.

18 ¶ Likewise these were the sons of Aholibamah Esau's wife: Duke Jeush, Duke Jaalam, Duke Korah: these Dukes came of Aholibamah, the daughter of Anah Esau's wife.

19 These are the children of Esau, and these are the Dukes of them: This Esau is Edom.

20 ¶<sup>d</sup>These are the sons of Seir the Horite, which <sup>1</sup>inhabited the land before Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, 21 And Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan: these are the Dukes of the Horites, the sons of Seir in the land of Edom.

22 And the sons of Lotan were, Hori and Hemam, and Lotan's sister was Timna.

23 And the sons of Shobal were these: Alvan, and Manahath, and Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.

24 And these are the sons of Zibeon: Both Ajah, and Anah: this was Anah that found <sup>1</sup>mules in the wilderness, as he fed his father Zibeon's asses.

25 And the children of Anah were these: Dishon and Aholibamah, the daughter of Anah.

26 Also these are the sons of Dishon: Hemdan, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran.

27 The sons of Ezer are these: Bilhan, and Zaavan, and Akan.

28 The sons of Dishan are these, Uz, and Aran.

29 These are the Dukes of the Horites: Duke Lotan, Duke Shobal, Duke Zibeon, Duke Anah, 30 Duke Dishon, Duke Ezer, Duke Dishan: these be the Dukes of the Horites, after their Dukedom in the land of Seir.

31 ¶ And these are the <sup>1</sup>Kings that reigned in the land of Edom, before there reigned any King over the children of Israel.

32 Then Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom, and the name of his city was Dinhabah.

33 And when Bela died, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead.

34 When Jobab also was dead, Husham of the land of Temani reigned in his stead.

35 And after the death of Husham, Hadad the son of Bedad, which slew Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his stead, and the name of his city was Avith.

36 When Hadad was dead, then Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his stead.

37 When Samlah was dead, Saul of <sup>1</sup>Rehoboth by the river, reigned in his stead.

38 When Saul died, Baal-Hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead.

39 And after the death of Baal-Hanan the son of Achbor, Hadar reigned in his stead, and the name of his city was Pau: and his wife's name Mehetabel the daughter of Matred, the <sup>1</sup>daughter of Mezahab.

40 Then these are the names of the Dukes of Esau according to their families, their places, and by their names: Duke Timnah, Duke Alvah, Duke Jetheth.

41 Duke Aholibamah, Duke Elah, Duke Pinon,

42 Duke Kenaz, Duke Teman, Duke Mibzar,

43 Duke Magdiel, Duke Iram: these be the Dukes of Edom, according to their habitations, in the land of their inheritance. This Esau is the father of <sup>1</sup>Edom.

1 Jacob now dwelt in the land, wherein his father was a stranger, in the land of Canaan.

2 These are the <sup>1</sup>generations of Jacob when Joseph was seventeen years old, he kept sheep with his brethren, and the child was with the sons of Bilhah, and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives, And Joseph brought unto their father their evil <sup>2,3</sup>saying.

3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his sons, because he begat him in his old age and he made him a coat of many <sup>1</sup>colors.

4 So when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, then they hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

5 ¶ And Joseph <sup>1</sup>dreamed a dream, and told his brethren, who hated him so much the more.

6 For he said unto them, Hear, I pray you this dream which I have dreamed.

7 Behold now, we were binding sheaves in the midst of the field: and lo, my sheaf arose and also stood upright, and behold, your sheaves compassed round about, and did reverence to my sheaf.

8 Then his brethren said to him, What, shalt thou reign over us, and rule us? or shalt thou have altogether dominion over us? And they <sup>1</sup>hated him so much the more, for his dreams, and for his words.

9 ¶ Again he dreamed another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have had one dream more, and behold, the Sun and the Moon and eleven stars did reverence to me.

10 Then he told it unto his father and to his brethren, and his father <sup>1</sup>rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this thy dream, which thou hast dreamed? shall I, and thy mother, and thy brethren come indeed and fall on the ground before thee?

11 And his brethren envied him, but his father <sup>1,2</sup>noted the saying.

12 ¶ Then his brethren went to keep their father's sheep in Shechem.

13 And Israel said unto Joseph, Do not thy brethren keep in Shechem? come and I will send thee to them.

14 And he answered him, I am here. Then he said unto him, Go now, see whether it be well with thy brethren, and how the flocks prosper, and bring me word again: so he sent him from the vale of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

15 ¶ Then a man found him: for lo, he was wandering in the field, and the man asked him, saying, what seekest thou?

16 And he answered, I seek my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they keep sheep.

17 And the man said, they are departed hence: for I heard them say, Let us go unto Dothan. Then went Joseph after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

18 And when they saw him afar off, even before he came at them, they <sup>1</sup>conspired against him for to slay him.

19 For they said one to another, Behold, this <sup>1</sup>dreamer cometh.

20 Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into some pit, and we will say, A wicked beast hath devoured him: then we shall see, what will come of his dreams.

21 <sup>a</sup>But when Reuben heard that, he delivered him out of their hands, and said, <sup>1</sup>Let us not kill him.

22 Also Reuben said unto them, Shed not blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him. Thus he said, that he might 23 ¶ Now when Joseph was come unto his brethren, they stripped Joseph out of his coat, his parti-colored coat that was upon him.

24 And they took him, and cast <sup>1</sup>him into a pit, and the pit was empty, without water in it.

25 Then they sat them down to eat bread: and lift up their eyes and looked, and behold, there came a company of Ishmaelites from Gilead, and their camels laden with spicery, and <sup>1</sup>balm, and myrrh, and were going to carry it down into Egypt.

26 Then Judah said to his brethren, What availeth it, if we slay our brother, though we keep his blood secret?

27 Come and let us <sup>b</sup>sell him to the Ishmaelites, and let not our hands be upon him: for he is our brother, and our flesh: and his brethren obeyed.

28 Then the <sup>1</sup>Midianites' merchant men passed by, and they drew forth, and lift Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver: who brought Joseph into Egypt.

29 ¶ Afterward Reuben returned to the pit, and behold, Joseph was not in the pit: then he rent his clothes,

30 And returned to his brethren, and said, The child is not yonder, and I, whither shall I go?

31 And they took Joseph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood.

32 So they sent that parti-colored coat, <sup>1</sup>and they brought it unto their father, and said, This have we found: see now, whether it be thy son's coat, or no.

33 Then he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat: a wicked beast hath <sup>c</sup>devoured him: Joseph is surely torn in pieces.

34 And Jacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth about his loins, and sorrowed for his son a long season.

35 Then all his sons and his daughters arose up to comfort him, but he would not be comforted, but said, <sup>1</sup>Surely I will go down into the grave unto my son mourning: so his father wept for him.

1 And at that time <sup>1</sup>Judah went down from his brethren, and turned into a man called Hirah an Adullamite.

2 And Judah saw there a daughter of a man called <sup>a</sup>Shua a <sup>1</sup>Canaanite: and he took her to wife, and went into her.

3 So she conceived and bare a son, and he called his name Er.

4 <sup>b</sup>And she conceived again and bare a son, and she called his name Onan.

5 Moreover she bare yet a son, whom she called Shelah: and Judah was at Chezib when she bare him.

6 Then Judah took a wife to Er his firstborn son, whose name was Tamar.

7 <sup>c</sup>Now Er the firstborn of Judah was wicked in the sight of the Lord: therefore the Lord slew him.

8 And Judah said to Onan, Go in unto thy brother's wife, and do the office of a kinsman unto her, and raise <sup>1</sup>up seed unto thy brother.

9 And Onan knew that the seed should not be his: therefore when he went in unto his brother's wife, he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother.

10 And it was wicked in the eyes of the Lord, which he did: wherefore he slew him also.

11 Then Judah said to Tamar his daughter-in-law, <sup>1</sup>Remain a widow in thy father's house, till Shelah my son grow up (for he thought thus, Lest he die as well as his brethren,) So Tamar went and dwelt in her father's house.

12 ¶ And in process of time also the daughter of Shua Judah's wife died. Then Judah, when he <sup>1</sup>had left mourning, went up to his shepherders to Timnah, he, and his neighbor Hirah the Adullamite.

13 And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold, thy father-in-law goeth up to Timnath, to shear his sheep.

14 Then she put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her with a veil, and wrapped herself, and sat down in <sup>1</sup>Pethah-enam which is by the way to Timnah, because she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife.

15 When Judah saw her, he judged her an whore: for she had covered her face.

16 And he turned to the way towards her, and said, Come, I pray thee, let me lie with thee, (for he <sup>1</sup>knew not that she was his daughter-in-law.) And she answered, What wilt thou give me for to lie with me?

17 Then said he, I will send thee a kid of the goats from the flock, and she said, Well, if thou wilt give me a pledge, till thou send it.

18 Then he said, What is the pledge that I shall give thee? And she answered, Thy signet and thy <sup>1</sup>cloak and thy staff that is in thine hand. So he gave it her, and lay by her, and she was with child by him.

19 Then she rose, and went and put her veil from her and put on her widow's raiment.

20 Afterward Judah sent a kid of the goats by the hand of his <sup>1</sup>neighbor the Adullamite, for to receive his pledge from the woman's hand: but he found her not.

21 Then asked he the men of the place, saying, Where is the whore, that sat in Enaim by the wayside? and they answered, There was no whore there.

22 He came therefore to Judah again, and said, I cannot find her, and also the men of the place said, There was no whore there.

23 Then Judah said, Let her take it to her, lest we be <sup>1,2</sup>shamed: behold, I sent this kid, and thou hast not found her.

24 ¶ Now after three months, one told Judah, saying, Tamar thy daughter-in-law hath played the whore, and lo, with playing the whore, she is great with child. Then Judah said, Bring ye her forth and let her be <sup>1</sup>burnt.

25 When she was brought forth, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, By the man, unto whom these things pertain, am I with child: and said also, Look I pray thee, whose these are, the seal, and the cloak, and the staff.

26 Then Judah knew them, and said, She is <sup>1</sup>more righteous than I: for she hath done it because I gave her not to Shelah my son. So he lay with her <sup>2</sup>no more.

27 ¶ Now, when the time was come that she should be delivered, behold, there were twins in her womb.

28 And when she was in travail, the one put out his hand: and the midwife took and bound a red thread about his hand, saying, this is come out first.

30 And afterward came out his brother that had the red thread about his hand, and his name was called Zerah.

1 Now Joseph was brought down into Egypt: and Potiphar <sup>1</sup>an Eunuch of Pharaoh's (and his chief steward an Egyptian) bought him at the hand of the Ishmaelites, which had brought him thither.

2 And the <sup>1</sup>Lord was with Joseph, and he was a man that prospered and was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

3 And his master saw that the Lord was with him, and that the Lord made all that he did to prosper in his hand.

4 So Joseph found favor in his sight, and served him: and made him <sup>1</sup>ruler of his house, and put all that he had in his hand.

5 And from that time that he had made him ruler over his house and over all that he had, the Lord <sup>1</sup>blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake: and the blessing of the Lord was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field.

6 Therefore he left all that he had in Joseph's hand, <sup>1</sup>and took account of nothing, that was with him, save only of the bread, which he did eat. And Joseph was a fair person, and well favored.

7 Now therefore after these things, his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph, and said, <sup>1</sup>Lie with me.

8 But he refused and said to his master's wife, Behold, my master knoweth not what he hath in the house with me, but hath committed all that he had to mine hand.

9 There is no man greater in this house than I: neither hath he kept anything from me, but only thee, because thou art his wife: how then can I do this great wickedness and so sin against <sup>1</sup>God?

10 And albeit she spake to Joseph day by day, yet he hearkened not unto her, to lie with her, or to be in her company.

11 Then on a certain day Joseph entered into the house to do his business: and there was no man of the household in the house.

12 Therefore she caught him by his garment, saying, Sleep with me: but he left his garment in her hand and fled, and got him out.

13 Now when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled out,

14 She called unto the men of her house, and told them, saying, Behold, he hath brought in an Hebrew unto us <sup>1</sup>to mock us: who came in to me for to have slept with me: but I <sup>2</sup>cried with a loud voice.

15 And when he heard that I lift up my voice and cried, he left his garments with me, and fled away, and got him out.

16 So she laid up his garment by her, until her lord came home.

17 Then she told him <sup>1</sup>according to these words, saying, The Hebrew servant, which thou hast brought unto us, came into me, to mock me.

18 But as soon as I lift up my voice and cried, he left his garment with me, and fled out.

19 Then when his master heard the words of his wife, which she told him, saying, After this manner did thy servant to me, his anger was kindled.

20 And Joseph's master took him and put him in <sup>1, 2</sup>prison, in the place, where the king's prisoners lay bound: and there he was in prison.

21 ¶ But the Lord was with Joseph, and <sup>1</sup>showed him mercy, and got him favor in the sight of the <sup>2</sup>master of the prison.

1 And after these things, the butler of the King of Egypt and his baker offended their Lord the King of Egypt.

2 And Pharaoh was angry against his two <sup>1</sup>Officers, against the chief butler, and against the chief baker.

3 Therefore he put them in ward in his chief steward's house, in the prison and place where <sup>1</sup>Joseph was bound.

4 And the chief steward gave Joseph charge over them, and he served them: and they continued a season in ward.

5 ¶ And they both dreamed a dream, either of them his dream in one night, <sup>1</sup>each one according to the interpretation of his dream, both the butler and the baker of the King of Egypt, which were bound in the prison.

6 And when Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them, behold, they were sad.

7 And he asked Pharaoh's officers, that were with him in his master's ward, saying, Wherefore <sup>1</sup>look ye so sadly today?

8 Who answered him, We have dreamed each one a dream, and there is none to interpret the same. Then Joseph said unto them, <sup>1</sup>Are not interpretations of God? tell them me now.

9 So the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said unto him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me,

10 And in the vine were three branches, and as it budded, her flower came forth: and the clusters of grapes waxed ripe.

11 And I had Pharaoh's cup in mine hand, and I took the grapes, and wrung them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.

12 Then Joseph said unto him, This <sup>1</sup>is the interpretation of it: the three branches are three days.

13 Within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thine head, and restore thee unto thine <sup>1</sup>office, and thou shalt give Pharaoh's cup into his hand after the old manner, when thou wast his butler,

14 But have me in remembrance with thee, when thou art in good case, and show mercy, I pray thee unto me, and <sup>1</sup>make mention of me to Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring me out of this house.

15 For I was stolen away by theft out of the land of the Hebrews, and here also have I done nothing, wherefore they should put me <sup>1</sup>in the dungeon.

16 And when the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, Also me thought in my dream that I had three <sup>1</sup>white baskets on mine head.

17 And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner bakemeats for Pharaoh: and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon mine head.

18 Then Joseph answered, and said, <sup>1</sup>This is the interpretation thereof: The three baskets are three days:

19 Within three days shall Pharaoh take thine head from thee, and shall hang thee on a tree and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.

20 ¶ And so the third day, which was Pharaoh's <sup>1</sup>birthday, he made a feast unto all his servants: and he lifted up the head of the chief butler, and the chief baker among his servants.

21 And he restored the chief butler unto his butlership, who gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.

22 But he hanged the chief baker, as Joseph had interpreted unto them.

23 Yet the chief butler did not remember Joseph, but forgot him.

stood by the other kine upon the brink of the river.

4 And the evil favored and lean fleshed kine did eat up the seven well favored and fat kine: so Pharaoh awoke.

5 Again he slept, and dreamed the <sup>1</sup>second time: and behold, seven ears of corn grew upon one stalk, rank and goodly.

6 And lo, seven thin ears, and blasted with the East wind, sprang up after them.

7 And the thin ears devoured the seven rank and full ears, then Pharaoh awaked, and lo it was a dream.

8 Now when the morning came, his spirit was <sup>1</sup>troubled: therefore he sent and called all the soothsayers of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof, and Pharaoh told them his dreams: but <sup>2</sup>none could interpret them to Pharaoh.

9 Then spake the chief butler unto Pharaoh, saying, I <sup>1</sup>call to mind my faults this day.

10 Pharaoh being angry with his servants, put me in ward in the chief steward's house, both me, and the chief baker.

11 Then we dreamed a dream in one night both I, and he: we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.

12 And there was with us a young man, an Hebrew, servant unto the chief steward, whom when we told, he declared our dreams to <sup>1</sup>us, to everyone he declared according to his dream.

13 And as he declared unto us, so it came to pass: for he restored me to mine office, and hanged him.

14 <sup>4</sup>Then sent Pharaoh, and called <sup>1</sup>Joseph and they brought him hastily out of prison, and he shaved him, and changed his raiment, and came to Pharaoh.

15 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and no man can interpret it, and I have heard say of thee, that when thou hearest a dream, thou canst interpret it.

17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph: In my dream, behold, I stood by the bank of the river:

18 And lo, there came up out of the river seven fat fleshed, and well favored kine. and they fed in the meadow.

19 Also lo, seven other kine came up after them poor and very <sup>1</sup>evil favored kine, and lean fleshed: I never saw the like in all the land of Egypt, for evil favored.

20 And the lean and the evil favored kine did eat up the first seven fat kine.

21 And when they <sup>1</sup>had eaten them up: it could not be known that they had eaten them, but they were still as evil favored, as they were at the beginning: so did I awake.

22 Moreover I saw in my dream, and behold, seven ears sprang out of one stalk, full and fair.

23 And lo, seven ears withered, thin, and blasted with the East wind, sprang up after them.

24 And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears. Now I have told the soothsayers, and none can declare it unto me.

25 ¶ Then Joseph answered Pharaoh, <sup>1</sup>Both Pharaoh's dreams are one. God hath showed Pharaoh what he is about to do.

26 The seven good Kine are seven years, and the seven good ears are seven years: this is one dream.

27 Likewise the seven thin and evil favored kine, that came out after them, are seven years: and the seven empty ears blasted with the East wind, are seven years of famine.

28 This is the thing which I have said unto Pharaoh, that God hath showed unto Pharaoh, what he is about to do.

29 Behold, there come seven years of great <sup>1</sup>plenty in all the land of Egypt.

30 Again, there shall arise after them seven years of famine, so that all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine shall consume the land:

31 Neither shall the plenty <sup>1</sup>be known in the land, by reason of this famine that shall come after, for it shall be exceeding great.

32 And therefore the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh the second time, because the thing is established by God, and God hasteth to perform it.

33 Now therefore let Pharaoh <sup>1</sup>provide for a man of understanding and wisdom, and set him over the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaoh make and appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous years.

41:5 <sup>1</sup> All these means God used to deliver his servant, and to bring him into favor and authority.

41:8 <sup>1</sup> This fear was enough to teach him that this vision was sent of God.

41:9 <sup>1</sup> He confesseth his fault against the king before he speak of Joseph.

41:12 <sup>1</sup> Read Gen. 40:5.

41:25 <sup>1</sup> Both his dreams tend to one end.

41:29 <sup>1</sup> Or, abundance and saturity.

41:31 <sup>1</sup> Or, they shall remember no more the plenty.

41:33 <sup>1</sup> The office of a true Prophet is not only to show the evils to come, but also the remedies for the same.

35 Also let them gather all the food of these good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh for food, in the cities, and let them keep it.

36 So the food shall be for the provision of the land, against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt, that the land perish not by famine.

37 ¶ And the saying pleased Pharaoh and all his servants.

38 Then said Pharaoh unto his servants, Can we find such a man as this, in whom is the <sup>1</sup>Spirit of God?

39 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath showed thee all this, there is no man of understanding, or wisdom like unto thee.

40 <sup>b</sup>Thou shalt be over mine house, and at thy <sup>1,2</sup>word shall all my people be armed, only in the king's throne will I be above thee.

41 Moreover Pharaoh said to Joseph, Behold, I have set thee over all the land of Egypt.

42 And Pharaoh took off his <sup>1</sup>ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in garments of fine linen, and put a golden chain about his neck.

43 So he sat him upon the <sup>1</sup>best chariot that he had, save one: and they cried before him, <sup>2</sup>Abrech, and placed him over all the land of Egypt.

44 Again Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I am Pharaoh, and without thee shall no man lift up his hand or his foot in the land of Egypt.

45 And Pharaoh called Joseph's name <sup>1</sup>Zaphnath-Paaneah: and he gave him to wife Asenath the daughter of Poti-Pherah <sup>2</sup>Prince of On: then went Joseph abroad in the land of Egypt.

46 ¶ And Joseph was <sup>1</sup>thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh King of Egypt: and Joseph departing from the presence of Pharaoh, went throughout all the land of Egypt.

47 And in the seven plenteous years the earth <sup>1</sup>brought forth store.

48 And he gathered up all the food of the seven plenteous years, which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field, that was round about every city, laid he up in the same.

49 So Joseph gathered wheat, like unto the sand of the sea in multitude out of measure, until he left numbering: for it was without number.

50 Now unto Joseph were born <sup>c</sup>two sons (before the year of famine came) which Asenath the daughter of Poti-Pherah prince of On bare unto him.

51 And Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh: for God, said he, hath made me forget all my labor and all my <sup>f</sup>father's household.

52 Also he called the name of the second, Ephraim: For God, said he, hath made me fruitful in the land of my affliction.

53 ¶ So the seven years of the plenty that was in the land of Egypt were ended.

54 <sup>d</sup>Then began the seven years of famine to come, according as Joseph had said: and the famine was in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt was <sup>1</sup>bread.

55 At the length all the land of Egypt was famished, and the people cried unto Pharaoh for bread. And Pharaoh said unto all the Egyptians, Go to Joseph: what he saith to you, do ye.

56 When the famine was upon all the land, Joseph opened all places, wherein the store was, and sold unto the Egyptians: for the famine waxed sore in the land of Egypt.

57 And all the countries <sup>1</sup>came to Egypt to buy corn of Joseph, because the famine was sore in all lands.

5 And the sons of Israel came to buy food among them that came: for there was famine in the land of Canaan.

6 Now Joseph was governor of the land, who sold to all the people of the land: then Joseph's brethren came, and bowed their faces to the ground before him.

7 And when Joseph saw his brethren, he knew them, and <sup>c</sup>made himself strange toward them, and spake to them roughly, and said unto them, Whence come ye? Who answered, Out of the land of Canaan, to buy vittles.

8 (Now Joseph knew his brethren, but they knew not him.

9 And Joseph remembered the <sup>d</sup>dreams, which he dreamed of them) and he said unto them, Ye are spies, and are come to see the <sup>e</sup>weakness of the land.

10 But they said unto him, Nay, my lord, but to buy vittles thy servants are come.

11 We are all one man's sons: we mean truly, and thy servants are no spies.

12 But he said unto them, Nay, but ye are come to see the weakness of the land.

13 And they said, We thy servants, are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan: and behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one <sup>f</sup>is not.

14 Again Joseph said unto them, This is it that I spake unto you, saying, Ye are spies.

15 Hereby ye shall be proved: <sup>g</sup>by the life of Pharaoh, ye shall not go hence, except your youngest brother come hither.

16 Send one of you which may fetch your brother, and ye shall be kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether there be truth in you, or else by the life of Pharaoh ye are but spies.

17 So he put them in ward three days.

18 Then Joseph said unto them the third day, This do, and live: for I <sup>h</sup>fear God.

19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in your prison house, and go ye, carry food for the famine of your houses:

20 <sup>i</sup>But bring your younger brother unto me, that your words may be tried, and that ye die not: and they did so.

21 ¶ And they said one to another, <sup>j</sup>We have verily sinned against our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear him: therefore is this trouble come upon us.

22 And Reuben answered them, saying, Warned I not you, saying, <sup>k</sup>Sin not against the child, and ye would not hear? and lo, his <sup>l</sup>blood is now required.

23 (And they were not aware that Joseph understood them: for he <sup>m</sup>spake unto them by an interpreter.)

24 Then he turned from them, and <sup>n</sup>wept, and turned to them again, and communed with them, and took Simeon from among them, and bound him before their eyes.

25 ¶ So Joseph commanded that they should fill their sacks with wheat, and put every man's money again in his sack, and give them vittles for the journey: and thus did he unto them.

26 And they laid their vittles upon their asses, and departed thence.

27 And as one of them opened his sack for to give his ass provender in the Inn, he espied his money: for lo, it was in his sack's mouth.

28 Then he said unto his brethren, My money is restored: for lo, it is even in my sack. And their heart <sup>o</sup>failed them, and they were <sup>p</sup>astonished, and said one to another, What is this, that God hath done unto us?

29 ¶ And they came unto Jacob their father unto the land of Canaan, and told him all that had befallen them, saying,

30 The man who is lord of the land, spake roughly to us, and put us in prison as spies of the country.

31 And we said unto him, We are true men, and are no spies.

32 We be twelve brethren, sons of our father: one <sup>q</sup>is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.

33 Then the lord of the country said unto us, Hereby shall I know if ye be true men: Leave one of your brethren with me, and take food for the famine of your houses, and depart,

34 And bring your youngest brother unto me, that I may know that ye are no spies, but true men: so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall occupy in the land.

35 ¶ And as they emptied their sacks, behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack: and when they and their father saw the bundles of their money, they were afraid.

36 Then Jacob their father said to them, Ye have robbed me of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin: all these things <sup>1</sup>are against <sup>2</sup>me.

37 Then Reuben answered his father, saying, Slay my two sons, if I bring him not to thee again: deliver him to mine hand, and I will bring him to thee again.

38 But he said, My son shall not go down with you: for his brother is dead, and he is left alone: if death come unto him by the way which ye go, then ye shall bring my gray head with sorrow unto the grave.

1 Now great <sup>1</sup>famine was in the land.

2 And when they had eaten up the vittles, which they had brought from Egypt, their father said unto them, Turn again and buy us a little food.

3 And Judah answered him, saying, The man charged us by an oath, saying, "Never see my face, except your brother be with you.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down, and buy thee food.

5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not go down: for the man said unto us, <sup>6</sup>Look me not in the face, except your brother be with you.

6 And Israel said, Wherefore dealt ye so evil with me, as to tell the man, whether ye had yet a brother or no?

7 And they answered, The man asked straightly of <sup>1</sup>ourselves and of our kindred, saying, Is your father yet alive? have ye any brother? And we told him according to <sup>1</sup>these words: could we know certainly that he would say, Bring your brother down?

8 Then said Judah to Israel his father, Send the boy with me, that we may rise and go, and that we may live, and not die, both we, and thou, and our children.

9 I will be surety for him: of mine hand shalt thou require him. (If I bring him not to thee, and set him before thee, <sup>1</sup>then let me bear the blame forever.

10 For except we had made this tarrying, doubtless by this we had returned the second time.

11 Then their father Israel said unto them, If it must needs be so now, do thus: take of the best fruits of the land in your vessels, and bring the man a present, a little rosin, and a little honey, <sup>3</sup>spices and myrrh, nuts, and almonds:

12 And take <sup>1</sup>double money in your hand, and the money, that was brought again in your sacks' mouths carry it again in your hand, lest it were some oversight.

13 Take also your brother and arise, and go again to the man.

14 And <sup>1</sup>God Almighty give you mercy in the sight of the man, that he may deliver you your other brother, and Benjamin: but I shall be <sup>2</sup>robbed of my child, as I have been.

15 Thus the men took this present, and took twice so much money in their hand with Benjamin, and rose up, and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.

16 And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said <sup>1</sup>to his steward, Bring these men home and kill meat, and make ready: for the men shall eat with me at noon.

17 And the men did as Joseph bade, and brought the men unto Joseph's house.

18 Now when the men were brought into Joseph's house, they were <sup>1</sup>afraid, and said, Because of the money, that came in our sack's mouths at the first time, are we brought, that he may <sup>2</sup>pick a quarrel against us, and <sup>3</sup>lay something to our charge, and bring us in bondage and our asses.

19 Therefore came they to Joseph's steward, and communed with him at the door of his house,

20 And said, O sir, <sup>4</sup>we came indeed down hither at the first time to buy food,

21 And as we came to an Inn and opened our sacks, behold, every man's money was in his sack's mouth, even our money in full weight, but we have brought it in our hands.

22 Also other money have we brought in our hands to buy food, but we cannot tell, who put our money in our sacks.

23 And he said, <sup>1</sup>Peace be to you, fear not: <sup>2</sup>your God, and the God of your father hath given you that treasure in your sacks, I had your money: and he brought forth Simeon to them.

24 So the man led them into Joseph's house, and gave them water to wash their feet, and gave their asses provender.

25 And they made ready their present against Joseph came at noon, (for they heard say, that they should eat bread there.)

26 When Joseph came home, they brought the present into the house to him, which was in their hands, and bowed down to the ground before him.

27 And he asked them of their <sup>1</sup>prosperity, and said, Is your father the old man, of whom ye told me, in good health? is he yet alive?

28 Who answered, Thy servant our father is in good health, he is yet alive: and they bowed down, and made obeisance.

29 And he lifting up his eyes, beheld his brother Benjamin, his <sup>1</sup>mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother of whom ye told me? And he said, God be merciful unto thee, my son.

30 And Joseph made haste (for his <sup>1</sup>affection was inflamed toward his brother, and sought where to weep) and entered into his chamber and wept there.

31 Afterward he washed his face, and came out, and refrained himself, and said, Set on <sup>1</sup>meat.

32 And they <sup>1</sup>prepared for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians, which did eat with him, by themselves, because the Egyptians might not eat bread with the Hebrews: for that was an <sup>2</sup>abomination unto the Egyptians.

33 So they sat before him: the eldest according unto his age, and the youngest according unto his youth: and the men marveled among themselves.

34 And they took meats from before him, and sent to them: but Benjamin's meat was five times so much as any of theirs: and they drank, <sup>1</sup>and had of the best drink with him.

44 <sup>15</sup> Joseph accuseth his brother of theft. <sup>33</sup> Judah offereth himself to be servant for Benjamin.

1 Afterward he commanded his steward, saying, Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth.

2 And <sup>1</sup>put my cup, I mean, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his corn money. And he did according to the commandment that Joseph gave him.

3 And in the <sup>1</sup>morning the men were sent away, they, and their asses.

4 And when they went out of the city not far off, Joseph said to his steward, Up, follow after the men: and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good?

5 Is not that the cup wherein my lord drinketh? <sup>1</sup>and in the which he doth divine and prophesy? ye have done evil in so doing.

6 ¶ And when he overtook them, he said these words unto them.

7 And they answered him, Wherefore saith my lord such words? God forbid that thy servants should do such a thing.

8 Behold, the money which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again unto thee out of the land of Canaan: how then should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold?

9 With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, let him die, and we also will be my lord's bondmen.

10 And he said, Now then let it be according unto your words: he with whom it is found, shall be my servant, and ye shall be <sup>1</sup>blameless.

11 Then at once every man took down his sack to the ground, and everyone opened his sack.

12 And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest: and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

13 Then they <sup>1</sup>rent their clothes, and laded every man his ass, and went again into the city.

14 ¶ So Judah and his brethren came to Joseph's house (for he was yet there) and they fell before him on the ground.

15 Then Joseph said unto them, What act is this, which ye have done? know ye not that such a man as I, can divine and prophesy?

17 But he answered, God forbid, that I should do so, but the man, with whom the cup is found, he shall be my servant, and go ye in peace unto your father.

18 ¶ Then Judah drew near unto him, and said, Oh my lord, let thy servant now speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not thy wrath be kindled against thy servant: for thou art even <sup>1</sup>as Pharaoh.

19 My lord asked his servants, saying, <sup>a</sup>Have ye a father, or a brother?

3 Then Joseph said unto his brethren, I am Joseph: doth my father yet live? But his brethren could not answer him, for they were astonished at his presence.

4 Again, Joseph said to his brethren, Come near, I pray you, to me. And they came near. And he said, <sup>1</sup>I am Joseph your brother, whom ye sold into Egypt.

5 Now therefore be not <sup>1</sup>sad, neither grieved with yourselves, that ye sold me hither: <sup>b</sup>For God did send me before you for your preservation.

14 Then he fell on his brother Benjamin's neck, and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck.

15 Moreover, he kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them: and afterward his brethren talked with him.

16 ¶ And the <sup>1</sup>tidings came to Pharaoh's house, so that they said, Joseph's brethren are come: and it pleased Pharaoh well, and his servants.

17 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, Say to thy brethren, This do ye, laid your beasts and depart, go to the land of Canaan,

2 And God spake unto Israel in a vision by night, saying, Jacob, Jacob. Who answered, I am here.

3 Then he said, I am God, the God of thy father, fear not to go down into Egypt: for I will there make of thee a great nation.

4 I will <sup>1</sup>go down with thee into Egypt, and I will also <sup>2</sup>bring thee up again, and Joseph shall <sup>3</sup>put his hand upon thine eyes.

5 Then Jacob rose up from Beersheba: and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and their children, and their wives in the chariots, which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.

14 ¶ Also the sons of Zebulun: Sered, and Elon, and Jahleel.

15 These be the sons of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob in Padan Aram, with his daughter Dinah. All the <sup>g</sup>souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty and three.

16 Also the sons of Gad: Ziphion, and Haggi, Shuni, and Ezbon, Eri, and Arodi, and Areli.

17 ¶ Also the sons of <sup>h</sup>Asher: Jimnah, and Ishuah, and Isui, and Beriah, and Serah their sister. And the sons of Beriah: and Heber, Malchiel.

18 These are the children of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter: and these she bare unto Jacob, even sixteen souls.

19 The sons of Rachel Jacob's wife were Joseph, and Benjamin.

20 ¶ And unto Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh, and Ephraim, which <sup>i</sup>Asenath the daughter of Poti-Pherah prince of On bare unto him.

21 ¶ Also the sons of <sup>j</sup>Benjamin: Belah, and Becher, and Ashbel, and Gera, Naaman, Ehi, and Rosh, Muppim, and Huppim, and Ard.

22 These are the sons of Rachel, which were born unto Jacob, fourteen souls in all.

25 These are the sons of Bilhah, which Laban gave unto Rachel his daughter, and she bare these unto Jacob, in all seven souls.

26 All the <sup>k</sup>souls, that came with Jacob into Egypt, which came out of his <sup>l</sup>loins (besides Jacob's sons' wives) were in the whole, threescore and six souls.

27 Also the sons of Joseph, which were born him in Egypt, were two souls: so that all the souls of the house of Jacob, which came into Egypt, are seventy.

28 ¶ Then he sent Judah before him unto Joseph, to <sup>m</sup>direct his way unto Goshen, and they came into the land of Goshen.

29 Then Joseph <sup>n</sup>made ready his chariot, and went up to Goshen to meet Israel his father, and presented himself unto him, and fell on his neck and wept upon his neck a <sup>o</sup>good while.

30 And Israel said unto Joseph, Now let me die since I have seen thy face, and that thou art yet alive.

31 Then Joseph said to his brethren, and to his father's house, I will go up and show Pharaoh, and tell him, My brethren and my father's house, which were in the land of Canaan, are come unto me.

32 And the men are <sup>p</sup>sheepherders, and because they are sheepherders, they have brought their sheep and their cattle, and all that they have.

33 And if Pharaoh call you, and ask you, What is your trade?

2 And Joseph took part of his brethren, even <sup>v</sup>five men, and presented them unto Pharaoh.

3 When Pharaoh said unto his brethren, What is your trade? And they answered Pharaoh, Thy servants are shepherds, both we and our fathers.

4 They said moreover unto Pharaoh, For to sojourn in the land are we come: for thy servants have no pasture for their sheep, so sore is the famine in the land of Canaan, Now therefore, we pray thee: let thy servants dwell in the land of Goshen.

5 Then spake Pharaoh to Joseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee.

6 The <sup>w</sup>land of Egypt is before thee: in the best place of the land make thy father and thy brethren to dwell: let them dwell in the land of Goshen: and if thou knowest that there be men of activity among them, make them rulers over my cattle.

47:7 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, blessed.

8 Then Pharaoh said unto Jacob, <sup>1</sup>How old art thou?

9 And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, The whole time of my <sup>a</sup>pilgrimage is an hundred and thirty years: few and evil have the days of my life been, and I have not attained unto the years of the life of my fathers, in the days of their pilgrimages.

10 And Jacob <sup>1</sup>took leave of Pharaoh, and departed from the presence of Pharaoh.

11 ¶ And Joseph placed his father, and his brethren, and gave them possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, even in the land of <sup>1</sup>Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded.

12 ¶ And Joseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father's household with bread <sup>1</sup>even to the young children.

13 ¶ Now there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was exceeding sore: so that the land of Egypt, and the land of Canaan were <sup>1</sup>famished by reason of the famine.

14 And Joseph gathered all the money, that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought, and <sup>1</sup>Joseph laid up the money in Pharaoh's house.

15 So when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, then all the Egyptians came unto Joseph and said, Give us bread: for why should we die before thee? for our money is spent.

16 Then said Joseph, Bring your cattle, and I will give you for your cattle, if your money be spent.

17 So they brought their cattle unto Joseph, and Joseph gave them bread for the horses, and for the flocks of sheep, and for the herds of cattle, and for the asses: so he fed them with bread for all their cattle that year.

18 But when the year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide from my lord, that since our money is spent, and my lord hath the herds of the cattle, there is nothing left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies and our ground.

19 Why shall we perish in thy sight, both we and our <sup>1</sup>land? buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be bound to Pharaoh: therefore give us seed, that we may live and not die, and that the land go not to waste.

20 So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh: for the Egyptians sold every man his ground, because the famine was sore upon them: so the land became Pharaoh's.

21 And he <sup>1</sup>removed the people unto the cities, <sup>2</sup>from one side of Egypt even to the other.

22 Only the land of the Priests bought he not: for the Priests had an ordinary of Pharaoh, and they did eat their ordinary, which Pharaoh gave them: wherefore they sold not their ground.

23 Then Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day, and your land for Pharaoh: lo, here is seed for you: sow therefore the ground.

24 And of the increase ye shall give the fifth part unto Pharaoh, and four parts shall be yours for seed of the field, and for your meat, and for them of your households, and for your children to eat.

25 Then they answered, Thou hast saved our lives: let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants.

26 Then Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt unto this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part, <sup>1</sup>except the land of the Priests only, which was not Pharaoh's.

27 ¶ And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen: and they had their possessions therein, and grew and multiplied exceedingly.

28 Moreover, Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years, so the whole age of Jacob was an hundred forty and seven years.

29 Now when the time drew near that Israel must die, he called his son Joseph, and said unto him, If I have now found grace in thy sight, <sup>b</sup>put thine hand now under my thigh, and deal mercifully and truly with me: bury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt.

30 But when I shall <sup>1</sup>sleep with my fathers, thou shalt carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their burial. And he answered, I will do as thou hast said.

4 And said unto me, Behold, I will make thee fruitful, and will multiply thee, and will make a great number of people of thee, and will give this land unto thy seed after thee for an <sup>1</sup>everlasting possession.

5 ¶ And now thy <sup>b</sup>two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim, which are born unto thee in the land of Egypt before I came to thee into Egypt, shall be mine, as Reuben and Simeon are mine.

6 But thy lineage, which thou hast begotten after them, shall be thine: they shall be called after the names of their brethren in their inheritance.

7 Now when I came from Padan, Rachel <sup>c</sup>died upon mine hand in the land of Canaan, by the way when there was but half a day's journey of ground to come to Ephrath: and I buried her there in the way to Ephrath: the same is Bethlehem.

8 Then Israel beheld Joseph's sons and said, Whose are these?

9 And Joseph said unto his father, They are my sons, which <sup>1</sup>God hath given me here. Then he said, I pray thee, bring them to me, that I may bless them:

10 (For the eyes of Israel were dim for age, so that he could not well see) Then he caused them to come to him, and he kissed them and embraced them.

11 And Israel said unto Joseph, I had not thought to have seen thy face: yet lo, God hath showed me also thy seed.

12 And Joseph took them away from his knees, and did reverence <sup>1</sup>down to the ground.

20 So he blessed them that day, and said, In thee Israel shall bless, and say, God make thee as <sup>1</sup>Ephraim and as Manasseh, and he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

5 ¶ Simeon and Levi, brethren in evil, <sup>1</sup>the instruments of cruelty are in their habitations.

6 Into their secret let not my soul come: my <sup>1</sup>glory be not thou joined with their assembly: for in their wrath they slew a <sup>2</sup>man, and in their self-will they dug down a wall.

7 Cursed be their wrath, for it was fierce, and their rage, for it was cruel: I will <sup>1</sup>divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel.

8 ¶ Thou Judah, thy brethren shall praise thee: thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies: thy father's son shall <sup>1</sup>bow down before unto thee.

9 Judah as a Lion's whelp shalt thou come up from the spoil, my son. He shall lie down and couch a Lion, and as a Lioness: <sup>1</sup>Who shall stir him up?

10 The <sup>1</sup>Sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a Lawgiver from between his feet, until <sup>2</sup>Shiloh come, and the people shall be gathered unto him.

11 He shall bind his Ass foal unto the <sup>1</sup>vine, and his ass's colt unto the best vine. He shall wash his garment in wine, and his cloak in the blood of grapes.

12 His eyes shall be red with wine, and his teeth white with milk.

13 ¶ Zebulun shall dwell by the seaside, and he shall be an haven for ships: and his border shall be unto Sidon.

14 ¶ Issachar shall be <sup>1,2</sup>a strong ass, couching down between two burdens:

15 And he shall see that rest is good, and that the land is pleasant, and he shall bow his shoulder to bear, and shall be subject unto tribute.

17 Dan shall be a <sup>1</sup>serpent by the way, an adder by the path, biting the horse heels, so that his rider shall fall backward.

18 <sup>1</sup>O Lord, I have waited for thy salvation.

19 ¶ Gad, a host of men shall overcome him, but he shall overcome at the last.

20 ¶ Concerning Asher, his <sup>1</sup>bread shall be fat, and he shall give pleasures for a king.

21 ¶ Naphtali shall be a hind let go, giving <sup>1</sup>goodly words.

22 ¶ Joseph shall be <sup>1</sup>a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by the well side: the <sup>2</sup>small boughs shall turn upon the wall:

23 <sup>1</sup>And the archers grieved him, and shot against him, and hated him.

24 But his bow abode strong, and the hands of his arms were strengthened, by the hands of the mighty God of Jacob, of whom was the feeder appointed by the <sup>1</sup>stone of Israel,

25 Even by the God of thy father, who shall help thee, and by the almighty, who shall bless thee with heavenly blessings from above, with blessings of the deep that lieth beneath, with blessings of the breasts, and of the womb.

26 The blessings of thy father shall be <sup>1</sup>stronger than the blessings of mine elders: unto the end of the hills of the world they shall be on the head of Joseph, and on the top of the head of him that was <sup>2</sup>separated from his brethren.

27 ¶ Benjamin shall raven as a wolf: in the morning he shall devour the prey, and at night he shall divide the spoil.

28 ¶ All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and thus their father spake unto them, and blessed them: every one of them blessed he with a several blessing.

29 And he charged them and said unto them, I am ready to be gathered unto my people: <sup>b</sup>bury me with my fathers in the cave, that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite,

30 In the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, besides Mamre in the land of Canaan: which cave Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite for a possession to bury in.

31 There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife: there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife:

49:4 <sup>1</sup> Or, it ceased to be my bed.

49:5 <sup>1</sup> Or, their swords were instruments of violence.

49:6 <sup>1</sup> Or, tongue: meaning that he neither consented to them in word nor thought.

49:7 <sup>1</sup> For Levi had no part, and Simeon was under Judah, Josh. 19:1, till God gave them the place of the Amalekites, 1 Chron. 4:43.

49:8 <sup>1</sup> As was verified in David and Christ.

49:9 <sup>1</sup> His enemies shall so fear him.

49:10 <sup>1</sup> Or, Kingdom.

49:11 <sup>1</sup> A country most abundant with vines and pastures is promised him.

49:16 <sup>1</sup> Shall have the honor of a tribe.

49:17 <sup>1</sup> That is, full of subtlety.

49:18 <sup>1</sup> Seeing the miseries that his posterity should fall into, he bursteth out in prayer to God to remedy it.

49:20 <sup>1</sup> He shall abound in corn and pleasant fruits.

49:21 <sup>1</sup> Overcoming more by fair words than by force.

49:23 <sup>1</sup> As his brethren when they were his enemies, Potiphar and others.

49:24 <sup>1</sup> That is God.

49:26 <sup>1</sup> Inasmuch as he was more near to the accomplishment of the promise, and it had been more often confirmed.

and there I buried Leah.

32 The purchase of the field and the cave that is therein, was bought of the children of Heth.

33 Thus Jacob made an end of giving charge to his sons, and <sup>1</sup>plucked his feet into the bed, and gave up the ghost, and was gathered to his people.

1 Then Joseph fell upon his father's face and wept upon him, and kissed him.

2 And Joseph commanded his servants the <sup>1</sup>physicians to embalm his father, and the physicians embalmed Israel.

3 So forty days were accomplished (for so long did the days of them that were embalmed last) and the Egyptians bewailed him <sup>1</sup>seventy days.

4 And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spake to the house of Pharaoh, saying, If I have now found favor in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears, of Pharaoh, and say,

5 My father made me <sup>a</sup>swear saying, Lo, I die, bury me in my grave, which I have made me in the land of Canaan: now therefore let me go, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again.

6 Then Pharaoh said, Go up and bury thy father, <sup>1</sup>as he made thee to swear.

7 ¶ So Joseph went up to bury his father, and with him went all the servants of Pharaoh, both the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,

8 Likewise all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house: only their children, and their sheep, and their cattle left they in the land of Goshen.

9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen: and they were an exceeding great company.

10 And they came to <sup>1</sup>Goren Atad, which is beyond Jordan, and there they made a great and exceeding sore lamentation: and he mourned for his father seven days.

11 And when the Canaanites the inhabitants of the land saw the mourning in Goren Atad, they said, This is a great mourning unto the Egyptians: wherefore the name thereof was called <sup>1</sup>Abel Mizraim, which is beyond Jordan.

12 So his sons did unto him, according as he had commanded them:

13 <sup>b</sup>For his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which cave <sup>c</sup>Abraham bought with the field, to be a <sup>1</sup>place to bury in, of Ephron the Hittite beside Mamre.

14 ¶ Then Joseph returned into Egypt, he and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after that he had buried his father.

15 And when Joseph's brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, <sup>1</sup>It may be that Joseph will hate us, and will pay us again all the evil which we did unto him.

16 Therefore they sent unto Joseph, saying, Thy father commanded before his death, saying,

17 Thus shall ye say unto Joseph, Forgive now, I pray thee, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sin: for they rewarded thee evil. And now, we pray thee, forgive the trespass of the servants of thy father's <sup>1</sup>God. And Joseph wept, when <sup>2</sup>they spake unto him.

18 Also his brethren came unto him, and fell down before his face, and said, Behold, we be thy servants.

19 To whom Joseph said, <sup>d</sup>Fear not: for <sup>1</sup>am not I under <sup>2</sup>God?

20 When ye thought evil against me, God disposed it to good, that he might bring to pass, as it is this day, and save much people alive.

21 Fear not now therefore, I will nourish you, and your children: and he comforted them, and spake <sup>1</sup>kindly unto them.

22 ¶ So Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his father's house: and Joseph lived an <sup>1</sup>hundred and ten years.

23 <sup>c</sup>And Joseph saw Ephraim's children, even unto the third generation: also the sons of Machir the son of Manasseh were brought upon Joseph's knees.

24 And Joseph said unto his brethren, <sup>1</sup>I am ready to die, and God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land, unto the land which he sware unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob.

25 And Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, <sup>g</sup><sup>1</sup>God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry my bones hence.

26 So Joseph died, when he was an hundred and ten years old: and they embalmed him, and put him in a chest in Egypt.

THE SECOND BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED EXODUS

1 Now <sup>a,1</sup> these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt (every man and his household came thither with Jacob)

2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah,

3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin,

4 Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

5 So all the <sup>1</sup> souls, that came out of the loins of Jacob, were <sup>b</sup> seventy souls: Joseph was in Egypt already.

6 Now Joseph died and all his brethren, and that whole generation.

7 ¶ And the <sup>c</sup> children of Israel <sup>1</sup> brought forth fruit and increased in abundance, and were multiplied, and were exceeding mighty, so that the <sup>2</sup> land was full of them.

8 Then there rose up a new King in Egypt, who <sup>1</sup> knew not Joseph.

9 And he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are greater, and mightier than we.

10 Come, let us work wisely with them, lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that if there be war, they join themselves also unto our enemies, and fight against us, and <sup>1,2</sup> get them out of the land.

11 Therefore did they set taskmasters over them, to keep them under with burdens: and they built the cities Pithom and Raamses for the <sup>1</sup> treasures of Pharaoh.

12 But the more they vexed them, the more they multiplied and grew: therefore <sup>1</sup> they were more grieved against the children of Israel.

13 Wherefore the Egyptians by cruelty caused the children of Israel to serve.

14 Thus they made them weary of their lives by sore labor in clay and in brick, and in all work in the field, with all manner of bondage, <sup>1</sup> which they laid upon them most cruelly.

15 ¶ Moreover the King of Egypt commanded the midwives of the Hebrew women (of which the one's name was <sup>1</sup> Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah)

16 And said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the women of the Hebrews, and see them on their <sup>1</sup> stools, if it be a son, then ye shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then let her live.

17 Notwithstanding the midwives feared God, and did not as the King of Egypt commanded them, but preserved alive the men children.

18 Then the King of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, Why have ye done thus, and have preserved alive the men children?

19 And the midwives answered Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew <sup>1</sup> women are not as the women of Egypt: for they are lively, and are delivered ere the midwives come at them.

20 God therefore prospered the midwives, and the people multiplied, and were very mighty.

21 And because the midwives feared God, therefore he <sup>1</sup> made them houses.

22 Then Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every man-child that is born, <sup>1</sup> cast ye into the river, but reserve every maid-child alive.

the Egyptian. 15 He fleeth and marrieth a wife. 23 The Israelites cry unto the Lord.

1 Then there went a <sup>1</sup>man of the house of Levi, and took to wife a daughter of Levi.

2 And the woman conceived and bare a son: and when she saw that he was fair, <sup>a</sup>she hid him three months.

3 But when she could no longer hide him, she took for him an ark made of reed, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and <sup>1</sup>laid the child therein, and put it among the bulrushes by the river's brink.

4 Now his sister stood afar off, to wit what would come of him.

5 ¶ Then the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash her in the river, and her maidens walked by the river's side: and when she saw the ark among the bulrushes, she sent her maid to fetch it.

6 Then she opened it, and saw it was a child, and behold, the babe wept: so she had compassion on it, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children.

7 Then said his sister unto Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call unto thee a nurse of the Hebrew women to nurse thee the child?

8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. So the maid went and called the <sup>1</sup>child's mother.

9 To whom Pharaoh's daughter said, Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will reward thee. Then the woman took the child, and nursed him.

10 Now the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he was as her son, and she called his name Moses, because, said she, I drew him out of the water.

11 ¶ And in those days, when Moses was <sup>1</sup>grown, he went forth unto his brethren, and looked on their burdens: also he saw an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew one of his brethren.

12 And he looked <sup>1</sup>round about, and when he saw no man, he <sup>2</sup>slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

13 Again he came forth the second day, and behold two Hebrews strove: and he said unto him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?

14 And he answered, Who made thee a man of authority, and a judge over us? Thinkest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? Then Moses

15 Now Pharaoh heard this matter, and sought to slay Moses: therefore Moses fled from Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian, and he sat down by a well.

16 And the <sup>1</sup>Priest of Midian had seven daughters, which came and drew water, and filled the troughs, for to water their father's sheep.

17 Then the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses rose up, and <sup>1</sup>defended them, and watered their sheep.

18 And when they came to Reuel their <sup>1</sup>father, he said, How are ye come so soon today?

19 And they said, A man of Egypt delivered us from the hand of the shepherds, and also drew us water enough, and watered the sheep.

20 Then he said unto his daughters, And where is he? why have ye so left the man? <sup>1</sup>call him that he may eat bread.

21 And Moses agreed to dwell with the man: who gave unto Moses Zipporah his daughter:

22 And she bare a son, <sup>b</sup>whose name he called Gershom: for he said, I have been a stranger in a strange land.

23 ¶ Then in process of time, the King of Egypt died, and the children of Israel sighed for the bondage and <sup>1</sup>cried: and their cry for the bondage came up unto God.

24 Then God heard their moan, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

25 So God looked upon the children of Israel, and God <sup>1</sup>had respect unto them.

3 <sup>1</sup>Moses keepeth sheep, and God appeareth unto him in a bush. 10 He sendeth him to deliver the children of Israel. 14 The name of God.

1 When Moses kept the sheep of Jethro his father-in-law, Priest of Midian, and drove the flock to the <sup>1</sup>back side of the desert, and came to the <sup>2</sup>Mountain of God, <sup>3</sup>Horeb,

2 Then the Angel of the Lord appeared unto him <sup>a</sup>in a flame of fire out of the midst of a <sup>1</sup>bush, and he looked, and behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

2:1 <sup>1</sup> This Levite was called Amram, who married Jochebed, Exod. 6:20.

2:3 <sup>1</sup> Committing him to the providence of God, whom she could not keep from the rage of the tyrant.

2:8 <sup>1</sup> Man's counsel cannot hinder that, which God hath determined shall come to pass.

2:12 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, thus and thus.

2:18 <sup>1</sup> Or, grandfather.

2:20 <sup>1</sup> Wherein he declared a thankful mind, which would recompense the benefit done unto his.

2:23 <sup>1</sup> God humbleth his by afflictions, that they should cry unto him, and receive the fruit of his promise.

2:25 <sup>1</sup> He judgeth their causes or acknowledged them to be his.

3:1 <sup>1</sup> Or, far within the desert.

3:2 <sup>1</sup> This signifieth that the Church is not consumed by the fire of affliction, because God is in the midst thereof.

3 Therefore Moses said, I will turn aside now, and see this great sight, why the bush burneth not.

4 And when the <sup>1</sup>Lord saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he answered, I am here.

5 Then he said, Come not hither, <sup>1</sup>put thy shoes off thy feet: for the place whereon thou standest is <sup>2</sup>holy ground.

6 Moreover he said, <sup>b</sup>I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses hid his face: for he was <sup>a</sup>afraid to look upon God.

7 ¶ Then the Lord said, I have surely seen the trouble of my people, which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry, because of their <sup>1</sup>taskmasters: for I know their sorrows.

8 Therefore I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them out of that land into a good land and a large, into a land that <sup>1</sup>floweth with milk and honey, even into the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

9 <sup>1</sup>And now lo, the cry of the children of Israel is come unto me, and I have also seen the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them.

10 Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.

11 ¶ But Moses said unto God, Who am <sup>1</sup>I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?

12 And he answered, <sup>1</sup>Certainly I will be with thee: and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee, After that thou hast brought the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.

13 Then Moses said unto God, Behold, when I shall come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you: if they say unto me, What is his Name? what shall I say unto them?

14 And God answered Moses, I <sup>1</sup>AM THAT I AM. Also he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you.

15 And God spake further unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob hath sent me unto you: this is my Name forever, and this is my memorial unto all ages.

16 Go and gather the Elders of Israel together, and thou shalt say unto them, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob appeared unto me, and said, <sup>1</sup>I have surely remembered you, and that which is done to you in Egypt.

17 Therefore I did say, I will bring you out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land that floweth with milk and honey.

18 Then shall they obey my voice, and thou and the Elders of Israel shall go unto the King of Egypt, and say unto him, The Lord God of the Hebrews hath <sup>1</sup>met with us: we pray thee now therefore, let us go three days' journey in the wilderness, that we may <sup>2</sup>sacrifice unto the Lord our God.

19 ¶ But I know, that the King of Egypt will not let you go, but by strong hand.

20 Therefore will I stretch out mine hand and smite Egypt with all my wonders, which I will do in the midst thereof: and after that shall he let you go.

21 And I will make this people to be favored of the Egyptians: so that when ye go, ye shall not go empty.

22 <sup>1c</sup>For every woman shall ask of her neighbor, and of her <sup>2</sup>that sojourneth in her house, jewels of silver and jewels of gold and raiment, and ye shall put them on your sons, and on your daughters, and shall spoil the Egyptians.

thine hand? And he answered, A rod.

3 Then said he, Cast it on the ground. So he cast it on the ground, and it was turned into a serpent: and Moses fled from it.

4 Again the Lord said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. Then he put forth his hand and caught it, and it was turned into a rod in his hand.

5 Do this <sup>1</sup>that they may believe, that the Lord God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob hath appeared unto thee.

6 ¶ And the Lord said furthermore unto him, Thrust now thine hand into thy bosom. And he thrust his hand into his bosom, and when he took it out again, behold his hand was <sup>1</sup>leprous as snow.

7 Moreover he said, Put thine hand into thy bosom again. So he put his hand into his bosom again, and plucked it out of his bosom, and behold, it was turned again as his other flesh.

8 So shall it be, if they will not believe thee, neither obey <sup>1</sup>the voice of the first sign, yet shall they believe for the voice of the second sign.

9 But if they will not yet believe these two signs, neither obey unto thy voice, then shalt thou take of the <sup>1</sup>water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land: so the water which thou shalt take out of the river, shall be turned to blood upon the dry land.

10 ¶ But Moses said unto the Lord, Oh my Lord, I am not eloquent, <sup>1</sup>neither at any time have been, nor yet since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: but I am <sup>2</sup>slow of speech and slow of tongue.

11 Then the Lord said unto him, Who hath given the mouth to man? or who hath made the dumb, or the deaf, or him that seeth, or the blind? have not I the Lord?

12 Therefore go now, and "I will be with thy mouth, and will teach thee what thou shalt say.

13 But he said, Oh my Lord, send, I pray thee, by the <sup>1</sup>hand of him, whom thou <sup>2</sup>shouldst send.

14 Then the Lord was <sup>1</sup>very angry with Moses, and said, Do not I know Aaron thy brother the Levite, that he himself shall speak? for lo, he cometh also forth to meet thee, and when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart.

15 Therefore thou shalt speak unto him, and <sup>1</sup>put the words in his mouth, and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye ought to do.

16 And he shall be thy spokesman unto the people: and he shall be, even he shall be as thy mouth, and thou shalt be to him as <sup>b,1</sup>God.

17 Moreover thou shalt take this rod in thine hand, wherewith thou shalt do miracles.

18 ¶ Therefore Moses went and returned to Jethro his father-in-law, and said unto him, I pray thee, let me go, and return to my <sup>1</sup>brethren, which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive. Then Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace.

19 (For the Lord had said unto Moses in Midian, Go, return to Egypt: for they are all dead which <sup>1</sup>went about to kill thee.)

20 Then Moses took his wife and his sons, and <sup>1</sup>put them on an ass, and returned toward the land of Egypt, and Moses took the <sup>2</sup>rod of God in his hand.

21 And the Lord said unto Moses, When thou art entered and come into Egypt again, see that thou do all the wonders before Pharaoh, which I have put in thine hand: but I will <sup>1</sup>harden his heart, and he shall not let the people go.

22 Then thou shalt say to Pharaoh, Thus saith the Lord, Israel is my son, even my <sup>1</sup>firstborn.

23 Wherefore I say to thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me: if thou refuse to let him go, behold, I will slay thy son, even thy firstborn.

24 ¶ And as he was by the way in the Inn, the Lord met him, and <sup>1</sup>would have killed him.

25 Then Zipporah took a sharp knife, and <sup>1</sup>cut away the foreskin of her son, and cast it at his feet, and said, Thou art indeed a bloody husband unto me.

26 So <sup>1</sup>he departed from him. Then she said, O bloody husband (because of the circumcision).

27 ¶ Then the Lord said unto Aaron, Go meet

4:24 <sup>1</sup> God punished him with sickness for neglecting his Sacrament.

4:25 <sup>1</sup> This act was extraordinary: for Moses was sore sick, and God even then required it.

4:26 <sup>1</sup> Or, the Angel.

Moses in the wilderness. And he went and met him in the <sup>1</sup>Mount of God, and kissed him.

28 Then Moses told Aaron all the words of the Lord, who had sent him, and all the signs wherewith he had charged him.

29 ¶ So went Moses and Aaron, and gathered all the elders of the children of Israel.

30 And Aaron told all the words, which the Lord had spoken unto Moses, and he did the miracles in the sight of the people.

31 And the <sup>1</sup>people believed, and when they heard that the Lord had visited the children of Israel, and had looked upon their tribulation, they bowed down, and worshipped.

1 Then afterward Moses and Aaron went and said to <sup>1</sup>Pharaoh, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may <sup>2</sup>celebrate a feast unto me in the wilderness.

2 And Pharaoh said, Who is the Lord, that I should hear his voice, and let Israel go? I know not the Lord, neither will I let Israel go.

3 And they said, <sup>1</sup>We worship the God of the Hebrews: we pray thee, let us go three days' journey in the desert, and sacrifice unto the Lord our God, lest <sup>2</sup>he bring upon us the pestilence or sword.

4 Then said the King of Egypt unto them, Moses and Aaron, why cause ye the people to cease from their works? get you to your burdens.

5 Pharaoh said furthermore, Behold, much people is now in the land, and ye <sup>1</sup>make them leave their burdens.

6 Therefore Pharaoh gave commandment the same day unto the taskmasters of the people, and to their <sup>1</sup>officers, saying,

7 Ye shall give the people no more straw, to make brick (<sup>1</sup>as in time past) but let them go and gather them straw themselves.

8 Notwithstanding lay upon them the number of brick, which they made in time past, diminish nothing thereof: for they be idle, therefore they cry, saying, Let us go to offer sacrifice unto our God.

9 <sup>1</sup>Lay more work upon the men, and cause them to do it, and let them not regard <sup>2</sup>vain words.

10 ¶ Then went the taskmasters of the people and their officers out, and told the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will give you no more straw.

11 Go yourselves, get ye straw where ye can find it, yet shall nothing of your labor be diminished.

12 Then were the people scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt, for to gather stubble instead of straw.

13 And the taskmasters hastened them, saying, Finish your day's work <sup>1</sup>every day's task, as ye did when ye had straw.

14 And the Officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your [task] in making brick yesterday and today, as in times past?

15 ¶ Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried unto Pharaoh, saying, Wherefore dealest thou thus thy servants?

16 There is no straw given to thy servants, and they say unto us, Make brick: and lo, thy servants are beaten, and <sup>1</sup>thy people is blamed.

17 But he said, <sup>1</sup>Ye are too much idle: therefore ye say, Let us go to offer sacrifice to the Lord.

18 Go therefore now and work: for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the whole tale of brick.

19 Then the officers of the children of Israel <sup>1</sup>saw themselves in an evil case, because it was said, Ye shall diminish nothing of your brick, nor of every day's task.

20 ¶ And they met Moses and Aaron, which stood in their way as they came out from Pharaoh.

21 To whom they said, The Lord look upon you and judge: for ye have made our savor to <sup>1</sup>stink before Pharaoh and before his servants, in that ye have <sup>2</sup>put a sword in their hand to slay us.

22 Wherefore Moses returned to the Lord, and said, Lord, why hast thou afflicted this people? wherefore hast thou thus sent me?

23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath vexed this people, and yet thou hast not delivered thy people.

4:27 <sup>1</sup> Or, Horeb.

4:31 <sup>1</sup> So that Moses had now experience of God's promise that he should have good success.

5:16 <sup>1</sup> Or, thy people the Egyptians are in fault.

5:19 <sup>1</sup> Or, looked sad on them, which said.

5:21 <sup>1</sup> Read Gen. 34:30.

6 <sup>8</sup> God reneweth his promise of deliverance of the Israelites. <sup>9</sup> Moses speaketh to the Israelites, but they believe him not. <sup>10</sup> Moses and Aaron are sent again unto Pharaoh.

1 Then the Lord said unto Moses, Now shalt thou see, what I will do unto Pharaoh: for by a strong hand shall he let them go, and even <sup>1</sup>be constrained to drive them out of his land.

2 Moreover God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, I am the Lord,

3 And I appeared unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob by the Name of <sup>1</sup>Almighty God, but by my Name <sup>2</sup>Jehovah was I not known unto them.

4 Furthermore as I made my covenant with them to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers:

5 So I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage, and have remembered my covenant.

6 Wherefore say thou unto the children of Israel, I am the Lord, and I will bring you out from the burdens of the Egyptians, and will deliver you out of their bondage, and will redeem you in a stretched out arm, and in great <sup>1</sup>judgments.

7 Also I will <sup>1</sup>take you for my people, and will be your God: then ye shall know that I the Lord your God bring you out from the burdens of the Egyptians.

8 And I will bring you into the land which I <sup>1</sup>swore that I would give to Abraham, and to Isaac, and to Jacob, and I will give it unto you for a possession: I am the Lord.

9 ¶ So Moses told the children of Israel thus: but they hearkened <sup>1</sup>not unto Moses, for anguish of spirit and for cruel bondage.

10 Then the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

11 Go speak to Pharaoh King of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land.

12 But Moses spake before the Lord, saying, Behold, the children of Israel hearken not unto me, how then shall Pharaoh hear me, which am of <sup>1</sup>uncircumcised lips?

13 Then the Lord spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, and charged them to go to the children of Israel and to Pharaoh King of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

the "sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel are Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi: these are the families of Reuben.

15 <sup>b</sup>Also the sons of Simeon: Jemuel and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman: these are the families of Simeon.

16 ¶ <sup>c</sup>These also are the names of the sons of Levi in their generations: Gershon and Kohath and Merari (and the years of the life of Levi were an hundred <sup>1</sup>thirty and seven years).

17 The sons of Gershon were Libni and Shimi by their families.

18 <sup>d</sup>And the sons of Kohath, Amram and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel (and Kohath lived an hundred thirty and three years).

19 Also the sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi: these are the families of Levi their kindreds.

26 These are Aaron and Moses to whom the Lord said, Bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, according to their <sup>1</sup>armies.

27 These are that Moses, and Aaron, which spake to Pharaoh King of Egypt, that they might bring the children of Israel out of Egypt.

28 ¶ And at that time when the Lord spake unto Moses in the land of Egypt,

29 When the Lord, I say, spake unto Moses, saying, I am the Lord, speak thou unto Pharaoh the King of Egypt all that I say unto thee.

6:1 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, in a strong hand.

6:3 <sup>1</sup> Or, all sufficient.

6:8 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, Lift up mine hand.

6:9 <sup>1</sup> So hard a thing it is to show true obedience under the cross.

6:12 <sup>1</sup> Or barbarous and rude in speech: and by this word (uncircumcised) is signified the whole corruption of man's nature.

6:14 <sup>1</sup> This genealogy showeth of whom Moses and Aaron came.

6:16 <sup>1</sup> For he was 42 years old, when he came into Egypt, and there lived 94.

6:20 <sup>1</sup> Which kind of marriage was after in the law forbidden, Lev. 18:12.

6:21 <sup>1</sup> Moses and he were brothers' children, whose rebellion was punished, Num. 16:1.

6:23 <sup>1</sup> Who was a prince of Judah, Num. 1:7.

6:26 <sup>1</sup> For their families were so great, that they might be compared to armies.

30 Then Moses said before the Lord, Behold, I am of <sup>1</sup>uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh hear me?

7 3 God hardeneth Pharaoh's heart. 10 Moses and Aaron do the miracles of the serpent, and the blood: and Pharaoh's sorcerers do the like.

1 Then the Lord said to Moses, Behold, I have made thee <sup>1</sup>Pharaoh's <sup>2</sup>God, and Aaron thy brother shall <sup>3</sup>be thy Prophet.

2 Thou shalt speak all that I commanded thee: and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Pharaoh, that he suffer the children of Israel to go out of his land.

3 But I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply my miracles, and my wonders in the land of Egypt.

4 And Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you, that I may lay mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out mine armies, even my people, the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, by great <sup>1</sup>judgments.

5 Then the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I stretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them.

6 So Moses and Aaron did as the Lord commanded them, even so did they.

7 (Now Moses was <sup>4</sup>fourscore years old, and Aaron fourscore and three, when they spake unto Pharaoh.)

8 ¶ And the Lord had spoken unto Moses and Aaron, saying,

9 If Pharaoh speak unto you, saying, Show a miracle for you, then thou shalt say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and cast it before Pharaoh, and it shall be turned into a <sup>1</sup>serpent.

10 ¶ Then went Moses and Aaron unto Pharaoh, and did even as the Lord had commanded, and Aaron cast forth his rod before Pharaoh and before his servants, and it was turned into a serpent.

11 Then Pharaoh also called for the wise men and <sup>1</sup>sorcerers: and those charmers also of Egypt did in like manner with their enchantments.

12 For they cast down every man his rod, and they were turned into serpents: but Aaron's rod devoured their rods.

13 So Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he hearkened not to them, as the Lord had said.

14 ¶ The Lord then said unto Moses, Pharaoh's heart is <sup>1</sup>obstinate, he refuseth to let the people go.

15 Go unto Pharaoh in the morning, (lo, he will come forth unto the water) and thou shalt stand and meet him by <sup>1</sup>the river's brink, and the rod, which was turned into a serpent, shalt thou take in thine hand.

16 And thou shalt say unto him, The Lord God of the Hebrews hath sent me unto thee, saying, Let my people go that they may serve me in the wilderness: and behold, hitherto thou wouldest not hear.

17 Thus saith the Lord, In this thou shalt know that I am the Lord: behold, I will smite with the rod that is in mine hand upon the water that is in the river, and it shall be turned into blood.

18 And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink, and it shall <sup>1</sup>grieve the Egyptians to drink of the water of the river.

19 ¶ The Lord then spake to Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and stretch out thine hand over the waters of Egypt, over their streams, over their rivers, and over their ponds, and over all pools of their waters, and they shall be <sup>1</sup>blood, and there shall be blood throughout the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and of stone.

20 So Moses and Aaron did even as the Lord commanded: "and he lift up the rod, and smote the water that was in the river in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants: and <sup>b</sup>all the water that was in the river, was turned into blood.

21 And the <sup>1</sup>fish that was in the river died, and the river stank: so that the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river: and there was blood throughout the land of Egypt.

22 And the enchanters of Egypt did <sup>1</sup>likewise with their sorceries: and the heart of Pharaoh was <sup>2</sup>hardened: so that he did not hearken unto them, as the Lord hath said.

23 Then Pharaoh returned, and went again into his house, <sup>1</sup>neither did this yet enter into his heart.

24 All the Egyptians then dug round about the river for waters to drink: for they could not drink of the water of the river.

6:30 <sup>1</sup> The disobedience both of Moses and of the people, showeth that their deliverance came only of God's free mercy.

7:1 <sup>1</sup> Or, a God to Pharaoh.

<sup>2</sup> I have given thee power and authority to speak in my name and to execute my judgments upon him.

7:4 <sup>1</sup> To strengthen Moses' faith, God promiseth again to punish most sharply the oppression of his Church.

7:7 <sup>1</sup> Moses lived in affliction and banishment forty years before he enjoined his office to deliver God's people.

7:9 <sup>1</sup> Or, dragon.

7:11 <sup>1</sup> It seemeth that these were Jannes and Jambres: read 2 Tim. 3:8, so ever the wicked maliciously resist the truth of God.

7:14 <sup>1</sup> Or, heavy and dull.

7:15 <sup>1</sup> To wit, the river Nile.

7:21 <sup>1</sup> To signify that it was a true miracle, and that God plagued them in that which was most necessary for the preservation of life.

7:22 <sup>1</sup> In outward appearance, and after that the seven days were ended.

7:23 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, he set not his heart at all thereunto.

25 And this<sup>1</sup> continued fully seven days after the Lord had smitten the river.

8 6 Frogs are sent. 13 Moses prayeth, and they die. 17 Lice are sent, whereby the sorcerers acknowledge God's power. 24 Egypt is plagued with noisome flies. 30 Moses prayeth again.

1 Afterward the Lord said unto Moses, Go unto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the Lord, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

2 And if thou wilt not let them go, behold, I will smite all thy country with <sup>1</sup>frogs:

3 And the river shall crawl full of frogs, which shall go up and come into thine house, and into thy chamber, where thou sleepest, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy ovens, and <sup>1</sup>into thy kneading troughs.

4 Yea, the frogs shall climb up upon thee, and on thy people, and upon all thy servants.

5 ¶ Also the Lord said to Moses, Say thou unto Aaron, Stretch out thine hand with thy rod upon the streams, upon the rivers, and upon the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt.

6 Then Aaron stretched out his hand upon the waters of Egypt, and the <sup>1</sup>frogs came up and covered the land of <sup>2</sup>Egypt.

7 And the sorcerers did likewise with their sorceries, and brought frogs up upon the land of Egypt.

8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, <sup>1</sup>Pray ye unto the Lord, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people, and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice unto the Lord.

9 And Moses said unto Pharaoh, <sup>1</sup>Concerning me, even<sup>2</sup> command when I shall pray for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, to destroy the frogs from thee and from thine houses, that they may remain in the river only.

10 Then he said, Tomorrow. And he answered, Be it <sup>1</sup>as thou hast said, that thou mayest know, that there is none like unto the Lord our God.

11 So the frogs shall depart from thee, and from thine houses, and from thy servants, and from thy people: only they shall remain in the river.

12 Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh: and Moses cried unto the Lord concerning the frogs, which he had <sup>1</sup>sent unto Pharaoh.

13 And the Lord did according to the saying of Moses: So the frogs <sup>1</sup>died in the houses, in the towns, and the fields.

14 And they gathered them together by heaps, and the land stank of them.

15 But when Pharaoh saw that he had rest given him, he <sup>1</sup>hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them, as the Lord had said.

16 ¶ Again the Lord said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the earth, that it may be turned to <sup>1</sup>lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

17 And they did so: for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth: and lice came upon man and upon beast: all the dust of the earth was lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 Now the enchanters assayed likewise with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they <sup>1</sup>could not. So the lice were upon man and upon beast.

19 Then said the enchanters unto Pharaoh, This is <sup>1</sup>the finger of God. But Pharaoh's heart remained obstinate, and he hearkened not unto them, as the Lord had said.

20 ¶ Moreover the Lord said to Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh (lo, he will come forth unto the water) and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send <sup>1</sup>swarms of flies both upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and the ground also whereon they are.

22 But the land of Goshen, where my people are, will I cause to be <sup>1</sup>wonderful in that day, so that no swarms of flies shall be there, that thou mayest know that I am the Lord in the midst of the <sup>2</sup>earth.

23 And I will make a deliverance of my people from thy people: tomorrow shall this miracle be.

24 And the Lord did so: for there came <sup>1</sup>great swarms of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, so that through all the land of 7:25 <sup>1</sup> Or seven days accomplished.

8:2 <sup>1</sup> There is nothing so weak, that God cannot cause to overcome the greatest power of man.

8:3 <sup>1</sup> Or, upon thy dough, or into thine ambries.

8:6 <sup>1</sup> The second plague.

8:8 <sup>1</sup> Not love, but fear causeth the very Infidels to seek unto God.

8:9 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, have this honor over me.

8:10 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, according to thy word.

8:12 <sup>1</sup> Or, laid upon.

8:13 <sup>1</sup> In things of this life God oft times heareth the prayers of the just for the ungodly.

8:15 <sup>1</sup> Or, made his heart heavy.

8:16 <sup>1</sup> The third plague.

8:18 <sup>1</sup> God confounded their wisdom and authority in a thing most vile.

8:19 <sup>1</sup> They acknowledged that this was done by God's power and not by sorcery, Luke 11:20.

8:21 <sup>1</sup> Or, a multitude of venomous beasts as serpents, etc.

8:22 <sup>1</sup> Or, I will separate.

Egypt, the earth was corrupt by the swarms of flies.

25 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Go, do sacrifice unto your God in this land.

26 And Moses answered, It is not meet to do so: for then we should offer unto the Lord our God that, which is an 'abomination unto the Egyptians. Lo, can we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and they not stone us?

27 Let us go three days' journey in the desert, and sacrifice unto the Lord our God, <sup>a</sup>as he hath commanded us.

28 And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice unto the Lord your God in the wilderness: but <sup>1</sup>go not far away, pray for me.

29 And Moses said, Behold, I will go out from thee, and pray unto the Lord, that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people tomorrow: but let Pharaoh from henceforth <sup>1</sup>deceive no more, in not suffering the people to sacrifice unto the Lord.

30 So Moses went out from Pharaoh and prayed unto the Lord.

31 And the Lord did according to the saying of Moses, and the swarms of flies departed from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, and there remained not one.

32 Yet Pharaoh <sup>1</sup>hardened his heart at this time also, and did not let the people go.

1 Then the Lord said unto Moses, Go to Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

2 But if thou refuse to let them go, and wilt yet hold them still,

3 Behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thy flock which is in the field: for upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the cattle, and upon the sheep shall be a <sup>1</sup>mighty great moraine.

4 And the Lord shall do <sup>1</sup>wonderfully between the beasts of Israel, and the beasts of Egypt: so that

<sup>a</sup> Exod. 3:18

there shall nothing die at all, that pertaineth to the children of Israel.

5 And the Lord appointed a time, saying, Tomorrow the Lord shall finish this thing in this land.

6 So the Lord did this thing on the morrow, and all the cattle of Egypt died: but of the cattle of the children of Israel died not one.

7 Then Pharaoh <sup>1</sup>sent, and behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Israelites dead: and the heart of Pharaoh was obstinate, and he did not let the people go.

8 ¶ And the Lord said to Moses and to Aaron, Take your handful of <sup>1</sup>ashes of the furnace, and Moses shall sprinkle them toward the heaven in the sight of Pharaoh,

9 And they shall be turned to dust in all the land of Egypt: and it shall be as a scab breaking out into blisters upon man, and upon beast throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 Then they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh: and Moses sprinkled them toward the heaven, and there came [a] <sup>1</sup>scab breaking out into blisters upon man, and upon beast.

11 And the sorcerers could not stand before Moses, because of the scab: for the scab was upon the enchanters and upon all the Egyptians.

12 And the Lord hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not unto them, <sup>a</sup>as the Lord had said unto Moses.

13 ¶ Also the Lord said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Hebrews, Let my people go that they may serve me.

14 For I will at this time send my plagues upon <sup>1</sup>thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, that thou mayest know that there is none like me in all the earth.

15 For now I will stretch out mine hand, that I may smite thee and thy people with the pestilence: and thou shalt perish from the earth.

16 And indeed, <sup>b</sup>for this cause have <sup>1</sup>I appointed thee, to <sup>2</sup>show my power in thee, and to declare my <sup>3</sup>name throughout all the world.

17 Yet thou exaltest thyself against my people, and lettest them not go.

18 Behold, tomorrow this time I will cause to rain

8:26 <sup>1</sup> For the Egyptians worshipped divers beasts, as the ox, the sheep and such like which the Israelites offered in sacrifice, which thing the Egyptians abhorred to see.

8:28 <sup>1</sup> So the wicked prescribe unto God's messengers how far they shall go.

8:29 <sup>1</sup> He could not judge his heart, but yet he charged him to do this unfeignedly.

8:32 <sup>1</sup> Where God giveth not faith, no miracles can prevail.

9:3 <sup>1</sup> The fifth plague.

9:4 <sup>1</sup> He shall declare his heavenly judgment against his enemies, and his favor toward his children.

9:7 <sup>1</sup> Into the land of Goshen, where the Israelites dwelled.

9:8 <sup>1</sup> Or, embers.

9:10 <sup>1</sup> The sixth plague.

9:14 <sup>1</sup> So that thine own conscience shall condemn thee of ingratitude and malice.

9:16 <sup>1</sup> Or, set thee up.

a mighty great hail, such as was not in Egypt since the foundation thereof was laid unto this time.

19 Send therefore now, and <sup>1</sup>gather the cattle, and all that thou hast in the field: for upon all the men, and the beasts, which are found in the field, and not brought home, the hail shall fall upon them, and they shall die.

20 Such then as feared the word of the Lord among the servants of Pharaoh, made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses.

22 ¶ And the Lord said to Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon all the herbs of the field in the land of Egypt.

23 Then Moses stretched out his rod toward heaven, and the Lord sent thunder and <sup>1</sup>hail, and <sup>2</sup>lightning upon the ground: and the Lord caused hail to rain upon the land of Egypt.

24 So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, so grievous, as there was none throughout all the land of Egypt, since <sup>1</sup>it was a nation.

25 And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast: also the hail smote all the trees of the field and brake to pieces all the trees of the field.

26 Only in the land of Goshen (where the children of Israel were) was no hail.

27 Then Pharaoh sent and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, I <sup>1</sup>have now sinned: the Lord is righteous, but I and my people are wicked.

28 Pray ye unto the Lord (for it is enough) that there be no more <sup>1</sup>mighty thunders, and hail, and I will let you go, and ye shall tarry no longer.

29 Then Moses said unto him, As soon as I am out of the city, I will spread mine hands unto the Lord, and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail, that thou mayest know that <sup>1</sup>the earth is the Lord's.

30 As for thee and thy servants, I know <sup>1</sup> afore I pray, ye will fear before the face of the Lord God.

31 (And the flax, and the barley were smitten: for the barley was eared, and the flax was balled.

<sup>c</sup> Ps. 24:1

32 But the wheat and the rye were not smitten, for they were <sup>1</sup>hid in the ground.)

33 Then Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread his hands to the Lord, and the thunder and the hail ceased, neither rained it upon the earth.

34 And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunder were ceased, he sinned again, and hardened his heart, both he, and his servants.

35 So the heart of Pharaoh was hardened: neither would he let the children of Israel go, as the Lord had said <sup>1</sup>by Moses.

1 Again the Lord said unto Moses, Go to Pharaoh, <sup>4</sup>for I have hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that I might work these <sup>1</sup>my miracles in the midst of his realm,

2 And that thou mayest declare in the <sup>1</sup>ears of thy son, and of thy son's son, what things I have done in Egypt, and my miracles, which I have done among them: that ye may know that I am the Lord.

3 Then came Moses and Aaron unto Pharaoh, and they said unto him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou refuse <sup>1</sup>to humble thyself before me? Let my people go, that they may serve me.

4 But if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, tomorrow will I bring <sup>1</sup>grasshoppers into thy coasts.

5 And they shall cover the face of the earth, that a man cannot see the earth: and they shall eat the residue which remaineth unto you, and hath escaped from the hail: and they shall eat all your trees that bud in the field.

6 And they shall fill thine houses, and all thy servants' houses, and the houses of all the Egyptians, as neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers' fathers have seen, since the time they were upon the earth unto this day. So he returned, and went out from Pharaoh.

7 Then Pharaoh's servants said unto him, How

9:19 <sup>1</sup> Here we see though God's wrath be kindled, yet there is a certain mercy showed even to his enemies.

9:21 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, set not his heart to.

9:24 <sup>1</sup> Or, since it was inhabited.

9:27 <sup>1</sup> The wicked confess their sins to their condemnation, but they cannot believe to obtain remission.

9:28 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, voice of God.

9:30 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, that when they have their request, they are never the better, though they make many fair promises, wherein we see the practices of the wicked.

9:32 <sup>1</sup> Or, late sown.

9:35 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, by the hand of Moses.

10:1 <sup>1</sup> Or, in his presence, or among them.

10:2 <sup>1</sup> The miracles should be so great, that they should be spoken of for ever: where also we see the duty of parents toward their children.

10:3 <sup>1</sup> The end of affliction is, to humble ourselves with true repentance under the hand of God.

10:4 <sup>1</sup> Or, locusts.

long shall he be <sup>1</sup>an <sup>2</sup>offence unto us? let the men go, that they may serve the Lord their God: wilt thou first know that Egypt is destroyed?

8 So Moses and Aaron were brought again unto Pharaoh, and he said unto them, Go, serve the Lord your God, but who are they that shall go?

9 And Moses answered, We will go with our young, and with our old, with our sons, and with our daughters, with our sheep, and with our cattle will we go: for we must celebrate a feast unto the Lord.

10 And he said unto them, Let <sup>1</sup>the Lord so be with you, as I will let you go and your children: <sup>2</sup>behold, for evil is before your face.

11 It shall not be so: now go ye that are men, and serve the Lord: for that was your desire. Then they were thrust out from Pharaoh's presence.

12 ¶ After, the Lord said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand upon the land of Egypt for the grasshoppers, that they may come upon the land of Egypt, and eat all the herbs of the land, even all that the hail had left.

13 Then Moses stretched forth his rod upon the land of Egypt: and the Lord brought an East wind upon the land all that day, and all that night: and in the morning the East wind brought the <sup>1</sup>grasshoppers.

14 So the grasshoppers went up upon all the land of Egypt, and <sup>1</sup>remained in all quarters of Egypt: so grievous Grasshoppers, like to these were never before, neither after them shall be such.

15 For they covered all the face of the earth, so that the land was dark: and they did eat all the herbs of the land, and all the fruits of the trees, which the hail had left, so that there was no green thing left upon the trees, nor among the herbs of the field throughout all the land of Egypt.

16 Therefore Pharaoh called for <sup>1</sup>Moses and Aaron in haste, and said, I have sinned against the Lord your God, and against you.

17 And now forgive me my sin only this once, and pray unto the Lord your God, that he may take away from me this death only.

18 Moses then went out from Pharaoh, and prayed unto the Lord.

19 And the Lord turned a mighty strong West wind, and took away the grasshoppers, and violently cast them into the <sup>1</sup>red Sea, so that there remained not one grasshopper in all the land of Egypt.

Exod. 3:35

20 But the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the children of Israel go.

21 ¶ Again the Lord said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be upon the land of Egypt darkness, even darkness that may be <sup>1</sup>felt.

22 Then Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven, and there was a <sup>1</sup>black darkness in all the land of Egypt three days.

23 No man saw another, neither rose up from the place where he was for three days: but all the children of Israel had light where they dwelt.

24 Then Pharaoh called for Moses, and said, Go serve the Lord: only your sheep and your cattle shall abide, and your children shall go with you.

25 And Moses said, Thou must give us also sacrifices, and burnt offerings that we may do sacrifice unto the Lord our God.

26 Therefore our cattle also shall go with us: there shall not an <sup>1</sup>hoof be left, for thereof must we take to serve the Lord our God: neither do we know <sup>2</sup>how we shall serve the Lord, until we come thither.

27 (But the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go.)

28 And Pharaoh said unto him, Get thee from me: look thou see my face no more: for whensoever thou comest in my sight, thou shalt <sup>1</sup>die.

29 Then Moses said, Thou hast said well: from henceforth will I see thy face no more.

11 <sup>1</sup> God promiseth their departure. <sup>2</sup> He willeth them to borrow their neighbors' jewels. <sup>3</sup> Moses was esteemed of all save Pharaoh.

1 Now the Lord had said unto Moses, yet will I bring one plague more upon Pharaoh, and upon Egypt, after that, he will let you go hence: when he letteth you go, he shall <sup>1</sup>at once chase you hence.

2 Speak thou now to the people, that every man <sup>1</sup>require of his neighbor, and every woman of her neighbor, <sup>2</sup>jewels of silver, and jewels of gold.

3 And the Lord gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians: also Moses was very great in the 10:7 <sup>1</sup> Or, snare.

10:10 <sup>1</sup> That is, I would the Lord were no more affectioned toward you, than I am minded to let you go.

10:13 <sup>1</sup> The eighth plague.

10:14 <sup>1</sup> Or, he caused them to remain.

10:16 <sup>1</sup> The wicked in their miseries seek to God's ministers for help, albeit they hate and detest them.

10:19 <sup>1</sup> The water seemed red, because the sand or gravel is red: the Hebrews called it the Sea of bulrushes.

10:21 <sup>1</sup> Because it was so thick.

10:28 <sup>1</sup> Though before he confessed Moses just, yet again his own conscience he threateneth to put him to death.

11:1 <sup>1</sup> Without any condition, but with haste and violence.

11:2 <sup>1</sup> Or, borrow.

land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people.

4 And Moses said, Thus saith the Lord, <sup>b</sup>About midnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt.

5 And all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sitteth on his throne, unto the firstborn of the maid servant, that is at <sup>1</sup>the mill, and all the firstborn of beasts.

6 Then there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as was never none like, nor shall be.

7 But against none of the children of Israel shall a dog move his tongue, neither against man nor beast, that ye may know that the Lord putteth a difference between the Egyptians and Israel.

8 And all these thy servants shall come down unto me, and fall before me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people that <sup>1</sup>are at thy feet, and after this will I depart. So he went out from Pharaoh very angry.

9 And the Lord said unto Moses, Pharaoh shall not hear you, <sup>1</sup>that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.

10 So Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh: but the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he suffered not the children of Israel to go out of his land.

1 Then the Lord spake to Moses and to Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,

2 This <sup>1</sup>month shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be to you the first <sup>2</sup>month of the year.

3 Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth of this month let every man take unto him a lamb, according to the house of the <sup>1</sup>fathers, a lamb for an house.

4 And if the household be too little for the lamb, he shall take his neighbor, which is next unto his house, according to the number of the persons: every one of you, according to his <sup>1</sup>eating shall make your count for the lamb.

5 Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of a year old: ye shall take it of the lambs, or of the kids.

6 And ye shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month: then <sup>1</sup>all the multitude of the congregation of Israel shall kill it <sup>2</sup>at even.

7 After, they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two posts, and on the upper doorpost of the houses where they shall eat it.

8 And they shall eat the flesh that same night, roast with fire, and unleavened bread: with sour herbs they shall eat it.

9 Eat not thereof raw, boiled nor sodden in water, but roast with fire, both his <sup>1</sup>head, his feet, and his purtenance.

10 And ye shall reserve nothing of it unto the morning: but that, which remaineth of it unto the morrow shall ye burn with fire.

11 ¶ And thus shall ye eat it, Your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staves in your hands, and ye shall eat it in haste: for <sup>1</sup>it is the Lord's Passover.

12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt the same night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast, and I will execute judgment upon all the <sup>1</sup>gods of Egypt, I am the Lord.

13 And the blood shall be a token for you upon the houses where ye are: so when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destruction, when I smite the land of Egypt.

14 And this day shall be unto you a <sup>1</sup>remembrance: and ye shall keep it an holy feast unto the Lord, throughout your generations: ye shall keep it holy by an ordinance <sup>2</sup>forever.

15 Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread, and in any case ye shall put away leaven the first day out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel.

16 And in the first day shall be an holy <sup>1</sup>assembly: also in the seventh day shall be an holy assembly unto you: no work shall be done in them, save about that which every man must eat: that only may ye do.

17 Ye shall keep also the feast of unleavened bread: for that same day I will bring your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore ye shall observe this day, throughout your posterity, by an ordinance forever.

11:5 <sup>1</sup> From the highest to the lowest.

11:8 <sup>1</sup> That is, under thy power and government.

11:9 <sup>1</sup> God hardeneth the hearts of the reprobate, that his glory thereby might be the more set forth, Rom. 9:17.

12:3 <sup>1</sup> As the fathers of the household had great or small families.

12:4 <sup>1</sup> He shall take so many as are sufficient to eat the lamb.

12:6 <sup>1</sup> Everyone his house.

12:9 <sup>1</sup> That is, all that may be eaten.

12:11 <sup>1</sup> The lamb was not the Passover, but signified it, as sacraments are not the thing itself, which they do represent, but signify it.

12:12 <sup>1</sup> Or, princes, or Idols.

12:14 <sup>1</sup> Of the benefit received for your deliverance.

12:16 <sup>1</sup> Or, calling together of the people to serve God.

18 ¶<sup>a</sup>In the first month and the fourteenth day of the month at <sup>1</sup>even, ye shall eat unleavened bread unto the one and twentieth day of the month at even.

19 Seven days shall no leaven be found in your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread, that person shall be cut off from the Congregation of Israel: whether he be a stranger, or born in the land.

20 Ye shall eat no leavened bread: but in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.

21 ¶ Then Moses called all the Elders of Israel, and said unto them, Choose out and take you for every of your households a lamb, and kill the Passover.

22 And take <sup>b</sup>a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the <sup>1</sup>lintel, and the <sup>2</sup>door cheeks with the blood that is in the basin, and let none of you go out at the door of the house, until the morning.

23 For the Lord will pass by to smite the Egyptians: and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel and on the two door cheeks, the Lord will pass over the door, and will not suffer the <sup>1</sup>destroyer to come into your houses to plague you.

24 Therefore shall ye observe this thing as an ordinance, both for thee and thy sons forever.

25 And when ye shall come into the <sup>1</sup>land, which the Lord will give you, as he hath promised, then ye shall keep this <sup>2</sup>service.

26 <sup>c</sup>And when your children ask you, What service is this ye keep?

27 Then ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the Lord's Passover, which passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and preserved our houses. Then the people <sup>1</sup>bowed themselves and worshipped.

28 So the children of Israel went, and did as the Lord had commanded Moses and Aaron: so did they.

29 ¶ Now at <sup>d</sup>midnight, the Lord <sup>1</sup>smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne, unto the firstborn of the captive that was in prison, and all the firstborn of beasts.

30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians: and there was a great cry in Egypt: for there was <sup>1</sup>no house where there was not one dead.

31 And he called to Moses and to Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, get you out from among my people, both ye, and the children of Israel, and go serve the Lord as ye have said.

32 Take also your sheep and your cattle as ye have said, and depart, and <sup>1</sup>bless me also.

33 And the Egyptians did force the people, because they would send them out of the land in haste: for they said, We die all.

34 Therefore the people took their dough before it was leavened, even their dough bound in clothes upon their shoulders.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the saying of Moses, and they asked of the Egyptians 'jewels of silver and jewels of gold, and raiment.

36 And the Lord gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians: and they <sup>1</sup>granted their request: so they spoiled the Egyptians.

38 And <sup>1</sup>a great multitude of sundry sorts of people went out with them, and sheep, and beeves, and cattle in great abundance.

39 And they baked the dough which they brought out of Egypt, and made unleavened cakes: for it was not leavened, because they were thrust out of Egypt, neither could they tarry, nor yet prepare themselves vittles.

40 ¶ So the dwelling of the children of Israel, while they dwelled in Egypt, was <sup>2</sup>four hundred and thirty years.

41 And when the <sup>1</sup>four hundred and thirty years were expired, even the selfsame day departed all the hosts of the Lord out of the land of Egypt.

42 It is a night to be kept holy to the Lord, because he brought them out of the land of Egypt: this is that night of the Lord, which all the children of Israel must keep throughout their generations.

43 Also the Lord said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the Law of the Passover: <sup>1</sup>no stranger shall eat thereof.

44 But every servant that is bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof.

45 A stranger or an hired servant shall not eat thereof.

46 <sup>1</sup>In one house shall it be eaten: thou shalt carry

47 All the Congregation of Israel shall observe it.

48 But if a stranger dwell with thee, and will observe the passover of the Lord, let him circumcise all the males, that belong unto him, and then let him come and observe it, and he shall be as one that is born in the land: for none uncircumcised person shall eat thereof.

49 One <sup>1</sup>law shall be to him that is born in the land, and to the stranger that dwelleth among you.

50 Then all the children of Israel did as the Lord commanded Moses and Aaron: so did they.

51 And the selfsame day did the Lord bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies.

13 The firstborn are offered to God. 3 The memorial of their deliverance. 6 The institution of the Passover. 8, 14 An exhortation to teach their children to remember this deliverance. 17 Why they are led by the wilderness. 19 The bones of Joseph. 21 The pillar of the cloud and of the fire.

6 Seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread, and the <sup>1</sup>seventh day shall be the feast of the Lord.

7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days, and there shall no leavened bread be seen with thee, nor yet leaven be seen with thee in all thy quarters.

10 Keep therefore this ordinance in his season appointed from year to year.

11 ¶ And when the Lord shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, as he sware unto thee and to thy fathers, and shall give it thee,

12 <sup>c</sup>Then shalt thou set apart unto the Lord all that first openeth the womb: also everything that first doth open the womb, and cometh forth of thy beast: the males shall be the Lord's.

13 But every <sup>1</sup>first foal of an <sup>2</sup>ass, thou shalt redeem with a lamb: and if thou redeem him not, then shalt thou break his neck: likewise also the firstborn of man among thy sons shalt thou <sup>3</sup>buy out.

14 ¶ And when thy son shall ask thee <sup>1</sup>tomorrow, saying, What is this? thou shalt then say unto him, With a mighty hand the Lord brought us out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

15 For when Pharaoh was hard hearted against our departing, the Lord then slew all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of man even to the firstborn of beast: therefore I sacrifice unto the Lord all the males that first open the womb, but all the firstborn of my sons I redeem.

16 And it shall be as a token upon thine hand, and as <sup>1</sup>frontlets between thine eyes, that the Lord brought us out of Egypt by a mighty hand.

17 ¶ Now when Pharaoh had let the people go, God carried them not by the way of the Philistines' country, <sup>1</sup>though it were nearer: (for God said, Lest the people repent when they <sup>2</sup>see war, and turn again to Egypt).

18 But God made the people to go about by the way of the wilderness of the red sea: and the children of Israel went up <sup>1</sup>armed out of the land of Egypt.

19 (And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him: for he had made the children of Israel swear, saying, <sup>d</sup>God will surely visit you, and ye shall take my bones away hence with you.)

4 And I will harden Pharaoh's heart that he shall follow after you: so I will <sup>1</sup>get me honor upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host: the Egyptians also shall know that I am the Lord: and they did so.

5 ¶ Then it was told the king of Egypt, that the people fled: and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned against the people, and they said, Why have we this done, and have let Israel go out of our service?

6 And he made ready his chariots, and took his people with him, marched after them, and they were sore <sup>1</sup>afraid: wherefore the children of Israel cried unto the Lord.

11 And they said unto Moses, Hast thou brought us to die in the wilderness, because there were no graves in Egypt? wherefore hast thou served us thus, to carry us out of Egypt?

12 Did not we tell thee this thing in Egypt, saying, Let <sup>1</sup>us be in rest, that we may serve the Egyptians? for it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

13 Then Moses said to the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and behold <sup>1</sup>the salvation of the Lord which he will show to you this day. For the Egyptians whom ye have seen this day, ye shall never see them again.

14 The Lord shall fight for you: therefore <sup>1</sup>hold you your peace.

15 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Wherefore <sup>1</sup>cryest thou unto me? speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward:

16 And lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thine hand upon the Sea and divide it, and let the children of Israel go on dry ground through the midst of the Sea.

17 And I, behold, I will harden the heart of the Egyptians, that they may follow them, and I will get me honor upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

18 Then the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I have gotten me honor upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

19 (And the Angel of God, which went before the host of Israel, removed, and went behind them: also the pillar of the cloud went from before them, and stood behind them,

20 And came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel: it was both a cloud and darkness, yet gave it <sup>1</sup>light by night, so that all the night long the one came not at the other.)

21 And Moses stretched forth his hand upon the Sea, and the Lord caused the Sea to run back by a strong East wind all the night, and made the Sea dry land: for the waters were <sup>1</sup>divided.

14:15 <sup>1</sup> Thus in tentations faith fighteth against the flesh, and crieth with inward groanings to the Lord.

14:20 <sup>1</sup> The cloud sheweth light to the Israelites, but to the Egyptians it was darkness, so that their two hosts could not join together.

23 And the Egyptians pursued and went after them to the midst of the Sea, even all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 Now, in the morning <sup>1</sup>watch, when the Lord looked unto the host of the Egyptians, out of the fiery and cloudy pillar, he struck the host of the Egyptians with fear.

25 For he took off their chariot wheels, and they drove them with <sup>1</sup>much ado: so that the Egyptians every one said, I will flee from the face of Israel: for the Lord fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

26 ¶ Then the Lord said to Moses, Stretch thine hand upon the Sea, that the waters may return upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots and upon their horsemen.

27 Then Moses stretched forth his hand upon the Sea, and the Sea returned to his force early in the morning, and the Egyptians fled against it: but the Lord <sup>1</sup>overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the Sea.

28 So the water returned and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, even all the host of Pharaoh that came into the Sea after them: there remained not one of them.

29 But the children of Israel walked upon dry land through the midst of the Sea, and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

30 Thus the Lord saved Israel the same day out of the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the Sea bank.

31 And Israel saw the mighty <sup>1</sup>power, which the Lord showed upon the Egyptians: so the people feared the Lord, and believed the Lord, and his <sup>2</sup>servant Moses.

22 Then Moses brought Israel from the red sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur: and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no waters.

23 And when they came to Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of the place was called Marah.

24 Then the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink?

derness of Sin, (which is between Elim and Sinai) the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt.

2 And the whole Congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses, and against Aaron in the wilderness.

3 For the children of Israel said to them, Oh that we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh pots, when we ate bread our bellies full: for ye have brought us out into this wilderness, to kill this whole company with famine.

4 ¶ Then said the Lord unto Moses, Behold, I will cause bread to rain from heaven to you, and the people shall go out, and gather that that is sufficient for every day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk in my law or no.

5 But the sixth day they shall prepare that, which they shall bring home, and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.

6 Then Moses and Aaron said unto all the children of Israel, At even ye shall know, that the Lord brought you out of the land of Egypt:

7 And in the morning ye shall see the glory of the Lord: for he hath heard your grudgings against the Lord: and what are we that ye have murmured against us?

8 Again, Moses said, At even shall the Lord give you flesh to eat, and in the morning your fill of bread: for the Lord hath heard your murmurings, which ye murmur against him: for what are we? your murmurings are not against us, but against the Lord.

9 ¶ And Moses said to Aaron, Say unto all the Congregation of the children of Israel, Draw near before the Lord: for he hath heard your murmurings.

10 Now as Aaron spake unto the whole Congregation of the children of Israel, they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the Lord appeared in a cloud.

13 And so at even the <sup>b</sup>quails came and covered the camp: and in the morning the dew lay round about the host.

14 <sup>c</sup>And when the dew that was fallen was ascended, behold, a small round thing was upon the face of the wilderness, small as the hoary frost upon the earth.

15 And when the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, It is <sup>1</sup>Manna, for they wist not what it was. And Moses said unto them, <sup>d</sup>This is the bread which the Lord hath given you to eat.

16 ¶ This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded: gather of it every man according to his eating, <sup>1</sup>an omer for <sup>2</sup>a man according to the number of your persons: every man shall take for them which are in his tent.

17 And the children of Israel did so, and gathered, some more, some less.

18 And when they did measure it with an omer, <sup>1</sup>he that had gathered much, had nothing over, and he that had gathered little, had no <sup>1</sup>lack: so every man gathered according to his eating.

19 Moses then said unto them, Let no man reserve thereof till morning.

20 Notwithstanding, they obeyed not Moses: but some of them reserved of it till morning, and it was full of worms, and <sup>1</sup>stank: therefore Moses was angry with them.

21 And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating: for when the heat of the sun came, it was melted.

22 ¶ And the sixth day they gathered <sup>1</sup>twice so much bread, two omers for one man: then all the rulers of the Congregation came and told Moses.

23 And he answered them, This is that which the Lord hath said, Tomorrow is the rest of the holy Sabbath unto the Lord: bake that today which ye will bake, and see the that which ye will see the, and all that remaineth, lay it up to be kept till the morning for you.

28 And the Lord said unto Moses, How long refuse ye to keep my commandments, and my laws?

29 Behold, how the Lord hath given you the Sabbath: therefore he giveth you the sixth day bread for two days: tarry therefore every man in his place: let no man go out of his place the seventh day.

30 So the people rested the seventh day.

31 And the house of Israel called the name of it Manna, and it was like <sup>1</sup>to coriander seed, but white: and the taste of it was like unto wafers made with honey.

32 And Moses said, This is that which the Lord had commanded, Fill an omer of it, to keep it for your posterity: that they may see the bread wherewith I have fed you in wilderness, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.

33 Moses also said to Aaron, Take a <sup>1</sup>pot and put an omer full of Manna therein, and set it before the Lord to be kept for your posterity.

34 As the Lord commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the <sup>1</sup>Testimony to be kept.

3 So the people thirsted there for water, and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore hast thou thus brought us out of Egypt, to kill us, and our children, and our cattle with thirst?

4 And Moses cried unto the Lord, saying, What shall I do to this people? for they be almost ready to <sup>1</sup>stone me.

5 And the Lord answered to Moses, Go before the people, and take with thee of the Elders of Israel: and thy rod wherewith thou <sup>b</sup>smotest the river, take in thine hand, and go:

6 Behold, I will stand there before thee upon the rock in Horeb, and thou shalt smite on the rock, and water shall come out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the Elders of Israel.

8 ¶ <sup>d</sup>Then came <sup>1</sup>Amalek and fought with Israel in Rephidim.

9 And Moses said to Joshua, Choose us out men, and go fight with Amalek: tomorrow I will stand on the top of the <sup>1</sup>hill with the rod of God in mine hand.

10 So Joshua did as Moses bade him, and fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur, went up to the top of the hill.

11 And when Moses held up his hand, Israel prevailed: but when he let his hand <sup>1</sup>down, Amalek prevailed.

12 Now Moses' hands were heavy: therefore they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat upon it: and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side: so his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

13 And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

2 Then Jethro the father-in-law of Moses, took Zipporah Moses' wife, (after he had <sup>1</sup>sent her away)

5 And Jethro Moses' father-in-law came with his two sons, and his wife unto Moses into the wilderness, where he camped by the <sup>1</sup>mount of God.

6 And he <sup>1</sup>said to Moses, I thy father-in-law Jethro am come to thee, and thy wife and her two sons with her.

7 ¶ And Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and did obeisance, and kissed him, and each asked other of his <sup>1</sup>welfare: and they came into the tent.

8 Then Moses told his father-in-law all that the Lord had done unto Pharaoh, and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and all the travail that had come unto them by the way, and how the Lord delivered them.

9 And Jethro rejoiced at all the goodness, which the Lord had showed to Israel, and because he had delivered them out of the hand of the Egyptians.

10 Therefore Jethro said, <sup>1</sup>Blessed be the Lord who hath delivered you out of the hand of the 12 Then Jethro Moses' father-in-law took burnt offerings and sacrifices, to offer unto God. And Aaron and all the Elders of Israel came to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law <sup>1</sup>before God.

13 ¶ Now on the morrow, when Moses sat to judge the people, the people stood about Moses from morning unto even.

14 And when Moses' father-in-law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What is this that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the people stand about thee from morning unto even?

15 And Moses said unto his father-in-law, Because the people come unto me to seek <sup>1</sup>God.

16 When they have a matter, they come unto me, and I judge between one and another, and declare the ordinances of God, and his laws.

17 But Moses' father-in-law said unto him, The thing which thou doest, is not well.

18 Thou both <sup>1</sup>weariest thyself greatly, and this people that is with thee: for the thing is too heavy for thee: <sup>4</sup>thou art not able to do it thyself alone.

24 So Moses <sup>1</sup>obeyed the voice of his father-in-law, and did all that he had said:

25 And Moses chose men of courage out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers over thousands, rulers over hundreds, rulers over fifties, and rulers over tens.

26 And they judged the people at all seasons, but they brought the hard causes to Moses: for they judged all small matters themselves.

27 Afterward Moses <sup>1</sup>let his father-in-law depart, and he went into his country.

1 In the <sup>1</sup>third month, after the children of Israel were gone out of the land of Egypt, the same <sup>2</sup>day came they into the wilderness of Sinai.

2 For they departed from Rephidim, and came to the desert of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness, even there Israel camped before the mount.

3 "But Moses went up unto God, for the Lord had called out of the mount unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of <sup>1</sup>Jacob, and tell the children of Israel.

4 <sup>b</sup>Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I carried you upon <sup>1</sup>eagle's wings, and have brought you unto me.

5 Now therefore 'if ye will hear my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be my chief treasure above all people, 'though all the earth be mine.

6 Ye shall be unto me also a kingdom of 'Priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

7 ¶ Moses then came and called for the Elders of the people, and proposed unto them all these things, which the Lord commanded him.

8 And the people answered all together, and said, <sup>f</sup>All that the Lord hath commanded, we will do. And Moses reported the words of the people unto the Lord.

thee in a thick cloud, that the people may hear while I talk with thee, and that they may also believe thee forever. (For Moses had told the words of the people unto the Lord.)

10 Moreover the Lord said unto Moses, Go to the people, and <sup>1</sup>sanctify them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their clothes.

11 And let them be ready on the third day: for the third day the Lord will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai:

12 And thou shalt set marks unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that ye go not up to the mount, nor touch the border of it, whosoever toucheth the <sup>5</sup>mount, shall surely die.

13 No hand shall touch it, but he shall be stoned to death, or stricken through with darts: whether it be beast or man, he shall not live: when the <sup>1</sup>horn bloweth long, they shall come up <sup>2</sup>into the mountain.

14 ¶ Then Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and sanctified the people, and they washed their clothes.

15 And he said unto the people, Be ready on the third day, and come not at your <sup>1</sup>wives.

16 And the third day, when it was morning, there was thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the sound of the trumpet exceeding loud, so that all the people that was in the camp was afraid.

17 Then Moses brought the people out of the tents to meet with God, and they stood in the nether part of the mount.

18 <sup>1</sup>And mount Sinai was all on smoke, because the Lord came down upon it in fire, and the smoke thereof ascended, as the smoke of a furnace, and all the mount <sup>1</sup>trembled exceedingly.

19 And when the sound of the trumpet blew long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and God answered him by <sup>1</sup>voice.

20 (For the Lord came down upon mount Sinai on the top of the mount) and when the Lord called Moses up into the top of the mount, Moses went up.

22 And let the <sup>1</sup>Priests also which come to the Lord be sanctified, lest the Lord <sup>2</sup>destroy them.

23 And Moses said unto the Lord, The people cannot come up into the mount Sinai: for thou hast charged us, saying, Set marks on the mountain, and sanctify it.

24 And the Lord said unto him, Go, get thee down, and come up thou, and Aaron with thee: but let not the <sup>1</sup>Priests and the people break their bounds to come up unto the Lord, lest he destroy them.

3 Thou shalt have none other gods <sup>1</sup>before me.

4 <sup>b</sup>Thou shalt make thee no graven image, neither any similitude of things that are in heaven above, neither that are in the earth beneath, nor that are in the waters under the earth.

5 Thou shalt not <sup>1</sup>bow down to them, neither serve them: for I am the Lord thy God, a <sup>2</sup>jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third generation and upon the fourth of them that hate me:

6 And showing mercy unto <sup>1</sup>thousands to them that love me, and keep my commandments.

7 <sup>c</sup>Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in <sup>1</sup>vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his Name in vain.

8 Remember the Sabbath day, <sup>1</sup>to keep it holy.

9 <sup>d</sup>Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work,

19:15 <sup>1</sup> But give yourselves to prayer and abstinence, that you may at this time attend only upon the Lord, 1 Cor. 7:5.

19:18 <sup>1</sup> God used these fearful signs, that his law should be had in greater reverence, and his majesty the more feared.

19:19 <sup>1</sup> He gave authority to Moses by plain words, that the people might understand him.

19:24 <sup>1</sup> Neither dignity nor multitude have authority to pass the bounds that God's word prescribeth.

20:1 <sup>1</sup> When Moses and Aaron were gone up, or had passed the bounds of the people, God spake thus out of the mount Horeb, that all the people heard.

20:2 <sup>1</sup> Or, servants.

20:5 <sup>1</sup> By this outward gesture, all kinds of service and worship to idols is forbidden.

20:6 <sup>1</sup> So ready is he rather to show mercy than to punish.

20:7 <sup>1</sup> Either by swearing falsely or rashly by his Name, or by contemning it.

20:8 <sup>1</sup> Which is by meditating the spiritual rest, by hearing God's word, and resting from worldly travails.

10 But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maid, nor thy beast, nor thy stranger that is within thy <sup>1</sup>gates.

11 For in six days the Lord made the heaven and the earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: therefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

12 ¶ Honor thy <sup>1</sup>father and thy mother, that thy days may be prolonged upon the land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

13 ¶ Thou shalt not <sup>1</sup>kill.

18 ¶ And all the people <sup>1</sup>saw the thunders: and the <sup>2</sup>lightnings, and the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking, and when the people saw it, they fled and stood afar off,

19 And said unto Moses, <sup>7</sup>Talk thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God talk with us, lest we die.

20 Then Moses said unto the people, Fear not: for God is come to <sup>1</sup>prove you, and that his fear may be before you, that ye sin not.

21 So the people stood afar off, but Moses drew near unto the darkness where God was.

22 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Thus thou shalt say unto the children of Israel, Ye have seen that I have talked with you from heaven.

23 Ye shall not make therefore with me gods of silver, nor gods of gold: you shall make you none.

24 <sup>1</sup>An altar of earth thou shalt make unto me, and thereon shalt offer thy burnt offerings, and thy <sup>k</sup>peace offerings, thy sheep, and thine oxen: in all places, where I shall put the remembrance of my Name, I will come unto thee, and bless thee.

10 If a man deliver unto his neighbor to keep ass, or ox, or sheep, or any beast, and it die, or be <sup>1</sup>hurt, or taken away by enemies, and no man see it,

11 <sup>1</sup>An oath of the Lord shall be between them twain, that he hath not put his hand unto his neighbor's good, and the owner of it shall take the oath, and he shall not make it good:

12 <sup>b</sup>But if it be stolen from him, he shall make restitution unto the owner thereof.

13 If it be torn in pieces, he shall bring <sup>1</sup>record, and shall not make that good, which is devoured.

14 ¶ And if a man borrow ought of his neighbor, and it be hurt, or else die, the owner thereof not being by, he shall surely make it good.

15 If the owner thereof be by, he shall not make it good: for if it be an hired thing, it <sup>1</sup>came for his hire.

16 ¶ And if a man entice a maid that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall endow her, and take her to his wife.

17 If her father refuse to give her to him, he shall pay money according to the dowry of virgins.

18 ¶ Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live.

27 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the Tabernacle: also five bars for the boards of the side of the Tabernacle toward the West side.

28 And the middle bar shall go through the midst of the boards, from end to end.

29 And thou shalt cover the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold, for places for the bars, and thou shalt cover the bars with gold.

30 So thou shalt rear up the Tabernacle, <sup>a</sup>according to the fashion thereof, which was showed thee in the Mount.

31 ¶ Moreover, thou shalt make a veil of blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, thou shalt make it of brodered work with Cherubims.

32 And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of Shittim wood covered with gold, (whose <sup>1</sup>hooks shall be of gold) standing upon four sockets of silver.

33 ¶ Afterward thou shalt hang the veil <sup>1</sup>on the hooks, that thou mayest bring in thither, that is, within the veil, the Ark of the Testimony: and the veil shall make you a separation between the Holy place and the <sup>2</sup>most holy place.

34 Also thou shalt put the Mercy seat upon the Ark of the Testimony in the most Holy place.

35 And thou shalt set the Table <sup>1</sup>without the veil, and the Candlestick over against the Table on the South side of the Tabernacle, and thou shalt set the Table on the North side.

36 Also thou shalt make an <sup>1</sup>hanging for the door of the Tabernacle of blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen wrought with needle.

37 And thou shalt make for the hanging five pillars of Shittim, and cover them with gold: their heads shall be of gold, and thou shalt cast five sockets of brass for them.

1 Moreover thou shalt make the <sup>1</sup>Altar of Shittim wood, five cubits long and five cubits broad (the altar shall be four square) and the height thereof three cubits.

2 And thou shalt make it horns in the four corners thereof: the horns shall be of <sup>1</sup>itself, and thou shalt cover it with brass.

3 Also thou shalt make his ash pans for his ashes, and his besoms, and his basins, and his flesh-hooks, and his <sup>1</sup>censers: thou shalt make all the instruments thereof of brass.

4 And thou shalt make unto it a grate, like network of brass: also upon that <sup>1</sup>grate shalt thou make four brazen rings upon the four corners thereof.

5 And thou shalt put it under the compass of the altar beneath, that the grate may be in the midst of the altar.

6 Also thou shalt make bars for the altar, bars, I say, of Shittim wood, and shalt cover them with brass.

7 And the bars thereof shall be put in the rings, the which bars shall be upon the two sides of the altar to bear it.

8 Thou shalt make the altar hollow between the boards: as God showeth thee in the mount, so shall they make it.

9 ¶ Also thou shalt make the <sup>1</sup>court of the Tabernacle in the South side, even full South: the court shall have curtains of fine twined linen, of an hundred cubits long, for one side,

10 And it shall have twenty pillars, with their twenty sockets of brass: the heads of the pillars, and their <sup>1</sup>fillets shall be silver.

11 Likewise on the North side in length there shall be hangings of an hundred cubits long, and the twenty pillars thereof with their twenty sockets of brass: the heads of the pillars and the fillets shall be silver.

12 ¶ And the breadth of the court, on the West side shall have curtains of fifty cubits, with their ten pillars, and their ten sockets.

13 And the breadth of the court, Eastward full East, shall have <sup>1</sup>fifty cubits.

14 Also hangings of fifteen cubits shall be on the one <sup>1</sup>side with their three pillars and their three sockets.

15 Likewise on the other side shall be hangings of fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three sockets.

16 ¶ And in the gate of the court shall be a veil of twenty cubits of blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen wrought with needle, with the 26:32 <sup>1</sup> Some read, heads of the pillars.

26:35 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, in the holy place.

26:36 <sup>1</sup> This hanging or veil was between the holy place, and there where the people were.

27:1 <sup>1</sup> For the burnt offering.

27:2 <sup>1</sup> Of the same wood and matter not fastened unto it.

27:9 <sup>1</sup> This was the first entry into the Tabernacle, where the people abode.

27:10 <sup>1</sup> They were certain hoops or circles for to beautify the pillar.

27:13 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, curtains of fifty cubits.

27:14 <sup>1</sup> Of the door of the court.

four pillars thereof and their four sockets.

17 All the pillars of the court shall have fillets of silver round about, with their heads of silver, and their sockets of brass.

18 ¶ The length of the court shall be an hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty <sup>1</sup>at either end, and the height five cubits, and the hangings of fine twined linen, and their sockets of brass.

19 All the vessels of the Tabernacle for all manner service thereof, and all the <sup>1</sup>pins thereof, and all the pins of the court shall be brass.

20 ¶ And thou shalt command the children of Israel, that they bring unto thee pure oil olive <sup>1</sup>beaten for the light, that the lamps may always <sup>2</sup>burn.

21 In the Tabernacle of the Congregation without the veil, which is before the Testimony, shall Aaron and his sons dress them from evening to morning before the Lord, for a statute forever unto their generations, to be observed by the children of Israel.

1 And cause thou thy brother Aaron to come unto thee, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may serve me in the Priest's office: I mean, Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar Aaron's sons.

2 Also thou shalt make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, <sup>1</sup>glorious and beautiful.

3 Therefore thou shalt speak unto all <sup>1</sup>cunning men, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they make Aaron's garments to <sup>2</sup>consecrate him, that he may serve me in the Priest's office.

4 Now these shall be the garments, which they shall make, a breastplate, and an <sup>1</sup>Ephod, and a robe, and a broidered coat, a mitre, and a girdle: so these holy garments shall they make for Aaron thy brother, and for his sons, that he may serve me in the Priest's office.

5 Therefore they shall take gold, and blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen.

6 ¶ And they shall make the Ephod of gold, blue silk, and purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen of broidered work.

7 The two shoulders thereof shall be joined together by their two edges: so shall it be closed.

8 And the <sup>1</sup>embroidered girdle of the same Ephod, which shall be upon him, shall be of the selfsame work and stuff, even of gold, blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 And thou shalt take two Onyx stones, and grave upon them the names of the children of Israel.

10 Six names of them upon the one stone, and the six names that remain, upon the second stone, according to <sup>1</sup>their generations.

11 Thou shalt cause to grave the two stones according to the names of the children of Israel, by a graver of signets that worketh and graveth in stone, and shalt make them to be set and embossed in gold.

12 And thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulders of the Ephod, as stones of <sup>1</sup>remembrance of the children of Israel: for Aaron shall bear their names before the Lord upon his two shoulders for a remembrance.

13 So thou shalt make bosses of gold,

14 ¶ And two chains of fine gold <sup>1</sup>at the end, of wreathen work shalt thou make them, and shalt fasten the wreathen chains upon the bosses.

15 ¶ Also thou shalt make the breastplate of <sup>1</sup>judgment with broidered work: like the work of the Ephod shalt thou make it: of gold, blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen shalt thou make it.

16 <sup>1</sup>Foursquare it shall be and double, an hand breadth long and an hand breadth broad.

19 And in the third row a turquoise, an agate, and an Hematite.

20 And in the fourth row <sup>1</sup>a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper: and they shall be set in gold in their embossments.

27:18 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, fifty in fifty.

27:19 <sup>1</sup> Or, stakes, wherewith the curtains were fastened to the ground.

27:20 <sup>1</sup> Such as cometh from the olive, when it is first pressed or beaten.

28:2 <sup>1</sup> Whereby his office may be known to be glorious and excellent.

28:3 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, wise in heart.

28:4 <sup>1</sup> A short and straight coat without sleeves, put upmost upon his garments to keep them close unto him.

28:8 <sup>1</sup> Which went about his upmost coat.

28:10 <sup>1</sup> As they were in age, so should they be graven in order.

28:12 <sup>1</sup> That Aaron might remember the Israelites to Godward.

28:14 <sup>1</sup> Of the bosses.

28:15 <sup>1</sup> It was so called, because the high Priest could not give sentence in judgment without that on his breast.

28:16 <sup>1</sup> The description of the breastplate.

21 And the stones shall be according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, graven as signets, every one after his name, and they shall be for the twelve tribes.

22 ¶ Then thou shalt make upon the breastplate two chains at the ends, of wreathen work of pure gold.

23 Thou shalt make also upon the breastplate two rings of gold, and put the two rings on <sup>1</sup>the two ends of the breastplate.

24 And thou shalt put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings in the ends of the breastplate.

25 And the other two ends of the two wreathen chains, thou shalt fasten in the two embossments, and shalt put them upon the shoulders of the Ephod upon the foreside of it.

26 ¶ Also thou shalt make two rings of gold, which thou shalt put in the <sup>1</sup>two other ends of the breastplate, upon the border thereof, toward the inside of the Ephod.

27 And two other rings of gold thou shalt make, and put them on the two sides of the Ephod, beneath in the forefront of it over against the coupling of it upon the broidered girdle of the Ephod.

28 Thus shall they bind the breastplate by his rings unto the rings of the Ephod, with a lace of blue silk, that it may be fast upon the broidered girdle of the Ephod, and that the breastplate be not loosed from the Ephod.

29 So Aaron shall <sup>1</sup>bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment upon his heart, when he goeth into the holy place for a remembrance continually before the Lord.

30 ¶ Also thou shalt put in the breastplate of judgment, the <sup>1</sup>Urim and the Thummim, which shall be upon Aaron's heart, when he goeth in before the Lord, and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel upon his heart before the Lord continually.

31 ¶ And thou shalt make the robe of the Ephod altogether of blue silk.

32 And the hole for his head shall be in the midst of it, having an edge of woven work round about the collar of it: so shall it be as the collar of an habergeon, that it rent not.

33 ¶ And beneath upon the skirts thereof, thou shalt make pomegranates of blue silk, and purple, and scarlet round about the skirts thereof, and bells of gold between them round about:

34 That is, a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate round about upon the skirts of the robe.

35 So shall it be upon Aaron, when he ministereth, and his sound shall be heard when he goeth into the holy place before the Lord, and when he cometh out, and he shall not die.

36 ¶ Also thou shalt make a plate of pure gold, and grave thereon, as signets are graven, <sup>1</sup>HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

37 And thou shalt put it on a blue silk lace, and it shall be upon the mitre, even upon the forefront of the mitre shall it be.

38 So shall it be upon Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may <sup>1</sup>bear the iniquity of the offerings, which the children of Israel shall offer in all their holy offerings: and it shall be always upon his forehead, to make them acceptable before the Lord.

39 Likewise thou shalt embroider the fine linen coat, and thou shalt make a mitre of fine linen, but thou shalt make a girdle of needle work.

40 Also thou shalt make for Aaron's sons coats, and thou shalt make them girdles, and bonnets shalt thou make them for glory and comeliness.

41 And thou shalt put them upon Aaron thy brother, and on his sons with him, and shalt anoint them, and <sup>1</sup>fill their hands, and sanctify them, that they may minister unto me in the Priest's office.

42 Thou shalt also make them linen breeches to cover their privities: from the loins unto the thighs shall they reach.

43 And they shall be for Aaron and his sons, when they come into the Tabernacle <sup>1</sup>of the Congregation, or when they come unto the altar to minister in the holy place, that they <sup>2</sup>commit not iniquity, and so die. This shall be a law forever unto him, and to his seed after him.

29 <sup>1</sup> The manner of consecrating the Priests. 38 The continual sacrifice. 45 The Lord promiseth to dwell among the children of Israel.

1 This thing also shalt thou do unto them, when thou consecrest them to be my Priests, <sup>a</sup>Take a young calf, and two rams without blemish, 28:23 <sup>1</sup> Which are upmost toward the shoulder.

28:26 <sup>1</sup> Which are beneath.

28:29 <sup>1</sup> Aaron shall not enter into the holy place in his own name, but in the name of all the children of Israel.

28:30 <sup>1</sup> Urim signifieth light, and Thummim perfection: declaring that the stones of the breastplate were most clear, and of perfect beauty: by Urim also is meant knowledge, and Thummim holiness, showing what virtues are required in the Priests.

28:36 <sup>1</sup> Holiness appertaineth to the Lord: for he is most holy, and nothing unholy may appear before him.

28:38 <sup>1</sup> Their offerings could not be so perfect, but some fault would be therein: which sin the high Priest bare, and pacified God.

28:41 <sup>1</sup> That is, consecrate them, by giving them things to offer and thereby admit them to their office.

2 And unleavened bread, and cakes unleavened tempered with oil, and wafers unleavened anointed with oil: (of fine wheat flour shalt thou make them).

3 Then thou shalt put them in one basket, and <sup>1</sup>present them in the basket with the calf and the two rams,

4 And shalt bring Aaron and his sons unto the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and wash them with water.

5 Also thou shalt take the garments, and put upon Aaron the tunic, and the <sup>1</sup>robe of the Ephod, and the Ephod, and the breastplate, and shalt close them to him with the broided girdle of the Ephod.

6 Then thou shalt put the mitre upon his head, and shalt put the holy <sup>b</sup>crown upon the mitre.

7 And thou shalt take the anointing <sup>c</sup>oil, and shalt pour upon his head and anoint him.

8 And thou shalt bring his sons, and put coats upon them.

9 And shalt gird them with girdles, both Aaron and his sons: and shalt put the bonnets on them, and the Priest's office shall be theirs for a perpetual law: thou <sup>d</sup>shalt also <sup>1</sup>fill the hands of Aaron, and the hands of his sons.

10 After, thou shalt present the calf before the Tabernacle of the congregation, <sup>e</sup>and Aaron and his sons shall <sup>1</sup>put their hands upon the head of the calf.

11 So shalt thou kill the calf before the Lord, at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

12 Then thou shalt take of the blood of the calf, and put it upon the horns of the Altar with thy finger, and shalt pour all the rest of the blood at the foot of the Altar.

13 <sup>f</sup>Also thou shalt take all the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul, that is on the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and shalt burn them upon the Altar.

14 But the flesh of the calf, and his skin, and his dung shalt thou burn with fire without the host: it is a <sup>1</sup>sin offering.

15 ¶ Thou shalt also take one ram, and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

16 Then thou shalt kill the ram, and take his blood, and sprinkle it round about upon the Altar,

17 And thou shalt cut the ram in pieces, and wash the inwards of him and his legs, and shalt put them

upon the pieces thereof, and upon his head.

18 So thou shalt burn the whole ram upon the Altar: for it is a burnt offering unto the Lord <sup>1</sup>for a sweet savor: it is an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

19 And shalt thou take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

20 Then shalt thou kill the ram, and take of his blood, and put it <sup>1</sup>upon the lap of Aaron's ear, and upon the lap of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and shalt sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

21 And thou shalt take of the blood that is <sup>1</sup>upon the Altar, and of the anointing oil, and shalt sprinkle it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him: so he shall be hallowed, and his clothes, and his sons, and the garments of his sons with him.

22 Also thou shalt take of the rams the fat and the rump, even the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul of the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder, (for it is the <sup>1</sup>ram of consecration).

23 And one loaf of bread, and one cake of bread tempered with oil, and one wafer, out of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the Lord:

24 And thou shalt put all this in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons, and shalt shake them to and fro before the Lord.

25 Again, thou shalt receive them of their hands, and burn them upon the altar besides the burnt offering for a sweet savor before the Lord: for this is an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

26 Likewise thou shalt take the breast of the ram of the consecration, which is for Aaron, and shalt shake it to <sup>1</sup>and fro before the Lord, and it shall be thy part.

27 And thou shalt sanctify the breast of the shaken offering, and the shoulder of the <sup>1</sup>heave offering, which was shaken to and fro, and which was heaved up of the ram of the consecration which was for Aaron, and which was for his sons.

28 And Aaron and his sons shall have it by a statute forever, of the children of Israel: for it is an heave offering, and it shall be an heave offering of the children of Israel, of their <sup>1</sup>peace offerings, even their heave offering to the Lord.

29:3 <sup>1</sup> To offer them in sacrifice.

29:5 <sup>1</sup> Which was next under the Ephod.

29:9 <sup>1</sup> Or, consecrate them.

29:10 <sup>1</sup> Signifying that the sacrifice was also offered for them, and that they did approve it.

29:14 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, sin, 2 Cor. 5:21.

29:18 <sup>1</sup> Or, savor of rest, which causeth the wrath of God to cease.

29:20 <sup>1</sup> Meaning the soft and nether part of the ear.

29:21 <sup>1</sup> Wherewith the Altar must be sprinkled.

29:22 <sup>1</sup> Which is offered for the consecration of the high Priest.

29:26 <sup>1</sup> This sacrifice the Priest did move toward the East, West, North, and South.

29:27 <sup>1</sup> So called because it was not only shaken to and fro, but also lifted up.

29:28 <sup>1</sup> Which were offerings of thanksgiving to God for his benefits.

29 ¶ And the holy garments which appertain to Aaron, shall be his sons' after him, to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated therein.

30 That son that shall be Priest in his stead, shall put them on seven days, when he cometh into the Tabernacle of the Congregation to minister in the holy place.

31 ¶ So thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and seethe his flesh in the holy place.

32 <sup>8</sup>And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

33 So they shall eat these things, <sup>1</sup>whereby their atonement was made, to consecrate them, and to sanctify them: but a stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy things.

34 Now if ought of the flesh of the consecration, or of the bread remain unto the morning, then thou shalt burn the rest with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is an holy thing.

35 Therefore shalt thou do thus unto Aaron and unto his sons, according to all things which I have commanded thee: seven days shalt thou <sup>1</sup>consecrate them.

36 And shalt offer every day a calf for a sin offering, for <sup>1</sup>reconciliation: and thou shalt cleanse the Altar, when thou hast offered upon it for reconciliation, and shalt anoint it to sanctify it.

37 Seven days shalt thou cleanse the Altar and sanctify it, so the Altar shall be most holy: and whatsoever toucheth the Altar, shall be holy.

38 ¶ <sup>h</sup>Now this is that which thou shalt present upon the altar: even two lambs of one year old, day by day continually.

39 The one lamb thou shalt present in the morning, and the other lamb thou shalt present at even.

40 And with the one lamb, a <sup>1</sup>tenth part of fine flour mingled with the fourth part of an <sup>2</sup>Hin of beaten oil, and the fourth part of an Hin of wine for a drink offering.

41 And the other lamb thou shalt present at even: thou shalt do thereto according to the offering of the morning, and according to the drink offering thereof, to be a burnt offering for a sweet savor unto the Lord.

42 This shall be a continually burnt offering in your generations at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lord, where I will 43 There I will appoint with the children of Israel, and the place shall be sanctified by my <sup>1</sup>glory.

44 And I will sanctify the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the Altar: I will sanctify also Aaron and his sons to be my Priests, 45 And I will <sup>i</sup>dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God.

46 Then shall they know that I am the Lord their God, that brought them out of the land of Egypt, that I might dwell among them: <sup>1</sup>I am the Lord their God.

30 The Altar of incense. 13 The sum that the Israelites should pay to the Tabernacle. 28 The brazen laver. 33 The anointing oil. 34 The making of the perfume.

1 Furthermore thou shalt make an Altar <sup>1</sup>for sweet perfume, of Shittim wood thou shalt make it.

2 The length thereof a cubit, and the breadth thereof a cubit, (it shall be foursquare) and the height thereof two cubits: the horns thereof shall be <sup>1</sup>of the same.

3 And thou shalt overlay it with fine gold, both the top thereof, and the sides thereof round about, and his horns: also thou shalt make unto it <sup>1</sup>a crown of gold round about.

4 Besides this thou shalt make under this crown two golden rings on either side: even on every side shalt thou make them, that they may be as places for the bars to bear it withal.

5 The which bars thou shalt make of Shittim wood, and shalt cover them with gold.

6 After thou shalt set it <sup>1</sup>before the veil, that is near the Ark of the Testimony, before the Mercy seat that is upon the Testimony, where I will appoint with thee.

7 And Aaron shall burn thereon sweet incense every morning: when he <sup>1</sup>dresseth the lamps thereof, shall he burn it.

8 Likewise at even, when Aaron setteth up the lamps thereof, he shall burn incense: this perfume shall be perpetually before the Lord, throughout your generations.

9 Ye shall offer no <sup>1</sup>strange incense thereon, nor burnt sacrifice, nor offering, neither pour any drink

29:33 <sup>1</sup> That is, by the sacrifices.

29:35 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, fill their hands.

29:46 <sup>1</sup> It is I the Lord, that am their God.

30:1 <sup>1</sup> Upon the which the sweet perfume was burnt, verse 34.

30:2 <sup>1</sup> Of the same wood and matter.

30:3 <sup>1</sup> Or, a circle and border.

30:6 <sup>1</sup> That is, in the Sanctuary, and not in the holiest of all.

30:7 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, when he trimmeth them, and refresheth the oil.

10 And Aaron shall make reconciliation upon the horns of it once in a year with the blood of the sin offering in the day of reconciliation: once in the year shall he make reconciliation upon it throughout your generations: this is most holy unto the Lord.

11 ¶ Afterward the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

12 <sup>a</sup>When thou takest the sum of the children of Israel after their number, then they shall give every man <sup>1a</sup>a redemption of his life unto the Lord, when thou tellest them, that there be no plague among them when thou countest them.

13 This shall every man give, that goeth into the number, half a shekel, after the <sup>1</sup>shekel of the Sanctuary: (<sup>b</sup>a shekel is twenty gerahs) the half shekel shall be an offering to the Lord.

14 All that are numbered from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering to the Lord.

15 The rich shall not pass, and the poor shall not diminish from half a shekel, when ye shall give an offering unto the Lord, <sup>1</sup>for the redemption of your lives.

16 So thou shalt take the money of the redemption of the children of Israel, and shalt put it unto the use of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, that it may be a memorial unto the children of Israel before the Lord, for the redemption of your lives.

17 ¶ Also the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

18 Thou shalt also make a Laver of brass, and his foot of brass to wash, and shalt put it between the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the Altar, and shalt put water therein.

19 For Aaron and his sons shall <sup>1</sup>wash their hands, and their feet thereat.

20 When they go into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, or when they go unto the Altar to minister, and to make the perfume of the burnt offering to the Lord, they shall wash themselves with water, lest they die.

21 So they shall wash their hands and their feet that they die not: and this shall be to them an ordinance <sup>1</sup>forever, both unto him and to his seed throughout their generations.

22 ¶ Also the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Take thou also unto thee principal spices: of the most pure myrrh five hundred <sup>1</sup>shekels, of sweet cinnamon half so much, that is, two hundred and fifty,

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
 2 Behold, I <sup>1</sup>have called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah,
 3 Whom I have filled with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all <sup>1</sup>workmanship:
 4 To find out curious works to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,
 5 Also in the art to set stones, and to carve in timber, and to work in all manner of workmanship.
 6 And behold, I have joined him with Aholiab the son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan, and in the hearts of all that are <sup>1</sup>wise hearted, have I put wisdom to make all that I have commanded thee:
 7 That is, the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the Ark of the Testimony, and the Mercy seat that shall be thereupon, with all instruments of the Tabernacle:
 8 Also the Table and the instruments thereof, and the <sup>1</sup>pure Candlestick with all his instruments, and the Altar of perfume:
 9 Likewise the Altar of burnt offering with all his instruments, and the Laver with his foot:
 10 Also the garments of the ministration, and the holy garment for Aaron the Priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the Priest's office,
 11 And the <sup>1</sup>anointing oil, and sweet perfume for the Sanctuary according to all that I have commanded thee, shall they do.
 12 ¶ Afterward the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
 13 Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, and say, <sup>1</sup>Notwithstanding keep ye my Sabbaths: for it is a sign between me and you in your generations, that ye may know that I the Lord do sanctify you.
 14 <sup>a</sup>Ye shall therefore keep the <sup>1</sup>Sabbath: for it is holy unto you: he that defileth it, shall die the death: therefore whosoever worketh therein, the same person shall be even cut off from among his people.
 15 Six days shall men work, but in the seventh day is the Sabbath of the holy rest to the Lord:

whosoever doeth any work in the Sabbath day, shall die the death.

16 Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, that they may observe the <sup>1</sup>rest throughout their generations for an everlasting Covenant.

17 It is a sign between me and the children of Israel forever: <sup>b</sup>for in six days the Lord made the heaven and the earth, and in the seventh day <sup>1</sup>he ceased and rested.

18 Thus (when the Lord had made an end of communing with Moses upon mount Sinai) <sup>1</sup>he gave him two Tables <sup>1</sup>of the Testimony, even tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

1 But when the people saw, that Moses tarried long ere he came down from the mountain, the people gathered themselves together against Aaron, and said unto him, Up, <sup>1</sup>make us gods to go before us: for of this Moses (the man that brought us out of the land of Egypt) we know not what is become of him.

2 And Aaron said unto them, <sup>1</sup>Pluck off the golden earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me.

3 Then all the people plucked from <sup>1</sup>themselves the golden earrings, which were in their ears, and they brought them unto Aaron.

4 <sup>a</sup>Who received them at their hands, and fashioned it with the graving tool, and made of it a <sup>1</sup>molten calf: then they said, <sup>b</sup>These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt.

5 When Aaron saw that, he made an Altar before it: and Aaron proclaimed, saying, Tomorrow shall be the holy day of the Lord.

6 So they rose up the next day in the morning, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings: also <sup>1</sup>the people sat them down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

7 ¶ Then the Lord said unto Moses, <sup>d</sup>Go get thee down: for thy people which thou hast brought out

31:2 <sup>1</sup> I have chosen and made meet, Exod. 35:30.
 31:3 <sup>1</sup> This showeth that handicrafts are the gifts of God's spirit, and therefore ought to be esteemed.
 31:6 <sup>1</sup> I have instructed them, and increased their knowledge.
 31:8 <sup>1</sup> So called, because of the cunning and art used therein, or because the whole was beaten out of the piece.
 31:11 <sup>1</sup> Which only was to anoint the Priests and the instruments of the tabernacle, and not to burn.
 31:13 <sup>1</sup> Though I command these works to be done, yet will I not that you break my Sabbath days.
 31:14 <sup>1</sup> God repeateth this point because the whole keeping of the law standeth in the true use of the Sabbath, which is to cease from our works, and to obey the will of God.

31:16 <sup>1</sup> Or, Sabbath.
 31:17 <sup>1</sup> From creating his creatures, but not from governing and preserving them.
 31:18 <sup>1</sup> Whereby he declared his will to his people.
 32:1 <sup>1</sup> The root of Idolatry is, when men think that God is not at hand, except they see him carnally.
 32:2 <sup>1</sup> Thinking that they would rather forego idolatry, than to resign their most precious jewels.
 32:3 <sup>1</sup> Such is the rage of idolaters, that they spare no cost to satisfy their wicked desires.
 32:4 <sup>1</sup> They smelled of their leaven of Egypt, where they saw calves, oxen and serpents worshipped.

of the land of Egypt, hath corrupted their ways.

8 They <sup>1</sup>are soon turned out of the way, which I commanded them: for they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have offered thereto, saying, "These be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt.

9 Again the Lord said unto Moses, <sup>1</sup>I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiff-necked people.

10 Now <sup>1</sup>therefore let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, for I will consume them: but I will make of thee a mighty people

11 <sup>2</sup>But Moses prayed unto the Lord his God, and said, O Lord, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought out of the land of Egypt, with great power and with a mighty hand?

12 <sup>3</sup>Wherefore shall the Egyptians <sup>1</sup>speak, and say, He hath brought them out maliciously for to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the earth? turn from thy fierce wrath, and <sup>2</sup>change thy mind from this evil toward thy people.

13 Remember <sup>1</sup>Abraham, Isaac, and Israel thy servants, to whom thou swarest by thine own self, and saidest unto them, <sup>1</sup>I will multiply your seed, as the stars of heaven, and all this land, that I have spoken of, will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it forever.

14 Then the Lord changed his mind from the evil, which he threatened to do unto his people.

15 So Moses returned and went down from the mountain with the two Tables of the Testimony in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides, even on the one side and on the other were they written.

16 And these Tables were the work of God, and <sup>1</sup>this writing was the writing of God graven in the Tables.

17 And when Joshua heard the noise of the people, as they shouted, he said unto Moses, There is a noise of war in the host.

18 Who answered, It is not the noise of them that have the victory, nor the noise of them that are overcome: but I do hear the noise of singing.

19 Now, as soon as he came near unto the host, he saw the calf and the dancing: so Moses' wrath waxed hot, and he cast the Tables out of his hands, and brake them in pieces beneath the mountain.

20 <sup>1</sup>After, he took the calf, which they had made, and burned it in the fire, and ground it unto powder, and strowed it upon the water, and made the children of Israel <sup>1</sup>drink of it.

21 Also Moses said unto Aaron, What did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sin upon them?

22 Then Aaron answered, Let not the wrath of my Lord wax fierce: Thou knowest this people, that they are even set on mischief.

23 And they said unto me, Make us gods to go before us: for we know not what is become of this Moses (the man that brought us out of the land of Egypt).

24 Then I said to them, Ye that have gold, pluck it off: and they brought it me, and I did cast it into the fire, and thereof came this calf.

25 Moses therefore saw that the people were <sup>1</sup>naked (for Aaron had made them naked unto their shame among their enemies)

26 And Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who pertaineth to the Lord? let them come to me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves unto him.

27 Then he said unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel: Put every man his sword by his side, go to and fro, from gate to gate, through the host, and <sup>1</sup>slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbor.

28 So the children of Levi did as Moses had commanded: and there fell of the people the same day about three thousand men.

29 (For Moses had said, Consecrate your hands unto the Lord this day, even every man upon his <sup>1</sup>son, and upon his brother, that there may be given you a blessing this day.)

30 And when the morning came, Moses said unto the people, Ye have committed a grievous crime: but now I will go up to the Lord, if I may pacify him for your sin.

31 Moses therefore went again unto the Lord, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold.

32 Therefore now if thou pardon their sin, thy mercy shall appear: but if thou wilt not, I pray thee, raise me <sup>1</sup>out of thy book, which thou hast written.

33 Then the Lord said to Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, I will put him out of my <sup>1</sup>book.

32:8 <sup>1</sup> Whereby we see what necessity we have to pray earnestly to God, to keep us in his true obedience, and to send us good guides.

32:10 <sup>1</sup> God showeth that the prayers of the godly stay his punishment.

32:13 <sup>1</sup> That is, thy promise made to Abraham.

32:16 <sup>1</sup> All these repetitions show how excellent a thing they defrauded themselves of by their idolatry.

32:20 <sup>1</sup> Partly to despite them of their idolatry, and partly that they should have none occasion to remember it afterward.

32:25 <sup>1</sup> Both destitute of God's favor, and an occasion to their enemies to speak evil of their God.

32:27 <sup>1</sup> This fact did so please God, that he turned the curse of Jacob against Levi to a blessing, Deut. 33:9.

32:29 <sup>1</sup> In revenging God's glory we must have no respect to person, but put off all carnal affection.

32:32 <sup>1</sup> So much he esteemed the glory of God, that he preferred it even to his own salvation.

32:33 <sup>1</sup> I will make it known that he was never predestinated in mine eternal counsel to life everlasting.

34 Go now therefore, bring the people unto the place which I commanded thee: behold, mine Angel shall go before thee, but yet in the day of my visitation I will visit their sin upon them.

35 <sup>1</sup>So the Lord plagued the people, because they caused Aaron to make the calf which he made.

1 Afterward the Lord said unto Moses, Depart, <sup>1</sup>go up from hence, thou, and the people (which thou hast brought up out of the land of Egypt) unto the land which I swear unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, <sup>4</sup>Unto thy seed will I give it.

2 And <sup>6</sup>I will send an Angel before thee, and will cast out the Canaanites, the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites,

3 To a land, I say, that floweth with milk and honey: for I will not go up with thee, <sup>1</sup>because thou art a stiff-necked people, lest I consume thee in the way.

4 And when the people heard this evil tidings, they sorrowed, and no man put on his best raiment.

5 (For the Lord had said unto Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiff-necked people, I will come suddenly upon thee and consume thee: therefore now put thy costly raiment from thee, that I may know <sup>1</sup>what to do unto thee.)

6 So the children of Israel laid their good raiment from them, after Moses came down from the mount Horeb.

7 Then Moses took his tabernacle, and pitched it without the host far off from the host, and called it <sup>1</sup>Ohel-moed. And when any did seek to the Lord, he went out unto the Tabernacle of the Congregation, which was without the host.

8 And when Moses went out unto the Tabernacle, all the people rose up, and stood every man at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the Tabernacle.

9 And as soon as Moses was entered into the 10 Now when all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the Tabernacle door, all the people rose up, and worshipped every man in his tent door.

11 And the Lord spake unto Moses, <sup>1</sup>face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. After he turned again into the host, but his servant Joshua the son of Nun a young man, departed not out of the Tabernacle.

12 ¶ Then Moses said unto the Lord, See, thou sayest unto me, Lead this people forth, and thou hast not showed me whom thou wilt send with me: thou hast said moreover, I know thee by <sup>1</sup>name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight.

13 Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found favor in thy sight, show me now thy way, that I may know thee, and that I may find grace in thy sight: consider also that this nation is thy people.

14 And he answered, My <sup>1,2</sup>presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest.

15 Then he said unto him, If thy presence go not with us, carry us not hence.

16 And wherein now shall it be known, that I and thy people have found favor in thy sight? shall it not be when thou goest with us? so I, and thy people shall have preeminence before all the people that are upon the earth.

17 And the Lord said unto Moses, I will do this also that thou hast said: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name.

18 Again he said, I beseech thee, show me thy <sup>1</sup>glory.

19 And he answered, I will make all my <sup>1</sup>good go before thee, and I will <sup>2</sup>proclaim the Name of the Lord before thee: <sup>4</sup>for I will show <sup>3</sup>mercy to whom I will show mercy, and will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

20 Furthermore he said, Thou canst not see my face, for there shall no man see me, and <sup>1</sup>live.

21 Also the Lord said, Behold, there is a place by <sup>1</sup>me, and thou shalt stand upon the rock:

22 And while my glory passeth by, I will put thee in a cleft of the rock, and will cover thee with mine

32:35 <sup>1</sup> This declareth how grievous a sin idolatry is, seeing that at Moses' prayer God would not fully remit it.

33:1 <sup>1</sup> The land of Canaan was compassed with hills: so they that entered into it, must pass up by the hills.

33:5 <sup>1</sup> That either I may show mercy, if thou repent, or else punish thy rebellion.

33:7 <sup>1</sup> That is, the Tabernacle of the Congregation: so called, because the people resorted thither, when they should be instructed of the Lord's will.

2 And be ready in the morning, that thou mayest come up early unto the mount of Sinai, and <sup>1</sup>wait there for me in the top of the mount.

3 But let no man come up with thee, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mount; neither let the sheep nor cattle feed <sup>1</sup>before this mount.

4 Then Moses hewed <sup>1</sup>two Tables of stone like unto the first, and rose up early in the morning, and went up unto the mount of Sinai, as the Lord had commanded him, and took in his hand two Tables of stone.

27 And the Lord said unto Moses, Write thou these words: for after the tenor of <sup>q</sup>these words I have made a covenant with thee and with Israel.

28 So he was there with the Lord <sup>l</sup>forty days and forty nights, and did neither eat bread nor drink water, and he wrote in the Tables <sup>r</sup>the words of the covenant, even the <sup>2</sup>Ten commandments.

29 ¶ So when Moses came down from mount Sinai, the two Tables of the Testimony were in Moses' hand, as he descended from the mount: (now Moses wist not that the skin of his face shone bright, after that God had talked with him).

30 And Aaron and all the children of Israel looked upon Moses, and behold, the skin of his face shone bright, and they were <sup>1</sup>afraid to come near him.

31 But Moses called them: and Aaron and all the chief of the congregation returned unto him: and Moses talked with them.

32 And afterward all the children of Israel came near, and he charged them with all that the Lord had said unto him in mount Sinai.

33 So Moses made an end of communing with them, <sup>s</sup>and had put a covering upon his face.

34 But, when Moses came <sup>l</sup>before the Lord to speak with him, he took off the covering until he came out: then he came out, and spake unto the children of Israel that which he was commanded.

35 And the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, how the skin of Moses' face shone bright: therefore Moses put the covering upon his face, until he went to speak with God.

3 Ye shall kindle no fire throughout all your habitations upon the Sabbath day.

4 ¶ Again, Moses spake unto all the Congregation of the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the Lord commandeth, saying,

5 Take from among you an offering unto the Lord: whosoever is of a <sup>b</sup>willing heart, let him bring this offering to the Lord, namely gold, and silver and brass:

6 Also blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair,

7 And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins with Shittim wood:

8 Also oil for light, and spices for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense,

9 And onyx stones, and stones to be set in the Ephod, and in the breastplate.

10 And all the wise <sup>h</sup>hearted among you, shall come and make all that the Lord hath commanded:

11 That is, the <sup>c</sup>Tabernacle, the pavilion thereof, and his covering, and his taches, and his boards, his bars, his pillars, and his sockets,

12 The Ark, and the bars thereof: the Mercy seat, and the veil that <sup>1</sup>covereth it,

13 The Table, and the bars of it, and all the instruments thereof, and the showbread:

14 Also the Candlestick of light and his instruments, and his lamps with the oil for the light:

15 <sup>4</sup>Likewise the Altar of perfume and his bars, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the veil of the door at the entering in of the Tabernacle,

16 The <sup>c</sup>Altar of burnt offering with his brazen grate, his bars and all his instruments, the laver and his foot,

17 The hangings of the court, his pillars and his sockets, and the veil of the gate of the court,

18 The pins of the Tabernacle, and the pins of the court with their cords, 19 The <sup>1</sup>ministering garments to minister in the holy place, and the holy garments of Aaron the Priest, and the garments of his sons, that they may minister in the Priest's office.

20 ¶ Then all the Congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

21 And every one, whose heart <sup>1</sup>encouraged him, and every one, whose spirit made him willing, came and brought an offering to the Lord, for the work of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and for all his uses, and for the holy garments.

34:26 <sup>1</sup> Read Exod. 23:1; Deut. 14:21.

34:28 <sup>1</sup> This miracle was to confirm the authority of the law, and ought no more to be followed than other miracles.

22 Both men and women, as many as were free hearted, came and brought <sup>1</sup>taches and earrings, and rings, and bracelets, all were jewels of gold: and every one that offered an offering of gold unto the Lord:

23 Every man also, which had blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen and goats' hair, and rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, brought them.

24 All that offered an oblation of silver and of brass, brought the offering unto the Lord: and every one, that <sup>1</sup>had Shittim wood for any manner work of the ministration, brought it.

25 And all the women that were <sup>1</sup>wise-hearted, did spin with their hands, and brought the spun work, even the blue silk, and the purple, the scarlet, and fine linen.

26 Likewise all the women, <sup>1</sup>whose hearts were moved with knowledge, spun goats' hair.

27 And the rulers brought onyx stones, and stones to be set in the Ephod, and in the breastplate:

28 Also spice, and oil for light, and for the <sup>1</sup>anointing oil, and for the sweet perfume.

29 Every man and woman of the children of Israel, whose hearts moved them willingly to bring for all the work which the Lord had commanded them to make <sup>1</sup>by the hand of Moses, brought a free offering unto the Lord.

30 ¶ Then Moses said unto the children of Israel, Behold, <sup>2</sup>the Lord hath called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur of the tribe of Judah,

31 And hath filled him <sup>1</sup>with an excellent spirit of wisdom, of understanding, and of knowledge, and in all manner work,

32 To find out curious works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,

33 And in graving stones to set them, and in carving of wood, even to make any manner of fine work.

34 And he hath put in his heart that he may teach other: both he, and Aholiab the son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan:

35 Them hath he filled with wisdom of heart to work all manner <sup>1</sup>of cunning <sup>2</sup>and broidered, and needle work: in blue silk, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen and weaving, even to do all manner of work and subtle inventions.

1 Then wrought Bezalel, and Aholiab, and all <sup>1</sup>cunning men, to whom the Lord gave wisdom, and understanding, to know how to work all manner work for the service of the <sup>2</sup>Sanctuary, according to all that the Lord had commanded.

2 For Moses had called Bezalel, and Aholiab, and all the wise-hearted men, in whose hearts the Lord had given wisdom, even as many as their hearts encouraged to come unto that work to work it.

3 And they received of Moses all the offering which the children of Israel had brought for the service of the Sanctuary, to make it: also <sup>1</sup>they brought still unto him free gifts every morning.

4 So all the wise men, that wrought all the holy work, came every man from his work which they wrought,

5 And spake to Moses, saying, The people bring too <sup>1</sup>much, and more than enough for the use of the work, which the Lord hath commanded to be made.

6 Then Moses gave a commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the host, saying, Let neither man nor woman prepare any more work for the oblations of the Sanctuary. So the people were stayed from offering.

7 For the stuff they had, was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.

8 <sup>a</sup>All the cunning men therefore among the workmen, made for the Tabernacle ten curtains of fine twined linen, and of blue silk, and purple, and scarlet: <sup>1</sup>Cherubims of broidered work made they upon them.

9 The length of one curtain was twenty and eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and the curtains were all of one size.

10 And he coupled five curtains together, and another five coupled he together.

11 And he made strings of blue silk by the edge of one curtain, in the selvedge of the coupling; likewise he made on the side of the other curtain in the selvedge in the second coupling.

12 <sup>b</sup>Fifty strings made he in the one curtain, and fifty strings made he in the edge of the other curtain, which was in the second coupling: the strings were set one against another.

13 After, he made fifty <sup>1</sup>taches of gold, and coupled the curtains one to another with the taches: so was it one Tabernacle.

35:25 <sup>1</sup> Which were witty and expert.

35:26 <sup>1</sup> That is, which were good spinners.

35:29 <sup>1</sup> Using Moses as a minister thereof.

35:31 <sup>1</sup> Or, with the spirit of God.

35:35 <sup>1</sup> Pertaining to graving, or carving, or such like.

36:5 <sup>1</sup> A rare example and notable to see the people so ready to serve God with their goods.

36:8 <sup>1</sup> Which were little pictures with wings in the form of children.

36:13 <sup>1</sup> Or, hooks.

14 ¶ Also he made curtains of goats' hair for the <sup>1</sup>covering upon the Tabernacle: he made them to the number of eleven curtains.

15 The length of one curtain had thirty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: the eleven curtains were of one size.

16 And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves.

17 Also he made fifty strings upon the edge of one curtain in the selvedge in the coupling, and fifty strings made he upon the edge of the other curtain in the second coupling.

18 He made also fifty taches of brass to couple the covering that it might be one.

19 And he made a <sup>1</sup>covering upon the pavilion of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of badgers' skins above.

20 ¶ Likewise he made the boards for the Tabernacle, of Shittim wood to <sup>1</sup>stand up.

21 The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of one board was a cubit and an half.

22 One board had two tenons, set in order as the feet of a ladder, one against another: thus made he for all the boards of the Tabernacle.

23 So he made twenty boards for the South side of the Tabernacle, even full South.

24 And forty sockets of silver made he under the twenty boards, two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

25 Also for the other side of the Tabernacle toward the North, he made twenty boards.

26 And their forty sockets of silver, two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

27 Likewise toward <sup>1</sup>the West side of the Tabernacle he made six boards.

28 And two boards made he in the corners of the Tabernacle for either side, 29 And they were <sup>1</sup>joined beneath, and likewise were made sure above with a ring: thus he did to both in both corners.

30 So there were eight boards, and their sixteen sockets of silver, under every board two sockets.

31 ¶ After, he made <sup>d</sup>bars of Shittim wood, five for the boards in the one side of the Tabernacle, 32 And five bars for the boards in the other side of the Tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the Tabernacle on the side toward the West.

33 And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards, from the one end to the other.

34 He overlaid also the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold for places for the bars, and covered the bars with gold.

35 ¶ Moreover he made a <sup>1</sup>veil of blue silk and purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen: with Cherubims of broidered work made he it:

36 And made thereunto four pillars of Shittim, and overlaid them with gold: whose <sup>1</sup>hooks were also of gold, and he cast for them four sockets of silver.

37 And he made an <sup>1</sup>hanging for the Tabernacle door, of blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, and needle work,

1 After this, Bezazel made the <sup>a</sup>Ark of Shittim wood, two cubits and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and a cubit and an half high:

2 And overlaid it with fine gold within and without, and made a <sup>1</sup>crown of gold to it round about,

3 And cast for it four rings of gold for the four corners of it: that is, two rings for the one side of it, and two rings for the other side thereof.

4 Also he made bars of Shittim wood, and covered them with gold,

5 And put the bars in the rings by the sides of the Ark, to bear the Ark.

6 ¶ And he made the <sup>b</sup>Mercy seat of pure gold: two cubits and an half was the length thereof, and one cubit and an half the breadth thereof.

7 And he made two Cherubims of gold, upon the two ends of the Mercy seat: even of work beaten with the hammer made he them.

8 One Cherub on the one end, and another Cherub on the other end: <sup>1</sup>of the Mercy seat made he the Cherubims, at the two ends thereof.

9 And the Cherubims spread out their wings on high, and covered the Mercy seat with their wings and their faces were one towards another: toward the Mercy seat were the faces of the Cherubims.

10 ¶ Also he made the Table of Shittim wood: two cubits was the length thereof and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and an half the height of it.

36:19 <sup>1</sup> These two were about the covering of goats' hair.

36:20 <sup>1</sup> And to bear up the curtains of the Tabernacle.

36:27 <sup>1</sup> Or, toward the Sea, which was the Sea called Mediterranean, Westward from Jerusalem.

36:35 <sup>1</sup> Which was between the Sanctuary and the Holiest of all.

37:8 <sup>1</sup> Of the selfsame matter that the Mercy seat was.

11 And he overlaid it with fine gold, and made thereto a crown of gold round about.

12 Also he made thereto a border of an <sup>1</sup>hand breadth round about, and made upon the border a crown of gold round about.

13 And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that were in the four feet thereof.

14 Against the border were the rings, as places for the bars to bear the Table.

15 And he made the bars of Shittim wood, and covered them with gold to bear the Table.

16 <sup>c</sup>Also he made the instruments for the Table of pure gold: dishes for it, and incense cups for it, and goblets for it, and coverings for it, wherewith it should be covered.

17 ¶ Likewise he made the Candlestick of pure gold: of work beaten out with the hammer made he the Candlestick: and his shaft, and his branch, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers were of one piece.

18 And six branches came out of the sides thereof: three branches of the Candlestick out of the one side of it, and three branches of the Candlestick out of the other side of it.

19 In one branch three bowls made like almonds, a knop and a flower: and in another branch three bowls made like almonds, a knop and a flower: and so throughout the six branches that proceeded out of the Candlestick.

20 And upon the Candlestick were four bowls after the fashion of almonds, the knops thereof and the flowers thereof.

21 That is, under every two branches a knop made thereof, and a knop under the second branch thereof, and a knop under the third branch thereof, according to the six branches coming out of it.

22 Their knops and their branches were of the same: it was all one <sup>d</sup>beaten work of pure gold.

23 And he made for it seven lamps with the snuff-ers, and snuffdishes thereof of pure gold.

24 Of a <sup>1</sup>talent of pure gold made he it with all the instruments thereof.

25 ¶ Furthermore he made the <sup>e</sup>perfume altar of Shittim wood: the length of it was a cubit, and the breadth of it a cubit (it was square) and two cubits high, and the horns thereof were of the same.

26 And he covered it with pure gold, both the top and the sides thereof round about, and the horns of it, and made unto it a crown of gold round about.

27 And he made two rings of gold for it, under the crown thereof in the two corners of the two sides thereof, to put bars in for to bear it therewith.

28 Also he made the bars of Shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold.

29 And he made the holy <sup>f</sup>anointing oil, and the sweet pure incense after the apothecary's art.

1 Also he made the altar of the burnt offering of <sup>a</sup>Shittim wood: five cubits was the length thereof, and five cubits the breadth thereof: it was square and three cubits high.

2 And he made unto it horns in the four corners thereof: the horns thereof were of the same, and he overlaid it with brass.

3 Also he made all the instruments of the altar: the <sup>1</sup>ashpans, and the besoms and the basins, the fleshhooks, and the <sup>b</sup>censers: all the instruments thereof made he of brass.

4 Moreover, he made a brazen grate wrought like a net to the Altar, under the compass of it beneath in the <sup>1</sup>midst of it.

5 And cast four rings of brass for the four ends of the grate to put bars in.

6 And he made the bars of Shittim wood, and covered them with brass.

7 The which bars he put into the rings on the sides of the altar to bear it withal, and made it <sup>1</sup>hollow within the boards.

8 ¶ Also he made the laver of brass, and the foot of it of brass of the <sup>1</sup>glasses of the women that did assemble and came together at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

9 ¶ Finally, he made the court on the South side full South: the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, having an hundred cubits.

10 Their pillars were twenty, and their brazen sockets twenty: the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver.

11 And on the North side the hangings were an hundred cubits: their pillars twenty, and their sockets of brass twenty, the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets of silver.

12 On the west side also were hangings of fifty cubits, their ten pillars with their ten sockets: the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets of silver.

13 And toward the East side, full East were hangings of fifty cubits.

14 The hangings of the one side were fifteen cubits, their three pillars, and their three sockets:

37:12 <sup>1</sup> Or, four fingers.

38:3 <sup>1</sup> Or, fire pans.

38:4 <sup>1</sup> So that the gridiron or grate was half so high as the altar, and stood within it.

38:8 <sup>1</sup> R. Kimbi saith, that the women brought their looking glasses, which were of brass or fine metal, and offered them freely unto the use of the Tabernacle: which was a bright thing and of great majesty.

15 <sup>d</sup>And of the other side of the court gate on both sides were hangings of fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three sockets.

16 All the hangings of the court round about were of fine twined linen.

17 But the sockets of the pillars were of brass: the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver, and the covering of their chapters of silver: and all the pillars of the court were hooped about with silver.

18 He made also the hanging of the gate of the court of needle work, blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen even twenty cubits long, and five cubits in height and breadth, <sup>1</sup>like the hangings of the court.

19 And their pillars were four with their four sockets of brass: their hooks of silver, and the covering of the chapters, and their fillets of silver.

20 But all the <sup>2</sup>pins of the Tabernacle and of the court round about were of brass.

21 ¶ These are the parts of the Tabernacle, I mean, of the Tabernacle of the Testimony, which was appointed by the commandment of Moses for the office of the <sup>1</sup>Levites, by the hand of Ithamar son to Aaron the Priest.

22 So Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur of the tribe of Judah, made all that the Lord commanded Moses.

23 And with him Aholiab son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan, a <sup>1</sup>cunning workman and an embroiderer, and a worker of needle work in blue silk, and in purple, and in scarlet, and in fine linen.

24 All the gold that was occupied in all the work wrought for the holy place (which was the gold of the offering) was nine and twenty talents and seven hundred and thirty shekels, according to the shekel of the Sanctuary.

25 But the silver of them that were numbered in the Congregation, was an hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred seventy and five shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary.

26 A <sup>1</sup>portion for a man, that is, half a shekel after the shekel of the Sanctuary, for all them that were numbered from twenty years old and above, among six hundred thousand, and three thousand, and five hundred and fifty men.

27 Moreover there were an hundred talents of silver, to cast the sockets of the Sanctuary, and the sockets of the veil: an hundred sockets of an hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

thousand seven hundred and seventy and five shekels, and overlaid their chapters, and made fillets about them.

29 Also the brass of the offering was seventy <sup>1</sup>talents, and two thousand, and four hundred shekels.

30 Whereof he made the sockets to the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the brazen altar, and the brazen grate which was for it, with all the instruments of the Altar.

31 And the sockets of the court round about, and the sockets for the court gate, and all the <sup>1</sup>pins of the Tabernacle, and all the pins of the court round about.

39 <sup>1</sup>The apparel of Aaron and his sons. <sup>32</sup>All that the Lord commanded was made, and finished. <sup>43</sup>Moses blesseth the people.

1 Moreover they made <sup>1</sup>garments of ministration to minister in the Sanctuary of blue silk, and purple, and scarlet: they <sup>2</sup>made also the holy garments for Aaron, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

2 So he made the Ephod of gold, blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

3 And they did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to work it in the blue silk and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, with brodered work.

4 For the which they made shoulders to couple together: for it was closed by the two edges thereof.

5 And the brodered girdle of his Ephod that was upon him, was of the same stuff, and of like work: even of gold, of blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

6 ¶ And they wrought <sup>b</sup>two Onyx stones closed in ouches of gold, and graved, as <sup>1</sup>signets are graven, with the names of the children of Israel.

7 And put them on the shoulders of the Ephod, as stones for a remembrance of the children of Israel, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

8 ¶ Also he made the breastplate of brodered work like the work of the Ephod: to wit, of gold, blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 They made the breast plate double, and it was square an hand breadth long, and an hand breadth broad: it was also double.

10 And they filled it with four rows of stones. The order was thus, a Ruby, a Topaz, and a Carbuncle in the first row.

11 And in the second row an Emerald, a Sapphire, and a Diamond:

12 Also in the third row <sup>1</sup>a Turquoise, an Agate,

39:12 <sup>1</sup> Or, a figure, which stone authors write that it cometh of the urine of the beast called Lynx.

and an Hematite:

13 Likewise in the fourth row a Chrysolite, an Onyx, and a Jasper: closed and set in ouches of gold.

14 So the stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, even twelve <sup>1</sup>after their names, graven like signets, every one after his name, according to the twelve tribes.

15 After, they made upon the breastplate chains at the ends, of wreathen work and pure gold.

16 They made also two bosses of gold, and two gold rings, and put the two rings in the two corners of the breastplate.

17 And they put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings, in the corners of the breastplate.

18 Also the two other ends of the two wreathen chains they fastened in the two bosses, and put them on the shoulders of the Ephod, upon the forefront of it.

19 Likewise they made two rings of gold, and put them in the two other corners of the breastplate upon the edge of it, which was on the inside of the Ephod.

20 They made also two other golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the Ephod, beneath on the foreside of it, and over against his coupling above the broidered girdle of the Ephod.

21 Then they fastened the breastplate by his rings unto the rings of the Ephod, with a lace of blue silk that it might be fast upon the broidered girdle of the Ephod, and that the breastplate should not be loosed from the Ephod, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

22 ¶ Moreover, he made the robe of the <sup>1</sup>Ephod of woven work, altogether of blue silk.

23 And <sup>1</sup>the hole of the robe was in the midst of it, as the collar of an habergeon, with an edge about the collar, that it should not rent.

24 And they made upon the skirt of the robe pomegranates, of blue silk and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen twined.

25 They made also <sup>4</sup>bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates upon the skirts of the robe round about between the pomegranates.

26 A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate round about the skirts of the robe to minister in, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

27 ¶ After, they made coats of fine linen, of woven work for Aaron and for his sons.

28 And the mitre of fine linen, and goodly bonnets of fine linen, and linen <sup>1</sup>breeches of fine twined linen.

29 ¶ And the girdle of fine twined linen, and of blue silk, and purple, and scarlet, even of needle work, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

30 ¶ Finally, they made the plate for the holy crown of fine gold, and wrote upon it a superscription like to the graving of a signet, <sup>h</sup>HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

31 And they tied unto it a lace of blue silk to fasten it on high upon the mitre, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

32 ¶ Thus was all the work of the Tabernacle, even of the <sup>4</sup>Tabernacle of the Congregation finished: and the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord had commanded Moses: so did they.

33 ¶ Afterward they brought the Tabernacle unto Moses, the Tabernacle and all his instruments, his taches, his boards, his bars, and his pillars, and his sockets, 34 And the covering of rams' skins, dyed red, and the coverings of badgers' skins, and the <sup>1</sup>covering veil.

35 The Ark of the testimony, and the bars thereof, and the Mercy seat.

36 The Table, with all the instruments thereof, and the showbread.

37 The pure Candlestick, the lamps thereof, even the Lamps <sup>1</sup>set in order, and all the instruments thereof, and the oil for light:

38 Also the golden Altar and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging of the Tabernacle door,

39 The brazen Altar with his grate of brass, his bars and all his instruments, the Laver and his foot.

40 The curtains of the court with his pillars, and his sockets, and the hanging to the court gate, and his cords, and his pins, and all the instruments of the service of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

41 Finally, the ministering garments to serve in the Sanctuary, and the holy garments for Aaron the Priest, and his sons' garments to minister in the Priest's office.

42 According to every point that the Lord had <sup>1</sup>commanded Moses, so the children of Israel made all the work.

43 And Moses beheld all the work, and beheld they had done it as the Lord had commanded: so had they done: and Moses <sup>1</sup>blessed them.

- 1 Then the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
- 2 In the <sup>1</sup>first day of the first month in the very first of the same month shalt thou set up the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation:
- 3 And thou shalt put therein the Ark of the Testimony, and cover the Ark with the veil.
- 4 Also thou shalt bring in the <sup>1</sup>Table, and set it in order as it doth require: thou shalt also bring in the Candlestick, and light his lamps.
- 5 And thou shalt set the incense Altar <sup>1</sup>of gold before the Ark of the Testimony; and put the <sup>2</sup>hanging at the door of the Tabernacle.
- 6 Moreover, thou shalt set the burnt offering Altar before the door of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
- 7 And thou shalt set the Laver between the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the Altar, and put water therein.
- 8 Then thou shalt appoint the court round about, and hang up the hanging at the court gate.
- 9 After, thou shalt take the anointing oil, and anoint the Tabernacle, and all that is therein, and hallow it with all the instruments thereof, that it may be holy.
- 10 And thou shalt anoint the Altar of the burnt offering, and all his instruments, and shalt sanctify the Altar, that it may be an altar most holy.
- 11 Also thou shalt anoint the Laver, and his foot, and shalt sanctify it.
- 12 Then thou shalt bring Aaron and his sons unto the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and wash them with water.
- 13 And thou shalt put upon Aaron the holy garments, and shalt anoint him, and sanctify him, that he may minister unto me in the Priest's office.
- 14 Thou shalt also bring his sons and clothe them with garments.
- 15 And shalt anoint them as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister unto me in the Priest's office: for their anointing shall be a sign, that the Priesthood <sup>1</sup>shall be everlasting unto them throughout their generations.
- 16 So Moses did according to all that the Lord had commanded him; so did he.
- 17 ¶ <sup>a</sup>Thus was the Tabernacle reared up the first 18 Then Moses reared up the Tabernacle and fastened his sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and put in the bars of it, and reared up his pillars.

19 And he spread the covering over the Tabernacle, and put the covering of that covering on high above it, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

20 ¶ And he took and put the <sup>1</sup>Testimony in the Ark, and put the bars in the rings of the Ark, and set the Mercy seat on high upon the Ark.

21 He brought also the Ark into the Tabernacle, and hanged up the <sup>b</sup>covering veil, and covered the Ark of the Testimony, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

22 ¶ Furthermore he put the Table in the Tabernacle of the Congregation in the North side of the Tabernacle, without the veil, 23 And set the bread in order before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

24 ¶ Also he put the Candlestick in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, over against the Table toward the South side of the Tabernacle.

25 And he <sup>1</sup>lighted the lamps before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

26 ¶ Moreover, he set the golden Altar in the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the veil, 27 And burnt sweet incense thereon, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

28 ¶ Also he hanged up the veil at the <sup>1</sup>door of the Tabernacle.

29 After, he set the burnt offering Altar without the door of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and offered the burnt offering and the sacrifice thereon, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

30 ¶ Likewise he set the Laver between the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the Altar, and poured water therein to wash with.

31 So Moses and Aaron, and his sons washed their hands and their feet thereat.

32 When they went into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and when they approached to the Altar, they washed, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

33 Finally, he reared up the court round about the Tabernacle and the Altar, and hanged up the veil at the court gate: so Moses finished the work.

35 So Moses could not enter into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, because the cloud abode thereon, and the glory of the Lord filled the Tabernacle.

36 Now when the cloud ascended up from the Tabernacle, the children of Israel went forward in all their journeys.

37 But if the cloud ascended not, then they journeyed not till the day that it ascended.

38 For <sup>1</sup>the cloud of the Lord was upon the Tabernacle by day, and fire was in it by night in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

THE THIRD BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED <sup>1</sup>LEVITICUS

1 <sup>1</sup> Of burnt offerings for particular persons. 3, 10, and
as of sheep and birds.

1 Now the <sup>1</sup>Lord called Moses, and spake unto him out of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and thou shalt say unto them, If any of you offer a sacrifice unto the Lord, ye shall offer your sacrifice of <sup>1</sup>cattle, as of beeves and of the sheep.

3 <sup>a</sup>If his sacrifice be a burnt offering of the herd, he shall offer a male without blemish, presenting him of his own voluntary will at the door of the <sup>1</sup>Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lord.

4 And he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be accepted <sup>1</sup>to the Lord, to be his atonement.

5 And <sup>1</sup>he shall kill the bullock before the Lord, and the Priests Aaron's sons shall offer the blood, and shall sprinkle it round about upon the <sup>2</sup>altar, that is by the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

6 Then shall he slay the burnt offering, and cut it in pieces.

7 So the sons of Aaron the Priest shall put fire upon the altar, and lay the wood in order upon the fire.

8 Then the Priests Aaron's sons shall lay the parts in order, the head and the <sup>1</sup>caul upon the wood that is in the fire which is upon the altar.

9 But the inwards thereof and the legs thereof he shall wash in water, and the Priest shall burn all on the altar: for it is a burnt offering, an oblation made by fire, for a sweet savor <sup>1</sup>unto the Lord.

10 ¶ And if his sacrifice for the burnt offering be

11 <sup>1</sup>And he shall kill it on the North side of the altar <sup>2</sup>before the Lord, and the Priests Aaron's sons shall sprinkle the blood thereof round about upon the altar.

12 And he shall cut it in <sup>1</sup>pieces, separating his head and his <sup>2</sup>caul, and the Priest shall lay them in order upon the wood that lieth in the fire which is on the altar:

13 But he shall wash the inwards, and the legs with water, and the Priest shall offer the whole and burn it upon the altar: for it is a burnt offering, an oblation made by fire for a sweet savor unto the Lord.

14 ¶ And if his sacrifice be a burnt offering to the Lord of the fowls, then shall he offer his sacrifice of the turtledoves, or of the young pigeons.

15 And the Priest shall bring it unto the altar, and <sup>1</sup>wring the neck of it asunder, and burn it on the altar: and the blood thereof shall be <sup>2</sup>shed upon the side of the altar.

16 And he shall pluck out his maw with his feathers, and cast them beside the altar on the <sup>1</sup>East part in the place of the ashes.

17 And he shall cleave it with his wings, but not divide it asunder: and the Priest shall burn it upon the altar upon the wood that is in the fire: for it is a burnt offering, an oblation made by fire for a sweet savor unto the Lord.

8 And he shall take away all the fat of the bullock for the sin offering: to wit, the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is about the inwards.

9 He shall take away also the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and upon the flanks, and the caul upon the liver with the kidneys, then he shall confess that he hath sinned therein.

6 Therefore shall he bring his trespass offering unto the Lord for his sin which he hath committed, even a female from the flock, be it a lamb or a she goat for a sin offering, and the Priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sin.

7 But <sup>1</sup>if he be not able to bring a sheep, he shall bring for his trespass which he hath committed, two turtledoves, or two young pigeons unto the Lord, one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering.

8 So he shall bring them unto the Priest, who shall offer the sin offering first, and <sup>4</sup>wring the neck of it asunder, but not pluck it clean off.

9 After he shall sprinkle of the blood of the sin offering upon the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood shall be <sup>1</sup>shed at the foot of the altar: for it is a sin offering.

10 Also he shall offer the second for a burnt offering <sup>1</sup>as the manner is: so shall the Priest <sup>2</sup>make an atonement for him (for his sin which he hath committed) and it shall be forgiven him.

11 ¶ But if he <sup>4</sup>be not able to bring two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, then he that hath sinned, shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an <sup>1</sup>Ephah of fine flour for a sin offering, he shall put none <sup>2</sup>oil thereto, neither put any incense thereon: for it is a sin offering.

12 Then shall he bring it to the Priest, and the Priest shall take his handful of it for the <sup>1</sup>remembrance thereof, and burn it upon the altar <sup>4</sup>with the offerings of the Lord made by fire: for it is a sin offering.

13 So the Priest shall make an atonement for him, as touching his sin, that he hath committed in one of these <sup>1</sup>points, and it shall be forgiven him: and the remnant shall be the Priest's, as the meat offering.

14 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

15 If any person transgress and sin through ignorance <sup>1</sup>by taking away things consecrated unto the Lord, he shall then bring for his trespass offering unto the Lord a ram without blemish out of the flock, worth two shekels of silver <sup>2</sup>by thy estimation after the shekel of the Sanctuary, for a trespass offering.

16 So he shall restore that wherein he hath offended, in taking away of the holy thing, and shall put the fifth part more thereto, and give it unto the Priest: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him

13 The fire shall ever burn upon the altar, and never go out.

14 ¶ <sup>d</sup>Also this is the law of the meat offering, which Aaron's sons shall offer in the presence of the Lord, before the altar.

22 And the Priest that is <sup>1</sup>anointed in his stead, among his sons shall offer it: It is the Lord's ordinance forever, it shall be burnt altogether.

23 For every meat offering of the Priest shall be burnt altogether, it shall not be eaten.

24 ¶ Furthermore, the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

25 Speak unto Aaron, and unto his sons, and say, This is the Law of the sin offering, In the place where the burnt offering is killed, shall the sin offering be killed before the Lord, for it is most holy.

26 The Priest that offereth this sin offering, shall eat it: in the holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

27 Whatsoever shall touch the flesh thereof shall be holy: and when there droppeth of the blood thereof upon a <sup>1</sup>garment, thou shalt wash that whereon it droppeth in the holy place.

28 Also the earthen pot that it is sodden in, shall be broken, but if it be sodden in a brazen pot, it shall both be scoured and washed with <sup>1</sup>water.

29 All the males among the Priests shall eat thereof, for it is most holy.

7 As the sin offering is, so is the trespass offering, one <sup>1</sup>law serveth for both: <sup>2</sup>that wherewith the Priest shall make atonement, shall be his.

8 Also the Priest that offereth any man's burnt offering, shall have the skin of the burnt offering which he hath offered.

9 And all the meat offering that is baked in the oven, and that is dressed in the pan, and in the frying pan, shall be the Priest's that offereth it.

10 And every meat offering mingled with oil, and that is <sup>1</sup>dry, shall pertain unto all the sons of Aaron, to all alike.

11 Furthermore, this is the law of the peace offerings, which he shall offer unto the Lord.

12 If he offer it to <sup>1</sup>give thanks, then he shall offer for his thanks offering, unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and fine flour fried with the cakes mingled with oil.

13 He shall offer also his offering with cakes of leavened bread, for his peace offerings, to give thanks.

14 And of all the sacrifice he shall offer one cake for an heave offering unto the Lord, and it shall be the Priest's that sprinkled the blood of the peace offerings.

15 Also the flesh of the peace offerings, for thanksgiving, shall be eaten the same day that it is offered: he shall leave nothing thereof until the morning.

16 But if the sacrifice of his offering be a <sup>1</sup>vow, or a free offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice: and so in the morning the residue thereof shall be eaten.

17 But as much of the offered flesh as remaineth unto the third day, shall be burnt with fire.

18 For if any of the flesh of his peace offerings be eaten in the third day, he shall not be accepted that offereth it, neither shall it be reckoned unto him, but shall be an abomination: therefore the person that eateth of it shall <sup>1</sup>bear his iniquity.

22 ¶ Again the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say, <sup>b</sup>Ye shall eat no fat of beeves, nor of sheep, nor of goats.

24 Yet the fat of the dead beast, and the fat of that, which is torn with beasts, shall be occupied to any use, but ye shall not eat of it.

26 Neither <sup>1</sup>shall ye eat any blood, either of fowl, or of beast in all your dwellings.

27 Every person that eateth any blood, even the same person shall be cut off from his people.

28 ¶ And the Lord talked with Moses, saying,

29 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say, He that offereth his peace offerings unto the Lord, shall bring his gift unto the Lord of his peace offerings.

30 His <sup>1</sup>hands shall bring the offerings of the Lord made by fire: even the fat with the breast shall he bring, that the breast may be <sup>d</sup>shaken to and fro before the Lord.

31 Then the Priest shall burn the fat upon the Altar, and the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'.

32 And the right shoulder shall ye give unto the Priest for an heave offering, of your peace offerings.

33 The same that offereth the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat among the sons of Aaron, shall have the right shoulder for his part.

34 For the breast shaken to and fro, and the shoulder lifted up, have I taken of the children of Israel, even of their peace offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the Priest and unto his sons by a statute forever from among the children of Israel.

35 ¶ This is the <sup>1</sup>anointing of Aaron, and the anointing of his sons, concerning the offerings of the Lord made by fire, in the day when he presented them to serve in the Priest's office unto the Lord.

36 The which portions the Lord commanded to give them in the day that he anointed them from among the children of Israel, by a statute forever in their generations.

38 Which the Lord commanded Moses in the mount Sinai, when he commanded the children of Israel to offer their gifts unto the Lord in the wilderness of Sinai.

8 <sup>12</sup> The anointing of Aaron, and his sons, with the sacrifice concerning the same.

1 Afterward the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 <sup>a</sup>Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, and the <sup>b</sup>anointing oil, and a bullock for the sin offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread,

3 And assemble all the company at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

4 So Moses did as the Lord had commanded him, and the company was assembled at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

5 Then Moses said unto the company, <sup>c</sup>This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded to do.

6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with water,

7 And put upon him the coat, and girded him with a girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the Ephod on him, which he girded with the broidered girdle of the Ephod, and bound it unto him therewith.

8 And he put the breastplate thereon, and put in the breastplate <sup>d</sup>the Urim and the Thummim.

9 Also he put the miter upon his head, and put upon the miter on the forefront the golden plate, and the <sup>e</sup>holy crown, as the Lord hath commanded Moses.

10 (Now Moses had taken the anointing oil, and anointed the <sup>f</sup>Tabernacle, and all that was therein, and sanctified them, 12 <sup>g</sup>And he poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him to sanctify him.

13 After, Moses brought Aaron's sons, and put coats upon them, and girded them with girdles, and put bonnets upon their heads, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

14 <sup>h</sup>Then he brought the bullock for the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons put their hands upon the head of the bullock for the sin offering.

15 And Moses slew him, and took the blood, which he put upon the horn of the <sup>i</sup>Altar round about with 16 Then he took all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul of the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat, which Moses burned upon the altar.

17 But the bullock and his <sup>1</sup>hide, and his flesh, and his dung, he burnt with fire without the host as the Lord had commanded Moses.

18 ¶ Also he brought the ram for the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons put their hands upon the head of the ram.

19 So Moses killed it, and sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about,

20 And Moses cut the ram in pieces, and burnt the head with the pieces, and the fat,

21 And washed the inwards and the legs in water: so Moses burnt the ram every whit upon the Altar: for it was a burnt offering for a sweet savor, which was made by fire unto the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

22 ¶ After, he brought the other ram, the ram of consecrations, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram,

23 Which Moses <sup>1</sup>slew, and took of the blood of it, and put it upon the lap of Aaron's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

24 Then Moses brought Aaron's sons, and put of the blood on the lap of their right ears, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet, and Moses sprinkled the rest of the blood upon the Altar round about.

25 And he took the fat and the rump, and all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul of the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat, and the right shoulder.

26 Also he took of the basket of the unleavened cake, and a cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and upon the right shoulder.

27 So he put <sup>b</sup>all in Aaron's hands, and in his sons' hands, and shook it to and fro before the Lord.

28 After, Moses took them out of their hands, and burnt them upon the altar for a burnt offering: for these were consecrations for a sweet savor, which were made by fire unto the Lord.

29 Likewise Moses took the breast of the ram of consecrations, and shook it to and fro before the Lord: for it was Moses' <sup>1</sup>portion as the Lord had commanded Moses.

8:9 <sup>1</sup> So called, because this superscription, Holiness to the Lord, was graven in it.

8:10 <sup>1</sup> That is, the Holiest of all, the Sanctuary and the court.

8:15 <sup>1</sup> Of the burnt offering.

8:17 <sup>1</sup> In other burnt offerings, which are not of consecration, or offering for himself, the Priest hath the skin, Lev. 7:8.

8:23 <sup>1</sup> Moses did this because that the Priests were not yet established in their office.

30 Also Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the Altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, upon his garments, and upon his sons, and on his sons' garments with him: so he sanctified Aaron, his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

31 ¶ Afterward Moses said unto Aaron and his sons, Seethe the flesh at the door of the <sup>1</sup>Tabernacle of the Congregation, and there <sup>j</sup>eat it with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it.

32 But that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread, shall ye burn with fire.

33 And ye shall not depart from the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation seven days, until the days of your consecrations be at an end: <sup>k</sup>for seven days, said the Lord, shall he <sup>1</sup>consecrate you,

34 As <sup>1</sup>he hath done this day: so the Lord hath commanded to do, to make an atonement for you.

35 Therefore shall ye abide at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, day and night, seven days, and shall keep the watch of the Lord, that ye die not: for so I am commanded.

36 So Aaron and his sons did all things which the Lord had commanded by the <sup>1</sup>hand of Moses.

1 And in the <sup>1</sup>eighth day Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the Elders of Israel:

2 ¶ Then he said unto Aaron, Take thee a young calf for a <sup>1</sup>sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, both without blemish, and bring them before the Lord.

3 And unto the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, Take ye an he goat for a sin offering, and a calf, and a lamb, both of a year old, without blemish for a burnt offering:

4 Also a bullock, and a ram for peace offerings, to offer before the Lord, and a meat offering mingled with oil: for today the Lord will appear unto you.

5 ¶ Then they brought that which Moses commanded before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and all the assembly drew near, and stood before the <sup>1</sup>Lord.

6 (For Moses had said, This is the thing, which

7 Then Moses said unto Aaron, Draw near to the Altar, and offer thy sin offering, and thy burnt offering, and make an atonement for <sup>1</sup>thee and for the people: offer also the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them, as the Lord hath commanded.

8 ¶ Aaron therefore went unto the altar, and killed the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself.

9 And the sons of Aaron brought the blood unto him, and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it upon the horns of the Altar, and poured the rest of the blood at the foot of the Altar.

10 But the fat and the kidneys, and the caul of the liver of the sin offering, he <sup>1</sup>burnt unto the Altar, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

11 The flesh also and the hide he burnt with fire without the host.

12 After, he slew the burnt offering, and Aaron's sons brought unto him the blood, which he sprinkled round about the Altar.

13 Also they brought the burnt offering unto him with the pieces thereof, and the head, and he burnt them upon the Altar.

14 Likewise he did wash the inwards and the legs, and <sup>1</sup>burnt them upon the burnt offering on the Altar.

15 ¶ Then he offered the people's offering and took a goat, which was the sin offering for the people, and slew it: and offered it for sin, as the first:

16 So he offered the burnt offering, and prepared it, according to the manner.

17 He presented also the meat offering, and filled his hand thereof, and <sup>b</sup>beside the burnt sacrifice of the morning he burnt this upon the altar.

18 He slew also the bullock, and the ram for the peace offerings, that was for the people, and Aaron's sons brought unto him the blood, which he sprinkled upon the Altar round about.

19 With the fat of the bullock, and of the ram, the rump, and that which covereth the inwards, and the kidneys, and the caul of the liver.

20 So they laid the fat upon the breasts, and he burnt the fat upon the Altar.

21 But the <sup>1</sup>breasts and the right shoulder Aaron shook to and fro before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

22 So Aaron lift up his hand toward the people, and blessed them, and <sup>1</sup>came down from offering of the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings.

23 After, Moses and Aaron went into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and came out, and <sup>1</sup>blessed the people, and the glory of the Lord appeared to all the people.

24 <sup>c</sup>And there came a fire out from the Lord, and consumed upon the Altar the burnt offering and the fat: which when all the people saw, they <sup>1</sup>gave thanks, and fell on their faces.

1 But <sup>a</sup>Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took either of them his censor, and put fire therein, and put incense thereupon, and offered <sup>1</sup>strange fire before the Lord, which he had not commanded them.

2 Therefore a fire went out from the Lord, and devoured them: so they died before the Lord.

3 Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the Lord spake, saying, I will be <sup>1</sup>sanctified in them that come near me, and before all the people I will be glorified: but Aaron held his peace.

4 And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan the sons of Uzziel, the uncle of Aaron, and said unto them, Come near, carry your <sup>1</sup>brethren from before the Sanctuary out of the host.

5 Then they went, and carried them in their coats out of the host, as Moses had commanded.

6 After, Moses said unto Aaron and unto Eleazar, and Ithamar his sons, <sup>1</sup>Uncover not your heads, neither rent your clothes, lest ye die, and lest wrath come upon all the people: but let your brethren, all the house of Israel bewail the burning which the Lord hath <sup>2</sup>kindled.

7 And go not ye out from the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation lest ye die: for the anointing oil of the Lord is upon you: and they did according to Moses' commandment.

8 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Aaron, saying,

9 Thou shalt not drink wine nor <sup>1</sup>strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, lest ye die: this is an ordinance forever throughout your generations,

10 That ye may put difference between the holy and the unholy, and between the clean and the unclean,

11 And that ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the Lord hath commanded them by the <sup>1</sup>hand of Moses.

12 ¶ Then Moses said unto Aaron and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar his sons that were left, Take the meat offering that remaineth of the offerings of the Lord made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the altar: for it is most holy:

13 And ye shall eat it in the holy place, because it is thy duty and thy son's duty of the offerings of the Lord made by fire: for so I am commanded.

14 Also the <sup>b</sup>shaken breast and the [heave] shoulder shall ye eat in a <sup>1</sup>clean place: thou, and thy sons, and thy <sup>2</sup>daughters with thee: for they are given as thy <sup>3</sup>duty and thy son's duty, of the peace offerings of the children of Israel.

15 The heave shoulder, and the shaken breast shall they bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to shake it to and fro before the Lord, and it shall be thine and thy sons with thee by a law forever, as the Lord hath commanded.

16 ¶ And Moses sought the goat that was offered for sin, and lo, it was burnt: therefore he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar the sons of Aaron, which were <sup>1</sup>left alive, saying,

17 Wherefore have ye not eaten the sin offering in the holy place, seeing it is most Holy? and God hath given it you, to bear the iniquity of the Congregation, to make an atonement for them before the Lord.

18 Behold, the blood of it was not brought within the holy place: ye should have eaten it in the holy place, <sup>c</sup>as I commanded.

19 And Aaron said unto Moses, Behold, this day <sup>1</sup>have they offered their sin offering, and their burnt offering before the Lord, and such things as 9:22 <sup>1</sup> Because the altar was near the Sanctuary, which was the upper end, therefore he is said to come down.

9:23 <sup>1</sup> Or prayed for the people.

9:24 <sup>1</sup> Or, gave a shout for joy.

10:1 <sup>1</sup> Not taken of the altar, which was sent from heaven, and endured till the captivity of Babylon.

10:3 <sup>1</sup> I will punish them that serve me otherwise than I have commanded, not sparing the chief, that the people may fear and praise my judgments.

10:4 <sup>1</sup> Or, cousins.

10:9 <sup>1</sup> Or, drink that maketh drunk.

10:11 <sup>1</sup> Or, commission.

10:14 <sup>1</sup> Or, where is no uncleanness.

<sup>2</sup> For the breast and shoulders of the peace offerings might be brought to their families, so that their daughters might eat of them, as also of the offerings of firstfruits, the firstborn, and the Easter lamb, Read Lev. 22:12,13.

10:16 <sup>1</sup> And not consumed as Nadab and Abihu.

10:19 <sup>1</sup> That is, Nadab and Abihu.

thou knowest are come unto me: If I had eaten the sin offering today, should it have been accepted in the sight of the Lord?

20 So when Moses heard it, he was <sup>1</sup>content.

11 1 Of beasts, fishes and birds, which be clean, and which be unclean.

1 After, the Lord spake to Moses and to Aaron, saying unto them,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say, <sup>a</sup>These are the beasts which ye <sup>1</sup>shall eat, among all the beasts that are on the earth.

3 Whatsoever parteth the <sup>1</sup>hoof, and is cloven footed, and cheweth the cud, among the beasts, that shall ye eat:

4 But of them that chew the cud, or divide the hoof only, of them ye shall not eat: as the camel, because he cheweth the cud, and divideth not the hoof, he shall be unclean unto you.

5 Likewise the coney, because he cheweth the cud, and divideth not the hoof, he shall be unclean to you.

6 Also the hare, because he cheweth the cud, and divideth not the hoof, he shall be unclean to you.

7 And the swine, because he parteth the hoof, and is cloven footed, but cheweth not the cud, he shall be unclean to you.

8 Of their <sup>1</sup>flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcass shall ye not touch: for they shall be unclean to you.

9 ¶ These shall ye eat, of all that are in the waters: whatsoever hath fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, or in the rivers, them shall ye eat.

10 But all that have not fins nor scales in the seas, or in the rivers, of all that <sup>1</sup>moveth in the waters, and of all <sup>2</sup>living things that are in the waters, they shall be an abomination unto you.

11 They, I say, shall be an abomination to you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, but shall abhor their carcass.

12 Whatsoever hath not fins nor scales in the waters, that shall be abomination unto you.

13 ¶ These shall ye have also in abomination among the fowls, they shall not be eaten, for they are an abomination, the eagle, and the <sup>1</sup>goshawk, and the osprey:

14 Also the vulture, and the kite after his kind,

15 Also the ravens after their kind:

16 The ostrich also, and the night-crow, and the <sup>1</sup>seamew, and the hawk after his kind.

17 The little owl also, and the cormorant, and the great owl:

18 Also the <sup>1</sup>redshank, and the pelican, and the swan:

19 The stork also, the heron after his kind, and the lapwing and the [bat]:

20 Also every fowl that creepeth and goeth upon all four, such shall be an abomination unto you.

21 Yet these shall ye eat: of every fowl that creepeth, and goeth upon all four which <sup>1</sup>have their feet and legs all of one to leap withal upon the earth.

22 Of them ye shall eat these, the grasshopper after his kind, and the <sup>1</sup>solean after his kind, the hargol after his kind, and the hagab after his kind.

23 But all other fowls that creep and have four feet, they shall be abomination unto you.

24 For by such ye shall be polluted: whosoever toucheth the carcass, shall be unclean unto the evening.

25 Whosoever also <sup>1</sup>beareth of their carcass, shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until even.

26 Every beast that hath claws divided, and is <sup>1</sup>not cloven footed, nor cheweth the cud, such shall be unclean unto you: everyone that toucheth them, shall be unclean.

27 And whatsoever goeth upon his paws among all manner beasts that goeth on all four, such shall be unclean unto you: who so doth touch their carcass, shall be unclean until the even.

28 And he that beareth their carcass, shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: for such shall be unclean unto you.

29 ¶ Also these shall be unclean to you among the things that creep and move upon the earth, the weasel, and the mouse, and the <sup>1,2</sup>frog, after his kind:

30 Also the rat, and the lizard, and the chameleon, and the stellio, and the mole.

31 These shall be unclean to you among all that

10:20 <sup>1</sup> Moses bare with his infirmity, considering his great sorrow, but doth not leave an example to forgive them that maliciously transgress the commandment of God.

11:2 <sup>1</sup> Or, whereof ye may eat.

11:3 <sup>1</sup> He noteth four sorts of beasts, some chew the cud only, and some have only the foot cleft: others neither chew the cud, nor have the hoof cleft: the fourth both chew the cud and have the hoof divided, which may be eaten.

11:8 <sup>1</sup> God would that hereby for a time they should be discerned as his people from the Gentiles.

11:10 <sup>1</sup> As little fish engendered of the slime.

11:13 <sup>1</sup> Or, gryphon, as it is in the Greek.

11:16 <sup>1</sup> Or, cuckoo.

11:18 <sup>1</sup> Or, porphyrio.

11:21 <sup>1</sup> Or, have no bowings on their feet.

11:22 <sup>1</sup> These were certain kinds of grasshoppers, which are not now properly known.

creep: whosoever doth touch them when they be dead, shall be unclean until the even.

32 Also whatsoever any of the dead carcasses of them doth fall upon, shall be unclean, whether it be vessel of wood, or raiment, or <sup>1</sup>skin, or sack: whatsoever vessel it be that is occupied, it shall be put in the water as unclean until the even, and so be purified.

33 But every earthen vessel, wherein any of them falleth, whatsoever is within it shall be unclean, and <sup>1</sup>ye shall break it.

34 All meat also that shall be eaten, if any such water come upon it, shall be unclean: and all drink that shall be drunk in all such vessels shall be unclean.

35 And everything that their carcass fall upon, shall be unclean: the furnace or the pot shall be broken: for they are unclean, and shall be unclean unto you.

36 Yet the fountains and wells where there is plenty of water shall be clean: but that which <sup>1</sup>toucheth their carcasses, shall be unclean.

37 And if there fall of the dead carcass upon any seed, which useth to be sown, it shall be unclean.

38 But if any <sup>1</sup>water be poured upon the seed, and there fall of the dead carcass thereon, it shall be unclean unto you.

39 If also any beast, whereof ye may eat, die, he that toucheth the carcass thereof, shall be unclean until the even.

40 And he that eateth of the carcass of it, shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: he also that beareth the carcass of it, shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

41 Every creeping thing therefore that creepeth upon the earth, shall be an abomination, and not be eaten.

42 Whatsoever goeth upon the breast, and whatsoever goeth upon all four, or that hath many feet among all creeping things that creep upon the earth, ye shall not eat of them, for they shall be abomination.

43 Ye shall not pollute yourselves with anything that creepeth, neither make yourselves unclean with them, neither defile yourselves thereby: ye shall not, I say, be defiled by them.

44 For I am the Lord your God: be sanctified therefore, and be <sup>1</sup>holy, for I am holy, and defile not yourselves with any creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

45 For I am the Lord that brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God, and that you should be holy, for I am holy.

46 This is the law of beasts, and of fowls, and of every living thing that moveth in the waters, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth:

47 That there may be a difference between the unclean and clean, and between the beast that may be eaten, and the beast that ought not to be eaten.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say, When a woman hath brought forth seed, and borne a man-child, she shall be unclean <sup>1</sup>seven days, like as she is unclean when she is put apart for her <sup>2a</sup>disease.

3 (<sup>b</sup>And in the eighth day the foreskin of the children's flesh shall be circumcised.)

4 And she shall continue in the blood of her purifying three <sup>1</sup>and thirty days: she shall touch no <sup>2</sup>hallowed thing, nor come into the <sup>3</sup>Sanctuary, until the time of her purifying be out.

5 But if she bear a maid-child, then she shall be unclean two <sup>1</sup>weeks, as when she hath her disease: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying threescore and six days.

6 Now when the days of her purifying are out (whether it be for a son or for a daughter) she shall bring to the Priest a lamb of one year old for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon or a turtledove for a sin offering, unto the door of the <sup>1</sup>Tabernacle of the Congregation,

7 Who shall offer it before the Lord, and make an atonement for her: so she shall be purged of the issue of her blood: this is the law for her that hath borne a male or female.

8 But if she <sup>1</sup>be not able to bring a lamb, she shall bring two <sup>1</sup>turtles, or two young pigeons: the one for a burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering: and the Priest shall make an atonement for her: so she shall be clean.

13 <sup>2</sup> What considerations the Priests ought to have in judging the leprosy. 29 the black spot, or scab. 47 and the leprosy of the garment.

1 Moreover the Lord spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying,

2 The man that shall have in the skin of his flesh a swelling or a scab, or a white spot, so that in the skin of his flesh <sup>1</sup>it be like the plague of leprosy, then 11:32 <sup>1</sup> As a bottle or bag.

11:36 <sup>1</sup> So much of the water as toucheth it.

11:38 <sup>1</sup> He speaketh of seed that is laid to sleep before it be sown.

11:44 <sup>1</sup> He showeth why God did choose them to be his people, 1 Pet. 1:15.

12:2 <sup>1</sup> So that her husband for that time could not resort to her.

12:5 <sup>1</sup> Twice so long as if she bare a man-child.

12:6 <sup>1</sup> Where the burnt offerings were wont to be offered.

he shall be brought unto Aaron the Priest, or unto one of his sons the Priests,

3 And the Priest shall look on the sore in the skin of his flesh: if the hair in the sore be turned into white, and the sore seen to be <sup>1</sup>lower than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy: therefore the Priest shall look on him, and <sup>2</sup>pronounce him unclean.

4 But if the white spot be in the skin of his flesh, and seem not to be lower than the skin, nor the hair thereof be turned unto white, then the Priest shall shut up him that hath the plague, seven days.

5 After, the Priest shall look upon him the seventh day: and if the plague seem <sup>1</sup>to him to abide still, and the plague grow not in the skin, the Priest shall shut him up yet seven days more.

6 Then the Priest shall look on him again the seventh day, and if the plague <sup>1</sup>be dark, and the sore grow not in the skin, then the Priest shall <sup>2</sup>pronounce him clean, for it is a scab: therefore he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

7 But if the scab grow more in the skin, after that he is seen of the Priest for to be purged, he shall be seen of the Priest yet again.

8 Then the Priest shall consider, and if the scab <sup>1</sup>grow in the skin, then the Priest shall pronounce him <sup>2</sup>unclean: for it is leprosy.

9 ¶ When the plague of leprosy is in a man, he shall be brought unto the Priest,

10 And the Priest shall see him: and if the swelling be white in the skin, and have made the hair white, and there be raw flesh in the swelling,

11 It is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh: and the Priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up, for he is unclean.

12 Also if the leprosy <sup>1</sup>break out in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of the plague, from his head even to his feet, wheresoever the Priest looketh, 13 Then the Priest shall consider: and if the leprosy cover all his flesh, he shall pronounce the plague to be <sup>1</sup>clean, because it is all turned into whiteness: so he shall be clean.

14 But if there be raw flesh on him when he is seen, he shall be unclean.

15 For the Priest shall see the raw flesh, and declare him to be unclean: for the raw flesh is <sup>1</sup>unclean, therefore it is the leprosy.

16 Or if the raw flesh change and be turned into white, then he shall come to the Priest,

17 And the Priest shall behold him: and if the sore be changed into white, then the Priest shall pronounce the plague clean, for it is clean.

18 ¶ The flesh also in whose skin there is <sup>1</sup>a boil, and is healed

19 And in the place of the boil there be a white swelling, or a white spot somewhat reddish, it shall be seen of the Priest.

20 And when the Priest seeth it, if it appear lower than the skin, and the hair thereof be changed into white, the Priest then shall pronounce him <sup>1</sup>unclean: for it is a plague of leprosy, broken out in the boil.

21 But if the Priest look on it, and there be no white hairs therein, and if it be not lower than the skin, but be darker, then the Priest shall shut him up seven days.

22 And if it spread abroad in the flesh, the Priest shall pronounce him unclean, for it is a sore.

23 But if the spot continue in his place, and grow not, it is a burning boil: therefore the Priest shall declare him to be clean.

24 ¶ If there be any flesh, in whose skin there is an hot burning, and the quick flesh of the burning have a <sup>1</sup>white spot, somewhat reddish or pale,

25 Then the Priest shall look upon it: and if the hair in that spot be changed into white, and it appear lower than the skin, it is a leprosy broken out in the burning: therefore the Priest shall pronounce him unclean: for it is the plague of leprosy.

26 But if the Priest look on it, and there be no white hair in the spot, and be no lower than the other skin, but be darker, then the Priest shall shut him up seven days.

27 After, the Priest shall look on him the seventh day: if it be grown abroad in the skin, then the Priest shall pronounce him unclean: for it is the plague of leprosy.

28 And if the spot abide in his place, not growing in the skin, but is dark, it is a <sup>1</sup>rising of the burning: the Priest shall therefore declare him clean: for it is the drying up of the burning.

29 ¶ If also a man or a woman hath a sore on the head or in the beard,

13:3 <sup>1</sup> That is, shrunken in, and be lower than the rest of the skin.

13:5 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, in his eyes.

13:8 <sup>1</sup> Or, be spread abroad.

<sup>2</sup> As touching his bodily disease: for his disease was not imputed to him for sin before God, though it were the punishment of sin.

13:12 <sup>1</sup> Or, bud.

13:13 <sup>1</sup> For it is not that contagious leprosy that infecteth, but a kind of scurvy, which hath not the flesh raw as the leprosy.

13:15 <sup>1</sup> That is, declareth that the flesh is not found, but is in danger to be leprous.

13:18 <sup>1</sup> Or, impostume.

13:20 <sup>1</sup> None were exempted, but if the Priest pronounced him unclean, he was put out from among the people: as appeareth by Mary the prophetess, Num. 12:14, and by king Uzziah, 2 Chron. 26:20.

13:24 <sup>1</sup> If he have a white spot in the place where the burning was, and was after healed.

13:28 <sup>1</sup> Or, swelling.

2 Kings 15:5

30 Then the Priest shall see the sore: and if it appears lower than the skin, and there be in it a small yellow <sup>1</sup>hair, then the Priest shall pronounce him unclean: for it is a black spot, and leprosy of the head or of the beard.

31 And if the Priest look on the sore of the black spot, and if it seem not lower than the skin, nor have any black hair in it, then the Priest shall shut up him that hath the sore of the black spot, seven days.

32 After, in the seventh day the Priest shall look on the sore: and if the black spot grow not, and there be in it no yellow hair, and the black spot seem not lower than the skin,

33 Then he shall be shaven, but the place of the black spot shall he not shave: but the Priest shall shut up him that hath black spot, seven days more.

34 And the seventh day the Priest shall look on the black spot: and if the black spot grow not in the skin, nor seem lower than the other skin, then the Priest shall cleanse him, and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

35 But if the black spot grow abroad in the flesh after his cleansing,

36 Then the Priest shall look on it, and if the black spot grow in the skin, the Priest shall not <sup>1</sup>seek for the yellow hair: for it is unclean.

37 But if the black spot seem to him to abide, and that black hair grow therein, the black spot is healed, he is clean, and the Priest shall declare him to be clean.

38 ¶ Furthermore if there be any white spots in the skin of the flesh of man or woman,

39 Then the Priest shall consider: and if the spots in the skin of their flesh be somewhat dark and white withal, it is but a white spot broken out in the skin: therefore he is clean.

40 And the man whose hair is fallen off his head, and is bald, is clean.

41 And if his head lose the <sup>1</sup>hair on the forehead, and be bald before, he is clean.

42 But if there be in the bald head, or in the bald forehead a white reddish sore, it is a leprosy springing in his bald head, or in his bald forehead.

43 Therefore the Priest shall look upon it, and if the rising of the sore be white reddish in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, appearing like leprosy in the skin of the flesh, 44 He is a leper and unclean: therefore the Priest shall pronounce him altogether unclean: for the sore is in his head.

45 The leper also in whom the plague is, shall have his clothes <sup>1</sup>rent, and his head bare, and shall put a covering upon his <sup>2</sup>lips, and shall cry, I am unclean, I am unclean.

46 As long as the disease shall be upon him, he shall be polluted, for he is unclean: he shall dwell alone, <sup>2</sup>without the camp shall his habitation be.

47 ¶ Also the garment that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it be a woollen garment or a linen garment,

48 Whether it be in the warp or in the woof of linen or of woollen, either in a skin, or in anything made of skin,

49 And if the sore be green or somewhat reddish in the garment or in the skin, or in the warp or in the woof, or in anything that is made of <sup>1</sup>skin, it is a plague of leprosy, and shall be showed unto the Priest.

50 Then the Priest shall see the plague, and shut up it that hath the plague, seven days,

51 And shall look on the plague the seventh day: if the plague grow in the garment or in the warp, or in the woof, or in the skin, or in anything that is made of skin, that plague is a fretting leprosy and unclean.

52 And he shall burn the garment, or the warp, or the woof, whether it be woollen or linen, or anything that is made of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosy, therefore it shall be burnt in the fire.

53 If the Priest yet see that the plague <sup>1</sup>grow not in the garment, or in the woof, or in whatsoever thing of skin it be,

54 Then the Priest shall command them to wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it up seven days more.

55 Again the Priest shall look on the plague, after it is washed: and if the plague have not changed his <sup>1</sup>color, though the plague spread no further, it is unclean: thou shalt burn it in the fire, for it is a fret inward, <sup>2</sup>whether the spot be in the bare place of the whole, or in part thereof.

56 And if the Priest see that the plague be darker, after that it is washed, he shall cut it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof.

57 And if it appear still in the garment or in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything made of skin, it is a spreading leprosy: thou shalt burn the thing wherein the plague is, in the fire.

13:30 <sup>1</sup> Which was not wont to be there, or else smaller than in any other part of the body.

13:36 <sup>1</sup> He shall not care whether the yellow hair be there or no.

13:41 <sup>1</sup> By sickness, or any other inconvenience.

13:45 <sup>1</sup> In sign of sorrow and lamentation.

13:49 <sup>1</sup> Whether it be garment, vessel, or instrument.

13:53 <sup>1</sup> But abide still in one place, as verse 37.

13:55 <sup>1</sup> But remain as it did before.

58 If thou hast washed the garment, or the warp, or the woof, or whatsoever thing of skin it be, if the plague be departed therefrom, then shall it be washed <sup>1</sup>the second time, and be clean.

59 This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of woolen or linen, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin, to make it clean or unclean.

14 <sup>1</sup>The cleansing of the leper, <sup>34</sup>And of the house that he is in.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 <sup>a</sup>This is the <sup>1</sup>law of the leper in the day of his cleansing: that is, he shall be brought unto the Priest,

3 And the Priest shall go out of the camp, and the Priest shall consider him: and if the plague of leprosy be healed in the leper,

4 Then shall the Priest command to take for him that is cleansed, two <sup>1</sup>sparrows alive and <sup>2</sup>clean, and cedarwood and a scarlet lace, and hyssop.

5 And the Priest shall command to kill one of the birds over <sup>1</sup>pure water in an earthen vessel.

6 After, he shall take the live sparrow with the cedarwood, and the scarlet lace, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living sparrow in the blood of the sparrow slain, over the pure water.

7 And he shall sprinkle upon him, that must be cleansed of his leprosy, seven times, and cleanse him, and shall <sup>1</sup>let go the live sparrow into the broad field.

8 Then he that shall be cleansed, shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water, so he shall be clean: after that shall he come into the host, and shall tarry without his tent seven days.

9 So in the seventh day he shall shave off all his hair both his head and his beard, and his eyebrows: even all his hair shall be shaven, and shall wash his clothes, and shall wash his flesh in water: so he shall be clean.

10 Then in the eighth day he shall take two he lambs without <sup>1</sup>blemish, and an ewe lamb of a year old without blemish, and three-tenth deals of fine flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, <sup>2</sup>and a pint of oil.

11 And the Priest that maketh him clean shall bring the man which is to be made clean, and those things, before the Lord, at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

12 Then the Priest shall take one lamb, and offer him for a trespass offering, and the pint of oil, and <sup>b</sup>shake them to and fro before the Lord.

13 And he shall kill the lamb in the place where the sin offering and the burnt offering are slain, even in the holy place: for as the <sup>1</sup>sin offering is the Priest's, so is the trespass offering: for it is most holy.

14 So the Priest shall take of the blood of the trespass offering, and put it upon the lap of the right ear of him that shall be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

15 The Priest shall also take of the pint of oil, and pour it into the palm of his left hand,

16 And the Priest shall dip his <sup>1</sup>right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven times before the Lord.

17 And of the rest of the oil that is in his hand, shall the Priest put upon the lap of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, <sup>1</sup>where the blood of the trespass offering was put.

18 But the remnant of the oil that is in the Priest's hand, he shall pour upon the head of him that is to be cleansed: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord.

19 And the Priest shall offer the burnt offering, and make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed of his uncleanness: then after shall he kill the burnt offering.

20 So the Priest shall offer the burnt offering and the meat offering upon the Altar: and the Priest shall make an atonement for him: so he shall be clean.

21 But if he be poor, and not <sup>1</sup>able, then he shall bring one lamb for a trespass offering to be shaken, for his reconciliation, and a <sup>2</sup>tenth deal of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat offering, with a pint of oil.

22 Also two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, as he is able, whereof the one shall be a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering,

23 And he shall bring them the eighth day for his cleansing unto the Priest at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lord.

24 Then the Priest shall take the lamb of the trespass offering, and the pint of oil, and the Priest shall <sup>1</sup>shake them to and fro before the Lord.

13:58 <sup>1</sup> To the intent he might be sure that the leprosy was departed, and that all occasion of infection might be taken away.

14:2 <sup>1</sup> Or, the ceremony which shall be used in his purgation.

14:24 <sup>1</sup> Or, shall offer them as the offering that is shaken to and fro.

25 And he shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering, and the Priest shall take of the blood of the trespass offering, and put it upon the lap of his right ear that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

26 Also the Priest shall pour of the oil into the palm of his own <sup>1</sup>left hand.

27 So the Priest shall with his right finger sprinkle of the oil that is in his left hand, seven times before the Lord.

28 Then the Priest shall put of the oil that is in his hand, upon the lap of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot: upon the place <sup>1</sup>of the blood of the trespass offering.

29 But the rest of the oil that is in the Priest's hand, he shall put upon the head of him that is to be cleansed, to make an atonement for him before the Lord.

30 Also he shall present one of the turtledoves, or of the young pigeons, <sup>1</sup>as he is able.

31 Such, I say, as he is able, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, <sup>1</sup>with the meat offering: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed before the Lord.

32 This is the <sup>1</sup>Law of him which hath the plague of leprosy, who is not able in his cleansing to offer the whole.

33 ¶ The Lord also spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying,

34 When ye be come unto the land of Canaan which I give you in possession, if I <sup>1</sup>send the plague of leprosy in an house of the land of your possession, 35 Then he that [owneth] the house shall come and tell the Priest, saying, Me think there is like a plague of leprosy in the house.

36 Then the Priest shall command them to empty the house before the Priest go into it to see the plague, that all that is in the house be not made unclean, and then shall the Priest go in to see the house.

37 And he shall mark the plague: and if the plague be in the walls of the house, and that there be <sup>1</sup>deep spots, greenish or reddish, which seem to be lower than the wall.

38 Then the Priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shall cause to shut up the house seven days.

39 So the Priest shall come again the seventh day: and if he see that the plague be increased in the walls of the house,

40 Then the Priest shall command them to take away the stones wherein the plague is, and they shall cast them into a <sup>1</sup>foul place without the city.

41 Also he shall cause to scrape the house within round about, and pour the dust, that they have pared off, without the city in <sup>1</sup>an unclean place.

42 And they shall take other stones, and put them in the places of those stones, and shall take other mortar, to plaster the house with.

43 But if the plague come again and break out in the house, after that he hath taken away the stones, and after that he hath scraped and plastered the house,

44 Then the Priest shall come and see: and if the plague grow in the house, it is a fretting leprosy in the house: it is therefore unclean.

45 And he shall <sup>1</sup>break down the house, with the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the <sup>2</sup>mortar of the house, and he shall carry them out of the city unto an unclean place.

46 Moreover he that goeth into the house all the while that it is shut up, he shall be unclean until the even.

47 He also that sleepeth in the house shall wash his clothes: he likewise that eateth in the house, shall wash his clothes.

48 But if the Priest shall come and see, that the plague hath spread no further in the house, after the house be plastered, the Priest shall pronounce the house clean, for the plague is healed.

49 Then shall he take to purify the house, two sparrows, and cedarwood, and <sup>1</sup>scarlet lace, and hyssop.

50 And he shall kill one sparrow over pure water in an earthen vessel,

51 And shall take the cedarwood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet lace with the live Sparrow, and dip them in the blood of the slain Sparrow, and in the pure water, and sprinkle the house seven times:

52 So shall he cleanse the house with the blood of the sparrow, and with the pure water, and with the live sparrow, and with the cedarwood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet lace.

14:26 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, into the palm of the Priest's left hand.

14:28 <sup>1</sup> Or, where the blood of the trespass offering was put, as verse 17.

14:30 <sup>1</sup> Whether of them he can get.

14:31 <sup>1</sup> Or, besides the meat offering.

14:32 <sup>1</sup> This order is appointed for the poor man.

14:34 <sup>1</sup> This declareth that no plague nor punishment cometh to man without God's providence and his sending.

14:37 <sup>1</sup> Or, blackness, or hollow streaks.

14:40 <sup>1</sup> Or, polluted.

14:41 <sup>1</sup> Where carrions were cast, and other filth, that the people might not be therewith infected.

14:45 <sup>1</sup> That is, he shall command it to be pulled down, as verse 40.

14:49 <sup>1</sup> It seemeth that this was a lace or string to bind the hyssop to the wood, and so was made a sprinkle: the Apostle to the Hebrews calleth it scarlet wool, Heb. 9:19.

53 Afterward he shall let go the live sparrow out of the <sup>1</sup>town into the <sup>2</sup>broad fields: so shall he make atonement for the house, and it shall be clean.

54 This is the law for every plague of leprosy and <sup>4</sup>black spot,

55 And of the leprosy of the garment, and of the house,

56 And of the <sup>1</sup>swelling, and of the scab, and of the white spot.

57 This is the law of the leprosy, to teach <sup>1</sup>when a thing is unclean, and when it is clean.

3 And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue, when his flesh avoideth his issue, or if his flesh be stopped from his issue, this is <sup>1</sup>his uncleanness.

4 Every bed whereon he lieth that hath the issue, shall be unclean, and everything whereon he sitteth, shall be unclean.

5 Whosoever also toucheth his bed, shall wash his clothes, and wash himself in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

6 And he that sitteth on any thing, whereon he sat that hath the issue, shall wash his clothes, and wash himself in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

7 Also he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue, shall wash his clothes, and wash himself in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

8 If he also that hath the issue, spit upon him that is clean, <sup>1</sup>he shall wash his clothes, and wash himself in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

9 And what <sup>1</sup>saddle soever he rideth upon, that hath the issue, shall be unclean,

11 Likewise whomsoever he toucheth that hath the issue (and hath not washed his hands in water) shall wash his clothes, and wash himself in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

12 <sup>a</sup>And the vessel of earth that he toucheth, which hath the issue, shall be broken: and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

13 But if he that hath an issue, be <sup>1</sup>cleansed of his issue, then shall he count him seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in pure water: so shall he be clean.

14 Then the eighth day he shall take unto him two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and come before the Lord at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and shall give them unto the Priest,

15 And the Priest shall make of the one of them a sin offering, and of the other a burnt offering: so the Priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord for his issue.

16 Also if any man's issue of seed depart from him, he shall wash all his <sup>1</sup>flesh in water, and be unclean until the even.

17 And every garment, and every skin whereupon shall be issue of seed, shall be even washed with water, and be unclean unto the even.

18 If he that hath an issue of seed do lie with a woman, they shall both wash themselves with water, and be unclean until the even.

25 Also when a woman's issue of blood runneth long time besides the time of her <sup>1</sup>flowers, or when she hath an issue longer than her flowers, all the days of the issue of her uncleanness she shall be unclean, as in the time of her flowers.

26 Every bed whereon she lieth (as long as her issue lasteth) shall be to her as the <sup>1</sup>bed of her separation: and whatsoever she sitteth upon, shall be unclean, as her uncleanness when she is put apart.

27 And whosoever toucheth these things, shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and wash himself in water, and shall be unclean unto the even.

31 Thus shall ye <sup>1</sup>separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness, that they die not in their uncleanness, if they defile my Tabernacle that is among them.

32 This is the law of him that hath an issue, and of him from whom goeth an issue of seed whereby he is defiled:

Aaron thy brother, <sup>b</sup>that he come not at <sup>1</sup>all times into the holy place within the veil, before the Mercy seat, which is upon the Ark, that he die not, for I will appear in the cloud upon the Mercy seat.

3 After this sort shall Aaron come into the Holy place: even with a young bullock for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering.

4 He shall put on the holy linen coat, and shall have linen breeches upon his <sup>1</sup>flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and shall cover his head with a linen miter, these are the holy garments: therefore shall he wash his flesh in water, when he doth put them on.

5 And he shall take of the Congregation of the children of Israel, two he goats for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering.

6 Then Aaron shall offer the bullock for his sin offering, <sup>c</sup>and make an atonement for himself, and for his house.

7 And he shall take the two he goats, and present them before the Lord at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

8 Then Aaron shall cast lots over the two he goats: one lot for the Lord, and the other for the <sup>1</sup>Scapegoat.

9 And Aaron shall offer the goat, upon which the Lord's lot shall fall, and make him a sin offering.

10 But the goat, on which the lot shall fall to be the Scapegoat, shall be presented alive before the Lord, to make reconciliation by him, and to let him go (as a Scapegoat) into the wilderness.

11 Thus Aaron shall offer the bullock for his sin offering, and make a reconciliation for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock for his sin offering.

12 And he shall take a censer full of burning coals from off the altar before the Lord, and his hand full of sweet incense beaten small, and bring it within the <sup>1</sup>veil, 13 And shall put the incense upon the fire before the Lord, that the <sup>1</sup>cloud of the incense may cover the Mercy seat that is upon <sup>2</sup>the Testimony: so he shall not die.

15 ¶ Then shall he kill the goat that is the people's sin offering, and bring his blood within the veil and do with that blood, as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the Mercy seat, and before the Mercy seat.

16 So he shall purge the Holy place from the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and from their trespasses of all their sins: so shall he do also for the Tabernacle of the Congregation <sup>1</sup>placed with them, in the midst of their uncleanness.

17 <sup>f</sup>And there shall be no man in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, when he goeth in to make an atonement in the Holy place, until he come out, and have made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the Congregation of Israel.

18 After, he shall go out unto the <sup>1</sup>altar that is before the Lord, and make a reconciliation upon it, and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the Altar round about.

19 So shall he sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and hallow it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.

20 ¶ When he hath made an end of purging the Holy place, and the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the Altar, then he shall bring the live goat:

22 So the goat shall bear upon him all their iniquities into <sup>1</sup>the land that is not inhabited, and he shall let the goat go into the wilderness.

23 After, Aaron shall come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and put off the linen clothes, which he put on when he went into the Holy place, and leave them there.

24 He shall wash also his flesh with water in <sup>1</sup>the holy place, and put on his own raiment, and come out, and make his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, and make an atonement for himself, and for the people.

28 And he that burneth them shall wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in water, and afterward come into the host.

29 ¶ So this shall be an ordinance forever unto you: the tenth day of the <sup>1</sup>seventh month, ye shall <sup>2</sup>humble your souls, and do no work at all, whether it be one of the same country, or a stranger that sojourneth among you.

30 For that <sup>h</sup>day shall the Priest make an atonement for you to cleanse you: ye shall be clean from all your sins before the Lord.

31 This shall be a <sup>1</sup>Sabbath of rest unto you, and you shall humble your souls by an ordinance forever.

32 And the Priest <sup>1</sup>whom he shall anoint, and whom he shall consecrate (to minister in his father's stead) shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen clothes and holy vestments, 33 And shall purge the holy Sanctuary and the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and shall cleanse the altar, and make an atonement for the Priests and for all the people of the Congregation.

16 <sup>e</sup>Thou shalt not discover the shame of thy <sup>1</sup>brother's wife: for it is thy brother's shame.

17 Thou shalt not discover the shame of the wife and of her daughter, neither shalt thou take her son's daughter, nor her daughter's daughter, to uncover her shame: for they are thy kinsfolks, and it were wickedness.

18 Also thou shalt not take a wife with her sister, during her life to <sup>1</sup>vex her, in uncovering her shame upon her.

19 <sup>f</sup>Thou shalt not also go unto a woman to uncover her shame, as long as she is put <sup>1</sup>apart for her disease.

28 And shall not the land spew you out if ye defile it, as it <sup>1</sup>spewed out the people that were before you?)

29 For whosoever shall commit any of these abominations, the persons that do so, shall <sup>1</sup>be cut off from among their people.

30 Therefore shall ye keep mine ordinances, that ye do not any of the abominable customs, which have been done before you, and that ye defile not yourselves therein: for I am the Lord your God.

3 ¶ Ye shall fear every man his mother and his father, and shall keep my Sabbath: for I am the Lord your God.

4 ¶ Ye shall not turn unto idols, nor make you molten gods: I am the Lord your God.

5 ¶ And when ye shall offer a peace offering unto the Lord, ye shall offer it <sup>1</sup>freely.

6 <sup>b</sup>It shall be eaten the day ye offer it, or on the morrow: and that which remaineth until the third day, shall be burnt in the fire.

10 There shall no <sup>1</sup>stranger also eat of the holy thing, neither <sup>2</sup>the guest of the Priest, neither shall an hired servant eat of the holy thing:

13 Notwithstanding if the Priest's daughter be a widow or divorced, and have no child, but is returned unto her father's house, she shall eat of her father's bread, as she did in her <sup>c</sup>youth: but there shall no stranger eat thereof.

14 ¶ If a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly, he shall put the <sup>1</sup>fifth part thereunto, and give it unto the Priest with the hallowed thing.

17 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

18 Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say unto them, Whosoever he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, that will offer his sacrifice for all their vows, and for all their free offerings, which they use to offer unto the Lord for a burnt offering,

19 Ye shall offer of your free mind a male without blemish of the beeves, of the sheep, or of the goats.

20 Ye shall not offer anything that hath a blemish: for that shall not be acceptable for you.

21 <sup>d</sup>And whosoever bringeth a peace offering unto the Lord to accomplish his vow, or for a free offering of the beeves, or of the sheep, his free offering shall be perfect, no blemish shall be in it.

22 Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a <sup>1</sup>wen, or scurvy, or scabbed: these shall ye not offer unto the Lord, nor make an offering by fire of these upon the Altar of the Lord.

23 Yet a bullock, or a sheep that hath any <sup>e</sup>member superfluous, or lacking, such mayest thou present for a free offering, but for a vow it shall not be accepted.

24 Ye shall not offer unto the Lord that which is bruised or crushed, or broken, or cut away, neither shall ye make an offering thereof in your land,

13 Then the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

14 Bring the blasphemer without the host, and let all that heard him, <sup>1</sup>put their hands upon his head, and let all the Congregation stone him.

15 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoever curseth his God, shall <sup>1</sup>bear his sin.

3 <sup>1</sup>Six years thou shalt sow thy field, and six years thou shalt cut thy vineyard, and gather the fruit thereof.

4 But the seventh year shall be a Sabbath of rest unto the land: it shall be the Lord's Sabbath: thou shalt neither sow thy field nor cut thy vineyard.

5 That which growth of its <sup>1</sup>own accord of thy harvest, thou shalt not reap, neither gather the grapes that thou hast left <sup>2</sup>unlabored: for it shall be a year of rest unto the land.

6 And the <sup>1</sup>rest of the land shall be meat for you, even for thee and for thy servant, and for thy maid, and for thy hired servant, and for the stranger that sojourneth with thee:

7 And for thy cattle, and for the beasts that are in thy land, shall all the increase thereof be meat.

8 ¶ Also thou shalt number seven <sup>1</sup>Sabbaths of years unto thee, even seven times seven years: and the space of the seven Sabbaths of years will be unto thee nine and forty years.

9 <sup>1</sup>Then thou shalt cause to blow the trumpet of the Jubilee in the tenth day of the seventh month: even in the day of the reconciliation shall ye make the trumpet blow throughout all your land.

10 And ye shall hallow that year, even the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty in the land to all the <sup>1</sup>inhabitants thereof: it shall be the Jubilee unto you, and ye shall return every man unto his <sup>2</sup>possession, and every man shall return unto his family.

11 This fiftieth year shall be a year of Jubilee unto you: ye shall not sow, neither reap that which growth of itself, neither gather the grapes thereof that are left unlabored.

12 For it is the Jubilee, it shall be holy unto you: ye shall eat of the increase thereof out of the field.

13 In the year of this Jubilee, ye shall return every man unto his possession.

14 And when thou sellest ought to thy neighbor, or buyest at thy neighbor's hand, ye shall <sup>1</sup>not oppress one another.

15 But according to the number of <sup>1</sup>years after the Jubilee, thou shalt buy of thy neighbor: also according to the number of the years of the revenues, he shall sell unto thee.

16 According to the multitude of years, thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt abate the price of it: for the number of <sup>1</sup>fruits doth he sell unto thee.

17 Oppress not ye therefore any man his neighbor, but thou shalt fear thy God: for I am the Lord your God.

18 ¶ Wherefore ye shall obey mine ordinances, and keep my laws, and do them, and ye shall dwell in the land <sup>1</sup>in safety.

19 And the land shall give her fruit, and ye shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety.

20 And if ye shall say, What shall we eat the seventh year, for we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase?

21 I will <sup>1</sup>send my blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years.

22 And ye shall sow the eighth year, and eat of the old fruit until the ninth year: until the fruit thereof come ye shall eat the old.

23 ¶ Also the land shall not be sold to be <sup>1</sup>cut off from the family: for the land is mine, and ye be but strangers and sojourners with me.

24 Therefore in all the land of your possession ye shall <sup>1</sup>grant a redemption of the land.

30 But if it be not bought out within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city, shall be stablished, <sup>1</sup>as cut off from the family, to him that bought it, throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the Jubilee.

31 But the houses of villages which have no walls round about them, shall be esteemed as the field of the country: they may be bought out again, and shall <sup>1</sup>go out in the Jubilee.

43 <sup>d</sup>Thou shalt not rule over him cruelly, but shalt fear thy God.

44 Thy bond servant also, and thy bondmaid, which thou shalt have, shall be of the heathen that are round about you: of them shall ye buy servants and maids.

45 And moreover, of the children of the strangers that are sojourners among you, of them shall ye buy, and of their families that are with you which they begat in your land: these shall be your <sup>1</sup>possession.

46 So ye shall take them, as inheritance for your children after you to possess them by inheritance, ye shall use their labors forever: but over your brethren the children of Israel ye shall not rule one over another with cruelty.

47 ¶ If a sojourner or a stranger dwelling by thee <sup>1</sup>get riches, and thy brother by him be impoverished, and sell himself unto the stranger or sojourner dwelling by thee, or to the stock of the stranger's family,

48 After that he is sold, he may be bought out: one of his brethren may buy him out.

49 Or his uncle, or his uncle's son may buy him out, or any of the kindred of his flesh among his family, may redeem him: either if he can <sup>1</sup>get so much, he may buy himself out.

50 Then he shall reckon with his buyer from the year that he was sold to him, unto the year of Jubilee: and the money of his sale shall be according to the number of <sup>1</sup>years: according to the time of an hired servant shall he be with him.

51 If there be many years behind, according to them shall he give again for his deliverance, of the money that he was bought for.

52 If there remain but few years unto the year of Jubilee, then he shall count with him, and according to his years give again for his redemption.

53 He shall be with him year by year as an hired servant: he shall not rule cruelly over him in thy <sup>1</sup>sight.

54 And if he be not redeemed thus, he shall go out in the year of Jubilee, he, and his children with him.

55 For unto me the children of Israel are servants, they are my servants whom I have brought out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

45 But I will remember for them the <sup>1</sup>Covenant of old, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God: I am the Lord.

46 These are the Ordinances, and the Judgments, and the Laws, which the Lord made between him, and the children of Israel, in mount <sup>1</sup>Sinai by the hand of Moses.

27 <sup>2</sup> Of divers vows, and the redemption of the same. 28 A thing separate from the use of man, cannot be sold nor redeemed, but remained to the Lord.

1 Moreover, the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man shall make a vow of <sup>1</sup>a person unto the Lord, by <sup>2</sup>thy estimation,

3 Then thy estimation shall be thus: a male from twenty years old unto sixty years old shall be by thy estimation even fifty <sup>1</sup>shekels of silver, after the shekel of the Sanctuary.

4 But if it be a female, then thy valuation shall be thirty shekels.

5 And from five years old to twenty years old, thy valuation shall be for the male twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

6 But from a <sup>1</sup>month old unto five years old, thy price of the male shall be five shekels of silver, and thy price of the female, three shekels of silver.

7 And from sixty years old and above, if he be a male, then thy price shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

8 But if he be poorer <sup>1</sup>than thou hast esteemed him, then shall he present himself before the Priest, and the Priest shall value him, according to the ability of him that vowed, so shall the Priest value him.

9 And if it be a <sup>1</sup>beast, whereof men bring an

10 He shall not alter it nor change it, a good for a bad, nor a bad for a good: and if he change beast for beast, then both this and that, which was changed for it, shall be <sup>1</sup>holy.

11 And if it be any unclean beast, of which men do not offer a sacrifice unto the Lord, he shall then present the beast before the Priest.

12 And the Priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: and as thou valuest it, which art the Priest, so shall it be.

13 But if he will buy it again, then he shall give the fifth part of it more above thy valuation.

14 ¶ Also when a man shall dedicate his house to be holy unto the Lord, then the Priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad, and as the Priest shall price it, <sup>1</sup>so shall the value be.

15 But if he that sanctified it, will redeem his house, then he shall give thereto the fifth part of money more than thy estimation, and it shall be his.

16 If also a man dedicate to the Lord any ground of his inheritance, then shalt thou esteem it according to the <sup>1</sup>seed thereof, an <sup>2</sup>Homer of barley seed shall be at fifty shekels of silver.

THE FOURTH BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED <sup>1</sup>NUMBERS

1 The Lord spake again unto Moses in the wilderness of <sup>1</sup> Sinai, in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, in the first day of the <sup>2</sup> second month, in the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 <sup>a</sup> Take ye the sum of all the Congregation of the children of Israel, after their families and households of their fathers, with the number of their names: to wit, all the males, <sup>1</sup> man by man:

3 From twenty years old and above, all that go forth to the war in Israel: thou and Aaron shall number them throughout their armies.

4 And with you shall be <sup>1</sup> men of every tribe, such as are the heads of the house of their fathers.

5 And these are the names of the men that shall <sup>1</sup> stand with you, of the tribe of Reuben, Elizur, the son of Shedeur:

6 Of Simeon, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai:

7 Of Judah, Nahshon the son of Amminadab:

8 Of Issachar, Nethanel the son of Zuar:

9 Of Zebulun, Eliab, the son of Helon:

10 Of the children of Joseph: of Ephraim, Elishama the son of Amihud: of Manasseh, Gamaliel, the son of Pedahzur:

11 Of Benjamin, Abidan the son of Gideoni:

12 Of Dan, Ahiezer, the son of Ammishaddai:

13 Of Asher, Pagiel, the son of Ocran:

14 Of Gad, Eliasaph the son of Deuel:

15 Of Naphtali, Ahira the son of Enan.

16 These were famous in the Congregation, <sup>1</sup> princes of the tribes of their fathers, and heads over thousands in Israel.

17 ¶ Then Moses and Aaron took these men which are expressed by their names.

18 And they called all the Congregation together in the first day of the second month, who declared <sup>1</sup> their kindred by their families, and by the houses of their fathers according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, man by man.

19 As the Lord had commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

20 So were the sons of <sup>1</sup> Reuben Israel's eldest son by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers according to the number of their names, man by man, every male from twenty years old and above, as many as <sup>2</sup> went forth to war:

21 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Reuben, was six and forty thousand, and five hundred.

22 Of the sons of Simeon by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, the sum thereof by the number of their names, man by man, every male from twenty years old, and above, all that went forth to war:

23 The sum of them, I say, of the tribe of Simeon was nine and fifty thousand and three hundred.

24 ¶ Of the sons of Gad by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

25 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Gad was five and forty thousand, and six hundred and fifty.

26 ¶ Of the sons of Judah by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

27 The number of them, I say, of the tribe of Judah, was three score and fourteen thousand, and six hundred.

28 ¶ Of the sons of Issachar by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

29 The number of them also of the tribe of Issachar was four and fifty thousand, and four hundred.

30 ¶ Of the sons of Zebulun by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above: all that went forth to war:

31 The number of them also of the tribe of Zebulun was seven and fifty thousand and four hundred.

32 ¶ Of the sons of Joseph, namely of the sons of Ephraim by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

33 The number of them also of the tribe of Ephraim was forty thousand and five hundred.

34 ¶ Of the sons of Manasseh by their generations, by their families and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

35 The number of them also of the tribe of Manasseh was two and thirty thousand and two hundred.

36 Of the sons of Benjamin by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

37 The number of them also of the tribe of Benjamin was five and thirty thousand and four hundred.

38 Of the sons of Dan by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

39 The number of them also of the tribe of Dan was three score and two thousand, and seven hundred.

40 ¶ Of the sons of Asher by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went forth to war:

41 The number of them also of the tribe of Asher was one and forty thousand and five hundred.

42 ¶ Of the children of Naphtali, by their generations, by their families, and by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of their names, from twenty years old and above, all that went to the war:

43 The number of them also of the tribe of Naphtali was three and fifty thousand, and four hundred.

44 These are the <sup>1</sup>sums which Moses, and Aaron numbered, and the Princes of Israel, the twelve men which were every one for the house of their fathers.

45 So this was all the sum of the sons of Israel, by the houses of their fathers, from twenty years old and above, all that went to the war in Israel.

46 And all they were in number six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.

47 But the Levites, after the tribes of their fathers were not numbered among <sup>1</sup>them.

48 For the Lord had spoken unto Moses, and said,

49 Only thou shalt not number the tribe of Levi, neither take the sum of them among the children of Israel.

50 But thou shalt appoint the Levites over the Tabernacle of the Testimony, and over all the instruments thereof, and over all things that belong to it: they shall bear the Tabernacle, and all the instruments thereof, and shall minister in it, and shall <sup>1</sup>dwell round about the Tabernacle.

51 And when the Tabernacle goeth forth, the Levites shall take it down: and when the Tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up: for the <sup>1</sup>stranger that cometh near, shall be slain.

52 Also the children of Israel shall pitch their tents every man in his camp, and every man under his standard throughout their armies.

53 But the Levites shall pitch round about the Tabernacle of the Testimony, lest vengeance <sup>1</sup>come upon the Congregation of the children of Israel, and the Levites shall take the charge of the Tabernacle of the Testimony.

54 So the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord had commanded Moses: so did they.

2 <sup>2</sup> The order of the tents, and the names of the Captains of the Israelites.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, and to Aaron, saying,

2 <sup>1</sup>Every man of the children of Israel shall camp by his standard, and under the ensign of their father's house: far off, about the Tabernacle of the Congregation shall they pitch.

3 On the East side toward the rising of the sun, shall they of the standard of the host of Judah pitch according to their armies: and Nahshon the son of Amminadab shall be <sup>1</sup>captain of the sons of Judah.

4 And his host and the number of them were seventy and four thousand and six hundred.

1:51 <sup>1</sup> Whosoever is not of the tribe of Levi.

1:53 <sup>1</sup> By not having due regard to the Tabernacle of the Lord.

2:2 <sup>1</sup> In the twelve tribes were four principle standards, so that every three tribes had their standard.

2:3 <sup>1</sup> Or, prince.

5 Next unto him shall they of the tribe <sup>1</sup>of Issachar pitch, and Nethanel the son of Zuar shall be the captain of the sons of Issachar:

6 And his host and the number thereof were four and fifty thousand, and four hundred.

7 Then the tribe of Zebulun, and Eliab the son of Helon captain over the sons of Zebulun:

8 And his host and the number thereof seven and fifty thousand and four hundred:

9 The whole number of the <sup>1</sup>host of Judah are an hundred fourscore and six thousand, and four hundred according to their armies: they shall first set forth.

10 ¶ On the South side shall be the standard of the host <sup>1</sup>of Reuben according to their armies: and the captain over the sons of Reuben shall be Elizur the son of Shedeur.

11 And his host and the number thereof, six and forty thousand and five hundred.

12 And by him shall the tribe of Simeon pitch, and the captain over the sons of Simeon shall be Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai:

13 And his host, and the number of them, nine and fifty thousand and three hundred.

14 And the tribe of Gad, and the captain over the sons of Gad shall be Eliasaph the son of <sup>1</sup>Deuel:

15 And his host and the number of them were five and forty thousand, six hundred and fifty.

16 All the number of the camp of Reuben were an hundred and one and fifty thousand, and four hundred and fifty according to their armies, and they shall set forth in the second place.

17 ¶ Then the Tabernacle of the Congregation shall go with the host of the Levites, in the <sup>1</sup>midst of the camp as they have pitched, so shall they go forward, every man in his order, according to their standards.

18 ¶ The standard of the camp of Ephraim shall be toward the West according to their armies: and the captain over the sons of Ephraim shall be Elishama the son of Ammihud:

19 And his host and the number of them were forty thousand and five hundred.

20 And by him shall be the tribe of Manasseh and the captain over the sons of Manasseh, shall be Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur:

21 And his host and the number of them were two and thirty thousand and two hundred.

22 And the tribe of Benjamin, and the captain over the sons of Benjamin shall be Abidan, the son of Gideon:

23 And his host, and the number of them were five and thirty thousand and four hundred.

24 All the number of the camp of Ephraim were an hundred and eight thousand and one hundred according to their armies, and they shall go in the third place.

25 ¶ The standard of the host of <sup>1</sup>Dan shall be toward the North according to their armies: and the captain over the children of Dan shall be Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai:

26 And his host and the number of them were two and threescore thousand and seven hundred.

27 And by him shall the tribe of Asher pitch, and the captain over the sons of Asher shall be Pagiel the son of Ocran.

28 And his host and the number of them were one and forty thousand, and five hundred.

29 ¶ Then the tribe of Naphtali, and the captain over the children of Naphtali shall be Ahira the son of Enan:

30 And his host and the number of them were three and fifty thousand and four hundred.

31 All the number of the host of Dan was an hundred and seven and fifty thousand and six hundred: they shall go hindmost with their standards.

32 ¶ These are the <sup>1</sup>sums of the children of Israel by the houses of their fathers, all the number of the host, according to their armies, six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty.

33 But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

34 And the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord had commanded Moses: so they pitched according to their <sup>1</sup>standards, and so they journeyed every one with his families, according to the houses of their fathers.

1 These also were the <sup>1</sup>generations of Aaron and

2:5 <sup>1</sup> Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun the sons of Leah were of the first standard.

2:9 <sup>1</sup> Of them which were contained under that name.

2:10 <sup>1</sup> Reuben and Simeon, the sons of Leah, and Gad the son of Zilpah her maid, were of the second standard.

2:14 <sup>1</sup> Or, Reuel.

2:17 <sup>1</sup> Because it might be in equal distance from each one, and all indifferently have recourse thereunto.

2:18 <sup>1</sup> Because Ephraim and Manasseh supplied the place of Joseph their father, they are taken to be Rachel's children, so they and Benjamin make the third standard.

2:25 <sup>1</sup> Dan and Naphtali the sons of Bilhah Rachel's maid with Asher the son of Zilpah make the fourth standard.

2:32 <sup>1</sup> Which were of twenty years and above.

2:34 <sup>1</sup> For under every one of the four principal standards were divers signs to keep every band.

3:1 <sup>1</sup> Or, families and kindreds.

Moses, in the day that the Lord spake with Moses in mount Sinai.

2 So these are the names of the sons of Aaron, <sup>a</sup>Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron the anointed Priests, whom Moses did <sup>b</sup>consecrate to minister in the Priest's office.

4 <sup>c</sup>And Nadab and Abihu died <sup>1</sup>before the Lord, when they offered <sup>d</sup>strange fire before the Lord in the wilderness of Sinai, and had no children: but Eleazar and Ithamar served in the Priest's office in the <sup>2</sup>sight of Aaron their father.

5 Then the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Bring the tribe of Levi, and <sup>1</sup>set them before Aaron the Priest that they may serve him,

7 And take the charge with him, even the charge of the whole Congregation, <sup>1</sup>before the Tabernacle of the Congregation to do the service of the Tabernacle.

8 They shall also keep all the instruments of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and have the charge of the children of Israel to do the service of the Tabernacle.

9 And thou shalt give the Levites unto Aaron and to his <sup>1</sup>sons: for they are given him freely from among the children of Israel.

10 And thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sons to execute their Priest's office: and the <sup>1</sup>stranger that cometh near, shall be slain.

11 ¶ Also the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

12 Behold, I have even taken the Levites from among the children of Israel: for all the firstborn that openeth the matrice among the children of Israel, and the Levites shall be mine,

13 Because all the firstborn are mine: for the same day, that I smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, <sup>1</sup>I sanctified unto me all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast: mine they shall be: I am the Lord.

14 ¶ Moreover, the Lord spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying, 15 Number the children of Levi after the houses of their fathers, in their families: every male from a month old and above shalt thou number.

16 Then Moses numbered them according to the word of the Lord, as he was commanded.

17 And these were the sons of Levi by their names,

21 Of Gershon came the family of the Libnites and the family of the Shimites: these are the families of the Gershonites.

22 The sum whereof (<sup>1</sup>after the number of all the males from a month old and above) was counted seven thousand and five hundred.

23 ¶ The families of the Gershonites shall pitch behind the Tabernacle Westward.

24 The captain and <sup>1</sup>ancient of the house of the Gershonites shall be Eliasaph the son of Lael.

34 And the sum of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and above was six thousand and two hundred.

35 The captain and the ancient of the house of the families of Merari shall be Zurriel the son of Abihail: they shall pitch on the Northside of the Tabernacle.

36 And in the charge and custody of the sons of Merari shall be <sup>1</sup>the boards of the Tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and his pillars, and his sockets, and all the instruments thereof, and all that serveth thereto,

39 The whole sum of the Levites, which Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the Lord throughout their families, even all the males from a month old and above, was two and twenty <sup>1</sup>thousand.

40 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Number all the firstborn that are males among the children of Israel from a month old and above, and take the number of their names.

41 And thou shalt take the Levites to me <sup>1</sup>for all the firstborn of the children of Israel (I am the Lord) and the cattle of the Levites for all the firstborn of the cattle of the children of Israel.

43 And all the firstborn males rehearsed by name (from a month old and above) according to their number were two and twenty thousand, two hundred seventy and three.

47 Thou shalt also take five shekels for every person: after the weight of the Sanctuary shalt thou take it: <sup>8</sup>the shekel containeth twenty gerahs.

48 And thou shalt give the money, wherewith the odd number of them is redeemed, unto Aaron and to his sons.

49 Thus Moses took the redemption of them that were redeemed, being more than the Levites:

50 Of the <sup>1</sup>firstborn of the children of Israel took he the money: even a thousand three hundred three score and five shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary.

51 And Moses gave the money of them that were redeemed, unto Aaron and to his sons according to the word of the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

4 <sup>5</sup>The offices of the Levites, when the host removed. <sup>6</sup>The number of the three families of Kohath, Gershon, and Merari.

3 From <sup>1</sup>thirty years old and above, even until fifty years old all that enter into the assembly to do the work in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

4 This shall be the office of the sons of Kohath in the Tabernacle of the Congregation about the holiest of all.

5 ¶ When the host removeth, then Aaron and his sons shall come and take down <sup>1</sup>the covering veil, and shall cover the Ark of the Testimony therewith.

6 And they shall put thereon a covering of badger's skins, and shall spread upon it a cloth altogether of blue silk, and put to <sup>1</sup>the bars thereof:

7 And upon the <sup>4</sup>table of show bread, they shall spread a cloth of blue silk, and put thereon the dishes, and the incense cups and goblets, and coverings to cover it <sup>1</sup>with, and the bread shall be thereon continually.

8 And they shall spread upon them a covering of scarlet, and cover the same with a covering of badger's skins, and put to the bars thereof.

9 Then they shall take a cloth of blue silk, and cover the <sup>6</sup>candlestick of light with his lamps, and his

3:36 <sup>1</sup>The woodwork and the rest of the instruments were committed to their charge.

3:38 <sup>1</sup>That none should enter into the Tabernacle contrary to God's appointment.

3:39 <sup>1</sup>So that the firstborn of the children of Israel were more by 273, as verse 43.

3:41 <sup>1</sup>So that now the Levites should satisfy unto the Lord for the firstborn of Israel, save for the 273 which were more than the Levites, for whom they paid money.

3:50 <sup>1</sup>Or the two hundred seventy and three, which were more than the Levites.

4:3 <sup>1</sup>The Levites were numbered after three sorts, first at a month old when they were consecrated to the Lord, next at 25 years old when they were appointed to serve in the Tabernacle, and 30 years old to bear the burdens of the Tabernacle.

snuffers, and his snuffdishes, and all the oil vessels thereof, which they occupy about it.

10 So they shall put it, and all the instruments thereof in a covering of badger's skins, and put it upon the <sup>1</sup>bars.

11 Also upon the golden <sup>1</sup>altar they shall spread a cloth of blue silk, and cover it with a covering of badger's skins, and put to the bars thereof.

12 And they shall take all the instruments of the ministry, wherewith they minister in the Sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue silk, and cover them with a covering of badger's skins, and put them on the bars.

13 Also they shall take away the ashes from the <sup>1</sup>altar, and spread a purple cloth upon it,

14 And shall put upon it all the instruments thereof, which they occupy about it, the censers, the fleshhooks, and the besoms, and the basins, even all the instruments of the altar: and they shall spread upon it a covering of badger's skins, and put to the bars of it.

15 And when Aaron and his sons have made an end of covering the <sup>1</sup>Sanctuary, and all the instruments of the Sanctuary, at the removing of the host, afterward the sons of Kohath shall come to bear it, but they shall not <sup>2</sup>touch any holy thing lest they die. This is the charge of the sons of Kohath in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

16 ¶ And to the office of Eleazar the son of Aaron the Priest pertaineth the oil for the light, and the <sup>4</sup>sweet incense, and the <sup>1</sup>daily meat offering, and the <sup>4</sup>anointing oil with the oversight of all the Tabernacle, and of all that therein is, both in the Sanctuary, and in all the instruments thereof.

17 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying,

18 Ye shall not <sup>1</sup>cut off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites:

19 But thus do unto them that they may live and not die, when they come near to the most holy things: let Aaron and his sons come and appoint <sup>1</sup>them, every one to his office, and to his charge.

20 But let them not go in, to see when the Sanctuary is folden up, lest they die.

21 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

22 Take also the sum of the sons of Gershon, every one by the houses of their fathers, throughout their families:

23 From thirty years old and above until fifty years old shalt thou number them, all that <sup>1</sup>enter into the assembly for to do service in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

24 This shall be the service of the families of the Gershonites to serve and to bear.

25 They shall bear the curtains of the Tabernacle, and the Tabernacle of the Congregation, his covering, and the covering of badger's skins, that is on high upon it, and the veil of the <sup>1</sup>door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

26 The curtains also of the court, and the veil of the entering in of the gate of the court, <sup>1</sup>which is near the Tabernacle and near the altar round about, with their cords: and all the instruments for their service, and all that is made for them: so shall they serve.

27 At the commandment of Aaron and his sons shall all the service of the sons of the Gershonites be done, in all their charges and in all their service, and ye shall appoint them to keep all their charges.

28 This is the service of the families of the sons of the Gershonites in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and their watch shall be under the <sup>1</sup>hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the Priest.

29 ¶ Thou shalt number the sons of Merari by their families, and by the houses of their fathers.

30 From thirty years old and above, even unto fifty years old shalt thou number them, all that enter into the assembly, to do the service of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

31 And this is their office and charge according to all their service in the Tabernacle of the Congregation: the <sup>1</sup>boards of the Tabernacle with the bars thereof, and his pillars, and his sockets, 32 And the pillars round about the court, with their sockets and their pins, and their cords with all their instruments, even for all their service: and by <sup>1</sup>name ye shall reckon the instruments of their office and charge.

33 This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service in the Tabernacle of the Congregation under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the Priest.

34 ¶ Then Moses and Aaron and the princes of the Congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites, by their families and by the houses of their 36 So the <sup>1</sup>numbers of them throughout their families were two thousand, seven hundred and fifty.

37 These are the numbers of the families of the Kohathites, all that serve in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, which Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandment of the Lord by the <sup>1</sup>hand of Moses.

40 So the numbers of them by their families, and by the houses of their fathers were two thousand six hundred and thirty.

41 These are the numbers of the families of the sons of Gershon: of all that <sup>1</sup>did service in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, whom Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandment of the Lord.

45 These are the sums of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the Lord, by the hand of Moses.

46 So all the numbers of the Levites, which Moses, and Aaron, and the princes of Israel numbered by their families and by the houses of their fathers, 47 From thirty years old and upward, even to fifty years old, every one that came to do <sup>1</sup>his duty, office, service and charge in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

48 So the number of them were eight thousand

49 According to the <sup>1</sup>commandment of the Lord by the hand of Moses did Aaron number them, every one according to his service, and according to his charge. Thus were they of that tribe numbered, as the Lord commanded <sup>2</sup>Moses.

3 Both male and female shall ye put out: <sup>1</sup>out of the host shall ye put them, that they defile not their <sup>2</sup>tents among whom I dwell.

4 And the children of Israel did so, and put them out of the host, even as the Lord had commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

5 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Speak unto the children of Israel, <sup>4</sup>When a man or woman shall commit any sin <sup>1</sup>that men commit, and transgress against the Lord, when that person shall trespass,

7 Then they shall confess their sin which they have done, and shall restore the damage thereof <sup>6</sup>with his principal, and put the fifth part of it more thereto, and shall give it unto him, against whom he hath trespassed.

8 But if the <sup>1</sup>man have no kinsman, to whom he should restore the damage, the damage shall be restored to the Lord for the Priest's use, besides the ram of the atonement, whereby he shall make atonement for him.

21 (Then the Priest shall charge the woman with an oath of cursing, and the Priest shall say unto the woman:) The Lord make thee to be <sup>1</sup>accursed, and detestable for the oath among the people, and the Lord cause thy thigh to <sup>2</sup>rot, and thy belly to swell:

22 And that this cursed water may go into thy bowels, to cause thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to rot. Then the woman shall answer, <sup>1</sup>Amen, Amen.

23 After, the Priest shall write these curses in a book, and shall <sup>1</sup>blot them out with the bitter water, 24 And shall cause the woman to drink the bitter and cursed water, and the cursed water turned into bitterness shall enter into her.

CHAPTER 6

25 Then the Priest shall take the jealousy offering out of the woman's hand, and shall shake the offering before the Lord, and offer it upon the altar.

26 And the Priest shall take an handful of the offering for a <sup>1</sup>memorial thereof, and burn it upon the <sup>2</sup>altar, and afterward make the woman drink the water.

27 When he hath made her drink the water, if she be defiled and have trespassed against her husband, then shall the cursed water, turned into bitterness, enter into her, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall rot, and the woman shall be accursed among her people.

28 But if the woman be not defiled, but be <sup>1</sup>clean, she shall be free, and shall conceive and bear.

29 This is the law of jealousy, when a wife turneth from her husband and is defiled,

30 Or, when a man is moved with a jealous mind, being jealous over his wife, then shall he bring the woman before the Lord, and the Priest shall do to her according to all this law,

31 And the man shall be <sup>1</sup>free from sin, but this woman shall bear her iniquity.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When a man or a woman doth separate themselves to vow a vow of a <sup>1</sup>Nazirite, to separate himself unto the Lord,

3 He shall abstain from wine and strong drink, and shall drink no sour wine nor sour drink, nor shall drink any liquor of grapes, neither shall eat fresh grapes nor dried.

4 As long as his abstinence endureth, shall he eat nothing that is made of the wine of the vine, neither the kernels nor the husk.

5 While he is separated by his vow, the <sup>a</sup>razor shall not come upon his head, until the days be out, in the which he separateth himself unto the Lord, he shall be holy, and shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow.

6 During the time that he separateth himself unto the Lord, he shall come at no <sup>1</sup>dead body:

5:14 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, If the spirit of jealousy come upon him.

5:15 <sup>1</sup> Only in the sin offering, and so this offering of jealousy were neither oil nor incense offered.

5:17 <sup>1</sup> Which also is called the water of purification or sprinkling, read Num. 19:9.

5:18 <sup>1</sup> It was so called by the effect, because it declared the woman to be accursed, and turned to her destruction.

5:21 <sup>1</sup> Both because she had committed so heinous a fault, and forswore herself in denying the same.

5:22 <sup>1</sup> That is, be it so, as thou wishest, as Ps. 41:23; Deut. 27:15.

5:23 <sup>1</sup> Shall wash the curses, which are written, into the water in the vessel.

5:26 <sup>1</sup> Or, perfume.

5:28 <sup>1</sup> Or, innocent.

5:31 <sup>1</sup> The man might accuse his wife upon suspicion, and not be reproved.

6:2 <sup>1</sup> Which separated themselves from the world, and dedicated themselves to God: which figure was accomplished in Christ.

6:6 <sup>1</sup> As at burials, or mournings.

7 He shall not make himself unclean at the death of his father or mother, brother, or sister: for the consecration of his God is upon <sup>1</sup>his head.

8 All the days of his separation he shall be holy to the Lord.

9 And if any die suddenly by him, or he beware, then the <sup>1</sup>head of his consecration shall be defiled, and he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing: in the seventh day he shall shave it.

10 And in the eighth day he shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons to the Priest, at the door of the tabernacle of the Congregation.

11 Then the Priest shall prepare the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and shall make an atonement for him, because he sinned by <sup>1</sup>the dead: so shall he hallow his head the same day.

12 And he shall <sup>1</sup>consecrate unto the Lord the days of his separation, and shall bring a lamb of a year old for a trespass offering, and the first <sup>2</sup>days shall be void: for his consecration was defiled.

13 ¶ This then is the law of the Nazirite: when the time of his consecration is out, he shall come to the door of the tabernacle of the Congregation,

14 And he shall bring his offering unto the Lord, an he lamb of a year old without blemish, for a burnt offering, and a she lamb of a year old without blemish, for a sin offering, and a ram without blemish, for peace offerings,

15 And a basket of unleavened bread, of <sup>b</sup>Cakes of fine flour, mingled with oil, and wafers of unleavened bread anointed with oil, with their meat offering, and their drink offerings:

16 The which the Priest shall bring before the Lord, and make his sin offering and his burnt offering.

17 He shall prepare also the ram for a peace offering unto the Lord, with the basket of unleavened bread, and the Priest shall make his meat offering, and his drink offering.

19 Then the Priest shall take the sodden shoulder of the ram, and an unleavened cake out of the basket, and a wafer unleavened, and put them upon the hands of the Nazirite, after he hath shaven his consecration.

20 And the Priest shall <sup>d</sup>shake them to and fro before the Lord: this is an holy thing for the Priest <sup>1</sup>besides the shaken breast, and besides the heave shoulder: so afterward the Nazirite may drink wine.

21 This is the law of the Nazirite, which he hath vowed, and of his offering unto the Lord for his consecration, <sup>1</sup>besides that that he is able to bring: according to the vow which he vowed, so shall he do after the law of his consecration.

22 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, saying, Thus shall ye <sup>1</sup>bless the children of Israel, and say unto them,

24 The Lord bless thee, and keep thee,

25 The Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be merciful unto thee,

26 The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

27 So they shall put my <sup>1</sup>Name upon the children of Israel, and I will bless them.

7 <sup>2</sup> The heads or princes of Israel offer at the setting up of the Tabernacle. 10 And at the dedication of the Altar. 19 God speaketh to Moses from the Mercy seat.

1 Now when Moses had finished the setting up of the Tabernacle, and <sup>a</sup>anointed it and sanctified it, and all the instruments thereof, and the altar with all the <sup>1</sup>instruments thereof, and had anointed them, and sanctified them,

2 Then the <sup>1</sup>princes of Israel, heads over the houses of their fathers, (they were the princes of the tribes, who were over them that were numbered) offered,

3 And brought their offering before the Lord, six <sup>1</sup>covered chariots, and twelve oxen: one chariot for two princes, and for every one an ox, and they offered them before the Tabernacle.

4 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

5 Take these of them, that they may be to do the <sup>1</sup>service of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and thou shalt give them unto the Levites, to every man according unto his office.

6 So Moses took the chariots and the oxen, and 6:7 <sup>1</sup> In that he suffered his hair to grow, he signified that he was consecrated to God.

6:9 <sup>1</sup> Which long hair is a sign that he is dedicated to God.

6:11 <sup>1</sup> By being present where the dead was.

6:12 <sup>1</sup> Beginning at the eighth day, when he is purified.

6:18 <sup>1</sup> In token that his vow is ended.

<sup>2</sup> For the hair which was consecrated to the Lord, might not be cast into any profane place.

6:20 <sup>1</sup> Or, with the breast.

6:21 <sup>1</sup> At the least he shall do this, if he be able to offer no more.

6:23 <sup>1</sup> That is, pray for them.

6:27 <sup>1</sup> They shall pray in my Name for them.

7:1 <sup>1</sup> Or, vessels.

7:2 <sup>1</sup> Or, captains.

7:3 <sup>1</sup> Like horse litters, to keep the things that were carried in them from weather.

7:5 <sup>1</sup> That is, to carry things and stuff in.

gave them unto the Levites:

7 Two chariots and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon, according unto their <sup>1</sup>office.

8 And four chariots and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, according unto their office, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the Priest.

9 But to the sons of Kohath he gave none, <sup>1</sup>because the charge of the Sanctuary belonged to them, which they did bear upon their shoulders.

10 ¶ The princes also offered in the <sup>1</sup>dedication for the altar in the day that it was anointed: then the princes offered their offering before the altar.

11 And the Lord said unto Moses, One prince one day, and another prince another day, shall offer their offering, for the dedication of the altar.

12 ¶ So then on the first day did Nahshon the son of Amminadab of the tribe of Judah offer his offering.

13 And his offering was a silver charger of an hundred and thirty shekels weight, a silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour, mingled with oil, for a <sup>b</sup>meat offering.

14 An incense cup of gold of ten shekels, full of incense,

15 A young bullock, a ram, a lamb of a year old for a burnt offering,

16 An he goat for a sin offering,

17 And for peace offerings, two bullocks, five rams, five he goats, and five lambs of a year old: this was the offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

18 ¶ The second day Nethanel, the son of Zuar, prince of the tribe of Issachar did offer.

19 Who offered for his offering a silver charger of an hundred and thirty shekels weight, a silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour, mingled with oil, for a meat offering,

20 An incense cup of gold of ten shekels, full of incense,

21 A young bullock, a ram, a lamb of a year old for a burnt offering,

22 An he goat for a sin offering,

23 And for peace offerings two bullocks, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of a year old: this was the offering of Nethanel the son of Zuar.

24 ¶ The third day Eliab the son of Helon prince of the children of Zebulun offered.

25 His offering was a silver charger of an hundred and thirty shekels weight, a silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour, mingled with oil, for a meat offering,

<sup>b</sup> Lev. 2:1

26 A golden incense cup of ten shekels, full of incense,

27 A young bullock, a ram, a lamb of a year old for a burnt offering,

28 An he goat for a sin offering,

29 And for peace offerings, two bullocks, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of a year old: this was the offering of Eliab the son of Helon.

30 ¶ The fourth day Elizur the son of Shedeur prince of the children of Reuben offered.

31 His offering was a silver charger of an hundred and thirty shekels weight, a silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour, mingled with oil, for a meat offering,

32 A golden incense cup of ten shekels, full of incense,

33 A young bullock, a ram, a lamb of a year old for a burnt offering,

34 An he goat for a sin offering,

35 And for a peace offering, two bullocks, five rams, five he goats, and five lambs of a year old: this was the offering of Elizur the son of Shedeur.

36 ¶ The fifth day Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, prince of the children of Simeon offered.

37 His offering was a silver charger of an hundred and thirty shekels weight, a silver bowl of seventy shekels: after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour, mingled with oil, for a meat offering,

38 A golden incense cup of ten shekels, full of incense,

39 A young bullock, a ram, a lamb of a year old for a burnt offering,

40 An he goat for a sin offering,

41 And for a peace offering, two bullocks, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of a year old: this was the offering of Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

42 ¶ The sixth day Eliasaph the son of Deuel prince of the children of Gad offered.

43 His offering was a silver charger of an hundred and thirty shekels weight, a silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour, mingled with oil, for a meat offering,

44 A golden incense cup of ten shekels, full of incense,

45 A young bullock, a ram, a lamb of a year old for a burnt offering,

46 An he goat for a sin offering,

47 And for a peace offering, two bullocks, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of a year old: this was the offering of Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

48 ¶ The seventh day Elishama the son of Amihud prince of the children of Ephraim offered.

7:7 <sup>1</sup> For their use to carry with.

7:9 <sup>1</sup> The holy thing of the Sanctuary must be carried upon their shoulders and not drawn with oxen, Num. 4:15.

7:10 <sup>1</sup> That is, when the first sacrifice was offered thereupon by Aaron, Lev. 9:1.

49 His offering was a silver charger of an hundred and thirty shekels weight, a silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour, mingled with oil, for a meat offering,

50 A golden incense cup of ten shekels, full of incense,

51 A young bullock, a ram, a lamb of a year old for a burnt offering,

52 An he goat for a sin offering,

53 And for a peace offering, two bullocks, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of a year old: this was the offering of Elishama the son of Ammihud.

54 ¶ The eighth day offered Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, prince of the children of Manasseh.

55 His offering was a silver charger of an hundred and thirty shekels weight, a silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour, mingled with oil, for a meat offering,

56 A golden incense cup of ten shekels, full of incense,

57 A young bullock, a ram, a lamb of a year old for a burnt offering,

58 An he goat for a sin offering,

59 And for a peace offering, two bullocks, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of a year old: this was the offering of Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

60 ¶ The ninth day Abidan the son of Gideoni prince of the children of Benjamin offered.

61 His offering was a silver charger of an hundred and thirty shekels weight, a silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour, mingled with oil, for a meat offering,

62 A golden incense cup of ten shekels, full of incense,

63 A young bullock, a ram, a lamb of a year old for a burnt offering,

64 An he goat for a sin offering,

65 And for a peace offering, two bullocks, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of a year old: this was the offering of Abidan the son of Gideoni.

66 ¶ The tenth day Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai, prince of the children of Dan offered.

67 His offering was a silver charger of an hundred and thirty shekels weight, a silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour, mingled with oil, for a meat offering,

68 A golden incense cup of ten shekels, full of incense,

69 A young bullock, a ram, a lamb of a year old for a burnt offering,

70 An he goat for a sin offering,

71 And for a peace offering, two bullocks, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of a year old: this was the offering of Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

72 ¶ The eleventh day Pagiel the son of Ocran, prince of the children of Asher offered.

73 His offering was a silver charger of an hundred and thirty shekels weight, a silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour, mingled with oil, for a meat offering,

74 A golden incense cup of ten shekels, full of incense,

75 A young bullock, a ram, a lamb of a year old for a burnt offering,

76 An he goat for a sin offering,

77 And for a peace offering, two bullocks, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of a year old: this was the offering of Pagiel the son of Ocran.

78 ¶ The twelfth day Ahira the son of Enan, prince of the children of Naphthali offered.

79 His offering was a silver charger of an hundred and thirty shekels weight, a silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, both full of fine flour, mingled with oil, for a meat offering,

80 A golden incense cup of ten shekels, full of incense,

81 A young bullock, a ram, a lamb of a year old for a burnt offering,

82 An he goat for a sin offering,

83 And for peace offerings, two bullocks, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of a year old, this was the offering of Ahira the son of Enan.

84 This was the <sup>1</sup>dedication of the Altar by the princes of Israel, when it was anointed, twelve chargers of silver, twelve silver bowls: twelve incense cups of gold, 85 Every charger containing an hundred and thirty shekels of silver, and every bowl seventy: all the silver vessel contained two thousand and four hundred shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary.

86 Twelve incense cups of gold full of incense, containing ten shekels every cup, after the shekel of the Sanctuary: and the gold of the incense cups was an hundred and twenty shekels.

87 All the bullocks for the burnt offering were twelve bullocks, the rams twelve, the lambs of a year old twelve, with their meat offerings, and twelve he goats for a sin offering.

88 And all the bullocks for the peace offerings were four and twenty bullocks, the rams sixty, the he goats sixty, the lambs of a year old sixty: this was the dedication of the Altar, after that it was <sup>1</sup>anointed.

89 And when Moses went into the <sup>1</sup>tabernacle of the Congregation to speak with God, he heard the voice of one speaking unto him from the Mercy seat, that was upon the Ark of the Testimony <sup>2</sup>between the two Cherubims, and he spake unto him.

7:84 <sup>1</sup> This was the offering of the princes, when Aaron did dedicate the Altar.

8 <sup>2</sup> The order of the lamps. <sup>6</sup> The purifying and offering of the Levites. <sup>24</sup> The age of the Levites when they are received to service, and when they are dismissed.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto Aaron, and say unto him, When thou lightest the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light toward the <sup>1</sup>forefront of the Candlestick.

3 And Aaron did so, lighting the lamps thereof toward the forefront of the Candlestick, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

4 And this was the work of the Candlestick, even of gold beaten out with the hammer, both the shaft, and the flower thereof <sup>4</sup>was beaten out with the hammer: <sup>1</sup>according to the pattern which the Lord had showed Moses, so made he the Candlestick.

5 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
6 Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and purify them.

7 And thus shalt thou do unto them, when thou purifiest them, Sprinkle <sup>1</sup>water of purification upon them, and let them shave all their flesh, and wash their clothes: so they shall be clean.

8 Then they shall take a young bullock with his meat offering of fine flour, mingled with oil, and another young bullock shalt thou take for a sin offering.

9 Then thou shalt bring the Levites before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and assemble <sup>1</sup>all the Congregation of the children of Israel.

10 Thou shalt bring the Levites also before the Lord, and the <sup>1</sup>children of Israel shall put their hands upon the Levites.

11 And Aaron shall offer the Levites before the Lord, as a shake offering of the children of Israel, that they may execute the service of the Lord.

12 And the Levites shall put their hands upon the heads of the bullocks, and make thou the one a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering unto the Lord, that thou mayest make an atonement for the Levites.

13 And thou shalt set the Levites before Aaron and before his sons, and offer them as a shake offering to the Lord.

14 Thus thou shalt separate the Levites from among the children of Israel, and the Levites shall be <sup>b</sup>mine.

15 And afterward shall the Levites go in, to serve in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and thou shalt purify them, and offer them as a shake offering.

16 For they are freely given 'unto me from among the children of Israel, for <sup>1</sup>such as open any womb: for all the firstborn of the children of Israel have I taken them unto me.

17 <sup>4</sup>For all the firstborn of the children of Israel are mine, both of man and beast: since the day that I smote every firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified them for myself.

18 And I have taken the Levites for all the firstborn of the children of Israel,

19 And have given the Levites as a gift unto Aaron, and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the <sup>1</sup>children of Israel in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel, that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come near unto the <sup>2</sup>Sanctuary.

20 ¶ Then Moses and Aaron and all the Congregation of the children of Israel did with the Levites, according unto all that the Lord had commanded Moses concerning the Levites: so did the children of Israel unto them.

21 So the Levites were purified, and washed their clothes, and Aaron offered them as a shake offering before the Lord, and Aaron made an atonement for them, to purify them.

22 And after that, went the Levites in to do their service in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, <sup>1</sup>before Aaron and before his sons: as the Lord had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did unto them.

23 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

24 This also belongeth to the Levites: from five and twenty years old and upward, they shall go in, to execute their office in the service of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

25 And after the age of fifty years, they shall cease from executing the <sup>1</sup>office, and shall serve no more.

26 But they shall minister <sup>1</sup>with their brethren in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, to keep things committed to their charge, but they shall do no service: thus shalt thou do unto the Levites touching their charge.

7:89 <sup>2</sup> According as he had promised, Exod. 25:22.

8:2 <sup>1</sup> To that part which is over against the Candlestick, Exod. 25:37.

8:4 <sup>1</sup> And not set together of divers pieces.

8:7 <sup>1</sup> In Hebrew it is called the water of sin, because it is made to purge sin, as Num. 19:9.

8:9 <sup>1</sup> That thou mayest do this in presence of them all.

8:10 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, certain of them in the name of the whole.

8:16 <sup>1</sup> That is, they that are the firstborn.

8:19 <sup>1</sup> Which service the Israelites should else do.

8:22 <sup>1</sup> In their presence, to serve them.

8:25 <sup>1</sup> Such office as was painful, as to bear burdens and such like.

8:26 <sup>1</sup> In singing Psalms, instructing, counseling and keeping the things in order.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year, after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 The children of Israel shall also celebrate the <sup>a</sup>Passover at the time appointed thereunto.

3 In the fourteenth day of this month at <sup>b</sup>even, ye shall keep it in his due season: according to <sup>1</sup>all the ordinances of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof shall ye keep it.

4 Then Moses spake unto the children of Israel, to celebrate the Passover.

5 And they kept the Passover in the fourteenth day of the first month at even in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the Lord had commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

6 ¶ And certain men were defiled <sup>1</sup>by a dead man, that they might not keep the Passover the same day: and they came before Moses and before Aaron the same day.

7 And those men said unto him, We are defiled by a dead man: wherefore are we kept back that we may not <sup>1</sup>offer an offering unto the Lord in the time therunto appointed among the children of Israel?

8 Then Moses said unto them, Stand still, and I will hear what the Lord will command concerning you.

9 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say, If any among you, or of your posterity shall be unclean by the reason of a corpse, or be in a long journey, <sup>1</sup>he shall keep the Passover unto the Lord.

11 In the fourteenth day of the <sup>1</sup>second month at even they shall keep it: with unleavened bread, and sour herbs shall they eat it.

12 They shall leave none of it unto the morning, <sup>1</sup>nor break any bone of it: according to all the ordinance of the Passover shall they keep it.

13 But the man that is clean and is not in a <sup>1</sup>journey, and is negligent to keep the Passover, the same person shall be cut off from his people: because he brought not the offering of the Lord in his due season, that man shall bear his <sup>2</sup>sin.

14 And if a stranger dwell among you, and will keep the Passover unto the Lord, as the ordinance of the Passover, and as the manner thereof is, so shall he do: <sup>d</sup>ye shall have one law both for the stranger, and for him that was born in the same land.

15 ¶ And when the Tabernacle was reared up, a cloud covered the Tabernacle, namely, the Tabernacle of the Testimony: and at even there was upon the Tabernacle, as the <sup>1</sup>appearance of fire until morning.

16 So it was always: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 And when the cloud was taken up from the Tabernacle, then afterward the children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents.

19 And when the cloud tarried still upon the Tabernacle a long time, the children of Israel kept the <sup>1</sup>watch of the Lord, and journeyed not.

20 So when the cloud abode <sup>a</sup>a few days upon the Tabernacle, they abode in their tents according to the commandment of the Lord: for they journeyed at the commandment of the Lord.

21 And though the cloud abode upon the Tabernacle from even unto the morning, yet if the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed: whether by day or by night the cloud was taken up, then they journeyed.

22 Or if the cloud tarried two days, or a month, or a year upon the Tabernacle, abiding thereon, the children of Israel <sup>a</sup>abode still, and journeyed not: but when it was taken up, they journeyed.

23 At the commandment of the Lord they pitched, and at the commandment of the Lord they journeyed, keeping the watch of the Lord at the commandment of the Lord by the <sup>1</sup>hand of Moses.

1 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

9:3 <sup>1</sup> Even in all points as the Lord hath instituted it.

9:6 <sup>1</sup> By touching a corpse, or being at the burial.

9:7 <sup>1</sup> Or, celebrate the Passover the fourteenth day of the first month.

9:10 <sup>1</sup> And cannot come where the Tabernacle is, when others keep it.

9:11 <sup>1</sup> So that the unclean, and they that are not at home, have a month longer granted unto them.

9:23 <sup>1</sup> Under the charge and government of Moses.

2 Make thee two trumpets of silver: of an <sup>1</sup>whole piece shalt thou make them, that thou mayest use them for the assembling of the Congregation, and for the departure of the camp.

3 And when they shall blow with them, all the Congregation shall assemble to thee, before the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

4 But if they blow with one, then the Princes, or heads over the thousands of Israel shall come unto thee.

5 But if ye blow an alarm, then the camp of them that pitch on the <sup>1</sup>East part, shall go forward.

6 If ye blow an alarm the second time, then the host of them that lie on the <sup>1</sup>South side, shall march: for they shall blow an alarm when they remove.

7 But in the assembling the Congregation, ye shall blow without an alarm.

8 And the sons of Aaron the Priest shall <sup>1</sup>blow the trumpets, and ye shall have them as a law forever in your generations.

9 And when ye go to war in your land against the enemy that vexeth you, ye shall blow an alarm with the trumpets, and ye shall be remembered before the Lord your God, and shall be saved from your enemies.

10 Also in the day of your <sup>1</sup>gladness, and in your feast days, and in the beginning of your months, ye shall also blow the trumpets <sup>2</sup>over your burnt sacrifices, and over your peace offerings, that they may be a remembrance for you before your God: I am the Lord your God.

11 ¶ And in the second year, in the second month, and in the twentieth day of the month, the cloud was taken up from the Tabernacle of the Testimony.

12 And the children of Israel departed on their <sup>1</sup>journeys out of the desert of Sinai, and the cloud rested in the wilderness of Paran.

13 So they <sup>1</sup>first took their journey at the commandment of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

14 ¶ <sup>a</sup>In the first place went the standard of the host of the children of Judah according to their armies: and <sup>b</sup>Nahshon the son of Amminadab was over his band.

15 And over the band of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethanel the son of Zuar.

16 And over the band of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon.

17 When the Tabernacle was taken down, then the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari went forward bearing <sup>1</sup>the Tabernacle.

18 ¶ After, departed the standard of the host of Reuben, according to their armies, and over his band was Elizur the son of Shedeur.

19 And over the band of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

20 And over the band of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

21 The Kohathites also went forward and <sup>1</sup>bare the <sup>2</sup>Sanctuary, and the <sup>2</sup>former did set up the Tabernacle against they came.

22 ¶ Then the standard of the host of the children of Ephraim went forward according to their armies, and over his band was Elishama the son of Ammihud.

23 And over the band of the tribe of the sons of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

24 And over the band of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideon.

25 ¶ Last, the standard of the host of the children of Dan marched, <sup>1</sup>gathering all the hosts according to their armies: and over his band was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

26 And over the band of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagiél the son of Ocran.

27 And over the band of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan.

28 <sup>1</sup>These were the removings of the children of Israel according to their armies, when they marched.

29 After, Moses said unto <sup>1</sup>Hobab the son of Reuel the Midianite, the father-in-law of Moses, We go into the place, of which the Lord said, I will give it you. Come thou with us, and we will do thee good: for the Lord hath promised good unto Israel.

30 And he answered him, I will not go: but I will depart to mine own country, and to my kindred.

31 Then he said, I pray thee, leave us not: for thou knowest our camping places in the wilderness: therefore thou mayest be <sup>1</sup>our guide.

32 And if thou go with us, what goodness the Lord shall show unto us, the same will we show unto thee.

33 ¶ So they departed from the <sup>1</sup>mount of the Lord,

10:2 <sup>1</sup> Or, of work beaten out with the hammer.

10:5 <sup>1</sup> That is, the host of Judah and they that are under his ensign.

10:6 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, the host of Reuben.

10:8 <sup>1</sup> So that only the Priests must blow the trumpets, so long as the Priesthood lasted.

10:10 <sup>1</sup> When ye rejoice that God hath removed any plague.

10:12 <sup>1</sup> Or, in keeping this order in their journeys.

10:25 <sup>1</sup> Leaving none behind, nor any of the former that fainted in the way.

10:28 <sup>1</sup> This was the order of their host when they removed.

10:29 <sup>1</sup> Some think that Reuel, Jethro, Hobab, and Keni were all one: Kimhi saith, that Reuel was Jethro's father: so Hobab was Moses' father-in-law, see Exod. 2:18, 3:1, 4:18, 18:1, and Judg. 4:11.

three days' journey: and the Ark of the covenant of the Lord went before them in the three days' journey, to search out a resting place for them.

34 And the cloud of the Lord was upon them by day, when they went out of the camp.

35 And when the Ark went forward, Moses said, <sup>d,1</sup>Rise up Lord, and let thine enemies be scattered, and let them that hate thee, flee before thee.

36 And when it rested, he said, Return, O Lord, to the <sup>1</sup>many thousands of Israel.

1 When the people became <sup>1</sup>murmurers, <sup>2</sup>it displeased the Lord: and the Lord heard it, therefore his wrath was kindled, and the fire of the Lord burnt among them, and <sup>4</sup>consumed the utmost part of the host.

2 Then the people cried unto Moses: and when Moses prayed unto the Lord, the fire was quenched.

3 And he called the name of the place <sup>1</sup>Taberah, because the fire of the Lord burnt among them.

4 ¶ And a number of <sup>1</sup>people that was among them, fell a lusting, and <sup>2</sup>turned away, and the children of Israel also wept, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat?

5 We remember the fish which we did eat in Egypt for <sup>1</sup>nought, the cucumbers, and the pepons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic.

6 But now our soul is <sup>1</sup>dried away, we can see nothing but this Manna.

7 (The Manna also was as <sup>b</sup>coriander seed, and his color like the color of <sup>b</sup>bellium.

8 The people went about and gathered, and ground it in mills, or beat it in mortars, and baked it in a cauldron, and made cakes of it, and the taste of it was like unto the taste of fresh oil.

9 And when the dew fell down upon the host in night, the Manna fell with it.)

10 ¶ Then Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent, and the wrath of the Lord was grievously kindled: also Moses was grieved.

11 And Moses said unto the Lord, Wherefore hast thou <sup>1</sup>vexed thy servant? and why have I not found <sup>2</sup>favor in thy sight, seeing thou hast put the charge of all this people upon me?

12 Have I <sup>1</sup>conceived all this people? or have I begotten them, that thou shouldst say unto me, Carry them in thy bosom (as a nurse beareth the sucking child) unto the <sup>2</sup>land, for the which thou swarest unto their fathers?

13 Where should I have flesh to give unto all this people? for they weep unto me, saying, Give us flesh that we may eat.

14 I am not able to bear all this people alone, for it is too heavy for me.

15 Therefore if thou deal thus with me, I pray thee, if I have found favor in thy <sup>1</sup>sight, kill me, that I behold not my misery.

16 ¶ Then the Lord said unto Moses, Gather unto me seventy men of the Elders of Israel, whom thou knowest, that they are the Elders of the people, and governors over them, and bring them unto the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and let them stand there with thee.

17 And I will come down, and talk with thee there, <sup>1</sup>and take of the Spirit, which is upon thee, and put upon them, and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee: so thou shalt not bear it alone.

18 Furthermore thou shalt say unto the people, <sup>1</sup>Be sanctified against tomorrow, and ye shall eat flesh: for you have wept in the ears of the Lord, saying, Who shall give us flesh to eat? for we were better in Egypt: therefore the Lord will give you flesh, and ye shall eat.

19 Ye shall not eat one day nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days, 20 But a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and be loathsome unto you, because ye have <sup>1</sup>contemned the Lord, which is <sup>2</sup>among you, and have wept before him, saying, Why came we hither out of Egypt?

21 And Moses said, Six hundred thousand footmen are there of the people, <sup>1</sup>among whom I am: and 10:35 <sup>1</sup> Declare thy might and power.

11:15 <sup>1</sup> I had rather die than to see my grief and misery thus daily increase by their rebellion.

11:17 <sup>1</sup> I will distribute my spirit among them, as I have done to thee.

11:18 <sup>1</sup> Prepare yourselves that ye be not unclean.

11:20 <sup>1</sup> Or, cast him off, because ye refused Manna, which he appointed as most meet for you.

thou sayest, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a month long.

22 Shall the sheep and the beeves be slain for them to find them? either shall all the fish of the Sea be gathered together for them to suffice them?

23 And the Lord said unto Moses, Is 'the Lord's hand shortened? thou shalt see now whether my word shall come to pass unto thee, or no.

24 ¶ So Moses went out, and told the people the words of the Lord, and gathered seventy men of the Elders of the people, and set them round about the Tabernacle.

25 Then the Lord came down in a cloud, and spake unto him, and 'took of the Spirit that was upon him, and put it upon the seventy Ancient men: and when the Spirit rested upon them, then they prophesied, and did not <sup>2</sup>cease.

26 But there remained two of the men in the host: the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad, and the Spirit rested upon them, (for they were of them that were written, and went not out unto the Tabernacle) and they prophesied in the host.

27 Then there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the host.

28 And Joshua the son of Nun the servant of Moses one of his <sup>1</sup>young men answered and said, My lord Moses, <sup>2</sup>forbid them.

29 But Moses said unto him, Enviest thou for my sake? yea, would God that all the Lord's people were Prophets, and that the Lord would put his spirit upon them.

30 And Moses returned into the host, he and the Elders of Israel.

31 Then there went forth a wind from the Lord, and <sup>d</sup>brought quails from the sea, and let them fall upon the camp, a day's journey on this side, and a day's journey on the other side, round about the host, and they were about two cubits above the earth.

32 Then the people arose, all that day, and all the night, and all the next day, and gathered the quails: he that gathered the least, gathered ten <sup>1</sup>Homers full, and they spread them abroad for their use round about the host.

33 While the flesh was yet between their teeth, before it was chewed, even the wrath of the Lord was kindled against the people, and the Lord 'smote the people with an exceeding great plague.

34 So the name of the place was called, <sup>1</sup>Kibroth Hattaavah: for there they buried the people that fell a lusting.

35 From Kibroth Hattaavah the people took their journey to Hazeroth, and abode at Hazeroth.

1 Afterward Miriam and Aaron <sup>1</sup>spake against Moses, because of the woman of Ethiopia whom he had married (for he had married <sup>2</sup>a woman of Ethiopia.)

2 And they said, What? hath the Lord spoken but only by Moses? hath he not spoken also by us? and the Lord heard this.

3 (But Moses was a very <sup>1</sup>meek man above all the men that were upon the earth.)

4 And by and by the Lord said unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam, come out ye three unto the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and they three came forth.

5 Then the Lord came down in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the Tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam, and they both came forth.

6 And he said, Hear now my words, If there be a Prophet of the Lord among you, I will be known to him by a <sup>1</sup>vision, and will speak unto him by dream.

7 My servant Moses is not so, who is faithful <sup>1</sup>in all mine house,

8 Unto him will I speak <sup>a</sup>mouth to mouth, and by vision, and not in dark words, but he shall <sup>1</sup>see the similitude of the Lord. Wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak against my servant, even against Moses?

9 Thus the Lord was very angry with them, and departed.

10 Also the cloud departed from the <sup>1</sup>Tabernacle: and behold, Miriam was leprous like snow: and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and behold, she was leprous.

13 Then Moses cried unto the Lord, saying, O God, I beseech thee, heal her now.

14 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, If her father had <sup>1</sup>spit in her face, should she not have been ashamed seven days? let her be <sup>1</sup>shut out of the host seven days, and after she shall be received.

15 So Miriam was shut out of the host seven days, and the people removed not, till Miriam was brought in again.

1 Then afterward the people removed from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wilderness of <sup>1</sup>Paran.

2 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

3 <sup>1</sup>Send thou men out to search the land of Canaan which I give unto the children of Israel: of every tribe of their fathers shall ye send a man, such as are all rulers among them.

4 Then Moses sent them out of the wilderness of Paran at the commandment of the Lord: all those men were <sup>1</sup>heads of the children of Israel.

5 Also their names are these: of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur:

6 Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori:

7 Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh:

8 Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph:

10 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu:

11 Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi:

12 Of the tribe of Joseph, to wit, of the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi:

13 Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli:

14 Of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael:

15 Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi:

16 Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.

17 These are the names of the <sup>1</sup>men, which Moses sent to spy out the land: and Moses called the name of Hoshea the son of Nun, Joshua.

18 So Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them, Go up this way toward the South, and go up into the <sup>1</sup>mountains.

19 And consider the land what it is, and the people that dwell therein, whether they be strong, or weak, either few or many.

20 Also what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be <sup>1</sup>good or bad: and what cities they be, that they dwell in, whether they dwell in tents, or in walled towns.

21 And what the land is: whether it be fat or lean, whether there be trees therein, or not. And be of good courage, and bring the fruit of the land (for then was the time of the first ripe grapes.)

22 ¶ So they went up, and searched out the land, from the wilderness of <sup>1</sup>Zin unto Rehob, to go to Hamath.

23 And they ascended toward the South, and came unto Hebron, where were Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the sons of <sup>1</sup>Anak. And <sup>2</sup>Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.

24 <sup>a</sup>Then they came to the river of Eshcol, and cut down thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it upon a bar between two, and brought of the pomegranates and of the figs.

25 That place was called the <sup>1</sup>river Eshcol, because of the cluster of grapes, which the children of Israel cut down thence.

26 Then after forty days they turned again from searching of the land.

27 And they went and came to Moses and to Aaron, and unto all the Congregation of the children of Israel, in the wilderness of <sup>1</sup>Paran, to Kadesh, and brought to them, and to all the Congregation tidings, and showed them the fruit of the land.

28 And they told <sup>1</sup>him, and said, We came unto the land whither thou hast sent us, and surely it floweth with <sup>1</sup>milk and honey: and here is of the fruit of it.

30 The Amalekites dwell in the South country, and the Hittites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountains, and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and by the coasts of Jordan.

31 Then Caleb stilled the people <sup>1</sup>before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it: for undoubtedly we shall overcome it.

32 But the men that went up with him, said, We be not able to go up against the people: for they are stronger than we.

33 So they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched for the children of Israel, saying, The land which we have gone through to search it out, is a land that <sup>1</sup>eateth up the inhabitants thereof: for all the people that we saw in it, are men of great stature.

34 For there we saw giants, the sons of Anak, which come of the giants, so that we seemed in our sight like grasshoppers: and so we were in their sight.

1 Then all the Congregation lifted up their voice, and cried: and the <sup>1</sup>people wept that night,

2 And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron: and the whole assembly said unto them, Would God we had died in the land of Egypt, or in this wilderness: would God we were dead.

3 Wherefore now hath the Lord brought us into this land to fall upon the sword? our wives and our children shall be <sup>1</sup>a prey: were it not better for us to return into Egypt?

4 And they said one to another, Let us make a captain and return into Egypt.

5 Then Moses and Aaron <sup>1</sup>fell on their faces before all the assembly of the Congregation of the children of Israel.

6 And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh two of them that searched the land, <sup>1</sup>rent their clothes,

7 And spake unto all the assembly of the children of Israel, saying, The land which we walked through to search it, is a very good land.

39 ¶ Then Moses told these sayings unto all the children of Israel, and the people sorrowed greatly.

40 °And they rose up early in the morning, and got them up into the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, we be ready to go up to the place which the Lord hath promised: for we have <sup>1</sup>sinned.

41 But Moses said, Wherefore transgress ye thus the commandment of the Lord? it will not so come well to pass.

before the Lord tomorrow: and the man whom the Lord doth choose, the same shall be holy: <sup>1</sup>ye take too much upon you, ye sons of Levi.

8 Again Moses said unto Korah, Hear, I pray you, ye sons of Levi.

9 Seemeth it a small thing unto you, that the God of Israel hath separated you from the multitude of Israel, to take you near to himself, to do the service of the Tabernacle of the Lord, and to stand before the Congregation, and to minister unto them?

10 He hath also taken thee to <sup>1</sup>him, and all thy brethren, the sons of Levi with thee, and seek ye the office of the Priest also?

11 For which cause, thou, and all thy company are gathered together against the Lord: and what is Aaron, that ye murmur against him?

12 ¶ And Moses sent to call Dathan, and Abiram the sons of Eliab: who answered, We will not come up.

13 Is it a small thing that thou hast brought us out <sup>1</sup>of a land that floweth with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, except thou make thyself lord and ruler over us also?

14 Also thou hast not brought us unto a land that floweth with milk and honey, neither given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou <sup>1</sup>put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up.

15 Then Moses waxed very angry, and said unto the Lord, <sup>1</sup>Look not unto their offering: I have not taken so much as an ass from them, neither have I hurt any of them.

16 And Moses said unto Korah, Be thou and all thy company <sup>1</sup>before the Lord: both thou, they, and Aaron tomorrow.

17 And take every man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring ye every man his censer before the Lord, two hundred and fifty censers: thou also and Aaron, every one his censer.

18 So they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation with Moses and Aaron.

19 And Korah gathered all the <sup>1</sup>multitude against them unto the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation: then the glory of the Lord appeared unto all the Congregation.

20 And the Lord spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying,

21 Separate yourselves from among this Congregation, that I may consume them at once.

22 And they fell upon their faces and said, O God, the God of the spirits <sup>1</sup>of all flesh, hath not one man only sinned, and wilt thou be wroth with all the Congregation?

23 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

24 Speak unto the Congregation, and say, Get you away from about the Tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.

25 Then Moses rose up, and went unto Dathan and Abiram, and the Elders of Israel followed him.

26 And he spake unto the Congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye perish <sup>1</sup>in all their sins.

27 So they got them away from the Tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out and stood in the door of their tents, with their wives, and their sons, and their little children.

28 And Moses said, Hereby ye shall know that the Lord hath sent me to do all these works: for I have not done them of mine own <sup>1</sup>mind.

29 If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men, the Lord hath not sent me.

30 But if the Lord make <sup>1</sup>a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up with all that they have, and they go down quick into <sup>2,3</sup>the pit: then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the Lord.

31 ¶ And as soon as he had made an end of speaking all the words, even the ground clave asunder that was under them,

32 And the earth <sup>d</sup>opened her mouth, and swallowed them up with their families, and all the men that were with Korah, and all their goods.

33 So they and all that they had, went down alive into the pit, and the earth covered them: so they perished from among the Congregation.

36 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

38 The censers, I say, of these sinners, that destroyed <sup>1</sup>themselves: and let them make of them broad plates for a covering of the Altar: for they offered them before the Lord, therefore they shall be holy, and they shall be a <sup>2</sup>sign unto the children of Israel.

39 Then Eleazar the Priest took the brazen censers, which they that were burnt had offered, and made broad plates of them for a covering of the Altar.

40 It is a remembrance unto the children of Israel, that no stranger which is not of the seed of Aaron, come near to offer incense before the Lord, that he be not like <sup>1</sup>Korah and his company, as the Lord said to him by the hand of Moses.

41 ¶ But on the morrow all the multitude of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, Ye have killed the people of the Lord.

42 And when the Congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron, then they <sup>1</sup>turned their faces toward the tabernacle of the Congregation: and behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the Lord appeared.

43 Then Moses and Aaron were come before the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

44 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

46 And Moses said unto Aaron, Take the censer and put fire therein of the <sup>1</sup>Altar, and put therein incense, and go quickly unto the Congregation, and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the Lord: the plague is begun.

47 Then Aaron took as Moses commanded him, and ran into the midst of the Congregation, and behold, the <sup>1</sup>plague was begun among the people, and he put incense, and made an atonement for the people.

16 And those that are to be redeemed, shalt thou redeem from the age of a month, according to thy estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary, <sup>d</sup>which is twenty gerahs.

17 But the firstborn of a cow, or the firstborn of a sheep, or the firstborn of a goat shalt thou not <sup>1</sup>redeem: for they are holy: thou shalt sprinkle their blood at the altar, and thou shalt burn their fat: it is a sacrifice made by fire for a sweet savor unto the Lord.

18 And the flesh of them shall be thine, <sup>e</sup>as the shake breast, and as the right shoulder shall be thine.

22 Neither shall the children of Israel any more <sup>1</sup>come near the Tabernacle of the Congregation, lest they sustain sin, and die.

23 But the Levites shall do the service in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and they shall bear <sup>1</sup>their sin: it is a law forever in your generations, that among the children of Israel they possess none inheritance.

24 For the tithes of the children of Israel, which they shall offer as an offering unto the Lord, I have given the Levites for an inheritance, therefore I have said unto them, Among the children of Israel ye shall possess none inheritance.

29 Ye shall offer of all your <sup>1</sup>gifts all the Lord's heave offerings: of all the <sup>2</sup>fat of the same shall ye offer the holy things thereof.

3 And ye shall give her unto Eleazar the Priest, that he may bring her <sup>a</sup>without the host, and cause her to <sup>1</sup>be slain before his face.

4 Then shall Eleazar the Priest take of her blood with his <sup>b</sup>finger, and sprinkle it before the Tabernacle of the Congregation seven times,

5 And cause the cow to be burnt in his sight: with her <sup>c</sup>skin, and her flesh, and her blood, and her dung shall he burn her.

6 Then shall the Priest take cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet lace, and cast them in the midst of the fire where the cow burneth.

8 Also he that <sup>1</sup>burneth her, shall wash his clothes in water, and wash his flesh in water, and be unclean until even.

9 And a man, that is clean, shall take up the ashes of the cow, and put them without the host in a clean place: and it shall be kept for the Congregation of the children of Israel for <sup>1a</sup> a sprinkling water: it is a sin offering.

10 Therefore he that gathereth the ashes of the cow, shall wash his clothes, and remain unclean until even: and it shall be unto the children of Israel, and unto the stranger that dwelleth among them, a statute forever.

11 He that toucheth the dead body of any man, shall be unclean even seven days.

16 Also whosoever toucheth one that is slain with a sword in the field, or a dead person, or a bone of a dead man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

17 Therefore for an unclean person, they shall take of the burnt ashes of the <sup>1</sup>sin offering, and <sup>2</sup>pure water shall be put thereto in a vessel.

19 And the clean person shall sprinkle upon the unclean the third day, and the seventh day, and he shall purify himself the seventh day, and <sup>1</sup>wash his clothes, and wash himself in water, and shall be clean at even.

20 But the man that is unclean, and purifieth not himself, that person shall be cut off from among the Congregation, because he hath defiled the Sanctuary of the Lord: and the sprinkling water hath not been sprinkled upon him: therefore shall he be unclean.

21 And it shall be a perpetual law unto them, that he that sprinkleth the sprinkling water, shall wash his clothes: also he that toucheth the sprinkling water, shall be unclean until even.

4 <sup>b</sup>Why have ye thus brought the Congregation of the Lord unto this wilderness, that both we and our cattle should die there?

5 Wherefore now have ye made us to come up from Egypt, to bring us into this miserable place, which is no place of seed, nor figs, nor vines, nor pomegranates? neither is there any water to drink.

6 Then Moses and Aaron went from the assembly unto the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and fell upon their faces: and the glory of the Lord appeared unto them.

7 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

8 Take the <sup>c</sup>rod, and gather thou and thy brother Aaron the Congregation together, and speak ye unto the rock before their eyes, and it shall give forth his water, and thou shalt bring them water out of the rock: so thou shalt give the Congregation and the beasts drink.

9 Then Moses took the rod from before the Lord, as he had commanded him.

10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the Congregation together before the rock: and Moses said unto them, Hear now ye rebels: <sup>d</sup>shall we bring you water out of this rock?

11 Then Moses lift up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice, and the water came out abundantly: so the Congregation, and their beasts drank.

13 This is the water of <sup>f</sup>Meribah, because the children of Israel strove with the Lord, and he <sup>g</sup>was sanctified in them.

16 But when we cried unto the Lord, he heard our voice, and sent an Angel, and hath brought us out of Egypt, and behold, we are in the city Kadesh, in thine utmost border.

17 I pray thee that we may pass through thy country: we will not go through the fields nor the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go by the <sup>i</sup>king's way, and neither turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we be past thy borders.

18 And Edom answered him, <sup>j</sup>Thou shalt not pass by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword.

19 Then the children of Israel said unto him, We will go up by the highway: and if I and my cattle drink of thy water, I will then pay for it: I will only (without any harm) go through on my feet.

20 He answered again, Thou shalt not go through. Then <sup>k</sup>Edom came out against him with much people, and with a mighty power.

21 Thus Edom denied to give Israel passage through his country: wherefore Israel <sup>l</sup>turned away from him.

22 ¶ And when the children of Israel with all the Congregation departed from <sup>m</sup>Kadesh, they came unto mount Hor.

23 And the Lord spake unto Moses and to Aaron in the mount Hor near the coast of the land of Edom, saying,

24 Aaron shall be <sup>n</sup>gathered unto his people: for he shall not enter into the land, which I have given unto the children of Israel, because ye <sup>o</sup>disobeyed my commandment at the water of <sup>p</sup>Meribah.

28 And Moses put off Aaron's clothes, and put them upon Eleazar his son: <sup>r</sup>so Aaron died there in the top of the mount: and Moses and Eleazar came down from off the mount.

3 And the Lord heard the voice of Israel, and delivered them the Canaanites: and they utterly destroyed them and their cities, and called the name of the place <sup>1, b</sup>Hormah.

4 ¶ After they departed from the mount Hor by the way of the Red Sea, to <sup>1</sup>compass the land of Edom: and the people were sore grieved because of the way.

5 And the people spake against God, and against Moses, saying, Wherefore have ye brought us out of Egypt, to die in the wilderness, for here is neither bread nor water, and our soul <sup>1</sup>loatheth this light <sup>1</sup>bread.

6 <sup>d</sup>Wherefore the Lord sent <sup>1</sup>fiery serpents among the people, which stung the people: so that many of the people of Israel died.

7 Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned: for we have spoken against the Lord, and against thee: pray to the Lord, that he take away the serpents from us: and Moses prayed for the people.

8 And the Lord said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it up for a <sup>1</sup>sign, that as many as are bitten, may look upon it, and live.

5 <sup>2</sup>He sent messengers therefore unto Balaam the son of Beor to Pethor (which is by the <sup>1</sup>river of the land of the children of his folk) to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, which cover the face of the earth, and lie over against me.

6 Come now therefore, I pray thee, and curse me this people (for they are stronger than I) so it may be that I shall be able to smite them, and to drive them out of the land: for I know that he, whom thou blessest, is blessed, and he whom thou cursest, shall be cursed.

7 And the Elders of Moab, and the Elders of Midian departed, having <sup>1</sup>the reward of the soothsaying in their hand, and they came unto Balaam, and told him the words of Balak.

8 Who answered them, Tarry here this night, and I will give you an answer, as the Lord shall say unto me. So <sup>1</sup>the princes of Moab abode with Balaam.

9 Then God came unto Balaam, and said, What men are these with thee?

10 And Baalam said unto God, Balak the son of Zippor king of Moab hath sent unto me, saying,

11 Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, and covereth the face of the earth: come now, curse them for my sake: so it may be that I shall be able to overcome them in battle, and to drive them out.

12 And God <sup>1</sup>said unto Balaam, Go not thou with them, neither curse the people, for they are blessed.

13 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and said unto the princes of Balak, Return unto your land: for the Lord hath refused to give <sup>1</sup>me leave to go with you.

14 So the princes of Moab rose up, and went unto Balak, and said, Balaam hath refused to come with us.

15 Balak yet sent again more princes, and more honorable than they,

19 But now, I pray you, tarry here this night, that I may wit, what the Lord will say unto me <sup>1</sup>more.

20 And God came unto Balaam by night, and said unto him, If the men come to call thee, rise up, and go with them: but only what thing I say unto thee, that shalt thou do.

21 So Balaam rose up early, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab.

22 And the wrath of God was kindled, because he <sup>1</sup>went: and the Angel of the Lord stood in the way to be against him, as he rode upon his ass, and his two servants were with him.

24 <sup>1</sup>Again the Angel of the Lord stood in a path of the vineyards, having a wall on the one side, and a wall on the other.

25 And when the ass saw the Angel of the Lord, she thrust herself unto the wall, and dashed Balaam's foot against the wall: wherefore he smote her again.

26 Then the Angel of the Lord went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn, either to the right hand, or to the left.

27 And when the ass saw the Angel of the Lord, she <sup>1</sup>lay down under Balaam: therefore Balaam was very wroth, and smote the ass with a staff.

28 Then the Lord <sup>1</sup>opened the mouth of the ass, and she said unto Balaam, What have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten me now three times?

29 And Balaam said unto the ass, Because thou hast mocked me: I would there were a sword in mine hand, for now would I kill thee.

30 And the ass said unto Balaam, Am not I thine ass, which thou hast ridden upon <sup>1</sup>since thy first time unto this day? have I used at any time, to do thus unto thee? Who said, Nay.

31 And the Lord <sup>1</sup>opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the Angel of the Lord standing in the way with his sword drawn in his hand: then he bowed himself, and fell flat on his face.

32 And the Angel of the Lord said unto him, Wherefore hast thou now smitten thine ass three times? behold, I came out to withstand thee, because thy <sup>1</sup>way is not straight before me.

33 But the ass saw me, and turned from me now three times: for else, if she had not turned from me, surely I had even now slain thee, and saved her alive.

34 Then Balaam said unto the Angel of the Lord, I have sinned: for I wist not that thou stoodest in the way <sup>1</sup>against me: now therefore if it displeaseth thee, I will turn <sup>2</sup>home again.

35 But the Angel said unto Balaam, Go with the men: but <sup>1</sup>what I say unto thee, that shalt thou speak. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

36 And when Balak heard that Balaam came, he went out to meet him unto a city of Moab, which is in the <sup>1</sup>border of Arnon, even in the utmost coast.

37 Then Balak said unto Balaam, Did not I send for thee to call thee? Wherefore camest thou not unto me? am I not able indeed to promote thee unto honor?

38 And Balaam made answer unto Balak, Lo, I am come unto thee, and can I now say <sup>1</sup>anything at all? the word that God putteth in my mouth that shall I speak.

39 So Balaam went with Balak, and they came unto the city of <sup>1</sup>Huzoth.

40 Then Balak offered bullocks, and sheep, and sent thereof to Balaam, and to the princes that were with him.

41 And on the morrow Balak took Balaam and brought him up into the high places of <sup>1</sup>Baal, that thence he might see the utmost part of the people.

23 <sup>1</sup>Balaam causeth seven altars to be built. <sup>5</sup>God teacheth him what to answer. <sup>8</sup>Instead of cursing he blesseth Israel. <sup>19</sup>God is not like man.

1 And Balaam said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bullocks, and seven rams.

2 And Balak did as Balaam said, and <sup>1</sup>Balak and 22:19 <sup>1</sup> Because he tempted God to require him contrary to his commandment, his petition was granted, but it turned to his own condemnation.

22:22 <sup>1</sup> Moved rather with covetousness than to obey God.

22:24 <sup>1</sup> The second time.

22:28 <sup>1</sup> Gave her power to speak.

22:30 <sup>1</sup> Since thou hast been my master.

22:31 <sup>1</sup> For whose eyes the Lord doth not open, they can neither see his anger, nor his love.

22:32 <sup>1</sup> Both thy heart is corrupt, and thine enterprise wicked.

22:34 <sup>1</sup> Or, before me, or to meet me.

22:35 <sup>1</sup> Because his heart was evil, his charge was renewed, that he should not pretend ignorance.

22:36 <sup>1</sup> Near the place where the Israelites camped.

22:38 <sup>1</sup> Of myself I can speak nothing: only what God revealeth, that will I utter, seem it good or bad.

22:39 <sup>1</sup> Or, of streets: or, a populous city.

22:41 <sup>1</sup> Where the idol Baal was worshipped.

23:2 <sup>1</sup> For among the Gentiles the kings oft times used to sacrifice, as did the Priests.

Balaam offered on every altar a bullock and a ram.

3 Then Balaam said unto Balak, Stand by thy burnt offering, and I will go, if so be that the Lord will come and meet me: and whatsoever he showeth me, I will tell thee: so he <sup>1</sup>went forth alone.

4 And God <sup>1</sup>met Balaam, and Balaam said unto him, I have prepared seven altars, and have offered upon every altar a bullock and a ram.

5 And the Lord <sup>1</sup>put an answer in Balaam's mouth, and said, Go again to Balak, and say on this wise.

6 So when he turned unto him, lo, he stood by his burnt offering, he, and all the princes of Moab.

7 Then he uttered his <sup>1</sup>parable, and said, Balak the king of Moab hath brought me from <sup>2</sup>Aram out of the mountains of the East, saying, Come, curse Jacob for my sake: come, and <sup>3</sup>detest Israel.

8 How shall I curse, where God hath not cursed? or how shall I detest, where the Lord hath not detested?

9 For from the top of the rocks I did see him, and from the hills I did behold him: lo, the people shall dwell by themselves, and shall not be reckoned among the <sup>1</sup>nations.

10 Who can tell the <sup>1</sup>dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? Let me <sup>2</sup>die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his.

11 Then Balak said unto Balaam, What hast thou done unto me? I took thee to curse mine enemies, and behold, thou hast blessed them altogether.

12 And he answered, and said, Must I not take heed to speak that, which the Lord hath put in my mouth?

13 And Balak said unto him, Come, I pray thee, with me unto another place, whence thou mayest see them, and thou shalt see but the utmost part of them and shalt not see them all: therefore curse them out of that place for my sake.

14 ¶ And he brought him into <sup>1</sup>Zophim to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

15 After, he said unto Balak, Stand here by thy burnt offering, and I will meet the Lord yonder.

16 And the Lord met Balaam, and <sup>1</sup>put an answer in his mouth, and said, Go again unto Balak, and say thus.

CHAPTER 23

*Num. 22:35

17 And when he came to him, behold, he stood by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him: so Balak said unto him, What hath the Lord said?

18 And he uttered his parable, and said, Rise up Balak, and hear: hearken unto me, thou son of Zippor.

19 <sup>1</sup>God is not as man, that he should lie, neither as the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? and hath he spoken, and shall he not accomplish it?

20 Behold, I have received commandment to bless: for he hath blessed, and I cannot alter it.

21 He seeth none iniquity in Jacob, nor seeth no transgression in Israel: the Lord his God is with him, and the <sup>1</sup>joyful shout of a King is among them.

22 God brought them out of Egypt: their strength is as an unicorn.

23 For there is no sorcery in Jacob, nor soothsaying in Israel, <sup>1</sup>according to this time it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, What hath God wrought?

24 Behold, the people shall rise up as a lion, and lift up himself as a young lion: he shall not lie down, till he eat of the prey, and till he drink the blood of the slain.

25 Then Balak said unto Balaam, Neither curse, nor bless them at all.

26 But Balaam answered, and said unto Balak, Told not I thee, saying, All that the Lord speaketh, that must I do?

27 ¶ Again Balak said unto Balaam, Come, I pray thee, I will bring thee unto another <sup>1</sup>place, if so be it will please God, that thou mayest thence curse them for my sake.

28 So Balak brought Balaam unto the top of Peor, that looketh toward Jeshimon.

29 Then Balaam said unto Balak, Make me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bullocks, and seven rams.

30 And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

23:3 <sup>1</sup> Or, went up higher.

23:4 <sup>1</sup> Appeared unto him.

23:5 <sup>1</sup> Taught him what to say.

23:7 <sup>1</sup> Or, prophecy.

<sup>3</sup> Cause that all may hate and detest them.

23:9 <sup>1</sup> But shall have religion and laws apart.

23:10 <sup>1</sup> The infinite multitude, as the dust of the earth.

<sup>2</sup> The fear of God's judgment caused him to wish to be joined to the household of Abraham: thus the wicked have their consciences wounded when they consider God's judgments.

23:14 <sup>1</sup> Or, into the field of them that spied: to wit, lest the enemy should approach.

23:19 <sup>1</sup> God's enemies are compelled to confess that his government is just, constant, and without change or repentance.

23:21 <sup>1</sup> They triumph as victorious kings over their enemies.

23:23 <sup>1</sup> Considering what God shall work this time for the deliverance of his people, all the world shall wonder.

23:27 <sup>1</sup> Thus the wicked imagine of God, that that which he will not grant in one place, he will do it in another.

1 When Balaam saw that it pleased the Lord to bless Israel, then he went not, <sup>a</sup>as certain times before, to set divinations, but set his face toward the <sup>1</sup>wilderness.

2 And Balaam lift up his eyes, and looked upon Israel, which dwelt according to their tribes, and the Spirit of God came upon him,

3 <sup>b</sup>And he uttered his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man whose eyes <sup>1</sup>were shut up, hath said,

4 He hath said which heard the words of God, and saw the vision of the Almighty, and <sup>1</sup>falling in a trance had his eyes opened:

5 ¶ How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob, and thine habitations, O Israel!

6 As the valleys are they stretched forth, as gardens by the river's side, as the <sup>1</sup>aloe trees, which the Lord hath planted, as the cedars beside the waters.

7 The <sup>1</sup>water droppeth out of his bucket, and his seed shall be in many waters, and his King shall be higher than <sup>2</sup>Agag, and his kingdom shall be exalted.

8 God brought him out of Egypt: his strength shall be as an unicorn: he shall eat the nations his enemies, and bruise their bones, and shoot them through with his arrows.

9 ¶ He coucheth, and lieth down as a young Lion, and as a Lion: Who shall stir him up? blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.

10 Then Balak was very angry with Balaam, and <sup>1</sup>smote his hands together: so Balak said unto Balaam, I sent for thee to curse mine enemies, and behold, thou hast blessed them now three times.

11 Therefore now flee unto thy place: I thought surely to promote thee unto honor, but lo, the <sup>1</sup>Lord hath kept thee back from honor.

12 Then Balaam answered Balak, Told I not also thy messengers, which thou sentest unto me, saying,

13 If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot pass the commandment of the Lord, to do either good or bad of mine own mind? what the Lord shall command, that same will I speak.

14 And now behold, I go unto my people: come, I will <sup>1,2</sup>advertise thee what this people shall do to thy folk in the latter days.

15 And he uttered his parable, and said Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man whose eyes were shut up hath said,

16 He hath said that heard the words of God, and hath the knowledge of the most High, and saw the vision of the Almighty, and falling in a trance had his eyes opened:

17 I shall see him, but not now: I shall behold him, but not near: there shall come a <sup>1</sup>Star of Jacob, and a Scepter shall rise of Israel and shall smite the <sup>2</sup>coasts of Moab, and destroy all the sons of <sup>3</sup>Sheth.

18 And Edom shall be possessed, and Seir shall be a possession to their enemies: but Israel shall do valiantly.

19 He also that shall have dominion shall be of Jacob, and shall destroy the remnant of the <sup>1</sup>city.

20 ¶ And when he looked on Amalek, he uttered his parable, and said, Amalek was the <sup>1</sup>first of the nations: but his latter end shall come to destruction.

21 And he looked on the <sup>1</sup>Kenites, and uttered his parable, and said, Strong is thy dwelling place, and <sup>2</sup>put thy nest in the rock:

22 Nevertheless, <sup>1</sup>the Kenite shall be spoiled, until Asshur carry thee away captive.

23 Again he uttered his parable, and said, Alas, <sup>1</sup>who shall live when God doeth this?

24 The ships also shall come from the coasts of <sup>1</sup>Kittim, and subdue Asshur, and shall subdue Eber, and <sup>2</sup>he also shall come to destruction.

25 Then Balaam rose up, and went and returned to his place: and Balak also went his way.

1 Now while Israel abode in <sup>a</sup>Shittim, the people began to commit whoredom with the <sup>1</sup>daughters of Moab:

24:1 <sup>1</sup> Where the Israelites camped.

24:3 <sup>1</sup> His eyes were shut up before in respect of the clear visions which he saw after: some read, were open.

24:4 <sup>1</sup> Though he lay as in a sleep, yet the eyes of his mind were open.

24:6 <sup>1</sup> Or, tents.

24:7 <sup>1</sup> His prosperity and posterity shall be very great.

24:10 <sup>1</sup> In token of anger.

24:11 <sup>1</sup> Thus the wicked burden God when they cannot compass their wicked enterprises.

24:14 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, counsel.

<sup>2</sup> He gave also wicked counsel to cause the Israelites to sin, that thereby God might forsake them, Num. 31:16.

24:17 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, Christ.

24:20 <sup>1</sup> The Amalekites first made war against Israel, as Num. 14:45.

24:22 <sup>1</sup> Or, thou Kain shalt.

24:23 <sup>1</sup> Some read, Oh who shall not perish when the enemy that is, Antichrist, shall set himself up as God?

2 Which called the people unto the sacrifice of their gods, and the people ate, and bowed down to their gods.

3 And Israel <sup>1</sup>coupled himself unto Baal of Peor: wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel:

4 And the Lord said unto Moses, <sup>b</sup>Take all the heads of the people and hang them up <sup>1</sup>before the Lord <sup>2</sup>against the Sun, that the indignation of the Lord's wrath may be turned from Israel.

5 Then Moses said unto the Judges of Israel, Everyone slay his <sup>1</sup>men that were joined unto Baal of Peor.

6 ¶ And behold, one of the children of Israel came and brought unto his brethren a Midianitish woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the Congregation of the children of Israel, <sup>1</sup>who wept before the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

7 And when Phinehas the son of Eleazar the son of Aaron the Priest saw it, he rose up from the midst of the Congregation, and took a <sup>1</sup>spear in his hand,

8 And followed the man of Israel into the tent, and thrust them both through: to wit, the man of Israel, and the woman, <sup>1</sup>through her belly: so the plague ceased from the children of Israel.

9 <sup>d</sup>And there died in that plague four and twenty thousand.

10 Then the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

11 Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the Priest, hath turned mine anger away from the children of Israel, while he <sup>1</sup>was zealous for my sake among them: therefore I have not consumed the children of Israel in my jealousy.

12 Wherefore say to him, Behold, I give unto him my covenant of peace.

13 And he shall have it, and his seed after him, even the covenant of the Priest's office forever, because he was zealous for his God, and hath made an <sup>1</sup>atonement for the children of Israel.

14 And the name of the Israelite thus slain, which was killed with the Midianitish woman, was Zimri the son of Salu, prince <sup>1</sup>of the family of the Simeonites.

15 And the name of the Midianitish woman that was slain, was Cozbi the daughter of Zur, who was head over the people of his father's house in Midian.

16 ¶ Again the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

17 Vex the Midianites, and smite them:

1 And so after the <sup>1</sup>plague, the Lord spake unto Moses, and to Eleazar the son of Aaron the Priest, saying,

2 Take the number of all the Congregation of the children of Israel, <sup>a</sup>from twenty years old and above, throughout their father's houses, all that go forth to war in Israel.

3 So Moses and Eleazar the Priest spake unto them in the plain of Moab, by Jordan <sup>1</sup>toward Jericho, saying,

4 From twenty years old and above ye shall number the people, as the Lord <sup>b</sup>had commanded Moses, and the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

5 ¶ Reuben the firstborn of Israel: the children of Reuben were: Hanoch, of whom came the family of the Hanochites, and of Pallu the family of the Palluites:

6 Of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites: of Carmi, the family of the Carmites.

7 These are the families of the Reubenites: and they were in number three and forty thousand, seven hundred and thirty.

8 And the sons of Pallu, Eliab.

9 And the sons of Eliab, Nemuel, and Dathan and Abiram: this Dathan and Abiram were famous in the Congregation, and <sup>d</sup>strove against Moses and against Aaron in the <sup>1</sup>assembly of Korah, when they strove against the Lord.

12 ¶ And the children of Simeon after their families were: Nemuel, of whom came the family of the Nemuelites: of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites: of Jachin the family of the Jachinites:

13 Of Zerah, the family of the Zarhites: of Shaul, the family of the Shaulites.

14 These are the families of the Simeonites: two and twenty thousand, and two hundred.

15 ¶ The sons of Gad after their families were: Zephon, of whom came the family of the Zephonites: of Haggi, the family of the Haggites: of Shuni, the family of the Shunites:

16 Of Ozni the family of the Oznites: of Eri, the family of the Erites:

17 Of Arod, the family of the Arodites: of Areli, the family of the Arelites.

18 These are the families of the sons of Gad, according to their numbers forty thousand and five hundred.

19 ¶ The sons of Judah, Er and Onan, but Er and Onan died in the land of <sup>1</sup>Canaan.

20 So were the sons of Judah after their families: of Shelah came the family of the Shelanites: of Perez, the family of the Parzites, of Zerah, the family of the Zarhites.

21 And the sons of <sup>e</sup>Perez were: of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites: of Hamul the family of the Hamulites.

22 These are the families of Judah, after their numbers, seventy and six thousand and five hundred.

23 ¶ The sons of Issachar after their families were: Tola, of whom came the family of the Tolaites: of Puah, the family of the Punites:

24 Of Jashub the family of the Jashubites: of Shimron the family of the Shimronites.

31 Of Asriel the family of the Asrielites: of Shechem, the family of Shechemites.

32 Of Shemida, the family of the Shemidaites: of Hephher, the family of the Hephherites.

33 ¶ And <sup>z</sup>Zelophehad the son of Hephher had no sons but daughters: and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah.

34 These are the families of Manasseh, and the number of them, two and fifty thousand and seven hundred.

35 ¶ These are the sons of Ephraim after their families: of Shuthelah came the family of the Shuthalhites: of Becher, the family of the Bachrites: of Tahan, the family of the Tahanites.

36 And these are the sons of Shuthelah: of Eran, the family of the Eranites.

37 These are the families of the sons of Ephraim after their numbers two and forty thousand and five hundred: these are the sons of Joseph after their families.

38 ¶ These are the sons of Benjamin after their families: of Bela came the family of the Belaites: of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites: of Ahiram, the family of the Ahiramites:

39 Of Shupham, the family of the Shuphamites; of Hupham the family of the Huphamites.

41 These are the sons of Benjamin after their families, and their numbers, five and forty thousand and six hundred.

42 ¶ These are the sons of Dan after their families: of Shuham came the family of the Shuhamites: these are the families of Dan after their households.

43 All the families of the Shuhamites were after their numbers, threescore and four thousand, and four hundred.

44 ¶ The sons of Asher after their families were of Jimna, the families of the Jimnites: of Jesui, the family of the Jesuites: of Beriah, the family of the Beriites.

45 The sons of Beriah were: of Heber, the family of the Heberites: of Malchiel, the family of the Malchielites.

46 And the name of the daughter of Asher was Serah.

47 These are the families of the sons of Asher after their numbers three and fifty thousand and four hundred.

48 ¶ The sons of Naphtali, after their families were: of Jahzeel, the families of the Jahzeelites: of Guni, the family of the Gunites.

49 Of Jezer, the family of the Jezerites: of Shillem, the family of the Shillemites.

50 These are the families of Naphtali according to their households, and their number, five and forty thousand and four hundred.

51 These are the <sup>1</sup>numbers of the children of Israel: six hundred and one thousand seven hundred and thirty.

52 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
53 Unto these the land shall be divided for an inheritance, according to the number of <sup>1</sup>names.

54 <sup>b</sup>To many thou shalt give the more inheritance, and to few thou shalt give less inheritance: to every one according to his number shall be given his inheritance.

the wilderness: so there was not left a man of them, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

1 Then came the daughters of "Zelophehad, the son of Hopher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the family of Manasseh, the son of Joseph (and the names of his daughters were these, Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah)

2 And stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the Priest, and before the Princes, and all the assembly at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, saying,

3 Our father <sup>b</sup>died in the wilderness, and he was not among the assembly of them that were assembled against the Lord in the company of Korah, but died in his <sup>1</sup>sin, and had no sons.

4 Wherefore should the name of our father be taken away from among his family, because he hath no son? give us a possession among the brethren of our father.

5 Then Moses brought their <sup>1</sup>cause before the Lord.

6 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

7 The daughters of Zelophehad speak right: thou shalt give them a possession to inherit among their father's brethren, and shalt turn the inheritance of their father unto them.

8 Also thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a man die and have no son, then ye shall turn his inheritance unto his daughter.

9 And if he have no daughter, ye shall give his inheritance unto his brethren.

10 And if he have no brethren, ye shall give his inheritance unto his father's brethren.

11 And if his father have no brethren, ye shall give his inheritance unto his next kinsman of his family, and he shall possess it: and this shall be unto the children of Israel a law of <sup>1</sup>judgment, as the Lord hath commanded Moses.

12 ¶ Again the Lord said unto Moses, 'Go up into this mount of Abarim, and behold the land which I have given unto the children of Israel.

13 And when thou hast seen it, thou shalt be gathered unto thy people also, <sup>d</sup>as Aaron thy brother was gathered.

26:51 <sup>1</sup> This is the third time that they are numbered.

26:53 <sup>1</sup> Or, persons.

26:64 <sup>1</sup> Wherein appeareth the great power of God, that so wonderfully increased his people.

27:3 <sup>1</sup> According as all men die, for as much as they are sinners.

27:5 <sup>1</sup> That is, their matter to be judged, to know what he should determine, as he did all hard matters.

27:11 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, an ordinance to judge by.

14 For ye were <sup>e</sup>disobedient unto my word in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the assembly to sanctify me in the waters before their eyes: <sup>f</sup>That is the water of <sup>1</sup>Meribah in Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.

15 ¶ Then Moses spake unto the Lord, saying,

16 Let the Lord God of the <sup>1</sup>spirits of all flesh appoint a man over the Congregation, 17 Who may <sup>1</sup>go out and in before them, and lead them out and in, that the Congregation of the Lord be not as sheep, which have not a shepherd.

18 And the Lord said unto Moses, Take thee Joshua the son of Nun, in whom is the Spirit, and <sup>1</sup>put thine hands upon him,

19 And set him before Eleazar the Priest, and before all the Congregation, and give him a charge in their sight,

20 And <sup>1</sup>give him of thy glory, that all the Congregation of the children of Israel may obey.

21 And he shall stand before Eleazar the Priest, who shall ask counsel for him <sup>g</sup>by the <sup>1</sup>judgment of Urim before the Lord: at his word they shall go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he, and all the children of Israel with him, and all the Congregation.

22 So Moses did as the Lord hath commanded him, and he took Joshua, and set him before Eleazar the Priest, and before all the Congregation.

23 Then he put his hands upon him, and gave him a <sup>1</sup>charge, as the Lord had spoken by the hand of Moses.

3 Also thou shalt say unto them, <sup>a</sup>This is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the Lord, two lambs of a year old, without spot daily, for a continual burnt offering.

8 And the other lamb thou shalt prepare at even: as the meat offering of the morning, and as the drink offering thereof shalt thou prepare this <sup>1</sup>for an offering made by fire of sweet savor unto the Lord.

9 ¶ But on the Sabbath day ye shall offer two lambs of a year old, without spot, and two <sup>1</sup>tenth deals of fine flour for a meat offering mingled with oil, and the drink offering thereof.

10 This is the burnt offering of every Sabbath, beside the <sup>1</sup>continual burnt offering, and drink offering thereof.

11 ¶ And in the beginning of your months, ye shall offer a burnt offering unto the Lord, two young bullocks, and a ram, and seven lambs of a year old, without spot,

12 And three tenth deals of fine flour for a meat offering mingled with oil for one bullock, and two tenth deals of fine flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil for one ram,

13 And a tenth deal of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering unto one lamb, for a burnt offering of sweet savor: it is an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

15 And one he goat for a sin offering unto the Lord shall be prepared, besides the continual burnt offering, and his drink offering.

16 <sup>c</sup>Also the fourteenth day of the first month is the Passover of the Lord.

17 And in the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast: seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten.

22 And an he goat for a sin offering, to make an atonement for you.

23 Ye shall prepare these beside the burnt offering in the morning, which is a continual burnt sacrifice.

24 After this manner ye shall prepare throughout all the seven days, for the <sup>1</sup>maintaining of the offering made by fire for a sweet savor unto the Lord: it shall be done beside the continual burnt offering and drink offering thereof.

25 And in the seventh day ye shall have an holy convocation, wherein ye shall do no servile work.

26 ¶ Also in the day of your firstfruits, when ye bring a new meat offering unto the Lord, according to your <sup>1</sup>weeks ye shall have an holy convocation: and ye shall do no servile work in it:

37 Their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullock, for the ram, and for the lambs according to their number, after the manner,

38 And an he goat for a sin offering, beside the continual burnt offering, and his meat offering, and his drink offering.

39 These things ye shall do unto the Lord in your feasts, beside your <sup>1</sup>vows, and your free offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your meat offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings.

1 Then Moses spake unto the children of Israel according to all that the Lord had commanded <sup>1</sup>him.

2 Moses also spake unto the heads of the tribes <sup>1</sup>concerning the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded,

3 Whosoever voweth a vow unto the Lord, or sweareth an oath to bind <sup>1</sup>himself by a bond, he shall not <sup>2</sup>break his promise, but shall do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

4 If a woman also vow a vow unto the Lord, and bind herself by a bond, being in her father's house, in the time of her youth,

5 And her father hear her vow and bond, wherewith she hath bound herself, and her father hold his <sup>1</sup>peace concerning her, then all her vows shall stand and every bond, wherewith she hath bound herself, shall stand.

6 But if her <sup>1</sup>father disallow her the same day that he heareth all her vows and bonds, wherewith she hath bound herself, they shall not be of value, and the Lord will forgive her, because her father disallowed her.

7 And if she have an husband when she voweth or <sup>1</sup>pronounceth ought with her lips, wherewith she bindeth herself,

8 If her husband heard it, and holdeth his peace concerning her, the same day he heareth it, then her vow shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she bindeth herself shall stand in effect.

9 But if her husband disallow her the same day that he heareth it, then shall he make her vow which she hath made, and that that she hath pronounced with her lips, wherewith she bound <sup>1</sup>herself, of none effect: and the Lord will forgive her.

29:21 <sup>1</sup> According to the ceremonies appointed thereunto.

29:39 <sup>1</sup> Beside the sacrifices that you shall vow or offer of your own minds.

30:1 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, Moses.

30:2 <sup>1</sup> Because they might declare them to the Israelites.

30:3 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, his soul.

30:5 <sup>1</sup> For in so doing he doth approve her.

30:6 <sup>1</sup> By not approving or consenting to her vow.

30:7 <sup>1</sup> Either by oath, or solemn promise.

30:9 <sup>1</sup> For she is in subjection to her husband, and can perform nothing without his consent.

10 But every vow of a widow, and of her that is divorced (wherewith she hath bound herself) shall stand in <sup>1</sup>effect with her.

11 And if she vowed in her husband's <sup>1</sup>house, or bound herself straightly with an oath, 12 And her husband hath heard it, and held his peace concerning her, not disallowing her, then all her vows shall stand, and every bond, wherewith she bound herself, shall stand in effect.

13 But if her husband disannulled them the same day that he heard them, nothing that proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows or concerning <sup>1</sup>her bonds, shall stand in effect: for her husband hath disannulled them: and the Lord will forgive her.

14 So every vow, and every oath or bond, made to <sup>1</sup>humble the soul, her husband may stablish it, or her husband may break it.

15 But if her husband hold his peace concerning her from <sup>1</sup>day to day, then he stablisheth all her vows and all her bonds which she hath made: he hath confirmed them because he held his peace concerning her the same day that he heard them.

16 But if he <sup>1</sup>break them after that he hath heard them, then shall he bear her iniquity.

17 These are the ordinances which the Lord commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, and between the father and his daughter, being young in her father's house.

31 <sup>8</sup> Five Kings of Midian and Balaam are slain. <sup>18</sup> Only the maids are reserved alive. <sup>27</sup> The prey is equally divided. <sup>50</sup> A present given of Israel.

4 A thousand of every tribe throughout all the tribes of Israel shall ye send to the war.

5 So there were taken out of the thousands of Israel, twelve thousand prepared unto war, of every tribe a thousand.

7 And they warred against Midian, as the Lord had commanded Moses, and slew all the males.

8 They slew also the kings of Midian among them that were slain: 'Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian, and they slew <sup>1</sup>Balaam the son of Beor with the sword.

9 But the children of Israel took the women of Midian prisoners, and their children, and spoiled all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods.

10 And they burnt all their cities, wherein they dwelt, and all their <sup>1</sup>villages with fire.

11 And they took all the spoil, and all the prey both of men and beasts.

12 And they brought the <sup>1</sup>captives and that which they had taken, and the spoil unto Moses and to Eleazar the Priest, and unto the Congregation of the children of Israel, into the camp in the plain of Moab, which was by Jordan toward Jericho.

13 ¶ Then Moses and Eleazar the Priest, and all the princes of the Congregation went out of the camp to meet them.

14 And Moses was angry with the captains of the host, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the war and battle.

15 And Moses said unto them, What? have ye saved all the <sup>1</sup>women?

16 Behold, <sup>a</sup>these caused the children of Israel through the <sup>c</sup>counsel of Balaam to commit a trespass against the Lord, <sup>1</sup>as concerning Peor, and there came a plague among the Congregation of the Lord.

17 Now therefore, <sup>f</sup>slay all the males among the <sup>1</sup>children, and kill all the women that have known man by carnal copulation.

18 But all the women-children that have not known carnal copulation, keep alive for yourselves.

19 And ye shall remain without the host seven days, all that have killed any person, <sup>g</sup>and all that have touched any dead, and purify both yourselves and your prisoners the third day and the seventh.

21 ¶ And Eleazar the Priest said unto the men of war, which went to the battle, This is the ordinance <sup>1</sup>of the law which the Lord <sup>b</sup>commanded Moses.

22 As for gold, and silver, brass, iron, tin, and lead:

23 Even all that may abide the fire, ye shall make it go through the fire, and it shall be clean: yet, it shall be <sup>1</sup>purified with <sup>t</sup>the water of purification: and all that suffereth not the fire, ye shall cause to pass by the <sup>2</sup>water.

24 Ye shall wash also your clothes the seventh day, and ye shall be clean: and afterward ye shall come into the host.

25 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

26 Take the sum of the prey that was taken, both of persons and of cattle, thou and Eleazar the Priest, and the chief fathers of the Congregation.

27 And divide the prey <sup>b</sup>between the soldiers that went to the war, and all the Congregation.

28 And thou shalt take a tribute unto the Lord of the <sup>1</sup>men of war, which went out to battle: one person of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the beeves, and of the asses, and of the sheep.

29 Ye shall take it of their half, and give it unto Eleazar the Priest, as an heave offering of the Lord.

30 But of the half of the children of Israel thou shalt take <sup>1</sup>one, taken out of fifty, both of the persons, of the beeves, of the asses, and of the sheep, even of all the cattle, and thou shalt give them unto the Levites, which have the charge of the Tabernacle of the Lord.

31 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest did as the Lord had commanded Moses.

32 And the booty, to wit, the rest of the prey which the men of war had spoiled, was six hundred seventy and five thousand sheep,

33 And seventy and two thousand beeves,

34 And threescore and one thousand asses,

35 And two and thirty thousand persons in all, of women that had <sup>1</sup>lain by no man.

36 And the half, to wit, the part of them that went out to war, touching the number of sheep, was three hundred seven and thirty thousand, and five hundred.

37 And the <sup>1</sup>Lord's tribute of the sheep was six hundred seventy and five.

38 And the beeves were six and thirty thousand, whereof the Lord's tribute was seventy and two.

39 And the asses were thirty thousand and five hundred, whereof the Lord's tribute was threescore and one:

40 And <sup>1</sup>of persons sixteen thousand, whereof the Lord's tribute was two and thirty persons.

41 And Moses gave the tribute of the Lord's offering unto Eleazar the Priest, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

42 And of the <sup>1</sup>half of the children of Israel, which Moses divided from the men of war,

43 (For the half that pertained unto the congregation, was three hundred thirty and seven thousand sheep and five hundred,

44 And six and thirty thousand beeves,

45 And thirty thousand asses, and five hundred,

46 And sixteen thousand persons.)

47 Moses, I say, took of the half that pertained unto the <sup>1</sup>children of Israel, one taken out of fifty, both of the persons, and of the cattle, and gave them unto the Levites, which have the charge of the Tabernacle of the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

48 ¶ Then the captains which were over thousands of the host, the captains over the thousands, and the captains over the hundreds came unto Moses:

49 And said to Moses, Thy servants have taken the sum of the men of war which are under <sup>1</sup>our authority, and there lacketh not one man of us.

50 <sup>1</sup>We have therefore brought a present unto the Lord, what every man found of Jewels of gold, bracelets, and chains, rings, earrings, and ornaments of the legs, to make an atonement for our souls before the Lord.

51 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest took the gold of them, and all wrought jewels, 52 And all the gold of the offering that they offered up to the Lord (of the captains over thousands and hundreds) was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels.

53 (For the men of war had spoiled, every man for <sup>1</sup>himself.)

54 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest took the gold of the captains over the thousands, and over the hundreds, and brought it into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, for a <sup>1</sup>memorial of the children of Israel before the Lord.

1 Now the children of <sup>1</sup>Reuben, and the children of Gad had an exceeding great multitude of cattle: and they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of <sup>2</sup>Gilead, that it was an apt place for cattle.

2 Then the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben came, and spake unto Moses and to Eleazar the Priest, and unto the Princes of the Congregation, saying,

3 The land of Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Shebam, and Nebo, and Beon,

4 Which country the Lord smote before the Congregation of Israel; is a land meet for cattle, and thy servants have cattle:

5 Wherefore, said they, if we have found grace in thy sight, let this land be given unto thy servants for a possession, and bring us not over Jordan.

6 And Moses said unto the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, Shall your brethren go to war, and ye tarry here?

7 Wherefore now <sup>1</sup>discourage you the heart of the children of Israel to go over into the land, which the Lord hath given them?

8 Thus did your fathers, when I sent them from Kadesh Barnea to see the land.

9 For <sup>a</sup>when they went up even unto the <sup>1</sup>river of Eshcol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they would not go into the land, which the Lord had given them.

10 And the Lord's wrath was kindled the same day, and he did swear, saying,

11 <sup>1</sup>None of the men that came out of Egypt, <sup>b</sup>from twenty years old and above, shall see the land for the which I swore unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, because they have not <sup>2</sup>wholly followed me:

12 Except Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, and Joshua the son of Nun: for they have constantly followed the Lord.

13 And the Lord was very angry with Israel, and made [them] wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation that had done <sup>1</sup>evil in the sight of the Lord, was consumed.

CHAPTER 32

14 And behold, ye are risen up in your father's stead as an increase of sinful men still to augment the fierce wrath of the Lord toward Israel.

15 For if ye turn away from following him, he will yet again leave the people in the wilderness, and <sup>1</sup>ye shall destroy all this folk.

16 And they went near to him, and said, We will build sheepfolds here for our sheep, and for our cattle, and cities for our children.

17 But we ourselves will be ready armed to go before the children of Israel, until we have brought them unto their <sup>1</sup>place: but our children shall dwell in the defended cities, because of the inhabitants of the land.

18 We will not return unto our houses, until the children of Israel have inherited, every man his inheritance.

19 Neither will we inherit with them beyond Jordan and on that side, because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side Jordan Eastward.

20 ¶ <sup>1</sup>And Moses said unto them, If ye will do this thing, and go <sup>1</sup>armed before the Lord to war:

21 And will go every one of you in harness over Jordan before the Lord, until he have cast out his <sup>1</sup>enemies from his sight:

22 And until the land be subdued before the Lord, then ye shall return and be innocent toward the Lord, and toward Israel: and this land shall be your possession <sup>1</sup>before the Lord.

23 But if ye will not do so, behold, ye have sinned against the Lord, and be sure, that your sin <sup>1</sup>will find you out.

24 Build you then cities for your children, and folds for your sheep, and do that ye have spoken.

25 Then the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spake unto Moses, saying, Thy servants will do as my lord commandeth:

26 Our children, our wives, our sheep, and all our cattle shall remain there in the cities of Gilead,

27 But <sup>4</sup>thy servants will go every one armed to war before the Lord for to fight, as my lord saith.

28 So concerning them, Moses <sup>1</sup>commanded Eleazar the Priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel.

29 And Moses said unto them, If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben will go with you over Jordan, all armed to fight before the Lord, then 30 But if they will not go over with you armed, then they shall have their possessions among you in the land of Canaan.

31 And the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben answered, saying, As the <sup>1</sup>Lord hath said unto thy servants, so will we do.

32 We will go armed before the Lord into the land of Canaan: that the possession of our inheritance may be to us on this side Jordan.

33 <sup>c</sup>So Moses gave unto them, even to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and to half the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the <sup>1</sup>Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land with the cities thereof and coasts, even the cities of the country round about.

34 ¶ Then the children of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer,

35 And Atroth, Shophan, and Jazer, and Jogbehah,

36 And Beth Nimrah, and Beth Haran, defended cities: also sheepfolds.

37 And the children of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kirjathaim, 38 And Nebo, and Baal Meon, and turned their names, and Shibmah: and gave other names unto the cities which they built.

39 And the children <sup>f</sup>of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead, and took it, and put out the Amorites that dwelt therein.

40 Then Moses gave Gilead unto Machir the son of Manasseh, and he dwelt therein.

41 <sup>g</sup>And Jair the son of Manasseh went and took the small towns thereof, and called them <sup>1</sup>Havoth Jair.

51 ¶ Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, <sup>q</sup>When ye are come over Jordan to enter into the land of Canaan,

52 Ye shall then drive out all the inhabitants of the land before you, and destroy all their <sup>1</sup>pictures, and break asunder all their images of metal, and pluck down all their high places,

54 And ye shall inherit the land by lot, according to your families: <sup>t</sup>to the more ye shall give more inheritance, and to the fewer the less inheritance. Where the lot shall fall to any man, that shall be his: according to the tribes of your fathers shall ye inherit.

55 But if ye will not drive out the inhabitants of the land before you, then those which ye let remain of them, shall be <sup>u</sup>pricks in your eyes, and thorns in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein ye dwell.

8 From mount Hor ye shall point out till it come unto Hamath, and the end of the coast shall be at Zedad.

9 And the coast shall reach out to Ziphron, and go out at Hazar Enan, this shall be your North quarter.

10 And ye shall mark out your East quarter from Hazar Enan to Shepham.

11 And the coast shall go down from Shepham to Riblah, and from the East side of Ain: and the same border shall descend and go out at the side of the sea of <sup>1</sup>Chinnereth Eastward.

12 Also that border shall go down to Jordan, and leave at the salt sea: this shall be your land with the coasts thereof round about.

13 ¶ Then Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, This is the land which ye shall inherit by lot, which the Lord commanded to give unto nine tribes, and half the tribe.

4 And the suburbs of the cities, which ye shall give unto the Levites, from the wall of the city outward shall be a thousand cubits round about.

5 And ye shall measure without the city of the East side, <sup>1</sup>two thousand cubits: and of the South side, two thousand cubits: and of the West side, two thousand cubits: and of the North side, two thousand cubits: and the city shall be in the midst: this shall be the measure of the suburbs of their cities.

6 And of the cities which ye shall give unto the Levites, <sup>b</sup>there shall be six cities for refuge, which ye shall appoint, that he which killeth, may flee thither: and to them ye shall add two and forty cities more.

7 All the cities which ye shall give to the Levites, shall be eight and forty cities: them shall ye give with their suburbs.

8 And concerning the cities which ye shall give, of the possession of the children of Israel: of many ye shall take more, and of few ye shall take less: everyone shall give of his cities unto the Levites, according to his inheritance, which he inheriteth.

9 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, <sup>c</sup>When ye be come over Jordan into the land of Canaan, 34:7 <sup>1</sup> Which is a mountain near Tyre and Sidon, and not that Hor in the wilderness where Aaron died.

34:29 <sup>1</sup> And be judges over every piece of ground that should fall to any by lot, to the intent that all things might be done orderly and without contention.

35:2 <sup>1</sup> Because they had no inheritance assigned them in the land of Canaan.

<sup>2</sup> God would have them scattered through all the land, because the people might be preserved by them in the obedience of God and his Law.

35:5 <sup>1</sup> So that in all were three thousand, and in the compass of these two thousand, they might plant and sow.

11 Ye shall appoint you cities, to be cities of refuge for you, that the slayer, which slayeth any person unawares, may flee thither.

12 And these cities shall be for you a refuge from thy <sup>1</sup>avenger, that he which killeth, die not, until he stand before the Congregation in judgment.

13 And of the cities which ye shall give, six cities shall ye have for refuge.

14 Ye shall appoint three <sup>1</sup>on this side Jordan, and ye shall appoint three cities in the land of <sup>4</sup>Canaan which shall be cities of refuge.

15 These six cities shall be a refuge for the children of Israel, and for the stranger, and for him that dwelleth <sup>1</sup>among you, that everyone which killeth any person unawares, may flee thither.

16 <sup>4</sup>And if one <sup>1</sup>smite another with an instrument of iron that he die, he is a murderer, and the murderer shall die the death.

17 Also if he smite him by casting a <sup>1</sup>stone, wherewith he may be slain, and he die, he is a murderer, and the murderer shall die the death.

18 Or if he smite him with an hand weapon of wood, wherewith he may be slain, if he die, he is a murderer, and the murderer shall die the death.

19 The revenger of the blood himself shall slay the murderer: when he meeteth him, he shall slay him.

20 But if he thrust him <sup>1</sup>of hate, or hurl at him by laying of wait, that he die, of the hand of the avenger of blood, and the Congregation shall restore him unto the city of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shall abide there unto the death of the <sup>1</sup>high Priest, which is anointed with the holy oil.

21 Or smite him through enmity with his hand, that he die, he that smote him shall die the death: for he is a murderer: the revenger of the blood shall slay the murderer when he meeteth him.

26 But if the slayer come without the borders of the city of his refuge, whither he was fled,

27 And the revenger of blood find him without the borders of the city of his refuge, and the revenger of blood slay the <sup>1</sup>murderer, he shall be guiltless,

28 Because he should have remained in the city of his refuge, until the death of the high Priest: and after the death of the high Priest, the slayer shall return unto the land of his possession.

29 So these things shall be a <sup>1</sup>law of judgment unto you, throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

30 Whosoever killeth any person, the Judge shall slay the murderer, through <sup>b</sup>witnesses: but <sup>1</sup>one witness shall not testify against a person to cause him to die.

31 Moreover ye shall take no recompense for the life of the murderer, which is <sup>1</sup>worthy to die: but he shall be put to death.

32 Also ye shall take no recompense for him that is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come again, and dwell in the land, before the death of the high Priest.

33 So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye shall dwell: for <sup>1</sup>blood defileth the land: and the land cannot be <sup>2</sup>cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it.

34 Defile not therefore the land which ye shall inhabit, for I dwell in the midst thereof: For I the Lord dwell among the children of Israel.

35:33 <sup>1</sup> Or, murder.

36:1 <sup>1</sup> It seemeth that the tribes contended who might marry these daughters to have their inheritance: and therefore the sons of Joseph proposed the matter to Moses.

to give the land to inherit by lot to the children of Israel: and my lord was commanded by the Lord, to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother unto his daughters.

3 If they be married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of our fathers, and shall be put unto the inheritance of the tribe whereof they shall be: so shall it be taken away from the lot of our inheritance.

4 Also when the <sup>1</sup>Jubilee of the children of Israel cometh, then shall their inheritance be put unto the inheritance of the tribe whereof they shall be: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 Then Moses commanded the children of Israel, according to the word of the Lord, saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph have said <sup>1</sup>well.

6 This is the thing that the Lord hath commanded, concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, They shall be wives, to whom they think best, only to the family of the tribe of their father shall they marry:

7 So shall not the inheritance of the children of

Israel remove from tribe to tribe, for every one of the children of Israel shall join himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And every daughter that possesseth any <sup>1</sup>inheritance of the tribes of the children of Israel, shall be wife unto one of the family of the tribe of her father: that the children of Israel may enjoy every man the inheritance of their fathers.

9 Neither shall the inheritance go about from tribe to tribe: but every one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall stick to his own inheritance.

10 As the Lord commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad.

11 For <sup>6</sup>Mahlah, <sup>7</sup>Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah the daughters of Zelophehad were married unto their father's brother's sons, 12 They were wives to certain of the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph: so their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

13 These are the <sup>1</sup>commandments and laws which the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, unto the children of Israel in the plain of Moab, by Jordan toward Jericho.

36:4 <sup>1</sup> Signifying that at no time it could return, for in the Jubilee all things returned to their own tribes.

36:5 <sup>1</sup> For the tribe could not have continued, if the inheritance which was the maintenance thereof should have been alienated to others.

THE FIFTH BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED <sup>1</sup>DEUTERONOMY

1 2 A brief rehearsal of things done before, from Horeb unto Kadesh Barnea. 32 Moses reproveth the people for their incredulity. 44 The Israelites are overcome by the Amorites because they fought against the commandment of the Lord.

2 There are eleven days' journey from <sup>1</sup>Horeb unto Kadesh Barnea, by the way of mount Seir.

3 And it came to pass in the first day of the eleventh month, in the fortieth year that Moses spake unto the children of Israel according unto all that the Lord hath given him in commandment unto them.

4 After that he had slain <sup>1a</sup>Sihon the King of the Amorites which dwelt in Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, which dwelt at Ashtaroth in Edrei.

5 On this side Jordan at the land of Moab <sup>1</sup>began Moses to declare this law, saying,

6 The Lord our God spake unto us in <sup>1</sup>Horeb, saying, Ye have dwelt long enough in this mount,

7 Turn you and depart, and go unto the mountain of the Amorites, and unto all places near thereunto in the plain, in the mountain, or in the valley: both Southward, and to the Sea side to the land of the Canaanites, and unto Lebanon: even unto the great river, the river <sup>1</sup>Perah.

8 Behold, I have set the land before you: go in and <sup>b</sup>possess that land which the Lord sware, unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give unto them and unto their seed after them.

9 ¶ And I spake <sup>1</sup>unto you the same time, saying, I am not able to bear you myself alone:

10 The Lord your God hath <sup>1</sup>multiplied you: and behold, ye are this day as the stars of heaven in number:

11 (The Lord God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you, as he hath promised you,)

12 How can I alone <sup>1</sup>bear your cumbrance and your charge, and your strife?

13 Bring you men of wisdom and of understanding, and <sup>1</sup>known among your tribes, and I will make them rulers over you:

14 Then he answered me and said, the thing is good that thou hast commanded us to do.

15 So I took the chief of your tribes, <sup>1</sup>wise and known men, and made them rulers over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifty, and captains over ten, and officers among your tribes.

16 And I charged your Judges that same time, saying, Hear the controversies between your brethren, and <sup>1</sup>judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the stranger that is with him.

17 Ye shall have no respect of person in judgment, <sup>a</sup>but shall hear the small as well as the great: ye shall not fear the face of man: for the judgment is <sup>1</sup>God's: and the cause that is too hard for you, bring unto me, and I will hear it.

18 Also I commanded you the same time all the things which ye should do.

19 ¶ Then we departed from Horeb, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness (as ye have seen) by the way of the mountain of the Amorites, as the Lord our God commanded us: and we came to Kadesh Barnea.

Title <sup>1</sup> That is, a second law: so called, because the Law which God gave in mount Sinai, is here repeated, as though it were a new Law: and this book is a commentary or exposition of the ten commandments.

1:2 <sup>1</sup> In Horeb, or Sinai, forty years before this the Law was given: but because all that were then of age and judgment were now dead, Moses repeateth the same to the youth which either then were not born, or had not judgment.

1:17 <sup>1</sup> And you are his Lieutenants.

20 And <sup>1</sup>I said unto you, Ye are come unto the mountain of the Amorites, which the Lord our God doth give unto us.

21 Behold, the Lord thy God hath laid the land before thee: go up and possess it, as the Lord the God of thy fathers hath said unto thee: fear not, neither be discouraged.

22 ¶ <sup>1</sup>Then ye came unto me everyone, and said, We will send men before us, to search us out the land, and to bring us word again, what way we must go up by, and unto what cities we shall come.

23 So the saying pleased me well, and I took twelve men of you, of every tribe one.

24 <sup>c</sup>Who departed, and went up into the mountain, and came unto the <sup>1</sup>river Eshcol, and searched out the land.

25 And took of the fruit of the land in their hand, and brought it unto us, and brought us word again, and <sup>1</sup>said, It is a good land, which the Lord our God doth give us.

26 Notwithstanding, ye would not go up, but were disobedient unto the commandment of the Lord your God,

27 And murmured in your tents, and said, Because the Lord <sup>1</sup>hated us, therefore hath he brought us out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, and to destroy us.

28 Whither shall we go up, our <sup>1</sup>brethren have discouraged our hearts, saying, The people [are] greater, and taller than we: the cities are great and walled up to heaven: and moreover we have seen the sons of the <sup>1</sup>Anakims there.

29 But I said unto you, Dread not, nor be afraid of them.

30 The Lord your God, <sup>1</sup>who goeth before you, he shall fight for you, according to all that he did unto you in Egypt before your eyes,

31 And in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how the Lord thy God bare thee, as a man doth bear his son, in all the way which ye have gone, until ye came unto this place.

32 Yet for all this ye did not believe the Lord your God, ye might see what way to go, and in a cloud by day.

34 Then the Lord heard the voice of your words, and was wroth, and sware, saying,

35 <sup>b</sup>Surely there shall not one of these men of this forward generation, see that good land, which I sware to give unto your fathers,

36 Save Caleb the son of Jephunneh: he shall see it, <sup>1</sup>and to him will I give the land that he hath trodden upon, and to his children, because he hath constantly followed the Lord.

37 <sup>j</sup>Also the Lord was angry with me for your sakes, saying, <sup>k</sup>Thou also shalt not go in thither, 38 But Joshua the son of Nun which standeth <sup>1</sup>before thee, he shall go in thither: encourage him: for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.

39 Moreover, your <sup>1</sup>children, which ye said should be a prey, and your sons, which in that day had no knowledge between good and evil, they shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it.

40 But as for you, turn back, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way of the red Sea.

41 Then ye answered and said unto me, We have sinned against the Lord, <sup>1</sup>we will go up, and fight, according to all that the Lord our God hath commanded us: and ye armed you every man to the war, and were ready to go up into the mountain.

42 But the Lord said unto me, Say unto them, Go not up, neither fight, (for I am <sup>1</sup>not among you) lest ye fall before your enemies.

43 And when I told you, ye would not hear, but rebelled against the commandment of the Lord, and were presumptuous, and went up into the mountain.

44 Then the Amorites which dwelt in that mountain came out against you, and chased you (as bees used to do) and destroyed you in Seir, even unto Hormah.

45 And when ye came again, ye wept before the Lord, but the Lord would not <sup>1</sup>hear your voice, nor incline his ears unto you.

46 So ye abode in Kadesh a long time, according to the time that ye had remained before.

1:25 <sup>1</sup> To wit, Caleb, and Joshua: Moses preferreth the better part to the greater, that is, two to ten.

1:27 <sup>1</sup> Such was the Jews' unthankfulness, that they counted God's especial love, hatred.

1:28 <sup>1</sup> The other ten, not Caleb and Joshua.

1:30 <sup>1</sup> Declaring that to renounce our own force, and constantly to follow our vocation, and depend on the Lord, is the true boldness, and agreeable to God.

1:38 <sup>1</sup> Which ministreth unto thee.

1:39 <sup>1</sup> Which were under twenty years old, as Num. 14:31.

1:42 <sup>1</sup> Signifying that man hath no strength, but when God is at hand to help him.

1:45 <sup>1</sup> Because ye rather showed your hypocrisy, than true repentance: rather lamenting the loss of your brethren, than repenting for your sins.

1 Then <sup>1</sup>we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness, by the way of the red Sea, as the Lord spake unto me: and were compassed mount Seir [a] <sup>2</sup>long time.

2 And the Lord spake unto me, saying,

3 Ye have compassed this mountain long enough: turn you Northward.

4 And warn thou the people, saying, Ye shall go through the <sup>1</sup>coast of your brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir, and they shall be afraid of you: take ye good heed therefore.

5 Ye shall not provoke them: for I will not give you of their land so much as a foot breadth, <sup>a</sup>because I have given mount Seir unto Esau for a possession.

6 Ye shall buy meat of them for money to eat, and ye shall also procure water of them for money to drink.

7 For the Lord thy God hath <sup>1</sup>blessed thee in all the works of thine hand: he knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness, and the Lord thy God hath been with thee this forty years, and thou hast lacked nothing.

8 And when we were departed from our brethren the children of Esau which dwelt in Seir: through the way of the <sup>1</sup>plain, from Elath, and from Ezion Geber, we turned and went by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

9 Then the Lord said unto me, Thou shalt not vex Moab, neither provoke them to battle: for I will not give thee of their land for a possession, because I have given Ar unto the children <sup>2</sup>of Lot for a possession.

10 The <sup>1</sup>Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great and many, and tall, as the Anakims.

11 They also were taken for giants as the Anakims: whom the Moabites call Emims.

12 The <sup>b</sup>Horites also dwelt in Seir before time, whom the children of Esau chased out and destroyed them before them, and dwelt in their stead: as Israel shall do unto the land of his possession, which the Lord hath given them.

13 Now rise up, said I, and get you over the river Zered: and we went over the river Zered.

14 The <sup>1</sup>space also wherein we came from Kadesh Barnea, until we were come over the river Zered, was eight and thirty years, until all the generation of the men of war were wasted out from among the host, as the Lord sware unto them.

CHAPTER 2

15 For indeed the <sup>1</sup>hand of the Lord was against them, to destroy them from among the host, till they were consumed.

16 ¶ So when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people:

17 Then the Lord spake unto me, saying,

18 Thou shalt go through Ar the coast of Moab this day:

19 And thou shalt come near over against the children of Ammon: but shalt not lay siege unto them, nor move war against them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession: for I have given it unto the children of Lot for a possession.

20 That also was taken for a land <sup>1</sup>of giants: for giants dwelt therein afore time, whom the Ammonites called Zamzummims:

21 A people that was great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims: but the Lord destroyed them before them, and they succeeded them in their inheritance, and dwelt in their stead:

22 As he did to the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, when he destroyed the Horites before them, and they possessed them, and dwelt in their stead unto this day.

23 And the Avim which dwelt in Hazarim even unto <sup>1</sup>Azzah, the Caphtorims which came out of Caphtor destroyed them, and dwelt in their stead.

24 ¶ Rise up therefore, said the Lord: take your journey, and pass over the river Arnon: behold, I have given into thy hand Sihon, the <sup>1</sup>Amorite, King of Heshbon, and his land: begin to possess it, and provoke him to battle.

25 This day will I <sup>1</sup>begin to send thy fear and thy dread, upon all people under the whole heaven, which shall hear thy fame, and shall tremble and quake before thee.

26 Then I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth unto Sihon King of Heshbon, with words of peace, saying,

27 ¶ <sup>a</sup>Let me pass through thy land: I will go by the highway: I will neither turn unto the right hand

29 (As the <sup>1</sup>children of Esau which dwell in Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar, did unto me) until I be come over Jordan, into the land which the Lord our God giveth us.

30 But Sihon the King of Heshbon would not let us pass by him: for the Lord thy God had <sup>1</sup>hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, because he would deliver him into thine hand, as appeareth this day.

31 And the Lord said unto me, Behold, I have begun to give Sihon and his land before thee: begin to possess and inherit his land.

32 <sup>c</sup>Then came out Sihon to meet us, himself with all his people to fight at Jahaz.

33 But the Lord our God delivered him <sup>1</sup>into our power, and we smote him, and his sons, and all his people.

34 And we took all his cities the same time, and destroyed every city, men, and <sup>1</sup>women, and children: we let nothing remain.

35 Only the cattle we took to ourselves, and the spoil of the cities which we took.

36 From Aroer, which is by the bank of the river of Arnon, and from the city that is upon the river, even unto Gilead: there was not one city that escaped us: for the Lord our God delivered up all <sup>1</sup>before us.

37 Only unto the land of the children of Ammon thou camest not, nor unto any place of the <sup>1</sup>river Jabbok, nor unto the cities in the mountains, nor unto whatsoever the Lord our God forbade us.

1 Then we turned, and went up by the way of Bashan: <sup>a</sup>and Og King of Bashan <sup>1</sup>came out against us, he and all his people to fight at Edrei.

2 And the Lord said unto me, Fear him not, for I will deliver him, and all his people, and his land into thine hand, and thou shalt do unto him as thou

3 So the Lord our God delivered also unto our hand, <sup>c</sup>Og the King of Bashan, and all his people: and we smote him, until none was left him alive.

4 And we took all his cities the same time, neither was there a city which we took not from them, even three score cities, and all the country of Argob, even the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

5 All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates and bars, beside <sup>1</sup>unwalled towns a great many.

6 And we overthrew them, as we did unto Sihon King of Heshbon, destroying every city, with men, <sup>1</sup>women, and children.

7 But all the cattle and the spoil of the cities we took for ourselves.

8 Thus we took at that time out of the hand of two Kings of the Amorites, the land that was on this side Jordan from the river of Arnon unto mount Hermon:

9 (Which Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion, but the Amorites call it Senir)

10 All the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan unto Salcah, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

11 For only Og King of Bashan remained of the remnant of the Giants, <sup>1</sup>whose bed was a bed of iron: is it not at Rabbath among the children of Ammon? the length thereof is nine cubits, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man.

12 And this land which we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, and half mount Gilead, <sup>d</sup>and the cities thereof, gave I unto the Reubenites and Gadites.

13 And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half tribe of Manasse: even all the country of Argob with all Bashan, which is called, The land of giants.

14 Jair the son of Manasseh took all the country of Argob, unto the coasts of Geshuri, and of Maachathi: and called them after his own name, Bashan, <sup>e</sup>Havoth Jair unto <sup>1</sup>this day.

15 And I gave part of Gilead unto Machir.

16 And unto the Reubenites and Gadites I gave the rest of Gilead, and unto the river of Arnon, half the river and the borders, even unto the river <sup>1</sup>Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon:

2:29 <sup>1</sup> Because neither entreaty nor examples or others could move him, he could not complain of his just destruction.

2:30 <sup>1</sup> God in his election and reprobation doth not only appoint the ends, but the means tending to the same.

2:34 <sup>1</sup> God had cursed Canaan, and therefore he would not that any of the wicked race should be preserved.

2:36 <sup>1</sup> Or, into our hand.

2:37 <sup>1</sup> Or, ford.

3:1 <sup>1</sup> Therefore beside the commandment of the Lord, they had just occasion of his part to fight against him.

3:5 <sup>1</sup> As villages and small towns.

3:6 <sup>1</sup> Because this was God's appointment, therefore it may not be judged cruel.

3:11 <sup>1</sup> The more terrible that this giant was, the greater occasion had they to glorify God for the victory.

3:14 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, when he wrote this history.

3:16 <sup>1</sup> Which separateth the Ammonites from the Amorites.

17 The plain also and Jordan, and the borders from Chinnereth even unto the sea of the plain, to wit, the salt Sea <sup>1</sup>under the springs of Pisgah Eastward.

18 ¶ And I commanded <sup>1</sup>you the same time, saying, The Lord your God hath given you this land to possess it: ye shall go over armed before your brethren the children of Israel, all men of war.

19 Your wives only, and your children, and your cattle (for I know that ye have much cattle) shall abide in your cities, which I have given you,

20 Until the Lord have given rest unto your brethren as unto you, and that they also possess the land, which the Lord your God hath given them beyond Jordan: then shall ye <sup>f</sup>return every man unto his possession, which I have given you.

21 ¶<sup>2</sup> And I charged Joshua the same time, saying, Thine eyes have seen all that the <sup>1</sup>Lord your God hath done unto these two Kings: <sup>b</sup>so shall the Lord do unto all the kingdoms whither thou goest.

22 Ye shall not fear them: for the Lord your God, he shall fight for you.

23 And I besought the Lord the same time, saying,

24 O Lord God, thou hast begun to show thy servant thy greatness and thy mighty hand: for where is there a God in heaven or in earth, that can <sup>1</sup>do like thy works, and like thy <sup>2</sup>power?

25 I pray thee let me go over and see the good land that is beyond Jordan, that goodly <sup>1</sup>mountain, and Lebanon.

26 But the Lord was angry with me for your sakes, and would not hear me: and the Lord said unto me, Let it suffice thee, speak no more unto me of this matter.

27 Get thee up into the top of Pisgah, and <sup>1</sup>lift up thine eyes Westward, and Northward, and Southward, and Eastward, and behold it with thine eyes, for thou shalt not go over this Jordan:

28 But charge Joshua, and encourage him, and bolden him: for he shall go before this people, and he shall divide for inheritance unto them, the land which thou shalt see.

1 Now therefore hearken, O Israel, unto the ordinances and to the laws which I teach you to <sup>1</sup>do, that ye may live and go in, and possess the land, which the Lord God of your fathers giveth you.

2 <sup>a</sup>Ye shall <sup>1</sup>put nothing unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye <sup>2</sup>take ought there from, that ye may keep the commandments of the Lord your God which I command you.

3 Your <sup>1</sup>eyes have seen what the Lord did because of Baal Peor, for all the men that followed Baal Peor, the Lord thy God hath destroyed every one from among you.

4 But ye that did <sup>1</sup>cleave unto the Lord your God, are alive every one of you this day.

5 Behold, I have taught you ordinances, and laws, as the Lord my God commanded me, that ye should do even so within the land whither ye go to possess it.

6 Keep them therefore, and do them: for that is your <sup>1</sup>wisdom, and your understanding in the sight of the people, which shall hear all these ordinances, and shall say, <sup>2</sup>Only this people is wise, and of understanding, and a great nation.

7 For what nation is so great, unto whom the gods come so near unto them, as the Lord our God is, <sup>1</sup>near unto us, in all that we call unto him for?

8 And what nation is so great, that hath ordinances and laws so righteous, as all this Law, which I set before you this day?

3:25 <sup>1</sup> He meaneth Zion, where the Temple should be built, and God honored.

3:27 <sup>1</sup> As before he saw by the spirits of prophecy the good mountain which was Zion: so here his eyes were lifted up above the order of nature to behold all the plentiful land of Canaan.

4:1 <sup>1</sup> For this doctrine standeth not in bare knowledge, but in practice of life.

4:2 <sup>1</sup> Think not to be more wise than I am.

<sup>2</sup> God will not be served by halves, but will have full obedience.

4:3 <sup>1</sup> God's judgments executed upon other idolaters ought to serve for our instruction, read Num. 25:3,4.

4:4 <sup>1</sup> And were not idolaters.

4:6 <sup>1</sup> Because all men naturally desire wisdom, he showeth how to attain unto it.

4:7 <sup>1</sup> Helping us, and delivering us out of all dangers, as 2 Sam. 7:23.

them to hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children:

11 Then came you near and <sup>b</sup>stood under the mountain, and the mountain <sup>1</sup>burnt with fire unto the midst of heaven, and there was darkness, clouds and mist.

12 And the Lord spake unto you out of the midst of the fire, and ye heard the voice of the words, but saw no similitude, save a voice.

13 Then he declared unto you his covenant which he commanded you to <sup>1</sup>do, even the ten <sup>2</sup>commandments, and wrote them upon two Tables of stone.

14 ¶ And the Lord commanded me that same time, that I should teach you ordinances and laws, which ye should observe in the land, whither ye go, to possess it.

15 Take therefore good heed unto your <sup>1</sup>selves: for ye saw no <sup>2</sup>image in the day that the Lord spake unto you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire:

16 That ye corrupt not yourselves, and make you a graven image, or representation of any figure: whether it be the likeness of male or female,

17 The likeness of any beast that is on earth, or the likeness of any feathered fowl that flieth in the air:

18 Or the likeness of anything that creepeth on the earth, or the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth,

19 And lest thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the sun and the moon and the stars with all the host of heaven, shouldest be driven to worship them and serve them, which the Lord thy God hath <sup>1</sup>distributed to all people under the whole heaven.

20 But the Lord hath taken you and brought you out of the <sup>1</sup>iron furnace, out of Egypt to be unto him a people and inheritance, as appeareth this day.

21 And the Lord was angry with me for your words, and sware that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that good land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

22 For I must die in this land, and shall not go over Jordan: but <sup>1</sup>ye shall go over, and possess that good land.

23 Take heed unto yourselves, lest ye forget the covenant of the Lord your God which he made with you, and lest ye make you any graven image, or likeness of anything, as the Lord thy God hath charged thee.

24 For the Lord thy God is a <sup>1</sup>consuming fire, and a jealous God.

25 ¶ When thou shalt beget children and children's children, and shalt have remained long in the land, if ye <sup>1</sup>corrupt yourselves, and make any graven image, or likeness of anything, and work evil in the sight of the Lord thy God, to provoke him to anger,

26 I <sup>1</sup>call heaven and earth to record against you this day, that ye shall shortly perish from the land, whereunto ye go over Jordan to possess it: ye shall not prolong your days therein, but shall utterly be destroyed.

27 And the Lord shall <sup>1</sup>scatter you among the people, and ye shall be left few in number among the nations, whither the Lord shall bring you:

28 And there ye shall serve gods: even the work of man's hand, wood, and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

29 But if from thence thou shalt seek the Lord thy God, thou shalt find him, if thou seek him with all thine <sup>1</sup>heart, and with all thy soul.

30 When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come upon thee, <sup>1</sup>at the length, if thou return to the Lord thy God, and be obedient unto his voice, 31 (For the Lord thy God is a merciful God) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers, which he <sup>1</sup>sware unto them.

32 For inquire now of the days that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and <sup>1</sup>ask from the one end of heaven unto the other, if there came to pass such a great thing as this, or whether any such like thing hath been heard.

33 Did ever people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of a fire, as thou hast heard, and lived?

4:11 <sup>1</sup> The Law was given with fearful miracles, to declare both that God was the author thereof, and also that no flesh was able to abide the rigor of the same.

4:13 <sup>1</sup> God joineth this condition to his covenant.

4:15 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, souls.

<sup>2</sup> Signifying, that destruction is prepared for all them that make any image to represent God.

4:19 <sup>1</sup> He hath appointed them for to serve man.

4:20 <sup>1</sup> He hath delivered you out of most miserable slavery and freely chosen you for his.

4:22 <sup>1</sup> Moses' good affection appeareth in that he being deprived of such an excellent treasure, doth not envy them that must enjoy it.

4:24 <sup>1</sup> To those that come not unto him with love and reverence, but rebel against him, Heb. 12:29.

4:25 <sup>1</sup> Meaning hereby all superstition and corruption of the true service of God.

4:26 <sup>1</sup> Though men would absolve you, yet the insensible creatures shall be witnesses of your disobedience.

4:27 <sup>1</sup> So that his curse shall make his former blessings of none effect.

4:29 <sup>1</sup> Not with outward show or ceremony, but with a true confession of thy faults.

4:30 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, in the latter days.

4:31 <sup>1</sup> To certify them the more of the assurance of their salvation.

4:32 <sup>1</sup> Man's negligence is partly cause, that he knoweth not God.

34 Or hath God assayed to go and take him a nation from among nations, by <sup>1</sup>tentations, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arm, and by great fear, according unto all that the Lord your God did unto you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 Unto thee it was showed, that thou mightest <sup>1</sup>know that the Lord he is God, and that there is none but he alone.

36 Out of heaven he made thee hear his voice to instruct thee, and upon earth he showed thee his great fire, and thou heardest his voice out of the midst of the fire.

37 And because <sup>1</sup>he loved thy fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them, and hath brought thee out of Egypt in his sight by his mighty power, 38 To thrust out nations greater and mightier than thou, before thee, to bring thee in, and to give thee their land for inheritance: as appeareth this day.

39 Understand therefore this day, and consider in thine heart, that the Lord he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none other.

40 Thou shalt keep therefore his ordinances, and his commandments which I command thee this day, that it may <sup>1</sup>go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the Lord thy God giveth thee forever.

41 ¶ Then Moses separated three cities on this side of Jordan toward the sun rising:

42 That the slayer should flee thither, which had killed his neighbor at unawares, and hated him not in time past, might flee, I say, unto one of those cities, and live:

43 That is, Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain country of the Reubenites: and Ramoth in Gilead among the Gadites: and Golan in Bashan among them of Manasseh.

44 ¶ So this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel.

45 These are the <sup>1</sup>witnesses, and the ordinances, and the laws which Moses declared to the children of Israel after they came out of Egypt.

46 On this side Jordan, in the valley over against Beth Peor, in the land of Sihon King of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel <sup>4</sup>smote, after they were come out of Egypt:

3 Therefore he humbled thee, and made thee hungry, and fed thee with Manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know it, that he might teach thee that man lived not by <sup>1</sup>bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord, doth a man live.

4 Thy raiment waxed not old upon thee, neither did thy foot <sup>1</sup>swell those forty years.

5 Know therefore in thine heart, that as a man nurtureth his son, so the Lord thy God <sup>1</sup>nurtureth thee.

6 Therefore shalt thou keep the commandments of the Lord thy God, that thou mayest walk in his ways, and fear him.

7 For the Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land in the which are rivers of water and fountains, and <sup>1</sup>depths that spring out of valleys and mountains:

8 A land of wheat and barley, and of vineyards, and fig trees, and pomegranates: a land of oil, olive and honey:

9 A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarcity, neither shalt thou lack anything therein: a land <sup>1</sup>whose stones are iron, and out of whose mountains thou shalt dig brass.

10 And when thou hast eaten and filled thyself, thou shalt <sup>1</sup>bless the Lord thy God for the good land, which he hath given thee.

11 Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God, not keeping his commandments and his laws, and his ordinances, which I command thee this day:

12 Lest when thou hast eaten and filled thyself, and hast built goodly houses and dwelt therein,

13 And thy beasts, and the sheep are increased, and thy silver and gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is increased;

14 Then thine heart <sup>1</sup>be lifted up and thou forget the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, 16 Who fed thee in the wilderness with <sup>1</sup>Manna, which thy fathers knew not) to humble thee, and to prove thee, that he might do thee good at the latter end.

CHAPTER 8

17 Beware lest thou say in thine heart, My power, and the strength of mine own hand hath prepared me this abundance.

18 But remember the Lord thy God: for it is he which <sup>1</sup>giveth thee power to get substance to establish his covenant which he sware unto thy fathers, as appeareth this day.

19 And if thou forget the Lord thy God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I <sup>1</sup>testify unto you this day, that ye shall surely perish.

20 As the nations which the Lord destroyeth before you, so ye shall perish, because ye would not be obedient unto the voice of the Lord your God.

3 Understand therefore that this day the Lord thy God is he which <sup>1</sup>goeth over before thee as a consuming fire: he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face: so thou shalt cast them out and destroy them suddenly, as the Lord hath said unto thee.

4 Speak not thou in thine heart (after that the Lord thy God hath cast them out before thee) saying, For my <sup>1</sup>righteousness the Lord hath brought me in, to possess this land: but for the wickedness of these nations, the Lord hath cast them out before thee.

5 For thou entrust not to inherit their land for thy righteousness, or for their upright heart, but for the wickedness of those nations, the Lord thy God doth cast them out before thee, and that he might perform the word which the Lord thy God sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

7 ¶ Remember and forget not, how thou provokedst the Lord thy God to anger in the wilderness: <sup>1</sup>since the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came into this place, ye have rebelled against the Lord.

8 Also in Horeb ye provoked the Lord to anger, so that the Lord was wroth with you, even to destroy you.

9 When I was gone up into the mount, to receive the Tables of stone, the Tables, I say, of the Covenant, which the Lord made with you: and <sup>4</sup>I abode in the mount forty days and forty nights, and I neither ate bread nor yet drank water:

10 <sup>6</sup>Then the Lord delivered me two tables of stone, written with the <sup>1</sup>finger of God, and in them was contained according to all the words which the Lord had said unto you in the mount out of the midst of the fire, in the day of the assembly.

11 And when the forty days and forty nights were ended, the Lord gave me the two tables of stone, the tables, I say, of the covenant.

12 And the Lord said unto me, <sup>4</sup>Arise, get thee down quickly from hence: for thy people which thou hast brought out of Egypt, have <sup>1</sup>corrupt their ways: they are soon turned out of the way which I commanded them, they have made them a molten image.

13 Furthermore the Lord spake unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiff-necked people.

14 <sup>1</sup>Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and put out their name from under heaven, and I will make of thee a mighty nation and greater than they be.

15 So I returned, and came down from the mount (and the mount burnt with fire, and the two Tables of the Covenant were in my two hands.)

16 Then I looked, and behold, ye had sinned against the Lord your God: for ye had made you a molten calf, and had turned quickly out of the <sup>1</sup>way which the Lord had commanded you.

17 Therefore I took the two Tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes.

18 And I fell down before the Lord, forty days, and forty nights, as before: I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all your sins which ye had committed, in doing wickedly in the sight of the Lord, in that ye provoked him unto wrath.

19 (For I was afraid of the wrath and indignation, wherewith the Lord was moved against you, even to destroy you) yet the Lord heard me at that time also.

20 Likewise the Lord was very angry with Aaron, even to <sup>1</sup>destroy him: but at that time I prayed also for Aaron.

21 And I took your sin, I mean the calf which ye had made, and burnt him with fire, and stamped him and ground him small, even unto very dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the river, that descended out of the <sup>1</sup>mount.

22 Also <sup>4</sup>in Taberah, and in <sup>4</sup>Massah, <sup>4</sup>and in Kibroth Hattaavah ye provoked the Lord to anger.

23 Likewise when the Lord sent you from Kadesh Barnea, saying, Go up, and possess the land which I have given you, then ye <sup>1</sup>rebelled against the commandment of the Lord your God, and believed him not, nor hearkened unto his voice.

24 Ye have been rebellious unto the Lord, since the day that I knew you.

25 Then I fell down before the Lord <sup>4</sup>forty days, and forty nights, as I fell down before, because the Lord had said that he would destroy you.

26 And I prayed unto the Lord, and said, O Lord God, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, whom thou hast brought out of Egypt by a mighty hand.

27 <sup>1</sup>Remember thy servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: look not to the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin,

28 Lest the country whence thou broughtest them, say, <sup>4</sup>Because the Lord was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, or because he hated them, he carried them out to slay them in the wilderness.

29 Yet they are thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out by thy mighty power, and by thy stretched out arm.

3 And I made an Ark of <sup>1</sup>Shittim wood, and hewed two tables of stone like unto the first, and went up into the mountain, and the two Tables in mine hand.

4 Then he wrote upon the Tables according to the first writing, (the ten commandments, which the Lord spake unto you in the mount out of the midst of the fire, in the day of the <sup>1</sup>assembly) and the Lord gave them unto me.

5 And I departed and came down from the Mount, and put the Tables in the Ark which I had made: and there they be, as the Lord commanded me.

6 ¶ And the children of Israel took their journey from Beeroth of the children of Jaakan, to <sup>1</sup>Moserah, where Aaron died, and was buried, and Eleazar his son became Priest in his stead.

7 ¶ From thence they departed unto Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of running waters.

8 ¶ The same time the Lord separated the tribe of Levi to bear the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord, and to stand before the Lord, to <sup>1</sup>minister unto him, and to bless in his Name unto this day.

9 Wherefore Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren: for the Lord is his <sup>1</sup>inheritance, as the Lord thy God hath promised him.

10 And I tarried in the mount, as at the first time, forty days and forty nights, and the Lord heard me at that time also, and the Lord would not destroy thee.

11 But the Lord said unto me, Arise, go forth in the journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land, which I swore unto their fathers to give unto them.

12 ¶ And now, Israel, what doth the Lord thy God <sup>1</sup>require of thee, but to fear the Lord thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul?

13 That thou keep the commandments of the Lord and his ordinances, which I command thee this day, for thy wealth?

8 Therefore shall ye keep <sup>1</sup>all the commandments, which I command you this day, that ye may be strong, and go in and possess the land whither ye go to possess it:

9 Also that ye may prolong your days in the land, which the Lord sware unto your fathers, to give unto them and to their seed, even a land that floweth with milk and honey.

10 ¶ For the land whither thou goest to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came, where thou sowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy <sup>1,2</sup>feet as a garden of herbs:

11 But the land whither ye go to possess it, is a land of mountains and valleys, and drinketh water of the rain of heaven.

12 This land doth the Lord thy God care for: the eyes of the Lord thy God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year, even unto the end of the year.

13 ¶ If ye shall hearken therefore unto my commandments, which I command you this day, that ye love the Lord your God and serve him with all your heart, and with all your soul, he hath said unto them.

3 ¶ And this shall be the Priest's duty of the people, that they which offer sacrifice, whether it be bullock or sheep, shall give unto the Priest the <sup>1</sup>shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw.

4 The firstfruits also of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the first of the fleece of thy sheep shalt thou give him.

5 For the Lord thy God hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, to stand and minister in the Name of the Lord, him, and his sons forever.

6 ¶ Also when a Levite shall come out of any of thy cities of all Israel, where he remained, and come with <sup>1</sup>all the desire of his heart unto the place, which the Lord shall choose,

7 He shall then minister in the Name of the Lord his God, as all his brethren the Levites, which remain there before the Lord.

8 They shall have like portions to eat <sup>1</sup>beside that which cometh of the sale of his patrimony.

9 When thou shalt come into the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations.

10 Let none be found among you that maketh his son or his daughter to <sup>1</sup>go thorough the fire, or that useth witchcraft, or a regarnder of times, or a marker of the flying of fowls, or a sorcerer, 12 For all that do such things are abomination unto the Lord, and because of these abominations the Lord thy God doth cast them out before thee.

13 Thou shalt be <sup>1</sup>upright therefore with the Lord thy God.

14 For these nations which thou shalt possess, hearken unto those that regard the times, and unto sorcerers: <sup>a</sup>as for thee, the Lord thy God hath not <sup>2</sup>suffered thee so.

5 Also the Priests the sons of Levi (whom the Lord thy God hath chosen to minister, and to bless in the Name of the Lord) shall come forth, and by their word shall all strife and plague be tried.

6 And all the Elders of that city that came near to the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley:

7 And shall testify, and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it.

9 So shalt thou take away the cry of innocent blood from thee, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the Lord.

10 ¶ When thou shalt go to war against thine enemies, and the Lord thy God shall deliver them into thine hands, and thou shalt take them captives,

11 And shalt see among the captives a beautiful woman, and hast a desire unto her, and wouldest take her to thy wife,

12 Then thou shalt bring her home to thine house, <sup>1</sup>and she shall shave her head, and pare her nails,

18 ¶ If any man have a son that is stubborn and disobedient, which will not hearken unto the voice of his father, nor the voice of his <sup>1</sup>mother, and they have chastened him, and he would not obey them,

19 Then shall his father and his mother take him, and bring him out unto the Elders of his city, and unto the gate of the place where he dwelleth,

21 Then all the men of his city shall <sup>1</sup>stone him with stones unto death: so thou shalt take away evil from among you, that all Israel may hear it, and fear.

22 ¶ If a man also have committed a trespass worthy of death, and is put to death, and thou hangest him on a tree,

5 The <sup>1</sup>woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto the man, neither shalt a man put on woman's raiment: for all that do so, are abomination unto the Lord thy God.

6 ¶ If thou find a bird's nest in the way, in any tree, or on the ground whether they be young or eggs, and the dam sitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, <sup>1</sup>thou shalt not take the dam with the young,

7 But shalt in any wise let the dam go, and take the young to thee, that thou mayest prosper and prolong thy days.

22:3 <sup>1</sup> Much more art thou bound to do for thy neighbor's person.

22:5 <sup>1</sup> For that were to alter the order of nature, and to despite God.

22:6 <sup>1</sup> If God detests cruelty done to little birds, how much more to man, made according to his image?

22:9 <sup>1</sup> The tenor of this Law, is to walk in simplicity, and not to be curious of new inventions.

20 But if this thing be true, that the maid be not found a virgin,

21 Then shall they bring forth the maid to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones to death: for she hath wrought folly in Israel, by playing the whore in her father's house: so thou shalt put evil away from among you.

22 ¶ If a man be found lying with a woman married to a man, then they shall die even both twain: to wit, the man that lay with the wife, and the wife: so thou shalt put away evil from Israel.

23 ¶ If a maid be betrothed unto a husband, and a man find her in the town and lie with her,

24 Then shall ye bring them both out unto the gates of the same city, and shall stone them with stones to death: the maid because she cried not, being in the city, and the man, because he hath <sup>1</sup>humbled his neighbor's wife: so thou shalt put away evil from among you.

25 ¶ But if a man find a betrothed maid in the field and force her, and lie with her, then the man that lay with her, shall die alone:

26 And unto the maid thou shalt do nothing, because there is in the maid no <sup>1</sup>cause of death: for as when a man riseth against his neighbor and woundeth him to death, so <sup>2</sup>is this matter.

27 For he found her in the fields: the betrothed maid cried, and there was no man to succor her.

28 ¶ If a man find a maid that is not betrothed, and take her, and lie with her, and they be found,

46 And they shall be upon <sup>1</sup>thee for signs and wonders, and upon thy seed forever,

47 Because thou servedst not the Lord thy God with joyfulness, and with a good heart, for the abundance of all things.

48 Therefore thou shalt serve thine enemies which the Lord shall send upon thee, in hunger and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in need of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck until he have destroyed thee.

49 The Lord shall bring a nation upon thee from far, even from the end of the world, flying swift as an eagle: a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand:

53 <sup>1</sup>And thou shalt eat the fruit of thy body, even the flesh of thy sons and thy daughters, which the Lord thy God hath given thee, during the siege and straitness wherein thine enemies shall enclose thee:

55 For fear of giving unto any of them of the flesh of his children, whom he shall eat, because he hath nothing left him in that siege, and straitness, wherewith thine enemy shall besiege thee in all thy cities.

56 The tender and dainty <sup>1</sup>woman among you, which never would venture to set the sole of her foot upon the ground (for her softness and tenderness) shall be grieved at her husband that lieth in her bosom, and at her son, and at her daughter,

59 Then the Lord will make thy plagues wonderful, and the plagues of thy seed, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and sore diseases and of long durance.

60 Moreover, he will bring upon thee all the diseases of Egypt, whereof thou wast afraid, and they shall cleave unto thee.

61 And every sickness, and every plague, which is not <sup>1</sup>written in the book of this Law, will the Lord heap upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

62 And ye shall be left few in number, where ye were as the <sup>1</sup>stars of heaven in multitude, because thou wouldst not obey the voice of the Lord thy God.

63 And as the Lord hath rejoiced over you, to do you good, and to multiply you, so he will rejoice over you, to destroy you, and bring you to naught, and ye shall be rooted out of the land, whither thou goest to possess it.

1 These are the <sup>1</sup>words of the covenant which the Lord commandeth Moses to make with the children of Israel, in the land of Moab, beside the covenant which he had made with them in <sup>2</sup>Horeb.

2 ¶ And Moses called all Israel, and said unto them, Ye have seen all that the Lord did before your eyes in the land of Egypt unto Pharaoh and unto all his servants, and unto all his land,

3 The <sup>1</sup>great tentations which thine eyes have seen, those great miracles and wonders:

4 Yet the Lord hath not <sup>1</sup>given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day.

5 And I have led you forty years in the wilderness: your clothes are not waxed old upon you, neither is thy shoe waxed old upon thy foot.

6 Ye have eaten no <sup>1</sup>bread, neither drunk wine, nor strong drink, that ye might know how that I am the Lord your God.

7 After, ye came unto this place, and Sihon King of Heshbon, and Og King of Bashan came out against us unto battle, and we slew them,

8 And took their land, and gave it for an inheritance unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of Manasseh.

9 <sup>a</sup>Keep therefore the words of this covenant and do them, that ye may prosper in all that ye shall do.

10 Ye stand this day everyone of you before the Lord your <sup>1</sup>God: your heads of your tribes, your Elders and your officers, even all the men of Israel:

11 Your children, your wives, and thy stranger that is in thy camp, from the hewer of thy wood, unto the drawer of thy water,

12 That thou shouldst <sup>1</sup>pass into the covenant of the Lord thy God, and into his oath which the Lord thy God maketh with thee this day,

14 Neither make I this covenant and this oath with you only,

15 But as well with him that standeth here with us this day before the Lord our God, as with him <sup>1</sup>that is not here with us this day.

16 For ye know, how we have dwelt in the land of Egypt, and how we passed through the midst of the nations, which ye passed by.

17 And ye have seen their abominations and their idols (wood and stone, silver and gold) which were among them,

18 That there should not be among you man nor woman, nor family, nor tribe, which should turn his heart away this day from the Lord our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations, and that there should not be among you <sup>1</sup>any root that bringeth forth <sup>b</sup>gall and wormwood,

19 So that when he heareth the words of this curse, he <sup>1</sup>bles himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, although I walk according to the stubbornness of mine own heart, thus adding <sup>2</sup>drunkenness to thirst.

20 The Lord will not be merciful unto him, but then the wrath of the Lord and his jealousy shall smoke against that man, and every curse that is written in this book, shall light upon him, and the Lord shall put out his name from under heaven.

21 And the Lord shall separate him unto evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according unto all the curses of the covenant, that is written in the book of this Law.

22 So that the <sup>1</sup>generation to come, even your children, that shall rise up after you, and the stranger that shall come from a far land, shall say, when they shall see the plagues of this land, and the diseases thereof, wherewith the Lord shall smite it:

23 (For all that land shall burn with brimstone and salt: it shall not be sown, nor bring forth, nor any grass shall grow therein, like as in the overthrowing of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim, which the Lord overthrew in his wrath and in his anger.)

24 Then shall all nations say, <sup>d</sup>Wherefore hath the Lord done thus unto this land? how fierce is this great wrath?

25 And they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the Lord God of their fathers, which he had made with them, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt,

26 And went and served other gods and worshipped them: even gods which they knew not, and <sup>1</sup>which had given them nothing,

27 Therefore the wrath of the Lord waxed hot against this land, to bring upon it every curse that is written in this book.

28 And the Lord hath rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and hath cast them into another land, as appeareth this day.

29 The <sup>1</sup>secret things belong to the Lord our God, but the things revealed belong unto us, and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this Law.

2 And shalt return unto the Lord thy God, and obey his voice in all that I command thee this day: thou, and thy children with all thine <sup>1</sup>heart and with all thy soul, heart, and the heart of thy seed, that thou mayest love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live.

3 Then the Lord thy God will cause thy captives to return, and have compassion upon thee, and will return, to gather thee out of all the people where the Lord thy God hath scattered thee.

7 And the Lord thy God will lay all these curses upon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, and that persecute thee.

8 <sup>1</sup>Return thou therefore, and obey the voice of the Lord, and do all his commandments, which I command thee this day.

9 And the Lord thy God will make thee plentiful in every work of thine hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of the land for thy wealth: for the Lord will turn again, and <sup>1</sup>rejoice over thee to do thee good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers,

10 Because thou shalt obey the voice of the Lord thy God, in keeping his commandments and his ordinances, which are written in the book of this law, when thou shalt return unto the Lord thy God with all thine heart and with all thy soul.

11 ¶ For this commandment which I command thee this day, is <sup>1</sup>not hid from thee, neither is it far off.

12 It is not in heaven, that thou shouldest say, "Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it us, and cause us to hear it, that we may do it?"

13 Neither is it beyond the <sup>1</sup>sea, that thou shouldest say, "Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it us, and cause us to hear it, that we may do it?"

14 But the <sup>1</sup>word is very near unto thee: even in thy mouth, and in thine heart, for to <sup>2</sup>do it.

15 Behold, I have set before thee this day life and good, death and evil,

16 In that I command thee this day, <sup>1</sup>to love the Lord thy God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandment, and his ordinances, and his laws, that thou mayest <sup>2</sup>live, and be multiplied, and that the Lord thy God may bless thee in the land, whither thou goest to possess it.

17 But if thine heart turn away, so that thou wilt not obey, but shalt be seduced and worship other gods, and serve them,

19 <sup>b</sup>I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore <sup>1</sup>choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live,

20 By loving the Lord thy God, by obeying his voice, and by cleaving unto him: for he is thy life, and the length of thy days, that thou mayest dwell in the land which the Lord sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give them.

31 <sup>2, 7</sup> Moses preparing himself to die, appointeth Joshua to rule the people. <sup>9</sup> He giveth the law to the Levites, that they should read it to the people. <sup>19</sup> God giveth them a song as a witness between him and them. <sup>23</sup> God confirmeth Joshua. <sup>29</sup> Moses showeth them that they will rebel after his death.

1 Then Moses went and spake these words unto all Israel,

2 And said unto them, I am an hundred and twenty years old this day: I <sup>1</sup>can no more go out and in: also the Lord hath said unto me, "Thou shalt not go over this Jordan.

3 The Lord thy God he will go over before thee: he will destroy these nations before thee, and thou shalt possess them. <sup>b</sup>Joshua, he shall go before thee, as the Lord hath said.

4 And the Lord shall do unto them, as he did to 'Sihon and to Og kings of the Amorites, and unto their land whom he destroyed.

5 And the Lord shall give them <sup>1</sup>before you, that ye may do unto them according unto every <sup>d</sup>commandment which I have commanded you.

6 Pluck <sup>1</sup>up your hearts therefore, and be strong: dread not, nor be afraid of them: for the Lord thy God himself doth go with thee: he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

7 ¶ And Moses called Joshua, and said unto him in the sight of all Israel, Be <sup>1</sup>of a good courage and strong: for thou shalt go with this people unto the land which the Lord hath sworn unto their fathers, to give them, and thou shalt give it them to inherit.

8 And the Lord himself doth <sup>1</sup>go before thee: he will be with thee: he will not fail thee, neither forsake thee: fear not therefore, nor be discomfited.

30:8 <sup>1</sup> If we will have God to work in us with his holy Spirit, we must turn again to him by repentance.

30:9 <sup>1</sup> He meaneth not that God is subject to these passions, to rejoice, or to be sad: but he useth this manner of speech to declare the love that he beareth unto us.

30:11 <sup>1</sup> The Law is so evident that none can pretend ignorance.

30:13 <sup>1</sup> By heaven and the sea he meaneth places most far distant.

30:14 <sup>1</sup> Even the law and the Gospel.

30:16 <sup>1</sup> So that to love and obey God, is only life and felicity.

<sup>2</sup> He addeth these promises to signify that it is for our profit that we love him, and not for his.

30:19 <sup>1</sup> That is, love and obey God: which thing is not in man's power, but God's Spirit only worketh it in his elect.

31:2 <sup>1</sup> I can no longer execute mine office.

31:5 <sup>1</sup> Into your hands.

31:6 <sup>1</sup> Or, be of good courage.

31:7 <sup>1</sup> For he that must govern the people, hath need to be valiant to repress vice, and constant to maintain virtue.

31:8 <sup>1</sup> Signifying that man can never be of good courage, except he be persuaded of God's favor and assistance.

9 ¶ And Moses wrote this Law, and delivered it unto the Priests the sons of Levi (which bare the Ark of the covenant of the Lord) and unto all the Elders of Israel.

10 And Moses commanded them, saying, 'Every seventh year <sup>f</sup>when the year of freedom shall be in the feast of the Tabernacles:

11 When all Israel shall come to appear <sup>h</sup>before the Lord thy God, and the place which he shall choose, thou shalt read this Law before all Israel that they may hear it.

12 Gather the people together: men, and women, and children, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the Lord your God, and keep and observe all the words of this Law,

13 And that their children which <sup>i</sup>have not known it, may hear it, and learn to fear the Lord your God, as long as ye live in the land, whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

14 ¶ Then the Lord said unto Moses, Behold, thy days are come, that thou must die: Call Joshua, and stand ye in the Tabernacle of the Congregation that I may give him a <sup>j</sup>charge. So Moses and Joshua went, and stood in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

15 And the Lord appeared in the Tabernacle in the pillar of a <sup>k</sup>cloud: and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the Tabernacle.

16 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, and this people will rise up, and go a whoring after the gods of a strange land (whither they go to dwell therein) and will forsake me: and break my covenant which I have made with them.

17 Wherefore my wrath will wax hot against them at that day, and I will forsake them, and will <sup>l</sup>hide my face from them: then they shall be consumed, and many adversities and tribulations shall come upon them: so then they will say, Are not these troubles come upon me, because God is not with me?

18 But I will surely hide my face in that day, because of all the evil which they shall commit, in that they are turned unto other gods.

19 Now therefore write ye this <sup>m</sup>song for you, and teach it the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be my witness against the children of Israel.

20 For I will bring them into the land (which I

sware unto their fathers) that floweth with milk and honey: and they shall eat and fill themselves, and wax fat: <sup>h</sup>then shall they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and contemn me, and break my covenant.

21 And then when many adversities and tribulations shall come upon them, this song shall <sup>i</sup>answer them to their faces as a witness: for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their posterity: for I know their imagination, which they go about even now, before I have brought them into the land which I swear.

22 ¶ Moses therefore wrote this song the same day, and taught it the children of Israel.

23 And God gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge, and said, <sup>j</sup>Be strong and of a good courage: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land, which I swear unto them, and I will be with thee.

24 ¶ And when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this Law in a book until he had finished them,

25 Then Moses commanded the Levites, which bare the Ark of the covenant of the Lord, saying,

26 Take the book of this Law, and put ye it in the side of the Ark of the covenant of the Lord your God, that it may be there for a <sup>k</sup>witness against thee.

27 For I know thy rebellion and thy stiff neck: behold, I being yet alive with you this day, ye are rebellious against the Lord: how much more then after my death?

28 Gather unto me all the Elders of your tribes, and your <sup>l</sup>officers, that I may speak these words in their audience, and call heaven and earth to record against them.

29 For I am sure that after my death, ye will utterly be corrupt and turn from the way which I have commanded you: therefore evil will come upon you at the length, because ye will commit evil in the sight of the Lord, by provoking him to anger through the <sup>m</sup>work of your hands.

30 Thus Moses spake in the audience of all the Congregation of Israel the words of this song, until he had ended them.

32 The song of Moses containing 7 God's benefits toward the people, 15 and their ingratitude toward him. 20 God menaceth them, 21 and speaketh of the vocation of the Gentiles. 46 Moses commandeth to teach the Law to the children. 49 God forewarneth Moses of his death.

31:11 <sup>1</sup> Before the Ark of the covenant, which was the sign of God's presence, and the figure of Christ.

31:13 <sup>1</sup> Which were not born when the law was given.

31:14 <sup>1</sup> Or, commandment.

31:15 <sup>1</sup> In a cloud that was fashioned like a pillar.

31:17 <sup>1</sup> That is, I will take my favor from them: as to turn his face toward us, is to show us his favor.

31:19 <sup>1</sup> To preserve you and your children from idolatry, by remembering God's benefits.

31:20 <sup>1</sup> For this is the nature of flesh, no longer to obey God, than it is under the rod.

31:21 <sup>1</sup> That these evils are come upon them, because they forsook me.

31:26 <sup>1</sup> Of thine infidelity, when thou shalt turn away from the doctrine contained therein.

31:28 <sup>1</sup> As governors, judges and magistrates.

31:29 <sup>1</sup> By idolatry, and worshipping images, which are the work of your hands.

CHAPTER 32

1 Hearken, ye <sup>1</sup>heavens, and I will speak: and let the earth hear the words of my mouth.

2 My <sup>1</sup>doctrine shall drop as the rain, and my speech shall still as the dew, as the shower upon the herbs, and as the great rain upon the grass.

3 For I will publish the Name of the Lord: give ye glory unto our God.

4 Perfect is the work of the <sup>1</sup>mighty God: for all his ways are judgment. God is true, and without wickedness: just and righteous is he.

5 They have corrupted themselves toward him by their vice, not being his children, but a froward and crooked generation.

6 Do ye so reward the Lord, O foolish people and unwise? is not he thy father, that hath bought thee? he hath <sup>1</sup>made thee, and proportioned thee.

7 ¶ Remember the days of old: consider the years of so many generations: ask thy father, and he will show thee: thine Elders, and they will tell thee.

8 When the most high God divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he appointed the borders of the <sup>1</sup>people, according to the number of the children of Israel.

9 For the Lord's portion is his people: Jacob is the lot of his inheritance.

10 He found him in the land of the wilderness, in a waste and roaring wilderness: he led him about, he taught him, and kept him as the apple of his eye.

11 As an eagle stirreth up her nest, <sup>1</sup>fluttereth over her birds, stretcheth out her wings, taketh them and beareth them on her wings, 12 So the Lord alone led him, and there was no <sup>1</sup>strange god with him.

13 He carried him up to the high places of the <sup>1</sup>earth, that he might eat the fruits of the fields, and he caused him to suck <sup>2</sup>honey out of the stone, and oil out of the hard rock:

14 Butter of kine, and milk of sheep with fat of the lambs, and rams fed in Bashan, and goats, with the fat of the grains of wheat: and the red <sup>1</sup>liquor of the grape hast thou drunk.

15 ¶ But he that should have been <sup>1</sup>upright, when he waxed fat, spurned with his heel: thou art fat, thou art gross, thou art laden with fatness: therefore he forsook God that made him, and regarded not the strong God of his salvation.

16 They provoked him with <sup>1</sup>strange gods: they provoked him to anger with abominations.

17 They offered unto devils, not to God, but to gods whom they knew not: <sup>1</sup>new gods that came newly up, whom their fathers feared not.

18 Thou hast forgotten the mighty God, that begat thee, and hast forgotten God that formed thee.

19 The Lord then saw it, and was angry, for the provocation of his <sup>1</sup>sons and of his daughters.

20 And he said, I will hide my face from them: I will see what their end shall be: for they are a froward generation, children in whom is no faith.

21 They have moved me to jealousy with that which is not God: they have provoked me to anger with their vanities: <sup>a</sup>and I will move them to jealousy with those which are no <sup>1</sup>people: I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

22 For fire is kindled in my wrath, and shall burn unto the bottom of hell, and shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

23 I will spend plagues upon them: I will bestow mine arrows upon them.

26 I have said, I would scatter them abroad: I would make their remembrance to cease from among men, 27 Save that I feared the fury of the enemy, lest their adversaries should <sup>1</sup>wax proud, and lest they should say, Our high hand and not the Lord hath done all this.

6 ¶ Let <sup>1</sup>Reuben live, and not die, though his men be a small number.

7 ¶ And thus be blessed Judah, and said, Hear, O Lord, the voice of Judah, and bring him unto his people: his hands shall be <sup>1</sup>sufficient for him, if thou help him against his enemies.

8 ¶ And of Levi he said, Let thy <sup>a</sup>Thummim and thine Urim be with thine Holy one, whom thou didst prove in Massah, and didst cause him to strive at the waters of Meribah.

9 Who said unto his father and to his mother, <sup>1</sup>I have not seen him, neither knew he his brethren, nor knew his own children: for they observed thy word, and kept thy Covenant.

10 They shall teach Jacob thy judgments, and Israel thy Law: they shall put incense before thy face, and the burnt offering upon thine Altar.

11 Bless, O Lord, his substance, and accept the work of his hands: <sup>1</sup>smite through the loins of them that rise against him, and of them that hate him, that they rise not again.

12 ¶ Of Benjamin he said, The beloved of the Lord shall <sup>1</sup>dwell in safety by him: the Lord shall cover him all the day long, and dwell between his shoulders.

13 ¶ And of Joseph he said, Blessed of the Lord is his land for the sweetness of heaven, for the dew, and for the <sup>1</sup>depth lying beneath,

14 And for the sweet increase of the Sun, and for the sweet increase of the Moon,

15 And for thy sweetness of the top of the ancient mountains, and for the sweetness of the old hills,

16 And for the sweetness of the earth, and abundance therefore: and the good will of him that dwelt in the <sup>1</sup>bush, shall come upon the head of Joseph, and upon the top of the head of him that was <sup>b</sup>separated from his brethren.

17 His beauty shall be like his firstborn bullock, and his <sup>1</sup>horns as the horns of an unicorn: with them he shall smite the people together, even the ends of the world: these are also the ten thousands of Ephraim, and these are the thousands of Manasseh.

18 ¶ And of Zebulun he said, Rejoice, Zebulun, in thy <sup>1</sup>going out, and thou Issachar in thy tents.

19 They shall call the people unto the <sup>1</sup>mountain: there they shall offer the sacrifices of righteousness: for <sup>2</sup>they shall suck of the abundance of the sea, and of the treasures hid in the sand.

20 ¶ Also of Gad he said, Blessed be he that enlargeth Gad: he dwelleth as a lion, that catcheth for his prey the arm with the head.

21 And he looked to himself at the beginning, because there was a portion of the <sup>1</sup>Law-giver hid: yet he shall come with the heads of the people, to execute the justice of the Lord, and his judgments with Israel.

22 ¶ And of Dan he said, Dan is a lion's whelp: he shall leap from Bashan.

23 ¶ Also of Naphtali he said, O Naphtali, satisfied with favor, and filled with the blessing of the Lord, possess <sup>1</sup>the West and the South.

24 ¶ And of Asher he said, Asher shall be blessed with children: he shall be acceptable unto his brethren, and shall dip his foot in oil.

25 Thy shoes shall be <sup>1</sup>iron and brass, and thy strength shall continue as long as thou livest.

26 ¶ There is none like God, O righteous people, which rideth upon the heavens for thine help, and on the clouds in his glory.

27 The eternal God is thy refuge, and under his arms thou art forever: he shall cast out the enemy before thee, and will say, Destroy them.

28 Then Israel <sup>1</sup>the fountain of Jacob shall dwell alone in safety in a land of wheat and wine: also his heavens shall drop the dew.

2 Then report was made to the King of Jericho, saying, Behold, there came men hither tonight, of the children of Israel, to spy out the country.

3 And the king of Jericho sent unto Rahab saying, <sup>1</sup>Bring forth the men that are come to thee, and which are entered into thine house: for they be come to search out all the land.

4 (But the woman had taken the two men, and hid them.) Therefore said she thus, There came men unto me, but I wist not whence they were.

5 And when they shut the gate in the dark, the men went out, whither the men went, I wot not: follow ye after them quickly, for ye shall overtake them.

6 (But she had brought them up to the <sup>1</sup>roof of the house, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had spread abroad upon the roof.)

16 And she said unto them, Go you into the <sup>1</sup>mountain, lest the pursuers meet with you, and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers be returned: then afterward may ye go your way.

17 And the men said unto her, <sup>1</sup>We will be blameless of this thine oath which thou hast made us swear.

18 Behold, when we come into the land, thou shalt bind this cord of red thread in the window, whereby thou lettest us down, and thou shalt bring thy father and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy father's household home to thee.

19 And whosoever then doth go out at the doors of thine house into the street, <sup>1</sup>his blood shall be upon his head, and we will be guiltless: but whosoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand touch him:

1 Then Joshua rose very early, and they removed from Shittim, and came to <sup>1</sup>Jordan, he, and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they went over.

2 And after <sup>1</sup>three days, the officers went through-out the host,

3 And commanded the people, saying, When ye see the Ark of the covenant of the Lord your God and the Priests of the Levites bearing it, ye shall depart from your place, and go after it.

4 Yet shall there be a space between you and it, about <sup>1</sup>two thousand cubits by measure: ye shall not come near unto it, that ye may know the way, by the which ye shall go: for ye have not gone this way in times past.

5 (Now Joshua had said unto the people, "Sanctify yourselves: for tomorrow the Lord will do wonders among you.)

6 Also Joshua spake unto the Priests, saying, Take up the Ark of the covenant, and go over before the people: so they took up the Ark of the covenant, and went before the people.

7 ¶ Then the Lord said unto Joshua, This day will I begin to magnify thee in the sight of all Israel, which shall know, that <sup>b</sup>as I was with Moses, so will I be with thee.

8 Thou shalt therefore command the Priests that bear the Ark of the covenant, saying, When ye are come to the brink of the waters of Jordan, ye shall stand still <sup>1</sup>in Jordan.

9 ¶ Then Joshua said unto the children of Israel, Come hither, and hear the words of the Lord your God.

10 And Joshua said, <sup>1</sup>Hereby ye shall know that the living God is among you, and that he will certainly cast out before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Perizzites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Jebusites.

11 Behold, the Ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the world passeth before you into Jordan.

12 Now therefore take from among you <sup>1</sup>twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, out of every tribe a man.

13 And as soon as the soles of the feet of the Priests (that bear the Ark of the Lord God the Lord of all 14 ¶ Then when the people were departed from their tents to go over Jordan, the Priests bearing the <sup>d</sup>Ark of the covenant, went before the people.

15 And as they that bare the Ark, came unto Jordan, and the feet of the Priests that bare the Ark were dipped in the brink of the water, (<sup>e</sup>for Jordan useth to fill all his <sup>1</sup>banks all the time of harvest)

16 Then the waters that came down from above, stayed and rose upon an heap, and departed far from the city of Adam that was beside Zaretan: but the waters that came down toward the Sea of the wilderness, even the salt Sea, failed and were cut off: so the people went right over against Jericho.

17 But the Priests that bare the Ark of the covenant of the Lord, stood dry within Jordan <sup>1</sup>ready prepared, and all the Israelites went over dry, until all the people were clean gone over through Jordan.

4 <sup>2</sup> God commandeth Joshua to set up twelve stones in Jordan. 18 The waters return to their old course. 20 Other twelve stones are set upon Gilgal. 21 This miracle must be declared to posterity.

1 And when all the people were wholly gone <sup>e</sup>over Jordan (after the Lord had spoken unto Joshua, saying,

2 Take you twelve men out of the people out of every tribe a man,

3 And command you them, saying, Take you hence out of the midst of Jordan, out of the place where the Priests stood in a <sup>1</sup>readiness, twelve stones, which ye shall take away with you, and leave them in the <sup>2</sup>lodging, where you shall lodge this night)

4 Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man,

5 And Joshua said unto them, Go over before the Ark of the Lord your God, even through the midst of Jordan, and take up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder according unto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel,

3:15 <sup>1</sup> Because the river was accustomed at this time to be full, the miracle is so much the greater.

your <sup>1</sup>children shall ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What meant you by these stones?

7 Then ye may answer them, That the waters of Jordan were cut off before the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord: for when it passed through Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off: therefore these stones are a memorial unto the children of Israel forever.

8 Then the children of Israel did even so as Joshua had commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of Jordan as the Lord had said unto Joshua, according unto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them away with them unto the lodging, and laid them down there.

9 And Joshua set up <sup>1</sup>twelve stones in the midst of Jordan, in the place where the feet of the Priests, which bare the Ark of the Covenant stood, and there have they continued unto this day.

10 ¶ So the Priests, which bare the Ark, stood in the midst of Jordan, until everything was finished that the Lord had commanded Joshua to say unto the people, according to all that Moses charged Joshua: then the people hastened and went over.

11 When all the people were clean passed over, the Ark of the Lord went over also, and the Priests <sup>1</sup>before the people.

12 <sup>b</sup>And the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh went over before the children of Israel armed, as Moses had charged them.

13 Even forty thousand prepared for war, went before the <sup>1</sup>Lord unto battle, into the plain of Jericho.

14 That day the Lord magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel, and they <sup>1</sup>feared him, as they feared Moses all the days of his life.

15 And the Lord spake unto Joshua, saying,

16 Command the Priests that bear the <sup>1</sup>Ark of the testimony, to come up out of Jordan.

17 Joshua therefore commanded the Priests, saying, Come ye up out of Jordan.

18 And when the Priests that bare the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord, were come up out of the midst of Jordan, and as soon as the soles of the Priests' feet were set on the dry land, the waters of Jordan returned unto their place, and flowed over all the banks thereof, as they did before.

19 ¶ So the people came up out of Jordan the 20 Also the twelve stones, which they took out of Jordan, did Joshua pitch in Gilgal.

21 And he spake unto the children of Israel, saying, When your children shall ask their fathers in time to come, and say, What mean these stones?

22 Then ye shall show your children, and say, Israel came over this Jordan on dry land:

23 For the Lord your God dried up the waters of Jordan before you, until ye were gone over as the Lord your God did the red Sea, 'which he dried up before us, till we were gone over,

24 That all the people of the <sup>1</sup>world may know that the hand of the Lord is mighty, that ye might fear the Lord your God continually.

1 Now when all the Kings of the <sup>1</sup>Amorites, which were beyond Jordan Westward, and all the Kings of the Canaanites which were by the Sea, heard that the Lord had dried up the waters of Jordan before the children of Israel until they were gone over, their hearts fainted: and there was no courage in them anymore because of the children of Israel.

2 ¶ That same time the Lord said unto Joshua, <sup>a</sup>Make thee sharp knives, <sup>1</sup>and return, and circumcise the sons of Israel the second time.

3 Then Joshua made him sharp knives, and circumcised the sons of Israel in <sup>1</sup>the hill of the foreskins.

4 And this is the cause why Joshua circumcised all the people, even the males that came out of Egypt, because all the men of war were dead in the wilderness by the way after they came out of Egypt.

5 For all the people that came out, were circumcised: but all the people that were born in the wilderness by the way after they came out of Egypt, were <sup>1</sup>not circumcised.

6 For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, till all the people of the men of war that came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they obeyed not the voice of the Lord: unto whom the Lord sware that he would not show them the land,<sup>b</sup> which the Lord had sworn unto their fathers, that he would give us, even a land that floweth with milk and honey.

5:2 <sup>1</sup> For now they had left it off, about 40 years.

5:3 <sup>1</sup> Gilgal was so called, because they were there circumcised.

5:5 <sup>1</sup> For they looked daily to remove at the Lord's commandment, which thing they that were new circumcised, could not do without great danger.

7 So their sons whom he raised up in their stead, Joshua circumcised: for they were uncircumcised, because they circumcised them not by the way.

8 And when they had made an end of circumcising all the people, they abode in the places in the camp till they <sup>1</sup>were whole.

9 After, the Lord said unto Joshua, This day I have taken away the <sup>1</sup>shame of Egypt from you: wherefore he called the name of that place, Gilgal, unto this day.

10 ¶ So the children of Israel abode in Gilgal, and kept the feast of the Passover the fourteenth day of the month at even, in the plain of Jericho.

11 And they did eat of the corn of the land, on the morrow after the Passover, unleavened bread, and parched corn in the same day.

12 And the Manna ceased on the morrow after they had eaten of the corn of the land, neither had the children of Israel Manna anymore, but did eat of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.

13 ¶ And when Joshua was by Jericho, he lift up his eyes and looked: and behold, there stood a man against him, having a sword drawn in his hand: and Joshua went unto him, and said unto him, Art thou on our side, or on our adversaries?

14 And he said, Nay, but as a captain of the host of the Lord am I now come: then Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and <sup>1</sup>did worship, and said unto him, What saith the Lord unto his servant?

2 And the Lord said unto Joshua, Behold, I have given into thine hand Jericho and the king thereof, and the strong men of war.

4 And seven Priests shall bear seven trumpets of <sup>1</sup>rams' horns before the Ark: and the seventh day ye shall compass the city seven times, and the Priests shall blow with the trumpets,

5 And when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and ye hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout: then shall the wall of the city fall down flat, and the people shall ascend up, every man straight before him.

6 ¶ Then Joshua the son of Nun called the Priests and said unto them, Take up the Ark of the Covenant, and let seven Priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the Ark of the Lord.

7 But he said unto the people, <sup>1</sup>Go and compass the city: and let him that is armed go forth before the Ark of the Lord.

8 ¶ And when Joshua had spoken unto the people, the seven priests bare the seven trumpets of rams' horns, and went forth before the Ark of the Lord, and blew with the trumpets, and the ark of the Covenant of the Lord followed them.

9 ¶ And the men of arms went before the priests and blew the trumpets: then the <sup>1</sup>gathering host came after the Ark, and they went and blew the trumpets.

10 (Now Joshua had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall not shout, neither make any noise with your voice, neither shall a word proceed out of your mouth, until the day that I say unto you, Shout, then shall ye shout.)

of the Lord, as they went and blew the trumpets.

14 And the second day they compassed the city once, and returned into the host: thus they did six days.

15 And when the seventh day came, they rose early, even with the dawning of the day, and compassed the city after the same manner <sup>1</sup>seven times: only that day they compassed the city seven times.

16 And when the Priests had blown the trumpets the seventh time, Joshua said unto the people, Shout: for the Lord hath given you the city.

17 And the city shall be <sup>1</sup>an execrable thing, both it, and all that are therein, unto the Lord: only Rahab the harlot shall live, she, and all that are with her in the house: for<sup>2</sup>she hid the messengers that we sent.

18 Notwithstanding, be ye ware of the execrable thing, lest ye make yourselves execrable, and in taking of the execrable thing, make also the host of Israel <sup>1</sup>execrable, and trouble it.

19 But all silver, and gold, and vessels of brass, and iron shall be <sup>1</sup>consecrate unto the Lord, and shall come into the Lord's treasury.

20 So the people shouted, when they had blown trumpets: for when the people had heard the sound of the trumpets, they shouted with a great shout: and the <sup>1</sup>wall fell down flat: so the people went up into the city, every man straight before him: and they took the city.

21 And they utterly destroyed all that was in the cities both man and woman, young, and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass with the edge of the sword.

22 But Joshua had said unto the two men that had spied out the country, Go into the harlot's house, and bring out thence the woman, and all that she hath, <sup>1</sup>as ye swore to her.

23 So the young men that were spies, went in and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had: also they brought out all her family, and put them <sup>1</sup>without the host of Israel.

24 After, they burnt the city with fire, and all that was therein: only the silver and the gold, and the vessels of brass and iron, they put unto the treasure of the <sup>1</sup>house of the Lord.

2 And Joshua sent men from Jericho to <sup>1</sup>Ai, which is beside Beth Aven, on the East side of Bethel, and spake unto them, saying, Go up, and view the country. And the men went up and viewed Ai,

3 And returned to Joshua, and said unto him, Let not all the people go up, but let as it were two or three thousand men go up, and smite Ai, and make not all the people to labor thither, for they are few.

4 So there went up thither of the people about three thousand men, and they fled before the men of Ai.

5 And the <sup>1</sup>men of Ai smote of them upon a thirty and six men: for they chased them from before the gate unto Shebarim, and smote them in the going down: wherefore the hearts of the people melted away like water.

9 For the Canaanites, and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear of it, and shall compass us, and destroy our name out of the earth: and what wilt thou do unto thy mighty <sup>1</sup>Name?

10 ¶ And the Lord said unto Joshua, Get thee up: wherefore liest thou thus upon thy face?

11 Israel hath sinned, and they have transgressed my covenant, which I commanded them: for they have even taken of the excommunicate thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled also, and have put it even with their own stuff.

12 Therefore the children of Israel cannot stand before their enemies: but have turned their backs before their enemies, because they be execrable: neither will I be with you anymore, except ye <sup>1</sup>destroy the excommunicate from among you.

13 Up therefore, sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify yourselves against tomorrow: for thus saith the Lord God of Israel, There is an execrable thing among you, O Israel, therefore ye cannot stand against your enemies, until ye have put the <sup>1</sup>execrable thing from among you.

14 In the morning therefore ye shall come according to your tribes, and the tribe which the Lord taketh, shall come according to the families: and the family which the Lord shall take, shall come by the households: and the household which the Lord shall take, shall come man by man.

15 And he that is <sup>1</sup>taken with the excommunicate thing, shall be burnt with fire, he, and all that he hath, because he hath transgressed the covenant of the Lord, and because he hath wrought folly in Israel.

22 ¶ Then Joshua sent messengers, which ran unto the tent, and behold, it was hid in his tent, and the silver under it.

23 Therefore they took them out of the tent, and brought them unto Joshua, and unto all the children of Israel, and laid them before the Lord.

24 Then Joshua took Achan the <sup>1</sup>son of Zerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the <sup>2</sup>wedge of gold, and his <sup>3</sup>sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had: and all Israel with him, brought them unto the valley of Achor.

25 And Joshua said, <sup>1</sup>In as much as thou hast troubled us, the Lord shall trouble thee this day: and all Israel threw stones at him, and burned them with fire, and stoned them with stones.

11 Also all the men of war that were with him went up and drew near, and came against the city, and pitched on the North side of Ai: and there was a valley between them and Ai.

12 And he took about five thousand men, <sup>1</sup>and set them to lie in wait between Bethel and Ai on the West side of the city.

13 And the people set all the host that was on the North side against the city, and the liars in wait on the West, against the city: and Joshua went the same night into the <sup>1</sup>midst of the valley.

14 ¶ And when the king of Ai saw it, then the men of the city hastened and rose up early, and went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at the time appointed, before the plain: for he knew not that any lay in wait against him on the back side of the city.

15 Then Joshua and all Israel <sup>1</sup>as beaten before them, fled by the way of the wilderness.

16 And all the people of the city were called together to pursue after them: and they pursued after

Joshua, and were drawn away out of the city,

17 So that there was not a man left in Ai, nor in Bethel, that went not out after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel.

18 Then the Lord said unto Joshua, <sup>1</sup>Stretch out the spear that is in thine hand, toward Ai: for I will give it into thine hand: and Joshua stretched out the spear that he had in his hand, toward the city.

19 And they that lay in wait, arose quickly out of their place, and ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand, and they entered into the city, and took it, and hastened, and set the city on fire.

20 And the men of Ai looked behind them, and saw it: for lo, the smoke of the city ascended up <sup>1</sup>to heaven, and they had no <sup>2</sup>power to flee this way or that way: for the people that fled to the wilderness, turned back upon the pursuers.

21 When Joshua and all Israel saw that they that lay in wait, had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city mounted up, then they turned again and slew the men of Ai.

22 Also the <sup>1</sup>other issued out of the city against them: so were they in the midst of Israel, these being on the one side, and the rest on the other side: and they slew them, so that they let none of them <sup>d</sup>remain nor escape.

23 And the King of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.

24 And when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, that is, in the wilderness where they chased them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, all the Israelites returned unto Ai, and <sup>1</sup>smote it with the edge of the sword.

25 And all that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelve thousand, even all the men of Ai.

26 For Joshua drew not his hand back again which he had stretched out with the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

27 <sup>c</sup>Only the cattle and the spoil of this city, Israel took for a prey unto themselves, according unto the word of the Lord, which he commanded Joshua.

28 And Joshua burnt Ai, and made it an heap <sup>1</sup>forever, and a wilderness unto this day.

29 And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree, unto the evening. And as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded <sup>1</sup>that they should take his carcass down from the tree, and cast it at the entering of the gate of the city, and lay thereon a great heap of stones, that remaineth unto this day.

30 ¶ Then Joshua built an altar unto the Lord God of Israel, in mount Ebal, 31 As Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the book of the Law of Moses, an altar of whole stone, over which no man had lift an iron: and they offered thereon burnt offerings unto the Lord, and sacrificed peace offerings.

32 Also he wrote there upon the stones, a rehearsal of the Law of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel.

33 And all Israel (and their Elders, and officers and their Judges stood on this side of the Ark, and on that side, before the Priests of the Levites, which bare the Ark of the covenant of the Lord) as well the stranger, as he that is born in the country: half of them were over against mount Gerizim, and half of them over against mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded before, that they should bless the children of Israel.

34 Then afterward he read all the words of the Law, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is written in the book of the Law.

35 There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded, which Joshua read not before all the Congregation of Israel, as well before the women and the children, as the stranger that was conversant among them.

3 ¶ But the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done unto Jericho, and to Ai.

went, and feigned themselves ambassadors, and took old sacks upon their asses, and old bottles for wine, both rent and bound up,

5 And old shoes and clouted upon their feet: also the raiment upon them was old, and all their provision of bread was dried, and molded.

6 So they came unto Joshua into the host to Gilgal, and said unto him, and unto the men of Israel, We be come from a far country: now therefore make a league with us.

7 Then the men of Israel said unto the Hivites, It may be that thou dwellest among us, how then can I make a league with thee?

8 And they said unto Joshua, We are thy servants. Then Joshua said unto them, Who are ye, and whence come ye?

9 And they answered him, From a very far country thy servants are come for the Name of the Lord thy God: for we have heard his fame and all that he hath done in Egypt,

10 And all that he hath done to the two kings of the Amorites that were beyond Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon, and to Og king of Bashan, which were at Ashtaroth.

11 Wherefore our Elders, and all the inhabitants of our country spake to us, saying, Take vittles with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say unto them, We are your servants: now therefore make ye a league with us.

12 This our bread we took it hot with us for victuals out of our houses, the day we departed to come unto you: but now behold, it is dried, and it is molded.

13 Also these bottles of wine which we filled, were new, and lo, they be rent, and these our garments and our shoes are old, by reason of the exceeding great journey.

14 ¶ And the men accepted their tale concerning their victuals, and counseled not with the mouth of the Lord.

15 So Joshua made peace with them, and made a league with them, that he would suffer them to live: also the Princes of the Congregation swore unto them.

16 ¶ But at the end of three days, after they had made a league with them, they heard that they were their neighbors, and that they dwelt among

17 And the children of Israel took their <sup>1</sup>journey, and came unto their cities the third day, and their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth and Kirjath Jearim.

18 And the children of Israel slew them not, because the Princes of the Congregation had sworn unto them by the Lord God of Israel: wherefore all the Congregation <sup>1</sup>murmured against the Princes.

19 Then all the Princes said unto all the Congregation, We have sworn unto them by the Lord God of Israel: now therefore we may not touch them.

20 But this we will do to them, and let them live, lest the wrath be upon us, because of the <sup>1</sup>oath which we swore unto them.

21 And the Princes said unto them again, Let them live, but they shall hew wood, and draw water unto all the Congregation, as the Princes appoint them.

22 Joshua then called them, and talked with them, and said, Wherefore have ye beguiled us, saying, We are very far from you, when ye dwell among us?

23 Now therefore ye are accursed, and there shall none of you be freed from being bondmen, and hewers of wood, and drawers of water for <sup>1</sup>the house of my God.

24 And they answered Joshua, and said, Because it was told thy servants, that the Lord thy God had <sup>b</sup>commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land out of your sight, therefore we were exceeding sore afraid for our lives at the presence of you, and have done this thing:

25 And behold now, we are in thine hand: do as it seemeth good and right in thine eyes to do unto us.

26 Even so did he unto them, and delivered them out of the <sup>1</sup>hand of the children of Israel, that they slew them not.

27 And Joshua appointed them that same day to be hewers of wood, and drawers of water for the Congregation, and for the <sup>1</sup>altar of the Lord unto this day, in the place which he should choose.

1 Now when Adoni Zedek king of Jerusalem had heard how Joshua had taken Ai and had destroyed it, (for as he had done to Jericho and to the king thereof, so he had done to <sup>b</sup>Ai and to the king thereof) and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them,

2 Then they feared exceedingly: for Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities: for it was greater than Ai, and all the men thereof were mighty.

3 Wherefore <sup>1</sup>Adoni Zedek king of Jerusalem sent unto Hoham king of Hebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of Lachish, and unto Debir king of Eglon, saying,

4 Come up unto me, and help me, that we may smite Gibeon: for they have made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel.

5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they with all their hosts, and besieged Gibeon, and made <sup>1</sup>war against it.

6 And the men of Gibeon sent unto Joshua, even to the host to Gilgal, saying, Withdraw not thine hand from thy servants: come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us: for all the kings of the Amorites, which dwell in the mountains, are gathered together against us.

7 So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, and all the men of might.

8 ¶ And the Lord said unto Joshua, <sup>1</sup>Fear them not: for I have given them into thine hand: none of them shall stand against thee.

9 Joshua therefore came unto them suddenly: for he went up from Gilgal all the night.

10 And the Lord discomfited them before Israel, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth up to Beth Horon, and smote them to Azekah, and to Makkedah.

11 And as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Beth Horon, the Lord cast down great stones from heaven upon them, until Azekah, and they died: they were more that died with the <sup>1</sup>hailstones, than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword.

12 ¶ Then spake Joshua to the Lord, in the day when the Lord gave the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, 'Sun, stay thou in Gibeon, and thou Moon, in the valley of Aijalon.

13 And the Sun abode, and the moon stood still, until the people avenged themselves upon their enemies: (is not this written in the book of <sup>1</sup>Jasher?) so the Sun abode in the midst of the heaven, and hastened not to go down for a whole day.

14 And there was no day like that before it, nor after it, that the Lord heard the voice of a man: for the Lord <sup>1</sup>fought for Israel.

15 ¶ After, Joshua returned, and all Israel with him unto the camp to Gilgal:

16 But the five kings fled and were hid in a cave at Makkedah.

17 And it was told Joshua, saying, The five kings are found hid in a cave at Makkedah.

18 Then Joshua said, Roll great stones upon the mouth of the cave, and set men by it for to keep them.

19 But stand ye not still: follow after your enemies, and <sup>1</sup>smite all the hindmost, suffer them not to enter into their cities: for the Lord your God hath given them into your hand.

20 And when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with an exceeding great slaughter till they were consumed, and the rest that remained of them were entered into walled cities,

21 Then all the people returned to the camp, to Joshua at Makkedah in <sup>1</sup>peace: no man moved his tongue against the children of Israel.

22 After, Joshua said, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out these five kings unto me forth of the cave.

23 And they did so, and brought out those five kings unto him forth of the cave, even the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

24 And when they had brought out those kings unto Joshua, Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the chief of the men of war, which went with him, Come near, set your feet upon the <sup>1</sup>necks of these kings, and they came near, and set their feet upon their necks.

25 And Joshua said unto them, Fear not, nor be faint hearted, but be strong and of a good courage: for thus will the Lord do to all your enemies, against whom ye fight.

26 So then Joshua smote them, and slew them, and hanged them on five trees, and they hanged still upon the trees until the evening.

27 And at the going down of the sun, Joshua gave commandment, that they should take <sup>d</sup>them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave (wherein they had been hid) and they laid great stones upon the cave's mouth, which remain until this day.

28 ¶ And that same day Joshua took Makkedah and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof destroyed he with them, and <sup>1</sup>all the souls that were therein, he let none remain: for he did to the king of Makkedah, as he had done unto the king of Jericho.

29 Then Joshua went from Makkedah, and all Israel with him unto Libnah, and fought against Libnah.

30 And the Lord gave it also and the king thereof into the hand of Israel: and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the <sup>1</sup>souls that were therein: he let none remain in it: for he did unto the king thereof, as he had done unto the king of Jericho.

31 ¶ And Joshua departed from Libnah, and all Israel with him unto Lachish, and besieged it, and assaulted it.

32 And the Lord gave Lachish into the hand of Israel, which took it the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein, according to all as he had done to Libnah.

33 ¶ Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish: but Joshua smote him and his people, until none of his remained.

34 ¶ And from Lachish Joshua departed unto Eglon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged it, and assaulted it.

35 And they took it the same day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein he utterly destroyed the same day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

36 Then Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him unto Hebron, and they fought against it.

37 And when they had taken it, they smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the souls that were therein: he left none remaining, according to all as he had done to Eglon: for he destroyed it utterly, and all the souls that were therein.

38 ¶ So Joshua returned, and all Israel with him to Debir, and fought against it.

10:13 <sup>1</sup> Some read the book of the righteous, meaning Moses: the Chaldea text readeth in the book of the Law, but it is like that it was a book thus named, which is now lost.

40 ¶ So Joshua smote all the hill countries, and the South countries, and the valleys, and the <sup>1</sup>hillsides, and all their kings, and let none remain, but utterly destroyed every soul, as the Lord God of Israel had commanded.

41 And Joshua smote them from Kadesh Barnea even unto Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, even unto Gibeon.

42 And all these kings, and their land did Joshua take at <sup>1</sup>one time, because the Lord God of Israel fought for Israel.

43 Afterward, Joshua and all Israel with him returned unto the camp in <sup>1</sup>Gilgal.

4 And they came out, and all their hosts with them, many people, as the sand that is on the seashore, for multitude, with horses and chariots exceeding many.

5 So all these kings met together, and came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, for to fight against Israel.

6 ¶ Then the Lord said unto Joshua, Be not afraid for them: for tomorrow about this time will I deliver them all slain before Israel: thou shalt <sup>1</sup>hough their horses, and burn their chariots with fire.

7 Then came Joshua and all the men of war with him, against them, by the waters of Merom suddenly, and fell upon them.

8 And the Lord gave them into the hand of Israel: and they smote them, and chased them unto great Sidon, and unto <sup>1</sup>Misrephoth, and unto the valley of Mizpah Eastward, and smote them until they had none remaining of them.

9 And Joshua did unto them as the Lord bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire.

10 ¶ At that time also Joshua turned back, and took Hazor, and smote the King thereof with the sword: for Hazor beforetime was the head of all those kingdoms.

11 Moreover they smote all the <sup>1</sup>persons that were therein with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying all, leaving none alive, and he burnt Hazor with fire.

12 So all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them did Joshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded.

13 But Israel burnt none of the cities that stood still in their <sup>1</sup>strength, save Hazor only, that Joshua burnt.

14 And all the spoil of these cities and the cattle, the children of Israel took for their prey, but they smote every <sup>1</sup>man with the edge of the sword until they had destroyed them, not leaving one alive.

15 ¶ As the Lord <sup>a</sup>had commanded Moses his servant, so did Moses <sup>c</sup>command Joshua, and so did Joshua, he left nothing undone of all that the Lord had commanded Moses.

16 So Joshua took all this land of the mountains, and all the South, and all the land of Goshen, and the low country, and the plain, and the <sup>1</sup>mountain of Israel, and the low country of the same,

17 From the mount <sup>1</sup>Halak, that goeth up to Seir, even unto <sup>2</sup>Baal Gad in the valley of Lebanon, under mount Hermon: and all their kings he took, and smote them, and slew them.

18 Joshua made war [a] long time with all those Kings,

19 Neither was there any city that made peace with the children of Israel, <sup>d</sup>save those Hivites that inhabited Gibeon: all others they took by battle.

20 For it came of the Lord, to <sup>1</sup>harden their hearts that they should come against Israel in battle, to the intent that they should destroy them utterly, and show them no mercy, but that they should bring them to nought, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

21 ¶ And that same season came Joshua, and destroyed the Anakims out of the mountains: as out of Hebron, out of Debir, out of Anab, and out of all the mountains of Judah, and out of all the mountains of Israel: Joshua destroyed them utterly with their cities.

22 There was no Anakim left in the land of the children of Israel, only in Gaza, <sup>1</sup>in Gath, and in Ashdod were they left.

23 So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the Lord had said unto Moses: and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel, <sup>c</sup>according to their portions through their tribes: then the land was at rest without war.

7 ¶ These also are the kings of the country, which Joshua and the children of Israel smote on this side Jordan, Westward from Baal Gad in the valley of Lebanon, even unto the mount <sup>1</sup>Halak that goeth up to Seir, and Joshua gave it unto the tribes of Israel for a possession, according to their portions.

15 ¶ Moses then gave unto the tribe of the children of Reuben inheritance, according to their families.

16 And their coast was from Aroer, that is on the brink of the river Arnon, and from the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain which is by Medeba:

17 Heshbon with all the cities thereof, that are in the plain: Dibon and <sup>1</sup>Bamoth Baal, and Beth Baal Meon:

20 And Beth Peor, and <sup>1</sup>Ashdath Pisgah, and Beth Jeshimoth:

21 And all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses <sup>d</sup>smote with the Princes of Midian, Evi and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, the dukes of Sihon, dwelling in the country.

22 And <sup>1</sup>Balaam the son of Beor the soothsayer did the children of Israel slay with the sword, among them that were slain.

23 And the border of the children of Reuben was Jordan with the coasts. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben according to their families, with the cities and their villages.

24 ¶ Also Moses gave inheritance unto the tribe of Gad, even unto the children of Gad according to their families.

25 And their coasts were Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon unto Aroer, which is before Rabbah:

30 And their border was from Mahanaim, even all Bashan, to wit, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair which are in Bashan, threescore cities,

31 And half Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, ‘were given unto the <sup>1</sup>children of Machir the son of Manasseh to half of the children of Machir after their families.

32 These are the heritages, which Moses did distribute in the plain of Moab beyond Jordan toward Jericho Eastward.

33 <sup>2</sup>But unto the tribe of Levi Moses gave none inheritance: for the Lord God of Israel is their inheritance, <sup>3</sup>as he said unto them.

14 <sup>1</sup>The land of Canaan was divided among the nine tribes and the half. <sup>6</sup>Caleb requireth the heritage that was promised him. <sup>13</sup>Hebron was given him.

1 These also are the places which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, <sup>a</sup>which Eleazar the Priest, and Joshua the son of Nun and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed to them,

2 <sup>b</sup>By the lot of their inheritance, as the Lord had commanded by the hand of Moses, to give to the nine tribes, and the half tribe.

3 For Moses had given inheritance unto <sup>1</sup>two tribes and an half tribe, beyond Jordan: but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them.

4 For the children of Joseph were <sup>1</sup>two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim, therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with the suburbs of the same for their beasts and their substance.

5 <sup>c</sup>As the Lord had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did when they divided the land.

6 ¶ Then the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said unto him, Thou knowest what the Lord said unto Moses the man of God, concerning <sup>1</sup>thee and me in Kadesh Barnea.

7 Forty years old was I, when Moses the servant of the Lord sent me from Kadesh Barnea to espy the land, and I brought him word again, as I thought in mine heart.

couraged the heart of the people: yet I followed still the Lord my God.

9 Wherefore Moses swore the same day, saying, Certainly the land whereon thy feet have trodden, shall be thine inheritance, and thy children's forever, because thou hast followed constantly the Lord my God.

10 Therefore behold now, the Lord hath kept me alive, as he promised: this is the forty and fifth year since the Lord spake this thing unto Moses, while the children of Israel wandered in the wilderness: and now lo, I am this day four score and five years old:

11 And yet am as strong at this time, as I was when Moses sent me: as strong as I was then, so strong am I now, either for war, or <sup>1</sup>for government.

12 Now therefore give me this mountain whereof the Lord spake in that day (for thou heardest in that day, how the <sup>1</sup>Anakim were there, and the cities great and walled) <sup>2</sup>if so be the Lord will be with me that I may drive them out, as the Lord said.

13 Then Joshua blessed him, and gave unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh, Hebron for an inheritance.

14 <sup>d</sup>Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, unto this day: because he followed constantly the Lord God of Israel.

15 And the name of <sup>e</sup>Hebron was before time, Kirjath Arba: which Arba was a <sup>1</sup>great man among the Anakim: thus the land ceased from war.

1 This then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Judah by their families: even <sup>a</sup>to the border of Edom and the wilderness of <sup>b</sup>Zin, Southward on the South coast.

2 And their South border was the salt Sea coast, from the <sup>1</sup>point that looketh Southward.

3 And it went out on the South side toward Maaleh Akrabbim, and went along to Zin, and ascended up on the South side unto Kadesh Barnea, and went along to Hezron, and went up to Adar, and set a compass to Karkaa.

4 From thence went it along to Azmon, and reached unto the river of Egypt, and the end of that coast was on the West side: this shall be your South coast.

13:31 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, his nephews and posterity.

14:3 <sup>1</sup> As Reuben and Gad and half the tribe of Manasseh, Num. 32:33.

14:4 <sup>1</sup> So though Levi lacked, yet were there still twelve tribes by this means.

14:6 <sup>1</sup> Which was, that they two only should enter into the land, Num. 14:24.

14:8 <sup>1</sup> Which were the ten other spies.

14:11 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, to go out and come in.

14:12 <sup>1</sup> Or, giants.

15:2 <sup>1</sup> The Hebrew word signifieth tongue, whereby is meant either the arm of the Sea that cometh into the land, or a rock, or cape that goeth into the Sea.

5 Also the East border shall be the salt Sea, unto the <sup>1</sup>end of Jordan: and the border on the North quarter from the point of the Sea, and from the end of Jordan.

6 And this border goeth up to Beth Hoglah, and goeth along by the North side of Beth Arabah: so the border from thence goeth up to the <sup>1</sup>stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.

7 Again this border goeth up to Debir from the valley of Achor, and Northward, turning toward Gilgal, that lieth before the going unto Adummim, which is on the South side of the river: also this border goeth up to the waters of <sup>1</sup>En Shemesh, and endeth at <sup>1</sup>En Rogel.

8 Then this border goeth up to the valley of the son of Hinnom; on the South side of the Jebusites: the same is Jerusalem. Also this border goeth up to the top of the mountain that lieth before the valley of Hinnom Westward, which is by the end of the valley of <sup>1</sup>giants Northward.

9 So this border compasseth from the top of the mountain unto the fountain of the water of Nephtoah, and goeth out to the cities of mount Ephron: and this border draweth to Baalah which is <sup>1</sup>Kirjath Jearim.

10 Then this border compasseth from Baalah Westward unto mount Seir, and goeth along unto the side of mount Jearim, which is Chesalon on the North side: it cometh down to Beth Shemesh, and goeth to Timnah.

11 Also this border goeth out unto the side of Ekron Northward: and this border draweth to Shicron, and goeth along to mount Baalah, and stretcheth unto Jabneel: and the ends of this coast are unto the <sup>1</sup>Sea.

12 And the West border is to the great sea: so this border shall be the bounds of the children of Judah round about, according to their families.

13 ¶ And unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh did Joshua give a part among the children of Judah, as the Lord commanded him, even <sup>4</sup>Kirjath Arba of the father of Anak which is in Hebron.

14 And Caleb <sup>1</sup>drove thence three sons of Anak, Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmi, the sons of Anak.

15 And he went up thence to the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir beforetime was Kirjath Sepher.

16 Then Caleb said, He that smiteth Kirjath Sepher, and taketh it, even to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife.

17 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, the <sup>1</sup>brother of Caleb took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.

18 And as she went in to him, she moved him, to ask of her father a field: <sup>1</sup>and she lighted off her ass, and Caleb said unto her, What wilt thou?

19 Then she answered, <sup>1</sup>Give me a blessing: for thou hast given me the South country: <sup>2</sup>give me also springs of water. And he gave her the springs above, and the springs beneath.

20 This shall be the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families.

21 And the utmost cities of the tribe of the children of Judah, toward the coasts of Edom Southward were Kabzeel, and Eder, and Jagur,

22 And Kinah, and Dimonah, and Adadah,

23 And Kedesh, and Hazor, and Ithnan,

24 Ziph, and Telem, and Bealoth,

33 ¶ In the low country were Eshtaol, and Zorah, and Ashnah.

34 And Zanoah, and En Gannim, Tappuah, and Enam,

35 Jarmuth, and Adullam, Socoh, and Azekah,

36 And Sharaim, and Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothaim: fourteen cities with their villages.

38 And Dilean, and Mizpah, and Joktheel,

39 Lachish, and Bozkath, and Eglon,

40 And Cabbon, and Lahmas, and Kithlish,

46 From Ekron, even unto the Sea, all that lieth about Ashdod with their villages.

47 Ashdod with her towns and her villages: Gaza with her towns and her villages unto the <sup>1</sup>river of Egypt, and the great Sea was their coast.

48 ¶ And in the mountains were Shamir, and Jattir, and Sochoh,

49 And Dannah, and <sup>1</sup>Kirjath Sannah (which is Debir.)

50 And Anab, and Eshtemoh, and Anim,

51 And Goshen, and Holon, and Giloh: eleven cities with their villages.

53 And Janum, and Beth Tappuah, and Aphekah,

54 And Humtah, and <sup>1</sup>Kirjath Arba, (which is Hebron) and Zior: nine cities with their villages,

55 Maon, Carmel, and Ziph, and Juttah,

56 And Jezreel, and Jokdeam, and Zanoah,

57 Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah: ten cities with their villages.

58 Halhul, Beth Zur, and Gedor,

59 And Maarath, and Beth Anoth, and Eltekon: six cities with their villages.

60 ¶ Kirjath Baal, which is Kirjath Jearim, and Rabbah: two cities with their villages.

61 In the wilderness were Beth Arabah, Middin, and Secacah, 62 And Nibshan, and the <sup>1</sup>city of salt, and En Gedi: five cities with their villages.

63 Nevertheless, the Jebusites that were the inhabitants of Jerusalem, could not the children of Judah cast <sup>1</sup>out, but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Judah at Jerusalem unto this day.

2 And goeth out from Bethel to <sup>4</sup>Luz, and runneth along unto the borders of Archi Ataroth, 4 So the children of Joseph; Manasseh and Ephraim <sup>1</sup>took their inheritance.

5 ¶ Also the borders of the children of Ephraim according to their families, even the borders of their inheritance on the East side were Ataroth Addar, unto Beth Horon the upper.

6 And this border goeth out to the Sea unto Michmethath on the North side, and this border returneth Eastward unto Taanath Shiloh, and passeth it on the East side unto Janohah,

7 And goeth down from Janohah unto Ataroth, and Naarah, and cometh to Jericho, <sup>1</sup>and goeth out at Jordan.

8 And this border goeth from Tappuah Westward unto the river Kanah, and the ends thereof are at the Sea: this is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim by their families.

9 And the <sup>1</sup>separate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh: all the cities with their villages.

10 And they cast not out the Canaanite that dwelt in Gezer, but the Canaanite dwelt among the Ephraimites unto this day, and served under tribute.

1 This was also the lot of the tribe of Manasseh: for he was the <sup>4</sup>firstborn of Joseph, to wit, of Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, and the father of Gilead: now because he was a man of war, he had Gilead and Bashan.

2 And also <sup>6</sup>of the <sup>1</sup>rest of the sons of Manasseh by their families, even of the sons of Abiezer, and of the sons of Helek, and of the sons of Asriel, and of the sons of Shechem, and of the sons of Hopher, and of the sons of Shemida: these were the males of Manasseh, the son of Joseph according to their families.

3 ¶ But Zelophehad the son of Hopher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah:

4 Which came before Eleazar the Priest, and

16:3 <sup>1</sup> Of their inheritance.

16:4 <sup>1</sup> Severally, first Ephraim, and then Manasseh.

16:7 <sup>1</sup> For so far the coasts reach.

16:9 <sup>1</sup> Because Ephraim's tribe was far greater than Manasseh, therefore he had more cities.

17:2 <sup>1</sup> For the other half tribe had their portion beyond Jordan.

before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The Lord commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our <sup>1</sup>brethren: therefore according to the commandment of the Lord, he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

5 And there fell ten portions to <sup>1</sup>Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is on the other side of Jordan,

6 Because the daughters of Manasseh did inherit among his sons: and Manasseh's other sons had the land of Gilead.

7 ¶ So the borders of Manasseh were from Asher to Michmethath that lieth before Shechem, and this border goeth on the right hand, even to the inhabitants of En Tappuah.

8 The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but <sup>1</sup>Tappuah beside the border of Manasseh belongeth to the sons of Ephraim.

9 Also this border goeth down unto the <sup>1</sup>river Kanah Southward to the river: these cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh: and the border of Manasseh is on the North side of the river, and the ends of it are at the <sup>2</sup>Sea,

10 The South pertaineth to Ephraim, and the North to Manasseh, and the sea is his border: and they met together in <sup>1</sup>Asher Northward, and in Issachar Eastward.

11 And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher, Beth Shean, and her towns, and Ibleam, and her towns, and the inhabitants of Dor with the towns thereof, and the inhabitants of En Dor with the towns thereof, and the inhabitants of Taanach with her towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo with the towns of the same, even three countries.

12 Yet the children of Manasseh <sup>1</sup>could not destroy those cities, but the Canaanites dwelled still in that land.

13 Nevertheless, when the children of Israel were strong, they put the Canaanites under tribute, but cast them not out wholly.

14 Then the children of Joseph spake unto Joshua, saying, Why hast thou given me but one lot, and one portion to inherit, seeing I am a great people, forasmuch as the Lord hath <sup>1</sup>blessed me hitherto?

15 Joshua then answered them, If thou be much people, get thee up to the woods, and cut trees for thyself there in the land of the Perizzites, and of the giants, <sup>1</sup>if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee.

16 Then the children of Joseph said, The mountain will not be enough for us: and all the Canaanites that dwell in the low country have chariots of iron, as well they in Beth Shean, and in the towns of the same, as they in the valley of Jezreel.

17 And Joshua spake unto the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power, and shalt not have one lot.

18 Therefore the mountain shall be thine: for it is a wood, and thou shalt cut it down: and the ends of it shall be thine, <sup>1</sup>and thou shalt cast out the Canaanites, though they have iron chariots, and though they be strong.

18 <sup>1</sup>The Tabernacle set in Shiloh. <sup>4</sup>Certain are sent to divide the land to the other seven tribes. <sup>11</sup>The lot of the children of Benjamin.

1 And the whole Congregation of the children of Israel came together at Shiloh: for they set up the <sup>1</sup>Tabernacle of the Congregation there, after the land was subject unto them.

2 Now there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes, to whom <sup>1</sup>they had not divided their inheritance.

3 Therefore Joshua said unto the children of Israel, how long are you so slack to enter and possess the land which the Lord God of your fathers hath given you?

4 Give from among you for every tribe three men, that I may send them, and that they may rise and walk through the land, and distribute it according to <sup>1</sup>their inheritance, and return to me.

5 And that they may divide it unto them into seven parts, (Judah shall abide in his coast at the South, and the house of Joseph shall <sup>1</sup>stand in their coasts at the North.)

6 Ye shall describe the land therefore into seven parts, and shall bring them hither to me, and I will cast lots for you here before the <sup>1</sup>Lord our God.

7 But the Levites shall have no part among you: for the <sup>1</sup>Priesthood of the Lord is their inheritance: also Gad and Reuben and half the tribe of Manasseh have 17:4 <sup>1</sup> Among them of our tribe.

17:5 <sup>1</sup> In the land of Canaan: five to the males: and other five to the daughters of Zelophehad.

17:8 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, the city itself.

17:9 <sup>1</sup> Or, the brook of reeds.

17:10 <sup>1</sup> In the tribe of Asher, and tribe of Issachar.

17:12 <sup>1</sup> For at the first they lacked courage, and after agreed with them on condition, contrary to God's commandment.

17:14 <sup>1</sup> According to my father Jacob's prophecy, Gen. 48:19.

17:15 <sup>1</sup> If this mount be not large enough, why dost not thou get more by destroying God's enemies, as he hath commanded?

17:18 <sup>1</sup> So that thou shalt enlarge thy portion thereby.

18:1 <sup>1</sup> For they had now removed it from Gilgal, and set it up in Shiloh.

18:2 <sup>1</sup> As Eleazar, Joshua, and the heads of the tribes had done to Judah, Ephraim, and half of Manasseh.

18:4 <sup>1</sup> That is, into seven portions, to every tribe one.

18:5 <sup>1</sup> For these had their inheritance already appointed.

18:6 <sup>1</sup> Before the Ark of the Lord.

18:7 <sup>1</sup> That is, the sacrifices and offerings, Josh. 13:14.

received their inheritance beyond Jordan Eastward, which Moses the servant of the Lord gave them.

8 ¶ Then the men arose, and went their way, and Joshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Depart, and go through the land, and <sup>1</sup>describe it, and return to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the Lord in Shiloh.

9 So the men departed, and passed through the land, and described it by cities into seven parts in a book, and returned to Joshua into the camp at Shiloh.

10 ¶ Then Joshua <sup>1</sup>cast lots for them in Shiloh before the Lord, and there Joshua divided the land unto the children of Israel, according to their portions.

11 ¶ And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came forth according to their families, and the cost of their lot lay <sup>1</sup>between the children of Judah, and the children of Joseph.

12 And their coast on the North side was from Jordan, and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the North part, and went up through the mountains Westward, and the ends thereof are in the wilderness of Beth Aven:

13 And this border goeth along from thence to Luz, even to the South side of Luz (the same is <sup>1</sup>Bethel) and this border descendeth to Ataroth Addar, near the mount that lieth on the South side of Beth Horon the nether.

14 So the border turneth, and compasseth the corner of the Sea Southward, from the mount that lieth before Beth Horon Southward: and the ends thereof are at Kirjath Baal (which is Kirjath Jearim) a city of the children of Judah: this is the West quarter.

15 And the South quarter is from the end of Kirjath Jearim, and this border goeth out <sup>1</sup>Westward, and cometh to the fountain of waters of Nephtoa.

16 And this border descendeth at the end of the mountain, that lieth before the valley of Ben Hinnom, which is in the valley of the <sup>1</sup>giants Northward, and descendeth into the valley of Hinnom by the side of <sup>2</sup>Jebus Southward, and goeth down to En Rogel,

17 And compasseth from the North, and goeth forth to <sup>1</sup>En Shemesh, and stretcheth to Geliloth, which is toward the going up unto Adummim, and goeth down to the <sup>1</sup>stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.

18 So it goeth along to the side over against the plain Northward, and goeth down into the plain.

19 After, this border goeth along to the side of Beth Hoglah Northward: and the ends thereof, that is, of the border, reach to the point of the salt Sea Northward, and to the <sup>1</sup>end of Jordan Southward: this is the South coast.

20 Also Jordan is the border of it on the East side: this is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin by the coasts thereof round about, according to their families.

21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, according to their families, are Jericho, and Beth Hoglah, and the valley of Keziz,

22 And Beth Arabah, and Zemaraim, and Bethel,

23 And Avim, and Parah, and Ophrah,

24 And Chephar, Haammoni, and Ophni, and Gaba: twelve cities with their villages:

25 Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth,

26 And Mizpah, and Chephirah, and Mozah,

27 And Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah,

28 And Zelah, Eleph, and Jebus, (which is <sup>1</sup>Jerusalem) Gibeath, and Kirjath: fourteen cities with their villages: this is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, according to their families.

1 And the second lot came out to Simeon, even for the tribe of the children of Simeon, according to their families: and their inheritance was in the <sup>1</sup>midst of the inheritance of the children of Judah.

2 Now they had in their inheritance Beersheba, and Sheba, and Moladah,

3 And Hazar Shual, and Balah, and Ezem,

4 And Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah,

5 And Ziklag, and Beth Marcaboth, and Hazar Susah,

6 And Beth Lebaath, and Sharuhem: thirteen cities with their villages.

7 Ain, Rimmon, and Ether, and Ashan: four cities with their villages.

8 And all the villages that were round about these cities, unto Baalath Beer, and <sup>1</sup>Ramah, Southward: this is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon, according to their families.

9 Out of the portion of the children of Judah

18:8 <sup>1</sup> By writing the names of every country and city.

18:10 <sup>1</sup> That everyone should be content with God's appointment.

18:11 <sup>1</sup> Their inheritance bordered upon Judah and Joseph.

18:13 <sup>1</sup> Which was in the tribe of Ephraim: another Bethel was in the tribe of Benjamin.

18:15 <sup>1</sup> Or, to the sea.

18:17 <sup>1</sup> Which is in the tribe of Ephraim.

18:19 <sup>1</sup> To the very strait, where the river runneth into the salt sea.

18:28 <sup>1</sup> Which was not wholly in the tribe of Benjamin, but part of it was also in the tribe of Judah.

19:1 <sup>1</sup> According to Jacob's prophecy, that he should be scattered among the other tribes, Gen. 49:7.

19:8 <sup>1</sup> Or, Ramath Negeb.

came the inheritance of the children of Simeon: for the part of the children of Judah was too <sup>1</sup>much for them: therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance within their inheritance.

10 ¶ Also the third lot arose for the children of Zebulun, according to their families: and the coasts of their inheritance came to Sarid,

11 And their border goeth up <sup>1</sup>Westward, even to Maralah, and reacheth to Dabbasheth, and meeteth with the river that lieth before Jokneam,

12 And turneth from Sarid Eastward toward the Sun rising unto the border of Chisloth Tabor, and goeth out to Daberath, and ascendeth to Japhia,

13 And from thence goeth along Eastward toward the Sun rising to Gath Hopher, to Eth Kazin, and goeth forth to Rimmon, and turneth to Neah.

14 And this border compasseth it on the North side to Hannathon, and the ends thereof are in the valley of Jiphthah El,

15 And Kattrath, and Nahallal, and Shimron, and Idalah, and <sup>1</sup>Bethlehem: twelve cities with their villages.

16 This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulun, according to their families, that is, these cities and their villages.

17 ¶ The fourth lot came out to Issachar, even for the children of Issachar, according to their families.

18 And their coast was Jezreel, and Chesulloth, and Shunem,

19 And Haphraim, and Shion, and Anaharath,

20 And Rabbith, and Kishion, and Abez,

21 And Remeth, and <sup>1</sup>En Gannim, and En Hadadah, and Beth Pazzez.

22 And this coast reacheth to Tabor, and Shahazimah, and Beth Shemesh, and the ends of their coast reach to Jordan: sixteen cities with their villages.

23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families: that is, the cities and their villages.

24 ¶ Also the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families.

25 And their coast was Helkath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph,

26 And Alammelech, and Amad, and Mishal, and came to Carmel Westward, and to Shihor Libnath,

27 And turneth toward the Sun rising to Beth Dagon, and cometh to <sup>1</sup>Zebulun, and to the valley of Jiphthah El, toward the North side of Beth Emek, and Neiel, and goeth out on the left side of Cabul, 28 And to Ebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah, unto great Sidon.

29 Then the coast turneth to Ramah and to the strong city of <sup>1</sup>Zor, and this border turneth to Hosah, and the ends thereof are at the Sea from Hebel to Achzib, 30 Ummah also and Aphek, and Rehob: two and twenty cities with their villages.

31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher, according to their families: that is, these cities and their villages.

32 ¶ The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali, even to the children of Naphtali according to their families.

33 And their coast was from <sup>1</sup>Heleph, and from Allon in Zaananim, and Adami Nekeb, and Jabneel, even to Lakkum, and the ends thereof are at Jordan.

34 So this coast turneth Westward to Aznoth Tabor, and goeth out from thence to Hukkok, and reacheth to Zebulun on the South side, and goeth to Asher on the West side, and to Judah <sup>1</sup>by Jordan toward the sun rising.

35 And the strong cities are Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and <sup>1</sup>Chinnereth,

36 And Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor,

37 And Kedesh, and Edrei, and En Hazor,

38 And Iron, and Migdal El, Horem, and Beth Anath, and Beth Shemesh: nineteen cities with their villages.

39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families: that is, the cities and their villages.

40 ¶ The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan, according to their families.

41 And the coast of their inheritance was Zarah, and Eshtaol, and Ir Shemesh,

42 And Shaalabbin, and Aijalon, and Jethlah,

43 And Elon, and Timnah, and Ekron,

44 And Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalath,

45 And Jehud, and Bene Berak, and Gath Rimmon,

46 And Me Jarkon, and Rakkon, with the border that lieth before <sup>1</sup>Japho.

47 But the coast of the children of Dan fell out too little for them: therefore the children of Dan went up to <sup>1</sup>fight against Leshem, and took it, and smote

19:9 <sup>1</sup> But this large portion was given them by God's providence to declare their increase in time to come.

19:11 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, toward the great Sea.

19:15 <sup>1</sup> There was another Bethlehem in the tribe of Judah.

19:21 <sup>1</sup> There was another city of this name in the tribe of Judah: for under divers tribes certain cities had all one name, and were distinct by the tribe only.

19:27 <sup>1</sup> Joineth to the tribe of Zebulun, which lay more Eastward.

19:29 <sup>1</sup> Which was Tyre, a strong city in the sea.

19:33 <sup>1</sup> These cities were in the country of Zaananim.

19:34 <sup>1</sup> Or, even unto Jordan.

19:35 <sup>1</sup> Of the which the lake of Gennesaret had his name.

19:47 <sup>1</sup> According as Jacob had prophesied, Gen. 49:17.

it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called Leshem, "Dan after the name of Dan their father.

48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families: that is, these cities and their villages.

49 ¶ When they had made an end of dividing the land by the coasts thereof, then the children of Israel gave an inheritance unto Joshua the son of Nun among them.

50 According to the word of the Lord they gave him the city which he asked, even <sup>b</sup>Timnath Serah in mount Ephraim: and he built the city and dwelt therein.

51 <sup>c</sup>These are the heritages which Eleazar the Priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel divided by lot in Shiloh before the Lord at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation: so they made an end of dividing the country.

20 <sup>2</sup> The Lord commandeth Joshua to appoint cities of refuge. 3 The use thereof, 7 and their names.

1 The Lord also spake unto Joshua, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, and say, "Appoint you cities of refuge, whereof I spake unto you by the hand of Moses,

3 That the slayer that killeth any person <sup>1</sup>by ignorance, and unwittingly, may flee thither, and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood.

4 And he that doth flee unto one of those cities, shall stand at the entering of the gate of the city, and shall show his cause <sup>1</sup>to the Elders of the city: and they shall receive him into the city unto them, and give him a place, that he may dwell with them.

5 And if the <sup>1</sup>avenger of blood pursue after him, they shall not deliver the slayer into his hand, because he smote his neighbor ignorantly, neither hated he him beforetime:

6 But he shall dwell in that city until he stand before the Congregation in <sup>1</sup>judgment, <sup>b</sup>or until the death of the high Priest that shall be in those days: then shall the slayer return, and come unto his own city, and unto his own house, even unto the city from whence he fled.

7 ¶ Then they appointed Kedesh in <sup>1</sup>Galilee in mount Naphtali, and Shechem in mount Ephraim, and Kirjath Arba, (which is Hebron) in the mountain of Judah.

8 And on the other side Jordan toward Jericho Eastward, they appointed 'Bezer in the wilderness upon the plain, out of the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead, out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan, out of the <sup>1</sup>tribe of Manasseh.

9 These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourned among them, that whosoever killed any person ignorantly, might flee thither, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stood before the <sup>1</sup>Congregation.

21 <sup>3</sup> The cities given to the Levites. 41 in number eight and forty. 44 The Lord according to his promise gave the children of Israel rest.

1 Then came the <sup>1</sup>principal fathers of the Levites unto Eleazar the Priest, and unto Joshua the son of Nun, and unto the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel,

2 And spake unto them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, "The Lord commanded <sup>1</sup>by the hand of Moses, to give us cities to dwell in, with the suburbs thereof for our cattle.

3 So the children of Israel gave unto the Levites, out of their inheritance at the commandment of the Lord these cities with their suburbs.

4 And the lot came out for the families of the <sup>1</sup>Kohathites: and the children of Aaron the Priest, which were of the Levites, had by lot, out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin <sup>2</sup>thirteen cities.

5 And the rest of the children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, ten cities.

6 Also the children of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.

7 The children of Merari according to their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.

8 So the children of Israel gave by lot unto the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as the Lord had commanded by the hand of Moses.

9 ¶ And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of 21:4 <sup>1</sup> He meaneth them that were Priests: for some were but Levites.

<sup>2</sup> Every tribe gave more or fewer cities according as their inheritance was great or little, Num. 35:8.

Simeon, these cities which are here named.

10 And they were the children of <sup>1</sup>Aaron being of the families of the Kohathites, and of the sons of Levi, (for theirs was the first lot.)

11 So they gave them Kirjath-arba of the father of Anak (which is Hebron) in the mountain of Judah, with the suburbs of the same round about it.

12 (But the land of the city, and the villages thereof, gave they to <sup>h</sup>Caleb the son of Jephunneh to be his possession.)

13 ¶ Thus they gave to the <sup>1</sup>children of Aaron the Priest, a city of refuge for the slayer, even Hebron with her suburbs, and Libnah with her suburbs,

14 And Jattir with her suburbs, and Eshtemoa, and her suburbs,

15 And Holon with her suburbs, and Debir with her suburbs,

16 And Ain with her suburbs, and Juttah with her suburbs, Beth Shemesh with her suburbs: nine cities out of those two tribes.

17 And out of the tribe of Benjamin they gave Gibeon with her <sup>1</sup>suburbs, Geba with her suburbs,

19 All the cities of the children of Aaron Priests, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

21 They gave them the city of refuge for the slayer, <sup>1</sup>Shechem with her suburbs in mount Ephraim, and Gezer with her suburbs,

22 And Kibzaim with her suburbs, and Beth Horon with her suburbs: four cities.

26 All the cities for the other families of the children of Kohath were ten with their suburbs.

27 ¶ Also unto the children of Gershon of the families of the Levites, they gave out of the half tribe of Manasseh, the city of refuge for the slayer, <sup>1</sup>Golan in Bashan with her suburbs, and Be Eshterah with her suburbs: two cities.

28 And out of the tribe of Issachar, Kishon with her suburbs, Daberath with her suburbs, 29 Jarmuth with her suburbs, En Gannim with her suburbs: four cities.

30 And out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal with her suburbs, Abdon with her suburbs, 31 Helkath with her suburbs, and Rehob with her suburbs: four cities.

32 And out of the tribe of Naphtali, the city of refuge for the slayer, Kedesh in <sup>1</sup>Galilee with her suburbs, and Hammoth Dor with her suburbs, and Kartan with her suburbs: three cities.

33 All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

38 And out of the tribe of Gad they gave for a city of refuge for the slayer, Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, and Mahanaim with her suburbs, 39 Heshbon with her suburbs, and Jazer with her suburbs: four cities in all.

40 So all the cities of the children of Merari according to their families (which were the rest of the families of the Levites) were by their lot, twelve cities.

41 And all the cities of the Levites <sup>1</sup>within the possession of the children of Israel, were eight and forty with their suburbs.

42 These cities lay every one severally with their suburbs round about them: so were all these cities.

43 ¶ So the Lord gave unto Israel all the land, which he had sworn to give unto their fathers: and they possessed it, and dwelt therein.

44 Also the Lord gave them rest round about according to all that he had sworn unto their fathers:

21:10 <sup>1</sup> For Aaron came of Kohath, and therefore the Priests' office remained in that family.

21:13 <sup>1</sup> That is, the Priest of the family of the Kohathites, of whom Aaron was chief.

21:17 <sup>1</sup> The suburbs were a thousand cubits from the wall of the cities round about, Num. 35:4.

21:20 <sup>1</sup> That were not Priests.

21:21 <sup>1</sup> Hebron and Shechem were the two cities of refuge under the Kohathites.

21:25 <sup>1</sup> Which dwelt in Canaan.

21:27 <sup>1</sup> Golan and Kadesh were the cities of refuge under the Gershonites.

21:32 <sup>1</sup> Or, Galilee.

21:34 <sup>1</sup> They are here called the rest, because they are last numbered, and Merari was the younger brother, Gen. 46:11.

21:36 <sup>1</sup> Bezer and Ramoth were the cities of refuge under the Merarites and beyond Jordan, Josh. 20:8.

21:41 <sup>1</sup> Thus according to Jacob's prophecy they were scattered throughout the country, which God used to this end, that his people might be instructed in the true religion by them.

and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them: for the Lord delivered all their enemies into their hand.

45 <sup>c</sup>There failed nothing of all the good things, which the Lord had said unto the house of Israel, but all came to pass.

1 Then <sup>1</sup>Joshua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh,

2 And said unto them, Ye have kept all that Moses the servant of the Lord <sup>1</sup>commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you:

3 You have not forsaken your brethren this long season unto this day, but have diligently kept the commandment of the Lord your God.

4 And now the Lord hath given rest unto your brethren, as he promised them: therefore now return ye, and go to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the Lord hath <sup>a</sup>given you beyond Jordan.

5 But take diligent heed, to do the commandment and Law, which Moses the servant of the Lord commanded you: that is, <sup>b</sup>that ye <sup>1</sup>love the Lord your God, and walk in all his ways, and keep his commandments, and cleave unto him, and serve him with all your heart, and with all your soul.

6 So Joshua <sup>1</sup>blessed them, and sent them away, and they went unto their tents.

7 ¶ Now unto one half of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given a possession in Bashan: and unto the other half thereof gave Joshua among their brethren on this side Jordan Westward: therefore when Joshua sent them away unto their tents, and blessed them,

8 Thus he spake unto them, saying, Return with much riches unto your tents, and with a great multitude of cattle, with silver and with gold, with brass and with iron, and with great abundance of raiment: divide the spoil of your enemies with your <sup>1</sup>brethren.

9 ¶ So the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel from Shiloh (which is in the land of Canaan) to go unto the country of Gilead to the land of their possession, which they had obtained according to the word of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

10 ¶ And when they came unto the <sup>1</sup>borders of Jordan (which are in the land of Canaan) then the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, built <sup>2</sup>there an altar by Jordan, a great altar to see too.

11 ¶ When the children of Israel heard say, Behold, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh have built an altar in the forefront of the land of Canaan, upon the borders of Jordan at the passage of the children of Israel:

12 When the children of Israel heard it, then the whole Congregation of the children of Israel gathered them together at Shiloh, to go up <sup>1</sup>to war against them.

13 Then the children of Israel sent unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest,

14 And with him ten princes, of every chief house a prince, according to all the tribes of Israel: for every one was chief of their father's household among the <sup>1</sup>thousands of Israel.

15 ¶ So they went unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, unto the land of Gilead, and spake with them, saying,

16 Thus saith <sup>1</sup>the whole Congregation of the Lord, What transgression is this that ye have transgressed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from the Lord, in that ye have built you an altar for to rebel this day against the Lord?

17 Have we too little for the wickedness <sup>c</sup>of Peor, whereof we are not <sup>1</sup>cleansed unto this day, though a plague came upon the Congregation of the Lord?

18 Ye also are turned away this day from the Lord: and seeing ye rebel today against the Lord, even tomorrow he will be wroth with all the Congregation of Israel.

20 Did not Achan the son of Zerah trespass grievously in the execrable thing, and wrath fell on<sup>d</sup> all the Congregation of Israel? and this man alone <sup>1</sup>perished not in his wickedness.

21 ¶ Then the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh answered, and said unto the heads over the thousands of Israel,

22 The Lord God of gods, the Lord God of gods, he knoweth, and Israel himself shall know: if by rebellion, or by transgression against the Lord we have done it, save thou us not this day.

23 If we have built us an altar to return away from the Lord, either to offer thereon burnt offering, or meat offering, or to offer peace offerings thereon, let the Lord <sup>1</sup>himself require it:

24 And if we have not rather done it for fear of this thing, saying, In time to come your children might say unto our children, What have ye to do with the Lord God of Israel?

25 For the Lord hath made Jordan a border between us and you, ye children of Reuben and of Gad: therefore ye have no part in the Lord: so shall your children make our children <sup>1</sup>cease from fearing the Lord.

26 Therefore we said, We will now go about to make us an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice,

27 But it shall be a witness between us and you, and between our generations after us, to execute the service of the Lord before him, in our burnt offerings, and in our sacrifices, and in our peace offerings, and that your children should not say to our children in time to come, Ye have no part in the Lord.

28 Therefore said we, If so be that they should so say to us, or to our <sup>1</sup>generations in time to come, then will we answer, Behold the fashion of the altar of the Lord, which our fathers made, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice, but it is a witness between us and you.

29 God forbid, that we should rebel against the Lord, and turn this day away from the Lord, to build an altar for burnt offering, or for meat offering, or for sacrifice, save the altar of the Lord our God that is before his Tabernacle.

of the Congregation and heads over the thousands of Israel, which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben, and children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh spake, <sup>1</sup>they were well content.

31 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest said unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, This day we perceive, that the Lord is <sup>1</sup>among us, because ye have not done this trespass against the Lord: now ye have <sup>2</sup>delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the Lord.

32 ¶ Then Phinehas the son of Eleazar the Priest with the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, unto the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them answer.

33 And the saying pleased the children of Israel: and the children of Israel <sup>1</sup>blessed God, and <sup>2</sup>minded not to go against them in battle for to destroy the land, wherein the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt.

34 Then the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad called the altar <sup>1</sup>Ed: for it shall be a witness between us, that the Lord is God.

3 Also ye have seen all that the Lord your God hath done unto all these nations <sup>1</sup>before you, how the Lord your God himself hath fought for you.

4 Behold, I have <sup>1</sup>divided unto you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance according to your tribes, from Jordan, with all the nations that I have destroyed, even unto the great Sea <sup>2</sup>Westward.

1 And Joshua assembled again all the <sup>1</sup>tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called the Elders of Israel, and their heads, and their Judges, and their officers, and they presented themselves before <sup>2</sup>God.

2 Then Joshua said unto all the people, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, <sup>a</sup>Your fathers dwelt beyond the <sup>1</sup>flood in old time, even Terah the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor, and served other gods.

3 And I took your father Abraham from beyond the flood, and brought him through all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and <sup>b</sup>gave him Isaac.

4 And I gave unto Isaac, <sup>c</sup>Jacob and Esau: and I gave unto <sup>d</sup>Esau mount Seir, to possess it: but <sup>e</sup>Jacob and his children went down into Egypt.

5 <sup>f</sup>I sent Moses also and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt: and when I had so done among them, I brought you out.

6 So I <sup>g</sup>brought your fathers out of Egypt, and ye came unto the Sea, and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen unto <sup>h</sup>the red Sea.

7 Then they cried unto the Lord, and he put <sup>1</sup>a darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the Sea upon them, and covered them: so your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt: also ye dwelt in the wilderness a <sup>2</sup>long season.

8 After, I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt beyond Jordan, <sup>1</sup>and they fought with you: but I gave them into your hand, and ye possessed their country, and I destroyed them out of your sight.

9 <sup>i</sup>Also Balak the son of Zippor king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and sent to Balaam the son of Beor for to curse you,

10 But I would not hear Balaam: therefore he blessed you, and I delivered you out of his hand.

11 And ye went over Jordan, and came unto Jericho, and the <sup>1</sup>men of Jericho fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, and I delivered them into your hand.

12 And I sent <sup>h</sup>hornets before you, which cast them out before you, even the two kings of the Amorites, and not with thy sword, nor with thy bow.

13 And I have given you a land, wherein ye did not labor, and cities which ye built not, and ye dwell in them, and eat of the vineyards and olive trees, which ye planted not.

14 Now therefore <sup>l</sup>fear the Lord, and serve him in uprightness and in truth, and put away the gods, which your fathers served beyond the flood, and in Egypt, and serve ye the Lord.

15 And <sup>l</sup>if it seem evil unto you to serve the Lord, choose you this day whom ye will serve, whether the gods which your fathers served (that were beyond the flood) or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: <sup>2</sup>but I and mine house will serve the Lord.

16 Then the people answered and said, God forbid, that we should forsake the Lord, to serve other gods.

17 For the Lord our God, he brought us and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and he did those great miracles in our sight, and preserved us in all the way that we went, and among all the people through whom we came.

18 And the Lord did cast out before us all the people, even the Amorites which dwelt in the land: therefore will we also serve the Lord, <sup>1</sup>for he is our God.

19 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot serve the Lord: for he is an holy God: he is a jealous God: he will not pardon your iniquity nor your sins.

20 If ye forsake the Lord and serve strange gods, <sup>l</sup>then he will return and bring evil upon you, and consume you, after that he hath done you good.

21 And the people said unto Joshua, Nay, but we will serve the Lord.

to serve him: and they said, We are witnesses.

23 Then put away now, said he, the strange <sup>1</sup>gods which are among you, and bow your hearts unto the Lord God of Israel.

24 And the people said unto Joshua, The Lord our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey.

25 So Joshua <sup>1</sup>made a covenant with the people the same day, and gave them an ordinance and law in Shechem.

26 And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the Law of God and took a great stone, and pitched it there under an <sup>1</sup>oak that was in the Sanctuary of the Lord.

27 And Joshua said unto all the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness unto us: for it <sup>1</sup>hath heard all the words of the Lord which he spake with us: it shall be therefore a witness against you, lest you deny your God.

28 Then Joshua let the people depart, every man unto his inheritance.

29 And after these things, Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the Lord died, being an hundred and ten years old.

30 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in <sup>m</sup>Timnath Serah, which is in mount Ephraim, on the North side of mount Gaash.

31 And Israel <sup>1</sup>served the Lord all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the Elders that overlived Joshua, and which had known all the works of the Lord that he had done for Israel.

32 And the <sup>o</sup>bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem in a parcel of ground, which Jacob bought of <sup>o</sup>the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem, for an hundred pieces of silver, and the children of Joseph had them in their inheritance.

33 Also Eleazar the son of Aaron died, whom they buried in <sup>1</sup>the hill of Phinehas his son, which was given him in mount Ephraim.

24:14 <sup>1</sup> This is the true use of God's benefits, to learn thereby to fear and serve him with an upright conscience.

24:15 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, if it be evil in your sight.

<sup>2</sup> This teacheth us that if all the world would go from God, yet every one of us particularly is bound to cleave unto him.

24:18 <sup>1</sup> How much more are we bound to serve God in Christ, by whom we have received the redemption of our souls?

24:22 <sup>1</sup> If you do the contrary, your own mouths shall condemn you.

24:26 <sup>1</sup> Or, elm.

24:27 <sup>1</sup> Rather than man's dissimulation should not be punished, the dumb creatures shall cry for vengeance.

THE BOOK OF JUDGES

1 After Joshua was dead, Judah was constituted captain. 6 Adoni-Bezek is taken. 14 The request of Achsah. 16 The children of Keni. 23 The Canaanites are made tributaries, but not destroyed.

1 After that Joshua was dead, the children of Israel <sup>1</sup>asked the Lord, saying, <sup>2</sup>Who shall go up for us against the Canaanites to fight first against them?

2 And the Lord said, Judah shall go up: behold, I have given the land into his hand.

3 And Judah said unto Simeon his <sup>1</sup>brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites: and I likewise will go with thee into thy lot: so Simeon went with him.

4 Then Judah went up, and the Lord delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hands, and they slew of them in Bezek ten thousand men.

5 And they found <sup>1</sup>Adoni-Bezek in Bezek: and they fought against him, and slew the Canaanites, and the Perizzites.

6 But Adoni-Bezek fled, and they pursued after him, and caught him, and <sup>1</sup>cut off the thumbs of his hands and of his feet.

7 And Adoni-Bezek said, Seventy Kings having the thumbs of their hands and of their feet cut off, gathered bread under my table: as I have done, so God hath rewarded me, so they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

8 (Now the children of Judah had fought against Jerusalem, and hath taken it and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and had set the <sup>1</sup>city on fire.)

9 ¶ Afterward also the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites, that dwelt in the mountain, and toward the South, and in the low country.

10 And Judah went against the Canaanites that dwelt in Hebron, which Hebron beforetime was called <sup>a</sup>Kirjath Arba: and they slew <sup>1</sup>Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai.

13 And Othniel the son of Kenaz Caleb's younger brother took it, to whom he gave Achsah his daughter to wife.

14 And when she came to him, she moved him to ask of her father a field, <sup>1</sup>and she lighted off her ass, and Caleb said unto her, What wilt thou?

24 And the spies saw a man come out of the city, and they said unto him, Show us, we pray thee, the way into the city, and we will show thee mercy.

25 And when he had showed them the way into the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword, but they let the man and all his household depart.

26 Then the man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called the name thereof Luz, which is the name thereof unto this day.

27 ¶ Neither did Manasseh destroy Beth Shean with her towns, nor Taanach with her towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor with her towns, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam with her towns, neither the inhabitants of Megiddo with her towns: <sup>b</sup>but the Canaanites dwelled still in that land.

28 Nevertheless when Israel was strong, they put the Canaanites to tribute, and expelled them not wholly.

29 ¶ Likewise Ephraim expelled not the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer, but the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.

33 ¶ Neither did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth Anath, but dwelt among the Canaanites the inhabitants of the land: nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh, and of Beth Anath became tributaries unto them.

34 And the Amorites <sup>1</sup>drove the children of Dan into the mountain: so that they suffered them not to come down to the valley.

1 And an <sup>1</sup>Angel of the Lord came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said, I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the land which I had sworn unto your fathers, and said, I will never break my covenant with you.

2 <sup>a</sup>Ye also shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land, <sup>b</sup>but shall break down their altars: but ye have not obeyed my voice. Why have ye done this?

3 Wherefore, I said also, I will not cast them out before you, but they shall be <sup>c</sup>as thorns unto your sides, and their gods shall be your <sup>1</sup>destruction.

4 And when the Angel of the Lord spake these words unto all the children of Israel, the people lifted up their voice, and wept.

5 Therefore they called the name of that place, <sup>1</sup>Bochim, and offered sacrifices there unto the Lord.

6 ¶ Now when Joshua had <sup>1</sup>sent the people away, the children of Israel went every man into his inheritance, to possess the land.

7 And the people had served the Lord all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the Elders that outlived Joshua, which had seen all the great <sup>1</sup>works of the Lord that he did for Israel.

provoked the Lord to anger.

13 So they forsook the Lord, and served <sup>d</sup>Baal, and <sup>e</sup>Ashtoreth.

14 And the wrath of the Lord was hot against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers, that spoiled them, and he <sup>f</sup>sold them into the hands of their enemies round about them, so that they could no longer stand before their enemies.

15 <sup>g</sup>Whithersoever they went out, the <sup>h</sup>hand of the Lord was sore against them, as the Lord had said, and as the Lord had sworn unto them: so he punished them sore.

16 ¶ <sup>i</sup>Notwithstanding, the Lord raised up <sup>j</sup>Judges, which <sup>k</sup>delivered them out of the hands of their oppressors.

17 But yet they would not obey their Judges for they went a whoring after other gods, and worshipped them, and turned quickly out of the <sup>l</sup>way, wherein their fathers walked, obeying the commandments of the Lord: they did not so.

18 And when the Lord had raised them up Judges, the Lord was with the Judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the Judge (for the Lord <sup>m</sup>had compassion of their groanings, <sup>n</sup>because of them that oppressed them and tormented them.)

19 Yet when the Judge was dead, they returned, and <sup>o</sup>did worse than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them and worship them: they ceased not from their own inventions, nor from their rebellious way.

20 Wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he said, Because this people hath transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and hath not obeyed my voice,

21 Therefore will I no more cast out before them any of the <sup>p</sup>nations, which Joshua left when he died,

22 That through them I may <sup>q</sup>prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of the Lord, to walk therein, as their fathers kept it, or not.

23 So the Lord left those nations, and drove them not out immediately, neither delivered them into the hand of Joshua.

killeth the Philistines.

1 These now are the nations which the Lord left, that he might prove Israel by them (even as many of Israel as had not known all the <sup>v</sup>wars of Canaan,

2 Only to make the generations of the children of Israel to know, and to teach them war, which doubtless their predecessors knew <sup>w</sup>not.)

3 Five princes of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that dwelt in mount Lebanon, from mount Baal Hermon until one come to Hamath.

4 And these remained to prove Israel by them, to wit, whether they would obey the commandments of the Lord, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

5 And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites,

6 And they took <sup>x</sup>their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

7 ¶ So the children of Israel did wickedly in the sight of the Lord, and forgot the Lord their God, and served Baal, and <sup>y</sup>Asherah.

8 Therefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Cushan-Rishathaim King of <sup>z</sup>Aram-naharaim, and the children of Israel served Cushan-Rishathaim eight years.

9 ¶ And when the children of Israel cried unto the Lord, the Lord stirred up a Savior to the children of Israel, and he saved them, even Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.

10 And the <sup>aa</sup>Spirit of the Lord came upon him, and he judged Israel, and went out to war: and the Lord delivered Cushan-Rishathaim king of <sup>ab</sup>Aram into his hand, and his hand prevailed against Cushan-Rishathaim.

11 So the land had rest <sup>ac</sup>forty years, and Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

12 ¶ Then the children of Israel again committed wickedness in the sight of the Lord: and the Lord <sup>ad</sup>strengthened Eglon king of Moab against Israel, because they had committed wickedness before the Lord.

13 And he gathered unto him the children of 14 So the children of Israel served Eglon king of Moab eighteen years.

15 But when the children of Israel cried unto the Lord, the Lord stirred them up a savior, Ehud the son of Gera the son of <sup>1</sup>Jemini, a man <sup>2</sup>lame of his right hand: and the children of Israel sent a present by him unto Eglon king of Moab.

16 And Ehud <sup>1</sup>made him a dagger with two edges of a cubit length, and he did gird it under his raiment upon his right thigh,

17 And he presented the gift unto Eglon king of Moab (and Eglon was a very fat man.)

18 And when he had now presented the present, he sent away the people that bare the present,

19 But he turned again from the <sup>1</sup>quarries, that were by Gilgal, and said, I have a secret errand unto thee, O King. Who said, Keep <sup>2</sup>silence: and all that stood about him went out from him.

20 Then Ehud came unto him, (and he sat alone in a summer parlor, which he had) and Ehud said, I have a message unto thee from God. Then he arose out of his throne.

21 And Ehud put forth his left hand, and took the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly, 22 So that the haft went in after the blade, and the fat closed about the blade, so that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly, but the dirt came out.

23 Then Ehud got him out into the <sup>1</sup>porch, and shut the doors of the parlor upon him, and locked them.

24 And when he was gone out, his servants came: who seeing that the doors of the parlor were locked, they said, Surely <sup>1</sup>he doeth his easement in his summer chamber.

25 And they tarried till they were ashamed: and seeing he opened not the doors of the parlor, they took the key, and opened them, and behold, their lord was fallen dead on the earth.

26 So Ehud escaped (while they tarried) and was past the quarries, and escaped unto Seirah,

27 And when he came home, he <sup>1</sup>blew a trumpet in mount Ephraim, and the children of Israel went 28 Then said he unto them, Follow me: for the Lord hath delivered your enemies, even Moab into your hand. So they went down after him, and took the passages of Jordan toward Moab, and suffered not a man to pass over.

29 And they slew of the Moabites the same time about ten thousand men, all <sup>1</sup>fed men, and all were warriors, and there escaped not a man.

30 So Moab was <sup>1</sup>subdued that day, under the hand of Israel: and the <sup>2</sup>land had rest fourscore years.

4 ¶ And at that time Deborah a Prophetess the wife of Lapidoth <sup>1</sup>judged Israel.

5 And this Deborah dwelt under a palm tree, between Ramah and Bethel in mount Ephraim, and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.

6 Then she sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedesh of Naphtali, and said unto him, Hath not the Lord God of Israel <sup>1</sup>commanded, saying, Go, and draw toward mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali, and of the children of Zebulun?

10 ¶ And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh, and <sup>h</sup>he went up on his feet with ten thousand men, and Deborah went up with him.

11 (Now Heber the Kenite, which was of the <sup>1</sup>children of <sup>b</sup>Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, was departed from the <sup>2</sup>Kenites, and pitched his tent <sup>3</sup>until the plain of Zaanaim, which is by Kedesh.)

12 Then they showed Sisera, that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to mount Tabor.

13 And Sisera called for all his chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people that were with him from Harosheth of the Gentiles, unto the river Kishon.

14 Then Deborah said unto Barak, <sup>1</sup>Up: for this is the day that the Lord hath delivered Sisera into thine hand. Is not the Lord gone out before thee? So Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him.

18 And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said unto him, Turn in, my lord, turn into me: fear not. And when he had turned in unto her into her tent, she covered him with a <sup>1</sup>mantel.

19 And he said unto her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink: for I am thirsty. And she opened <sup>a</sup>a bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him.

17:35,38
Jer. 10:2

<sup>b</sup> Ex. 33:20
Judg. 13:22

6 So was Israel exceedingly impoverished by the Midianites: therefore the <sup>1</sup>children of Israel cried unto the Lord.

7 ¶ And when the children of Israel cried unto the Lord because of the Midianites,

8 The Lord sent unto the children of Israel a Prophet, who said unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I have brought you up from Egypt, and have brought you out of the house of bondage,

9 And I have delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and have cast them out before you, and given you their land.

10 And I said unto you, I am the Lord your God: <sup>a</sup>fear not the gods of the Amorites in whose land you dwell: but ye have not obeyed my voice.

11 ¶ And the Angel of the Lord came, and sat under the oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joash the father of the Abiezrites, and his son Gideon threshed wheat by the winepress, <sup>1</sup>to hide it from the Midianites.

12 Then the Angel of the Lord appeared unto him, and said unto him, The Lord is with thee, thou valiant man.

13 To whom Gideon answered, <sup>1</sup>Ah my Lord, if the Lord be with us, why then is all this come upon us? and where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, and said, Did not the Lord bring us out [of] Egypt? but now the Lord hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hand of the Midianites.

14 And the <sup>1</sup>Lord looked upon him, and said, Go in this thy <sup>2</sup>might, and thou shalt save Israel out of the hands of the Midianites: have not I sent thee?

15 And he answered him, Ah my Lord, whereby shall I save Israel? behold, my <sup>1</sup>father is poor in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house.

16 Then the Lord said unto him, I will therefore be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites, as one man.

17 And he answered him, I pray thee, if I have found favor in thy sight, then show me <sup>1</sup>a sign, that thou talkest with me.

18 Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring mine offering, and lay it before thee. And he said, I will tarry until thou come again.

19 ¶ Then Gideon went in, and made ready a kid, and unleavened bread of an <sup>1</sup>Ephah of flour, and put the flesh in a basket, and put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the oak, and presented it.

20 And the Angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh and the unleavened bread, and lay them upon this stone, and pour out the broth: and he did so.

21 ¶ Then the Angel of the Lord put forth the end of the staff that he held in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened bread: and there arose up fire <sup>1</sup>out of the stone, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened bread, so the Angel of the Lord departed out of his sight.

22 And when Gideon perceived that it was an Angel of the Lord, Gideon then said, Alas, my Lord God: <sup>b</sup>for because I have seen an Angel of the Lord face to face, I shall die.

23 And the Lord said unto him, Peace be unto thee: fear not, thou shalt not die.

24 Then Gideon made an altar there unto the Lord, and called it <sup>1</sup>Jehovah Shalom: unto this day it is in Ophrah, of the father of the Abiezrites.

25 ¶ And the same night the Lord said unto him, Take thy father's young bullock, and another bullock <sup>1</sup>of seven years old, and destroy the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut down the grove that is by it,

26 And build an altar unto the Lord thy God upon the top of this rock, in a plain place: and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt offering with the wood of the <sup>1</sup>grove, which thou shalt cut down.

27 Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the Lord bade him: but because he feared to do it by day for his father's household and the men of the city, he did it by night.

28 ¶ And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was broken, and the grove cut down that was by it, and the <sup>1</sup>second bullock offered upon the altar that was made.

29 Therefore they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? and when they inquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing.

30 Then the men of the city said unto Joash, Bring out thy son, that he may die: for he hath destroyed the altar of Baal, and hath also cut down the grove that was by it.

31 And Joash said unto all that stood by him, Will ye plead Baal's cause? or will ye save him? <sup>1</sup>he that

6:6 <sup>1</sup> This is the end of God's punishments, to call his to repentance, that they may seek for help of him.

6:11 <sup>1</sup> Or, to prepare his flight.

6:13 <sup>1</sup> This came not of distrust, but of weakness of faith, which is in the most perfect: for no man in this life can have a perfect faith: yet the children of God have a true faith, whereby they be justified.

6:14 <sup>1</sup> That is, Christ appearing in visible form.

will contend for him, let him die or the morning. If he be God, let him plead for himself against him that hath cast down his altar.

32 And in that day was Gideon called Jerubbaal, that is, Let Baal plead for himself because he hath broken down his altar.

33 Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites, and they of the East, were gathered together, and went and pitched in the valley of Jezreel.

34 But the Spirit of the Lord <sup>1</sup>came upon Gideon and he blew a trumpet, and <sup>2</sup>Abiezer was joined with him.

35 And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh, which was also joined with him, and he sent messengers unto Asher, and to Zebulun and to Naphtali, and they came up to meet them.

36 Then Gideon said unto God, <sup>1</sup>If thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said, 37 Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the threshing place: if the dew come on the fleece only and it be dry upon all the earth, then shall I be sure, that thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said.

38 And so it was: for he rose up early on the morning, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, and filled a bowl of water.

39 Again, Gideon said unto God, Be not angry with me, that <sup>1</sup>I may speak once more: let me prove once again, I pray thee, with the fleece: let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and let dew be upon all the ground.

40 And God did so the same night: for it was <sup>1</sup>dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

7 The Lord commandeth Gideon to send away a great part of his company. 22 The Midianites are discomfited by a wondrous sort. 25 Oreb and Zeeb are slain.

1 Then <sup>a</sup>Jerubbaal (who is Gideon) rose up early, and all the people that were with him, and pitched beside <sup>1</sup>the well of Harod, so that the host of the Midianites was on the North side of them, in the valley by the hill of <sup>2</sup>Moreh.

2 And the Lord said unto Gideon, The people that are with thee, are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel make their vaunt <sup>1</sup>against me, and say, Mine hand hath saved me.

3 Now therefore proclaim in the audience of the people, and say, <sup>b</sup>Who so is timorous or fearful, let him return, and depart early from mount Gilead. And there returned of the people which were at mount Gilead, two and twenty thousand: so ten thousand remained.

4 And the Lord said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many: bring them down unto the water, and I will <sup>1</sup>try them for thee there: and of whom I say unto thee, This man shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee: and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This man shall not go with thee, the same shall not go.

5 So he brought down the people unto the water. And the Lord said unto Gideon, As many as lap the water with their tongues, as a dog lappeth, them put by themselves, and everyone that shall bow down his knees to drink, <sup>1</sup>put apart.

6 And the number of them that lapped by putting their hands to their mouths, were three hundred men: but all the remnant of the people kneeled down upon their knees to drink water.

7 ¶ Then the Lord said unto Gideon, By these three hundred men that lapped, will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into thine hand: and let all the other <sup>1</sup>people go every man unto his place.

8 ¶ So the people took victuals <sup>1</sup>with them, and their trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel, every man unto his tent, and <sup>2</sup>retained the three hundred men: and the host of Midian was beneath him in a valley.

9 ¶ And the same night the Lord said unto him, Arise, <sup>1</sup>get thee down unto the host: for I have delivered it into thine hand.

10 But if thou fear to go down, then go thou, and Purah thy servant down to the host,

11 And thou shalt hearken what they say, and so shall thine hands be strong to go down unto the host. Then went he down and Purah his servant unto the outside of the soldiers that were in the host.

12 ¶ And the Midianites, and the Amalekites and all they of the East, lay in the valley like grasshoppers in multitude, and their camels were without number, as the sand which is by the seaside for multitude.

13 And when Gideon was come, behold, a man told a dream unto his neighbor, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream and lo, a <sup>1</sup>cake of barley bread tumbled from above into the host of Midian, and came into a tent, and smote it that it fell, and overturned it, that the tent fell down.

14 And his fellow answered, and said, This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Joash a man of Israel: for into his hand hath God delivered Midian and all the host.

15 ¶ When Gideon heard the dream told, and the interpretation of the same, he <sup>1</sup>worshipped, and returned unto the host of Israel, and said, Up: for the Lord hath delivered into your hand the host of Midian.

16 And he divided the three hundred men into three bands, and gave every man a trumpet in his hand with empty pitchers, and <sup>1</sup>lamps <sup>2</sup>within the pitchers.

17 And he said unto them, Look on me, and do likewise, when I come to the side of the host: even as I do, so do you.

18 When I blow with a trumpet and all that are with me, blow ye with trumpets also on every side of the host, and say, <sup>1</sup>For the Lord, and for Gideon.

19 ¶ So Gideon and the hundred men that were with him, came unto the outside of the host, in the beginning of the middle watch, and they raised up the watchmen, and they blew with their trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands.

20 And the three companies blew with trumpets and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow withal: and they cried, The <sup>1</sup>sword of the Lord and of Gideon.

21 And they stood, every man in his place round about the host: and all the host <sup>1</sup>ran, and cried, and fled.

22 And the three hundred blew with trumpets, and <sup>4</sup>the Lord set every man's sword upon his <sup>1</sup>neighbor, and upon all the host: so the host fled to Beth Hashittah in Zererah, and to the border of Abel Meholah, unto Tabbath.

23 Then the men of Israel being gathered together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, pursued after the Midianites.

24 And Gideon sent messengers unto all mount Ephraim, saying, Come down against the Midianites, and take before them the <sup>1</sup>waters unto Beth Barah and Jordan. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered together and took the waters unto Beth Barah, and

1 Then the men of Ephraim said unto him, <sup>1</sup>Why hast thou served us thus that thou calledst us not, when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? and they chide with him sharply.

2 To whom he said, What have I now done, in comparison of <sup>1</sup>you? is not the <sup>2</sup>gleaning of grapes of Ephraim better, than the vintage of Abiezer?

3 God hath delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? and when he had thus spoken, then their spirits abated toward him.

4 ¶ And Gideon came to Jordan to pass over, he, and the three hundred men that were with him, weary, yet pursuing them.

5 And he said unto the men of Succoth, Give, I pray you, <sup>1</sup>morsels of bread unto the people <sup>2</sup>that follow me (for they be weary) that I may follow after Zebah and Zalmunna Kings of Midian.

6 And the princes of Succoth said, Are the <sup>1</sup>hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hands, that we should give bread unto thine army?

7 Gideon then said, Therefore when the Lord hath delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into mine hand, I will <sup>1</sup>tear your flesh with thorns of the wilderness and with briers.

8 ¶ And he went up thence to Penuel, and spake unto them likewise, and the men of Penuel answered him, as the men of Succoth answered.

9 And he said also unto the men of Penuel, When I come again <sup>1</sup>in peace, I will break down this tower.

10 ¶ Now Zebah and Zalmunna were <sup>1</sup>in Karkor, and their hosts with them, about fifteen thousand, all that were left of all the hosts of them of the East:

12 And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he followed after them, and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and discomfited all the host.

13 ¶ So Gideon the son of Joash returned from battle, <sup>1</sup>the sun being yet high,

14 And took a servant of the men of Succoth, and inquired of him: and he <sup>1</sup>wrote to him the princes of Succoth and the Elders thereof, even seventy and seven men.

15 And he came unto the men of Succoth, and said, Behold Zebah, and Zalmunna, by whom ye upbraided me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah, and Zalmunna already in thine hands, that we should give bread unto thy weary men?

16 Then he took the Elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and <sup>1</sup>did tear the men of Succoth with them.

17 Also he brake down the tower of <sup>1</sup>Penuel, and slew the men of the city.

18 ¶ Then said he unto Zebah and Zalmunna, What manner of men were they, whom ye slew at Tabor? And they answered, <sup>1</sup>As thou art, so were they, every one was like the children of a king.

19 And he said, They were my brethren, even my <sup>1</sup>mother's children: as the Lord liveth, if ye had saved their lives, I would not slay you.

20 Then he said unto Jether his firstborn son, Up, and slay them: but the boy drew not his sword: for he feared, because he was yet young.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise thou and fall upon us: for <sup>1</sup>as the man is, so is his strength. And Gideon arose and slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and took away the <sup>2</sup>ornaments, that were on their camels' necks.

22 ¶ Then the men of Israel said unto Gideon, Reign thou over us, both thou, and thy son and thy <sup>1</sup>son's son: for thou hast delivered us out of the hand of Midian.

CHAPTER 8

23 And Gideon said unto them, I will not reign over you, neither shall my child reign over you, but the Lord shall reign over you.

24 Again Gideon said unto them, <sup>1</sup>I would desire a request of you, that you would give me every man the earrings of his prey (for they [had] golden earrings because they were Ishmaelites.)

25 And they answered, We will give them. And they spread a garment, and did cast therein every man the earrings of his prey.

26 And the weight of the golden earrings that he required, was a thousand and seven hundred shekels of gold, beside collars <sup>1</sup>and jewels, and purple raiment that was on the kings of Midian, and beside the chains that were about the camels' necks.

27 And Gideon made an <sup>1</sup>Ephod thereof, and put it in Ophrah his city: and all Israel went a whoring there after it, which was the destruction of Gideon and his house.

28 Thus was Midian brought low before the children of Israel, so that they lifted up their heads no more: and the country was in quietness forty years in the days of Gideon.

29 ¶ Then Jerubbaal the son of Joash went, and dwelt in his own house.

30 And Gideon had seventy sons <sup>1</sup>begotten of his body: for he had many wives.

31 And his concubine that was in Shechem, bare him a son also, whose name he called Abimelech.

32 So Gideon the son of Joash died in a good age, and was buried in the sepulcher of Joash his father in Ophrah, of the <sup>1</sup>father of the Abiezrites.

33 But when Gideon was dead, the children of Israel turned away, and went a whoring after Baal, and made <sup>1</sup>Baal-Berith their god.

34 And the children of Israel remembered not the Lord their God, which had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side.

35 Neither <sup>1</sup>showed they mercy on the house of Jerubbaal, or Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had showed unto Israel.

1 Then Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem unto his <sup>1</sup>mother's brethren, and communed with them, and with all the family, and house of his mother's father, saying,

2 Say, I pray you, in the audience of all the men of Shechem, Whether is better for you, that all the sons of Jerubbaal, which are seventy persons, reign over you, either that one reign over you? Remember also, that I am your <sup>1</sup>bone, and your flesh.

3 Then his mother's brethren spake of him in the audience of all the men of Shechem, all these words: and their hearts were moved to follow Abimelech: for said they, He is our brother.

4 And they gave him seventy pieces of silver out of the house of Baal-Berith, wherewith Abimelech hired <sup>1</sup>vain and light fellows which followed him.

5 And he went unto his father's house at Ophrah, and <sup>1</sup>slew his brethren, the sons of Jerubbaal, about seventy persons upon one stone: yet Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left: for he hid himself.

6 ¶ And all the men of Shechem gathered together with all the house of <sup>1</sup>Millo, and came and made Abimelech King in the plain, where the stone was erected in Shechem.

7 And when they told it to Jotham, he went and stood in the top of mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said unto them, Hearken unto me, you men of Shechem, that God may hearken unto you.

8 <sup>1</sup>The trees went forth to anoint a King over them, and said unto the Olive tree, Reign thou over us.

9 But the Olive tree said unto them, Should I leave my fatness, wherewith by me they honor God and man, and go to advance me above the trees?

10 Then the trees said to the fig tree, Come thou, and be king over us.

11 But the fig tree answered them, Should I forsake my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to advance me above the trees?

12 Then said the trees unto the vine, Come thou, and be king over us.

13 But the vine said unto them, Should I leave my wine, whereby I cheer God and man, and go to advance me above the trees?

14 Then said all the trees unto the <sup>1</sup>bramble, Come thou, and reign over us.

15 And the bramble said unto the trees, If ye will indeed anoint me king over you, come, and put your trust under my shadow: and if not, the <sup>1</sup>fire shall come out of the bramble, and consume the Cedars of Lebanon.

16 Now therefore, if ye do truly and incorruptly to make Abimelech King, and if ye have dealt well with Jerubbaal and with his house, and have done unto him according to the deserving of his hands, 17 (For my father fought for you, and <sup>1</sup>adventured his life, and delivered you out of the hands of Midian.

18 And ye are risen up against my father's house this day, and have slain his children, about seventy persons upon one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his maidservant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother.)

19 If ye then have dealt truly and purely with Jerubbaal, and with his house this day, then <sup>1</sup>rejoice ye with Abimelech, and let him rejoice with you.

20 But if not, let a fire come out from Abimelech, and consume the men of Shechem and the house of Millo: also let a fire come forth from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Millo, and consume Abimelech.

21 And Jotham ran away, and fled, and went to Beer, and dwelt there for fear of Abimelech his brother.

22 So Abimelech reigned three years over Israel.

23 But God <sup>1</sup>sent an evil spirit between Abimelech, and the men of Shechem: and the men of Shechem brake their promise to Abimelech,

24 That the cruelty toward the seventy sons of Jerubbaal and their blood might come and be laid upon Abimelech their brother, which had slain them, and upon the men of Shechem, which had aided him to kill his brethren.

25 So the men of Shechem set men in wait for him in the tops of the mountains: who robbed all that passed that way by them: and it was told Abimelech.

26 Then Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brethren, and they went to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

27 Therefore they <sup>1</sup>went out into the field, and gathered in their grapes, and trode them, and made merry, and went into the house of their gods, and 28 Then Gaal the son of Ebed said, Who is Abimelech? and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerubbaal? and Zebul is his officer? Serve rather the men of Hamor the father of Shechem: for why should we serve him?

29 Now would God this people were under mine hand: then would I put away Abimelech. And he said to <sup>1</sup>Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.

30 ¶ And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his wrath was kindled.

31 Therefore he sent messengers unto Abimelech <sup>1</sup>privily, saying, Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brethren be come to Shechem, and behold, they fortify the city against thee.

32 Now therefore arise by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lie in wait in the field.

33 And rise early in the morning as soon as the sun is up, and assault the city: and when he and the people that is with him, shall come out against thee, do to him <sup>1</sup>what thou canst.

34 ¶ So Abimelech rose up, and all the people that were with him by night: and they lay in wait against Shechem in four bands.

35 Then Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and Abimelech rose up, and the folk that were with him, from lying in wait.

36 And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, Behold, there come people down from the tops of the mountains: and Zebul said unto him, The <sup>1</sup>shadow of the mountains seem men unto thee.

37 And Gaal spake again, and said, See, there come folk down <sup>1</sup>by the middle of the land, and another band cometh by the way of the plain of <sup>2</sup>Meonenim.

38 Then said Zebul unto him, Where is now thy mouth that said, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? Is not this the people that thou hast despised? Go out now, I pray thee and fight with them.

39 And Gaal <sup>1</sup>went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

40 But Abimelech pursued him, and he fled before him, and many were overthrown and wounded even unto the entering of the gate.

41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren that they should not dwell in Shechem.

42 ¶ And on the morrow, the people went out into the field: which was told Abimelech.

43 And he took the <sup>1</sup>people, and divided them into three bands, and laid wait in the fields, and looked, and behold, the people were come out of the city, and he rose up against them, and smote them.

44 And Abimelech, and the bands that were with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and the two other bands ran upon all the people that were in the field, and slew them.

45 And when Abimelech had fought against the city all that day, he took the city, and slew the people that was therein, and destroyed the city, and sowed <sup>1</sup>salt in it.

46 ¶ And when all the men of the tower of Shechem heard it, they entered into an hold of the house of the god <sup>1</sup>Berith.

47 And it was told Abimelech, that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.

48 And Abimelech got him up to mount Zalmon, he and all the people that were with him: and Abimelech took axes with him, and cut down boughs of trees, and took them, and bare them on his shoulder, and said unto the folk that were with him, What ye have seen me do, make haste, and do like me.

49 Then all the people also cut down every man his bough, and followed Abimelech, and put them to the hold, and set the hold on fire with them so all the men of the tower of Shechem <sup>1</sup>died also, about a thousand men and women.

50 ¶ Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and besieged Thebez, and took it.

51 But there was a strong tower within the city, and thither fled all the men and women, and all the chiefs of the city, and shut it to them, and went up to the top of the tower.

52 And Abimelech came unto the tower, and fought against it, and went hard unto the door of the tower to set it on fire.

53 But a certain woman <sup>4</sup>cast a piece of a millstone upon Abimelech's head, and brake his brainpan.

54 Then Abimelech called hastily his page that bore his harness, and said unto him, Draw thy sword and slay me, that men say not of me, A woman slew him. And his page <sup>1</sup>thrust him through, and he died.

55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every man unto his

1 After Abimelech, there arose to defend Israel, Tola, the son of Puah, the son of <sup>1</sup>Dodo, a man of Issachar, which dwelt in Shamir in mount Ephraim.

2 And he <sup>1</sup>judged Israel three and twenty years, and died, and was buried in Shamir.

3 ¶ And after him arose Jair a Gileadite, and judged Israel two and twenty years.

4 And he had thirty sons that <sup>1</sup>rode on thirty asscolts, and they had thirty cities, which are called <sup>2</sup>Havoth Jair unto this day, and are in the land of Gilead.

5 And Jair died, and was buried in Camon.

6 ¶ And the children of Israel wrought wickedness again in the sight of the Lord, and served Baal and <sup>b</sup>Ashtoreth, and the gods of <sup>1</sup>Aram, and the gods of Sidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines, and forsook the Lord and served not him.

7 Therefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he <sup>1</sup>sold them into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hands of the children of Ammon:

8 Who from that year vexed and oppressed the children of Israel eighteen years, <sup>1</sup>even all the children of Israel that were beyond Jordan, in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.

9 Moreover, the children of Ammon went over Jordan to fight against Judah and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim: so that Israel was sore tormented.

10 Then the children of Israel <sup>1</sup>cried unto the Lord, saying, We have sinned against thee, even because we have forsaken our own God, and have served Baal.

11 And the Lord <sup>1</sup>said unto the children of Israel,

Did not I deliver you from the Egyptians and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines?

12 The Sidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites did oppress you, and ye cried to me, and I saved you out of their hands.

13 Yet ye have forsaken me, and served other gods: Wherefore I will deliver you no more.

14 Go, and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen: let them save you in the time of your tribulation.

15 And the children of Israel said unto the Lord, We have sinned: do thou unto us whatsoever please thee: only we pray thee to deliver us <sup>1</sup>this day.

16 Then they put away the strange gods from among them, and <sup>1</sup>served the Lord: and <sup>2</sup>his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.

17 Then the children of Ammon gathered themselves together, and pitched in Gilead: and the children of Israel assembled themselves, and pitched in Mizpah.

18 And the people and princes of Gilead said one to another, Whosoever will begin the battle against the children of Ammon, the same shall be <sup>d</sup>head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

1 Then Gilead begat Jephthah, and Jephthah the Gileadite was <sup>1</sup>a valiant man, but the son of an <sup>2</sup>harlot.

2 And Gilead's wife bare him sons, and when the woman's children were come to age, they thrust out Jephthah, and said unto him, Thou shalt not inherit in our father's house: for thou art the son of a <sup>1</sup>strange woman.

3 Then Jephthah fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of <sup>1</sup>Tob: and there gathered idle fellows to Jephthah, and <sup>2</sup>went out with him.

4 ¶ And in process of time, the children of Ammon made war with Israel.

5 And when the children of Ammon fought with Israel, the <sup>1</sup>Elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of Tob.

7 Jephthah then answered the Elders of Gilead, Did not ye hate me, and <sup>1</sup>expel me out of my father's house? how then come you unto me now in time of your tribulation?

8 Then the Elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Therefore we turn again to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight against the children of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

9 And Jephthah said unto the Elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home again to fight against the children of Ammon, if the Lord give them before me, shall I be your head?

10 And the Elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, The Lord <sup>1</sup>be witness between us, if we do not according to thy words.

11 Then Jephthah went with the Elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captain over them: and Jephthah rehearsed all his words before the Lord in Mizpah.

12 ¶ Then Jephthah sent messengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come against me, to fight in my land?

pitched on the other side of Arnon, <sup>d</sup>and came not within the coast of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab.

19 Also Israel <sup>e</sup>sent messengers unto Sihon, king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon, and Israel said unto him, Let us pass, we pray thee, by thy land unto our <sup>1</sup>place.

20 But Sihon <sup>1</sup>consented not to Israel, that he should go through his coast: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Jahaz, and fought with Israel.

21 And the Lord God of Israel gave Sihon, and all his folk into the hands of Israel, and they smote them: so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country:

22 And they possessed <sup>d</sup>all the coast of the Amorites, from Arnon unto Jabbok, and from the wilderness even unto Jordan.

23 Now therefore the Lord God of Israel hath cast out the Amorites before his people Israel, and shouldest thou possess it?

24 Wouldest not thou possess that which Chemosh thy god giveth thee to possess? So whomsoever the <sup>1</sup>Lord our God driveth out before us, them will we possess.

25 <sup>e</sup>And art thou now far better than Balak the son of Zippor king of Moab? did he not strive with Israel and fight against them,

26 When Israel dwelt in Heshbon and in her towns, and in Aroer and in her towns, and in all the cities that are by the coasts of Arnon, three hundred years? why did ye not then recover <sup>1</sup>them in that space?

27 Wherefore I have not offended thee: but thou doest me wrong to war against me. The Lord the Judge <sup>1</sup>be judge this day between the children of Israel, and the children of Ammon.

28 Howbeit the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not unto the words of Jephthah, which he had sent him.

29 ¶ Then the <sup>1</sup>Spirit of the Lord came upon Jephthah, and he passed over to Gilead, and to Manasseh, and came to Mizpah in Gilead, and from Mizpah in Gilead he went unto the children of Ammon.

30 And Jephthah <sup>1</sup>vowed a vow unto the Lord, and said, If thou shalt deliver the children of Ammon into mine hands, 11:6 <sup>1</sup> Men oft times are constrained to desire help of them, whom before they have refused.

11:7 <sup>1</sup> Oft times those things which men reject, God chooseth to do great enterprises by.

11:20 <sup>1</sup> He trusted them not to go through his country.

11:24 <sup>1</sup> For we ought more to believe and obey God, than thou

11:26 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, their towns.

11:27 <sup>1</sup> To punish the offender.

11:29 <sup>1</sup> That is, the spirit of strength and zeal.

11:30 <sup>1</sup> As the Apostle commendeth Jephthah for his worthy enterprise in delivering the people, Heb. 11:32, so by his rash vow and wicked performance of the same, his victory was defaced: and here we see that the sins of the godly do not utterly extinguish their faith.

31 Then that thing that cometh out of the doors of mine house to meet me, when I come home in peace from the children of Ammon, shall be the Lord's, and I will offer it for a burnt offering.

32 And so Jephthah went unto the children of Ammon to fight against them, and the Lord delivered them into his hands.

33 And he smote them from Aroer even till thou come to Minnith, twenty cities, and so forth to <sup>1</sup>Abel of the vineyards, with an exceeding great slaughter. Thus the children of Ammon were humbled before the children of Israel.

34 ¶ Now when Jephthah came to Mizpah unto his house, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with <sup>1</sup>timbrels and dances, which was his only child: he had none other son, nor daughter.

35 And when he saw her, he <sup>1</sup>rent his clothes, and said, Alas my daughter, thou hast brought me low, and art of them that trouble me: for I have opened my mouth unto the Lord, and cannot go back.

36 And she said unto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth unto the Lord, do with me as thou hast promised, seeing that the Lord hath avenged thee of thine enemies the children of Ammon.

37 Also she said unto her father, Do thus much for me: suffer me two months, that I may go to the mountains, and <sup>1</sup>bewail my virginity, I and my fellows.

38 And he said, Go: and he sent her away two months: so she went with her companions, and lamented her virginity upon the mountains.

39 And after the end of two months, she turned again unto her father, who did with her according to his vow which he had vowed, and she had known no man. And it was a custom in Israel:

40 The daughters of Israel went year by year to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite, four days in a year.

1 And the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and went <sup>1</sup>Northward, and said unto Jephthah, Wherefore watest thou to fight against the children of Ammon, and didst not call <sup>2</sup>us to go with thee? we will therefore burn thine house upon thee with fire.

2 And Jephthah said unto them, I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon, and when I called you, ye delivered me not out of their hands.

3 So when I saw that ye delivered me not, <sup>1</sup>I put my life in mine hands, and went upon the children of Ammon: so the Lord delivered them into mine hands. Wherefore then are ye come upon me now to fight against me?

4 Then Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim: and the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they said, Ye Gileadites are runagates of Ephraim <sup>1</sup>among the Ephraimites, and among the Manassites.

5 Also the Gileadites took the passages of Jordan before the Ephraimites, and when the Ephraimites that were escaped, said, Let me pass, then the men of Gilead said unto him, Art thou an Ephraimite? If he said, Nay,

6 Then said they unto him, Say now <sup>1</sup>Shibboleth: and he said Sibboleth: for he could not so pronounce: then they took him, and slew him at the passages of Jordan: and there fell at that time of the Ephraimites two and forty thousand.

7 And Jephthah judged Israel six years: then died Jephthah the Gileadite, and was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.

8 ¶ After him <sup>1</sup>Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel,

9 Who had thirty sons and thirty daughters, which he sent out, and took in thirty daughters from abroad for his sons: and he judged Israel seven years.

10 Then Ibzan died, and was buried at Bethlehem.

11 ¶ And after him judged Israel Elon, a Zebulunite, and he judged Israel ten years.

12 Then Elon the Zebulunite died, and was buried in Aijalon in the country of Zebulun.

13 ¶ And after him Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel.

14 And he had forty sons and thirty <sup>1</sup>nephews that rode on seventy <sup>2</sup>asscolts: and he judged Israel eight years.

15 Then died Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite, and was buried in Pirathon, in the land of Ephraim, in the mount of the Amalekites.

Lord. 24 The birth of Samson.

1 But the children of Israel continued to commit wickedness in the sight of the Lord, and the Lord delivered them into the hands of the Philistines forty years.

2 ¶ Then there was a man in Zorah of the family of the Danites named Manoah, whose wife was barren, and bare not.

3 And the Angel of the Lord appeared unto the woman, and said unto her, Behold now, thou art barren, and bearest not: but thou shalt conceive, and bear a son.

4 And now therefore beware<sup>b</sup> that thou drink no wine, nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing.

5 For lo, thou shalt conceive and bear a son, and no razor shall come on his head: for the child shall be a Nazirite unto God from his birth: and he shall begin to save Israel out of the hands of the Philistines.

6 ¶ Then the wife came and told her husband, saying, A man of God came unto me, and the fashion of him was like the fashion of the Angel of God exceedingly fearful, but I asked him not whence he was, neither told he me his name,

7 But he said unto me, Behold, thou shalt conceive and bear a son, and now thou shalt drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing, for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from his birth to the day of his death.

8 Then Manoah<sup>1</sup> prayed to the Lord, and said, I pray thee, my Lord, let the man of God, whom thou sentest, come again now unto us, and teach us what we shall do unto the child when he is born.

9 And God heard the voice of Manoah, and the Angel of God came again unto the wife, as she sat in the field, but Manoah her husband was not with her.

10 ¶ And the wife made haste and ran, and showed her husband, and said unto him, Behold, the man hath appeared unto me, that came unto me<sup>1</sup> today.

11 And Manoah arose and went after his wife, and came to the<sup>1</sup> man, and said unto him, Art thou the man that spakest unto the woman? and he said, Yea.

12 Then Manoah said, Now let thy saying come to pass: but how shall we order the child and do unto him?

13 And the Angel of the Lord said unto Manoah, The woman must beware of all that I said unto her.

14 She may eat of nothing that cometh of the vine tree: she shall not drink wine nor strong drink, nor eat any<sup>1</sup> unclean thing: let her observe all that I have commanded her.

15 Manoah then said unto the Angel of the Lord, I pray thee, let us retain thee, until we have made ready a kid for thee.

16 And the Angel of the Lord said unto Manoah, Though thou make me abide, I will not eat of thy bread, and if thou wilt make a burnt offering, offer it unto the<sup>1</sup> Lord: for Manoah knew not that it was an Angel of the Lord.

17 Again Manoah said unto the Angel of the Lord, What is thy name, that when thy saying is come to pass, we may honor thee?

18 And the Angel of the Lord said unto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, which is<sup>1</sup> secret?

19 Then Manoah took a kid with a meat offering, and offered it upon a stone unto the Lord: and the Angel did<sup>1</sup> wondrously, while Manoah and his wife looked on.

20 For when the flame came up toward heaven from the altar, the Angel of the Lord ascended up in the flame of the altar, and Manoah and his wife beheld it, and fell on their faces unto the ground.

21 (So the Angel of the Lord did no more appear unto Manoah and his wife.) Then Manoah knew that it was an Angel of the Lord.

22 And Manoah said unto his wife,<sup>4</sup> We shall surely die, because we have seen God.

23 But his wife said unto him, If the Lord would kill us, he would not have received a<sup>1</sup> burnt offering, and a meat offering of our hands, neither would he have showed us all these things, nor would now have told us any such.

24 ¶ And the wife bore a son, and called his name Samson: and the child grew, and the Lord blessed him.

25 And the Spirit of the Lord began to<sup>1</sup> strengthen him in the host of Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

a riddle. 19 He killeth thirty. 20 His wife forsaketh him, and taketh another.

1 Now Samson went down to Timnah, and saw a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines,

2 And he came up and told his father and his mother and said, I have seen a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines: now therefore <sup>1</sup>give me her to wife.

3 Then his father and his mother said unto him, Is there <sup>1</sup>never a wife among the daughters of thy brethren, and among all my people, that thou must go to take a wife of the uncircumcised Philistines? And Samson said unto his father, Give me her, for she pleaseth me well.

4 But his father and his mother knew not that it came of the Lord, that he should seek an occasion against the <sup>1</sup>Philistines: for at that time the Philistines reigned over Israel.

5 ¶ Then went Samson, and his father and his mother down to Timnah, and came to the vineyards of Timnah: and behold, a young lion roared upon him.

6 And the Spirit of the Lord <sup>1</sup>came upon him, and he tare him, as one should have rent a kid, and had nothing in his hand, neither told he his father nor his mother what he had done.

7 And he went down, and talked with the woman which was beautiful in the eyes of Samson.

8 ¶ And within a few days, when he returned <sup>1</sup>to receive her, he went aside to see the carcass of the lion: and behold, there was a swarm of bees, and honey in the body of the lion.

9 And he took thereof in his hands, and went eating, and came to his father and to his mother, and gave unto them, and they did eat: but he told not them, that he had taken the honey out of the body of the lion.

10 So his father went down unto the woman, and Samson made there a <sup>1</sup>feast: for so used the young men to do.

11 And when <sup>1</sup>they saw him, they brought thirty companions to be with him.

12 Then Samson said unto them, I will now put forth a riddle unto you: and if you can declare it me within seven days of the feast, and find it out, I will give you thirty sheets, and thirty <sup>1</sup>change of garments.

13 But if you cannot declare it me, then shall ye give me thirty sheets and thirty change of garments. And they answered him, Put forth thy riddle, that we may hear it.

14 And he said unto them, Out of the eater came meat, and out of the strong came sweetness: and they could not in three days expound the riddle.

15 And when the seventh day was <sup>1</sup>come, they said unto Samson's wife, Entice thine husband that he may declare us the riddle, lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire. Have ye called us <sup>2</sup>to possess us? is it not so?

16 And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, Surely thou hatest me, and lovest me not: for thou hast put forth a riddle unto the <sup>1</sup>children of my people, and hast not told it me. And he said unto her, Behold, I have not told it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell it thee?

17 Then Samson's wife wept before him <sup>1</sup>seven days, while their feast lasted, and when the seventh day came, he told her, because she was importunate upon him: so she told the riddle to the children of her people.

18 And the men of the city said unto him the seventh day before the sun went down, What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a Lion? Then said he unto them, <sup>1</sup>If ye had not plowed with my heifer, ye had not found out my riddle.

19 And the Spirit of the Lord came upon him, and he went down <sup>1</sup>to Ashkelon, and slew thirty men of them and spoiled them, and gave change of garments unto them, which expounded the riddle: and his wrath was kindled, and he went up to his father's house.

20 Then Samson's wife was given to his companion, whom he had used as his friend.

1 But within a while after, in the time of wheat harvest, Samson visited his wife with a kid, saying, I will <sup>1</sup>go in to my wife into the chamber: but her father would not suffer him to go in.

2 And her father said, I thought that thou hadst hated her: therefore gave I her to thy companion. Is not her younger sister fairer than she? take her, I

3 Then Samson said unto them, Now am I more <sup>1</sup>blameless than the Philistines: therefore will I do them displeasure.

4 ¶ And Samson went out, and took three hundred foxes, and took firebrands, and turned them tail to tail, and put a firebrand in the midst between two tails.

5 And when he had set the brands on fire, he sent them out into the standing corn of the Philistines, and burnt up both the <sup>1</sup>ricks and the standing corn, with the vineyards and olives.

6 Then the Philistines said, Who hath done this? And they answered, Samson the son-in-law of the <sup>1</sup>Timnite, because he had taken his wife, and given her to his companion. Then the Philistines came up and <sup>2</sup>burnt her and her father with fire.

7 And Samson said unto them, Though ye have done this, yet will I be avenged of you, and then I will cease.

8 So he smote them <sup>1</sup>hip and thigh with a mighty plague: then he went and dwelt in the top of the rock Etam.

9 ¶ Then the Philistines came up, and pitched in Judah, and <sup>1</sup>were spread abroad in Lehi.

10 And the men of Judah said, Why are ye come up unto us? And they answered, To <sup>1</sup>bind Samson are we come up, and to do to him as he hath done to us.

11 Then three thousand men of Judah went to the top of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistines are rulers over us? <sup>1</sup>Wherefore then hast thou done thus unto us? And he answered them, As they did unto me, so have I done unto them.

12 Again they said unto him, We are come to bind thee, and to deliver thee into the hand of the Philistines. And Samson said unto them, Swear unto me, that ye will not fall upon me yourselves.

13 And they answered him, saying, No, but we will bind thee and <sup>1</sup>deliver thee unto their hand, but we will not kill thee. And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him from the rock.

14 When he came to Lehi, the Philistines shouted against him, and the Spirit of the Lord came upon him, and the cords that were upon his arms, became as flax that was burnt with fire: for the bands loosed from his hands.

15 And he found a <sup>1</sup>new jawbone of an ass, and put forth his hands, and caught it, and slew a thousand men therewith.

16 Then Samson said, With the jaw of an ass are heaps upon heaps: with the jaw of an ass have I slain a thousand men.

17 And when he had left speaking, he cast away the jawbone out of his hand, and called that place, <sup>1</sup>Ramath Lehi.

18 And he was sore athirst, and <sup>1</sup>called on the Lord, and said, Thou hast given this great deliverance into the hand of thy servant: and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?

19 Then God brake the cheek tooth, that was in the jaw, and water came there out: and when he had drunk, his spirit came again, and he was revived: wherefore the name thereof is called, <sup>1</sup>En Hakkore, which is in Lehi unto this day.

20 And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

1 Then went Samson to <sup>1</sup>Gaza, and saw there <sup>2</sup>an harlot, <sup>3</sup>and went in unto her.

2 And it was told to the Gazites, Samson is come hither. And they went about, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, Abide <sup>1</sup>till the morning early, and we shall kill him.

3 And Samson slept till midnight, and arose at midnight, and took the doors of the gates of the city and the two posts, and lifted them away with the bars, and put them upon his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of the mountain that is before Hebron.

4 And after this he loved a woman by the <sup>1</sup>river of Sorek, whose name was Delilah:

5 Unto whom came the princes of the Philistines, and said unto her, Entice him, and see wherein his great strength lieth, and by what means we may overcome him, that we may bind him, and punish him, and every one of us shall give thee eleven hundred <sup>1</sup>shekels of silver.

15:11 <sup>1</sup> Such was their gross ignorance, that they judged God's great benefits to be a plague unto them.

6 ¶ And Delilah said to Samson, Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest be bound, to do thee hurt.

7 Samson then answered unto her, If they bind me with seven <sup>1</sup>green cords, that were never dried, then shall I be weak, and be as another man.

8 And the princes of the Philistines brought her seven green cords that were not dry, and she bound him therewith.

9 (And she had <sup>1</sup>men lying in wait with her in the chamber) Then she said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he brake the cords, as a thread of tow is broken, when <sup>2</sup>it feeleth fire: so his strength was not known.

10 ¶ After Delilah said unto Samson, See, thou hast mocked me, and told me lies. I pray thee now, <sup>1</sup>tell me wherewith thou mightest be bound.

11 Then he answered her, If they bind me with new ropes that never were occupied, then shall I be weak, and be as another man.

12 Delilah therefore took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson: (and men lay in wait in the chamber) and he brake them from his arms, as a thread.

13 ¶ Afterward Delilah said to Samson, Hitherto thou hast beguiled me, and told me lies: tell me how thou mightest be bound. <sup>1</sup>And he said unto her, If thou plattedst seven locks of mine head with the threads of the woof.

14 And she fastened it with a pin, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and went away with the <sup>1</sup>pin of the web, and the woof.

15 Again she said unto him, How canst thou say, <sup>1</sup>I love thee, when thine heart is not with me? thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not told me wherein thy great strength lieth.

16 And because she was importunate upon him with her words continually, and vexed him, his soul was pained unto the death.

17 Therefore he told her all his <sup>1</sup>heart, and said unto her, There never came razor upon mine head: for I am a Nazirite unto God from my mother's womb: therefore if I be shaven, my strength will go from me, and I shall be weak and be like all other men.

18 And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent, and called for the Princes of the Philistines, saying, Come up once again: for he hath showed me all his heart. Then the Princes of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought the money in their hands.

19 And she made him sleep upon her knees, and she called a man, and made him to shave off the seven locks of his head, and she began to vex him, and his strength was gone <sup>1</sup>from him.

20 Then she said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and thought, I will go out now as at other times, and shake myself, but he knew not that the Lord was departed from him.

21 Therefore the Philistines took him, and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters: and he did grind in the prison house.

22 And the hair of his head began to <sup>1</sup>grow again after that it was shaven.

23 Then the Princes of the Philistines gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice unto Dagon their god, and to rejoice: for they said, Our god hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hands.

24 Also when the people saw him, they praised their god: for they said, Our god hath delivered into our hands our enemy and destroyer of our country, which hath slain many of us.

25 And when their hearts were merry, they said, Call Samson, that he may make us pastime: So they called Samson out of the prison house, and he <sup>1</sup>was a laughing stock unto them, and they set him between the pillars.

26 Then Samson said unto the servant that led him by the hand, Lead me, that I may touch the pillars that the house standeth upon, and that I may lean to them.

27 (Now the house was full of men and women, and there were all the princes of the Philistines: also upon the roof were about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson <sup>1</sup>played)

28 Then Samson called unto the Lord, and said, O Lord God, I pray thee, think upon me: O God, I beseech thee, strengthen me at this time only, that I may be <sup>1</sup>at once <sup>2</sup>avenged of the Philistines for my them whom he should have ruled.

16:19 <sup>1</sup> Not for the loss of his hair, but for the contempt of the ordinance of God, which was the cause that God departed from him.

16:22 <sup>1</sup> Yet had he not his strength again, till he had called upon God, and reconciled himself.

29 And Samson laid hold on the two middle pillars whereupon the house stood, and on which it was borne up: on the one with his right hand, and on the other with his left.

30 Then said Samson, <sup>1</sup>Let me lose my life with the Philistines: and he bowed him with all his might, and the house fell upon the princes, and upon all the people that were therein: so the dead which he slew at his death, were more than they which he had slain in his life.

31 Then his brethren, and all the house of his father came down and took him, and brought him up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol, in the sepulcher of Manoah his father: now he had judged Israel twenty years.

17 <sup>3</sup> Micah's mother according to her vow, made her son two idols. <sup>5</sup> He made his son a Priest for his idols, <sup>10</sup> and after he hired a Levite.

1 There <sup>1</sup>was a man of mount Ephraim, whose name was Micah,

2 And he said unto his mother, The eleven hundred shekels of silver that were taken from thee, for the which thou cursedst, and spakedst it, even in mine hearing, behold, the silver is with me, I took it. Then his mother said, Blessed be my son of the Lord.

3 And when he had restored the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, his mother said, I had dedicate the silver to the Lord of mine hand for my son, to make <sup>1</sup>a graven and molten image. Now therefore I will give it thee again.

4 And when he had restored the money unto his mother, his mother took two hundred shekels of silver, and gave them to the founder, which made thereof a graven and molten image, and it was in the house of Micah.

5 And this man Micah had an house of gods, and made an <sup>a,1</sup>Ephod, and <sup>b,2</sup>Teraphim, and <sup>3</sup>consecrated one of his sons, who was his Priest.

6 <sup>1</sup>In those days there was no <sup>1</sup>King in Israel, but every man did that which was good in his own eyes.

7 ¶ There was also a young man out of Bethlehem

Judah, <sup>1</sup>of the family of Judah: who was a Levite, and sojourned there.

8 And the man departed out of the city, even out of Bethlehem Judah, to dwell where he could find a place: and as he journeyed, he came to mount Ephraim to the house of Micah.

9 And Micah said unto him, Whence comest thou? And the Levite answered him, <sup>1</sup>I come from Bethlehem Judah, and go to dwell where I may find a place.

10 Then Micah said unto him, Dwell with me, and be unto me a father and a Priest, and I will give thee ten shekels of silver by year, and a suit of apparel, and thy meat and drink. So the Levite went in.

11 And the Levite was <sup>1</sup>content to dwell with the man, and the young man was unto him as one of his own sons.

12 And Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young man was his Priest, and was in the house of Micah.

13 Then said Micah, Now I know that the Lord will be <sup>1</sup>good unto me, seeing I have a Levite to my Priest.

18 <sup>2</sup> The children of Dan send men to search the land. <sup>11</sup> Then come the six hundred and take the gods, and the Priest of Micah away. <sup>27</sup> They destroy Laish, <sup>28</sup> They build it again. <sup>30</sup> And set up Idolatry.

1 In those days there was no <sup>1</sup>king in Israel, and at the same time the tribe of Dan sought them an inheritance to dwell in: for unto that time all their inheritance had not fallen unto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 Therefore the children of Dan sent of their family, five men out of their coasts, even men expert in war, out of Zorah and Eshtaol, to view the land and search it out, and said unto them, <sup>1</sup>Go, and search out the land. Then they came to mount Ephraim to the house of Micah and lodged there.

3 When they were in the house of Micah, they knew the <sup>1</sup>voice of the young man the Levite: and being turned in thither, they said unto him, Who brought thee hither? or what makest thou in this place? and what hast thou to do here?

16:30 <sup>1</sup> He speaketh not this of despair, but humbling himself for neglecting his office and the offence thereby given.

17:1 <sup>1</sup> Some think this history was in the time of Othniel, or as Josephus writeth, immediately after Joshua.

17:3 <sup>1</sup> Contrary to the commandment of God and true religion practiced under Joshua, they forsook the Lord and fell to idolatry.

17:5 <sup>1</sup> He would serve both God and Idols.

17:13 <sup>1</sup> Thus the idolaters persuade themselves of God's favor, when indeed he doth detest them.

18:1 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, no ordinary Magistrate to punish vice according to God's word.

18:2 <sup>1</sup> For the portion which Joshua gave them, was not sufficient for all their tribe.

18:3 <sup>1</sup> They knew him by his speech that he was a stranger there.

4 And he answered them, Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and hath hired me, and I am his Priest.

5 Again they said unto him, Ask counsel now of God, that we may know whether the way which we go, shall be prosperous.

6 And the Priest said unto them, <sup>1</sup>Go in peace: for the Lord guideth your way which ye go.

7 Then the five men departed, and came to Laish, and saw the people that were therein, which dwelt careless, after the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and sure, because no man <sup>1</sup>made any trouble in the land, or usurped any dominion: also they were far from the Sidonians, and had no business with other men.

8 ¶ So they came again unto their brethren to Zorah and Eshtaol: and their brethren said unto them, What have ye done?

9 And they answered, Arise, that we may go up against them: for we have seen the land, and surely it is very good, and <sup>1</sup>do ye sit still? be not slothful to go and enter to possess the land:

10 (If ye will go, ye shall come unto a careless people, and the country is large) for God hath given it into your hand. It is a place which doth lack nothing that is in the world.

11 ¶ Then there departed thence of the family of the Danites, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, six hundred men appointed with instruments of war.

12 And they went up, and pitched in Kirjath Jearim in Judah: wherefore they called that place <sup>1</sup>Mahanah Dan unto this day: and it is behind Kirjath Jearim.

13 And they went thence unto mount Ephraim, and came to the house of Micah.

14 Then answered the five men that went to spy out the country of Laish, and said unto their brethren, <sup>1</sup>Know ye not, that there is in these houses an Ephod, and Teraphim, and a graven and a molten image? Now therefore consider what ye have to do.

15 And they turned thitherward and came to the house of the young man the Levite, even unto the house of Micah, and saluted him peaceably.

16 And the six hundred men appointed with their weapons of war, which were of the children of Dan, stood by the entering of the gate.

17 Then the five men that went to spy out the land, went in thither, and took the <sup>1</sup>graven image and the Ephod, and the Teraphim, and the molten

18 And the other went into Micah's house, and fet the graven image, the Ephod and the Teraphim, and the molten image. Then said the Priest unto them, What do ye?

19 And they answered him, Hold thy peace: lay thine hand upon thy mouth, and come with us to be our father and Priest. Whether is it better that thou shouldst be a Priest unto the house of one man, or that thou shouldst be a Priest unto a tribe and to a family in Israel?

20 And the Priest's heart was glad, and he took the Ephod, and the Teraphim, and the graven image, and went among the <sup>1</sup>people.

21 And they turned and departed, and put the children, and the cattle, and the substance <sup>1</sup>before them.

22 ¶ When they were far off from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses near to Micah's house, gathered together, and pursued after the children of Dan, 23 And cried unto the children of Dan: who turned their faces, and said unto Micah, What aileth thee that thou makest an outcry?

24 And he said, Ye have taken away my <sup>1</sup>gods, which I made, and the Priest, and go your ways: and what have I more? how then say ye unto me, What aileth thee?

25 And the children of Dan said unto him, Let not thy voice be heard among us, lest <sup>1</sup>angry fellows run upon thee, and thou lose thy life with the lives of thine household.

26 So the children of Dan went their ways: and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back unto his house.

27 And they took the <sup>1</sup>things which Micah had made, and the Priest which he had, and came unto Laish, unto a quiet people, and without mistrust, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire:

28 And there was none to <sup>1</sup>help, because <sup>2</sup>Laish was far from Sidon, and they had no business with other men: also it was in the valley that lieth by Beth Rehob. After, they built the city, and dwelt therein,

7 And when the man rose up to depart, his father-in-law <sup>1</sup>was earnest: therefore he returned, and lodged there.

and the young woman's father said, <sup>1</sup>Comfort thine heart, I pray thee: and they tarried until after midday, and they both did eat.

9 Afterward when the man arose to depart with his concubine and his servant, his father-in-law, the young woman's father said unto him, Behold now, the day <sup>1</sup>draweth toward even: I pray you, tarry all night: behold, the <sup>2</sup>sun goeth to rest: lodge here, that thine heart may be merry, and tomorrow get you early upon your way, and go to the <sup>3</sup>tent.

10 But the man would not tarry, but arose, and departed, and came over against Jebus, (which is Jerusalem) and his two asses laden, and his concubine were with him.

11 When they were near Jebus, the day <sup>1</sup>was sore spent, and the servant said unto his master, Come, I pray thee, and let us turn unto this city of the Jebusites, and lodge all night there.

12 And his master answered him, <sup>1</sup>We will not turn into the city of strangers that are not of the children of Israel, but we will go forth to Gibeah.

13 And he said unto his servant, Come, and let us draw near to one of these places, that we may lodge in Gibeah or in Ramah.

14 So they went forward upon their way, and the Sun went down upon them near to Gibeah, which is in Benjamin.

15 ¶ Then they turned thither to go in and lodge in Gibeah: and when he came, he sat him down in a street of the city: for there was no man that <sup>1</sup>took them into his house to lodging.

22 And as they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, <sup>1</sup>wicked men beset the house round about, and <sup>2</sup>smote at the door, and spake to this old man the master of the house, saying, Bring forth the man that came into thine house that we may know him.

<sup>a</sup> Hos. 10:9

consider the matter, consult and give sentence.

1 Then <sup>a</sup>all the children of Israel went out, and the Congregation was gathered together as <sup>1</sup>one man, from Dan to Beersheba, with the land of Gilead, unto the <sup>2</sup>Lord in Mizpah.

2 And the <sup>1</sup>chief of all the people, and all the tribes of Israel assembled in the Congregation of the people of God four hundred thousand footmen that <sup>2</sup>drew sword.

3 (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone up to Mizpah) Then, the children of Israel <sup>1</sup>said, How is this wickedness committed?

4 And the same Levite, the woman's husband that was slain, answered and said, I came unto Gibeah that is in Benjamin with my concubine to lodge,

5 And the <sup>1</sup>men of Gibeah arose against me, and beset the house round about upon me by night, thinking to have slain me, and have forced my concubine that she is dead.

6 Then I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent <sup>1</sup>her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel: for they have committed abomination and villainy in Israel.

7 Behold, ye are all children of Israel, give your advice, and counsel herein.

8 Then all the people arose as one man, saying, There shall not a man of us go to his tent, neither any turn into his <sup>1</sup>house.

9 But now this is that thing which we will do to Gibeah: we will go up by lot against it.

10 And we will take ten men of the hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and an hundred of the thousand, and a thousand of ten thousand to bring <sup>1</sup>victual for the people, that they may do (when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin) according to all the villainy, that it hath done in Israel.

11 ¶ So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, knit together as one man.

12 And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the <sup>1</sup>tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness is this that is committed among you?

13 Now therefore deliver us those wicked men which are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel: but the children of Benjamin <sup>1</sup>would not obey the voice of their brethren the children of Israel.

14 But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, to come out and fight against the children of Israel.

15 ¶ And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time, out of the cities, six and twenty thousand men that drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men.

16 Of all this people were seven hundred chosen men, being <sup>6</sup>left handed: all these could sling stones at an hair breadth, and not fail.

17 ¶ Also the men of Israel beside Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men that drew sword, even all men of war.

18 And the children of Israel arose, and went up <sup>1</sup>to the house of God, and asked of God, saying, Which of us shall go up first to fight against the children of Benjamin? and the Lord said, Judah shall be first.

19 Then the children of Israel arose up early and camped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin, and the men of Israel put themselves in array to fight against them beside Gibeah.

21 And the children of Benjamin came out of Gibeah, and slew down to the ground of the Israelites that day <sup>1</sup>two and twenty thousand men.

22 And the people, the men of Israel plucked up their hearts, and set their battle again in array in the place where they put them in array the first day.

23 (For the children of Israel had gone up and wept before the Lord unto the evening, and had asked of the Lord, saying, Shall I go again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brethren? and the Lord said, Go up against them.)

24 ¶ Then the children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day.

25 Also the second day Benjamin came forth to meet them out of Gibeah, and slew down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men: <sup>1</sup>all they could handle the sword.

26 Then all the children of Israel went up, and all the people came also unto the house of God, and wept, and sat there before the Lord, and fasted that day unto the evening, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the Lord.

27 And the children of Israel asked the Lord (for <sup>1</sup>there was the Ark of the Covenant of God in those days, 28 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron <sup>1</sup>stood before it at that time) saying, Shall I yet go anymore to battle against the children of Benjamin my brethren, or shall I cease? And the Lord said, Go up: for tomorrow I will deliver them into your hand.

29 And Israel set men to lie in wait roundabout Gibeah.

30 And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.

31 Then the children of Benjamin coming out against the people, were <sup>1</sup>drawn from the city: and they began to smite of the people and kill as at other times, even by the ways in the field (whereof one goeth up to the house of God, and the other to Gibeah) upon a thirty men of Israel.

32 (For the children of Benjamin said, They are fallen before us, as at the first. But the children of Israel said, Let us flee and pluck them away from the city unto the <sup>1</sup>highways.)

33 And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baal Tamar: and the men that lay in wait of the Israelites came forth of their place, even out of the meadows of Geba,

34 And they came over against Gibeah, ten thousand chosen men of all Israel, and the battle was sore: for they knew not that the <sup>1</sup>evil was near them.

35 ¶ And the Lord smote Benjamin before Israel, and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites the same day five and twenty thousand and an hundred men: all they could handle the sword.

36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were stricken down: for the men of Israel <sup>1</sup>gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted to the men that lay in wait, which they had laid beside Gibeah.

37 And they that lay in wait hasted, and brake forth toward Gibeah, and the ambushment <sup>1</sup>drew themselves along, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword.

20:13 <sup>1</sup> Because they would not suffer the wicked to be punished, they declared themselves to maintain them in their evil, and therefore were all justly punished.

20:18 <sup>1</sup> That is, to the Ark, which was in Shiloh some think in Mizpah, as verse 1.

38 Also the men of Israel had appointed a certain time with the ambushments, that they should make a great flame and smoke arise up out of the city.

39 And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons: for they said, Surely they are stricken down before us, as in the first battle.

40 But when the flame began to rise out of the city as a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked back, and behold, the flame of the city began to ascend up to heaven.

41 Then the men of Israel turned again, and the men of Benjamin were astonished: for they saw that evil was near unto them.

42 Therefore they fled before the men of Israel unto the way of the wilderness, but the battle overtook them: also they which came out of the cities, slew them among them.

43 Thus they compassed the Benjamites about, and chased them at ease, and overran them, even over against Gibeah on the East side.

44 And there were slain of Benjamin eighteen thousand men, which were all men of war.

45 And they turned and fled to the wilderness unto the rock of Rimmon: and the Israelites gleaned of them by the way five thousand men, and pursued after them unto Gidom, and slew two thousand men of them,

46 So that all that were slain that day of Benjamin, were five and twenty thousand men that drew sword, which were all men of war.

47 But six hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness unto the rock of Rimmon, and abode in the rock of Rimmon four months.

48 Then the men of Israel turned unto the children of Benjamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword, from the men of the city unto the beasts, and all that came to hand: also they set on fire all the cities that they could come by.

saying, None of us shall give his daughter unto the Benjamites to wife.

2 And the people came unto the house of God and abode there till even before God, and lifted up their voices, and wept with great lamentation,

3 And said, O Lord God of Israel, why is this come to pass in Israel, that this day one tribe of Israel should want?

4 ¶ And on the morrow the people rose up and made there an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

5 Then the children of Israel said, Who is he among all the tribes of Israel, that came not up with the Congregation unto the Lord? for they had made a great oath concerning him that came not up to the Lord to Mizpah, saying, Let him die the death.

6 And the children of Israel were sorry for Benjamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day.

7 How shall we do for wives to them that remain, seeing we have sworn by the Lord, that we will not give them of our daughters to wives?

8 Also they said, is there any of the tribes of Israel that came not up to Mizpah to the Lord? and behold, there came none of Jabesh Gilead unto the host, and to the Congregation.

9 For when the people were viewed, behold, none of the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead were there.

10 Therefore the Congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of the most valiant, and commanded them, saying, Go and smite the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead with the edge of the sword, both women and children.

11 And this is it that ye shall do: ye shall utterly destroy all the males, and all the women that have lain by men.

12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead four hundred maids, virgins that had known no man by lying with any male: and they brought them unto the host to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

13 ¶ Then the whole Congregation sent and spake with the children of Benjamin that were in the rock of Rimmon, and called peaceably unto them:

14 And Benjamin came again at that time, and 20:39 <sup>1</sup> For they were waxen hardy by the two former victories.

20:41 <sup>1</sup> And withstood their enemies.

20:42 <sup>1</sup> For they were compassed in on every side.

20:43 <sup>1</sup> Or, drove them from their rest.

20:45 <sup>1</sup> They slew them by one and one, as they were scattered abroad.

20:46 <sup>1</sup> Besides eleven hundred that had been slain in the former battles.

20:48 <sup>1</sup> If they belonged to the Benjamites.

21:1 <sup>1</sup> This oath came of rashness, and not of judgment: for after they brake it, in showing secretly the means to marry with certain of their daughters.

21:4 <sup>1</sup> According to their custom, when they would consult with the Lord.

21:6 <sup>1</sup> Or, repented that they had destroyed their brethren, as appeareth verse 15.

they gave them wives which they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh Gilead: but they had not <sup>1</sup>so enough for them.

15 And the people were sorry for Benjamin, because the Lord had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

16 Therefore the Elders of the Congregation said, How shall we do for wives to the remnant? for the women of Benjamin are destroyed.

17 And they said, There must be <sup>1</sup>an inheritance for them that be escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel.

18 Howbeit we may not give them wives of our daughters: for the children of Israel had sworn, saying, Cursed be he that giveth a wife to Benjamin.

19 Therefore they said, Behold, there is a feast of the Lord every year in Shiloh, in a place, which is on the <sup>1</sup>North side of Bethel, and on the East side of the way that goeth up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the South of Lebonah.

20 Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go, and lie in wait in the vineyards.

21 And when ye see that the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catch you every man a wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go into the land of Benjamin.

22 And <sup>1</sup>when their fathers or their brethren come unto us to complain, we will say unto them, Have pity on them for our sakes, because we reserved not to each man his wife in the war, and because ye have not given unto them hitherto, ye have sinned.

23 And the children of Benjamin did so, and took wives of them that danced according to their <sup>1</sup>number: which they took, and went away, and returned to their inheritance, and repaired the cities and dwelt in them.

24 So the children of Israel departed thence at that time, every man to his tribe, and to his family, and went out from thence every man to his inheritance.

25 <sup>b</sup>In those days there was no king in Israel, but every man did that which was good in his eyes.

21:14 <sup>1</sup> For there lacked two hundred.

21:17 <sup>1</sup> Benjamin must be reserved to have the twelfth portion in the inheritance of Jacob.

21:22 <sup>1</sup> Though they thought hereby to persuade men that they kept their oath, yet before God it was broken.

21:23 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, two hundred.

THE BOOK OF RUTH

1 <sup>1</sup> Elimelech goeth with his wife and children into the land of Moab. <sup>3</sup> He and his sons die. <sup>19</sup> Naomi and Ruth come to Bethlehem.

1 In the time that the Judges <sup>1</sup>ruled, there was a dearth in the <sup>2</sup>land, and a man of Bethlehem <sup>3</sup>Judah went for to sojourn in the country of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sons.

2 And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife, Naomi, and the names of his two sons, Mahlon, and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehem Judah: and when they came into the land of Moab, they continued there.

3 Then Elimelech the husband of Naomi died, and she remained with her two sons,

4 Which took them wives of the <sup>1</sup>Moabites: the one's name was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten years.

5 And Mahlon and Chilion dieth also both twain: so the woman was left, desitute of her two sons, and of her husband.

6 ¶ Then she arose with her daughters-in-law, and returned from the country of Moab: for she had heard say in the country of Moab, that the Lord had <sup>1</sup>visited his people, and given them bread.

7 Wherefore she departed out of the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her, and they went on their way to return unto the land of Judah.

8 Then Naomi said unto her two daughters-in-law, Go, return each of you unto her own mother's house: the Lord show favor unto you, as ye have done with the dead, and with me.

9 The Lord grant you, that you may find <sup>1</sup>rest, either of you in the house of her husband. And when she kissed them, they lift up their voice and wept.

10 And they said unto her, Surely we will return with thee unto thy people.

11 But Naomi said, Turn again my daughters: for what cause will ye go with me? are there any more sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?

12 Turn again my daughters: go your way: for I am too old to have an husband. If I should say, I have hope, and if I had an husband this night: yea, and if I had borne sons, 13 Would ye tarry for them, till they were of age? would ye be deferred for them from taking of husbands? nay my daughters: for it grieveth me <sup>1</sup>much for your sakes that the hand of the Lord is gone out against me.

14 Then they lift up their voice and wept again, and Orpah <sup>1</sup>kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth abode still with her.

15 And Naomi said, Behold, thy sister-in-law is gone back unto her people, and unto her gods: <sup>1</sup>return thou after thy sister-in-law.

16 And Ruth answered, Entreat me not to leave thee, nor to depart from thee: for whither thou goest, I will go: and where thou dwellest, I will dwell: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God.

17 ¶ Where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried. The Lord do so to me and more also, if ought but death depart thee and me.

18 ¶ When she saw that she was steadfastly minded to go with her, she left speaking unto her.

19 So they went both until they came to Bethlehem: and when they were come to Bethlehem, it was <sup>1</sup>noised of them through all the city, and they said, Is not this Naomi?

20 And she answered them, Call me not <sup>1</sup>Naomi, but call me <sup>2</sup>Mara: for the Almighty hath given me much bitterness.

21 I went out full, and the Lord hath caused me to return empty: why call ye me Naomi, seeing the Lord hath humbled me, and the Almighty hath brought me unto adversity?

22 So Naomi returned and Ruth the Moabitess

1:4 <sup>1</sup> By this wonderful providence of God Ruth became one of God's household, of whom Christ came.

1:6 <sup>1</sup> By sending them plenty again.

1:9 <sup>1</sup> Hereby it appeareth that Naomi by dwelling among idolaters, was waxen cold in the true zeal of God, which rather hath respect to the ease of the body, than to the comfort of the soul.

her daughter-in-law with her, when she came out of the country of Moab: and they came to Bethlehem in the beginning of <sup>1</sup>barley harvest.

2 2 Ruth gathered corn in the fields of Boaz. 8 The gentleness of Boaz toward her.

1 Then Naomi's husband had a kinsman, one of great <sup>1</sup>power of the family of Elimelech, and his name was Boaz.

2 And Ruth the Moabitess said unto Naomi, I pray thee, let me go to the field, and <sup>1</sup>gather ears of corn after him, in whose sight I find favor. And she said unto her, Go my daughter.

3 ¶ And she went, and came and gleaned in the field after the reapers, and it came to pass, that she met with the portion of the field of Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.

4 And behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said unto the reapers, The Lord be with you: and they answered him, The Lord bless thee.

5 Then said Boaz unto his servant that was appointed over the reapers, Whose maid is this?

6 And the servant that was appointed over the reapers, answered, and said, It is the Moabitish maid, that came with Naomi out of the country of Moab:

7 And she said unto us, I pray you, let me glean and gather after the reapers <sup>1</sup>among the sheaves: so she came, and hath continued from that time in the morning unto now, save that she carried a little in the house.

8 ¶ Then said Boaz unto Ruth, Hearest thou, my daughter? go to none other field to gather, neither go from hence: but abide here by my maidens.

9 <sup>1</sup>Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reap, and go thou after the maidens. Have I not charged the servants, that they touch thee not? Moreover when thou art athirst, go unto the vessels, and drink of that which the servants hath drawn.

10 Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, How have I found favor in thine eyes, that thou shouldest know me, seeing I am a <sup>1</sup>stranger?

11 And Boaz answered and said unto her, All is told and showed me that thou hast done unto thy mother-in-law, since the death of thine husband, and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land where thou wast born, and art come unto a people which thou knewest not in time past.

12 The Lord recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the Lord God of Israel, under whose <sup>1</sup>wings thou art come to trust.

13 Then she said, Let me find favor in thy sight, my lord: for thou hast comforted me, and spoken comfortably unto thy maid, though I be not like to one of thy maids.

14 And Boaz said unto her, At the meal time come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers, and he reached her parched corn: and she did eat, and was sufficed, and <sup>1</sup>left thereof.

15 ¶ And when she arose to glean, Boaz commanded his servants, saying, Let her gather among the sheaves, and do not rebuke her.

16 Also let fall some of the sheaves for her, and let it lie, that she may gather it up, and rebuke her not.

17 So she gleaned in the field until evening, and she threshed that she had gathered, and it was about an <sup>a</sup>Ephah of barley.

18 ¶ And she took it up, and went into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gathered: Also she <sup>1</sup>took forth, and gave to her that which she had reserved, when she was sufficed.

19 Then her mother-in-law said unto her, Where hast thou gleaned today? and where wroughtest thou? blessed be he, that knew thee. And she showed her mother-in-law, with whom she had wrought, and said, The man's name with whom I wrought today, is Boaz.

20 And Naomi said unto her daughter-in-law, Blessed be he of the Lord: for he ceaseth not to do good to the living and to the <sup>1</sup>dead. Again Naomi said unto her, The man is near unto us, and of our affinity.

21 And Ruth the Moabitess said, He said also certainly unto me, Thou shalt be with my servants, until they have ended all mine harvest.

22 And Naomi answered unto Ruth her daughter-in-law, It is best, my daughter, that thou go out with his maids, that they <sup>1</sup>meet thee not in another field.

23 Then she kept her by the maids of Boaz, to gather unto the end of barley harvest, and of wheat harvest, and <sup>1</sup>dwelt with her mother-in-law.

2:23 <sup>1</sup> Or, returned to her mother-in-law.

3 1 Naomi giveth Ruth counsel. 8 She sleepeth at Boaz's feet. 12 He acknowledgeth himself to be her kinsman.

1 Afterward Naomi her mother-in-law said unto her, My daughter, shall not I seek <sup>1</sup>rest for thee, that thou mayest prosper?

2 Now also is not Boaz our kinsman, with whose maids thou wast? Behold, he winnoweth barley tonight in the <sup>1</sup>floor.

3 Wash thyself therefore, and anoint thee, and put thy raiment upon thee, and get thee down to the floor: let not the <sup>1</sup>man know of thee, until he have left eating and drinking.

4 And when he shall sleep, mark the place where he layeth him down, and go, and uncover the place of his feet, and lay thee down, and he shall tell thee what thou shalt do.

5 And she answered her, All that thou biddest me, I will do.

6 ¶ So she went down unto the floor, and did according to all that her mother-in-law bade her.

7 And when Boaz had eaten and drunken, and <sup>1</sup>cheered his heart, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of corn, and she came softly, and uncovered the place of his feet, and lay down.

8 And at midnight the man was afraid <sup>1</sup>and caught hold: and lo, a woman lay at his feet.

9 Then he said, Who art thou? And she answered, I am Ruth thine handmaid: spread therefore the wing of thy garment over thine handmaid: for thou art the kinsman.

10 Then he said, Blessed be thou of the Lord, my daughter: thou hast <sup>1</sup>showed more goodness in the latter end, than at the beginning, inasmuch as thou followedst not young men, were they poor or rich.

11 And now, my daughter, fear not: I will do to thee all that thou requires: for all the city of my people doth know that thou art a virtuous woman.

12 And now, it is true that I am thy kinsman, howbeit there is a kinsman nearer than I.

13 Tarry tonight, and when morning is come, if he <sup>1</sup>will do the duty of a kinsman unto thee, well, let him do the kinsman's duty: but if he will not do the kinsman's part, then will I do the duty of a kinsman, as the Lord liveth: sleep until the morning.

14 ¶ And she lay at his feet until the morning:

and she arose before one could know another: for he said, Let no man know, that a woman came into the floor.

15 Also he said, Bring the <sup>1</sup>sheet that thou hast upon thee, and hold it. And when she held it, he measured six measures of barley, and laid them on her, and she went into the city.

16 And when she came to her mother-in-law, she said, <sup>1</sup>Who art thou, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done to her, 17 And said, These six measures of barley gave he me: for he said to me, Thou shalt not come empty unto thy mother-in-law.

18 Then said she, My daughter, sit still, until thou know how the thing will fall: for the man will not be in rest, until he hath finished the matter this same day.

1 Then went Boaz up to the <sup>1</sup>gate, and sat there, and behold, the kinsman, of whom Boaz had spoken, came by: and he said, <sup>2</sup>Ho, such one, come, sit down here. And he turned, and sat down.

2 Then he took ten men of the Elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here. And they sat down.

3 And he said unto the kinsman, Naomi, that is come again out of the country of Moab, will sell a parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelech's.

4 And I thought to advertise thee, saying, Buy it before the <sup>1</sup>assistants, and before the Elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem it, redeem it: but if thou wilt not redeem it, tell me: for I know that there is none <sup>2</sup>besides thee to redeem it, and I am after thee. Then he answered, I will redeem it.

5 Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must also buy it of Ruth the Moabitess the wife of the dead, to stir up the name of the dead, upon his <sup>1</sup>inheritance.

6 And the kinsman answered, I cannot redeem it, lest I destroy mine own inheritance: redeem my right to thee, for I can not redeem it.

7 Now this was the manner beforetime in Israel, concerning redeeming and changing for to stablish all things: a man did pluck off his shoe, and gave it his neighbor: and this was a sure <sup>1</sup>witness in Israel.

8 Therefore the kinsman said to Boaz, Buy it for thee: and he drew off his shoe.

9 And Boaz said unto the Elders and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi.

10 And moreover, Ruth the Moabitess the wife of Mahlon, have I bought to be my wife, to stir up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, and that the name of the dead be not put out from among his brethren, and from the gate of his <sup>1</sup>place: ye are witnesses this day.

11 And all the people that were in the gate, and the Elders said, We are witnesses: the Lord make the wife that cometh into thine house, like Rachel and like Leah, which twain did build the house of Israel: and that thou mayest do worthily in <sup>1</sup>Ephrathah, and be famous in Bethlehem.

12 And that thine house be like the house of Perez (<sup>a</sup>whom Tamar bare unto Judah) of the seed which the Lord shall give thee of this young woman.

13 ¶ So Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife:

15 And this shall bring thy life again, and cherish thine old age: for thy daughter-in-law which loveth thee, hath borne unto him, and she is better to thee than <sup>1</sup>seven sons.

16 And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her lap, and became nurse unto it.

17 And the women her neighbors gave it a name, saying, There is a child born to Naomi, and called the name thereof Obed: the same was the father of Jesse, the father of David.

THE FIRST BOOK OF SAMUEL

1 There was a man of one of the two <sup>1</sup>Ramathaim Zophim, of mount Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.

2 And he had two wives: the name of one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

3 <sup>a</sup>And this man went up out of his city every year, to worship and to sacrifice unto the Lord of hosts in <sup>1</sup>Shiloh, where were the two sons of Eli, Hophni, and Phinehas, Priests of the Lord.

4 And on a day, when Elkanah sacrificed, he gave to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and daughters portions,

5 But unto Hannah he gave a worthy <sup>1</sup>portion: for he loved Hannah, and the Lord had made her barren.

6 ¶ And her adversary vexed her sore, forasmuch as she upbraided her, because the Lord had made her barren.

7 (And so did he year by year) and as oft as she went up to the house of the Lord, thus she vexed her, that she wept and did not eat.

8 Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thine heart troubled? am not I better to thee than ten <sup>1</sup>sons?

9 So Hannah rose up after that they had eaten and drunk in Shiloh (and Eli the Priest sat upon a stool by one of the posts of the <sup>1</sup>Temple of the Lord)

10 And she was troubled in her mind, and prayed

unto the Lord, and wept sore:

11 Also she vowed a vow, and said, O Lord of hosts, if thou wilt look on the trouble of thine handmaid, and remember me, and not forget thine handmaid, but give unto thine handmaid a man-child, then I will give him unto the Lord all the days of his life, <sup>b</sup>and there shall no razor come upon his head.

12 And as she continued praying before the Lord, Eli marked her mouth.

13 For Hannah spake in her heart: her lips did move only, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had been drunken.

14 And Eli said unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? Put away thy <sup>1</sup>drunkenness from thee.

15 Then Hannah answered and said, Nay my lord, but I am a woman <sup>1</sup>troubled in spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have <sup>c</sup>poured out my soul before the Lord.

16 Count not thine handmaid <sup>1</sup>for a wicked woman: for of the abundance of my complaint and my grief have I spoken hitherto.

17 Then Eli answered, and said, Go in peace, and the God of Israel grant thy petition that thou hast asked of him.

18 She said again, Let thine handmaid find <sup>1</sup>grace in thy sight: so the woman went her way, and did eat, and looked no more sad.

19 ¶ Then they rose up early, and worshipped before the Lord, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah. Now Elkanah knew Hannah his wife, and the Lord <sup>1</sup>remembered her.

20 For in process of time Hannah conceived and bare a son, and she called his name Samuel, Because, said she, I have asked him of the Lord.

21 ¶ So the man <sup>1</sup>Elkanah and all his house, went up to offer unto the Lord the yearly sacrifice and his vow:

22 But Hannah went not up: for she said unto

23 And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Do what seemeth thee best: tarry until thou hast weaned him: only the Lord accomplish his <sup>1</sup>word. So the woman abode, and gave her son suck until she weaned him.

24 ¶ And when she had weaned him, she took him with her with three bullocks and an Ephah of flour and a bottle of wine, and brought him unto the house of the Lord in Shiloh, and the child was <sup>1</sup>young.

25 And they slew a bullock, and brought the child to Eli.

26 And she said, Oh my Lord, as thy <sup>1</sup>soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood with thee here praying unto the Lord.

27 I prayed for this child, and the Lord hath given me my desire which I asked of him.

28 Therefore also I have <sup>1</sup>given him unto the Lord: as long as he liveth he shall be given unto the Lord: and he <sup>2</sup>worshipped the Lord there.

and the hungry are no more hired, so that the barren hath borne <sup>2</sup>seven: and she that had many children is feeble.

6 <sup>a</sup>The Lord killeth and maketh alive: bringeth down to the grave and raiseth up.

7 The Lord maketh poor and maketh rich: bringeth low, and exalther.

8 <sup>b</sup>He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the beggar from the dunghill, to set them among <sup>1</sup>princes, and to make them inherit the seat of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the <sup>2</sup>Lord's, and he hath set the world upon them.

9 He will keep the feet of his Saints, and the wicked shall keep silence in darkness: for in his own might shall no man be strong.

10 The Lord's adversaries shall be destroyed, and out of heaven shall he <sup>t</sup>thunder upon them: the Lord shall judge the ends of the world, and shall give power unto his <sup>1</sup>King, and exalt the horn of his Anointed.

11 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house, and the child did minister unto the <sup>1</sup>Lord before Eli the Priest.

12 ¶ Now the sons of Eli were wicked men, and <sup>1</sup>knew not the Lord.

13 For the Priest's custom toward the people was this: when any man offered sacrifice, the Priest's <sup>1</sup>boy came, while the flesh was seething, and a fleshhook with three teeth in his hand,

14 And thrust it into the kettle, or into the caldron, or into the pan, or into the pot: <sup>1</sup>all that the fleshhook brought up, the Priest took for himself: thus they did unto all the Israelites, that came thither to Shiloh.

15 Yea, before they burnt the <sup>1</sup>fat, the Priest's boy came and said unto the man that offered, Give me flesh to roast for the Priest: for he will not have sodden flesh of thee, but raw.

16 And if any man said unto him, Let them burn the fat according to the <sup>1</sup>custom, then take as much as thine heart <sup>2</sup>desireth: then he would answer, No, but thou shalt give it now: and if thou wilt not, I will take it by force.

17 Therefore the sin of the young men was very great before the Lord: for men <sup>1</sup>abhorred the offering of the Lord.

1:23 <sup>1</sup> Because her prayer took effect, therefore it was called the Lord's promise.

2:1 <sup>1</sup> After that she had obtained a son by prayer, she gave thanks.

18 ¶ Now Samuel being a young child ministered before the Lord, girded with a linen <sup>d</sup>Ephod.

19 And his mother made him a little coat, and brought it to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband, to offer the yearly sacrifice.

20 And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, The Lord give thee seed of this woman, for <sup>1</sup>the petition that she asked of the Lord: and they departed unto their place.

21 And the Lord visited Hannah, so that she conceived, and bare three sons, and two daughters. And the child Samuel grew before the Lord.

22 ¶ So Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did unto all Israel, and how they lay with the women that <sup>1</sup>assembled at the door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

23 And he said unto them, Why do ye such things? for of all this people I hear evil reports of you.

24 Do no more, my sons: for it is no good report that I hear, which is, that ye make the Lord's people to <sup>1</sup>trespass.

25 If one man sin against another, the Judge shall judge it: but if a man sin against the Lord, who will plead for him? Notwithstanding they obeyed not the voice of their father, because the Lord <sup>1</sup>would slay them.

26 ¶ (Now the child Samuel profited, and grew, and was in favor both with the Lord and also with men.)

27 And there came a man of God unto Eli, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Did not I plainly appear unto the house of thy <sup>1</sup>father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house?

28 And I chose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my Priest, to offer upon my altar, and to burn incense, and to wear an Ephod before me, and <sup>1</sup>I gave unto the house of thy father all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel.

29 Wherefore have you <sup>1</sup>kicked against my sacrifice and mine offering, which I commanded in my Tabernacle, and honorest thy children above me, to make yourselves fat of the firstfruits of all the offerings of Israel my people?

31 Behold, the days come, that I will cut off thine <sup>1</sup>arm, and the arm of thy fathers house, that there shall not be an old man in thine house.

32 And thou <sup>1</sup>shalt see thine enemy in the habitation of the Lord in all things wherewith God shall bless Israel, and there shall not be an old man in thine house forever.

33 Nevertheless, I will not destroy every one of thine from mine altar, to make thine eyes to fail, and to make thine heart sorrowful: and all the multitude of thine house shall <sup>1</sup>die when they be men

34 And this shall be a sign unto thee, that shall come upon thy two sons Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shall die both.

35 And I will stir me up a <sup>1</sup>faithful Priest, that shall do according to mine heart, and according to my mind: and I will build him a sure house, and he shall walk before mine Anointed forever.

36 And all that are left in thine house, shall come and <sup>1</sup>bow down to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and shall say, Appoint me, I pray thee, to one of the Priest's offices, that I may eat a morsel [of] bread.

3:4 <sup>1</sup> Josephus writeth that Samuel was 12 years old, when the Lord appeared to him.

thou calledst me. But he said, I called thee not: go again and sleep. And he went and slept.

6 And the Lord called once again, Samuel. And Samuel arose, and went to Eli, and said, I am here: for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called thee not my son: go again and sleep.

7 Thus did Samuel, before he knew <sup>1</sup>the Lord, and before the word of the Lord was revealed unto him.

8 And the Lord called Samuel again the third time: and he arose, and went to Eli, and said, I am here: for thou hast called me. Then Eli <sup>1</sup>perceived that the Lord had called the child.

9 Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go and sleep: and if he call thee, then say, Speak Lord, for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went, and slept in his place.

10 ¶ And the Lord came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speak, for thy servant heareth.

11 ¶ Then the Lord said unto Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, whereof whosoever shall hear, his two <sup>4</sup>ears shall <sup>1</sup>tingle.

12 In that day I will raise up against Eli all things which I have spoken concerning his house: when I begin, I will also make an end.

13 And I have told him that I will judge his house forever, for the iniquity which he knoweth, because his sons ran into a slander, and he stayed them not.

14 Now therefore I have sworn unto the house of Eli, that the wickedness of Eli's house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering <sup>1</sup>forever.

15 Afterward Samuel slept until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of the Lord, and Samuel feared to show Eli the vision.

16 ¶ Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel my son. And he answered, Here I am.

17 Then he said, What is it, that the Lord said unto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me. God <sup>1</sup>do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide anything from me, of all that he said unto thee.

18 So Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him. Then he said, It is the Lord: let him do what seemeth him good.

19 ¶ And Samuel grew, and the Lord was with him, and let none of his words <sup>1</sup>fall to the ground.

CHAPTER 3
2 Kings 21:12

20 And all Israel from Dan to Beersheba knew <sup>1</sup>that faithful Samuel was the Lord's Prophet.

21 And the Lord appeared again in Shiloh: for the Lord revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by <sup>1</sup>his word.

1 And Samuel spake unto all Israel: <sup>1</sup>and Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside <sup>2</sup>Ebenezer: and the Philistines pitched in Apek.

2 And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined the battle, Israel was smitten down before the Philistines: who slew of the army in the field about four thousand men.

3 So when the people were come into the camp, the Elders of Israel said, <sup>1</sup>Wherefore hath the Lord smitten us this day before the Philistines? let us bring the Ark of the covenant of the Lord out of Shiloh unto us, that when it cometh among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies.

4 Then the people sent to Shiloh, and brought from thence the Ark of the covenant of the Lord of hosts, who <sup>1</sup>dwelleth between the Cherubims: and there were the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, with the Ark of the covenant of God.

5 And when the Ark of the covenant of the Lord came into the host, all Israel shouted a mighty shout, so that the earth rang again.

6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the sound of this mighty shout in the host of the Hebrews? and they understood, that the Ark of the Lord was come into the host.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, and said, God is come in the host: therefore said they, <sup>1</sup>Woe unto us: for it hath not been so heretofore.

8 Woe unto us, who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the <sup>1</sup>wilderness.

4:3 <sup>1</sup> For it may seem that this war was undertaken by Samuel's commandment.

4:4 <sup>1</sup> For he used to appear to the Israelites between the cherubim over the Ark of the covenant, Exod. 25:17.

4:7 <sup>1</sup> Before we fought against men, and now God is come to fight against us.

4:8 <sup>1</sup> For in the red sea in the wilderness the Egyptians were destroyed, which was the last of all his plagues.

9 Be strong and play the men, O Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, <sup>a</sup>as they have served you: be valiant therefore, and fight.

10 And the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten down, and fled every man into his tent: and there was an exceeding great slaughter, for there fell of Israel <sup>1</sup>thirty thousand footmen.

11 And the Ark of God was taken, and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas died.

12 And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes <sup>1</sup>rent, and earth upon his head.

13 And when he came, lo, Eli sat upon a seat by the wayside, waiting: for his heart <sup>1</sup>feared for the Ark of God: and when the man came into the city to tell it, all the city cried out.

14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What meaneth this noise of the tumult? and the man came in hastily, and told Eli.

15 (Now Eli was fourscore and eighteen years old, and <sup>b</sup>his eyes were dim that he could not see.)

16 And the man said unto Eli, I came from the army, and I fled this day out of the host: and he said, What thing is done, my son?

17 Then the messenger answered, and said, Israel is fled before the Philistines, and there hath been also a great slaughter among the people: and moreover thy two sons, Hophni and Phinehas <sup>1</sup>are dead, and the Ark of God is taken.

18 ¶ And when he had made mention of the Ark of God, Eli fell from his seat backward by the side of the gate, and his neck was broken, and he died: for he was an old man and heavy: and he had <sup>1</sup>judged Israel forty years.

19 And his daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, near <sup>1</sup>her travail: and when she heard the report that the Ark of God was taken, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she <sup>2</sup>bowed herself, and travailed: for her pains came upon her.

20 And about the time of her death, the women that stood about her, said unto her, Fear not: for thou hast borne a son: but she answered not, nor regarded it.

21 And she named the child <sup>1</sup>Ichabod, saying, The glory is departed from Israel, because the Ark of God was taken, and because of her father-in-law and her husband.

22 She said again, <sup>1</sup>The glory is departed from Israel: for the Ark of God is taken.

1 Then the Philistines took the Ark of God and carried it from Ebenezer unto <sup>1</sup>Ashdod,

2 Even the Philistines took the Ark of God, and brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by <sup>1</sup>Dagon.

3 And when they of Ashdod rose the next day in the morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face on the ground before the Ark of the Lord, and they took up Dagon, and set him in his place again.

4 Also they rose up early in the morning the next day, and behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face on the ground before the Ark of the Lord, and the head of Dagon and the two palms of his hands were cut off upon the threshold: only the stump of Dagon was left to him.

5 Therefore the Priests of Dagon, and all that come into Dagon's house, <sup>1</sup>tread not on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod, unto this day.

6 But the hand of the Lord was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and destroyed them, and smote them with the <sup>a</sup>emerods, both Ashdod, and the coasts thereof.

7 And when the men of Ashdod saw this, they said, Let not the Ark of the God of Israel abide with us: for his hand is sore upon us and upon Dagon our god.

8 They sent therefore, and gathered all the princes of the Philistines unto them, and said, <sup>1</sup>What shall we do with the Ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the Ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto Gath: and they carried the Ark of the God of Israel about.

9 And when they had carried it about, the hand of the Lord was against the city with a very great destruction, and he smote the men of the city both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts.

10 ¶ Therefore they sent the Ark of God to Ekron: and as soon as the Ark of God came to Ekron, the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought the Ark of the God of Israel to us to slay us and our people.

11 Therefore they sent, and gathered together all the princes of the Philistines, and said, Send <sup>1</sup>away the Ark of the God of Israel, and let it return to his own place, that it slay us not and our people: for there was a destruction and death throughout all the city, and the hand of God was very sore there.

12 And the men that died not, were smitten with the emerods: and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

6 <sup>1</sup> The time that the Ark was with the Philistines, which they sent again with a gift. 12 It cometh to Beth Shemesh. 17 The Philistines offer golden emerods. 19 The men of Beth Shemesh are stricken for looking into the Ark.

1 So the Ark of the Lord was in the country of the Philistines <sup>1</sup>seven months.

2 And the Philistines called the Priests and the Soothsayers, saying, What shall we do with the Ark of the Lord? tell us wherewith we shall send it home again.

3 And they said, If you send away the Ark of the God of Israel, send it not away empty, but give unto it <sup>1</sup>a sin offering: then shall ye be healed, and it shall be known to you, why his hand departeth not from you.

4 Then said they, What shall be the sin offering, which we shall give unto it? And they answered, Five golden emerods, and five golden mice, according to the number of the princes of the Philistines: for one plague was on you all, and on your princes.

5 Wherefore ye shall make the similitudes of your emerods, and the similitudes of your mice that destroy the land: so ye shall give glory unto the God of Israel, that he may take his hand from you, and from your <sup>1</sup>gods, and from your land.

6 Wherefore then should ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts, when he wrought wonderfully among them, <sup>4</sup>did they not let them go, and they departed?

7 Now therefore make a new cart, and take two milch kine, on whom there hath come no yoke: and tie the kine to the cart, and bring the calves home from them.

8 Then take the Ark of the Lord, and set it upon the cart, and put the <sup>1</sup>jewels of gold which ye give it for a sin offering in a coffer by the side thereof, and send it away, that it may go.

9 And take heed, if it go up by the way of his own coast to Beth Shemesh, it is <sup>1</sup>he that did us this great evil: but if not, we shall know then, that it is not his hand that smote us, but it was a <sup>2</sup>chance that happened us.

10 And the men did so: for they took two kine that gave milk, and tied them to the cart, and shut the calves at home.

11 So they set the Ark of the Lord upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold, and with the similitudes of their emerods.

12 And the kine went the straight way to Beth Shemesh, and kept one path, and lowed as they went, and turned neither to the right hand nor to the left: also the princes of the Philistines went after <sup>1</sup>them unto the borders of Beth Shemesh.

13 Now they of Beth Shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley, and they lift up their eyes, and spied the Ark, and rejoiced when they saw it.

14 ¶ And the cart came into the field of Joshua a Beth Shemite, and stood still there. There was also a great stone, and <sup>1</sup>they clave the wood of the cart, and offered the kine for a burnt offering unto the Lord.

15 And the Levites took down the Ark of the Lord, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone, and the men of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offering, and sacrificed sacrifices that same day unto the Lord.

16 And when the five princes of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

17 ¶ So these are the golden emerods, which the Philistines gave for a sin offering to the Lord: for <sup>1</sup>Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, and for Ekron one,

18 And golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines, belonging to the five princes, both of walled towns, and of towns unwall'd unto the great stone of <sup>1</sup>Abel, whereon they set the Ark of the Lord: which stone remaineth unto this day in the field of Joshua the Beth Shemite.

19 And he smote of the men of Beth Shemesh, because they <sup>1</sup>had looked in the Ark of the Lord: he slew even among the people fifty thousand men and threescore and ten men: and the people lamented, because the Lord had slain the people with so great 20 Wherefore the men of Beth Shemesh said, Who is able to stand before this holy Lord God? and to whom shall he go from us?

21 And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjath Jearim, saying, The Philistines have brought again the Ark of the Lord: come ye down, and take it up to you.

7 1 The Ark is brought to Kirjath Jearim. 3 Samuel exhorteth the people to forsake their sins, and turn to the Lord. 10 The Philistines fight against Israel, and are overcome. 16 Samuel judgeth Israel.

1 Then the men of <sup>1</sup>Kirjath Jearim came, and took up the Ark of the Lord, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill: and they sanctified Eleazar his son, to keep the Ark of the Lord.

2 (For while the Ark abode in Kirjath Jearim, the time was long, for it was twenty years) and all the house of Israel lamented <sup>1</sup>after the Lord.

3 ¶ Then Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye be come again unto the Lord with all your heart, <sup>2</sup>put away the strange gods from among you, and <sup>3</sup>Ashtoreth, and direct your hearts unto the Lord, and serve him <sup>4</sup>only, and he shall deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.

4 Then the children of Israel did put away <sup>4</sup>Baal and Ashtoreth, and served the Lord only.

5 And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to <sup>1</sup>Mizpah, and I will pray for you unto the Lord.

6 And they gathered together to Mizpah, and <sup>1</sup>drew water, and poured it out before the Lord, and fasted the same day, and said there, We have sinned against the Lord. And Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpah.

7 When the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpah, the Princes of the Philistines went up against Israel: and when the children of Israel heard that, they were afraid of the Philistines.

8 And the children of Israel said to Samuel, Cease not to <sup>1</sup>cry unto the Lord our God for us, that he may save us out of the hand of the Philistines.

9 Then Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered it all together for a burnt offering unto the Lord, and Samuel cried unto the Lord for Israel, and the Lord

10 And [as] Samuel offered the burnt offering, the Philistines came to fight against Israel: but the Lord <sup>1</sup>thundered with a great thunder that day upon the Philistines, and scattered them: so they were slain before Israel.

11 And the men of Israel went from Mizpah, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them until they came under Beth Car.

12 Then Samuel took a stone, and pitched it between Mizpah and <sup>1</sup>Shen, and called the name thereof Ebenezer, and he said, Hitherto hath the Lord helped us.

13 ¶ So the Philistines were brought under, and they came no more again into the coasts of Israel: and the hand of the Lord was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

14 Also the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel, were restored to Israel, from Ekron even to Gath: and Israel delivered the coasts of the same out of the hands of the Philistines: and there was peace between Israel and the <sup>1</sup>Amorites.

15 And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life,

16 And went about year by year to Bethel, and Gilgal, and Mizpah, and judged Israel in all those places.

17 Afterward he returned to Ramah: for there was his house, and there he judged Israel: also he built an <sup>1</sup>altar there unto the Lord.

8 1 Samuel maketh his sons Judges over Israel, who follow not his steps. 5 The Israelites ask a King. 11 Samuel declareth in what state they should be under the King. 19 Notwithstanding, they ask one still, and the Lord willeth Samuel to grant unto them.

3 And his sons walked not in his ways, but turned aside after lucre, and <sup>4</sup>took rewards, and perverted the judgment.

4 ¶ Wherefore all the Elders of Israel gathered them together, and came to Samuel unto <sup>1</sup>Ramah,

5 And said unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: <sup>6</sup>make us now a King to judge us like all nations.

8:4 <sup>1</sup> For there his house was, 1 Sam. 7:17.

6 But the thing <sup>1</sup>displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a King to judge us: and Samuel prayed unto the Lord.

7 And the Lord said unto Samuel, Hear the voice of the people in all that they shall say unto thee: for they have not cast thee away, but they have cast me away, that I should not reign over them.

8 As they have ever done since I brought them out of Egypt even unto this day, (and have forsaken me, and served other gods) even so do they unto thee.

9 Now therefore hearken unto their voice: howbeit, yet <sup>1</sup>testify unto them, and show them the manner of the king that shall reign over them.

10 ¶ So Samuel told all the words of the Lord unto the people that asked a king of him.

11 And he said, This shall be the <sup>1</sup>manner of the king that shall reign over you: he will take your sons, and appoint them to his chariots, and to be his horsemen, and some shall run before his chariot.

12 Also he will make them his captains over thousands, and captains over fifties, and to ear his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make instruments of war, and the things that serve for his chariots.

13 He will also take your daughters and make them Apothecaries, and Cooks, and Bakers.

14 And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your best Olive trees, and give them to his servants.

15 And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give it to his <sup>1</sup>Eunuchs, and to his servants.

16 And he will take your menservants, and your maidservants, and the chief of your young men, and your asses, and put them to his work.

17 He will take the tenth of your sheep, and ye shall be his servants.

18 And ye shall cry out at that day, because of your king, whom ye have chosen you, and the Lord will not <sup>1</sup>hear you at that day.

19 But the people would not hear the voice of Samuel, but did say, Nay, but there shall be a king over us.

20 And we also will be like all other nations, and our king shall judge us, and go out before us and fight our battles.

21 Therefore when Samuel heard all the words of the people, he rehearsed them in the ears of the Lord.

22 And the Lord said to Samuel, <sup>1</sup>Hearken unto their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel said unto the men of Israel, Go every man unto his city.

1 There was now a man of Benjamin, <sup>1</sup>mighty in power, named <sup>a</sup>Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, the son of a man of Benjamin.

2 And he had a son called Saul, a <sup>1</sup>goodly young man and a fair: so that among the children of Israel there was none goodlier than he: from the shoulders upward, he was higher than any of the people.

3 And the asses of Kish, Saul's father were lost: therefore Kish said to Saul his son, Take now one of the servants with thee, and arise, go and <sup>1</sup>seek the asses.

4 So he passed through mount Ephraim, and went through the land of Shalisha, but they found them not. Then they went through the land of Shaalim, and there they were not: he went also through the land of Benjamin, but they found them not.

5 When they came to the land of <sup>1</sup>Zuph, Saul said unto his servant that was with him, Come and let us return, lest my father leave the care of asses, and take thought for us.

6 And he said unto him, Behold now, in this city is a man of God, and he is an honorable man: all that he saith cometh to pass: let us now go thither, if so be that he can show us what way we may go.

7 Then said Saul to his servant, Well then, let us go: but what shall we bring unto the man? For the <sup>1</sup>bread is spent in our vessels, and there is no present to bring to the man of God: what have we?

8 And the servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, I have found about me the fourth part of a <sup>1</sup>shekel of silver: that will I give the man of God, to tell us our way.

10 Then said Saul to his servant, Well said, come, let us go: so they went into the city where the man of God was.

11 ¶ And as they were going up the highway to the city, they found maids that came out to draw water, and said unto them, Is there here a Seer?

12 And they answered them, and said, Yea, lo, he is before you: make haste now, for he came this day to the city: for there is an <sup>1</sup>offering of the people this day in the high place.

13 When ye shall come into the city, ye shall find him straightway ere he come up to the high place to eat, for the people will not eat until he come, because he will <sup>1</sup>bless the sacrifice; and then eat they that be bidden to the feast: now therefore go up, for even now shall ye find him.

14 Then they went up into the city, and when they were come into the midst of the city, Samuel came out against them, to go up to the high place.

15 ¶ But the Lord had revealed to Samuel <sup>1</sup>secretly (a day before Saul came) saying,

16 Tomorrow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, him shalt thou anoint to be governor over my people Israel, that he may <sup>1</sup>save my people out of the hands of the Philistines; for I have looked upon my people, and their cry is come unto me.

17 When Samuel therefore saw Saul, the Lord answered him, See, this is the man whom I spake to thee of, he shall rule my people.

18 Then went Saul to Samuel in the midst of the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the Seer's house is.

19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the Seer; go up before me unto the high place; for ye shall eat with me today, and tomorrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thine <sup>1</sup>heart.

20 And as for thine asses that were lost three days ago, care not for them: for they are found: and <sup>1</sup>on whom is set all the desire of Israel? is it not upon thee, and on all thy father's house?

my family is the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin. Wherefore then speakest thou so to me?

22 And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the <sup>1</sup>chamber, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden: which were about thirty persons.

23 And Samuel said unto the cook, Bring forth the portion which I gave thee, and whereof I said unto thee, Keep it with thee.

24 And the cook took up the shoulder, and that which was <sup>1</sup>upon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Behold, that which is left, set it before thee, and eat: for hitherto hath it been kept for thee, saying, Also I <sup>2</sup>have called the people. So Saul did eat with Samuel that day.

25 And when they were come down from the high place into the city, he communed with Saul upon the top of the house.

26 And when they arose early about the spring of the day, Samuel called Saul to the <sup>1</sup>top of the house, saying, Up, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out, both he, and Samuel.

27 And when they were come down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the servant go before us, (and he went) but stand thou still now, that I may show thee <sup>1</sup>the word of God.

5 After that shalt thou come to the <sup>1</sup>hill of God, where is the garrisons of the Philistines: and when thou art come thither to the city, thou shalt meet a company of Prophets coming down from the high place with a vial, and a timbrel, and a pipe, and an harp before them, and they shall prophesy.

6 Then the Spirit of the Lord will come upon thee, and thou shalt prophesy with them, and shalt be turned into another man.

17 ¶ And Samuel <sup>1</sup>assembled the people unto the Lord in Mizpah,

18 And he said unto the children of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I have brought Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hands of all kingdoms that troubled you.

19 But ye have this day cast away your God, who only delivereth you out of all your adversities and tribulations: and ye said unto him, No, but appoint a king over us. Now therefore stand ye before the Lord according to your tribes, and according to your thousands.

20 And when Samuel had gathered together all the tribes of Israel, the tribe of Benjamin was <sup>1</sup>taken.

21 Afterward he assembled the tribe of Benjamin, according to their families, and the family of Matri was taken. So Saul the son of Kish was taken, and when they sought him, he could not be found.

22 Therefore they asked the Lord again, if that man should yet come thither. And the Lord answered, Behold, he hath <sup>1</sup>hid himself among the stuff.

23 And they ran, and brought him thence: and when he stood among the people, he was higher than any of the people from the shoulders upward.

24 And Samuel said to all the people, See ye not him, whom the Lord hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? and all the people shouted and said, <sup>1</sup>God save the King.

25 Then Samuel told the people <sup>1</sup>the duty of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the Lord, and Samuel sent all the people away every man to his house.

26 Saul also went home to Gibeah, and there followed him a band of men, whose heart God had touched.

27 But the wicked men said, How shall he save us? So they despised him, and brought him no presents: but he <sup>1</sup>held his tongue.

11 1 Nahash the Ammonite warreth against Jabesh Gilead, who asketh help of the Israelites. 6 Saul promiseth help. 11 The Ammonites are slain. 14 The kingdom is renewed.

1 Then Nahash the Ammonite <sup>1</sup>came up, and besieged Jabesh Gilead: and all the men of Jabesh said unto Nahash, Make a covenant with us, and we will be thy servants.

10:4 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, of peace.

10:5 <sup>1</sup> Which was an high place in the city Kirjath Jearim, where the Ark was, 1 Sam. 7:2.

10:9 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, shoulder.

<sup>2</sup> He gave him such virtues as were meet for a King.

10:10 <sup>1</sup> Or, sang praises.

10:12 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, that prophecy cometh not by succession, but is given to whom it pleaseth God.

10:17 <sup>1</sup> Both to declare unto them their fault in asking a King, and also to show God's sentence therein.

10:20 <sup>1</sup> That is, by casting of lot.

10:22 <sup>1</sup> As though he were unworthy and unwilling.

10:24 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, let the king live.

10:25 <sup>1</sup> As it is written in Deut. 17:15, etc.

10:27 <sup>1</sup> Both to avoid sedition, and also to win them by patience.

11:1 <sup>1</sup> After that Saul was chosen king: for fear of whom they asked a king, as 1 Sam. 12:12.

2 And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, On this condition will I make a covenant with you, that I may thrust out all your <sup>1</sup>right eyes, and bring that shame upon all Israel.

3 To whom the Elders of Jabesh said, Give us seven days respite, that we may send messengers unto all the coasts of Israel: and then if no man deliver us, we will come out to thee.

4 ¶ Then came the messengers to Gibeah of Saul, and told these tidings in the ears of the people: and all the people lift up their voices and wept.

5 And behold, Saul came following the cattle out of the field, and Saul said, What aileth this people, that they weep? And they told him the tidings of the men of Jabesh.

6 Then the Spirit of God <sup>1</sup>came upon Saul, when he heard those tidings, and he was exceeding angry,

7 And took a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the coasts of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, Whosoever cometh not forth after Saul, and after <sup>1</sup>Samuel, so shall his oxen be served. And the fear of the Lord fell on the people, and they came out <sup>2</sup>with one consent.

8 And when he numbered them in Bezek, the children of Israel were three hundred thousand men, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.

9 Then <sup>1</sup>they said unto the messengers that came, So say unto the men of Jabesh Gilead, Tomorrow by then the Sun be hot, ye shall have help. And the messengers came and showed it to the men of Jabesh, which were glad.

10 Therefore the men of Jabesh said, Tomorrow we will come out unto <sup>1</sup>you, and ye shall do with us all that pleaseth you.

11 ¶ And when the morrow was come, Saul put the people in three bands, and they came in upon the host in the morning watch, and slew the Ammonites until the heat of the day: and they that remained, were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

12 Then the people said unto Samuel, <sup>1</sup>Who is he that said, Shall Saul reign over us? bring those men that we may slay them.

13 But Saul said, There shall no man <sup>1</sup>die this day: for today the Lord hath saved Israel.

14 ¶ Then said Samuel unto the people, Come, that we may go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there.

CHAPTER 12

15 So all the people went to Gilgal, and made Saul King there before the Lord in Gilgal: and there they offered <sup>1</sup>peace offerings before the Lord: and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced exceedingly.

12 <sup>1</sup> Samuel declaring to the people his integrity, reproveth their ingratitude. 19 God by miracle causeth the people to confess their sin. 20 Samuel exhorteth the people to follow the Lord.

1 Samuel then said unto all Israel, Behold, I have <sup>1</sup>hearkened unto your voice in all that ye said unto me, and have appointed a King over you.

2 Now therefore behold, your King walketh <sup>1</sup>before you, and I am old and gray headed, and behold, my sons are with you: and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day.

3 Behold, here I am: bear record of me before the Lord and before his anointed. <sup>1</sup>Whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I done wrong to? or whom have I hurt? or of whose hand have I received any bribe, to blind mine eyes therewith, and I will restore it you?

4 Then they said, Thou hast done us no wrong, nor hast hurt us, neither hast thou taken ought of any man's hand.

5 And he said unto them, The Lord is witness against you, and his <sup>1</sup>Anointed is witness this day, that ye have found nought in mine hands. And they answered, He is witness.

6 Then Samuel said unto the people, It is the Lord that <sup>1</sup>made Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers out of the land of Egypt.

7 Now therefore stand still, that I may reason with you before the Lord according to all the <sup>1</sup>righteousness of the Lord, which he showed to you and to your fathers.

8 <sup>a</sup>After that Jacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers cried unto the Lord, then the Lord <sup>b</sup>sent Moses and Aaron which brought your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place.

9 <sup>c</sup>And when they forgot the Lord their God, he sold them into the hand of Siser<sup>a</sup> <sup>1</sup>captain of the host of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them.

11:2 <sup>1</sup> This declareth that the more near the tyrants are to their destruction, the more cruel they are.

11:6 <sup>1</sup> God gave him the spirit of strength and courage to go against this tyrant.

11:7 <sup>1</sup> He addeth Samuel because Saul was not yet approved of all.

<sup>2</sup> Hebrew, as one man.

11:9 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, Saul and Samuel.

11:10 <sup>1</sup> That is, to the Ammonites, dissembling that they had hope of aid.

11:12 <sup>1</sup> By this victory the Lord won the hearts of the people to Saul.

11:13 <sup>1</sup> By showing mercy he thought to overcome their malice.

11:15 <sup>1</sup> In sign of thanksgiving for the victory.

12:1 <sup>1</sup> I have granted your petition.

12:2 <sup>1</sup> To govern you in peace and war.

12:3 <sup>1</sup> God would that this confession should be a pattern for all them that have any charge or office.

12:5 <sup>1</sup> Your King, who is anointed by the commandment of the Lord.

12:6 <sup>1</sup> Or, exalted.

12:7 <sup>1</sup> Or, benefits.

12:9 <sup>1</sup> Captain of Jabin's host, King of Hazor.

10 And they cried unto the Lord, and said, We have sinned, because we have forsaken the Lord, and have served Baal and Ashtoreth. Now therefore deliver us out of the hands of our enemies, and we will serve thee.

11 Therefore the Lord sent Jerubbaal <sup>1</sup>and Bedan and <sup>d</sup>Jephthah, and <sup>e</sup>Samuel, and delivered you out of the hands of your enemies on every side, and ye dwelled safe.

12 Notwithstanding when you saw, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye said unto me, <sup>1</sup>No, but a king shall reign over us: when yet the Lord your God was your King.

13 Now therefore behold the King whom ye have chosen, and whom ye have desired: lo therefore, the Lord hath set a King over you.

14 If ye will fear the Lord and serve him, and hear his voice, and not disobey the word of the Lord, both ye, and the king that reigneth over you, shall <sup>1</sup>follow the Lord your God.

15 But if ye will not obey the voice of the Lord, but disobey the Lord's mouth, then shall the hand of the Lord be upon you, and on your <sup>1</sup>fathers.

16 Now also stand and see this great thing which the Lord will do before your eyes.

17 Is it not now wheat harvest? I will call unto the Lord, and he shall send thunder and rain, that ye may perceive and see, how that your wickedness is <sup>1</sup>great, which ye have done in the sight of the Lord in asking you a king.

18 Then Samuel called unto the Lord, and the Lord sent thunder and rain the same day: and all the people feared the Lord and Samuel exceedingly.

19 And all the people said unto Samuel, Pray for thy servants unto the Lord thy God, that we die not: for we have sinned in asking us a King, beside <sup>1</sup>all our other sins.

20 ¶ And Samuel said unto the people, Fear not, (ye have indeed done all this wickedness, <sup>1</sup>yet depart not from following the Lord, but serve the Lord with all your heart, 21 Neither turn ye back: for that should be after vain things which cannot profit you, nor deliver you, for they are but vanity.)

22 For the Lord will not forsake his people for his great Name's sake: because it hath pleased the Lord to make you <sup>1</sup>his people.

23 Moreover God forbid, that I should sin against the Lord, and cease praying for you, but I will show you the good and right way.

24 Therefore fear you the Lord, and serve him in the truth with all your <sup>1</sup>hearts, and consider how great things he hath done for you.

25 But if ye do wickedly, ye shall perish, both ye and your King.

13 <sup>3</sup> The Philistines are smitten of Saul and Jonathan. 13 Saul being disobedient to God's commandment, is showed of Samuel that he shall not reign. 19 The great slavery, wherein the Philistines kept the Israelites.

1 Saul now had been King <sup>1</sup>one year, and he reigned <sup>2</sup>two years over Israel.

2 Then Saul chose him three thousand of Israel: and two thousand were with Saul in Michmash, and in mount Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent every one to his tent.

3 And Jonathan smote the garrison of the Philistines, that was in the <sup>1</sup>hill: and it came to the Philistines' ears: and Saul blew the <sup>2</sup>trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Hear, O ye Hebrews.

4 And all Israel heard say, Saul hath destroyed a garrison of the Philistines: wherefore Israel was had in abomination with the Philistines: and the people gathered together after Saul to Gilgal.

5 ¶ The Philistines also gathered themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen: for the people was like the sand which is by the seaside in multitude, and came up, and pitched in Michmash Eastward from <sup>1</sup>Beth Aven.

6 And when the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait (for the people were in distress) the people hid themselves in caves, and in holds, and in rocks, and in towers, and in pits.

7 And some of the Hebrews went over Jordan unto the land of <sup>1</sup>Gad and Gilead: and Saul was yet in Gilgal, and all the people for fear followed him.

8 And he tarried seven days, according unto the time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal, therefore the people were <sup>1</sup>scattered from him.

12:11 <sup>1</sup> That is, Samson, Judg. 13:25.

12:12 <sup>1</sup> Leaving God to seek the help of man, 1 Sam. 8:5.

12:14 <sup>1</sup> Ye shall be preserved as they that follow the Lord's will.

12:15 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, the governors.

12:17 <sup>1</sup> In that ye have forsaken him, who hath all power in his hand, for a mortal man.

12:19 <sup>1</sup> Not only at other times, but now chiefly.

12:20 <sup>1</sup> He showeth that there is no sin so great, but it shall be forgiven, if the sinner turn again to God.

12:22 <sup>1</sup> Of his free mercy, and not of your merits, and therefore he will not forsake you.

12:24 <sup>1</sup> Unfeignedly, and without hypocrisy.

13:3 <sup>1</sup> Of Kirjath Jearim, where the Ark was, 1 Sam. 10:5.

<sup>2</sup> That everyone should prepare themselves to war.

13:5 <sup>1</sup> Which was also called Bethel, in the tribe of Benjamin.

13:7 <sup>1</sup> Where the two tribes and the half remained.

13:8 <sup>1</sup> Thinking that the absence of the Prophet was a sign, that they should lose the victory.

9 And Saul said, Bring a burnt offering to me and peace offerings: and he offered a burnt offering.

10 And as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came: and Saul went forth to meet him, to <sup>1</sup>salute him.

11 And Samuel said, What hast thou done? Then Saul said, Because I saw that the people was <sup>1</sup>scattered from me, and that thou camest not within the days appointed, and that the Philistines gathered themselves together to Michmash, 12 Therefore said I, the Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication unto the Lord. I was bold therefore and offered a burnt offering.

13 And Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the Lord thy <sup>1</sup>God, which he commanded thee: for the Lord had now stablished thy kingdom upon Israel forever.

14 But now thy kingdom shall not continue: the Lord hath sought him a <sup>1</sup>man after his own heart, and the Lord hath commanded him to be governor over his people, because thou hast not kept that which the Lord had commanded thee.

15 ¶ And Samuel arose, and got him up from Gilgal in <sup>1</sup>Gibeah of Benjamin: and Saul numbered the people that were found with him, about six hundred men.

16 And Saul and Jonathan his son, and the people that were found with them, had their abiding in Gibeah of Benjamin: but the Philistines pitched in Michmash.

17 And there came out of the host of the Philistines <sup>1</sup>three bands to destroy, one band turned unto the way of Ophrah unto the land of Shual,

18 And another band turned toward the way to Beth Horon, and the <sup>1</sup>third band turned toward the way of the coast that looketh toward the valley of Zeboim, toward the wilderness.

19 Then there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel: for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears.

20 Wherefore, all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share, his mattock, and his axe, and his weeding hook.

21 Yet they had a file for the shares, and for the mattocks, and for the pick forks, and for the axes, and for to sharpen the goads.

CHAPTER 14

<sup>a</sup> 1 Sam. 4:21<sup>b</sup> 2 Chron. 14:11

22 So when the day of battle was come, there was neither <sup>1</sup>sword nor spear found in the hands of any of the people that were with Saul and with Jonathan: but only with Saul and Jonathan his son was there found.

23 And the garrison of the Philistines came out to the passage of Michmash.

1 Then on a day Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armor, <sup>1</sup>Come and let us go over toward the Philistines garrison, that is yonder on the other side, but he told not his father.

2 And Saul tarried in the border of Gibeah under a pomegranate tree, which was in Migron, and the people that were with him, were about six hundred men.

3 And Ahijah the son of Ahitub, <sup>a</sup>Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, was the Lord's Priest in Shiloh, and wore an Ephod: and the people knew not that Jonathan was gone.

4 ¶ Now in the way whereby Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistines garrison, there was a <sup>1</sup>sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side: the name of the one was called Bozez, and the name of the other Senez.

5 The one rock stretched from the North toward Michmash, and the other was from the South toward Gibeah.

6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armor, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these <sup>1</sup>uncircumcised: it may be that the Lord will work with us: for it is <sup>2</sup>not hard to the Lord <sup>h</sup>to save with many, or with few.

7 And he that bare his armor, said unto him, Do all that is in thine heart: go where it pleaseth thee: behold, <sup>1</sup>I am with thee as thine heart desireth.

8 Then said Jonathan, Behold, we go over unto those men, and will show ourselves unto them.

9 <sup>1</sup>If they say on this wise to us, Tarry until we come to you, then we will stand still in our place, and not go up to them.

13:10 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, bless him.

13:11 <sup>1</sup> Though these causes seem sufficient in man's judgment: yet because they had not the word of God, they turned to his destruction.

13:13 <sup>1</sup> Who willed thee to obey him, and rest upon the words spoken by his Prophet.

13:14 <sup>1</sup> That is, David.

13:15 <sup>1</sup> And went to his city Ramah.

13:17 <sup>1</sup> Or, the destroyer: to wit, the captains came out with three bands.

13:18 <sup>1</sup> So that to man's judgment these three armies would have overrun the whole country.

13:22 <sup>1</sup> To declare that the victory only came of God, and not by their force.

14:1 <sup>1</sup> By this example God would declare to Israel that the victory did not consist in multitude or armor, but only came of his grace.

14:4 <sup>1</sup> Or, like a tooth.

14:6 <sup>1</sup> To wit, the Philistines.

<sup>2</sup> Or, none can let the Lord.

14:7 <sup>1</sup> I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

14:9 <sup>1</sup> This he spake by the spirit of prophecy, forasmuch hereby God gave him assurance of the victory.

10 But if they say, Come up unto us, then we will go up: for the Lord hath delivered them into our hand: and this shall be a sign unto us.

11 So they both showed themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, See, the Hebrews come out of the <sup>1</sup>holes wherein they had hid themselves.

12 And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armor bearer, and said, Come up to us: for we will show you a thing. Then Jonathan said unto his armor bearer, Come up after me: for the Lord hath delivered them into the hand of Israel.

13 So Jonathan went up upon <sup>1</sup>his hands and upon his feet, and his armor bearer after him: and some fell before Jonathan, and his armor bearer slew others after him.

14 So the <sup>1</sup>first slaughter which Jonathan and his armor bearer made, was about twenty men, as it were within half an acre of land which two oxen plow.

15 And there was a fear in the host, and in the field, and among all the people: the garrison also, and they that went out to spoil, were afraid themselves: and the earth <sup>1</sup>trembled: for it was stricken with fear by God.

16 ¶ Then the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin saw: and behold, the multitude was discomfited, and smitten as they went.

17 Therefore said Saul unto the people that were with him, Search now, and see, who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armor bearer were not there.

18 And Saul said unto Ahijah, Bring hither the Ark of God (for the Ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel)

19 ¶ And while Saul talked unto the Priest, the noise that was in the host of the Philistines, spread farther abroad, and increased: therefore Saul said unto the Priest, <sup>1</sup>Withdraw thine hand.

20 And Saul was assembled with all the people that were with him, and they came to the battle: and behold, <sup>c</sup>every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture.

21 Moreover, the Hebrews that were with the Philistines beforetime, and were come with them into all parts of the host, even they also turned to be with the <sup>1</sup>Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 Also all the men of Israel which had hid themselves in mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines were fled, they followed after them in the battle.

23 And so the Lord saved Israel that day: and the battle continued unto Beth Aven.

24 And at that time the men of Israel were pressed with hunger: for Saul charged the people with an oath, saying, <sup>1</sup>Cursed be the man that eateth <sup>2</sup>food till night, that I may be avenged of mine enemies: so none of the people tasted any sustenance.

25 And all they of the land came to a wood, where honey lay upon the ground.

26 And the people came into the wood, and behold, the honey dropped, and no man moved his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the <sup>1</sup>oath.

27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in an honey comb, and put his hand to his mouth, and his <sup>1</sup>eyes received sight.

28 Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father made the people to swear, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth sustenance this day: and the people were <sup>1</sup>faint.

29 Then said Jonathan, My father hath <sup>1</sup>troubled the land: see now how mine eyes are made clear, because I have tasted a little of this honey:

30 How much more, if the people had eaten today of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for had there not been now a greater slaughter among the Philistines?

31 ¶ And they smote the Philistines that day, from Michmash to Aijalon: and the people were exceeding faint.

32 So the people turned to the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves and slew them on the ground, and the people did eat them <sup>4</sup>with the blood.

33 Then men told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against the Lord, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have trespassed: <sup>1</sup>roll a great stone unto me this day.

34 Again Saul said, Go abroad among the people, and bid them bring me every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay them here, and eat, and sin not against the Lord in eating with the blood. And 14:11 <sup>1</sup> Thus they spake contemptuously and by derision.

14:13 <sup>1</sup> That is, he crept up, or went up with all haste.

14:14 <sup>1</sup> The second was when they slew one another, and the third when the Israelites chased them.

14:15 <sup>1</sup> In that the insensible creatures tremble for fear of God's judgment, it declareth how terrible his vengeance shall be against his enemies.

14:19 <sup>1</sup> Let the Ephod alone: for I have no leisure now to ask counsel of God, Num. 27:21.

14:21 <sup>1</sup> Though before for fear of the Philistines they declared themselves as enemies to their brethren.

14:24 <sup>1</sup> Such was his hypocrisy and arrogance, that he thought to attribute to his policy that which God had given by the hand of Jonathan.

the people brought every man his ox in his hand that night, and slew them there.

35 Then Saul made an altar unto the Lord, and that <sup>1</sup>was the first altar that he made unto the Lord.

36 ¶ And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning shine, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever thou thinkest best. Then said the Priest, Let us <sup>1</sup>draw near hither unto God.

37 So Saul asked of God, saying, Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into the hands of Israel? But he answered him not at that time.

38 ¶ And Saul said, ‘All <sup>1</sup>ye chief of the people, come ye hither, and know, and see by whom this sin is done this day.

39 For as the Lord liveth, which saveth Israel, though it be done by Jonathan my son, he shall die the death. But none of all the people answered him.

40 Then he said unto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do what thou thinkest best.

41 Then Saul said unto the Lord God of Israel, Give <sup>1</sup>a perfect lot. And Jonathan and Saul were taken, but the people escaped.

42 And Saul said, Cast lot between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him, and said, I tasted a little honey with the end of the rod, that was in mine hand, and lo, I must die.

44 Again Saul answered, God do so and more also, unless thou die the death, Jonathan.

45 And the people said unto Saul, <sup>1</sup>Shall Jonathan die, who hath so mightily delivered Israel? God forbid. As the Lord liveth, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground: for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people delivered Jonathan that he died not.

46 Then Saul came up from the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own place.

47 ¶ So Saul held the kingdom over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the Kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines: and whithersoever he went, he <sup>1</sup>handled them as wicked men.

48 He gathered also an host and smote <sup>1</sup>Amalek, and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them.

49 Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, <sup>1</sup>and Jishui, and Malchishua: and the names of his two daughters, the elder was called Merab, and the younger was named <sup>2</sup>Michal.

50 And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of his chief captain was <sup>1</sup>Abner the son of Ner, Saul's uncle.

51 And Kish was Saul's father: and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

52 And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and <sup>1</sup>whomsoever Saul saw to be a strong man, and meet for the war, he took him unto him.

1 Afterward Samuel said unto Saul, ‘The Lord sent me to anoint thee King over his people, over Israel: now therefore <sup>1</sup>obey the voice of the words of the Lord.

2 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, I remember what Amalek did to Israel, <sup>4</sup>how they laid wait for them in the way, as they came up from Egypt.

3 Now therefore go, and smite Amalek, and destroy ye all that pertaineth unto them, and have no compassion on them, but <sup>1</sup>slay both man and woman, both infant and suckling, both ox, and sheep, both camel, and ass.

4 ¶ And Saul assembled the people, and <sup>1</sup>numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah.

5 And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and <sup>1</sup>set watch at the river.

6 And Saul said unto the <sup>1</sup>Kenites, Go, depart, and get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them: for ye showed <sup>2</sup>mercy to 14:45 <sup>1</sup> The people thought it their duty to rescue him, who of ignorance had but broken a rash law, and by whom they had received so great a benefit.

14:47 <sup>1</sup> Or, overcame them.

14:48 <sup>1</sup> As the Lord had commanded, Deut. 25:17.

15:1 <sup>1</sup> Because he hath preferred thee to this honor, thou art bound to obey him.

15:3 <sup>1</sup> That this might be an example of God's vengeance against them that deal cruelly with his people.

all the children of Israel, when they came up from Egypt: and the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

7 So Saul smote the Amalekites from Havilah, as thou comest to Shur, that is before Egypt,

8 And took Agag the King of the Amalekites alive, and destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

9 But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the better sheep, and the oxen, and the fat beasts, and the lambs, and all that was good, and they would not destroy them; but everything that was vile and nought worth, that they destroyed.

10 ¶ Then came the word of the Lord unto Samuel, saying,

11 It <sup>1</sup>repenteth me that I have made Saul King; for he is turned from me, and hath not performed my commandments. And Samuel was moved, and cried unto the Lord all night.

12 And when Samuel arose early to meet Saul in the morning, one told Samuel, saying, Saul is gone to Carmel; and behold, he hath made him there a place, from whence he returned, and departed, and is gone down to Gilgal.

13 ¶ Then Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said unto him. Blessed be thou of the Lord, I have fulfilled the <sup>1</sup>commandment of the Lord.

14 But Samuel said, What meaneth then the bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?

15 And Saul answered, They have brought them from the Amalekites; for the people spared the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, to sacrifice them unto the Lord thy God, and the remnant have we destroyed.

16 Again Samuel said to Saul, Let me tell thee what the Lord hath said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on.

17 Then Samuel said, When thou wast <sup>1</sup>little in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel? for the Lord anointed thee King over Israel.

18 And the Lord sent thee on a journey, and said, Go, and destroy those sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them, until thou destroy them.

19 Now wherefore hast thou not obeyed the voice of the Lord, but hast turned to the prey, and hast done wickedly in the sight of the Lord?

Matt. 12:7

20 And Saul said unto Samuel, Yea, <sup>1</sup>I have obeyed the voice of the Lord, and have gone the way which the Lord sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have destroyed the Amalekites.

21 But the people took of the spoil, sheep, and oxen, and the chiefest of the things which should have been destroyed, to offer unto the Lord thy God in Gilgal.

22 And Samuel said, Hath the Lord as great pleasure in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as when the voice of the Lord is obeyed? behold, <sup>2</sup>to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken is better than the fat of rams.

23 For <sup>1</sup>rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and transgression is wickedness and idolatry. Because thou hast cast away the word of the Lord, therefore he hath cast away thee from being king.

24 Then Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned: for I have transgressed the Commandment of the Lord, and thy words, because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice.

25 Now therefore I pray thee, take away my <sup>1</sup>sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship the Lord.

26 But Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee: for thou hast cast away the word of the Lord, and the Lord hath cast away thee, that thou shalt not be King over Israel.

27 And as Samuel turned himself to go away, he caught the lap of his coat, and it rent.

28 Then Samuel said unto him, The Lord hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to thy <sup>1</sup>neighbor, that is better than thou.

29 For indeed the <sup>1</sup>strength of Israel will not lie nor repent: for he is not a man that he should repent.

30 Then he said, I have sinned: but honor me, I pray thee, before the Elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship the Lord thy God.

31 ¶ So Samuel turned again, and followed Saul: and Saul worshipped the Lord.

32 Then said Samuel, Bring ye hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites: and Agag came unto him <sup>1</sup>pleasantly, and Agag said, Truly the <sup>2</sup>bitterness of death is passed.

15:11 <sup>1</sup> God in his eternal counsel never changeth nor repenteth, as verse 29, though he seemeth to us to repent when anything goeth contrary to his temporal election.

15:13 <sup>1</sup> This is the nature of hypocrites to be impudent against the truth, to condemn others, and justify themselves.

15:17 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, of base condition, as 1 Sam. 9:21.

15:20 <sup>1</sup> He standeth most impudently in his own defense both against God and his own conscience.

15:23 <sup>1</sup> God hateth nothing more than the disobedience of his Commandment, though the intent seems never so good to man.

15:25 <sup>1</sup> This was not true repentance, but dissimulation, fearing the loss of his kingdom.

15:28 <sup>1</sup> That is, to David.

15:29 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, God, who maintaineth and prefereth his.

15:32 <sup>1</sup> Or, in bonds.

<sup>2</sup> He suspected nothing less than death, or as some write, he passed not for death.

33 And Samuel said, <sup>d</sup>As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among other women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the Lord in Gilgal.

34 ¶ So Samuel departed to <sup>1</sup>Ramah, and Saul went up to his house to Gibeah of Saul.

35 And Samuel came no more to <sup>1</sup>see Saul until the day of his death: but Samuel mourned for Saul, and the Lord <sup>2</sup>repented that he made Saul King over Israel.

1 The Lord then said unto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, <sup>1</sup>seeing I have cast him away from reigning over Israel? fill thine horn with oil and come, I will send thee to Jesse the Bethlehemite: for I have provided me a King among his sons.

2 And Samuel said, How can I go? for if Saul shall hear it, he will kill me. Then the Lord answered, Take an heifer <sup>1</sup>with thee, and say, I am come <sup>2</sup>to do sacrifice to the Lord.

3 And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show thee what thou shalt do, and thou shalt anoint unto me him whom I name unto thee.

4 So Samuel did that the Lord bade him, and came to Bethlehem, and the elders of the town were <sup>1</sup>astonished at his coming, and said, Comest thou peaceably?

5 And he answered, Yea: I am come to do sacrifice unto the Lord: sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

6 And when they were come, he looked on Eliab, and said, Surely the Lord's <sup>1</sup>Anointed is before him.

7 But the Lord said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, nor on the height of his stature, because I have refused him: for God seeth not as man seeth: for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord beholdeth the <sup>4</sup>heart.

8 Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him come before Samuel. And he said, Neither hath the Lord chosen this.

9 Then Jesse made Shammah come. And he said, Neither yet hath the Lord chosen him.

10 Again Jesse made his seven sons to come before Samuel, and Samuel said unto Jesse, The Lord hath chosen none of these.

11 Finally, Samuel said unto Jesse, <sup>1</sup>Are there no more children but these? And he said, There remaineth yet a little one behind, that keepeth the sheep. Then Samuel said unto Jesse, <sup>4</sup>Send and fet him: for we will not sit down, till he be come hither.

12 And he sent, and brought him in: and he was ruddy, and of a good countenance, and comely visage. And the Lord said, Arise, and anoint him: for this is he.

13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren. And the <sup>4</sup>Spirit of the Lord <sup>1</sup>came upon David, from that day forward: then Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

14 ¶ But the Spirit of the Lord departed from Saul, and an <sup>1</sup>evil spirit sent of the Lord, vexed him.

15 And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, the evil spirit of God vexeth thee.

16 Let our Lord therefore command thy servants that are before thee, to seek a man that is a cunning player upon the harp: that when the evil spirit of God cometh upon thee, he may play with his hand, and thou mayest be eased.

17 Saul then said unto his servants, Provide me a man, I pray you, that can play well, and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of his servants, and said, Behold, I have seen a <sup>1</sup>son of Jesse, a Bethlehemite, that can play, and is strong, valiant, and a man of war, and wise in matters, and a comely person, and the Lord is with him.

19 ¶ Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy son, which is with the sheep.

20 And Jesse took an ass laden with bread and a flagon of wine and a kid, and sent them by the hand of David his son unto Saul.

21 And David came to Saul, and <sup>1</sup>stood before him: and he loved him very well, and he was his armor bearer.

22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David now

23 And so when the evil spirit of God came upon Saul, David took an harp and played with his hand, and Saul was <sup>1</sup>refreshed and was eased: for the evil spirit departed from him.

1 Now the Philistines gathered their armies to battle, and came together to Sochoh which is in Judah, and pitched between Sochoh and Azekah, <sup>1</sup>in the coast of Dammim.

2 And Saul, and the men of Israel assembled and pitched in the valley <sup>1</sup>of Elah, and put themselves in battle array to meet the Philistines.

3 And the Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: so a valley was between them.

4 ¶ Then came a man between them <sup>1</sup>both out of the tents of the Philistines, named Goliath of Gath: his height was six cubits and an hand breadth,

5 And had an helmet of brass upon his head, and a <sup>1</sup>brigandine upon him: and the weight of his brigandine was five thousand <sup>2</sup>shekels of brass.

6 And he had <sup>1</sup>boots of brass upon his legs, and a shield of brass upon his shoulders.

7 And the shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam: and his spear head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and one bearing a shield went before him.

8 And he stood, and cried against the host of Israel, and said unto them, Why are ye come to set your battle in array? am not I a Philistine, and you servants to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me.

9 If he be able to fight with me, and <sup>1</sup>kill me, then will we be your servants: but if I overcome him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us.

10 Also the Philistine said, I defy the host of Israel this day: give me a man, that we may fight <sup>1</sup>together.

11 When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were discouraged, and greatly afraid.

12 ¶ Now this David was the <sup>a</sup>son of an Ephrathite of Bethlehem Judah, named Jesse, which had eight sons: and <sup>1</sup>this man was taken for an old man in the days of Saul.

13 And the three eldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to battle were Eliab the eldest, and the next Abinadab, and the third Shammah.

14 So David was the least: and the three eldest went after Saul.

15 David also <sup>1</sup>went, but he returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep in Bethlehem.

16 And the Philistine drew near in the morning, and evening, and continued forty days.

17 And Jesse said unto David his son, <sup>1</sup>Take now for thy brethren an Ephah of this parched corn, and these ten cakes, and run to the host to thy brethren.

18 Also carry these ten fresh cheeses unto the captain, and look how thy brethren fare, and receive their <sup>1</sup>pledge.

19 (Then Saul and they, and all the men of Israel were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.)

20 ¶ So David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took and went as Jesse had commanded him, and came within the compass of the host: and the host went out in array, and shouted in the battle.

21 For Israel and the Philistines had put themselves in array, army against army.

22 And David left the things which he bare, under the hands of the keeper of the <sup>1</sup>carriage, and ran into the host, and came, and asked his brethren <sup>2</sup>how they did.

23 And as he talked with them, behold, the man that was between the two armies, came up, (whose name was Goliath the Philistine of Gath) out of the <sup>1</sup>army of the Philistines, and spake <sup>2</sup>such words, and David heard them.

24 And all the men of Israel when they saw the man, ran away from him, and were sore afraid.

25 For every man of Israel said, Saw ye not this man that cometh up? even to revile Israel is he come up: and to him that killeth him, will the King give great riches, and will give him his <sup>b</sup>daughter, yea, and 26 ¶ Then David spake to the men that stood with him, and said, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the <sup>1</sup>shame from Israel? for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should revile the host of the living God?

27 And the people answered him after this manner, saying, Thus shall it be done to the man that killeth him.

28 And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake unto the men, and Eliab was very angry with David, and said, Why camest thou down hither? and with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy pride and the malice of thine heart, that thou art come down to see the battle.

29 Then David said, What have I now done? Is there not a <sup>1</sup>cause?

30 And he departed from him into the presence of another, and spake of the same manner, and the people answered him according to the former words.

31 ¶ And they that heard the words which David spake, rehearsed them before Saul, which caused him to be brought.

32 So David said to Saul, Let no man's heart fail him, because of him: thy servant will go, and fight with this Philistine.

33 And Saul said to David, Thou art not <sup>1</sup>able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art a boy, and he is a man of war from his youth.

34 And David answered unto Saul, Thy servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a <sup>1</sup>lion, and likewise a bear, and took a sheep out of the flock, 35 And I went out after him and smote him, and took it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by the beard, and smote him, and slew him.

36 So thy servant slew both the lion, and the bear: therefore this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath railed on the host of the living God.

37 ¶ Moreover David said, The Lord that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. Then Saul said unto David, <sup>1</sup>Go, and the Lord be with thee.

38 And Saul put his raiment upon David, and put an helmet of brass upon his head, and put a brigandine upon him.

39 Then girded David his sword upon his raiment, and <sup>1</sup>began to go: for he never proved it: and David said unto Saul, I can not go with these: for I am not accustomed. Wherefore David put them off him.

40 Then took he his <sup>1</sup>staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of a brook, and put them in his shepherd's bag or scrip, and his sling was in his hand, and he drew near to the Philistine.

41 ¶ And the Philistine came and drew near unto David, and the man that bare the shield went before him.

42 Now when the Philistine looked about and saw David, he disdained him: for he was but young, ruddy, and of a comely face.

43 And the Philistine said unto David, Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves? And the Philistine <sup>1</sup>cursed David by his gods.

44 And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the field.

45 ¶ Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield, but I come to thee in the Name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the host of Israel, whom thou hast railed upon.

46 This <sup>1</sup>day shall the Lord close thee in mine hand, and I shall smite thee, and take thine head from thee, and I will give the carcasses of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth, that all the world may know that Israel hath a God,

47 And that all this assembly may know, that the Lord saveth not with sword nor with spear, (for the battle is the Lord's) and he will give you into our hands.

48 And when the Philistine arose to come and draw near unto David, David <sup>1</sup>hasted and ran to fight against the Philistine.

49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took out a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sticked in his forehead, and he fell groveling to the earth.

50 So David overcame the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him, when David had no sword in his hand.

17:33 <sup>1</sup> Here Satan proveth David's faith, by the infidelity of Saul.

51 Then David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword and drew it out of his sheath, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. So when the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Israel and Judah arose, and shouted, and followed after the Philistines, until they came to the <sup>1</sup>valley, and unto the gates of Ekron: and the Philistines fell down wounded by the way of Shaaraim, even to Gath and to Ekron.

53 And the children of Israel returned from pursuing the Philistines, and spoiled their tents.

54 And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem, and put his armor in his <sup>1</sup>tent.

55 ¶ When Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said unto Abner the captain of his host, Abner, <sup>1</sup>whose son is this young man? and Abner answered, As thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell.

56 Then the King said, Inquire thou whose son this young man is.

57 And when David was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, then Abner took him and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

58 And Saul said to him, Whose son art thou, thou young man? And David answered, I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Bethlehemite.

2 And Saul took him that day, and would not let him return to his father's house.

3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant: for he loved him as his own soul.

4 And Jonathan put off the robe that was upon him, and gave it David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle.

5 And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and behaved himself <sup>1</sup>wisely: so that Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

6 ¶ When they came again, and David returned from the slaughter of the <sup>1</sup>Philistine, the women came out of all cities of Israel singing and dancing to meet king Saul, with timbrels, with instruments of joy, and with rebecks.

7 And the women <sup>1</sup>sang by course in their play, and said, <sup>a</sup>Saul hath slain his thousand, and David his ten thousand.

8 Therefore Saul was exceedingly wroth, and the saying displeased him, and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousand, and to me they have ascribed but a thousand, and what can he have more save the kingdom?

9 Wherefore Saul <sup>1</sup>had an eye on David from that day forward.

10 ¶ And on the morrow, the evil spirit of God came upon Saul, and he <sup>1</sup>prophesied in the midst of the house: and David played with his hand like as at other times, and there was a spear in Saul's hand.

11 And Saul took the spear, and said, I will smite David through to the wall. But David avoided twice out of his presence.

12 And Saul was afraid of David, because the Lord was with him, and was departed from Saul.

13 Therefore Saul put him from him, and made him a captain over a thousand, and he went <sup>1</sup>out and in before the people.

14 And David behaved himself wisely in all his ways: for the Lord was with him.

15 Wherefore when Saul saw that he was very wise, he was afraid of him.

16 For all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and in before them.

17 ¶ Then Saul said to David, Behold mine eldest daughter Merab, her I will give thee to wife: only be a valiant son unto me, and <sup>1</sup>fight the Lord's battles: for Saul thought, Mine hand shall not be upon him, but the hand of the Philistines shall be upon him.

18 And David answered Saul, What am I? and what is my life, or the family of my father in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the King?

19 Howbeit when Merab Saul's daughter should have been given to David, <sup>1</sup>she was given unto Adriel

17:55 <sup>1</sup> That is, of what family and tribe is he? or else he had forgotten David, albeit he had received so great a benefit by him.

18:1 <sup>1</sup> His affection was fully bent toward him.

18:5 <sup>1</sup> That is, he prospered in all his doings.

18:7 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, answered, playing.

18:9 <sup>1</sup> Because he bare him envy and hatred.

18:10 <sup>1</sup> That is, spake as a man beside himself: for so the people abused this word, when they could not understand.

a Meholathite to wife.

20 ¶ Then Michal Saul's daughter loved David: and they showed Saul, and the thing pleased him.

21 Therefore Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be a <sup>1</sup>snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, Thou shalt this day be my son-in-law in the one of the twain.

22 And Saul commanded his servants, Speak with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath a favor to thee, and all his servants love thee: be now therefore the King's son-in-law.

23 And Saul's servants spake these words in the ears of David. And David said, <sup>1</sup>Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a king's son-in-law, seeing that I am a poor man and of small reputation?

24 And then Saul's servants brought him word again, saying, Such words spake David.

25 And Saul said, This wise shall ye say to David, The king desireth no dowry, but an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the King's enemies: for Saul thought to make David fall into the hands of the Philistines.

26 And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well, to be the <sup>1</sup>King's son-in-law: and the days were not expired.

27 Afterward David arose with his men, and went and slew of the Philistines two hundred men: and David brought their foreskins, and <sup>1</sup>they gave them wholly to the King that he might be the King's son-in-law: therefore Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife.

28 Then Saul saw, and understood that the Lord was with David, and that Michal the daughter of Saul loved him.

29 Then Saul was more and more afraid <sup>1</sup>of David, and Saul became always David's enemy.

30 And when the Princes of the Philistines went forth, at their going forth <sup>1</sup>David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul, so that his name was much set by.

1 Then Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should <sup>1</sup>kill David: but Jonathan Saul's son had a great favor to David.

2 And Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father goeth about to slay thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed unto thyself unto the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thyself.

3 And I will go out and stand by my father in the field where thou <sup>1</sup>art, and will commune with my father of thee, and I will see what he saith, and will tell thee.

4 ¶ And Jonathan spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king sin against his servant, against David: for he hath not sinned against thee, but his works have been to thee very good.

5 For he <sup>1</sup>did <sup>a</sup>put his life in danger, and slew the Philistine, and the Lord wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest it, and thou rejoicest: wherefore then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, and slay David without a cause?

6 Then Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan, and Saul <sup>1</sup>swore, As the Lord liveth, he shall not die.

7 So Jonathan called David, and Jonathan showed him all those words, and Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as in times past.

8 ¶ Again the war began, and David went out and fought with the Philistines, and slew them with a great slaughter, and they fled from him.

9 ¶ And the evil spirit of the Lord was upon Saul, as he sat in his house having his spear in his hand, and David <sup>1</sup>played with his hand.

10 And Saul intended to smite David to the wall with the spear: but he turned aside out of Saul's presence, and he smote the spear against the wall: but David fled, and escaped the same night.

11 Saul also sent messengers unto David's house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal David's wife told it him, saying, If thou save not thyself this night, tomorrow thou shalt be slain.

12 So Michal <sup>1</sup>let David down through a window: and he went, and fled, and escaped.

13 Then Michal took an image, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow stuffed with goat's hair under 18:21 <sup>1</sup> So his hypocrisy appeareth: for under pretence of favor he sought his destruction.

18:23 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, that he was not able to endow his wife with riches.

18:26 <sup>1</sup> Because he thought himself able to compass the King's request.

18:27 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, David and his soldiers.

18:29 <sup>1</sup> To be deprived of his kingdom.

18:30 <sup>1</sup> That is, David had better success against the Philistines than Saul's men.

19:1 <sup>1</sup> Before Saul sought David's life secretly, but now his hypocrisy bursteth to open cruelty.

19:3 <sup>1</sup> That I may give thee warning what to do.

19:5 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, he put his soul in his hand.

19:6 <sup>1</sup> Whatsoever he pretended outwardly, yet his heart was full of malice.

19:9 <sup>1</sup> He played on his harp to mitigate the rage of the evil spirit, as 1 Sam. 16:23.

19:12 <sup>1</sup> Thus God moved both the son and daughter of this tyrant to favor David against their father.

the head of it, and covered it with a cloth.

14 And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sick.

15 And Saul sent the messengers again to see David, saying, Bring him to me in the <sup>1</sup>bed, that I may slay him.

16 And when the messengers were come in, behold, an image was in the bed with a pillow of goat's hair under the head of it.

17 And Saul said unto Michal, Why hast thou mocked me so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said unto me, Let me go, or else I will kill thee.

18 ¶ So David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him: and he and Samuel went and dwelt in <sup>1</sup>Naioth.

19 But one told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah.

20 And Saul sent messengers to take David, and when they saw a company of Prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing <sup>1</sup>as appointed over them, the Spirit of God fell upon the messengers of Saul, and they also <sup>2</sup>prophesied.

21 And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise: again Saul sent the third messengers, and they prophesied also.

22 Then went he himself to Ramah, and came to a great well that is in Sechu, and he asked, and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold, they be at Naioth in Ramah.

23 And he <sup>1</sup>went thither, even to Naioth in Ramah, and the Spirit of God came upon him also, and he went prophesying until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

24 And he stripped off his <sup>1</sup>clothes, and he prophesied also before Samuel, and fell <sup>2</sup>down naked all that day and all that night: therefore they say, <sup>3</sup>Is Saul also among the Prophets?

1 And David <sup>1</sup>fled from Naioth in Ramah, and

<sup>b</sup> 1 Sam. 10:11

came and said before Jonathan, What have I done? what is mine iniquity? and what sin have I committed before thy father, that he seeketh my life?

2 And he said unto him, God forbid, thou shalt not die: behold, my father will do nothing great nor small, but he will <sup>1</sup>show it me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? he will not do it.

3 And David swore again and said, Thy father knoweth that I have found grace in thine eyes: therefore he thinketh, Jonathan shall not know it, lest he be sorry: but indeed, and the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, there is but a <sup>1</sup>step between me and death.

4 Then said Jonathan unto David, Whatsoever thy soul <sup>1</sup>requireth, that I will do unto thee.

5 And David said unto Jonathan, Behold, tomorrow is the <sup>1</sup>first day of the month, and I should sit with the king at meat: but let me go, that I may hide myself in the fields unto the third day at even.

6 If thy father make mention of me, then say, David asked leave of me, that he might go to Bethlehem to his own city: for there is a <sup>1</sup>yearly sacrifice for all that family.

7 And if he say thus, It is well, thy servant shall have peace: but if he be angry, be sure that wickedness is concluded of him.

8 So shalt thou show mercy unto thy servant: for thou hast joined thy servant into a covenant of the Lord with thee, and if there be in me iniquity, slay thou me? for why shouldst thou bring me to thy father?

9 ¶ And Jonathan answered, God keep that from thee: for if I knew that wickedness were <sup>1</sup>concluded of my father to come upon thee, would not I tell it thee?

10 Then said David to Jonathan, Who <sup>1</sup>shall tell me? how shall I know, if thy father answer thee cruelly?

11 And Jonathan said to David, Come and let us go out into the field: and they twain went out into the field.

12 Then Jonathan said to David, O Lord God of Israel, when I have groped my father's mind tomorrow at this time, or within this three days, and if it be well with David, and I then send not unto thee, and show it thee,

13 The Lord <sup>1</sup>do so and much more unto Jonathan:

19:15 <sup>1</sup> Behold, how the tyrants to accomplish their rage, neither regard oath nor friendship, God nor man.

19:18 <sup>1</sup> Naioth was a school where the word of God was studieth, near to Ramah.

19:23 <sup>1</sup> With a mind to persecute them.

20:1 <sup>1</sup> For Saul was stayed, and prophesied a day and a night by God's providence, that David might have time to escape.

20:2 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, reveal it in mine ear.

20:3 <sup>1</sup> I am in great danger of death.

20:4 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, saieth.

20:5 <sup>1</sup> At what time there should be a solemn sacrifice, Num. 28:11, to the which they added peace offerings and feasts.

20:6 <sup>1</sup> Read 1 Sam. 1:21.

20:9 <sup>1</sup> That he were fully determined.

20:10 <sup>1</sup> If thy father do favor me.

20:13 <sup>1</sup> The Lord punish me most grievously.

but if my father have mind to do thee evil, I will show thee also, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and the Lord be with thee as he hath been with my father.

14 Likewise I require not whiles I live: for I doubt not but thou wilt show me the mercy of the Lord, <sup>1</sup>that I die not.

15 But I require that thou cut not off thy mercy from mine house forever: no, not when the Lord hath destroyed the enemies of David, every one from the earth.

16 So Jonathan made a bond with the house of David, saying, Let the Lord require it at the hands of David's enemies.

17 And again Jonathan swore unto David, because he loved him (for he loved him as his own soul,)

18 Then said Jonathan to him, Tomorrow is the first day of the month: and thou shalt be <sup>1</sup>looked for, for thy place shall be empty.

19 Therefore thou shalt hide thyself three days, then thou shalt go down quickly and come to the place where thou didst hide thyself, when this matter was in hand, and shalt remain by the stone <sup>1</sup>Ezel.

20 And I will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I shot at a mark.

21 And after I will send a boy, saying, Go, seek the arrows. If I say unto the boy, See, the arrows are on this side thee, bring them, and come thou: for it is <sup>1</sup>well with thee, and no hurt, as the Lord liveth.

22 But if I say thus unto the boy, Behold, the arrows are beyond thee, go thy way: for the <sup>1</sup>Lord hath sent thee away.

23 As touching the thing which thou and I have spoken of, behold, the Lord be between thee and me forever.

24 ¶ So David hid himself in the field: and when the first day of the month came, the king sat to eat meat.

25 And the king sat, as at other times upon his seat, even upon his seat by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, but David's place was empty.

26 And Saul said nothing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him, though he were <sup>1</sup>clean, or else because he was not purified.

27 But on the morrow which was the second day of the month, David's place was empty again: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore cometh not <sup>1</sup>the son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday nor today?

28 And Jonathan answered unto Saul, David required of me, that he might go to Bethlehem.

29 For he said, Let me go, I pray thee: for our family offereth <sup>1</sup>a sacrifice in the city, and my brother hath sent for me: therefore now, if I have found favor in thine eyes, let me go, I pray thee, and see my <sup>2</sup>brethren: this is the cause that he cometh not unto the king's table.

30 Then was Saul angry with Jonathan, and said unto him, Thou <sup>1</sup>son of the wicked rebellious woman, do not I know, that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thy confusion, and to the confusion and shame of thy mother?

31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the earth, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom: wherefore now send and fet him unto me, for he <sup>1</sup>shall surely die.

32 And Jonathan answered unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Wherefore shall he <sup>1</sup>die? what hath he done?

33 And Saul cast a spear at him to hit him, whereby Jonathan knew, that it was determined of his father to slay David.

34 ¶ So Jonathan arose from the table in a great anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was sorry for David, and because his father had reviled him.

35 On the next morning therefore Jonathan went out into the field, <sup>1</sup>at the time appointed with David, and a little boy with him.

36 And he said unto his boy, Run now, seek the arrows which I shoot, and as the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

37 And when the boy was come to the place where the arrow was that Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the boy, and said, Is not the arrow beyond thee?

38 And Jonathan cried after the boy, <sup>1</sup>Make speed, haste and stand not still: and Jonathan's boy gathered up the arrows, and came to his master, 39 But the boy knew nothing: only Jonathan and David knew the matter.

40 Then Jonathan gave his <sup>1</sup>bow and arrows unto the boy that was with him, and said unto him, Go,

20:14 <sup>1</sup> I know that if thou werest now preferred to the Kingdom, thou woudest not destroy me, but show thyself friendly to my posterity.

20:18 <sup>1</sup> Or, mentioned.

20:19 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, of the way, because it served as a sign to show the way to them that passed by.

20:21 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, peace.

20:26 <sup>1</sup> Yet he might have some business to let him.

20:27 <sup>1</sup> Thus he speaketh contemptuously of David.

20:29 <sup>1</sup> That is, a peace offering.

<sup>2</sup> Meaning, all his kinsfolk.

20:30 <sup>1</sup> Thou art ever contrary unto me as thy mother is.

20:31 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, son of death.

20:32 <sup>1</sup> For it were too great tyranny to put one to death and not to show the cause why.

20:35 <sup>1</sup> For this was the third day, as it was agreed upon, verse 5.

20:38 <sup>1</sup> By these words he admonished David what he ought to do.

carry them into the city.

41 ¶ As soon as the boy was gone, David arose out of a place that was toward the <sup>1</sup>South, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: and they kissed one another, and wept both twain, till David exceeded.

42 Therefore Jonathan said to David, Go in peace: that which we have <sup>1</sup>sworn both of us in the name of the Lord, saying, The Lord be between me and thee, and between my seed and between thy seed, let it stand forever.

43 And he arose and departed, and Jonathan went into the city.

21 1 David fleeth to Nob to Ahimelech the Priest. 6 He getteth of him the showbread to satisfy his hunger. 7 Doeg Saul's servant was present. 10 David fleeth to King Achish. 13 and there feigneth himself mad.

1 Then came David to <sup>1</sup>Nob, to Ahimelech the Priest, and Ahimelech was astonished at the meeting of David, and said unto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee?

2 And David said to Ahimelech the Priest, The <sup>1</sup>King hath commanded me a certain thing, and hath said unto me, Let no man know whereabout I send thee, and what I have commanded thee: and I have appointed my servants to such and such places.

3 Now therefore if thou hast ought under thine hand, give me five cakes of bread, or what cometh to hand.

4 And the Priest answered David, and said, There is no common bread under mine hand, but here is <sup>1</sup>hallowed bread, if the young men have kept themselves, at least from <sup>1</sup>women.

5 David then answered the Priest, and said unto him, Certainly women have been separate from us these two or three days since I came out: and the <sup>1</sup>vessels of the young men were holy, though the way were profane, and how much more then shall every one <sup>2</sup>be sanctified this day in the vessel?

6 So the Priest gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there, save the showbread that was taken from before the Lord, to put hot bread there, the day that it was taken away.

7 (And there was the same day one of the servants

8 And David said unto Ahimelech, Is there not here under thine hand a spear or a sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor mine harness with me, because the king's business required haste.

9 And the Priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in the <sup>b</sup>valley of Elah, behold, it is wrapped in a cloth behind the <sup>1</sup>Ephod: if thou wilt take that to thee, take it: for there is none other save that here: And David said, There is none to that, give it me.

10 And David arose and fled the same day from the <sup>1</sup>presence of Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath.

11 And the servants of Achish said unto him, Is not this David the <sup>1</sup>King of the land? did they not sing unto him in dances, saying, <sup>d</sup>Saul hath slain his thousand, and David his ten thousand?

12 And David <sup>1</sup>considered these words, and was sore afraid of Achish the king of Gath.

13 And he changed his behavior before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and <sup>1</sup>scrabbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard.

14 Then said Achish unto his servants, Lo, ye see the man is beside himself, wherefore have ye brought him to me?

15 Have I need of mad men, that ye have brought this fellow to play the mad man in my presence? <sup>1</sup>shall he come into mine house?

22 1 David hideth himself in a cave. 2 Many that were in trouble came unto him. 9 Doeg accuseth Ahimelech. 18 Saul causeth the Priests to be slain. 20 Abiathar escapeth.

1 David therefore departed thence, and saved himself in the cave <sup>1</sup>of Adullam: and when his brethren and all his father's house heard it, they went down thither to him.

2 And there gathered unto him all men that were in trouble, and all men that were in debt, and all those that were vexed in mind, and he was their <sup>1</sup>prince, and there were with him about four hundred men.

3 ¶ And David went thence to Mizpah in <sup>1</sup>Moab,

21:15 <sup>1</sup> Is he meet to be in a king's house?

22:1 <sup>1</sup> Which was in the tribe of Judah, and near to Bethlehem.

22:2 <sup>1</sup> Or, captain.

22:3 <sup>1</sup> For there was another so called in Judah.

and said unto the King of Moab, I pray thee, let my father and my mother come and abide with you, till I know what God will do for me.

4 And he <sup>1</sup>brought them before the King of Moab, and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in <sup>2</sup>the hold.

5 And the Prophet Gad said unto David, Abide not in the hold, but depart and go into the land of Judah. Then David departed and came into the forest of Hereth.

6 ¶ And Saul heard that David was <sup>1</sup>discovered, and the men that were with him, and Saul remained in Gibeah under a tree in Ramah, having his spear in his hand, and all his servants stood about him.

7 And Saul said unto his servants that stood about him, Hear now, the sons <sup>1</sup>of Benjamin, will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards: will he make you all captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds:

8 That all ye have conspired against me, and there is none that telleth me that my son hath made a covenant with the son of Jesse? and there is none of you that is sorry for me, or showeth me, that my <sup>1</sup>son hath stirred up my servant to lie in wait against me, as appeareth this day?

9 ¶ Then answered Doeg the Edomite, (who was appointed over the servants of Saul) and said, I saw the son of Jesse, when he came to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub,

10 Who asked counsel of the Lord for him, and gave him victuals, and he gave him also the sword of Goliath the Philistine.

11 Then the King sent to call Ahimelech the Priest the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, to wit, <sup>1</sup>the Priests that were in Nob: and they came all to the King.

12 And Saul said, Hear now thou son of Ahitub. And he answered, Here I am, my lord.

13 Then Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him victual, and a sword, and hast asked counsel of God for him, that he should rise against me, and lie in wait as appeareth this day?

14 And Ahimelech answered the King, and said, Who is so faithful among all thy servants as David, being also the king's son-in-law, and goeth at thy commandment, and is honorable in thine house?

15 <sup>1</sup>Have I this day first begun to ask counsel of God for him? be it far from me, let not the king impute anything unto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, less nor more.

16 Then the King said, Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy father's house.

17 And the King said unto the <sup>1</sup>sergeants that stood about him, Turn, and slay the Priests of the Lord, because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and showed it not unto me. But the servants of the King <sup>2</sup>would not move their hands to fall upon the Priests of the Lord.

18 Then the King said to Doeg, Turn thou and fall upon the Priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and ran upon the Priests, and slew that same day fourscore and five persons, that did wear a linen Ephod.

19 Also Nob the city of the Priests smote he with the edge of the sword, both man and woman, both child and suckling, both ox and ass, and sheep with the edge of the sword.

20 But one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub (whose name was Abiathar) <sup>1</sup>escaped and fled after David.

21 And Abiathar showed David, that Saul had slain the Lord's Priests.

22 And David said unto Abiathar, I knew it the same day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would tell Saul. I am the cause of the death of all the persons of thy father's house.

23 Abide thou with me, and fear not: for <sup>1</sup>he that seeketh my life, shall seek thy life also: for with me thou shalt be in safeguard.

1 Then they told David, saying, Behold, the Philistines fight against <sup>1</sup>Keilah, and spoil the barns.

2 Therefore David asked counsel of the Lord, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And the Lord answered David, Go and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah.

22:4 <sup>1</sup> For he feared the rage of Saul against his house.

<sup>2</sup> That is, in Mizpah, which was a stronghold.

22:6 <sup>1</sup> That a great brute went on him.

22:7 <sup>1</sup> Ye that are of my tribe and lineage.

22:8 <sup>1</sup> Hereby he would persuade them that this conspiracy was most horrible, where the son conspired against the father, and the servant against his master.

22:11 <sup>1</sup> Which were the remnant of the house of Eli, whose house God threatened to punish.

22:15 <sup>1</sup> Have I not at other times also, when he had great affairs, consulted with the Lord for him?

22:17 <sup>1</sup> Or, footmen.

<sup>2</sup> For they knew that they ought not to obey the wicked commandment of the king in slaying the innocents.

22:20 <sup>1</sup> This was God's providence, who according to his promise preserved some of the house of Eli, 1 Sam. 2:33.

3 And David's men said unto him, See, we be afraid here in <sup>1</sup>Judah, how much more if we come to Keilah against the host of the Philistines?

4 Then David asked counsel of the Lord again. And the Lord answered him, and said, Arise, go down to Keilah: for I will deliver the Philistines into thine hand.

5 ¶ So David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and smote them with a great slaughter: thus David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

7 ¶ And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah, and Saul said, God hath delivered him into mine hand: for he is shut in, seeing he is come into a city that hath gates and bars.

8 Then Saul called all the people together to war for to go down to Keilah, and to besiege David and his men.

9 ¶ And David having knowledge that Saul imagined mischief against him, said to Abiathar the Priest, <sup>1</sup>Bring the Ephod.

10 Then said David, O Lord God of Israel, thy servant hath heard, that Saul is about to come to Keilah to destroy the city for my sake.

11 Will the lords of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? and will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O Lord God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And the Lord said, He will come down.

12 Then said David, Will the <sup>1</sup>lords of Keilah deliver me up, and the men that are with me, into the hand of Saul? And the Lord said, They will deliver thee up.

13 ¶ Then David and his men, which were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went <sup>1</sup>whither they could. And it was told Saul, that David was fled from Keilah, and he left off his journey.

14 And David abode in the wilderness in the <sup>1</sup>holds, and remained in a mountain in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God <sup>2</sup>delivered him not into his hand.

CHAPTER 23

* 1 Sam. 22:20

15 And David saw that Saul was come out for to seek his life: and David was in the wilderness of Ziph in the wood.

16 ¶ And Jonathan Saul's son arose and went to David into the wood, and comforted <sup>1</sup>him in God,

17 And said unto him, Fear not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not find thee, and thou shalt be <sup>1</sup>king over Israel, and I shall be next unto thee: and also Saul my father knoweth it.

18 So they twain made a covenant before the Lord: and David did remain in the wood: but Jonathan went to his house.

19 ¶ Then came up the Ziphites to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself by us in holds, in the wood in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the right side <sup>1</sup>of Jeshimon?

20 Now therefore, O king, come down according to all that thine heart can desire, and our part shall be to deliver him into the King's hands.

21 Then Saul said, <sup>1</sup>Be ye blessed of the Lord: for ye have had compassion on me.

22 Go, I pray you, and prepare ye yet better: know and see his place where he <sup>1</sup>haunteth, and who hath seen him there: for it is said to me, He is subtle, and crafty.

23 See therefore and know all the secret places where he hideth himself, and come ye again to me with the certainty, and I will go with you: and if he be in the <sup>1</sup>land, I will search him out throughout all the thousands of Judah.

24 Then they arose and went to Ziph before Saul, but David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the plain on the right hand of Jeshimon.

25 Saul also and his men went to seek him, and they told David: wherefore he came down unto a rock, and abode in the wilderness of <sup>1</sup>Maon. And when Saul heard that, he followed after David in the wilderness of Maon.

26 And Saul and his men went on the one side of the mountain: and David and his men on the other side of the mountain: and David made haste to get from the presence of Saul: for Saul and his men compassed David and his men round about, to take them.

27 But there came a <sup>1</sup>messenger to Saul, saying,

23:3 <sup>1</sup> That is, in the midst of Judah, much more when we come to the borders against our enemies.

23:6 <sup>1</sup> By God's providence the Ephod was preserved and kept with David the true king.

<sup>2</sup> Hebrew, in his hand.

23:12 <sup>1</sup> Or, governors.

23:13 <sup>1</sup> Or, to and fro, as having no certain place to go.

23:14 <sup>1</sup> Or, strong places.

23:16 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, his hand.

23:17 <sup>1</sup> Jonathan assureth David, that God will accomplish his promise, and that his father striveth against his own conscience.

23:19 <sup>1</sup> Or, of the wilderness.

23:22 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, where his foot hath been.

23:23 <sup>1</sup> In your country of Ziph, which is in Judah.

23:25 <sup>1</sup> Which was also in the tribe of Judah, Josh. 15:55.

23:27 <sup>1</sup> Thus the Lord can pull back the bridle of the tyrants and deliver his out of the lion's mouth.

Haste thee, and come: for the Philistines have invaded the land.

28 Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing David, and went against the Philistines. Therefore they called that place, <sup>1</sup>Sela Hammahlekoth.

1 And David went thence, and dwelt in <sup>1</sup>holds at En Gedi.

2 When Saul was turned from the Philistines, they told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of <sup>1</sup>En Gedi.

3 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the rocks among the wild goats.

4 And he came to the sheepecotes by the way where there was a cave, and Saul went in <sup>1</sup>to do his easement: and David and his men sat in the <sup>2</sup>inward parts of the cave.

5 And the men of David said unto him, See, the day is <sup>1</sup>come, whereof the Lord said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, and thou shalt do to him as it shall seem good to thee. Then David arose and cut off the lap of Saul's garment privily.

6 And afterward David <sup>1</sup>was touched in his heart, because he had cut off the lap which was on Saul's garment.

7 And he said unto his men, The Lord keep me from doing that thing unto my master the Lord's anointed, to lay mine hand upon him: for he is the Anointed of the Lord.

8 So David overcame his servants with these words, and suffered them not to arise against Saul: for Saul rose up out of the cave and went away.

9 ¶ David also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, O my lord the King. And when Saul looked behind him, David inclined his face to the earth, and bowed himself.

10 And David said to Saul, <sup>1</sup>Wherefore givest thou an ear to men's words, that say, Behold, David seeketh evil against thee?

11 Behold, this day thine eyes have seen, that the Lord had delivered thee this day into mine hand in the cave, and some bade me kill thee, but I had compassion on thee, and said, I will not lay mine hand on my master: for he is the Lord's Anointed.

12 Moreover my father, behold: behold, I say, the lap of thy garment in mine hand: for when I cut off the lap of thy garment, I killed thee not. Understand and see, that there is neither evil nor wickedness in me, neither have I sinned against thee, yet thou huntest after my soul, to take it.

13 The Lord be judge between thee and me, and the Lord avenge me of thee, and let not mine hand be upon thee.

14 According as the <sup>1</sup>old proverb saith, Wickedness proceedeth from the wicked, but mine hand be not upon thee.

15 After whom is the king of Israel come out? after whom dost thou pursue? after a dead dog, and after a flea?

16 The Lord therefore be judge, and judge between thee and me, and see, and plead my cause, and <sup>1</sup>deliver me out of thine hand.

17 When David had made an end of speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, <sup>1</sup>Is this thy voice, my son David? and Saul lift up his voice, and wept,

18 And said to David, Thou art more righteous than I: for thou hast rendered me good, and I have rendered thee evil.

19 And thou hast showed this day, that thou hast dealt well with me: forasmuch as when the Lord had closed me in thine hands, thou killedst me not.

20 For who shall find his enemy, and let him depart <sup>1</sup>free? wherefore the Lord render thee good for that thou hast done unto me this day.

21 For now behold, I <sup>1</sup>know that thou shalt be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be stablished in thine hand.

22 Swear now therefore unto me by the Lord, that thou wilt not destroy my seed after me, and that thou wilt not abolish my name out of my father's house.

23 So David swore unto Saul, and Saul went home: but David and his men went up unto the hold.

David's wives. 44 Michal is given to Palti.

1 Then Samuel died, and all Israel assembled, and mourned for him, and buried him in his own house at Ramah. And David arose and went down to the wilderness of Paran.

2 Now in Maon was a man, who had his possession in Carmel, and the man was exceeding mighty, and had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats, and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

3 The name also of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife Abigail, and she was a woman of singular wisdom, and beautiful, but the man was churlish, and evil conditioned, and was of the family of Caleb.

4 And David heard in the wilderness, that Nabal did shear his sheep.

5 Therefore David sent ten young men, and David said unto the young men, Go up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and ask him in my name how he doeth.

6 And thus shall ye say for salutation, Both thou, and thine house, and all that thou hast, be in peace, wealth and prosperity.

7 Behold, I have heard, that thou hast shearers: now thy shepherds were with us, and we did them no hurt, neither did they miss anything all the while they were in Carmel.

8 Ask thy servants, and they will show thee. Wherefore let these young men find favor in thine eyes: (for we come in a good season) give, I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thine hand unto thy servants, and to thy son David.

9 ¶ And when David's young men came, they told Nabal all those words in the name of David, and held their peace.

10 Then Nabal answered David's servants, and said, Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there be many servants nowadays, that break away every man from his master.

11 Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give it unto men, whom I know not whence they be?

12 ¶ So David's servants turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all those things.

13 And David said unto his men, Gird every man his sword about him. And they girded every man his sword: David also girded his sword. And about four hundred men went up after David, and two hundred abode by the carriage.

*1 Sam. 28:3

14 Now one of the servants told Abigail Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master, and he railed on them.

15 Notwithstanding, the men were very good unto us, and we had no displeasure, neither missed we anything as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields.

16 They were as a wall unto us both by night and by day, all the while we were with them keeping sheep.

17 Now therefore take heed, and see what thou shalt do: for evil will surely come upon our master, and upon all his family: for he is so wicked, that a man cannot speak to him.

18 ¶ Then Abigail made haste, and took two hundred cakes, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn, and an hundred frails of raisins, and two hundred of figs, and laid them on asses.

19 Then she said unto her servants, Go ye before me: behold, I will come after you: yet she told not her husband Nabal.

20 And as she rode on her ass, she came down by a secret place of the mountain, and behold, David and his men came down against her, and she met them.

21 And David said, Indeed I have kept all in vain that this fellow had in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained unto him: for he hath required me evil for good.

22 So and more also do God unto the enemies of David: for surely I will not leave of all that he hath by the dawning of the day, any that pisseth against the wall.

23 And when Abigail saw David, she hastened and lighted off her ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, 24 And fell at his feet, and said, Oh, my lord, I have committed the iniquity, and I pray thee, let thine handmaid speak to thee, and hear thou the words of thine handmaid.

25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this wicked man, Nabal: for as his name is, so is he: Nabal is his 26 Now therefore my lord, as the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth (the Lord, I say, that hath withholden thee from coming to shed blood, and that thine <sup>1</sup>hand should not save thee) so now thine enemies shall be as Nabal, and they that intend to do my lord evil.

27 And now this <sup>1</sup>blessing which thine handmaid hath brought unto my lord, let it be given unto the young men, that <sup>2</sup>follow my lord.

28 I pray thee, forgive the trespass of thine handmaid: for the Lord will make my lord a <sup>1</sup>sure house, because my lord fighteth the battles of the Lord, and none evil hath been found in thee <sup>2</sup>in all thy life.

29 Yet <sup>1</sup>a man hath risen up to persecute thee, and to seek thy soul, but the soul of my lord shall be bound in the <sup>2</sup>bundle of life with the Lord thy God: and the soul of thine enemies shall God cast out, as out of the middle of a sling.

30 And when the Lord shall have done to my lord all the good that he hath promised thee, and shall have made thee ruler over Israel,

31 Then shall it be no grief unto thee, nor offence of mind unto my lord, that he hath not shed blood causeless, nor that my lord hath <sup>1</sup>not preserved himself: and when the Lord shall have dealt well with my lord, remember thine handmaid.

32 Then David said to Abigail, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me.

33 And blessed be thy counsel, and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from coming to shed blood, <sup>1</sup>and that mine hand hath not saved me.

34 For indeed, as the Lord God of Israel liveth, <sup>1</sup>who hath kept me back from hurting thee, except thou hadst hastened and met me, surely there had not been left unto Nabal by the dawning of the day, any that pisseth against the wall.

35 Then David received of her hand that which she had brought him, and said to her, Go up in peace to thine house: behold, I have heard thy voice, and have <sup>1</sup>granted thy petition.

36 ¶ So Abigail came to Nabal, and behold, he made a feast in his house, like the feast of a king, and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him <sup>1</sup>nothing, neither less nor more, until the morning arose.

37 Then in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, his wife told him those words, and his heart died within him, and he was like <sup>1</sup>a stone.

38 And about ten days after, the Lord smote Nabal, that he died.

39 ¶ Now when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the Lord, that hath <sup>1</sup>judged the cause of my rebuke of the hand of Nabal, and hath kept his servant from evil: for the Lord hath recompensed the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. Also David sent to commune with Abigail, to <sup>2</sup>take her to his wife.

40 And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, David sent us to thee, to take thee to his wife.

41 And she arose, and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let thine handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord.

42 And Abigail hastened, and arose, and rode upon an ass, and her five maids <sup>1</sup>followed her, and she went after the messengers of David, and was his wife.

43 David also took Ahinoam of <sup>b</sup>Jezreel, and they were both his wives.

4 (For David had sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come <sup>1</sup>in very deed.)

5 Then David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched, and when David beheld the place where Saul lay, and <sup>b</sup>Abner the son of Ner which was his chief captain, (for Saul lay in the fort, and the people pitched round about him.)

6 Then spake David, and said to Ahimelech the <sup>1</sup>Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruah, brother to <sup>2</sup>Joab, and saying, Who will go down with me to Saul to the host? Then Abishai said, I will go down with thee.

7 So David and Abishai came down to the people by night: and behold, Saul lay sleeping within the fort, and his spear did stick in the ground at his <sup>1</sup>head: and Abner and the people lay round about him.

8 ¶ Then said Abishai to David, God hath closed thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore, I pray thee, let me smite him once with a spear to the earth, and I will not smite him <sup>1</sup>again.

9 And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not: for who can lay his hand <sup>1</sup>on the Lord's anointed, and be guiltless?

10 Moreover David said, As the Lord liveth, either the Lord shall smite him, or his day shall come to die, or he shall descend into battle, and perish.

11 The Lord keep me from laying mine hand upon the Lord's anointed: but, I pray thee, take now the spear that is at his head, and the pot of water, and let us go hence.

12 So David took the spear and the pot of water from Saul's head, and they got them away, and no man saw it, nor marked it, neither did any awake, but they were all asleep: for <sup>1</sup>the Lord had sent a dead sleep upon them.

13 Then David went unto the other side, and stood on the top of an hill a far off, a great space being between them.

14 And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, <sup>1</sup>Hearst thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered, and said, Who art thou that cryest to the King?

15 ¶ And David said to Abner, Art not thou a

<sup>1</sup>man? and who is like thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy Lord the King? for there came one of the folk in to destroy the king thy lord.

16 This is not well done of thee: as the Lord liveth, ye are <sup>1</sup>worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master the Lord's anointed: and now see where the King's spear is, and the pot of water that was at his head.

17 And Saul knew David's voice, and said, Is this thy voice, <sup>1</sup>my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O King.

18 And he said, Wherefore doth my lord thus persecute his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand?

19 Now therefore, I beseech thee, let my Lord the King hear the words of his servant. If the Lord have stirred thee up against me, <sup>1</sup>let him smell the savor of a sacrifice: but if the children of men have done it, cursed be they before the Lord: for they have cast me out this day from abiding in the inheritance of the Lord, saying, Go, serve <sup>2</sup>other gods.

20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the Lord: for the King of Israel is come out to seek a flea, as one would hunt a partridge in the mountains.

21 Then said Saul, I have sinned: Come again, my son David: for I will do thee no more harm, because my soul was <sup>1</sup>precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I have done foolishly, and have erred exceedingly.

22 Then David answered, and said, Behold the King's spear, let one of the young men come over and fet it.

23 And let the Lord reward every man according to his <sup>1</sup>righteousness and faithfulness: for the Lord had delivered thee into mine hands this day, but I would not lay mine hand upon the Lord's anointed.

24 And behold, like as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes: so let my life be set by in the eyes of the Lord, that he may deliver me out of all tribulation.

25 Then Saul said to David, Blessed art thou, my son David: for thou shalt do great things, and also provide. So David went his way, and Saul returned to his <sup>1</sup>place.

2 David therefore arose, and he, and the six hundred men that were with him, went unto Achish the son of Maoch king of Gath.

3 And David <sup>1</sup>dwelt with Achish at Gath, he, and his men, every man with his household, David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelite, and Abigail Nabal's wife the Carmelite.

5 And David said unto Achish, If I have now found grace in thine eyes, <sup>1</sup>let them give me a place in some other city of the country, that I may dwell there: for why should thy servant dwell in the head city of the kingdom with thee?

6 Then Achish gave him Ziklag that same day: therefore Ziklag pertaineth unto the kings of Judah unto this day.

7 ¶ And <sup>1</sup>the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines, was four months and certain days.

8 Then David and his men went up, and invaded the <sup>1</sup>Geshurites, and the Girzites, and the Amalekites: for they inhabited the land from the beginning, from the way, as thou goest to Shur, even unto the land of Egypt.

9 And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, and took sheep, and oxen, and asses, and camels, and apparel, and returned and came to Achish.

10 And Achish said, <sup>1</sup>Where have ye been a roving this day? And David answered, Against the South of Judah, and against the South of the <sup>2</sup>Jerahmeelites, and against the South of the Kenites.

11 And David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring them to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on us, and say, So did David, and so will be his manner all the while that he dwelleth in the country of the Philistines.

CHAPTER 28

12 And Achish believed David, saying, <sup>1</sup>He hath made his people of Israel utterly to abhor him: therefore he shall be my servant forever.

28 <sup>1</sup> David hath the chief charge promised about Achish. <sup>8</sup> Saul consulteth with a witch, and she causeth him to speak with Samuel. <sup>18</sup> Who declareth his ruin.

1 Now at that time the Philistines assembled their bands and army to fight with Israel: therefore Achish said to David, <sup>1</sup>Be sure, thou shalt go out with me to the battle, thou, and thy men.

2 And David said to Achish, Surely thou shalt know what thy servant can do. And Achish said to David, Surely I will make thee keeper of mine head forever.

3 (<sup>a</sup>Samuel was then dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah his own city: and Saul had <sup>1</sup>put away the sorcerers, and the Soothsayers out of the land.)

4 Then the Philistines assembled themselves, and came and pitched in Shunem: and Saul assembled all Israel, and they pitched in Gilboa.

5 And when Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart was sore astonished.

6 Therefore Saul asked counsel of the Lord, and the Lord answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by <sup>1</sup>Urim, nor yet by Prophets.

7 ¶ Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and ask of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman at En Dor that hath a familiar spirit.

8 Then Saul <sup>1</sup>changed himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, conjecture unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up whom I shall name unto thee.

9 And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath destroyed the sorcerers, and the soothsayers out of the land: wherefore then seekest thou to take me in a snare to cause me to die?

10 And Saul swore to her by the Lord, saying, As the Lord liveth, no <sup>1</sup>harm shall come to thee for this thing.

11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he answered, Bring me up <sup>1</sup>Samuel.

12 And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice, and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul.

13 And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what sawest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I saw <sup>1</sup>gods ascending up out of the earth.

14 Then he said unto her, What fashion is he of? And she answered, An old man cometh up lapped in a mantel: and Saul knew that it was <sup>1</sup>Samuel, and he inclined his face to the ground, and bowed himself.

15 ¶ And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? Then Saul answered, I am in great distress: for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither <sup>1</sup>by Prophets, neither by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest tell me, what I shall do.

16 Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing, the Lord is gone from thee, and is thine enemy?

17 Even the Lord hath done to <sup>1</sup>him, as he spake <sup>4</sup>by mine <sup>2</sup>hand: for the Lord will rent the kingdom out of thine hand, and give it thy neighbor David.

18 Because thou obeyedst not the voice of the Lord, nor executedst his fierce wrath upon the Amalekites, therefore hath the Lord done this unto thee this day.

19 Moreover the Lord will deliver Israel with thee into the hands of the Philistines: <sup>1</sup>and tomorrow shalt thou and thy sons be with me, and the Lord shall give the host of Israel into the hands of the Philistines.

20 Then Saul fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore <sup>1</sup>afraid because of the words of Samuel, so that there was no strength in him: for he had eaten no bread all the day nor all the night.

21 Then the woman came unto Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, See, thine handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and I <sup>1</sup>have put my soul in mine hand, and have obeyed thy words which thou saidest unto me.

22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thine handmaid, and let me set a 23 But he refused and said, I will not eat: but his servants and the woman together compelled him, and he obeyed their voice: so he arose from the earth, and sat on the bed.

24 Now the woman had a fat calf in the house, and she hasted, and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and baked of it <sup>1</sup>unleavened bread.

25 Then she brought them before Saul, and before his servants: and when they had eaten, they stood up, and went away the same night.

29 <sup>4</sup> The princes of the Philistines cause David to be sent back from the battle against Israel, because they distrusted him.

1 So the Philistines were gathered together with all their armies in Aphek: and the Israelites pitched <sup>1</sup>by the fountain, which is in Jezreel.

2 And the <sup>1</sup>princes of the Philistines went forth by <sup>2</sup>hundreds and thousands, but David and his men came behind with Achish.

3 Then said the Princes of the Philistines, What do these Hebrews here? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David the servant of Saul the King of Israel, who hath been with me these days, <sup>1</sup>or these years, and I have found nothing in him, since he <sup>2</sup>dwelt with me unto this day?

4 But the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him, and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, <sup>4</sup>Send this fellow back, that he may go again to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest that in the battle he be an adversary to us: for wherewith should he obtain the favor of his master? should it not be with the <sup>1</sup>heads of these men?

5 Is not this David, of whom they sang in dances, saying, <sup>6</sup>Saul slew his thousand, and David his ten thousand?

6 ¶ Then Achish called David, and said unto him, As the Lord liveth, thou hast been upright and good in my sight, when thou <sup>1</sup>wentest out and in with me in the host, neither have I found evil with thee, since thou camest to me unto this day, but <sup>2</sup>the princes do not favor thee.

7 Wherefore now return, and go in peace, that thou displease not the princes of the Philistines.

8 ¶ And David said unto Achish, But what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant as long as I have been with thee unto this day, that I may <sup>1</sup>not go and fight against the enemies of my Lord the King?

9 Achish then answered and said to David, I know thou pleasest me as an Angel of God: but the princes of the Philistines have said, Let him not go up with us to battle.

10 Wherefore now rise up early in the morning with thy <sup>1</sup>master's servants that are come with thee: and when ye be up early, as soon as ye have light, depart.

11 So David and his men rose up early to depart in the morning, and to return into the land of the Philistines: and the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

1 But when David and his men were come to Ziklag <sup>1</sup>the third day, the Amalekites had invaded upon the South, even unto Ziklag, and had <sup>2</sup>smitten Ziklag, and burnt it with fire,

2 And had taken the women that were therein, prisoners, both small and great, and slew not a man, but carried them away, and went their ways.

3 ¶ So David and his men came to the city, and behold, it was burnt with fire, and their <sup>1</sup>wives and their sons, and their daughters were taken prisoners.

4 Then David and the people that were with him, lift up their voices and wept, until they could weep no more.

5 David's two wives were taken prisoners also, Ahinoam the Jezreelite, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And David was in great sorrow: for the people <sup>1</sup>intended to stone him, because the hearts of all the people were vexed every man for his sons and for his daughters: but David comforted himself in the Lord his God.

7 ¶ And David said to Abiathar the Priest Ahimelech's son, I pray thee, bring me the Ephod. And Abiathar brought the Ephod to David.

8 Then David asked counsel of the Lord, saying, Shall I follow after this company? shall I overtake them? And he answered him, Follow: for thou shalt surely overtake them, and <sup>1</sup>recover all.

9 ¶ So David and the six hundred men that were with him, went, and came to the river Besor, where a part of them abode:

10 But David and four hundred men followed (for two hundred abode behind, being too weary to go over the river Besor.)

11 And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him <sup>1</sup>bread, and he did eat, and they gave him water to drink.

12 Also they gave him a few figs, and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, his spirit came again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water in three days, and three nights.

13 ¶ And David said unto him, To whom belongeth thou? and whence art thou? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, and servant to an Amalekite: and my master left me three days ago because I fell sick.

14 We roved upon the South of Chereth, and upon the coast belonging to Judah, and upon the South of Caleb, and we burnt Ziklag with fire.

15 And David said unto him, Canst thou bring me to this company? And he said, <sup>1</sup>Swear unto me by God, that thou will neither kill me, nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee to this company.

16 ¶ And when he had brought him thither, behold, they lay scattered abroad upon all the earth, <sup>1</sup>eating and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great prey that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah.

17 And David smote them from the twilight even unto the evening <sup>1</sup>of the next morrow, so that there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, which rode upon camels, and fled.

18 And David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken: also David rescued his two wives.

19 And they lacked nothing, small or great, son or daughter, or of the spoil of all that they had taken

29:8 <sup>1</sup>This dissimulation cannot be excused: for it grieved him to go against the people of God.

29:10 <sup>1</sup>With them that fled unto thee from Saul.

30:1 <sup>1</sup>After that he departed from Achish.

30:3 <sup>1</sup>For these only remained in the city, when the men were gone to war.

30:6 <sup>1</sup>Thus we see that in troubles and adversity we do not consider God's providence, but like raging beasts forget both our own duty, and contemn God's appointment over us.

30:8 <sup>1</sup>Though God seem to leave us for a time, yet if we trust in him, we shall be sure to find comfort.

30:11 <sup>1</sup>God by his providence both provided for the necessity of this poor stranger, and made him a guide to David to accomplish his enterprise.

30:15 <sup>1</sup>For oaths were in all ages had in most reverence, even among the heathen.

30:16 <sup>1</sup>The wicked in their pomp and pleasures consider not the judgment of God, which is then at hand to smite them.

30:17 <sup>1</sup>Some read, and unto the morrow of the two evenings: that is, three days.

away: David recovered them all.

20 David also took all the sheep, and the oxen, and they drove them before his cattle, and said, This is David's <sup>1</sup>prey.

21 ¶ And David came to the two hundred men that were too weary for to follow David: whom they had made also to abide at the river Besor: and they came to meet David, and to meet the people that were with him: so when David came near to the people, he saluted them.

22 Then answered all the evil and wicked of the men that went with David, and said, Because they went not with us, therefore will we give them none of the prey that we have recovered, save to every man his <sup>1</sup>wife and his children: therefore let them carry them away and depart.

23 Then said David, Ye shall not do so, my brethren, with that which the Lord hath given us, who hath preserved us, and delivered the company that came against us, into our hands.

24 For who will obey you in this matter? but as his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be, that tarrieth by the stuff: they shall part alike.

25 <sup>1</sup>So from that day forward he made it a statute and a law in Israel, until this day.

26 ¶ When David therefore came to Ziklag, he sent of the prey unto the Elders of Judah and to his friends, saying, See there is a blessing for you of the spoil of the enemies of the Lord.

27 He sent to them of Bethel, and to them of South Ramoth, and to them of Jattir,

28 And to them of Aroer, and to them of Siphmoth, and to them of Eshremona,

29 And to them of Rachal, and to them of the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to them of the cities of the Kenites,

30 And to them of Hormah, and to them of Chorashan, and to them of Athach, 31 And to them of Hebron, and <sup>1</sup>to all the places where David and his men had haunted.

31 <sup>4</sup> Saul killeth himself. <sup>6</sup> His children are slain in the battle. <sup>12</sup> The men of Jabesh took down his body, which was hanged on the wall.

1 Now <sup>a</sup>the Philistines fought against Israel, and the men of Israel fled away from the Philistines, and they fell down <sup>1</sup>wounded in mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines pressed sore upon Saul and his sons, and slew Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua Saul's sons.

3 And when the battle went sore against Saul, the archers and bowmen <sup>1</sup>hit him, and he was sore <sup>2</sup>wounded of the archers.

4 Then said Saul unto his armor bearer, <sup>1</sup>Draw out thy sword, and thrust me through therewith, lest the uncircumcised come and thrust me through and mock me: but his armor bearer would not, for he was sore afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword and fell upon it.

5 And when his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise upon his sword, and died with him.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armor bearer, and all his men that same day together.

7 ¶ And when the men of Israel that were on the other side of the <sup>1</sup>valley, and they of the other side <sup>2</sup>Jordan saw that the men of Israel were put to flight, and that Saul and his sons were dead, then they left the cities, and ran away: and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 ¶ And on the morrow when the Philistines were come to spoil them that were slain, they found Saul and his three sons lying in mount Gilboa,

9 And they cut off his head, and stripped him out of his armor, and sent into the land of the Philistines on every side, that they should <sup>1</sup>publish it in the temple of their idols, and among the people.

10 And they laid up his armor in the house of Ashtoreth, but they hanged up his body on the wall of Beth Shan.

11 ¶ When the inhabitants of <sup>1</sup>Jabesh Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul,

THE SECOND BOOK OF SAMUEL

1 <sup>4</sup> It was told David of Saul's death. <sup>15</sup> He causeth him to be slain that brought the tidings. <sup>19</sup> He lamenteth the death of Saul and Jonathan.

1 After the death of Saul, when David was returned from the "slaughter of the Amalekites, and had been two days in Ziklag.

2 Behold, a man came the third day out of the host from Saul with <sup>1</sup>his clothes rent, and earth upon his head: and when he came to David, he fell to the earth, and did obeisance.

3 Then David said unto him, Whence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the host of Israel I am escaped.

4 And David said unto him, What is done? I pray thee, tell me. Then he said, that the people is fled from the battle, and many of the people are overthrown, and dead, and also Saul and Jonathan his son are dead.

5 And David said unto the young man that told it him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son be dead?

6 Then the young man that told him, answered, <sup>1</sup>As I came to mount Gilboa, behold, Saul leaned upon his spear, and lo, the chariots and <sup>2</sup>horsemen followed hard after him.

7 And when he looked back, he saw me, and called me. And I answered, Here am I.

8 And he said unto me, Who art thou? And I answered him, I am an <sup>1</sup>Amalekite.

9 Then said he unto me, I pray thee, <sup>1</sup>come upon me, and slay me: for anguish is come upon me, because my <sup>2</sup>life is yet whole in me.

10 So <sup>1</sup>I came upon him, and slew him, and because I was sure that he could not live, after that he had fallen, I took the crown that was upon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and brought them

11 Then David took hold on his clothes, <sup>b</sup>and rent them, and likewise all the men that were with him.

12 And they mourned and wept, and fasted until even, for Saul and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the Lord, and for the house of Israel, because they were slain with the sword.

13 ¶ <sup>1</sup>Afterward David said unto the young man that told it him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the son of a stranger an Amalekite.

14 And David said unto him, <sup>c</sup>How wast thou not afraid, to put forth thine hand to destroy the Anointed of the Lord?

15 Then David called one of his young men, and said, Go near, and fall upon him. And he smote him that he died.

16 Then said David unto him, <sup>1</sup>Thy blood be upon thine own head: for thine own mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain the Lord's Anointed.

17 ¶ Then David mourned with this lamentation over Saul, and over Jonathan his son,

18 (Also he bade them teach the children of Judah to <sup>1</sup>shoot, as it is written in the book of <sup>d,2</sup>Jasher.)

19 O noble Israel, <sup>1</sup>he is slain upon thy high places: how are the mighty overthrown!

20 <sup>e</sup>Tell it not in Gath, nor publish it in the streets of Ashkelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

21 Ye mountains of Gilboa, upon you <sup>1</sup>be neither dew nor rain, nor <sup>1</sup>be there fields of offerings: for there the shield of the mighty is cast down, the shield of Saul, as though he had not been anointed with oil.

23 Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their deaths they were not <sup>1</sup>divided: they were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions.

24 Ye daughters of Israel, weep for Saul, which clothed you in scarlet, <sup>1</sup>with pleasures, and hanged ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

25 How were the mighty slain in the midst of the battle! O Jonathan, thou wast slain in thine high places.

26 Woe is me for thee, my brother Jonathan: very kind hast thou been unto me: thy love to me was wonderful, passing the love of <sup>1</sup>women: how are the mighty overthrown, and the weapons of war destroyed!

2 1 David is anointed King in Hebron. 9 Abner maketh Ishbosheth King over Israel. 15 The battle of the servants of David and Ishbosheth. 32 The burial of Asahel.

1 After this, David <sup>1</sup>asked counsel of the Lord, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? And the Lord said unto him, Go up. And David said, Whither shall I go? He then answered, Unto <sup>2</sup>Hebron.

2 So David went up thither, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail Nabal's wife the Carmelite.

3 And David brought up the men that were with <sup>1</sup>him, every man with his household, and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

4 ¶ Then the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David King over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, <sup>4</sup>that the men of Jabesh Gilead buried Saul.

5 And David sent messengers unto the men of Jabesh Gilead, and said unto them, Blessed are ye of the Lord, that ye have showed such kindness unto your lord Saul, that you have buried him.

6 Therefore now the Lord show mercy and <sup>1</sup>truth unto you: and I will recompense you this benefit, because ye have done this thing.

7 Therefore now let your hands be strong, and be you valiant: albeit your master Saul be dead, yet nevertheless the house of Judah hath anointed me <sup>1</sup>King over them.

8 ¶ But Abner the son of Ner that was captain of Saul's host, took Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and brought him to Mahanaim,

9 And made him King over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over <sup>1</sup>all Israel.

10 Ishbosheth Saul's son was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and reigned two years: but the house of Judah followed David.

11 (And the time which David reigned in Hebron over the house of Judah, was seven years and six <sup>1</sup>months.)

12 ¶ And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul went out of Mahanaim to Gibeon.

13 And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David went out and met one another by the pool of Gibeon: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

14 Then Abner said to Joab, Let the young men now arise, and <sup>1</sup>play before us. And Joab said, Let them arise.

15 Then there arose and went over twelve of Benjamin by number, which pertained to Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

16 And every one caught his <sup>1</sup>fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side, so they fell down together: wherefore the place was called <sup>2</sup>Helkath Hazzurim, which is in Gibeon.

17 And the battle was exceedingly sore that same day: for Abner and the men of Israel <sup>1</sup>fell before the servants of David.

18 And there were three sons of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel. And Asahel was as light on foot as a wild roe.

19 And Asahel followed after Abner, and in going he turned neither to the right hand nor to the left from Abner.

20 Then Abner looked behind him, and said, Art thou Asahel? And he answered, Yea.

21 Then Abner said, Turn thee either to the right hand or to the left, and take one of the young men, and take thee his <sup>1</sup>weapons: and Asahel would not depart from him.

22 And Abner said to Asahel, Depart from me: <sup>1</sup>wherefore should I smite thee to the ground? how 23 And when he would not depart, Abner with the hinder end of the spear smote him under the <sup>1</sup>fifth rib, that the spear came out behind him: and he fell down there, and died in his place. And as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down, and died, stood still.

24 Joab also and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill Ammah, that lieth before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

25 And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and were on an heap, and stood on the top of an hill.

26 Then Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the <sup>1</sup>sword devour forever? knowest thou not, that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long then shall it be, or thou bid the people return from following their brethren?

27 And Joab said, As God liveth, if thou hadst not <sup>1</sup>spoken, surely even in the morning the people had departed every one back from his brother.

28 ¶ So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they anymore.

29 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the <sup>1</sup>plain, and went over Jordan, and past through all Bithron till they came <sup>2</sup>to Mahanaim.

30 Joab also returned back from Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men, and Asahel.

31 But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, so that three <sup>1</sup>hundred and threescore men died.

32 And they took up Asahel, and buried him in the sepulcher of his father, which was in Bethlehem: and Joab and his men went all night, and when they came to Hebron, the day arose.

CHAPTER 3

2 ¶ And unto David were children born in Hebron: and his eldest son was Amnon of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess,

3 And his second, was <sup>1</sup>Chileab of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite: and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmi the king of Geshur,

4 And the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith: and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital:

5 And the sixth, Ithream by Eglah David's wife: these were born to David in <sup>1</sup>Hebron.

6 ¶ Now while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner made all his power for the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine named Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. And Ishbosheth said to Abner, Wherefore hast thou gone in to my father's concubine?

8 Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ishbosheth, and said, Am I a <sup>1</sup>dog's head, which against Judah do show mercy this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his neighbors, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou chargest me this day with a fault concerning this woman?

9 <sup>1</sup>So do God to Abner, and more also, except, as the Lord hath sworn to David, even so I do to him,

10 To remove the kingdom from the house of Saul, that the throne of David may be established over Israel, and over Judah, even from Dan to Beersheba.

11 And he durst no more answer to Abner: for he feared him.

12 ¶ Then Abner sent messengers to David <sup>1</sup>on his behalf, saying, Whose is the land? who should also say, Make covenant with me, and behold, mine hand shall be with thee, to bring all Israel unto thee.

13 Who said, Well, I will make a covenant with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that is, that thou see not my face, except thou bring Michal Saul's daughter when thou comest to see me.

14 ¶ Then David sent messengers to Ishbosheth Saul's son, saying, Deliver me my wife Michal, which I married for <sup>a</sup>an hundred foreskins of the Philistines.

15 And Ishbosheth sent, and took her from her husband <sup>b</sup>Paltiel the son of Laish.

16 And her husband went with her, and came weeping behind her, unto Bahurim: then said Abner unto him, Go, and return. So he returned.

17 ¶ And Abner had <sup>c</sup>communication with the Elders of Israel, saying, Ye fought for David in times past, that he might be your King.

18 Now then do it: for the Lord hath spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel out of the hands of the Philistines, and out of the hands of all their enemies.

19 Also Abner spake <sup>d</sup>to Benjamin, and afterward Abner went to speak with David in Hebron, concerning all that Israel was content with, and the whole <sup>e</sup>house of Benjamin.

20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, having twenty men with him, and David made a feast unto Abner, and to the men that were with him.

21 Then Abner said unto David, I will rise up, and go gather all Israel unto my lord the King, that they may make a covenant with thee, and that thou mayest reign over all that thine heart desireth. Then David let Abner depart, who went <sup>f</sup>in peace.

22 ¶ And behold, the servants of David and Joab came <sup>g</sup>from the camp, and brought a great prey with them (but Abner was not with David in Hebron: for he had sent him away, and he departed in peace.)

23 When Joab, and all the host that was with him were come, men told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the King, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

24 Then Joab came to the King, and said, <sup>h</sup>What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee, why hast thou sent him away, and he is departed?

25 Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner: for he came to deceive thee, and to know thy outgoing and ingoing, and to know all that thou doest.

26 ¶ And when Joab was gone out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him again from the well of Sirah unknowing to David.

27 And when Abner was come again to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him <sup>i</sup>peaceably, and smote him under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of <sup>j</sup>Asahel his brother.

28 ¶ And when afterward it came to David's ear,

<sup>b</sup> 1 Sam. 25:44

he said, I and my Kingdom are <sup>k</sup>guiltless before the Lord forever, concerning the blood of Abner the son of Ner.

29 Let the blood fall on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house, that the house of Joab be never without some that have running issues, or leper, or that leaneth on a staff, or that doeth fall on the sword, or that lacketh bread.

30 (So Joab and <sup>l</sup>Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had slain their brother Asahel at Gibeon in battle.)

31 And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, Rent your clothes, and put on sackcloth, and mourn <sup>m</sup>before Abner: and King David himself followed the bier.

32 And when they had buried Abner in Hebron, the King lift up his voice, and wept beside the sepulcher of Abner, and all the people wept.

33 And the King lamented over Abner, and said, Died Abner <sup>n</sup>as a fool dieth?

34 Thine hands were not bound, nor thy feet tied in fetters of brass: but as a man falleth before wicked men, so didst thou fall. And all the people wept again for him.

35 Afterward all the people came to cause David eat <sup>o</sup>meat while it was yet day, but David swore, saying, So do God to me and more also, if I taste bread, or ought else till the sun be down.

36 And all the people knew it, and it <sup>p</sup>pleased them: as whatsoever the King did, pleased all the people.

37 For all the people and all Israel understood that day, how that it was not the King's deed that Abner the son of Ner was slain.

38 And the King said unto his servants, Know ye not, that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

39 And I am this day weak and newly anointed King: and these men the sons of Zeruiah be too <sup>q</sup>hard for me: the Lord reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

2 And Saul's son had two men that were captains of bands: the one called Baanah, and the other called Rechab, the sons of Rimmon a Beerothite of the children of Benjamin: (for <sup>1</sup>Beeroth was reckoned to Benjamin,

3 Because the Beerothites fled to <sup>1</sup>Gittaim, and sojourned there, unto this day.)

4 And Jonathan Saul's son had a son that was lame on his feet: he was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Israel: then his nurse took him, and fled away. And as she made haste to flee, the child fell, and began to halt, and his name was Mephibosheth.

5 And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah went and came in the heat of the day to the house of Ishbosheth (who slept on a bed at noon.)

6 And behold, Rechab and Baanah his brother came into the midst of the house, as they <sup>1</sup>would have wheat, and they <sup>2</sup>smote him under the fifth rib, and fled.

7 For when they came into the house, he slept on his bed in his bed chamber, and they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and got them away through the <sup>1</sup>plain all the night.

8 And they brought the head of Ishbosheth unto David to Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ishbosheth Saul's son thine enemy, who sought after thy life: and the Lord hath avenged my Lord the King this day of Saul, and of his seed.

9 Then David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said unto them, As the Lord liveth, who hath delivered my soul out of all adversity,

10 When one <sup>a</sup>told me, and said that Saul was dead, (thinking to have brought good tidings) I took him and slew him in Ziklag, who thought that I would have given him a reward for his tidings:

11 How <sup>1</sup>much more when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house, and upon his bed? shall I not now therefore require his blood at your hand, and take you from the earth?

12 Then David commanded his young men, and

1 Then <sup>a</sup>came all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and said thus, Behold, we are thy <sup>1</sup>bones and thy flesh.

2 And in time past when Saul was our King, thou ledest Israel in and out: and the Lord hath said to thee, <sup>b</sup>Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain over Israel.

3 So all the Elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron: and King David made a covenant with them in Hebron <sup>1</sup>before the Lord, and they anointed David King over Israel.

4 ¶ David was thirty years old when he began to reign: and he reigned forty years.

5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah <sup>7</sup>seven years, and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah.

6 ¶ The King also and his men went to Jerusalem unto the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land: who spake unto David, saying, Except thou take away the <sup>1</sup>blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: thinking that David could not come thither:

7 But David took the fort of Zion: this is the city of David.

8 Now David had said the same day, Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites, and getteth up to the gutters and <sup>1</sup>smiteth the lame and blind, which David's soul hateth, I will prefer him: <sup>d</sup>therefore they said, The blind and the lame shall not <sup>1</sup>come into that house.

9 So David dwelt in that fort, and called it the city of David, and David built round about it, from <sup>1</sup>Millo, and inward.

10 And David prospered and grew: for the Lord God of hosts was with him.

11 ¶ Hiram also king of <sup>1</sup>Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and masons for walls: and they built David an house.

17 ¶<sup>b</sup>But when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines came up to seek David: and when David heard, he went down to a fort.

18 But the Philistines came, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

19 Then David <sup>1</sup>asked counsel of the Lord, saying, Shall I go up to the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into mine hands? And the Lord answered David, Go up: for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into thine hands.

20 ¶<sup>b</sup>Then David came to Baal Perazim, and smote them there, and said, The Lord hath divided mine enemies asunder before me, as waters be divided asunder: therefore he called the name of that place, <sup>1</sup>Baal Perazim.

21 And there they left their images, and David and his men <sup>1</sup>burnt them.

22 Again the Philistines came up, and spread themselves in the valley of <sup>1</sup>Rephaim.

23 And when David asked counsel of the Lord, he answered, Thou shalt not go up, but turn about behind them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees.

24 And when thou hearest the noise of one going in the tops of the mulberry trees, then remove: for then shall the Lord go out before thee to smite the host of the Philistines.

3 And they put the Ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, that was in <sup>1</sup>Gibeah. And Uzzah and Ahio the sons of Abinadab did drive the new cart.

4 And when they brought the Ark of God out of the house of <sup>b</sup>Abinadab, that was at Gibeah, Ahio went before the Ark.

5 And David and all the house of Israel <sup>1</sup>played before the Lord on all instruments made of fir, and on harps, and on Psalteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals.

6 ¶<sup>c</sup>And when they came to Nachon's threshing floor, Uzzah put his hand to the Ark of God, and held it: for the oxen did shake it.

7 And the Lord was very wroth with Uzzah, and God <sup>1</sup>smote him in the same place for his fault, and there he died by the Ark of God.

8 And David was displeased because the Lord had <sup>1</sup>smitten Uzzah: and he called the name of the place <sup>2</sup>Perez Uzzah until this day.

9 Therefore David that day feared the Lord, and said, How shall the Ark of the Lord come to me?

10 So David would not bring the Ark of the Lord unto him into the city of David, but David carried it into the house of Obed-Edom <sup>1</sup>a Gittite.

11 And the Ark of the Lord continued in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite, three months, and the Lord blessed Obed-Edom, and all his household.

12 And one told King David, saying, <sup>d</sup>The Lord hath blessed the house of Obed-Edom, and all that he hath, because of the Ark of God: therefore David went and <sup>1</sup>brought the Ark of God from the house of Obed-Edom, into the city of David with gladness.

13 And when they that bare the Ark of the Lord had gone six paces, he offered an ox, and a fat beast.

16 And as the Ark of the Lord came into the city of David, Michal Saul's daughter looked through a window, and saw King David leap, and dance before the Lord, and she <sup>d</sup>despised him in her heart.

17 And when they had brought in the Ark of the Lord, they set it in his place, in the midst of the Tabernacle that David had pitched for it: then David offered burnt offerings, and peace offerings before the Lord.

18 And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he <sup>b</sup>blessed the people in the Name of the Lord of hosts,

19 And gave among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a piece of flesh, and a bottle of wine: so all the people departed every one to his house.

20 ¶ Then David returned to <sup>b</sup>bless his house, and Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, O how glorious was the King of Israel this day, which was uncovered today in the eyes of the maidens of his servants, as a <sup>2</sup>fool uncovereth himself!

21 Then David said unto Michal, <sup>1</sup>It was before the Lord, which chose me rather than thy father, and all his house, and commanded me to be ruler over the people of the Lord, even over Israel: and therefore will I play before the Lord,

11 And since the time that I set Judges over my people of Israel) and I will give thee rest from all thine enemies: also the Lord telleth thee, that he will make thee an house.

12 <sup>c</sup>And when thy days be fulfilled, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, and I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy body, and will establish his kingdom.

13 <sup>d</sup>He shall build an house for my Name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.

14 <sup>e</sup>I will be his father, and he shall be my son: and if he <sup>f</sup>sin, I will chasten him with the <sup>1</sup>rod of men, and with the plagues of the children of men.

15 But my mercy shall not depart away from him, as I took it from Saul whom I have put away before thee.

16 And thine house shall be established and thy kingdom forever before thee, even thy throne shall be <sup>1</sup>established forever.

6:16 <sup>1</sup> The worldlings are not able to comprehend the emotions that move the children of God to praise God by all manner of means.

6:20 <sup>1</sup> That is, to pray for his house, as he had done for the people.

6:21 <sup>1</sup> It was for no worldly affection, but only for that zeal that I bare to God's glory.

6:23 <sup>1</sup> Which was a punishment because she mocked the servant of God.

7:2 <sup>1</sup> Within the Tabernacle covered with skins, Exod. 26:7.

7:5 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, he should not: yet Nathan speaking according to man's judgment and not by the spirit of prophecy, permitted him.

7:7 <sup>1</sup> As concerning building of an house: meaning, that without God's express word, nothing ought to be attempted.

7:9 <sup>1</sup> I have made thee famous through all the world.

7:10 <sup>1</sup> He promiseth them quietness, if they will walk in his fear and obedience.

7:14 <sup>1</sup> That is, gently, as fathers used to chastise their children.

7:16 <sup>1</sup> This was begun in Solomon, as a figure, but accomplished in Christ.

17 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, Nathan spake thus unto David.

18 ¶ Then King David went in, and sat before the Lord, and said, Who am I, O Lord God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

19 And this was yet a small thing in thy sight, O Lord God, therefore thou hast spoken also of thy servant's house for a great while: but <sup>1</sup>doth this appertain to <sup>2</sup>man, O Lord God?

20 And what can David say more unto thee? for thou, Lord God, knowest thy servant.

21 For thy word's sake, and according to thine own heart hast thou done all these great things, to make them known unto thy servant.

22 Wherefore thou art great, O Lord God: for there is none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

23 <sup>8</sup>And what one people in the earth is like thy people, like Israel? whose God went and redeemed them to himself, that they might be his people, and that he might make him a name, and do for <sup>1</sup>you great things, and terrible for <sup>2</sup>thy land, O Lord, even for thy people, whom thou redeemedst to thee out of Egypt, from the <sup>3</sup>nations, and their gods?

24 For thou hast <sup>1</sup>ordained to thyself thy people Israel to be thy people forever: and thou Lord art become their God.

25 Now therefore, O Lord God, confirm forever the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and his house, and do as thou hast said.

26 And let thy Name be magnified forever by them that shall say, The Lord of hosts is the God over Israel, and let the <sup>1</sup>house of thy servant David be established before thee.

27 For thou, O Lord of hosts, God of Israel, hast revealed unto thy servant, saying, I will build thee an house: therefore hath thy servant <sup>1</sup>been bold to pray this prayer unto thee.

28 Therefore now, O Lord God, (for thou art God, and thy words be true, and thou hast told this goodness unto thy servant.)

8 <sup>1</sup>David overcometh the Philistines, and other strange nations, and maketh them tributaries to Israel.

1 After <sup>a</sup>this now, David smote the Philistines and subdued them, and David took <sup>1</sup>the bridle of bondage out of the <sup>2</sup>hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab, and measured them with a cord, and cast them down to the ground: he measured them with <sup>1</sup>two cords to put them to death, and with one full cord to keep them alive: so became the Moabites David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 ¶ David smote also Hadadezer the son of Rehob king of Zobah, as he went to <sup>1</sup>recover his border at the river <sup>2</sup>Euphrates.

4 And David took of them a thousand and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen, and David <sup>1</sup>destroyed all the chariots, but he reserved an hundred chariots of them.

5 ¶ Then came the <sup>1</sup>Aramites of <sup>2</sup>Dammesek to succor Hadadezer king of Zobah, but David slew of the Aramites two and twenty thousand men.

6 And David put a garrison in <sup>1</sup>Aram of Dammesek: and the Aramites became servants to David, <sup>2</sup>and brought gifts. And the Lord saved David wheresoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that belonged to the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to <sup>1</sup>Jerusalem.

8 And out of Betah, and Berothai (cities of Hadadezer) king David brought exceedingly much brass.

9 ¶ Then Toi king of <sup>1</sup>Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadadezer,

10 Therefore Toi sent Joram his son unto king David, <sup>1</sup>to salute him, and to <sup>2,3</sup>rejoice with him, because he had fought against Hadadezer, and beaten him (for Hadadezer had war with Toi) who <sup>4</sup>brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of 11 And king David dedicated them unto the Lord with the silver and gold that he had dedicated of all the nations, which he had subdued:

12 Of <sup>1</sup>Aram, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer the son of Rehob king of Zobah.

13 So David got a name after that he returned, and had slain of the Aramites in the <sup>1</sup>valley of salt eighteen thousand men.

14 And he put a garrison in Edom: throughout all Edom put he soldiers, and all they of Edom became David's servants: and the Lord kept David <sup>1</sup>whithersoever he went.

15 Thus David reigned over all Israel, and executed <sup>1</sup>judgment and justice unto all his people.

16 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was <sup>1</sup>Recorder.

17 And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were the Priests, and Seraiah the Scribe.

2 And there was of the household of Saul a servant whose name was Ziba, and when they had called him unto David, the king said unto him, Art thou Ziba? And he said, I thy servant am he.

3 Then the King said, Remaineth there yet none of the house of Saul, on whom I may show the <sup>1</sup>mercy of God? Ziba then answered the King, Jonathan hath yet a son <sup>4</sup>lame of his feet.

4 Then the King said unto him, Where is he? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel of Lo Debar.

of the house of Machir the son of <sup>1</sup>Ammiel of Lo Debar.

6 Now when Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan the son of Saul was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said, Mephibosheth? And he answered, Behold thy servant.

7 Then David said unto him, Fear not: for I will surely show thee kindness for Jonathan thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the <sup>1</sup>fields of Saul thy father, and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually.

8 And he bowed himself, and said, What is thy servant, that thou shouldst look upon such a <sup>1</sup>dead dog as I am?

9 Then the king called Ziba Saul's servant, and said unto him, I have given unto thy master's <sup>1</sup>son all that pertained to Saul and to all his house.

10 Thou therefore and <sup>1</sup>thy sons and thy servants shall till the land for him, and bring in that thy master's son may have food to eat. And Mephibosheth thy master's son shall eat bread always at my table (now Ziba had fifteen sons, and twenty servants.)

11 Then said Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do, <sup>1</sup>that Mephibosheth may eat at my table, as one of the king's sons.

12 Mephibosheth also had a young son named Micha, and all that dwelled in the house of Ziba, were servants unto Mephibosheth.

13 And Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem: for he did eat continually at the king's table, and was lame on both his feet.

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the half of their beard, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 ¶ When it was told unto David, he sent to meet them (for the men were exceedingly ashamed) and the king said, Tarry at Jericho, until your beards be grown, then return.

6 ¶ And when the children of Ammon saw that they <sup>1</sup>stank in the sight of David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the <sup>2</sup>Aramites of the house of Rehob, and the Aramites of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and of king Maacah a thousand men, and of Ish-Tob twelve thousand men.

7 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the strength of men.

8 And the children of Ammon came out and put their army in array at the entering in of the gate: and the Aramites of <sup>1</sup>Zoba, and of Rehob, and of Ish-Tob, and of Maacah were by themselves in the field.

9 When Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice of Israel, and put them in array against the Aramites.

10 And the rest of the people, he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in array against the children of Ammon.

11 And he said, If the Aramites be stronger than I, thou shalt help me, and if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, I will come and succor thee.

12 Be strong and let us be valiant for <sup>1</sup>our people, and for the cities of our God, and let the Lord do that which is good in his eyes.

13 Then Joab, and the people that was with him, joined in battle with the Aramites, who fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Aramites fled, they fled also before Abishai, and entered into the city. So Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 11

<sup>a</sup> 1 Chron. 20:1<sup>b</sup> Lev. 15:1,9
Lev. 18:19

15 ¶ And when the Aramites saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered them together.

16 And <sup>1</sup>Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Aramites that were beyond the <sup>2</sup>River: and they came to Helam, and Shobach the captain of the host of Hadadezer went before them.

17 When it was showed David, then he gathered <sup>1</sup>all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam: and the Aramites set themselves in array against David, and fought with him:

18 And the Aramites fled before Israel: and David destroyed <sup>1</sup>seven hundred chariots of the Aramites, and forty thousand horsemen, and smote Shobach the captain of his host, who died there.

19 And when all the kings, that were servants to Hadadezer, saw that they fell before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them. and the Aramites feared to help the children of Ammon anymore.

1 And when the year was <sup>1</sup>expired in the time when kings go forth to battle, David sent <sup>a</sup>Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel, who destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah: but David remained in Jerusalem.

2 And when it was evening-tide, David arose out of his <sup>1</sup>bed, and walked upon the roof of the king's palace: and from the roof he saw a woman washing herself: and the woman was very beautiful to look upon.

3 And David sent and inquired what woman it was: and one said, Is not this Bathsheba the daughter of Eliam, wife to Uriah the <sup>1</sup>Hittite?

4 Then David sent messengers, and took her away: and she came unto him and he lay with her: (now she was <sup>b</sup>purified from her uncleanness) and she returned unto her house.

5 And the woman conceived: therefore she sent and <sup>1</sup>told David, and said, I am with child.

6 ¶ Then David wrote to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 And when Uriah came unto him, David demanded

10:3 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, in thine eyes doth David.

him how Joab did, and how the people fared, and how the war prospered.

8 Afterward David said to Uriah, <sup>1</sup>Go down to thine house, and wash thy feet. So Uriah departed out of the king's palace, and the king sent a present after him.

9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king's palace with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house.

10 Then they told David, saying, Uriah went not down to his house: and David said unto Uriah, Comest thou not from thy journey? why didst thou not go down to thine house?

11 Then Uriah answered David, <sup>1</sup>The Ark and Israel, and Judah dwell in tents: and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord abide in the open fields: shall I then go into mine house to eat and drink, and lie with my wife? by thy life, and by the life of thy soul, I will not do this thing.

12 Then David said unto Uriah, Tarry yet this day, and tomorrow I will send thee away. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the morrow.

13 Then David called him, and he did eat and drink before him, and he made him <sup>1</sup>drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his couch with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house.

14 And on the morrow David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah.

15 And he wrote <sup>1</sup>thus in the letter, <sup>2</sup>Put ye Uriah in the forefront of the strength of the battle, and recule ye back from him, that he may be smitten, and die.

16 ¶ So when Joab besieged the city, he assigned Uriah unto a place, where he knew that strong men were.

17 And the men of the city came out, and fought with Joab: and there fell of the people of the servants of David, and Uriah the Hittite also died.

18 Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war.

19 ¶ And he charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an end of telling all the matters of the war unto the King,

20 <sup>1</sup>And if the king's anger arise, so that he say unto thee, Wherefore approached ye unto the city to fight? knew ye not that they would hurl from the wall?

21 Who smote Abimelech son of <sup>1</sup>Jerubbesheth? did not a woman cast a piece of a millstone upon him from the wall, and he died in Thebez? why went you nigh the wall? Then say thou, Thy servant Uriah the Hittite is also dead.

22 So the messenger went, and came and showed David all that Joab had sent him for.

23 And the messenger said unto David, Certainly the men prevailed against us, and came out unto us into the field, but we <sup>1</sup>pursued them unto the entering of the gate.

24 But the shooters shot from the wall against thy servants, and some of the king's servants be dead: and thy servant Uriah the Hittite is also dead.

25 Then David said unto the messenger, <sup>1</sup>Thus shalt thou say unto Joab, Let not this thing trouble thee: for the sword devoureth <sup>2</sup>one as well as another: make thy battle more strong against the city, and destroy it, and encourage thou him.

26 ¶ And when the wife of Uriah heard that her husband Uriah was dead, she mourned for her husband.

27 So when the mourning was past, David sent and took her into his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a son: but the thing that David had done, <sup>1</sup>displeased the Lord.

1 Then the Lord sent <sup>1</sup>Nathan unto David, who came to him, and said unto him, There were two men in one city, the one rich, and the other poor.

2 The rich man had exceedingly many sheep and oxen:

3 But the poor had none at all, save one little sheep which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up with him, and with his children also, and did eat of his own morsels, and drank of his own cup, and slept in his bosom, and was unto him as his daughter.

4 Now there came a <sup>1</sup>stranger unto the rich man,

11:8 <sup>1</sup> David thought that if Uriah lay with his wife, his fault might be cloaked.

11:11 <sup>1</sup> Hereby God would touch David's conscience, that seeing the fidelity and religion of his servant, he would declare himself so forgetful of God, and injurious to his servant.

11:13 <sup>1</sup> He made him drink more liberally than he was wont to do, thinking hereby he would have lain by his wife.

11:15 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, saying.

<sup>2</sup> Except God continually uphold us with his mighty spirit, the most perfect fall headlong into all vice and abomination.

11:20 <sup>1</sup> Or, thou shalt do this, if.

11:21 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, Gideon, Judg. 9:52, 53.

11:23 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, were against them.

11:25 <sup>1</sup> He dissembleth with the messenger, to the intent that neither his cruel commandment, nor Joab's wicked obedience might be espied.

<sup>2</sup> Hebrew, so and so.

11:27 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, was evil in the eyes of the Lord.

12:1 <sup>1</sup> Because David lay now drowned in sin, the loving mercy of God, which suffereth not his to perish, waketh his conscience by this similitude, and bringeth him to repentance.

12:4 <sup>1</sup> Or, wayfaring man.

who<sup>2</sup> refused to take of his own sheep, and of his own oxen to dress for the stranger that was come unto him, but took the poor man's sheep, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.

5 Then<sup>1</sup> David was exceedingly wroth with the man, and said to Nathan, As the Lord liveth, the man that hath done this thing,<sup>2</sup> shall surely die,

6 And he shall restore the lamb<sup>a</sup> fourfold, because he did this thing, and had no pity thereof.

7 Then Nathan said to David, Thou art the man. Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I<sup>b</sup> anointed thee King over Israel, and delivered thee out of the hand of Saul.

8 And gave thee thy lord's<sup>1</sup> house, and thy lord's<sup>2</sup> wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel, and of Judah, and would moreover (if that had been too little) have given thee<sup>3</sup> such and such things.

9 Wherefore hast thou despised the commandment of the Lord, to do evil in his sight? thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the<sup>1</sup> children of Ammon.

10 Now therefore the sword shall never depart from thine house, because thou hast despised me, and taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife.

11 Thus said the Lord, Behold, I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and will<sup>1</sup> take thy wives before thine eyes, and give them unto thy neighbor, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of his<sup>1</sup> sin.

12 For thou diddest it secretly: but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun.

13 Then David said unto Nathan, I have sinned against the Lord. And Nathan said unto David, The Lord also hath<sup>1</sup> put away thy sin, thou shalt not die.

14 Howbeit, because by this deed thou hast caused the enemies of the Lord to<sup>1</sup> blaspheme, the child that is born unto thee, shall surely die.

15 ¶ So Nathan departed unto his house: and the Lord struck the child that Uriah's wife bare unto David, and it was sick.

CHAPTER 12

<sup>a</sup> Exod. 22:1<sup>b</sup> 1 Sam. 16:13<sup>c</sup> Deut. 28:30

16 David therefore besought God for the child, and fasted and<sup>1</sup> went in, and lay all night upon the earth.

17 Then the Elders of his house arose to come unto him, and to cause him to rise from the ground: but he would not, neither did he eat<sup>1</sup> meat with them.

18 So on the seventh day the child died: and the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they said, Behold, while the child was alive, we spake unto him, and he would not hearken unto our voice: how then shall we say unto him, The child is dead,<sup>1</sup> to vex him more?

19 But when David saw that his servants whispered, David perceived that the child was dead: therefore David said unto his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead.

20 Then David<sup>1</sup> arose from the earth, and washed and anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the house of the Lord, and worshipped, and afterward came to his own house, and bade that they should set bread before him, and he did eat.

21 Then<sup>1</sup> said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for the child while it was alive, but when the child was dead, thou didst rise up, and eat meat,

22 And he said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted, and wept: for I said, Who can tell whether God will have mercy on me, that the child may live?

23 But now being dead, wherefore should I now fast? <sup>1</sup>Can I bring him again anymore? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me.

24 ¶ And David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her,<sup>d</sup> and she bare a son, and<sup>1</sup> he called his name Solomon: also the Lord loved him.

25 For the Lord had sent<sup>1</sup> by Nathan the<sup>2</sup> Prophet: therefore<sup>3</sup> he called his name Jedidiah, because the Lord loved him.

26 ¶ Then Joab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the<sup>1</sup> city of the Kingdom.

27 Therefore Joab sent messengers to David, saying, I have fought against Rabbah, and have taken

28 Now therefore, gather the rest of the people together, and besiege the city, that thou mayest take it, lest <sup>1</sup>the victory be attributed to me.

29 So David gathered all the people together, and went against Rabbah, and besieged it, and took it.

30 <sup>1</sup>And he took their king's crown from his head, (which weighed a <sup>1</sup>talent of gold, with precious stones) and it was set on David's head: and he brought away the spoil of the city in exceedingly great abundance.

31 And he carried away the people that was therein, and put them under <sup>1</sup>saws, and under iron harrows, and under axes of iron, and cast them into the tile-kiln: even thus did he with all the cities of the children of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned unto Jerusalem.

1 Now after this, so it was, that Absalom the son of David having a fair sister, whose name was <sup>1</sup>Tamar, Amnon the son of David loved her.

2 And Amnon was so sore vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar: for she was a <sup>1</sup>virgin, and it seemed hard to Amnon to do anything to her.

3 But Amnon had a friend called Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother: and Jonadab was a very subtle man,

4 Who said unto him, Why art thou the king's son, so lean from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? Then Amnon answered him, I love Tamar my brother Absalom's sister.

5 And Jonadab said unto him, <sup>1</sup>Lie down on thy bed, and make thyself sick: and when thy father shall come to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee let my sister Tamar come, and give me meat, and let her dress meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it of her hand.

6 ¶ So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick: and when the king came to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of <sup>1</sup>cakes in my sight, that I may receive meat at her hand.

7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, and dress him meat.

8 ¶ So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house, and he lay down: and she took <sup>1</sup>flour, and knead it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.

9 And she took a pan, and <sup>1</sup>poured them out before him, but he would not eat. Then Amnon said, Cause ye every man to go out from <sup>2</sup>me: so every man went out from him.

10 Then Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

11 And when she had set them before him to eat, he took her, and said unto her, Come, lie with me, my sister.

12 But she answered him, Nay, my brother, do not force me: for no such thing <sup>4</sup>ought to be done in Israel: commit not this folly.

13 And I, <sup>1</sup>whither shall I cause my shame to go? and thou shalt be as one of <sup>2</sup>the fools in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee speak to the king, for he will not deny me unto thee.

14 Howbeit he would not hearken unto her voice, but being stronger than she, forced her, and lay with her.

15 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly, so that the hatred wherewith he hated her, was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her: and Amnon said unto her, Up, get thee hence.

16 And she answered him, <sup>1</sup>There is no cause: this evil (to put me away) is greater than the other that thou didst unto me: but he would not hear her, 17 But called his <sup>1</sup>servant that served him, and said, Put this woman now out from me, and lock the door after her.

18 (And she had a garment of <sup>1</sup>diverse colors upon her: for with such garments were the King's daughters that were virgins, appareled) Then his servant brought her out, and locked the door after her.

20 And Absalom her brother said unto her, Hath Amnon thy brother been with thee? Now yet be <sup>1</sup>still, my sister: he is thy brother: let not this thing grieve thine heart. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house.

21 ¶ But when King David heard all these things, he was very wroth.

22 And Absalom said unto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

23 ¶ And after the time of two years, Absalom had sheepshearers in <sup>1</sup>Baal Hazor, which is beside Ephraim, and <sup>2</sup>Absalom called all the king's sons.

24 And Absalom came to the King, and said, Behold now, thy servant hath sheepshearers: I pray thee, that the king with his servants would go with thy servant.

25 But the King answered Absalom, Nay my son, I pray thee, let us not go all, lest we be chargeable unto thee. Yet Absalom lay sore upon him: howbeit he would not go, but <sup>1</sup>thanked him.

26 Then said Absalom, But, I pray thee, shall not my brother <sup>1</sup>Amnon go with us? And the king answered him, Why should he go with thee?

27 But Absalom was instant upon him, and he sent Amnon with him, and all the king's children.

28 ¶ Now had Absalom commanded his servants, saying, Mark now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon, kill him, fear not, for have not <sup>1</sup>I commanded you? be bold therefore, and play the men.

29 And the servants of Absalom did unto Amnon, as Absalom had commanded: and all the king's sons arose, and every man got him up upon his mule, and fled.

30 ¶ And while they were in the way, tidings came to David, saying, Absalom hath slain all the King's sons, and there is not one of them left.

31 Then the king arose, and tore his garments, and lay on the <sup>1</sup>ground, and all his servants stood by with their clothes rent.

32 And Jonadab the son of Shimeah David's brother answered and said, Let not my lord suppose that they have slain all the young men the King's sons: for Amnon only is dead, <sup>1</sup>because Absalom had reported so, since he forced his sister Tamar.

33 Now therefore let not my lord the King <sup>1</sup>take the thing so grievously; to think that all the King's sons are dead: <sup>2</sup>for Amnon only is dead.

34 ¶ Then Absalom fled: and the young man that kept the watch, lift up his eyes, and looked, and behold, there came much people by the way of the hill side <sup>1</sup>behind him.

35 And Jonadab said unto the king, Behold, the king's sons come: as thy servant said, <sup>1</sup>so it is.

36 And as soon as he had left speaking, behold, the king's sons came, and lift up their voices, and wept: and the king also and all his servants wept exceedingly sore.

37 But Absalom fled away, and went to <sup>1</sup>Talmai the son of Ammihud king of Geshur: and David mourned for his son every day.

38 So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years.

39 And king David <sup>1</sup>desired to go forth unto Absalom, because he was pacified concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

husband is dead:

6 And thine handmaid had two <sup>1</sup>sons, and they two strove together in the field, (and there was none to part them) so the one smote the other, and slew him.

7 And behold the whole family is risen against thine handmaid, and they said, Deliver him that smote his brother, that we may kill him for the <sup>1</sup>soul of his brother whom he slew, that we may destroy the heir also: so they shall quench my sparkle which is left, and shall not leave to mine husband neither name nor posterity upon the earth.

8 And the king said unto the woman, Go to thine house, and I will give a charge for thee.

9 Then the woman of Tekoa said unto the King, My lord, O King, this <sup>1</sup>trespass be on me, and on my father's house, and the King and his throne be <sup>2</sup>guiltless.

10 And the King said, Bring him to me that speaketh against thee, and he shall touch thee no more.

11 Then said she, I pray thee, let the king <sup>1</sup>remember the Lord thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer many revengers of blood to destroy, lest they slay my son. And he answered, As the Lord liveth, there shall not one hair of thy son fall to the earth.

12 Then the woman said, I pray thee, let thine handmaid speak a word to my lord the King. And he said, Say on.

13 Then the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou <sup>1</sup>thought such a thing against the people of God? or why doth the King, as one which is faulty, speak this thing, that he will not bring again his banished?

14 For we must needs die, and we are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again: neither doth God <sup>1</sup>spare any person, yet doth he appoint <sup>2</sup>means, not to cast out from him, him that is expelled.

15 Now therefore, that I am come to speak of this thing unto my lord the King, the cause is that the people <sup>1</sup>have made me afraid: therefore thine handmaid said, Now will I speak unto the King: it may be that the king will perform the request of his handmaid.

16 For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the man that would destroy me, and also my son from the inheritance of God.

17 Therefore thine handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be <sup>1</sup>comfortable: for my lord the King is even as an <sup>2</sup>Angel of God in hearing of good and bad: therefore the Lord thy God be with thee.

18 Then the king answered, and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak.

19 And the king said, Is not <sup>1</sup>the hand of Joab with thee in all this? Then the woman answered, and said, As thy soul liveth, my lord the King, I will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, from ought that my lord the king hath spoken: for even thy servant Joab bade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid.

20 For to the intent that I <sup>1</sup>should change the form of speech, thy servant Joab hath done this thing: but <sup>2</sup>my lord is wise according to the wisdom of an Angel of God, to understand all things that are in the earth.

21 ¶ And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, I have <sup>1</sup>done this thing: go then, and bring the young man Absalom again.

22 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself and <sup>1</sup>thanked the King. Then Joab said, This day thy servant knoweth, that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord the king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his servant.

23 ¶ And Joab arose, and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

24 And the King said, Let him <sup>1</sup>turn to his own house, and not see my face. So Absalom turned to his own house, and saw not the king's face.

25 Now in all Israel there was none to be so much praised for beauty as Absalom: from the sole of his foot even to the top of his head there was no blemish in him.

26 And when he polled his head, (for at every year's end he polled it: because it was too heavy for him, therefore he polled it) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred <sup>1</sup>shekels by the king's weight.

30 Therefore he said unto his servants, Behold, Joab hath a <sup>1</sup>field by my place, and hath barley therein: go, and set it <sup>2</sup>on fire: and Absalom's servants set the field on fire.

31 Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom unto his house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants burnt my field with fire?

32 And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent for thee, saying, Come thou hither, and I will send thee to the king for to say, Wherefore am I come from Geshur? It had been better for me to have been there still: now therefore let me see the king's face: and <sup>1</sup>if there be any trespass in me, let him kill me.

1 After this, Absalom <sup>1</sup>prepared him chariots, and horses, and fifty men to <sup>2</sup>run before him.

2 And Absalom rose up early, and stood hard by the entering in of the gate: and every man that had any <sup>1</sup>matter, and came to the king for judgment, him did Absalom call unto him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he answered, Thy servant is of one of the <sup>2</sup>tribes of Israel.

3 Then Absalom said unto him, See, thy matters are good and righteous, but there is no man deputed of the king to hear thee.

4 Absalom said moreover, <sup>1</sup>Oh that I were made Judge in the land, that every man which hath any matter of controversy, might come to me, that I might do him justice.

5 And when any man came near to him, and did him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and kissed him.

6 And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel, that came to the King for judgment: so Absalom <sup>1</sup>stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

7 ¶ And after <sup>1</sup>forty years, Absalom said unto the King, I pray thee, let me go to Hebron, and render my vow which I have vowed unto the Lord.

8 For thy servant vowed a vow when I remained at Geshur, in Aram, saying, If the Lord shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, I will <sup>1</sup>serve the Lord.

9 And the King said unto him, Go in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebron.

10 ¶ Then Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, When ye hear the sound of the trumpet, ye shall say, Absalom reigneth in Hebron.

11 ¶ And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were <sup>1</sup>called: and they went in their simplicity, knowing nothing.

12 Also Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite David's counselor, from his city Giloh, while he offered sacrifices: and the treason was great: for the people <sup>1</sup>increased still with Absalom.

13 ¶ Then came a messenger to David, saying, The hearts of the men of Israel are turned after Absalom.

14 Then David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, Up, and let us flee: for we shall not escape from <sup>1</sup>Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he come suddenly and take us, and bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword.

15 And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, thy servants are ready to do according to all that my lord the king shall <sup>1</sup>appoint.

16 So the king departed and all his household <sup>1</sup>after him, and the king left ten concubines to keep the house.

17 And the king went forth and all the people after him, and tarried in a <sup>1</sup>place <sup>2</sup>far off.

* 1 Sam. 9:9

19 Then said the King to <sup>1</sup>Itrai the Gittite, Wherefore comest thou also with us? Return and abide with the King, for thou art a stranger, depart thou therefore to thy place.

20 Thou camest yesterday, and should I cause thee to wander today and go with us? I will go whither I can: therefore return thou, and carry again thy <sup>1</sup>brethren: mercy and <sup>2</sup>truth be with thee.

21 And Itrai answered the King, and said, As the Lord liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there surely will thy servant be.

22 Then David said to Itrai, Come, and go forward. And Itrai the Gittite went, and all his men, and all the children that were with him.

23 And all the country wept with a loud voice, and <sup>1</sup>all the people went forward, but the King passed over the brook Kidron: and all the people went over toward the way of the wilderness.

24 ¶ And lo, Zadok also was there, and all the Levites with him, <sup>1</sup>bearing the Ark of the covenant of God: and they set down the Ark of God: and Abiathar went <sup>2</sup>up until the people were all come out of the city.

25 Then the King said unto Zadok, Carry the Ark of God again into the city: if I shall find favor in the eyes of the Lord, he will bring me again, and show me both it, and the <sup>1</sup>Tabernacle thereof.

26 But if he thus say, I have no delight in thee, behold, <sup>1</sup>here am I, let him do to me as seemeth good in his eyes.

27 The King said again unto Zadok the Priest, Art not thou a <sup>2</sup>Seer? return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you: to wit, Ahimaaz thy son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.

28 Behold, I will tarry in the fields of the wilderness, until there come some word from you to be told me.

29 Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the Ark of God again to Jerusalem, and they tarried there.

30 And David went up the mount of olives, and wept as he went up, and had his head <sup>1</sup>covered, and went barefooted: and all the people that was with him, had every man his head covered, and as they went up, they wept.

31 Then one told David, saying, Ahithophel is one of them that have conspired with Absalom: and David said, O Lord, I pray thee, turn the <sup>1</sup>counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.

32 ¶ Then David came to the top of the mount where he worshipped God: and behold, Hushai the Archite came against him with his coat torn, and having earth upon his head.

33 Unto whom David said, If thou go with me, thou shalt be a burthen unto me.

34 But if thou return to the city, and say unto Absalom, I will be thy <sup>1</sup>servant, O King (as I have been in time past thy father's servant, so will I now be thy servant) then thou mayest bring me the counsel of Ahithophel to nought.

35 And hast thou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar the Priests? therefore whatsoever thou shalt hear out of the King's house, thou shalt show to Zadok and Abiathar the Priests.

36 Behold, there are with them their two sons: Ahimaaz Zadok's son, and Jonathan Abiathar's son: by them also shall ye send me everything that ye can hear.

2 And the King said unto Ziba, What meanest thou by these? And Ziba said, They be <sup>1</sup>asses for the king's household to ride on, and bread, and dried figs for the young men to eat, and wine, that the faint may drink in the wilderness.

3 And the King said, But where is thy master's son? Then Ziba answered the King, Behold, he remaineth in Jerusalem: for he said, This day shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my father.

4 Then said the King to Ziba, Behold, thine are all that pertained unto Mephibosheth. And Ziba said, <sup>1</sup>I beseech thee, let me find grace in thy sight, my lord, O King.

15:19 <sup>1</sup> Who as some write was the king's son of Gath.

15:23 <sup>1</sup> To wit, the six hundred men.

15:25 <sup>1</sup> Or, his tabernacle.

15:26 <sup>1</sup> The faithful in all their afflictions show themselves obedient to God's will.

15:30 <sup>1</sup> With ashes and dust in sign of sorrow.

15:31 <sup>1</sup> The counsel of the crafty worldlings doth more harm than the open force of the enemy.

15:34 <sup>1</sup> Though Hushai dissembled here at the King's request, yet may we not use this example to excuse our dissimulation.

16:1 <sup>1</sup> Which was the hill of olives, 2 Sam. 15:30.

16:2 <sup>1</sup> Commonly there are no viler traitors than they, which under pretence of friendship accuse others.

16:4 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, I worship.

16:5 <sup>1</sup> Which was a city in the tribe of Benjamin.

behold, thence came out a man of the family of the house of Saul, named Shimei, the son of Gera: and he came out and cursed.

6 And he cast stones at David, and at all the servants of King David: and all the people, and all the men of war were on his <sup>1</sup>right hand, and on his left.

7 And thus said Shimei when he cursed, Come forth, come forth thou <sup>1</sup>murderer, and <sup>2</sup>wicked man.

8 The Lord hath brought upon thee all the <sup>1</sup>blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned: and the Lord hath delivered thy kingdom into the hand of Absalom thy son: and behold, thou art taken in thy wickedness, because thou art a murderer.

9 Then said Abishai the son of Zeruiah unto the King, Why doth <sup>4</sup>this dead dog curse my lord the King: let me go, I pray thee, and take away his head.

10 ¶ But the King said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah? for he curseth, even because the Lord hath <sup>1</sup>bidden him curse David: who dare then say, Wherefore hast thou done so?

11 And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, my son which came out of mine own bowels, seeketh my life: then how much more now may this son of Benjamin? Suffer him to curse: for the Lord hath bidden him.

12 It may be that the Lord will look on <sup>1</sup>mine affliction, and <sup>2</sup>do me good for his cursing this day.

13 And as David and his men went by the way, Shimei went by the side of the mountain over against him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones against him, and cast dust.

14 Then came the King and all the people that were with him weary, and refreshed themselves <sup>1</sup>there.

15 ¶ And Absalom, and all the people the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him.

16 And when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, was come unto Absalom, Hushai said unto Absalom, <sup>1</sup>God save the King, God save the King.

17 Then Absalom said to Hushai, Is this thy kindness to thy <sup>1</sup>friend? Why wentest thou not with thy friend?

18 Hushai then answered unto Absalom, Nay, but whom the Lord, and this people, and all the men of Israel choose, his will I be, and with them will I dwell.

19 And <sup>1</sup>moreover, unto whom shall I do service? not to his son? as I served before thy father, so will I before thee.

20 ¶ Then spake Absalom to Ahithophel, Give counsel what we shall do.

21 And <sup>1</sup>Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Go in to thy father's concubines, which he hath left to keep the house: and when all Israel shall hear that thou art abhorred of thy father, the hands of all that are with thee, shall be strong.

22 So they spread Absalom a tent upon the top of the house, and Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

23 And the counsel of Ahithophel which he counseled in those days, was like as one had asked <sup>1</sup>counsel at the oracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

1 Moreover, Ahithophel said to Absalom, <sup>1</sup>Let me choose out now twelve thousand men, and I will up and follow after David this night,

2 And I will come upon him: for he is weary, and weak handled: so I will fear him, and all the people that are with him shall flee, and I will smite the king only,

3 And I will bring again all the people unto thee, and when all shall return, (<sup>1</sup>the man whom thou seekest being slain) all the people shall be in peace.

4 And the saying <sup>1</sup>pleased Absalom well, and all the Elders of Israel.

5 Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise <sup>1</sup>what he saith.

6 So when Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom spake unto him, saying, Ahithophel hath <sup>1</sup>spoken thus: shall we do after his saying, or no? tell thou.

7 Hushai then answered unto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel hath given, is not <sup>1</sup>good at this time.

16:6 <sup>1</sup> That is, round about him.

16:8 <sup>1</sup> Reproaching him, as though by his means Ishbosheth and Abner were slain.

16:10 <sup>1</sup> David felt that this was the judgment of God for his sin, and therefore humbleth himself to his rod.

16:12 <sup>1</sup> Or, my tears.

16:19 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, the second time.

16:21 <sup>1</sup> Suspecting the change of the Kingdom, and so his own overthrow, he giveth such counsel as might most hinder his father's reconciliation: and also declare to the people that Absalom was in highest authority.

16:23 <sup>1</sup> It was so esteemed for the success thereof.

17:1 <sup>1</sup> The wicked are so greedy to execute their malice, that they leave none occasion, that may further the same.

17:5 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, what is in his mouth.

17:7 <sup>1</sup> Hushai showeth himself faithful to David, in that he reproveth this wicked counsel and purpose.

8 For, said Hushai, thou knowest thy father, and his men, that they be strong men, and are chafed in mind as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field: also thy father is a valiant warrior, and will not lodge with the people.

9 Behold, he is hid now in some cave, or in some place: and though some of them be overthrown at the first, yet the people shall hear, and say, The people that follow Absalom, be overthrown.

10 Then he also that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall shrink and faint: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is valiant, and they which be with him, stout men.

11 Therefore my counsel is, that all Israel be gathered unto thee, from Dan even to Beersheba as the sand of the Sea in number, and that thou go to battle in thine own person.

12 So shall we come upon him in some place, where we shall find him, and we will upon him as the dew falleth on the ground: and of all the men that are with him, we will not leave him one.

13 Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all the men of Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there.

14 ¶ Then Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite, is better, than the counsel of Ahithophel: for the Lord had determined to destroy the good counsel of Ahithophel, that the Lord might bring evil upon Absalom.

15 Then said Hushai unto Zadok and to Abiathar the Priests, Of this and that manner did Ahithophel and the Elders of Israel counsel Absalom: and thus and thus have I counseled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and show David, saying, Tarry not this night in the fields of the wilderness, but rather get thee over, lest the king be devoured, and all the people that are with him.

17 ¶ Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz abode by <sup>1</sup>En Rogel: (for they might not be seen to come into the city) and a maid went, and <sup>2</sup>told them, and they went and showed king David.

18 Nevertheless, a young man saw them, and told it to Absalom. Therefore they both departed quickly, and came to a man's house in Bahurim, who had a well in his court, into the which they went down.

19 And the wife took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground corn thereon, that the thing should not be known.

20 And when Absalom's servants came to the wife into the house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman answered them, They be gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought them, and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

21 And as soon as they were departed, the other came out of the well, and went and told king David, and said unto him, Up, and get you quickly over the water: for such counsel hath Ahithophel given against you.

22 Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they went over Jordan until the dawning of the day, so that there lacked not one of them, that was not come over Jordan.

23 ¶ Now when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and he went home unto his city, and put his household in order, and hanged himself, and died, and was buried in his father's grave.

24 ¶ Then David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom passed over Jordan, he, and all the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom made Amasa captain of the host in the stead of Joab: which Amasa was a man's son named Jithra, an Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruiah Joab's mother.

26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

27 ¶ And when David was come to Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Nahash out of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel out of Lo Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite out of Rogelim,

28 Brought beds, and basins, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched corn, and beans, and lentils, and parched corn.

29 And they brought honey, and butter, and sheep,

17:8 <sup>1</sup> Or, tarry all night.

17:9 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, have a breach of ruin.

17:10 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, melt.

17:12 <sup>1</sup> Or, we will camp against him.

17:14 <sup>1</sup> Or, commanded.

17:17 <sup>1</sup> Or, the well of Rogel.

17:19 <sup>1</sup> Thus God sendeth succor to his, in their greatest dangers.

17:20 <sup>1</sup> The Chaldea text readeth: Now they have passed the Jordan.

17:21 <sup>1</sup> To wit, to pursue thee with all haste.

17:22 <sup>1</sup> They traveled all night, and by morning had all their company passed over.

17:23 <sup>1</sup> God's just vengeance even in this life is poured on them which are enemies, traitors, or persecutors of his Church.

17:25 <sup>1</sup> Who was also called Jesse David's Father.

17:28 <sup>1</sup> God showeth himself most liberal to his, when they seem to be utterly destitute.

and cheese of kine for David, and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said, The people is hungry, and weary, and thirsty in the wilderness.

18 <sup>2</sup> David divideth his army into three parts. <sup>9</sup> Absalom is hanged, slain, and cast into a pit. <sup>33</sup> David lamenteth the death of Absalom.

1 Then David <sup>1</sup>numbered the people that were with him, and set over them captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds.

2 And David sent forth the third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and the third part under the hand of Abishai Joab's brother, the son of Zeruah: and the other third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the King said unto the people, I will go with you myself also.

3 But the people answered, Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not regard us, neither will they pass for us, though half of us were slain: but thou art <sup>1</sup>now worth ten thousand of us: therefore now it is better that thou succor us out of the city.

4 Then the king said unto them, What seemeth you best, that I will do. So the king stood by the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds and by thousands.

5 And the king commanded Joab and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, Entreat the young man Absalom gently for my sake. And all the people heard when the King gave all the Captains charge concerning Absalom.

6 So the people went out into the field to meet Israel, and the battle was in the <sup>1</sup>wood of Ephraim:

7 Where the people of Israel were slain before the servants of David: so there was a great slaughter that day, even of twenty thousand.

8 ¶ For the battle was scattered over all the country: and the wood devoured much more people that day than did the sword.

9 ¶ Now Absalom met the servants of David, and Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule came under a great thick oak: and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up <sup>1</sup>between the heaven and the earth: and the mule that was under him went away.

10 And one that saw it, told Joab, saying, Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak.

11 Then Joab said unto the man that told him, And hast thou indeed seen? why then didst thou not there smite him to the ground, and I would have given thee ten <sup>a</sup>shekels of silver, and a girdle?

12 Then the man said unto Joab, Though I should <sup>1</sup>receive a thousand shekels of silver in mine hand, yet would I not lay mine hand upon the King's son: for in our hearing the King charged thee, and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, Beware, lest any touch the young man Absalom.

13 If I had done it, it had been <sup>1</sup>the danger of my life: for nothing can be hid from the King: yea, thou thyself wouldest have been against me.

14 Then said Joab, I will not thus tarry with thee. And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them <sup>1</sup>through Absalom, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak.

15 And ten servants that bare Joab's armor, compassed about and smote Absalom, and slew him.

16 Then Joab <sup>1</sup>blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab held back the people.

17 And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great <sup>1</sup>pit in the wood, and laid a mighty great heap of stones upon him: and all Israel fled every one to his tent.

18 Now Absalom in his life time had taken and reared him up a pillar, which is in the <sup>b</sup>King's dale: for he said, I have no <sup>1</sup>son to keep my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his own name, and it is called unto this day, Absalom's place.

19 ¶ Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, I pray thee, let me run and bear the King tidings that the Lord hath <sup>1</sup>delivered him out of the hand of his enemies.

20 And Joab said unto him, Thou <sup>1</sup>shalt not be the messenger today, but thou shalt bear tidings another time, but today thou shalt bear none: for the King's son is dead.

21 Then said Joab to Cush, Go, tell the King, what thou hast seen. And Cush bowed himself unto Joab, and ran.

22 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok again

18:1 <sup>1</sup> For certain of the Reubenites, Gadites, and of the half tribe, could not bear the insolence of the son against the father, and therefore joined with David.

18:3 <sup>1</sup> Signifying, that a good governor ought to be so dear unto his people, that they will rather lose their lives, than that ought should come unto him.

18:6 <sup>1</sup> So called, because the Ephraimites (as some say) fed their cattle beyond Jordan in this wood.

18:9 <sup>1</sup> This is a terrible example of God's vengeance against them that are rebels or disobedient to their parents.

18:12 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, weigh upon mine hand.

18:13 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, a lie against my soul.

18:14 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, in the heart of Absalom.

18:16 <sup>1</sup> For he had pity of the people, which was seduced by Absalom's flattery.

18:17 <sup>1</sup> Thus God turned his vain glory to shame.

18:18 <sup>1</sup> It seemed that God had punished him in taking away his children, 2 Sam. 14:27.

18:19 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, judged.

to Joab, What, I pray thee, if I also run after Cushi? And Joab said, Wherefore now wilt thou run my son, seeing that thou hast no tidings to bring?

23 Yet what if I run? Then he said unto him, Run. So Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain, and overwent Cush.

24 Now David sat between the two <sup>1</sup>gates. And the watchman went to the top of the gate upon the wall, and lift up his eyes, and saw, and behold, a man came running alone.

25 And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the King said, If he be alone, <sup>1</sup>he bringeth tidings. And he came apace, and drew near.

26 And the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called unto the potter, and said, Behold, another man runneth alone. And the King said, He also bringeth tidings.

27 And the watchman said, <sup>1</sup>Me thinketh the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. Then the King said, He is a <sup>2</sup>good man, and cometh with good tidings.

28 And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the King, Peace be with thee: and he fell down to the earth upon his face before the King, and said, Blessed be the Lord thy God, who hath <sup>1</sup>shut up the men that lift up their hands against my Lord the King.

29 And the King said, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the King's <sup>1</sup>servant, and me thy servant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what.

30 And the King said unto him, Turn aside, and stand here: so he turned aside and stood still.

31 And behold, Cush came, and Cush said, <sup>1</sup>Tidings, my lord the King: for the Lord hath delivered thee this day out of the hand of all that rose against thee.

32 Then the King said unto Cush, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Cush answered, The enemies of my lord the King, and all that rise against thee to do thee hurt, be as that young man is.

33 And the King was <sup>1</sup>moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he said, O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom: would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son.

1 And it was told Joab, Behold, the King weepeth and mourneth for Absalom.

2 Therefore the <sup>1</sup>victory of that day was turned into mourning to all the people: for the people heard say that day, The King sorroweth for his son.

3 And the people went that day into the city <sup>1</sup>secretly, as people confounded hide themselves when they flee in battle.

4 So the King <sup>1</sup>hid his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, My son Absalom, Absalom my son, my son.

5 ¶ Then Joab came into the <sup>1</sup>house to the King, and said, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy servants, which this day have saved thy life, and the lives of thy sons, and of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wives, and the lives of thy concubines,

6 In that thou lovest thine enemies, and hatest thy friends: for thou hast declared this day, that thou regardest neither thy <sup>1</sup>princes, nor servants: therefore this day I perceive, that if Absalom had lived, and we all had died this day, that then it would have <sup>2</sup>pleased thee well.

7 Now therefore up, come out, and speak <sup>1</sup>comfortably unto thy servants: for I swear by the Lord, except thou come out, there will not tarry one man with thee this night: and that will be worse unto thee, than all the evil that fell on thee from thy youth hitherto.

8 Then the king arose, and sat in the <sup>1</sup>gate: and they told unto all the people, saying, Behold, the king doth sit in the gate: and all the people came before the king: for Israel had fled every man to his tent.

9 ¶ Then all the people were at <sup>1</sup>strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The King saved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines, and now he is fled out of the land for Absalom.

10 And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle: therefore why are ye so slow to bring the king again?

11 But King David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the <sup>1</sup>Priests, saying, Speak unto the Elders of Judah, 18:24 <sup>1</sup> He sat in the gate of the city of Mahanaim.

18:28 <sup>1</sup> Or, delivered up.

18:29 <sup>1</sup> To wit, Cush, who was an Ethiopian.

18:31 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, tidings is brought.

18:33 <sup>1</sup> Because he considereth both the judgment of God against his sin, and could not otherwise hide his fatherly affection toward his son.

19:2 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, salvation, or deliverance.

19:3 <sup>1</sup> Or, by stealth.

19:4 <sup>1</sup> As they do that mourn.

19:5 <sup>1</sup> At Mahanaim.

19:6 <sup>1</sup> Or, captains.

19:7 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, to the heart of thy servant.

19:8 <sup>1</sup> Where the most resort of the people haunted.

19:9 <sup>1</sup> Everyone blamed another and strove who should first bring him home.

19:11 <sup>1</sup> That they should reprove the negligence of the Elders, seeing the people were so forward.

and say, Why are ye behind to bring the King again to his house (for the saying of all Israel is come unto the King, even to his house.)

12 Ye are my brethren: my bones and my flesh are ye: Wherefore then are ye the last that bring the King again?

13 Also say ye to Amasa, Art thou not my bone and my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if thou be not captain of the host to me forever in the <sup>1</sup>room of Joab.

14 So he bowed the hearts of all the men of Judah, as of one man: therefore they sent to the King, saying, Return thou with all thy servants.

15 ¶ So the king returned, and came to Jordan. And Judah came to Gilgal, for to go to meet the king, and to conduct him over Jordan.

16 ¶ And <sup>1</sup>Shimei the son of Gera, the son of Benjamin, which was of Bahurim, hasted and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David, 17 And a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and <sup>a</sup>Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and twenty servants with him: and they went over Jordan before the king.

18 And there went over a boat to carry over the king's household, and to do him pleasure. Then Shimei the son of Gera fell before the king, when he was come over Jordan,

19 And said unto the king, Let not my lord impute <sup>b</sup>wickedness unto me, nor remember the thing that thy servant did <sup>1</sup>wickedly when my lord the King departed out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart.

20 For thy servant doth know, that I have done amiss: therefore behold, I am the first this day of all the house of <sup>1</sup>Joseph, that am come to go down to meet my lord the king.

21 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered, and said, Shall not Shimei die for this, because he cursed the Lord's anointed?

22 And David said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah, that this day ye should be adversaries unto me? shall there any man die this day in Israel? for do not I know that I am this day king over Israel?

23 Therefore the king said unto Shimei, Thou shalt not <sup>1</sup>die, and the king swore unto him.

CHAPTER 19

24 ¶ And Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither washed his feet, nor dressed his beard, nor washed his clothes from the time the king departed, until he returned in peace.

25 And when <sup>1</sup>he was come to Jerusalem, and met the king, the king said unto him, Wherefore wentest not thou with me, Mephibosheth?

26 And he answered, My lord the King, my servant deceived me: for thy servant said, I would have mine ass saddled to ride thereon, for to go with the king, because thy servant is lame.

27 And he hath <sup>a</sup>accused thy servant unto my lord the king: but my lord the king is as an <sup>1</sup>angel of God: do therefore thy pleasure.

28 For all my father's house were <sup>1</sup>but dead men before my lord the king, yet didst thou set thy servant among them that did eat at thine own table: what right therefore have I yet to cry anymore unto the king?

29 And the king said unto him, Why speakest thou anymore of thy matters? I have said, Thou, and Ziba, divide the <sup>1</sup>lands.

30 And Mephibosheth said unto the king, Yea, let him take all, seeing my lord the king is come home in peace.

31 ¶ Then Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim, and went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan.

32 Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even fourscore years old, and he had provided the king of sustenance, while he lay at Mahanaim: for he was a man of very great substance.

33 And the king said unto Barzillai, Come over with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jerusalem.

34 And Barzillai said unto the king, <sup>1</sup>How long have I to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?

35 I am this day fourscore years old: and can I discern between good or evil? Hath thy servant any taste in that I eat, or in that I drink? Can I hear anymore the voice of singing men and women? wherefore then should thy servant be anymore a <sup>1</sup>burthen unto my lord the king?

36 Thy servant will go a little way over Jordan with the king, and why will the king recompense it me with such a reward?

19:13 <sup>1</sup> By this policy David thought that by winning of the captain, he should have the hearts of all the people.

19:16 <sup>1</sup> Who had before reviled him, 2 Sam. 16:13.

19:19 <sup>1</sup> For in his adversity he was his most cruel enemy, and now in his prosperity, seeketh by flattery to creep into favor.

19:20 <sup>1</sup> By Joseph he meaneth Ephraim, Manasseh and Benjamin (whereof he was) because these three were under one standard, Num. 2:18.

19:23 <sup>1</sup> By my hands, or during my life, as read 1 Kings 2:8, 9.

19:25 <sup>1</sup> When Mephibosheth being at Jerusalem had met the King.

19:27 <sup>1</sup> Able for his wisdom to judge in all matters.

19:28 <sup>1</sup> Worthy to die for Saul's cruelty toward thee.

37 I pray thee, let thy servant turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried in the grave of my father and of my mother: but behold thy servant <sup>1</sup>Chimham, let him go with my lord the King, and do to him what shall please thee.

38 And the king answered, Chimham shall go with me, and I will do to him that thou shalt be content with: and whatsoever thou shalt <sup>1</sup>require of me, that will I do for thee.

39 So all the people went over Jordan: and the king passed over: and the king kissed Barzillai, and <sup>1</sup>blessed him, and he returned unto his own place.

40 ¶ Then the King went to <sup>1</sup>Gilgal, and Chimham went with him, and all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also half the people of <sup>2</sup>Israel.

41 And behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto the king, Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and have brought the king and his household, and all David's men with him over <sup>1</sup>Jordan?

42 And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is near of kin to us: and wherefore now be ye angry for this matter? have we eaten of the king's cost, or have we taken any bribes?

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and have also more right to David than ye: Why then did ye despise us <sup>1</sup>that our advise should not be first had in restoring our king? And the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

1 Then there was come <sup>1</sup>thither a wicked man (named Sheba the son of Bichri, a man of Benjamin) and he blew the trumpet, and said, We have no part in <sup>2</sup>David, neither have we inheritance in the son <sup>3</sup>of Ishai: every man to his tents, O Israel.

2 So every man of Israel went from David and followed Sheba the son of Bichri: but the men of Judah clave fast unto their King, from <sup>1</sup>Jordan even to Jerusalem.

3 When David then came to his house to Jerusalem, the king took the ten women his <sup>a</sup>concubines, that he had left behind him to keep the house, and put them in ward, and fed them, but lay no more with them: but they were enclosed unto the day of their death, living in widowhood.

4 ¶ Then said the King to <sup>1</sup>Amasa, Assemble me the men of Judah within three days, and be thou here present.

5 So Amasa went to assemble Judah, but he tarried longer than the time which he had appointed him.

6 Then David said to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom: take thou therefore thy <sup>1</sup>lord's servants and follow after him, lest he get him walled cities, and escape us.

7 And there went out after him Joab's men, and the <sup>b</sup>Cherethites and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they departed out of Jerusalem, to follow after Sheba the son of Bichri.

8 When they were at the great stone, which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them, and Joab's <sup>1</sup>garment, that he had put on, was girded unto him, and upon it was a sword girded, which hanged on his loins in the sheath, and as he went, it used to fall out.

9 And Joab said to Amasa, Art thou in <sup>1</sup>health, my brother? and Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss him.

10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: for therewith he smote him in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and <sup>1</sup>smote him not the second time: so he died: then Joab and Abishai his brother followed after Sheba the son of Bichri.

11 And one of Joab's men <sup>1</sup>stood by him, and said, He that favoereth Joab, and he that is of David's part, let him go after Joab.

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the way: and when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the way into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, because he saw that everyone that came by him, stood still.

13 ¶ When he was removed out of the way, every man went after Joab, to follow after Sheba the son of Bichri.

14 And he went through all the tribes of Israel unto Abel, and <sup>1</sup>Beth Maachah and all places of Berim: and they gathered together, and went also after him.

to Beth Maachah, and they cast up a mount against the city, and the people thereof stood on the rampart, and all the people that was with Joab, <sup>1</sup>destroyed and cast down the wall.

16 Then cried a wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear, I pray you, say unto Joab, Come thou hither, that I may speak with thee.

17 And when he came near unto her, the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he answered, Yea. And she said to him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear.

18 Then she spake thus, <sup>1</sup>They spake in the old time, saying, They should ask of Abel: and so they have continued.

19 I am <sup>1</sup>one of them that are peaceable, and faithful in Israel: and thou goest about to destroy a city, and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou devour the inheritance of the Lord?

20 And Joab answered, and said, God forbid, God forbid it me, that I should devour, or destroy it.

21 The <sup>1</sup>matter is not so, but a man of mount Ephraim (Sheba the son of Bichri by name) hath lift up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver us him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.

22 Then the woman went unto all the people with her wisdom, and they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it to Joab: then he blew the trumpet, and <sup>1</sup>they retired from the city, every man to his tent: and Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the King.

23 ¶ Then Joab was over all the host of Israel, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada over the Cherethites, and over the Pelethites,

24 And Adoram over the tribute, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud the Recorder,

25 And Sheva was Scribe, and Zadok and Abiathar the Priests

1 Then there was a famine in the days of David, three years <sup>1</sup>together: and David <sup>2</sup>asked counsel of the Lord, and the Lord answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he slew the <sup>3</sup>Gibeonites.

2 Then the King called the Gibeonites, and said unto them, (Now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but a <sup>a</sup>remnant of the Amorites, unto whom the children of Israel had sworn: but Saul sought to slay them for his zeal toward the children of Israel and Judah)

3 And David said unto the Gibeonites, <sup>1</sup>What shall I do for you, and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless the inheritance of the Lord?

4 The Gibeonites then answered him, We will have no silver nor gold of Saul nor of his house, neither for us shalt thou kill <sup>1</sup>any man in Israel. And he said, What ye shall say that will I do for you.

5 Then they answered the king, The man that consumed us, and that imagined evil against us, so that we are destroyed from remaining in any coast of Israel,

6 Let seven men of his <sup>1</sup>sons be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up <sup>2</sup>unto the Lord in Gibeah of Saul, the Lord's chosen, And the king said, I will give them.

7 But the king had compassion on Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the <sup>b</sup>Lord's oath, that was between them, even between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

8 But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, even Armoni and Mephibosheth, and the five sons of <sup>1</sup>Michal, the daughter of Saul, whom she bare to Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite.

9 And he delivered them unto the hands of the Gibeonites, which hanged them in the mountain before the Lord: so they <sup>1</sup>died all seven together: and they were slain in the time of harvest: in the <sup>2</sup>first days, and in the beginning of barley harvest.

11 ¶ And it was told David, what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah the concubine of Saul had done.

12 And David went and took the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his son from the citizens of Jabesh Gilead, which had stolen them from the street of Beth Shan, where the Philistines had <sup>4</sup>hanged them, when the Philistines had slain Saul in Gilboa.

13 So he brought thence the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his son, and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saul and of Jonathan his son buried they in the country of Benjamin in Zelah, in the grave of Kish his father: and when they had performed all that the King had commanded, God was then <sup>1</sup>appeased with the land.

15 ¶ Again the Philistines hath war with Israel: and David went down, and his servants with him, and they fought against the Philistines, and David fainted.

16 Then Ishbi-Benob which was of the sons of <sup>1</sup>Haraphah (the head of whose spear weighed three hundred <sup>2</sup>shekels of brass) even he being girded with a new sword, thought to have slain David.

17 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah succored him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then David's men swore unto him, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, lest thou quench the <sup>1</sup>light of Israel.

18 ¶ And after this also there was a battle with the Philistines at <sup>1</sup>Gob, then Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Saph, which was one of the sons of Haraphah.

19 And there was yet another battle in Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of Jaare-Oregim, a Bethlehemite slew <sup>1</sup>Goliath the Gittite: the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

20 Afterward there was also a battle in Gath, where was a man of a great stature, and had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number: who was also the son of Haraphah.

21 And when he reviled Israel, Jonathan the son

22 These four were born to Haraphah in Gath, and died by the hand of David, and by the hands of his servants.

22 <sup>2</sup> David after his victories praiseth God. <sup>8</sup> The anger of God toward the wicked. <sup>44</sup> He prophesieth of the rejection of the Jews, and vocation of the Gentiles.

1 And David spake the words of this <sup>1</sup>song unto the Lord, what time the Lord had delivered him out of the hands of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul.

2 And he said, <sup>a</sup>The Lord is my <sup>1</sup>rock and my fortress, and he that delivereth me.

3 God is my <sup>1</sup>strength, in him will I trust: my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower and my refuge: my Savior, thou hast saved me from violence.

4 I will call on the Lord, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be safe from mine enemies.

5 For the <sup>1</sup>pangs of death have compassed me: the floods of ungodliness have made me afraid.

6 The sorrows of the grave compassed me about: the snares of death overtook me.

7 But in my tribulation did I call upon the Lord, and cry to my God, and he did hear my voice out of his Temple, and my cry did enter into his ears.

8 Then the earth trembled and quaked: the foundations of the heavens moved and shook, because he was angry.

9 <sup>1</sup>Smoke went out at his nostrils, and consuming <sup>2</sup>fire out of his mouth: coals were kindled thereat.

10 He <sup>1</sup>bowed the heavens also, and came down, and darkness was under his feet.

12 And he made darkness a <sup>1</sup>Tabernacle round about him, even the gatherings of waters, and the clouds of the air.

22:11 <sup>1</sup> To fly in a moment through the world.

22:13 <sup>1</sup> By this description of a tempest he declareth the power of God against his enemies.

High gave his voice.

15 He shot arrows also, and scattered them: to wit, lightning, and destroyed them.

16 The <sup>1</sup>channels also of the sea appeared, even the foundations of the world were discovered by the rebuking of the Lord, and at the blast of the breath of his nostrils.

17 He sent from above, and took me: he drew me out of many waters.

18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me.

19 They <sup>1</sup>prevented me in the day of my calamity, but the Lord was my stay,

20 And brought me forth into a large place: he delivered me, because he favored me.

21 The Lord rewarded me according to my <sup>1</sup>righteousness: according to the pureness of mine hands he recompensed me.

22 For I kept the ways of the Lord, and did not <sup>1</sup>wickedly against my God.

23 For all his laws were before me, and his statutes: I did not depart therefrom.

24 I was upright also toward him, and have kept me from my wickedness.

25 Therefore the Lord did reward me according to my righteousness, according to my pureness before his eyes.

26 With the godly thou wilt show thyself godly: with the upright man thou wilt show thyself upright.

27 With the pure thou wilt show thyself pure, and with the <sup>1</sup>froward thou wilt show thyself froward.

28 Thus thou wilt save the poor people: but thine eyes are upon the haughty, to humble them.

29 Surely thou art my light, O Lord: and the Lord will lighten my darkness.

30 For by thee have I broken through an host, and by my God have I leaped over a wall.

31 The way of God is <sup>1</sup>uncorrupt: the word of the Lord is tried in the fire: he is a shield to all that trust in him.

32 For who is God besides the Lord? and who is mighty, save our God?

33 God is my strength in battle, and maketh my way upright.

35 He teacheth mine hands to fight, so that a bowl <sup>1</sup>of brass is broken with mine arms.

36 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation, and thy loving kindness hath caused me to increase.

37 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, and mine heels have not slid.

38 I have pursued mine enemies, and destroyed them, and have not turned again until I had consumed them.

39 Yea, I have consumed them and thrust them through, and they shall not arise, but shall fall under my feet.

40 For thou hast <sup>1</sup>girded me with power to battle, and them that rose against me, hast thou subdued under me.

41 And thou hast given me the necks of mine enemies, that I might destroy them that hate me.

42 They looked about, but there was none to save them, even unto the <sup>1</sup>Lord, but he answered them not.

43 Then did I bear them as small as the dust of the earth: I did tread them flat as the clay of the street, and did spread them abroad.

44 Thou hast also delivered me from the contentions of my <sup>1</sup>people: thou hast preserved me to be the head over nations: the people which I knew not, do serve me.

45 Strangers <sup>1</sup>shall be in subjection to me: as soon as they hear, they shall obey me.

46 Strangers shall shrink away, and fear in their privy chambers.

47 Let the Lord live, <sup>1</sup>and blessed be my strength: and God, even the force of my salvation be exalted.

48 It is God that giveth me power to revenge me, and subdue the people under me, 49 And rescueth me from mine enemies: (thou also hast lift me up from them that rose against me, thou hast delivered me from the cruel man.

50 Therefore I will praise thee, O Lord, among the <sup>b</sup>nations, and will sing unto thy Name.)

22:22 <sup>1</sup> I attempted nothing without his commandment.

22:27 <sup>1</sup> Their wickedness is cause that thou seemest to forget thy wonted mercy.

22:31 <sup>1</sup> The manner that God useth to succor his, never faileth.

22:34 <sup>1</sup> He useth extraordinary means to make me win most strong-holds.

22:35 <sup>1</sup> Or, steel.

22:40 <sup>1</sup> He acknowledgeth that God was the author of his victories, who gave him strength.

22:42 <sup>1</sup> The wicked in their necessity are compelled to flee to God, but it is too late.

22:45 <sup>1</sup> Not willingly obeying me, but dissemblingly.

22:47 <sup>1</sup> Let him show his power, that he is the governor of all the world.

1 These also be the <sup>1</sup>last words of David, David the son of Jesse saith, even the man who was set up on high, the anointed of the God of Jacob, and the sweet singer of Israel saith,

2 The Spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his word was in my <sup>1</sup>tongue.

3 The God of Israel spake to me, the strength of Israel said, Thou shalt bear rule over men, being just, and ruling in the fear of God.

4 Even as the morning light when the sun riseth, the morning, I say, without clouds, so shall mine house be, and not as the <sup>1</sup>grass of the earth is by the bright rain.

5 For so shall not mine house be with God: for he hath made with me an everlasting covenant, perfect in all points, and sure: therefore all mine health and whole desire is, that he will not make it <sup>1</sup>grow so.

6 But the wicked shall be every one as thorns thrust away, because they cannot be taken with hands.

7 But the man that shall touch them, must be defenced with iron, or with the shaft of a spear: and they shall be burnt with fire in the same place.

8 ¶ These be the names of the mighty men whom David hath: He that sat in the seat of <sup>1</sup>wisdom, being chief of the princes, was Adino of Ezni, he slew eight hundred at one time.

9 And after him was <sup>e</sup>Eleazar the son of Dodo, the son of Ahohi, one of the three worthies with David, when they <sup>1</sup>defied the Philistines gathered there to battle, when the men of Israel were <sup>2</sup>gone up.

10 He arose and smote the Philistines, until his hand was weary, and his <sup>1</sup>hand clave unto the sword: and the Lord gave great victory the same day, and the people returned after him only to spoil.

11 After him was <sup>s</sup>Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite: for the Philistines assembled at a town, where was a piece of a field full of lentils, and the people fled from the Philistines.

12 But he stood in the midst of the field, and defended it, and slew the Philistines: so the Lord gave <sup>1</sup>great victory.

13 ¶ Afterward three of the thirty captains went down, and came to David in the harvest time unto the cave of Adullam, and the host of the Philistines

14 And David was then in an hold, and the garri-son of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.

15 And David <sup>1</sup>longed, and said, Oh, that one would give me to drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem which is by the gate.

16 Then the three mighty brake into the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took and brought it to David, who would not drink thereof, but <sup>1</sup>poured it for an offering unto the Lord,

17 And said, O Lord, be it far from me, that I should do this. Is not this the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty men.

18 ¶ And Abishai the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief among the three, and he lifted up his spear against three hundred, <sup>1</sup>and slew them, and he had the name among the three.

19 For he was most excellent of the three, and was their captain, but he attained not unto the first three.

20 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada the son of <sup>1</sup>a valiant man, which had done many acts, and <sup>was</sup> of Kabzeel, slew two strong men of Moab: he went down also, and slew a lion in the midst of a pit in the time of snow.

21 And he slew an Egyptian a <sup>1</sup>man of great stature, and the Egyptian had a <sup>2</sup>spear in his hand: but he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear.

22 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among the three worthies.

1 And the wrath of the Lord was <sup>1</sup>again kindled against Israel, and <sup>2</sup>he moved David against them, in that he said, Go, number Israel and Judah.

2 For the King said to Joab the captain of the host, which was with him, Go speedily now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beersheba, and number ye the people, that I may know the <sup>1</sup>number of the people.

3 And Joab said unto the King, The Lord thy God increase the people an hundredfold more than they be, and that the eyes of my lord the King may see it: but why doth my lord the King desire this thing?

4 Notwithstanding the King's word prevailed against Joab and against the captains of the host: therefore Joab and the captains of the host went out from the presence of the King to number the people of Israel.

5 ¶ And they passed over Jordan, and pitched in Aroer at the right side of the city that is in the midst of the <sup>1</sup>valley of Gad, and toward Jazer.

6 Then they came to Gilead, and to <sup>1</sup>Tahtim

Hodshi, so they came to Dan Jaan, and so about to Sidon,

7 And came to the fortress of <sup>1</sup>Tyre and to all the cities of the Hivites and of the Canaanites, and went toward the South of Judah, even to Beersheba.

8 ¶ So when they had gone about all the land, they returned to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9 ¶ And Joab delivered the number and sum of the people unto the King: and there were in Israel <sup>1</sup>eight hundred thousand strong men that drew swords, and the men of Judah were <sup>2</sup>five hundred thousand men.

10 Then David's heart smote him, after that he had numbered the people: and David said unto the Lord, I have sinned exceedingly, in that I have done: therefore now, Lord, I beseech thee, take away the trespass of thy servant: for I have done very foolishly.

11 ¶ And when David was up in the morning, the word of the Lord came unto the Prophet Gad David's <sup>1</sup>Seer, saying,

12 Go, and say unto David, Thus saith the Lord, I offer thee three things, choose thee which of them I shall do unto thee.

13 So Gad came to David, and showed him, and said unto him, Wilt thou that <sup>1</sup>seven years famine come upon thee in thy land, or wilt thou flee three months before thine enemies, they following thee, or that there be three days pestilence in my land? now advise thee, and see, what answer I shall give to him that sent me.

14 ¶ And David said unto Gad, I am in a wonderful strait: let us fall now into the hand of the Lord, (for his mercies are great) and let me not fall into the hand of man.

15 So the Lord sent a pestilence in Israel from the morning even unto the time appointed: and there died of the people from <sup>1</sup>Dan even to Beersheba seventy thousand men.

16 And when the Angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the Lord <sup>a</sup>repented of the evil, and said to the Angel, that destroyed the people, It is sufficient, <sup>1</sup>hold now thine hand. And the Angel of the Lord was by the threshing place of Araunah the Jebusite.

23:39 <sup>1</sup> These came to David, and helped to restore him to his Kingdom.

24:1 <sup>1</sup> Before they were plagued with famine, 2 Sam. 21:1.

24:2 <sup>1</sup> Because he did this to try his power, and so to trust therein, it offended God, else it was lawful to number the people, Exod. 30:12; Num. 1:2.

24:5 <sup>1</sup> Or, river.

24:6 <sup>1</sup> Or, to the nether land newly inhabited.

24:7 <sup>1</sup> Or, Zor.

24:9 <sup>1</sup> According to Joab's count: for in all there were eleven hundred thousand, 1 Chron. 21:5.

<sup>2</sup> Concluding under them the Benjamites: for else they had but four hundred and seventy thousand, 1 Chron. 21:5.

24:11 <sup>1</sup> Whom God had appointed for David and his time.

24:13 <sup>1</sup> For three years of famine were past for the Gibeonites' matter: this was the fourth year to the which should have been added other three years more, 1 Chron. 21:12.

24:15 <sup>1</sup> From the one side of the country to the other.

24:16 <sup>1</sup> The Lord spared this place, because he had chosen it to build his Temple there.

17 And David spake unto the Lord (when he saw the Angel that smote the people) and said, Behold, I have sinned, yea, I have done wickedly, but these sheep, what have they <sup>1</sup>done? let thine hand, I pray, thee, be against me and against my father's house.

18 ¶ So Gad came the same day to David, and said unto him, Go up, rear an altar unto the Lord in the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

19 And David (according to the saying of Gad) went up, as the Lord had commanded.

20 And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming toward him, and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the King on his face to the ground.

21 And <sup>1</sup>Araunah said, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant? Then David answered, to buy the threshing floor of thee for to build an altar unto the Lord, that the plague may cease from the people.

22 Then Araunah said unto David, Let my lord the King take and offer what seemeth him good in his eyes: behold the oxen for the burnt offering, and chariots, and the instruments of the oxen for wood.

23 (All these things did Araunah <sup>1</sup>as a king give unto the king: and Araunah said unto the king, The Lord thy God be favorable unto thee.)

24 Then the king said unto Araunah, Not so, but I will buy it of thee at a price, and will not offer burnt offering unto the Lord my God of that which doth cost me nothing. So David bought the threshing floor, and the oxen for <sup>1</sup>fifty shekels of silver.

25 And David built there an altar unto the Lord, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and the Lord was appeased toward the land, and the plague ceased from Israel.

24:17 <sup>1</sup> David saw not the just cause why God plagued the people, and therefore he offereth himself to God's corrections as the only cause of this evil.

24:21 <sup>1</sup> Called also Ornan, 1 Chron. 21:20.

24:23 <sup>1</sup> That is, abundantly: for as some write, he was King of Jerusalem before David won the tower.

24:24 <sup>1</sup> Some write that every tribe gave 50 which makes 600, or that afterward he bought as much as came to 550 shekels, 1 Chron. 21:25.

THE FIRST BOOK OF THE KINGS

1 Now when King David was <sup>1</sup>old, and stricken in years, they covered him with clothes, but no <sup>2</sup>heat came unto him.

2 Wherefore his servants said unto him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin, and let her <sup>1</sup>stand before the king, and cherish him: and let her lie in thy bosom, that my lord the King may get heat.

3 So they sought for a fair young maid throughout all the coasts of Israel, and found one Abishag <sup>1a</sup> a Shunammite, and brought her to the king.

4 And the maid was exceedingly fair, and cherished the king, and ministered to him, but the king knew her not.

5 ¶ Then Adonijah the son of Haggith, exalted himself, saying, I will be king. And he got him chariots and horsemen, and <sup>1</sup>fifty men to run before him.

6 And his father would not displease him from his <sup>1</sup>childhood, to say, Why hast thou done so? And he was a very goodly man, and his mother bare him next after Absalom.

7 And he <sup>1</sup>took counsel of Joab the son of Zeruiah, and of Abiathar the Priest: and they <sup>2</sup>helped forward Adonijah.

8 But Zadok the Priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the Prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the men of might, which were with David, were not with Adonijah.

9 Then Adonijah sacrificed sheep and oxen, and fat cattle by the stone of Zohelath, which is by <sup>1</sup>En Rogel, and called all his brethren the king's sons, and all the men of Judah the king's servants.

10 But Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah, and <sup>1</sup>the mighty men, and Solomon his brother he called not.

<sup>a</sup> 2 Sam. 3:4

11 Wherefore Nathan spake unto Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of <sup>a</sup>Haggith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth it not?

12 Now therefore come, and I will now give thee counsel, how to save thine own <sup>1</sup>life, and the life of thy son Solomon.

13 Go, and get thee in unto King David, and say unto him, Didst not thou, my lord, O King, swear unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly, Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? why is then Adonijah King?

14 Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the King, I also will come in after thee, and <sup>1</sup>confirm thy words.

15 ¶ So Bathsheba went in unto the King into the chamber, and the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite ministered unto the King.

16 And Bathsheba bowed and made obeisance unto the king. And the king said, What is thy matter?

17 And she answered him, My lord, thou swearest by the Lord thy God unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne.

18 And behold, now is Adonijah king, and now my lord, O King, thou knowest <sup>1</sup>it not.

19 And he hath offered many oxen, and fat cattle, and sheep, and hath called all the sons of the King, and Abiathar the Priest, and Joab the Captain of the host: but Solomon thy servant hath he not bidden.

20 And thou, my lord, O King, knowest that the eyes of all Israel are on thee, that thou shouldest tell them, who should sit on the throne of my lord the King after him.

21 For else when my lord the King shall sleep with his fathers, I and my son Solomon shall be <sup>1</sup>reputed <sup>2</sup>vile.

1:1 <sup>1</sup> He was about 70 years old, 2 Sam. 5:4.

1:2 <sup>1</sup> Or, serve him.

1:3 <sup>1</sup> Which city was in the tribe of Issachar, as Josh. 19:18.

1:5 <sup>1</sup> Read 2 Sam. 15:1.

1:6 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, days.

1:7 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, his words were with Joab.

<sup>2</sup> They took his part and followed him.

1:9 <sup>1</sup> Or, the fountains.

1:10 <sup>1</sup> As the Cherethites and Pelethites.

1:12 <sup>1</sup> For Adonijah will destroy thee and thy son, if he reigns.

1:14 <sup>1</sup> By declaring such things, as may further the same.

1:18 <sup>1</sup> The king being worn with age, could not attend to the affairs of the realm, and also Adonijah had many flatterers which kept it from the king.

1:21 <sup>1</sup> And so put to the death as wicked transgressors.

22 And lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan also the Prophet came in.

23 And they told the King, saying, Behold, Nathan the Prophet. And when he was come in to the King, he made obeisance before the king upon his face <sup>1</sup>to the ground.

24 And Nathan said, My lord, O king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne?

25 For he is gone down this day, and hath slain many oxen, and fat cattle, and sheep, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the Priest: and behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, <sup>1</sup>God save king Adonijah.

26 But me thy servant, and Zadok the Priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and thy servant Solomon hath he not called.

27 Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou hast not showed it unto thy <sup>1</sup>servant, who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?

28 ¶ Then king David answered, and said, Call me Bathsheba. And she came into the king's presence, and stood before the King.

29 And the King sware, saying, As the Lord liveth, who hath redeemed my soul out of all adversity,

30 That as I <sup>1</sup>sware unto thee by the Lord God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my place, so will I certainly do this day.

31 Then Bathsheba bowed her face to the earth, and did reverence unto the king, and said, God save my lord king David forever.

32 ¶ And king David said, Call me Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the King.

33 Then the king said unto them, Take with you the <sup>1</sup>servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon mine own mule, and carry him down to Gihon.

34 And let Zadok the Priest and Nathan the Prophet anoint him there king over Israel, and blow ye the trumpet, and say, God save King Solomon.

35 Then come up after him, that he may come and sit upon my throne: and he shall be King in my stead: for I have <sup>1</sup>appointed him to be prince over Israel, and over Judah.

36 Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, So be it, and the Lord God of my lord the king <sup>1</sup>ratify it.

37 As the Lord hath been with my lord the king, so be he with Solomon, and exalt his throne above the throne of my lord king David.

38 So Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites went down and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and brought him to Gihon.

39 And Zadok the Priest took an horn of <sup>1</sup>oil out of the Tabernacle, and anointed Solomon: and they blew the trumpet, and all the people said, God save king Solomon.

40 And all the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth <sup>1</sup>rang with the sound of them.

41 ¶ And Adonijah and all the guests that were with him, heard it: (and they had made an end of eating) and when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, What meaneth this noise and uproar in the city?

42 And as he yet spake, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the Priest came: and Adonijah said, Come in: for thou art a <sup>1</sup>worthy man, and bringest <sup>2</sup>good tidings.

43 And Jonathan answered, and said to Adonijah, Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon king.

44 And the king hath sent with him Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule.

45 And Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet have anointed him king in Gihon: and they are gone up from thence with joy, and the city is moved: this is the noise that ye have heard.

46 And Solomon also sitteth on the throne of the kingdom.

47 And moreover the king's servants came <sup>1</sup>to bless our lord king David, saying, God make the name of Solomon more famous than thy name, and exalt his throne above thy throne: therefore the king worshipped upon the <sup>2</sup>bed.

48 And thus said the king also, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who hath made one to sit on my throne this day, even in my sight.

49 Then all the guests that were with Adonijah, were afraid, and rose up, and went every man his way.

50 ¶ And Adonijah fearing the presence of Solomon, arose and went, and took hold on the horns of the <sup>1</sup>altar.

51 And one told Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah doth fear king Solomon: for lo, he hath caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let King Solomon swear unto me this day, that he will not slay his servant with the sword.

52 Then Solomon said, If he will show himself a worthy man, there shall not a hair of him fall to the earth, but if wickedness be found in him, he shall die.

53 Then king Solomon sent, and they brought him from the altar, and he came and did obeisance unto King Solomon. And Solomon said unto him, Go to thine house.

8 ¶ And behold, with thee <sup>f</sup>is Shimei the son of Gera, the son of Benjamin, of Bahurim, which cursed me with an horrible curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but he came down to meet me at Jordan, and I sware to him by the Lord, saying, <sup>g</sup>I will not slay thee with the sword.

9 But thou shalt not count him innocent: for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him: therefore thou shalt cause his hoar head to go down to the grave with <sup>1</sup>blood.

10 So <sup>b</sup>David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David.

11 And the days which David <sup>1</sup>reigned upon Israel, were forty years: seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

12 ¶ <sup>j</sup>Then sat Solomon upon the throne of David his father, and his kingdom was established mightily.

13 And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon: and she said, <sup>1</sup>Comest thou peaceably? and he said, Yea.

14 He said moreover, I have a suit unto thee. And she said, Say on.

15 Then he said, Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set <sup>1</sup>their faces on me, that I should reign: howbeit the kingdom is turned away, and is my brother's: for it came to him by the Lord.

16 Now therefore I ask thee one request, <sup>1</sup>refuse me not. And she said unto him, Say on.

17 And he said, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the King, (for he will not say thee nay) that he give me Abishag the Shunammite to wife.

18 And Bathsheba said, Well, I will speak for thee unto the King.

19 ¶ Bathsheba therefore went unto King Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah: and the king rose to meet her, and <sup>1</sup>bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne: and he caused a seat to be set for the king's mother, and she sat at his right hand.

20 Then she said, I desire a small request of thee, say me not nay. Then the King said unto her, Ask on, my mother: for I will not say thee nay.

21 She said then, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife.

22 But king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why dost thou ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him the <sup>1</sup>kingdom also: for he is mine elder brother, and hath for him both Abiathar the Priest, and Joab the son of Zeruiah.

23 Then King Solomon sware by the Lord, saying, God do so to me and more also, if Adonijah hath not spoken this word against his own life.

24 Now therefore as the Lord liveth, who hath established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, who hath also made me an house, as he <sup>k</sup>promised, Adonijah shall surely die this day.

25 And King Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he <sup>1</sup>smote him that he died.

26 ¶ Then the King said unto Abiathar the Priest, Go to Anathoth unto thine own <sup>1</sup>fields: for thou art <sup>2</sup>worthy of death: but I will not this day kill thee, because thou <sup>3</sup>barest the Ark of the Lord God before David my father, and because thou hast suffered in all, wherein my father hath been afflicted.

27 So Solomon cast out Abiathar from being Priest unto the Lord, that he might <sup>1</sup>fulfill the words of the Lord, which he spake against the house of Eli in Shiloh.

28 ¶ Then tidings came to Joab: (for Joab had <sup>1</sup>turned after Adonijah, but he turned not after Absalom) and Joab fled unto the Tabernacle of the Lord, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

29 And it was told king Solomon, that Joab was fled unto the Tabernacle of the Lord, and behold, he is by the <sup>1</sup>altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall upon him.

30 And Benaiah came to the Tabernacle of the Lord, and said unto him, Thus saith the King, Come out. And he said, Nay, but I will die here. Then Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.

31 And the king said unto him, Do as he hath said, and <sup>1</sup>smite him, and bury him, that thou mayest take away the blood, which Joab shed causeless, from me, and from the house of my father.

32 And the Lord shall bring his blood upon his own head, for he smote two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, and my father David knew not: to wit, <sup>m</sup>Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and <sup>n</sup>Amasa the son of Jether captain of the host of Judah.

33 Their blood shall therefore return upon the <sup>1</sup>head of Joab, and on the head of his seed forever: but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house and upon his throne shall there be peace forever from the Lord.

34 So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and smote him and slew him, and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

35 And the King put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host: and the king set Zadok the <sup>1</sup>Priest in the room of Abiathar.

36 ¶ Afterward the king sent, and called Shimei and said unto him, Build thee an house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and depart not thence any whither.

37 For that day that thou goest out, and passest over the river of Kidron, know assuredly, that thou shalt die the death: thy blood shall be upon thine own head.

38 And Shimei said unto the king, The thing is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. So Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

39 And after three years two of the <sup>1</sup>servants of Shimei fled away unto Achish son of Maachah king of Gath: and they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy servants be in Gath.

40 And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish, to seek his servants: and <sup>1</sup>Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath.

41 And it was told Solomon, that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again.

42 And the King sent and called Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to swear by the Lord, and protested unto thee, saying, That day that thou goest out, and walkest any whither, know assuredly that thou shalt die the death? And thou saidest unto me, The thing is good, that I have heard.

43 Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the Lord, and the commandment wherewith I charged thee?

2:22 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, that if he should have granted Abishag, which was so dear to his father, he would afterward have aspired to the kingdom.

2:25 <sup>1</sup> Or, fell upon him.

2:26 <sup>1</sup> Or, possessions.

2:28 <sup>1</sup> He took Adonijah's part when he would have usurped the kingdom, 1 Kings 1:7.

2:29 <sup>1</sup> Thinking to be saved by the holiness of the place.

2:31 <sup>1</sup> For it was lawful to take the willful murderer from the altar, Exod. 21:14.

2:33 <sup>1</sup> Joab shall be justly punished for the blood that he hath cruelly shed.

2:35 <sup>1</sup> And so took the office of the high Priest from the house of Eli, and restored it to the house of Phinehas.

2:39 <sup>1</sup> Thus God appointeth the ways and means to bring his just judgments upon the wicked.

2:40 <sup>1</sup> His covetous mind moved him rather to venture his life, than to lose his worldly profit, which he had by his servants.

44 The King said also to Shimei, <sup>1</sup>Thou knowest all the wickedness whereunto thine heart is privy, that thou didst to David my father: the Lord therefore shall bring thy wickedness upon thine own head.

45 And let king Solomon be blessed, and the throne of David established before the Lord forever.

46 So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada: who went out and smote him that he died. And the <sup>o</sup>kingdom was <sup>1</sup>established in the hand of Solomon.

3 1 Solomon taketh Pharaoh's daughter to wife. 5 The Lord appeareth to him, and giveth him wisdom. 17 The pleading of the two harlots, and Solomon's sentence therein.

1 Solomon <sup>u</sup>then made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the <sup>1</sup>city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of the Lord, and the wall of Jerusalem round about.

2 Only the people sacrificed in the <sup>1</sup>high places, because there was no house built unto the Name of the Lord, until those days.

3 And Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the ordinances of David his <sup>1</sup>father: only he sacrificed and offered incense in the high places.

4 And the King went to <sup>1</sup>Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the chief high place: a thousand burnt offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar.

5 In Gibeon the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee.

6 And Solomon said, Thou hast showed unto thy servant David my father great mercy, <sup>1</sup>when he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee: and thou hast <sup>2</sup>kept for him this great mercy, and hast given him a son, to sit on his throne, as appeareth this day.

7 And now, O Lord my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: and I am but a young child, and know not how to <sup>1</sup>go out and in.

8 And thy servant is in the midst of thy people, which thou hast chosen, even a great people, which cannot be told nor numbered for multitude.

9 <sup>b</sup>Give therefore unto thy servant an <sup>1</sup>understanding heart, to judge thy people: that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy <sup>2</sup>mighty people?

10 And this pleased the Lord well, that Solomon had desired this thing.

11 And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself long life, neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine <sup>1</sup>enemies, but hast asked for thyself understanding to hear judgment,

12 Behold, I have done according to thy words: lo, I have given thee a wise and understanding heart, so that there hath been none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall arise the like unto thee.

13 And I have also <sup>c</sup>given thee that, which thou hast not asked, both riches and honor, so that among the Kings there <sup>1</sup>shall be none like unto thee all thy days.

14 And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep mine ordinances and my commandments, <sup>d</sup>as thy father David did walk, I will prolong thy days.

15 And when Solomon awoke, behold it was <sup>1</sup>a dream, and he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the Ark of the covenant of the Lord, and offered burnt offerings, and made peace offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.

16 ¶ Then came two <sup>1</sup>harlots unto the king, and <sup>2</sup>stood before him.

17 And the one woman said, Oh my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house, and I was delivered of a child with her in the house.

18 And the third day after that I was delivered, this woman was delivered also, and we were in the house together: no stranger was with us in the house save we twain.

19 And this woman's son died in the night: for she overlay him.

20 And she rose at midnight, and <sup>1</sup>took my son from my side, while thine handmaid slept, and laid him in her bosom, and laid her dead son in my bosom.

21 And when I arose in the morning to give my son suck, behold, he was dead: and when I had well considered him in the morning, behold, it was not my son, whom I had borne.

2:44 <sup>1</sup> For though thou wouldest deny, yet thine own conscience would accuse thee for reviling and doing wrong to my father, 2 Sam 16:5.

<sup>2</sup> By this example it appeareth that God kept his promise with Solomon in granting him wisdom.

3:20 <sup>1</sup> She stole the quick child away, because she might both avoid the shame and punishment.

22 Then the other woman said, Nay, but my son liveth, and thy son is dead. Again she said, No, but thy son is dead, and mine alive: thus they spake before the king.

23 Then said the king, She saith, This that liveth is my son, and the dead is thy son: and the other saith, Nay, but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son.

24 Then the King said, <sup>1</sup>Bring me a sword: and they brought out a sword before the king.

25 And the king said, Divide ye the living child in twain, and give the one half to the one, and the other half to the other.

26 Then spake the woman, whose the living child was, unto the king, for her compassion was kindled toward her son, and she said, Oh my lord, give her the living child and <sup>1</sup>slay him not: but the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it.

27 Then the king answered, and said, Give her the living child, and slay him not: this is his mother.

28 And all Israel heard the judgment which the king had judged, and they feared the king: for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to do justice.

4 <sup>2</sup> The princes and rulers under Solomon. 22 The purveyance for his victuals. 26 The number of his horses. 32 His books and writings.

1 And king Solomon was king over all Israel.

2 And these were <sup>1</sup>his princes, <sup>2</sup>Azariah the son of Zadok the Priest,

3 Elihoreph and Ahijah the sons of Shisha, Scribes, Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the Recorder,

4 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the host, and Zadok and <sup>1</sup>Abiathar, Priests,

5 And Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers, and Zabud the son of Nathan, Priest, was the king's friend,

6 And Ahishar was over the household, and <sup>a</sup>Adoniram the son of Abda was over the tribute.

7 ¶ And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, which provided victuals for the king and his household: each man had a month in the year to provide victuals.

8 And these are their names: the son of Hur in mount Ephraim:

9 The son of Deker in Makaz, and in Shaalbim and Beth Shemesh, and <sup>1</sup>Elon and Beth Hanan:

10 The son of Hessed in Arubboth, to whom pertained Sochoh, and all the land of Hephher:

11 The son of Abinadab in all the region of Dor, which had Taphath the daughter of Solomon to wife.

12 Baana the son of Ahilud in Taanach, and Megiddo, and in all Beth Shean, which is by Zaretan beneath Jezreel, from Beth Shean <sup>1</sup>to Abel Meholah, even till beyond over against Jokneam:

13 The son of Geber in Ramoth Gilead, and his were the towns of <sup>1</sup>Jair, the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead, and under him was the region of Argob, which is in Bashan: threescore great cities with walls and bars of brass.

14 ¶ Ahinadab the son of Iddo had to Mahanaim:

15 Ahimaaz in Naphtali, and he took Basemath the daughter of Solomon to wife:

16 Baanah the son of Hushai in Asher and in Aloth:

17 Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah in <sup>1</sup>Issachar:

18 Shimei the son of Elah in Benjamin:

19 Geber the son of Uri in the country of Gilead, the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, and of Og king of Bashan, and was officer alone in the land.

20 Judah and Israel were many, as the sand of the sea in number, <sup>1</sup>eating, drinking, and making merry.

21 And Solomon reigned over all kingdoms, from the <sup>1</sup>River unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt, and they brought presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life.

22 And Solomon's victuals for one day were thirty <sup>1</sup>measures of fine flour, and threescore measures of meal:

23 Ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen of the pastures, and an hundred sheep, besides harts, and bucks, and bugles, and fat fowl.

24 For he ruled in all the region on the other side of the River, from Tiphshah even unto <sup>1</sup>Gaza, over all the <sup>2</sup>kings on the other side the River: and he had peace round about him on every side.

25 And Judah and Israel dwelt without fear every man under his vine, and under his fig tree, from <sup>1</sup>Dan, even to Beersheba, all the days of Solomon.

26 ¶ And Solomon had <sup>b</sup>forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.

4:4 <sup>1</sup> Not Abiathar whom Solomon had put from his office, 1 Kings 2:27, but another of that Name.

4:12 <sup>1</sup> Or, to the plain.

4:13 <sup>1</sup> Which towns bare Jair's name, because he took them of the Canaanites, Num. 32:41.

4:17 <sup>1</sup> Solomon observed not the division that Joshua made, but divided it as might best serve for his purpose.

4:24 <sup>1</sup> Or, Gaza.

<sup>2</sup> For they were all tributaries unto him.

4:25 <sup>1</sup> Throughout all Israel.

27 And these officers provided victual for king Solomon, and for all that came to king Solomon's table, every man his month, and they suffered to lack nothing.

28 Barley also and straw for the horses and mules, brought they unto the place where the officers were, every man according to his charge.

29 ¶ And God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and <sup>1</sup>a large heart, even as the sand that is on the seashore,

30 And Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the <sup>1</sup>East, and all the wisdom of Egypt.

31 For he was wiser than any man: yea, than were Ethan the Ezrahite, than Heman, than Chalcol, than Darda the sons of Mahol: and he was famous throughout all nations round about.

32 And Solomon spake three thousand <sup>1</sup>proverbs: and his songs were a thousand and five.

33 And he spake of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon, even unto the <sup>1</sup>hyssop that springeth out of the wall: he spake also of beasts, and of fowls, and of creeping things, and of fishes.

34 And there came of all people to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdom.

4 But now the Lord my God hath given me <sup>1</sup>rest on every side, so that there is neither adversary, nor evil to resist.

set upon thy throne for thee, he shall build an house unto my Name.

6 Now therefore command, that they hew me cedar trees out of Lebanon, and my servants shall be with thy servants, and unto thee will I give the <sup>1</sup>hire for thy servants, according to all that thou shalt appoint: for thou knowest that there are none among us, that can hew timber like unto the Sidonians.

7 ¶ And when <sup>1</sup>Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be the Lord this day, which hath given unto David a wise son over this mighty people.

8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have considered the things, for the which thou sentest unto me, and will accomplish all thy desire, concerning the cedar trees and fir trees.

9 My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon to the sea: and I will convey them by sea <sup>1</sup>in rafts unto the place that thou shalt show me, and will cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receive them: now thou shalt do me a pleasure to minister food for <sup>2</sup>my family.

10 So Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees and fir trees, even his full desire.

11 And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand <sup>1</sup>measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of <sup>2</sup>beaten oil. Thus much gave Solomon to Hiram year by year.

12 ¶ And the Lord gave Solomon wisdom as he <sup>1</sup>promised him. And there was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and they <sup>1</sup>two made a covenant.

13 ¶ And King Solomon raised a sum out of all Israel, and the sum was thirty thousand men:

14 Whom he sent to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by course: they were a month in Lebanon, and two months at home. And <sup>d</sup>Adoniram was over the sum.

15 And Solomon had seventy thousand that bare burdens, and fourscore thousand masons in the mountain,

16 Besides the <sup>1</sup>princes, whom Solomon appointed over the work, even three thousand and three hundred, which ruled the people that wrought in the work.

17 And the King commanded them, and they brought great stones and costly stones to make the foundations of the house, even hewed stones.

4:29 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, great understanding and able to comprehend all things.

5:6 <sup>1</sup> This was his equity, that he would not receive a benefit without some recompense.

5:7 <sup>1</sup> In Hiram is prefigured the vocation of the Gentiles, who should help to build the Spiritual Temple.

5:9 <sup>1</sup> Or, floats.

5:12 <sup>1</sup> As touching the furniture of wood and vittles.

5:16 <sup>1</sup> Or, masters of the work.

18 And Solomon's workmen, and the workmen of Hiram, and the <sup>1</sup>masons hewed and prepared timber and stones for the building of the house.

6 <sup>1</sup> The building of the Temple and the form thereof. 12 The promise of the Lord to Solomon.

1 And <sup>a</sup>in the four hundred and fourscore year (after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt) and in the fourth year of the reign of Solomon over Israel, in the month <sup>1</sup>Ziv, (which is the second month) he built the <sup>2</sup>house of the Lord.

2 And the house which king Solomon built for the Lord, was threescore cubits long, and twenty broad, and thirty cubits high.

3 And the <sup>1</sup>porch before the Temple of the house was twenty cubits long according to the breadth of the house, and ten cubits broad before the house.

4 And in the house he made windows, <sup>1</sup>broad without, and narrow within.

5 And by the wall of the house he made <sup>1</sup>galleries round about, even by the walls of the house round about the Temple and <sup>2</sup>the oracle, and made chambers round about.

6 And the nethermost gallery was five cubits broad, and the middlemost six cubits broad, and the third seven cubits broad: for he made <sup>1</sup>rests round about without the house, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house.

7 And when the house was built, it was built of stone perfect, before it was brought, so that there was neither hammer, nor axe, nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building.

8 The door of the middle <sup>1</sup>chamber was in the right side of the house, and men went up with winding stairs into the middlemost, and out of the middlemost into the third.

9 So he built the <sup>1</sup>house and finished it, and ceiled the house, being vaulted with ceiling of cedar trees.

10 And he built the galleries upon all the wall of the house of five cubits height, and they were joined to the house with beams of cedar.

11 And the word of the Lord came to Solomon, saying,

CHAPTER 6

<sup>a</sup> 2 Chron. 3:1<sup>b</sup> 2 Sam. 7:13

12 Concerning this house which thou buildest, if thou wilt walk in mine ordinances, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments, to walk in them, then will I perform unto thee my promise, <sup>b</sup>which I promised to David thy father.

13 And I will <sup>1</sup>dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.

14 So Solomon built the house and finished it,

15 And built the walls of the house within, with boards of Cedar tree from the pavement of the house unto <sup>1</sup>the walls of the ceiling, and within he covered them with wood, and covered the floor of the house with planks of fir.

16 And he built twenty cubits in the sides of the house with boards of Cedar, from the floor to the walls, and he prepared a place within it for the oracle, even the most holy place.

17 But the <sup>1</sup>house, that is, the Temple before it, was forty cubits long.

18 And the Cedar of the house within was carved with <sup>1</sup>knops, and graven with flowers: all was Cedar, so that no stone was seen.

19 ¶ Also he prepared the place of the oracle in the midst of the <sup>1</sup>house within, to set the Ark of the covenant of the Lord there.

20 And the place of the oracle within was twenty cubits long, and twenty cubits broad, and twenty cubits high: and he covered it with pure gold, and covered the altar with Cedar.

21 So Solomon covered the house within with pure gold, and he <sup>1</sup>shut the place of the oracle with chains of gold, and covered it with gold.

22 And he overlaid all the house with gold, until all the house was made perfect. Also he covered the <sup>1</sup>whole altar, that was before the oracle, with gold.

23 And within the oracle he made two Cherubims of <sup>1</sup>Olive tree, ten cubits high.

24 The wing also of the one Cherub was five cubits, and the wing of the other Cherub was five cubits: from the uttermost part of one of his wings unto the uttermost part of the other of his wings, were ten cubits.

25 Also the other Cherub was of ten cubits: both the Cherubims were of one measure and one size.

5:18 <sup>1</sup> The Hebrew word is Giblym, which some say were excellent masons.

6:4 <sup>1</sup> Or, to open and to shut.

6:5 <sup>1</sup> Or, lofts.

<sup>2</sup> Whence God spake between the Cherubims, called also the most holy place.

6:6 <sup>1</sup> Which were certain stones coming out of the wall, as stays for the beams to rest upon.

6:8 <sup>1</sup> Or, Gallery.

6:9 <sup>1</sup> In Exodus it is called the Tabernacle: and the Temple is here called the Sanctuary, and the Oracle the most holy place.

6:13 <sup>1</sup> According as he promised unto Moses, Exod. 25:22.

6:15 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, unto the roof which was also ceiled.

6:17 <sup>1</sup> For when he spake of the house in the first verse, he meant both the Oracle, and the Temple.

6:18 <sup>1</sup> Or, wild cucumbers.

6:19 <sup>1</sup> That is, in the most inward place of the house.

6:21 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, he drew through chains of gold before.

6:22 <sup>1</sup> Meaning, the altar of incense, Exod. 30:1.

6:23 <sup>1</sup> Or, Pine tree

26 For the height of the one Cherub was ten cubits, and so was the other Cherub.

27 And he put the Cherubims within the inner house,<sup>c</sup> and the Cherubims stretched out their wings, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other Cherub touched the other wall: and their other wings touched one another in the midst of the house.

28 And he <sup>1</sup>overlaid the Cherubims with gold.

29 And he carved all the walls of the house round about with graven figures of Cherubims and of Palm trees, and graven flowers within and without.

30 And the floor of the house he covered with gold within and without.

31 And in the entering of the oracle he made two doors of Olive trees: and the upper post and side posts were five square.

32 The two doors also were of Olive tree, and he graved them with graving of Cherubims, and Palm trees, and graven flowers, and covered them with gold, and laid <sup>1</sup>thin gold upon the Cherubims and upon the Palm trees.

33 And so made he for the door of the Temple, posts of Olive trees foursquare.

34 But the two doors were of fir tree, the two sides of the one door were <sup>1</sup>round, and the two sides of the other door were round.

35 And he graved Cherubims, and Palm trees, and carved flowers, and covered the carved work with gold finely wrought.

36 ¶ And he built the <sup>1</sup>court within with three rows of hewed stone, and one row of beams of Cedar.

37 In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of the Lord laid in the month of Ziv:

38 And in the eleventh year in the month of <sup>1</sup>Bul, (which is the eighth month) he finished the house with all the furniture thereof, and in every point: so was he seven years in building it.

7 <sup>1</sup> The building of the house of Solomon. <sup>15</sup> The excellent workmanship of Hiram in the pieces which he made for the Temple.

<sup>a</sup> 1 Kings 9:10

1 But Solomon was building his own house <sup>a</sup>thirteen years, and <sup>1</sup>finished all his house.

2 He built also an house <sup>1</sup>called the forest of Lebanon, an hundred cubits long, and fifty cubits broad, and thirty cubits high, upon four rows of Cedar pillars: and Cedar beams were laid upon the pillars.

3 And it was covered above with cedar upon the beams, that lay on the forty and five pillars, fifteen in a row.

4 And the windows were in three rows, and window was <sup>1</sup>against window in three ranks.

5 And all the doors, and the side posts with the windows were foursquare, and window was over against window in three ranks.

6 And he made a porch of pillars fifty cubits long, and thirty cubits broad, and the porch was before <sup>1</sup>them, even before them were thirty pillars.

7 ¶ Then he made a porch <sup>1</sup>for the throne, where he judged, even a porch of judgment, and it was ceiled with cedar from pavement to pavement.

8 And in his house where he dwelt was another hall more inward than the porch which was of the same work. Also Solomon made an house for Pharaoh's daughter (<sup>b</sup>whom he had taken to wife) like unto this porch.

9 All these were <sup>1</sup>of costly stones, hewed by measure, and sawed with saws within and without, from the foundation unto <sup>2</sup>the stones of an <sup>3</sup>hand breadth, and on the outside to the great court.

10 And the foundation was of costly stones, and great stones, even of stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits.

11 <sup>1</sup>Above also were costly stones squared by rule, and boards of cedar.

12 ¶ And the great court round about was with three rows of hewed stones, and a row of cedar beams: <sup>1</sup>so was it to the inner court of the house of the Lord, and to the porch of the house.

13 ¶ Then King Solomon sent, and fet one Hiram out of <sup>1</sup>Tyre.

14 He was a widow's son of the tribe of Naphtali, his father being a man of Tyre, and wrought in brass: <sup>1</sup>he was full of wisdom, and understanding, and

6:28 <sup>1</sup> For the others which Moses made of beaten gold, were taken away with the other jewels by their enemies, whom God permitted divers times to overcome them for their great sins.

7:1 <sup>1</sup> After he had built the Temple.

7:2 <sup>1</sup> For the beauty of the place, and great abundance of cedar trees that went to the building thereof, it was compared to mount Lebanon in Syria: this house he used in summer for pleasure and recreation.

7:4 <sup>1</sup> There were as many, and like proportion on the one side as the other, and at every end even three in a row one above another.

knowledge to work all manner of work in brass: who came to King Solomon, and wrought all his work.

15 For he cast two pillars of brass: the height of a pillar was eighteen cubits, and a thread of twelve cubits did compass <sup>1</sup>either of the pillars.

16 And he made two <sup>1</sup>chapters of molten brass to set on the tops of the pillars: the height of one of the chapters was five cubits, and the height of the other chapter was five cubits.

17 He made grates like network and <sup>1</sup>wreathen work like chains for the chapters that were on the top of the pillars, even seven for the one chapter, and seven for the other chapter.

18 So he made the pillars and two rows of pomegranates round about in the one grate to cover the chapters that were upon the top. And thus did he for the other chapter.

19 And the chapters that were on the top of the pillars were after <sup>1</sup>lily work in the porch, four cubits.

20 And the chapters upon the two pillars had also above, <sup>1</sup>over against the belly <sup>2</sup>within the network pomegranates: for two hundred pomegranates were in the two ranks about upon <sup>3</sup>either of the chapters.

21 And he set up the pillars in the <sup>1</sup>porch of the Temple. And when he had set up the right pillar, he called the name thereof <sup>2</sup>Jachin: and when he had set up the left pillar, he called the name thereof <sup>3</sup>Boaz.

22 And upon the top of the pillars was work of lilies: so was the workmanship of the pillars finished.

23 ¶ And he made a molten <sup>1</sup>sea of ten cubits wide from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits high, and a line of thirty cubits did compass it about.

24 And under the brim of it were knops like wild cucumbers compassing it round about, ten in one cubit, compassing the sea round about: and the two rows of knops were cast, when it was molten.

25 It stood on twelve bulls, three looking toward the North, and three toward the West, and three toward the South, and three toward the East: and the sea stood above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

26 It was <sup>1</sup>an handbreadth thick, and the brim thereof was like the work of the brim of a cup with flowers of lilies: it contained two thousand <sup>2</sup>baths.

27 ¶ And he made ten bases of brass, one base was four cubits long, and four cubits broad, and three cubits high.

28 ¶ And the work of the bases was on this manner, They had borders, and the borders were between the ledges:

29 And on the borders that were between the ledges, were lions, bulls and Cherubims: and upon the ledges there was a base above: and beneath the lions and bulls, were additions made of thin work.

30 And every base had four brazen wheels, and plates of brass: and the four corners had <sup>1</sup>undersetters: under the caldron were undersetters molten at the side of every addition.

31 And the <sup>1</sup>mouth of it was within the chapter and above to measure by the cubit: for the mouth thereof was round, made like a base, and it was a cubit and half a cubit: and also upon the mouth thereof were graven works, whose borders were foursquare, and not round.

32 And under the borders were four wheels and the axletrees of the wheels joined to the base: and the height of a wheel was a cubit, and half a cubit.

33 And the fashion of the wheels was like the fashion of a chariot wheel, their axletrees, and their naves and their <sup>1</sup>felloes, and their spokes were all molten.

34 And four undersetters were upon the four corners of one base: and the undersetters thereof were of the base itself.

35 And in the top of the base was a round <sup>1</sup>compass of half a cubit high round about: and upon the top of the base the ledges thereof, and the borders thereof were of the same.

36 And upon the tables of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof he did grave Cherubims, lions and palm trees, on the side of every one, and additions round about.

37 Thus made he the ten bases, They had all one casting, one measure, and one size.

38 ¶ Then made he <sup>1</sup>ten cauldrons of brass, one cauldron contained forty baths, and every cauldron was four cubits, one cauldron was upon one base throughout the ten bases.

7:15 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, the second.

7:16 <sup>1</sup> Or, pommels.

7:17 <sup>1</sup> Or, cords like chains.

7:26 <sup>1</sup> Or, a span.

<sup>2</sup> Bath and Ephah seem to be both one measure, Ezek. 45:11, every bath contained about ten pottles.

7:30 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, shoulders.

7:31 <sup>1</sup> The mouth of the great base or frame entered into the chapter, or pillar that bare up the cauldron.

39 And he set the bases, five on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house. And he set the sea on the right side of the <sup>1</sup>house Eastward toward the South.

40 ¶ And Hiram made cauldrons, and besoms, and basins, and Hiram finished all the work that he made to King Solomon for the house of the Lord:

41 To wit, two pillars and two bowls of the chapiters that were on the top of the two pillars, and two grates to cover the two bowls of the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars,

42 And four hundred pomegranates for the two grates, even two rows of pomegranates for every grate to cover the two bowls of the chapiters, that were upon the pillars,

43 And the ten bases, and ten cauldrons upon the bases,

44 And the sea, and twelve bulls under that sea,

45 And pots, and besoms, and basins: and all these vessels, which <sup>1</sup>Hiram made to king Solomon for the house of the Lord, were of shining brass.

46 In the plain of Jordan did the King cast them in <sup>1</sup>clay between Succoth and Zaretan.

47 And Solomon left to weigh all the vessels, because of the exceeding abundance, neither could the weight of the brass be counted.

48 So Solomon made all the vessels that pertained unto the house of the Lord, the <sup>1</sup>golden altar, and the golden table, whereon the showbread was,

49 And the candlesticks, five at the right side, and five at the left, before the oracle of pure gold, and the flowers, and the lamps, and the snuffers of gold,

50 And the bowls, <sup>1</sup>and the hooks, and the basins, and the spoons, and the ashpens of pure gold, and hinges of gold for the doors of the house within, even for the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, to wit, of the Temple.

51 So was finished all the work that king Solomon made for the house of the Lord, and Solomon brought in the things which <sup>4</sup>David his father had dedicated: the silver and the gold and the vessels, and laid them among the treasures of the house of the Lord.

Israel, even all the heads of the tribes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel unto <sup>1</sup>him in Jerusalem, for to <sup>2</sup>bring up the Ark of the covenant of the Lord from the city of David, which is Zion.

2 And all the men of Israel assembled unto King Solomon at the feast in the month of <sup>1</sup>Ethanim, which is the seventh month.

3 And all the Elders of Israel came, and the Priests took the Ark.

4 They bare the Ark of the Lord, and they bare the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tabernacle: those did the Priests and Levites bring up.

5 And King Solomon and all the Congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him, were with him before the Ark, offering sheep and beeves, which could not be told, nor numbered for multitude.

6 So the <sup>1</sup>Priests brought the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord unto his place, into the oracle of the house into the most holy place, even under the wings of the Cherubims.

7 For the Cherubims stretched out their wings over the place of the Ark, and the Cherubims covered the Ark, and the bars thereof above.

8 And they <sup>1</sup>drew out the bars, that the ends of the bars might appear out of the Sanctuary before the oracle, but they were not seen without: and there they are unto this day.

9 Nothing was in the Ark <sup>1</sup>save the two tables of stone which Moses had put there at Horeb, where the Lord made a covenant with the children of Israel, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

10 And when the Priests were come out of the Sanctuary, the <sup>b</sup>cloud filled the house of the Lord, 11 So that the Priests could not stand to minister, because of the cloud: for the glory of the Lord had filled the house of the Lord.

12 Then spake Solomon, The Lord <sup>c</sup>said, that he would dwell in the dark cloud.

13 I have built thee an house to dwell in, an habitation for thee to abide in for <sup>1</sup>ever.

14 ¶ And the King turned his face and blessed all the Congregation of Israel: for all the Congregation of Israel stood there.

15 And he said, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who spake with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying,

16 Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city of all the tribes of Israel, to build an house that my Name might be there: but I have chosen <sup>d</sup>David to be over my people Israel.

17 And it was in the heart of David my father, to build an house to the Name of the Lord God of Israel.

18 And the Lord said unto David my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to build an house unto my Name, thou didst well, that thou wast so minded:

19 Nevertheless thou shalt not build the house, but thy son that shall come out of thy loins, he shall build the house unto my Name.

20 And the Lord hath <sup>1</sup>made good his word that he spake: and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised, and have built the house for the Name of the Lord God of Israel.

21 And I have prepared therein a place for the Ark, wherein is the <sup>1</sup>covenant of the Lord which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ Then Solomon stood before <sup>1</sup>the altar of the Lord in the sight of all the Congregation of Israel, and stretched out his hands toward heaven,

23 And said, O Lord God of Israel, there is no God like thee in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, thou that keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants that walk before thee, with <sup>1</sup>all their heart,

24 Thou that hast kept with thy servant David my father, that thou hast promised him: for thou spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as appeareth this day.

25 Therefore, now Lord God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that thou hast promised him, saying, <sup>f</sup>Thou shalt not want a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel: so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walk before me, as thou hast walked in my sight.

26 And now, O God of Israel, I pray thee, let thy word be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father.

27 <sup>1</sup>Is it true indeed that God will dwell on the earth? behold, the heavens, and the heavens of heavens are not able to contain thee: how much more unable is this house that I have built?

29 That thine eyes may be open toward this house, night and day, even toward the place whereof thou hast said, <sup>g</sup>My Name shall be there: that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth in this place.

30 Hear thou therefore the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel which pray in this place, and hear thou <sup>1</sup>in the place of thine habitation, even in heaven, and when thou hearest, have mercy.

34 Then hear thou in heaven, and be merciful unto the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land, which thou gavest unto their fathers.

35 ¶ When heaven shall be <sup>1</sup>shut up, and there shall be no rain because they have sinned against thee, and shall pray in this place, and confess thy Name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them,

51 For they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out of Egypt from the midst of the iron furnace.

52 Let thine eyes be open unto the prayer of thy servant, and unto the prayer of thy people Israel, to hearken unto them, in all that they call for unto thee.

53 For thou didst separate them to thee from among all people of the earth for an inheritance, as thou saidest by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our <sup>j</sup>fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God.

54 And when Solomon had made an end of praying all this <sup>1</sup>prayer and supplication unto the Lord, he rose from before the altar of the Lord, from kneeling on his knees, and stretching of his hands to heaven,

55 And stood and blessed all the Congregation of Israel, with a loud voice, saying,

56 Blessed be the Lord that hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there hath not failed one word of all his good promise which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant.

57 The Lord our God be with us, as he was with our fathers, that he forsake us not, neither leave us, 58 That he may <sup>1</sup>bow our hearts unto him, that we may walk in all his ways, and keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his laws, which he commanded our fathers.

59 And these my words, which I have prayed before the Lord, be near unto the Lord our God day and night, that he defend the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel <sup>1</sup>always as the matter requireth, 60 That all the people of the earth may know, that the Lord is God, and none other.

61 Let your heart therefore be perfect with the Lord our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as this day.

62 ¶ <sup>k</sup>Then the king and all Israel with him offered sacrifice before the Lord.

65 And Solomon made at that time a feast and all Israel with him, a very great Congregation, even from the entering in of <sup>1</sup>Hamath unto the river of Egypt, before the Lord our God, <sup>2</sup>seven days and seven days, even fourteen days.

66 And the eighth day he sent the people away: and they <sup>1</sup>thanked the King, and went unto their tents joyous, and with glad heart, because of all the goodness that the Lord had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people.

20 All the people that were <sup>1</sup>left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, which were not of the children of Israel

21 To wit, their children that were left after them in the land whom the children of Israel were not able to destroy, those did Solomon make tributaries unto this day

22 But of the children of Israel did Solomon <sup>h</sup>make no bondmen: but they were men of war and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots and his horsemen.

23 These were the princes of the officers, that were over Solomon's work: even <sup>1</sup>five hundred and fifty, and they ruled the people that wrought in the work.

24 ¶ And Pharaoh's daughter came up from the city of David unto the house which Solomon had built for her: then did he build Millo.

25 And thrice a year did Solomon offer burnt offerings and peace offerings upon the altar which he built unto the Lord: and he burnt incense upon the altar that was before the Lord, when he had finished the house.

26 Also king Solomon made a navy of ships in Ezion Geber, which is beside Elath, and the brink of the red sea, in the land of Edom.

27 And Hiram sent with the navy, his servants, that were mariners, and had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon.

28 And they came to Ophir, and fet from thence <sup>1</sup>four hundred and twenty talents of gold, and brought it to king Solomon.

1 And the <sup>1</sup>Queen of Sheba hearing the fame of Solomon (concerning the Name of the Lord) came to prove him with hard questions.

2 And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, and camels that bare sweet odors, and gold exceeding much, and precious stones: and she came to Solomon, and communed with him of all that was in her heart.

3 And Solomon declared unto her all her questions: nothing was hid from the king, which he expounded not unto her.

4 Then the Queen of Sheba saw all Solomon's wisdom, and the house that he had built,

5 And the <sup>1</sup>meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the order of his ministers, and their apparel, and his drinking vessels, and his burnt offerings, that he offered in the house of the Lord, and <sup>2</sup>she was greatly astonished.

6 And she said unto the King, It was a true word that I heard in mine own land of thy sayings, and of thy wisdom.

7 Howbeit I believed not this report, till I came, and had seen it with mine eyes: but lo, the one half was not told me: for thou hast more wisdom and prosperity, than I have heard by report.

8 Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, which stand ever before thee, and hear thy <sup>1</sup>wisdom.

9 Blessed be the Lord thy God, which <sup>1</sup>loved thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel, because the Lord loved Israel forever, and made thee king to do <sup>2</sup>equity and righteousness.

10 And she gave the king sixscore talents of gold, and of sweet odors exceeding much, and precious stones. There came no more such abundance of sweet odors, as the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon.

11 The navy also of Hiram (that carried gold from Ophir) brought likewise great plenty of <sup>h</sup>Almuggim trees from Ophir, and precious stones.

12 And the king made of the Almuggim trees pillars for the house of the Lord, and for the king's palace, and made harps and psalteries for singers. There came no more such Almuggim trees, nor were any more seen unto this day.

13 And King Solomon gave unto the Queen of Sheba, whatsoever she would ask, besides that, which Solomon gave her of his <sup>1</sup>kingly liberality: so she returned and went to her own country, both she and her servants.

14 ¶ Also the weight of gold, that came to Solomon in one year, was six hundred threescore and six <sup>1</sup>talents of gold,

15 Besides that he had of merchant men and of the merchandises of them that sold spices, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the princes of the <sup>1</sup>country.

16 And King Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold, six hundred shekels of gold went to a target:

9:20 <sup>1</sup> These were as bondmen and paid what was required, either labor or money.

9:23 <sup>1</sup> The overseers of Solomon's works, were divided into three parts: the first contained 3300, the second 300, and the third 250, which were Israelites: so here are contained the two last parts, which make 550, see 2 Chron. 8:10.

9:28 <sup>1</sup> In 2 Chron. 8:18, is made mention of thirty more, which seem to have been employed for their charges.

10:1 <sup>1</sup> Josephus saith, that she was Queen of Ethiopia, and that Sheba was the name of the chief city of Meroe, which is an island of Nile.

10:5 <sup>1</sup> That is, the whole order, and trade of his house.

10:8 <sup>1</sup> But much more happy are they, which hear the wisdom of God revealed in his word.

10:9 <sup>1</sup> It is a chief sign of God's favor, when godly and wise rulers sit in the throne of justice.

10:15 <sup>1</sup> To wit, of Arabia, which for the great abundance of all things was called Happy.

17 And three hundred shields of beaten gold, three pounds of gold went to one shield: and the King put them in the <sup>d</sup>house of the wood of Lebanon.

18 ¶ Then the King made a great throne of ivory, and covered it with the best gold.

19 And the throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round behind, and there were <sup>1</sup>stays on either side on the place of the throne, and two lions standing by the stays.

20 And there stood twelve lions on the six steps on either side: there was not the like made in any kingdom.

21 And all King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the wood of Lebanon were of pure gold, none were of silver: for it was nothing esteemed in the days of Solomon

22 For the King had on the sea the navy of Tarshish with the navy of Hiram: once in three years came the navy of <sup>1</sup>Tarshish, and brought gold and silver, ivory, and apes and peacocks.

23 So King Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth both in riches and in wisdom.

24 And all the world sought to see Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart,

25 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, and armor, and sweet odors, horses and mules, from year to year.

26 Then Solomon gathered together <sup>c</sup>chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he placed in the chariot cities, and with the King at Jerusalem.

27 And the King <sup>1</sup>gave silver in Jerusalem as stones, and gave cedars as the wild fig trees that grow abundantly in the plain.

28 Also Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and fine linen: <sup>1</sup>the king's merchants received the linen for a price.

29 There came up and went out of Egypt some chariot worth six hundred shekels of silver: that is, one horse, an hundred and fifty. And thus they brought horses to all the Kings of the Hittites and to the Kings of Aram by their <sup>1</sup>means.

<sup>1</sup> Kings 9:2

1 But King Solomon loved <sup>a</sup>many <sup>1</sup>outlandish women: both the daughter of Pharaoh, and the women of Moab, Ammon, Edom, Sidon, and Heth,

2 Of the nations, whereof the Lord had said unto the children of Israel, <sup>b</sup>Go not ye in to them, nor let them come in to you: for surely they will turn your hearts after their gods, to them, I say, did Solomon join in love.

3 And he had seven hundred wives, that were <sup>1</sup>princesses, and three hundred <sup>2</sup>concubines, and his wives turned away his heart.

4 For when Solomon was old, his wives turned his heart after other gods, so that his heart was not <sup>1</sup>perfect with the Lord his God as was the heart of David his father.

5 For Solomon followed <sup>c</sup>Ashtoreth the god of the Sidonians, and <sup>1</sup>Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

6 So Solomon wrought wickedness in the sight of the Lord, but continued not to follow the Lord, as did David his father.

7 Then did Solomon build an high place for Chemosh, the <sup>1</sup>abomination of Moab, in the mountain that is over against Jerusalem, and unto Molech the abomination of the children of Ammon.

8 And so did he for all his outlandish wives, which burnt incense and offered unto their gods.

9 Therefore the Lord was angry with Solomon, because he had turned his heart from the Lord God of Israel, <sup>d</sup>which had appeared unto him twice,

10 And had given him a <sup>c</sup>charge concerning this thing, that he should not follow other gods: but he kept not that, which the Lord had commanded him.

11 Wherefore the Lord said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as <sup>1</sup>this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my Covenant, and my statutes (which I commanded thee) <sup>f</sup>I will surely rent thy kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant.

12 Notwithstanding in thy days I will not do it, because of David thy father, but I will rent it out of the hand of thy son:

13 Howbeit I will not rent all the kingdom, but will give one <sup>1</sup>tribe to thy son, because of David my servant, and because of Jerusalem which I have chosen.

14 ¶ Then the Lord stirred up an adversary unto Solomon, even Hadad the Edomite, of the king's <sup>1</sup>seed, which was in Edom.

10:19 <sup>1</sup> As the chair bows, or places to lean upon.

10:22 <sup>1</sup> By Tarshish is meant Cilicia, which was abundant in variety of precious things.

10:27 <sup>1</sup> Or, he made silver as plenteous as stones.

10:28 <sup>1</sup> Or, for the company of the King's merchants did receive a number at a price.

10:29 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, hands.

11:1 <sup>1</sup> Which were idolaters.

11:3 <sup>1</sup> Or, Queens.

<sup>2</sup> To whom appertained no dowry.

11:4 <sup>1</sup> He served not God with a pure heart.

11:5 <sup>1</sup> Who was also called Molech, verse 7, read 2 Kings 23:10.

11:7 <sup>1</sup> Thus the Scripture termeth whatsoever man doth reverence and serve as God.

11:11 <sup>1</sup> That thou hast forsaken me and worshipped idols.

11:13 <sup>1</sup> Because the tribes of Judah and Benjamin had their possessions mixed, they are here taken as one tribe.

11:14 <sup>1</sup> Of the king of Edom's stock.

15 <sup>a</sup>For when David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the host had smitten all the males in Edom, and was gone up to bury the <sup>1</sup>slain,

16 (For six months did Joab remain there and all Israel, till he had destroyed all the males in Edom.)

17 Then this Hadad <sup>1</sup>fled, and certain other Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt, Hadad being yet a little child.

18 And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran, and took men with them out of Paran, and came to Egypt unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, which gave him an house, and appointed him vintles and gave him land.

19 So Hadad <sup>1</sup>found great favor in the sight of Pharaoh, and he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, even the sister of Tahpenes the Queen.

20 And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house: and Genubath was in Pharaoh's house among the sons of Pharaoh.

21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country.

22 But Pharaoh said unto him, What hast thou lacked with me, that thou wouldest thus go to thine own country? And he answered, Nothing, but in any wise let me go.

23 ¶ <sup>b</sup>And God stirred him up another adversary, Rezon the son of Eliadah, which <sup>1</sup>fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah.

24 And he gathered men unto him, and had been captain over the company, when David slew them. And they went to Damascus, and dwelt there, <sup>1</sup>and they made him king in Damascus.

25 Therefore was he an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon: besides the evil that Hadad did, he also abhorred Israel, and reigned over Aram

26 ¶ <sup>i</sup>And Jeroboam the son of Nebat an Ephraimite of Zereda Solomon's servant (whose mother was called Zeruah a widow) lifted up his hand against the king.

27 And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king, When Solomon built Millo, he repaired the broken places of the city of David his father.

28 And this man Jeroboam was a man of strength and courage, and Solomon seeing that the young man was meet for the work, he made him <sup>1</sup>overseer of all the labor of the house of Joseph.

29 And at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, the Prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way, having a new garment on him, and they two were alone in the field.

30 Then Ahijah caught the new garment that was on him, and <sup>1</sup>rent it in twelve pieces,

31 And said to Jeroboam, Take unto thee ten pieces: for thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Behold, I will rent the kingdom out of the hands of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee.

32 But he shall have one tribe for my servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem the city, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel,

33 Because they have forsaken me, and have worshipped Ashtoreth the god of the Sidonians, and Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the Ammonites, and have not walked in my ways (to <sup>1</sup>do right in mine eyes, and my statutes, and my laws) as did David his father.

34 But I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand: for I will make him prince all his life long for David my servant's sake, whom I have chosen, and who kept my commandments and my statutes.

35 <sup>1</sup>But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it unto thee, even the ten tribes.

36 And unto his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant may have a <sup>1</sup>light always before me in Jerusalem the city, which I have chosen me to put my Name there.

37 And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign <sup>1</sup>even as thine heart desireth, and shalt be king over Israel.

38 And if thou hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do right in my sight, to keep my statutes and my commandments as David my servant did, then will I be with thee, and build thee a sure house, as I built unto David, and will give Israel unto thee.

39 And I will <sup>1</sup>for this afflict the seed of David, <sup>2</sup>but not forever.

40 ¶ Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam, and Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt unto Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

41 And the rest of the words of Solomon, and all

11:15 <sup>1</sup> Of the Edomites.

11:17 <sup>1</sup> Thus God reserved this idolater to be a scourge to punish his people's sins.

11:19 <sup>1</sup> God brought him to honor, that his power might be more able to compass his enterprises against Solomon's house.

11:23 <sup>1</sup> When David had discomfited Hadadezer and his army.

11:24 <sup>1</sup> To wit, the men whom he had gathered unto him.

11:28 <sup>1</sup> He was overseer of Solomon's works, for the tribe of Ephraim and Manasseh.

11:30 <sup>1</sup> By these visible signs the Prophets would more deeply print their message into their hearts to whom they were sent.

11:33 <sup>1</sup> Or, to do that, that pleaseth me.

11:36 <sup>1</sup> He hath respect unto the Messiah, which should be the bright star that should shine through all the world.

that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the <sup>1</sup>book of the acts of Solomon?

42 The time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel, was <sup>k</sup>forty years.

43 And Solomon slept with his fathers: and was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

1 And <sup>a</sup>Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem, to make him king.

2 And when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (who was yet in Egypt, <sup>b</sup>whither Jeroboam had fled from king Solomon, and <sup>1</sup>dwelt in Egypt.)

3 Then they sent and called him: and Jeroboam and all the Congregation of Israel came and spake unto Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our <sup>c</sup>yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous servitude of thy father, and his sore yoke which he put upon us, <sup>1</sup>lighter, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Depart yet for three days, then come again to me. And the people departed.

6 And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that <sup>1</sup>had stood before Solomon his father, while he yet lived, and said, What counsel give ye, that I may make an answer to this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou be a <sup>1</sup>servant unto this people this day, and serve them, and answer them, and speak kind words to them, they will be thy servants forever.

8 But he forsook the counsel that the old men had given him, and asked counsel of the young men that had been brought up with him, and waited on him.

9 And he said unto them, <sup>1</sup>What counsel give ye, that we may answer this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke, which thy father hath put upon us, <sup>1</sup>lighter?

10 Then the young men that were brought up with him, spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say unto this people, that have spoken unto thee, and said, Thy father hath made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us: even thus shalt thou say unto them, My <sup>1</sup>least part shall be <sup>2</sup>bigger than my father's loins.

11 Now whereas my father did burden you with a grievous yoke, I will yet make your yoke heavier: my father hath chastised you with rods, but I will correct you with <sup>1</sup>scourges.

12 ¶ Then Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had <sup>1</sup>appointed, saying, Come to me again the third day.

13 And the king answered the people sharply, and left the old men's counsel that they gave him,

14 And spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke grievous, and I will make your yoke more grievous: my father hath chastised you with rods, but I will correct you with scourges.

15 And the king hearkened not unto the people: for it was the <sup>1</sup>ordinance of the Lord, that he might perform his saying, which the Lord had spoken by <sup>d</sup>Ahijah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 So when all Israel saw that the king regarded them not, the people answered the king thus, saying, What portion have we in <sup>1</sup>David? we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse. To your tents, O Israel: now see to thine own house, David. So Israel departed unto their tents.

17 Howbeit over the children of Israel, which dwelt in the cities of Judah, did Rehoboam reign still.

18 ¶ Now the king Rehoboam sent Adoram the receiver of the tribute, and all Israel stoned him to death: then the king Rehoboam <sup>1</sup>made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 And Israel rebelled against the house <sup>1</sup>of David unto this day.

20 ¶ And when all Israel had heard that Jeroboam was come again, they sent and called him to the assembly, and made him king over all Israel: none followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah <sup>c</sup>only.

21 And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he <sup>1</sup>gathered all the house of Judah with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand of chosen men (which were good warriors) to fight against the house of Israel, and to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

22 <sup>f</sup>But the word of God came unto Shemaiah the 11:41 <sup>1</sup> Which book as is thought, was lost in their captivity.

12:2 <sup>1</sup> Or, return from Egypt.

12:4 <sup>1</sup> Oppress us not with so great charges, which we are not able to sustain.

12:6 <sup>1</sup> Or, had been of his ancient counselors.

12:7 <sup>1</sup> They showed him that there was no way to win the people's hearts, but to grant them their just petition.

12:9 <sup>1</sup> There is nothing harder for them that are in authority, than to bridle their affections, and to follow good counsel.

12:10 <sup>1</sup> Or, little finger.

<sup>2</sup> I am much more able to keep you in subjection than my father was.

12:11 <sup>1</sup> Or, scorpions.

12:12 <sup>1</sup> The people declare their obedience in this that they would attempt nothing before the king had given them just occasion.

12:15 <sup>1</sup> Or, the Lord was the cause.

12:16 <sup>1</sup> Though their cause were good, yet it is most hard for the people to bridle their affections, as these vile words declare.

12:18 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, strengthened himself.

12:19 <sup>1</sup> By the just judgment of God for Solomon's sins.

12:21 <sup>1</sup> For as yet he perceived not that the Lord had so appointed it.

23 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and the remnant of the people, saying,

24 Thus saith the <sup>1</sup>Lord, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: return every man to his house: for this thing is done by me. They obeyed therefore the word of the Lord, and returned, and departed according to the word of the Lord.

25 ¶ Then Jeroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein, and went from thence, and built Penuel.

26 And Jeroboam thought in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David.

27 If this people go up and do sacrifice in the house of the Lord <sup>1</sup>at Jerusalem, then shall the hearts of this people turn again unto their lord, even to Rehoboam king of Judah: so shall they kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah.

28 Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, <sup>1</sup>It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: Behold, O Israel, thy gods which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

29 And he set the one in Bethel, and the other set he in Dan.

30 And this thing turned to sin: for the people went (because of the one) even to Dan.

31 Also he made an <sup>1</sup>house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sons of Levi.

32 And Jeroboam made a feast the <sup>1</sup>fifteenth day of the eighth month, like unto the feast that is in Judah, and offered on the altar. So did he in Bethel and offered unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Bethel the Priests of the high places, which he had made.

33 And he offered upon the altar, which he had made in Bethel, the fifteenth day of the eighth month, (even in the month which he had forged of his own heart) and made a solemn feast unto the children of Israel, and he went up to the altar, to burn incense.

13 1 Jeroboam is reprehended of the Prophet. 4 His hand drieth up. 13 The Prophet is seduced, 24 and is killed of a lion. 33 The obstinacy of Jeroboam.

1 And behold, there came <sup>1</sup>a man of God out of Judah (by the commandment of the Lord) unto <sup>2</sup>Bethel, and Jeroboam stood by the altar to offer incense.

2 And he cried against the altar by the commandment of the Lord, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the Lord, Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, <sup>3</sup>Josiah by name, and upon thee shall he sacrifice the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and they shall burn men's bones upon thee.

3 And he gave a sign the same time, saying, This is the <sup>1</sup>sign, that the Lord hath spoken, Behold, the altar shall rent, and the ashes that are upon it, shall <sup>2</sup>fall out.

4 And when the king had heard the saying of the man of God, which he had cried against the altar in Bethel, Jeroboam stretched out his hand for the altar, saying, <sup>1</sup>Lay hold on him: but his hand which he put forth against him, dried up, and he could not pull it in again to him.

5 The altar also clave asunder, and the ashes fell out from the altar, according to the sign, which the man of God had given by the <sup>1</sup>commandment of the Lord.

6 Then the king answered and said unto the man of God, <sup>1</sup>I beseech thee, pray unto the Lord thy God, and make intercession for me, that mine hand may be restored unto me. And the man of God besought the Lord, and the King's hand was restored, and became as it was afore.

7 Then the King said unto the man of God, Come home with me, that thou mayest <sup>1</sup>dine, and I will give thee a reward.

8 But the man of God said unto the King, If thou wouldest give me half thine house, I would not go with thee, neither would I eat bread nor drink water in this place.

9 For so <sup>1</sup>was it charged me by the word of the Lord, saying, <sup>2</sup>Eat no bread nor drink water, nor turn again by the same way that thou camest.

12:22 <sup>1</sup> That is, the Prophet.

12:24 <sup>1</sup> Who of his just judgment will punish the trespasser, and of his mercy spare the innocent people.

12:27 <sup>1</sup> He feared lest his people should have by this means been enticed to rebel against him.

12:28 <sup>1</sup> So crafty are carnal persuasions of princes, when they will make a religion to serve to their appetite.

12:31 <sup>1</sup> That is, a temple, where altars were built for idolatry.

12:32 <sup>1</sup> Because he would the more bind the people's devotion to his idolatry, he made a new holy day, besides those that the Lord had appointed in the Law.

13:1 <sup>1</sup> That is, a Prophet.

<sup>2</sup> Not that that was called Luz in Benjamin, but another of that name.

13:3 <sup>1</sup> By this sign ye shall know that the Lord hath sent me.

13:4 <sup>1</sup> The wicked rage against the Prophets of God, when they declare them God's judgments.

13:5 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, mouth.

13:6 <sup>1</sup> Though the wicked humble themselves for a time when they feel God's judgment, yet after they return to their old malice, and declare that they are but vile hypocrites.

13:7 <sup>1</sup> Or, take sustenance.

13:9 <sup>1</sup> Or, he charged me: to wit, an Angel.

<sup>2</sup> Seeing he had the express word of God, he ought not to have declined therefrom neither for the persuasion of man nor Angel.

10 So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Bethel.

11 ¶ And an old Prophet dwelt in Bethel, and his sons came and told him all the works, that the man of God had done that day in Bethel, and the words which he had spoken unto the king, told they their father.

12 And their father said unto them, What way went he? and his sons <sup>1</sup>showed him what way the man of God went, which came from Judah.

13 And he said unto his sons, Saddle me the ass. Who saddled him the ass, and he rode thereon,

14 And went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak: and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God, that camest from Judah? And he said, <sup>1</sup>Yea.

15 Then he said unto him, <sup>1</sup>Come home with me, and eat bread.

16 But he answered, I may not return with thee, nor go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water with thee in this place.

17 For it was charged me by the word of the Lord, saying, Thou shalt eat no bread, nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou wentest.

18 And he said unto him, I am a Prophet also as thou art, and an <sup>1</sup>Angel spake unto me by the word of the Lord, saying, Bring him again with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water: but he lied unto him.

19 So he went again with him, and did eat bread in his house, and drank water.

20 And as they sat at the table, the word of the Lord came unto the Prophet, that brought him again.

21 And he cried unto the man of God that came from Judah, saying, Thus saith the Lord, <sup>1</sup>Because thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the Lord, and hast not kept the commandment which the Lord thy God commanded thee,

22 But camest back again, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the place (whereof he did say unto thee, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink any water) thy carcass shall not come unto the sepulcher of thy fathers.

23 ¶ And when he had eaten bread and drunk, he saddled him the ass, to wit, to the Prophet whom he had brought again,

24 And when he was gone, <sup>1</sup>a lion met him by the way, and slew him, and his body was cast in the way, and the ass stood thereby: the Lion stood by the corpse also.

25 And behold, men that passed by, saw the carcass cast in the way, and the Lion standing by the corpse: and they came and told it in the town where the old Prophet dwelt.

26 And when the Prophet that brought him back again from the way, heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who hath been disobedient unto the Commandment of the Lord: therefore the Lord hath delivered him unto the Lion, which hath rent him and slain him, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake unto him.

27 ¶ And he spake to his sons, saying, Saddle me the ass. And they saddled him.

28 And he went and found his body cast in the way, and the ass and the Lion stood by the corpse: and the lion had <sup>1</sup>not eaten the body, nor torn the ass.

29 And the Prophet took up the body of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it again, and the old Prophet came to the city, to lament and bury him.

30 And he laid his body in his <sup>1</sup>own grave, and they lamented over him, saying, Alas, my brother.

31 And when he had buried him, he spake to his sons, saying, When I am dead, bury ye me also in the sepulcher, wherein the man of God is buried: lay my bones beside his bones.

32 For that thing which he cried by the word of the Lord against the altar that is in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places, which are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely come to pass.

33 Howbeit after this Jeroboam <sup>1</sup>converted not from his wicked way, but turned again, and made of the lowest of the people priests of the high places. Who would, might <sup>2</sup>consecrate himself and be of the priests of the high places.

34 And this thing turned to sin unto the house of Jeroboam, even to root it out, and destroy it from the face of the earth.

14 <sup>2</sup>Jeroboam sendeth his wife disguised to Abijah the Prophet, who declareth unto him the destruction of his house. 25 Judah is punished by Shishak.

1 At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick.

13:12 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, looked.

13:14 <sup>1</sup> Hebrew, I am.

13:15 <sup>1</sup> This he did of a simple mind, thinking it his duty to declare friendship to a Prophet.

13:18 <sup>1</sup> His fault is here double: first in that he suffereth not the Prophet to obey God's express commandment: and next, that he feigneth to have a revelation to the contrary.

13:21 <sup>1</sup> God would reprove his folly by him, who was the occasion to bring him into error.

13:24 <sup>1</sup> By this fearful example, God setteth forth how dangerous a thing it is for men to behave themselves coldly, or deceitfully in their charge whereunto God hath called them.

13:28 <sup>1</sup> To declare that this was only the judgment of God: for if the Lion had done it for hunger, he would also have devoured the body.

13:30 <sup>1</sup> Which he had prepared for himself.

13:33 <sup>1</sup> So the wicked profit not by God's threatenings, but go backward, and become worse and worse, 2 Tim. 3:13.

2 And Jeroboam said unto his wife, Up, I pray thee, <sup>1</sup>and disguise thyself that they know not that thou art the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh: for there is Ahijah the Prophet, which told me <sup>a</sup>that I should be king over this people,

3 And take <sup>1</sup>with <sup>2</sup>thee, ten loaves and <sup>3</sup>cracknels, and a bottle of honey, and go to him: he shall tell thee what shall become of the young man.

4 And Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah: but Ahijah could not see, for his <sup>1</sup>sight was decayed for his age.

5 Then the Lord said unto Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam cometh to ask a thing of thee for her son, for he is sick: thus and thus shalt thou say unto her: for when she cometh in, she shall feign herself to be <sup>1</sup>another.

6 Therefore when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet as she came in at the door, he said, Come in thou <sup>1</sup>wife of Jeroboam: why feignest thou thus thyself to be another? I am sent to thee with heavy tidings.

7 Go tell Jeroboam, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Forasmuch as I have exalted <sup>1</sup>thee from among the people, and have made thee prince over my people Israel,

8 And have rent the kingdom away from the house of David, and have given it thee, and thou hast not been as my servant David, which kept my Commandments, and followed me with all his heart, and did only that which was right in mine eyes,

9 But hast done evil above all that were before thee (for thou hast gone and made thee other gods, and <sup>1</sup>molten images, to provoke me, and hast cast me behind thy back.)

10 Therefore behold, I will bring evil upon the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam him that <sup>b,1</sup>pisseth against the wall, as well him that <sup>2</sup>is shut up, as him that is left in Israel, and will sweep away the remnant of the house of Jeroboam, as a man sweepeth away dung till it be all gone.

11 The dogs shall eat him of Jeroboam's stock that dieth in the city, and the fowls of the air shall eat him that dieth in the field: <sup>1</sup>for the Lord hath said it.

CHAPTER 14

2 Kings 9:8

12 Up therefore and get thee to thine house: for when thy feet enter into the city, the child shall die.

13 And all Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him: for he only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because in him there is found <sup>1</sup>some goodness toward the Lord God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam.

14 Moreover, the Lord shall stir him up a King over Israel which shall destroy the house of Jeroboam in that day: <sup>1</sup>what? yea, even now.

15 For the Lord shall smite Israel, as when a reed is shaken in the water, and he shall weed Israel out of this good land, which he gave to their fathers, and shall scatter them beyond the <sup>1</sup>River, because they have made them groves, provoking the Lord to anger.

16 And he shall give Israel up, because of the sins of Jeroboam, who did sin, and <sup>1</sup>made Israel to sin.

17 ¶ And Jeroboam's wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah, and when she came to the threshold of the house, the young man died.

18 And they buried him, and all Israel lamented him, according to the word of the Lord which he spake by the hand of his servant Ahijah the Prophet.

19 And the rest of Jeroboam's acts, how he warred, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

20 And the days which Jeroboam reigned, were two and twenty years: and he <sup>1</sup>slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his stead.

21 ¶ Also Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was one and forty years old, when he began to reign, and reigned seventeen <sup>1</sup>years in Jerusalem, the city which the Lord did choose out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: and his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonite.

22 And Judah wrought wickedness in the sight of the Lord: and they provoked him more with their sins, which they had committed, <sup>1</sup>than all that which their fathers had done.

23 For they also made them high places, and images, and groves on every high hill, and under every green tree.

24 There were also Sodomites in the <sup>1</sup>land, they did according to all the abominations of the nations, which the Lord hast cast out before the children of Israel.

25 ¶ And in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem,

26 And took the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the King's house, and took away all: so he carried away all the shields of gold which Solomon had made.

27 And king Rehoboam made for them brazen shields, and committed them unto the hands of the chief of the guard, which waited at the door of the king's house.

28 And when the King went into the house of the Lord, the guard bare them, and brought them again into the guard chamber.

29 And the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in <sup>1</sup>the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

30 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam <sup>1</sup>continually.

31 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: his mother's name was Naamah an <sup>1</sup>Ammonite: and Abijam his son reigned in his stead.

1 And in the eighteenth year of King <sup>9</sup>Jeroboam the son of Nebat, reigned Abijam over Judah.

2 Three years reigned he in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Maachah the daughter of <sup>1</sup>Abishalom.

3 And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him: and his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God, as the heart of David his father.

4 But for David's sake did the Lord his God give him a <sup>1</sup>light in Jerusalem, and set up his son after him, and established Jerusalem,

5 Because David did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, and turned from nothing that he commanded him all the days of his life, <sup>b</sup>save only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.

6 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam as long as he lived.

7 The rest also of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the <sup>1</sup>book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah? there was also war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

8 And Abijam slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead.

9 ¶ <sup>d</sup>And in the twenty years of Jeroboam King of Israel, reigned Asa over Judah.

10 He reigned in Jerusalem one and forty years, and his <sup>1</sup>mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom.

11 And Asa did right in the eyes of the Lord, as did David his father.

12 And he took away the Sodomites out of the land, and put away all the idols that his fathers had made.

13 And he <sup>1</sup>put down <sup>c</sup>Maachah his mother also from her estate, because she had made an idol in a grove: and Asa destroyed her idols, and burnt them by the brook Kidron.

14 But they put not down the high places. Nevertheless Asa's heart was <sup>1</sup>upright with the Lord all his days.

15 Also he brought in the holy vessels of his father, and the things that he had dedicated unto the house of the Lord, silver and gold, and vessels.

16 ¶ And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

17 Then Baasha King of Israel went up against Judah, and built <sup>1</sup>Ramah, so that he would let none go out or in to Asa king of Judah.

18 Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that was left in the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hands of his servants, and king Asa sent them to <sup>1</sup>Ben-Hadad the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion king of <sup>1</sup>Aram that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

19 There is a covenant between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: Behold, I have sent unto thee a present of silver and gold: come, break thy covenant with Baasha King of Israel, that he may <sup>1</sup>depart from me.

20 So Ben-Hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of the hosts, which he had, against the cities of Israel, and smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel Beth Maachah, and all Chinneroth, with all 21 And when Baasha heard thereof, he left building of Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah.

22 Then king Asa <sup>1</sup>assembled all Judah <sup>2</sup>none excepted, and they took the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha had built, and king Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah.

23 And the rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? but in his old age he was diseased in his <sup>1</sup>feet.

24 And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his <sup>1</sup>father. And Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead.

25 And Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel the second year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned over Israel two years.

26 And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, walking in the way of his father, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

27 And Baasha the son of Ahijah of the house of Issachar conspired against him, and Baasha slew him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines: for Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon.

28 Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his stead.

29 And when he was king, he <sup>1</sup>smote all the house of Jeroboam, he left none alive to Jeroboam, until he had destroyed him, according to the <sup>2</sup>word of the Lord which he spake by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite,

30 Because of the sins of Jeroboam which he committed, and wherewith he made Israel to sin, by his <sup>1</sup>provocation, wherewith he provoked the Lord God of Israel.

31 And the residue of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

32 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel, all their days.

33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah, began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in <sup>1</sup>Tirzah, and reigned four and twenty years.

34 And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin, wherewith he made Israel to sin.

1 Then the word of the Lord came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying,

2 <sup>1</sup>Forasmuch as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee captain over my people Israel, and thou hast walked in the way of Jeroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me with their sins,

3 Behold, I will take away the posterity of Baasha, and the posterity of his house, and will make <sup>1</sup>thine house like the <sup>a</sup>house of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat.

4 <sup>b</sup>He that dieth of Baasha's stock in the city, him shall the dogs eat: and that man of him which dieth in the fields, shall the fowls of the air eat.

5 And the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his <sup>1</sup>power, are they not written in the book of the <sup>c</sup>Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

6 So Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah, and Elah his son reigned in his stead.

7 And also <sup>b</sup>by the hand of Jehu the son of Hanani the Prophet, came the word of the Lord to Baasha, and to his house, that he should be like the house of Jeroboam, even for all the wickedness that he did in the sight of the Lord, in provoking him with the work of his hands, and because he killed <sup>2</sup>him.

8 ¶ In the six and twenty years of Asa king of Judah, began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, and reigned two years.

9 And his servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him, as he was in Tirzah <sup>1</sup>drinking, till he was drunken in the house of Arza steward of his house in Tirzah.

10 And Zimri came and smote him, and killed him in the seven and twenty years of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead.

11 ¶ And when he was king, and sat on his throne, he slew all the house of Baasha, not leaving thereof one to piss against a wall, neither of his kinsfolks, nor of his friends.

12 So did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the Lord which he spake against Baasha by the hand of Jehu the <sup>1</sup>Prophet,

13 For all the sins of Baasha, and sins of Elah his son, which they sinned, and made Israel to sin, and provoked the Lord God of Israel with their vanities.

14 And the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

15 ¶ In the seven and twenty years of Asa king of Judah did Zimri reign seven days in Tirzah, and the people was then in camp <sup>1</sup>against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.

16 And the people of the host heard say, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slain the king. Wherefore all Israel made Omri the captain of the host, king over Israel that same day, even in the host.

17 Then Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged <sup>1</sup>Tirzah.

18 And when Zimri saw, that the city was taken, he went into the palace of the king's house, and <sup>1</sup>burnt himself, and the king's house with fire, and so died,

19 For his sins which he sinned, in doing that which is evil in the sight of the Lord, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sins which he did, causing Israel to sin.

20 And the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

21 Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: for <sup>1</sup>half the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath to make him king, and the other half followed Omri.

22 But the people that followed Omri, prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

23 In the one and thirty years of Asa king of Judah began Omri to reign over Israel, and reigned twelve years. Six years reigned he in Tirzah.

24 And he bought the mountain <sup>1</sup>Samaria of one Shemer for two talents of silver, and built in the mountain, and called the name of the city, which he built, after the name of Shemer lord of the mountain, Samaria.

25 But Omri did evil in the eyes of the Lord, and did <sup>1</sup>worse than all that were before him.

26 For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sins wherewith he made Israel to sin in provoking the Lord God of Israel with their vanities.

27 And the rest of the acts of Omri, that he did, and his strength that he showed, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

28 And Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in <sup>1</sup>Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

29 Now Ahab the son of Omri began to reign over Israel, in the eight and thirty years of Asa king of Judah, and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria two and twenty years.

30 And Ahab the son of Omri did worse in the sight of the Lord than all that were before him.

31 For was it a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, except he took Jezebel also the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians <sup>1</sup>to wife, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him?

32 Also he reared up an altar to Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.

33 And Ahab made a grove, and Ahab proceeded, and did provoke the Lord God of Israel more than all the kings of Israel that were before him.

34 In his days did Hiel the Bethelite build <sup>1</sup>Jericho: he laid the foundation thereof in Abiram his eldest son, and set up the gates thereof in his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the Lord which he spake <sup>2</sup>by Joshua the son of Nun.

9 <sup>b</sup>Up, and get thee to Zarephath, which is in Sidon, and remain there: behold, I have commanded a widow there to sustain thee.

10 So he arose and went to Zarephath: and when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow was there <sup>1</sup>gathering sticks: and he called her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.

11 And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thine hand.

12 And she said, As the Lord thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but even an handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and behold, I am gathering <sup>1</sup>a few sticks for to go in, and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and <sup>2</sup>die.

13 And Elijah said unto her, Fear not, come do as thou hast said, but make me thereof a little cake first of all, and bring it unto me, and afterward make for thee and thy son.

14 For thus saith the Lord God of Israel, <sup>1</sup>The meal in the barrel shall not be wasted, neither shall the oil in the cruse be diminished, unto the time that the Lord send rain upon the earth.

15 So she went, and did as Elijah said, and she did eat: so did he and her house <sup>1</sup>for a certain time.

16 The barrel of the meal wasted not, nor the oil was spent out of the cruse, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by the hand of Elijah.

17 ¶ And after these things, the son of the wife of the house fell sick, and his sickness was so sore, <sup>1</sup>that there was no <sup>2</sup>breath left in him.

18 And she said unto Elijah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come unto me to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son?

19 And he said unto her, Give me thy son: and he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into a chamber, where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed.

20 Then he called unto the Lord, and said, O Lord my God, hast thou <sup>1</sup>punished also this widow, with whom I sojourn, by killing her son?

21 And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and called unto the Lord, and said, O Lord my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul come into him again.

22 Then the Lord heard the voice of Elijah, and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived.

23 And Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him unto his mother, and Elijah said, Behold, thy son liveth.

24 And the woman said unto Elijah, Now <sup>1</sup>I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word of the Lord in thy mouth is true.

18 1 Elijah is sent to Ahab. 13 Obadiah hideth an hundred Prophets. 40 Elijah killeth all Baal's prophets. 45 He obtaineth rain.

1 After many days, the word of the Lord came to Elijah, in the <sup>1</sup>third year, saying, Go, show thyself unto Ahab, and I will send rain upon the earth.

2 And Elijah went to show himself unto Ahab, and there was a great famine in Samaria.

3 And Ahab called Obadiah the governor of his house: (and Obadiah <sup>1</sup>feared God greatly:

4 For when Jezebel destroyed the Prophets of the Lord, Obadiah took an hundred Prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and he fed them with bread and water.)

5 And Ahab said unto Obadiah, Go into the land, unto all the fountains of water, and unto all the rivers, if so be that we may find grass to save the horses and the mules alive, lest we deprive the land of the beasts.

6 And so they divided the land between them to walk through it. Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

7 ¶ And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah <sup>1</sup>met him: and he knew him, and fell on his 17:10 <sup>1</sup> All this was to strengthen the faith of Elijah, to the intent that he should look upon nothing worldly, but only trust on God's providence.

17:14 <sup>1</sup> God receiveth no benefit for the use of his, but he promiseth a most ample recompense for the same.

17:15 <sup>1</sup> That is, till he had rain and food on the earth.

17:17 <sup>1</sup> Or, that he died.

<sup>2</sup> God would try whether she had learned by his merciful providence to make him her only stay and comfort.

17:20 <sup>1</sup> He was afraid lest God's name should have been blasphemed and his ministers contemned, except he should have continued his mercies as he had begun them, specially while he there remained.

17:24 <sup>1</sup> So hard a thing it is to depend on God, except we be confirmed by miracles.

18:1 <sup>1</sup> After that he departed from the river Cherith.

18:3 <sup>1</sup> God had begun to work his fear in his heart, but had not yet brought him to that knowledge, which is also requisite of the godly: that is, to profess his Name openly.

face, and said, Art not thou my lord Elijah?

8 And he answered him, Yea, go tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

9 And he said, What have I sinned, that thou wouldest deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me?

10 As the Lord thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, He is not here, he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, if they had not found thee.

11 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

12 And when I am gone from thee, the Spirit of the Lord shall carry thee into some place that I do not know: so when I come and tell Ahab, if he cannot find thee, then will he kill me: But I thy servant <sup>1</sup>fear the Lord from my youth.

13 Was it not told my lord, what I did when Jezebel slew the Prophets of the Lord, how I hid an hundred men of the Lord's Prophets by fifties in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?

14 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here, that he may slay me.

15 And Elijah said, As the Lord of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I will surely show <sup>1</sup>myself unto him this day.

16 ¶ So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him. And Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17 And when Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel?

18 And he answered, I have not troubled Israel, but <sup>1</sup>thou and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the Lord, and thou hast followed Baal.

19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the groves four hundred, which eat at Jezebel's table.

20 ¶ So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel.

21 And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long <sup>1</sup>halt ye between two opinions? If the Lord be God, follow him, but if Baal be he, then go after him. And the people answered him not a word.

22 Then said Elijah unto the people, I only remain a Prophet of the Lord: but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.

23 Let them therefore give us two bullocks, and let them choose the one, and cut him in pieces, and lay him on the wood, but put no fire under, and I will prepare the other bullock, and lay him on the wood, and will put no fire under.

24 Then call ye on the name of your god, and I will call on the Name of the Lord: and then the God that answereth <sup>1</sup>by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered, and said, It is well spoken.

25 And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, Choose you a bullock, and prepare him first, (for ye are many) and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under.

26 So they took the one bullock that was given them, and they prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from morning to noon, saying, O Baal, hear us: but there was no voice, nor any to answer: and they <sup>1</sup>leapt upon the altar that was made.

27 And at noon Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud: for he is a <sup>1</sup>god: either he talketh or pursueth his enemies, or is in his journey, or it may be that he sleepeth, and must be <sup>2</sup>awaked.

28 And they cried loud, and cut themselves as their manner was, with knives and lancers, till the blood gushed out upon them.

29 And when midday was passed, and they had prophesied until the offering of the evening sacrifice, there was neither voice, nor one to answer, nor any that regarded.

30 And Elijah said unto all the people, Come to me. And all the people came to him. And he repaired the altar of the Lord that was broken down.

31 And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, (unto whom the word of the Lord came, saying, Israel shall be thy name)

32 And with the stones he built an altar in the Name of the Lord: and he made a ditch round about the altar, as great as would contain two <sup>1</sup>measures of seed.

33 And he put the wood in order, and hewed the bullock in pieces, and laid him in the wood:

34 And said, Fill four barrels with water, and pour it upon the burnt offering and on the wood. Again he said, Do so again. And they did so the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they
